NEW BISHOP OF PETERBOROUGH IS NAMED

Dr. Lavell Outlines Parole System

75 PER CENT OF CRIMINALS LET OUT BY PAROLE BOARD MAKE GOOD CLAIMS OFFICER

"The Salvaging of Criminals is Subject of Address Delivered.

PAROLE BOARD READY TO CO-OPERATE WITH POLICE

Crime Cannot Be Stopped By Punishment Declares Chief Officer.

CRITICISM JUST NOISE.

Board's Work is to Change a Liability Into an Asset, Speaker Says.

In outlining the work of the Ontario Parole Board, and telling of the methods used in leading criminals back on the road of good citizenship, Dr. A. E. Lavell, chief officer of the board, in an address delivered to the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel at noon to-day, stated that 75 per cent. of the criminals that had come under the influence of the Parole System over a long period of years, had proved successes.

The subject of Dr. Lavell's address was 'The Salvaging of Criminals,' and, without directly referring to the recent criticism made by Chief Samuel Newhall, of the methods adopted by the board of parolling criminals, he drew an inspiring word picture of the board's criminal redemptive work.

Beginning, Dr. Lavell stated that he wanted to make it clear that anything he had to say to-day was not influenced by any recent criticism, and that he had been invited to speak to the local Rotary Club two months ago. "I will say what I intended to say, and nothing more," he declared.

Touched the High Spots.

He stated that it would be difficult to deal fully with the question of salvaging criminals in a half hour's speech, and that he would only touch the more interesting high spots. Lack of time might cause some of the things he would say to appear dogmatic, he explained.

For sixty years, Dr. Lavell declared, he had been up against criminals. While a small boy he played among the prisoners of Portsmouth Penitentiary. His father was jail surgeon there, and allowed his son to mingle with the prisoners without restriction. He could not recall one case when the prisoners had not treated him in the best manner or spoken to him of one thing remotely bad.

Dr. Lavell stated that he had been appointed to the Parole Board without his own knowledge, without any

MOSCOW BEGINS ECONOMY PLANS

EXCLUDE NON-TOILERS.

MOSCOW, Feb. 17. — (Canadian Press).— Moscow authorities to-day decreed that all restaurants in the city should have nine meatless days each month, it being hoped thus to save both meat and fuel.

Under present conditions a laboring member of the population is allowed an average of a half pound of meat daily but even this sharp rationing system has failed to relieve the crisis which led authorities recently to establish a "collective" of all authorities recently to establish all cattle ranches after the manner of the collective farms.

At the same time there is a movement on foot to exclude from all restaurants, all non-toiling elements because of the inability of these restaurants to feed the thousands of workers in the city.

TWENTY-FIVE ARE NAMED TO SHARE SHIP INDEMNITY

100 HEIRS SOUGHT SHARE.

Total Sum Paid Out to Beneficiaries in Ontario, Western Canada and U. S. is $15,546.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 17 (C.P.)—After 118 years of litigation, beginning with complications which attend a breach of international law, and ending in prolonged explorations of the family tree of the late Hon. James and William Crooks, a decision has at last been reached in connection with the disposition of money paid by the United States Government for the "Lord Nelson," Canadian schooner which was captured during the war of 1812-1814.

For months past solicitors representing the Crooks' heirs have been meeting in private and preparing a list of the beneficiaries who are entitled to a share of the $23,644 (less arbitration and legal expenses) which was paid to the Canadian Government two years ago by the United States Government as a belated indemnity to the Crooks' family for the seizure of the "Lord Nelson," 13 days before the war of 1812 officially began. The report was confirmed by Mr. Justice Orde at Osgoode Hall to-day, and authorized the payment of the money to the 25 beneficiaries. The total sum, with interest, now paid out is $15,546. The beneficiaries, who were selected from more than one hundred claimants, reside in Ontario, Western Canada, and in two cases, in the United States.

Following the seizure of the vessel she was turned into a warship, but was sunk near the Niagara Peninsula by a British man o'war.

EFFORT TO SAVE CREW CONTINUES

WRECKAGE TAKEN FOR BUOY.

ASTORIA, Ore., Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—Attempts will be made again to-day to rescue the crew of 65 and seven or eight passengers aboard the steamship Admiral Benson, ashore on the sands of Peacock Spit, off the mouth of the Columbia River.

Thirty-four passengers were taken ashore yesterday by life boats and a breeches buoy before rising seas forced coastguardsmen to halt the rescue operations.

The Admiral Benson, en route from California ports to Portland, went ashore Saturday night in a dense fog. Although the exact cause of the wreck was not determined, some of the rescued passengers related gossip that the wreckage of the steam schooner Laurel on Peacock Spit was mistaken for the first buoy which guides vessels into the river. The Laurel went aground on the Spit last summer and broke amidships with the loss of one life.

Hope that the Admiral Benson could be floated was expressed by Carl Strout, district superintendent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, owners of the vessel.

Throughout the night, while the coastguardsmen maintained watch beside bonfires, the crew aboard the Admiral Benson signalled intermittently that all was well on board.

GWYNETH LOCKIE BEING TREATED

CONDITION IS NORMAL.

That the large police dog which attacked and bit nine-year-old Gwyneth Lockie of this city last Thursday afternoon was probably affected with rabies was revealed by an examination of the dog's head in the Animal Disease Research Institute in Ottawa on Saturday. A wire was received yesterday by Dr. Thomas Johnston, veterinary surgeon, from Veterinary Director-General George Hutton, advising the immediate application of the Pasteur treatment to the bitten girl.

A letter followed this morning from

NEW ENGLAND STORM TAKES LIVES OF TEN

SEASON'S WORST SPELL.

Gales Delay Atlantic Shipping —Extra Tugs Sent to Liners.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—Zero blasts gripped New England to-day with the toll of the winter's fiercest storm set at ten lives.

On the trail of bitter gales and a heavy snowfall which swept the coast line and the interior yesterday, the thermometer dropped rapidly during the day. Cold and exposure and accidents during the storm caused the fatalities.

Exertion and exposure in the severe weather took three lives in this city, and a railway employee was fatally burned while thawing frozen switches. Deaths were attributed to the cold in Lowell, Fall River, Webster and Providence, R.I.

Six-Foot Snow Drifts.

Cape Cod was lashed severely by the storm, with drifted roads holding automobiles and snowplows fast and heavy seas pounding the shore. Below zero weather and a heavy gale all day was reported at Montpelier, Vt., and six-foot snow drifts piled up at Portsmouth, N.Y., before the wind, while the thermometer only got a few degrees above zero before nightfall.

The wintry gale delayed Transatlantic and coastline shipping many hours. Extra tugs aided the Cedric, inbound from Liverpool, to her berth after arrival in the outer harbor three hours later, and the Cleveland, from Bremen, due yesterday, reported by wireless that heavy weather would delay her arrival until late today. The City of Montgomery, from Savannah, was reported anchored off Gay Head.

Borland's Body Is Found Under 5 Feet of Snow

POINT BARROW, Alaska, Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—The body of Earl Borland was found last Thursday, wireless advices received here to-day said. The body was covered with five feet of snow and was near the engine which had been thrown 100 feet from the wrecked plane in which Carl Ben Eielson and Borland were flying to the ice-bound steamer Nanuk, November 9.

Nineteen men searching for Eielson's body resumed work today after a three days' interruption due to storms. It was believed that Borland was instantly killed when the plane struck the tundra. His body was taken to camp and will be moved to the motorship Nanuk to-morrow.

The searchers are working under hazardous conditions, living in tents and snowhouses. Pilot Harold Gillam, returning from the scene of the search, brought word of the finding of Borland's body.

THREE ARE HURT IN OTTAWA FIRE

$100,000 DAMAGE.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 17 (C.P.) — Three persons were injured and $100,000 damage caused when fire swept through a three-storey apartment block over Slover's departmental store at York and Williams streets early this morning. A general alarm brought fire-fighting equipment from all parts of the city to fight the spectacular blaze.

More than forty people residing in the eight-family apartment were forced to flee in their night clothes when the blaze was discovered shortly before one o'clock. All reached the street in safety. The three injured, who were residents of the apartment, were hurt when a smoke explosion threw a shower of bricks into the crowd of spectators. Their injuries were not serious.

BED-RIDDEN MAN PERISHES IN FIRE WITH TINY BABY

Lady of House Leaves Water For Washing on Fire While Visiting Neighbor.

BELIEVE STOVE OVERHEATED

One Child Escapes Flames, But is Too Bewildered to Bring Out Baby.

BRANTFORD, Feb. 17. (C.P.) — A bed-ridden old man and a two-months-old baby were burned to death when fire destroyed the tiny home of Albert Garlow, on the Six Nations Reserve, Saturday evening. The old man was Benjamin Garlow, in his 80th year. Albert Garlow, the man of the house, was away, leaving his wife and two small sons, and the old man, a relative, alone. The wife, who was preparing to do the washing made the fire up to boil the water, and stepped out for a short time, leaving the old man and the children, one a little chap running around, while she went to the home of her father-in-law, Alex. Garlow, about a hundred yards away. It is presumed that the stove became overheated, and started the fire which the old man, helpless in bed, was unable to combat. The older child ran out of doors, but was too bewildered and frightened to attempt to bring out the baby. The mother, returning, discovered her home in flames, which had secured such a hold on the frame structure, that rescue of the entrapped victims was impossible.

The building was completely razed. Searchers this morning located the body of the old man, but the remains of the infant had not been found as yet. The house was located about a mile and a half west of Medina, near the Christian Aid Hall.

TORONTO YOUTHS SENT TO PRISON

CAUGHT IN ACT.

OSHAWA, Ont., Feb. 17 (Canadian Press). — Harold Wallace and Kenneth McEwen of Toronto, youthful robbers, who were caught in the act of breaking into the drug store of Jury and Lovell, Simcoe Street, Oshawa, on the morning of Saturday, February 8, were sentenced to five years in Portsmouth Penitentiary and two years in the Guelph Reformatory respectively when they appeared before Magistrate Willis in Police Court this morning.

McEwen had previously pleaded guilty, and Wallace this morning changed his plea of not guilty, made last week, to one of guilty. The Magistrate, however, took the evidence of the police officer who arrested the couple while in the act of robbing the store.

Wallace was given the more severe term because he had previous convictions on fourteen charges of robbery while McEwen, a much younger man, had only one previous conviction registered against him.

MONSIGNOR DENNIS O'CONNOR VICAR GENERAL OF LONDON, ONT. NAMED BISHOP OF PETERBORO

Cousin of Late Bishop O'Connor of Peterborough Will Succeed Archbishop O'Brien.

SPEAKER OF ABILITY AND GREAT TEACHER

ORDAINED MAY, 1909.

Father Gerald Murray, of Toronto, is Appointed Bishop of Victoria.

VATICAN CITY, February 17 (Canadian Press). — Monsignor James Charles McGuigan, Vicar-General of Edmonton, Alberta, has been appointed Archbishop of Regina, Saskatchewan.

Monsignor Dennis O'Connor, Vicar-General of London, Ont., has been made Bishop of Peterborough.

The newly appointed Bishop of Peterborough, Right Rev. Monsignor Dennis O'Connor, P.A.S.T.L. (Pronotary Apostolic, representing the highest degree in the title of Monsignor, and Licentiate of Theology), is Vicar-General of the Diocese of London, Ontario, and president of St. Peter's Seminary in London, since its inception there abouot six years ago, by Bishop Fallon. He was born in London, where he was ordained on May 5, 1909, and has been identified with educational work since his ordination. He is described as a brilliant student and a man of outstanding ability. He is a nephew of the former Archbishop O'Connor of Toronto and a cousin of the late Bishop O'Connor of Peterborough, predecessor of Archbishop O'Brien. He is about forty-five years of age.

LONDON, Ont., Feb. 17. (Special to The Examiner).—One of the most outstanding priests of the diocese of London in educational and ecclesiastical matters, Monsignor O'Connor was born at Blyth, Ontario, of Irish parents. He began his theological training at Assumption College, Sandwich, where he obtained a brilliant standing in classics. Later he went to the Grand Seminary, Montreal, and completed a post graduate course under the direction of the Sulpician Fathers.

Returning to London he was ordained to the priesthood by the late Archbishop McEvoy in St. Peters Cathedral, May 1909. Immediately following his ordination he was appointed to St. Alphonsus Church, Windsor, where he remained for three years. When St. Peter's Seminary was opened in London in 1912 was named to the staff by Bishop Fallon and was also appointed assistant Curate to St. Mary's Church Lyle Street. The following year he was named rector of the Seminary to succeed Rev. J. Tobin.

His selection as Vicar General of the Diocese of London in 1915 was ample evidence of the absolute confidence in him expressed by His Lordship Bishop Fallon. For the past 15 years he has worked constantly and faithfully with the Bishop for the welfare and the development of every cause in the diocese of London, particularly in matters pertaining to church affairs, charitable institutions and especially with the development of the education outlined by Bishop Fallon.

On several occasions when Bishop Fallon was absent from the diocese Monsignor O'Connor was named administrator.

Talented Teacher

Monsignor O'Connor is perhaps best known in Canada for his academic attainments. He has occupied the chair of Professor of Dogmatic Theology at St. Peter's Seminary for the past 18 years and in the class room and as director of the institution has displayed talents as a teacher and an administrator equalled by few.

The rector of St. Peter's Seminary is a speaker of ability, possessing a style more or less unique because of its clearness and remarkable grasp of the subject under discussion. He is the second Denis O'Connor who has attained marked success in the diocese of London, a relative, his namesake was bishop here from 1890

DARING HOLD-UP IS PULLED OFF AT HOME OF R. SHELTON, AYLMER ST.

MAN ESCAPES.

To open her front door at 11 o'clock on Sunday night and be greeted by a hold-up man, who demanded money at the point of a gun, and threatened to shoot her, or her baby, was the experience of Mrs. R. Shelton, 447 Aylmer street, last evening.

She gave the man $7 or $8 from her purse, and then breathed a sigh of relief as he fled away.

It was late Sunday evening, and Mrs. Shelton was sitting alone in the kitchen, her husband and baby being asleep up stairs, waiting for her maid to return to the house. The house was in darkness except for the light in the kitchen. The maid was expected any minute.

There was a slight rattle at the front door and Mrs. Shelton thinking it was the maid, went to let her in. A man thrust his way through the door and confronted her.

Demands Money

In a brusque, hard voice he asked "if the man of the house was home?" Mrs. Shelton said he was, but that he was asleep.

Then the man drew a revolver and levelling it at the woman demanded money. "If you don't give it to me, and snappy, I'll shoot you or the baby."

Frightened beyond measure, Mrs. Shelton ran to the kitchen and returned with her purse. With fear numbing her fingers she fumbled for some bills, which the man snatched. Then he turned and ran.

Mrs. Shelton then called her husband and the police, but the marauder could not be found in the district despite a keen search. The police are working on the case.

Mrs. Shelton describes the man as being between twenty-two and twenty-five years of age. He was a little above average height, wore a peak cap drawn down over his eyes, and appeared to be very grim and sinister. He handeled the gun nervously and always left one hand on the door knob as an avenue of quick escape.

Chicago's Payless Cops Set Record

CHICAGO, Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—Chicago's payless policemen set a new record for arrests yesterday in continuing their war on crime. More than 1,100 suspects had been taken into custody in a 24-hour period ending early last night.

Three hundred and twenty-four known hoodlums, most of them having police records, and seven picked up while carrying guns, were held for a show-up before crime victims.

The anti-gangster drive was accompanied Saturday by a radical depression in robberies. Only 35, less than half the normal number, were reported.

Some of the giant squids and cuttle fish living deep in the ocean have eyes as large as seven by nine inches.

Soviet Orders Score of Churches Turned Into Clubs and Warehouses

MOSCOW, Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press).—The Soviet Government over the week-end ordered more than a score of churches, synagogues and mosques to be converted into Worker's Clubs, schools, grain warehouses, and the like.

Officials declared the churches were closed in line with recent policy on church closing programmes, "in response to the mass demands of the workers." Perhaps as a coincidence the conversion orders came at a time when the foreign press and foreign religious organizations were protesting bitterly at "persecution" of Christians in Russia.

In most of the conversions the church bells were removed and converted into metal for industrial purposes. In a number of towns the Municipal councils, following Moscow's lead, had forbidden ringing of church bells. A total of 11 churches were abolished in the Serpukhoff district alone, while three additional in the Trasuki will be closed shortly.

The closings have thrust a considerable number of ikons on the market which can be bought for a song. Some, made of wood and having no historical nor artistic value, are being sold for firewood, while more valuable ones are deposited in the local museums.

HEAVY PROPERTY DAMAGE FELT AS BLIZZARD SWEEPS MARITIMES

End of April Set For R-100 Flight

LONDON, Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—The giant British dirigible R-100 is now undergoing tests with the possibility that she may make a flight to Canada towards the end of April or the beginning of May.

An official of the Air Ministry said to-day:

"The condition of the R-100 is now being investigated after her recent flight, and when the inspection is completed she probably will undergo another test flight. Possibly toward the end of April or the beginning of May, she will make a flight to Canada."

TO CONTROL REAL ESTATE DEALERS.

TORONTO, Februaryy 17. (C.P.)—With the intention of securing the same control over the real estate dealers and their transactions as they now enjoy in respect of stock brokers, the Ontario Government at the present session will introduce entirely new legislation to prevent frauds against the public.

This legislation will not come down to the House in the same form that characterized the real estate agents act of 1929, but will take the shape of either a direct amendment to the Security Frauds Prevention Act or an incorporation of most of the provisions of this last named law.

50 MILE AN HOUR GALE.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—Heavy damage, particularly in Cape Breton Island, was being surveyed in the Maritime Provinces to-day, following a severe snow storm that swept Nova Scotia from Cape Sable to Cape North, and also struck hard at Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick.

Nova Scotia was lashed for fifteen hours by gales of more than fifty miles an hour. Bitter weather accompanied the storm. It was four below zero here early to-day. All telegraph and telephone lines to Cape Breton were out of order this morning. Advices last night indicated the loss of fishermen's storehouses and gear was the heaviest damage there.

Other damage consisted of disrupted train schedules, roofless buildings, several demolished structures, fallen chimneys and derailed tram cars and a locomotive.

Church Roof Blown Off.

The wind was strong enough to flatten a concrete transformer house at New Aberdeen, tear off a church roof and hurl it through the side of a nearby dwelling, and blow a small store from a wharf to the deck of a schooner in Sydney Harbor.

Deep snow drifts blocked highways and all branch railway lines. Main lines were kept open only by constant effort.

A change in the wind saved the Point Prim lighthouse in Digby County from topping into the sea.

Premier of France is Ill in Paris

FRENCH DEMANDS MAY BE CAUSE OF GREATER NAVIES

TARDIEU ILL AT PARIS.

French Alternative of Mediterranean Pact Receives Little Favor.

LONDON, Feb. 17 (C.P.)—As the Five Power Naval Conference enters its fifth week, it is minus an all important figure. Andre Tardieu, French Premier, whose demand of 725,000 naval tons for his Government has threatened serious possibilities for the outcome of the conference.

M. Tardieu will remain in Paris possibly for a week, getting over an attack of grippe which developed from a severe cold which he had when he left here for his Capital Friday.

Replacing him temporarily at the head of the French delegation was Aristide Briand, French Foreign Minister. M. Briand is a past master at diplomacy and international dickering, but he is neither the highly nationalistic M. Tardieu nor French Premier, and he cannot replace his chief in the conference network.

Very Little Work Done

Officially the delegations expressed no particular pessimism because of M. Tardieu's absence, but some observers put it baldly that very little work may be done on reconciling the French demands with what the other nations think fit and proper France should have, until M. Tardieu is available for further direct discussion of the problem. And, as matters stand, the French demands represent the crux of the conference negotiations, that phase of the parley which largely will determine the naval building programs of the Five Powers for the next few years.

May Cause Building Program.

The situation briefly is this, that France in asking for a total naval tonnage as of 1936 of just less than 725,000 tons, has set a figure involving about 240,000 tons of building in that time. The figure is so close to that which Great Britain has asked for herself and, ergo, that of America, that the British Government may have to build beyond it proportionally, unless France should reduce it.

Great Britain, if forced to build more ships than she and the United States tentatively had agreed upon, would compel the United States to the same necessity. Japan, consequently might also have to rearrange any setting of figures she may have done. The outcome of the situation thus would be naval building programs as contrasted with programs of reduction visualized when the conference first met.

Reduction Past Hope

There is rather general recognition that the conference is past the stage where actual reductions of fleets are going to be possible; the impression widely held is that practically every nation is going to have to do some, perhaps considerable, naval building when the conference is completed; the probable outcome of the conference thus would in its maximum aspect be only limitation, although limitation, for five years even would be a considerable accomplishment in itself.

M. Tardieu's alternative to a tenacious sticking to his figures, a Mediterraneau Security Pact in which Great Britain and the United States would join, is looked upon none too favorably here, either by the United States delegation which wishes to keep itself free from Mediterranean entanglements, or by the British Government.

Hope U. S. Sign Pact

It seems to be the French hope that if the United States could be a party to a Four Power Pact to keep peace in the Pacific she could also sign a Mediterraneau Pact, thus materially aiding arms reduction.

The delegations generally are, at this stage, void of optimism. Some of the press have adopted a frankly pessimistic attitude. Every one probably realizes more than ever before some of the serious and seemingly insolvable problems which are confronting the conference. But hope has not been abandoned that some hope of a satisfactory agreement finally will be reached.

FULL QUOTA OF MUNICIPALITIES LIKELY JOIN IROQUOIS SYSTEM

Campbellford and Orillia Among Latest Corporations to Link Up With Scheme.

MANY BENEFITS.

From the fact that fifty per cent. of the municipalities on the Trent Waterway System joined the Trent Waterway and Iroquois Trail Associations last year under the assessment scheme which was then inaugurated by which each municipality was assessed 5c per capita, it would seem highly probably, considers Frank G. Stinson, that the entire quota of municipalities, numbering twenty, will be included this year.

Campbellford Corporation made the decision to link up with the scheme again this season, at a recent meeting of the town council, as also did the Orillia town council.

In supporting the request of the Trent Waterway Iroquois Trail Association for the grant on the basis of five cents per capita, C. H. Hale of Orillia, recalled that the understanding had been reached with last year's council following the annual meeting of the association in Orillia, that the grant should be made, half to be paid by the Board of Trade. All that was now asked was that this understanding should be carried out.

Mayor Johnston considered the Iroquois Trail a fine idea and said the promise made last year would be carried out as far as he was concerned.

The Board of Directors appointed annually by these Trent and Iroquois Trail municipalities plan to direct the expenditure of funds collected in the following manner:—

(a) Trent Waterway — Iroquois Trail exhibits at expositions such as sportmen's and automobile shows, etc., in the states of New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

(b) Publication of the Iroquois Trail-Trent Waterway Booklets annually in which each muncipality will be given publicity in proportion to the annual grant made the association and also having due regard to proximity of the municipality to popular fishing and hunting areas.

(c) Radio talks describing the Trail and Trent Waterway and describing their recreational facilities.

(d) Maintenance of the Iroquois Trail road signs.

(e) The carrying on of necessary correspondence with tourists and prospective tourists and such other reasonable expenses as may be budgetted for the maintenance of the association headquarters.

(f) Maintenance and arranging for touring bureaux and distribution points for the Trent and Iroquois Trail literature.

PIN TAKEN FROM STOMACH.

TORONTO, Ont., February 17 (Canadian Press). — A safety pin lodged in the stomach of Milton Mowbray, an infant from Brooklin Ont., was removed on Saturday by surgeons at a hospital here. The surgeons had followed the movements of the pin in the infant's stomach for several days and were forced to operate when it became lodged. The baby is doing well.

The Weather

Temperature on Sunday morning, 16 degrees below zero. Highest point during the day 3 above zero. It was a cold day. The lowest temperature last night was 17 degrees below zero. This winter is proving to be an old fashioned one. January had ten zero days, and February up to the present time has had eight. Our lowest temperature this winter was on February 6, 26 degrees below. Cold as that figure undoubtedly is, it falls far short of some other years. Here are a few authentic figures culled from my registers and may be relied upon:

On Jan. 28, 1925, (§ Day) we had 36 degrees below zero. This was a cold winter, as was 1918, as well as 1911 and 1904. The reader will notice that an interval of seven years separates each of these cold seasons, and bears out the belief of some scientists that the weather repeats itself every seven years.

February of 1919, did not have a single day below zero, and the same month of 1921, only one day below zero.

Some very cold days were experienced in 1914, and 32 below was reached.

On February 17, 1896, Peterborough had a record temperature of 38 degrees below zero. This is the lowest official figure I have record of for this city. Considerably lower figures are reached at times in the northern portion of the county, at Apsley and Kinmount, and in the east at Havelock and Norwood.

On February 18, 1882, 34 below was recorded.

During the past 35 years temperatures lower than 26 degrees below have been fairly common. This morning I received the following unsigned note: "Mr. Weather Prognosticator — What does it feel like to be the best-hated man in town? Br-r-rh! Bring on the spring." — W. P.

RACE ENTHUSIAST SHOT IN OFFICE BY UNKNOWN MAN

PURSUIT PROVES VAIN.

Neighbor Has Close Call As Bullet Comes Through Window—Wife Hears News at Theatre.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 17 (Canadian Press).—Archibald Alexander Johnston, former police chief of Medicine Hat, Alberta, a resident here since 1919, and well known in racing circles, was shot to death by an unidentified assailant Saturday afternoon in his office on Hornby Street. The slayer escaped, when he threatened with his gun Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cox, operators of the apartment building in which Johnston had his office, and eluded pursuers who took up the chase in the street. Mrs. Irene Maude Bruum, living in a neighboring apartment building, narrowly escaped death when one of two bullets which were fired at Johnston, went through the window of her kitchen and whizzed past her head.

For some time, it is said, Johnston has been accepting bets on the Agua Caliente races, and police believe that the shooting resulted from racing transactions between the victim and his slayer. Three hundred dollars were found in the dead man's pockets, thus eliminating the theory of a robbery motive.

Detectives who entered Johnston's office found him lying on his back on the floor with blood streaming from a wound on the left side of his chest. He had apparently died instantly.

Johnston, in addition to his racing activities, derived an income from an apartment block which he owned. He also owned a bungalow at Shaughnessy Heights. His wife received the news of his shooting while attending a theatre matinee.

ICE JAM BLOCKS ST. CLAIR RIVER

Ferries Are Tied Up and Commuters on Both Sides Unable to Cross to Work.

BREAK EXPECTED SHORTLY.

SARNIA, February 17. — (C.P.) — Forced into the narrow reaches of the St. Clair River by the relentless pressure of Lake Huron, thousands of tons of ice have jammed the river during the past few days. The Sarnia-Port Huron, Mich., ferries have waged an unavailing fight against the jam, and several times the service has been discontinued. Yesterday the boats maintained a two hour schedule instead of the usual fifteen minutes, but stopped for the night at six o'clock. They were compelled to stop early on Saturday night, too, and many Sarnians returning from Detroit and other nearby American cities, were forced to wait for trains coming through the tunnel, instead of coming by the shorter ferry route.

Piled 20 Feet High.

Looking north from Point Edward yesterday ,the lake was filled with ice as far as the eye could see. Close inshore it was piled 20 feet high, and there was a continual grinding and groaning as the pressure increased. The prevailing north winds forced still more ice down from the upper sections of the lake, and the jam rapidly assumed record proportions.

In many places along the lower River, pedestrians were able to walk across to the American side, and for the first time in some years, foot traffic was also maintained from the south end of Sarnia to Port Huron. However the crossing is very dangerous as the jam is expected to break at any time.

This morning the ferries were still tied up and commutters on both sides of the river were unable to get to work.

"Act of God" Baby Born to Actress

NEW YORK, Feb. 17. (C.P.) An eight-pound female "act of God" bearing a faint resemblance to her father, was born to Helen Hayes, the actress yesterday.

Charles McArthur, playwright, and reformed newspaperman and evangelist, who is Miss Hayes' husband in private life, was reported by his friends to be much better than they had expected. The Yorkhouse management announced that Miss Hayes' condition was "excellent" and that the long-awaited baby—whose advent caused one of the most fiercely-fought theatrical law suits—was "perfectly sound."

OPPOSITION TO DIVORCE IN CATHOLIC PASTORAL

Claims Federal Gov't Could Abolish Divorce Courts If It Willed.

MONTREAL, Que., Feb. 17 (Canadian Press)—Opposition to the erection of a divorce court is pronounced in a pastoral letter signed by Cardinal Rouleau, the Archbishops of Ottawa and Montreal and all the Bishops of the ecclesiastical Provinces of Quebec, Montreal and Ottawa which was read in all churches in these provinces at parochial mass yesterday. The pastoral announces that if it willed the Federal Parliament could abolish the divorce courts already existing in Canada, it could dismiss all private divorce suits, or, at least, could limit their number.

"BON-TONE HELPED ME RIGHT FROM THE START," SAYS MRS. RYAN

MRS. THOMAS RYAN

Mrs. Thomas Ryan, 45 Pembroke St., Toronto, states: 'For a long time I have been bothered a lot with weakened kidneys and which caused pains in my neck that were very severe. I suffered, too, with headaches, always felt tired and draggy, and had hardly enough ambition to perform my simple household duties. It seemed that each day I had less ambition than the one previous, so I finally took stock of myself and decided that I must have something to put me back in condition. I noticed the Bon-Tone testimonials and some from people in my own neighborhood who apparently were in more serious condition than I was, and who had gotten such wonderful results by using this medicine, so decided to give it a fair trial myself. Why, with the first few doses I could see an improvement, and although I have only taken it a short time the results have been marvellous—my kidneys are normal and those pains across my back gone. Headaches have vanished, and I am regaining my old time pep and ambition. I am very glad to take this opportunity to let others know of the merit of Bon-Tone."

Call or write to the Bon-Tone representative who is meeting the public daily at Bond's Drug Store, George and Hunter Streets, Peterborough, Ont., for more information about this medicine, and ask for the Free Booklet, THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

C. SICURELLA IS NAMED GUILTY OF SON'S DEATH

Definite Verdict By Coroner's Jury in Hamilton Case Sets Precedent.

RIGHT ARGUED.

Counsel Contends Jury Beyond Right in Settling Question of Guilt.

HAMILTON, Ont., February 17 (Canadian Press). — Charles Sicurella, 44, was blamed for the death of his son James, aged eight, by a coroner's jury which investigated circumstances surrounding the boy's death at an inquest here on Saturday.

The boy died in a hospital on February 11 from a bullet wound suffered at his home on New Year's Eve. The father was arrested three weeks ago on a charge of shooting with intent.

In their verdict the jury said: "We find deceased died from injuries received from a bullet from a revolver in the hands of his father, Charles, and his father is guilty of manslaughter."

Col. George S. Rennie, chief coroner, addressing the jury before their retirement said they had the right to fix a charge if they saw fit to do so. He recommended they should.

Jury Beyond Powers.

Counsel for Sicurella contended the jury had no right to fix guilt. It could recommend what charge to be laid, he said, but the question of guilt was not within the purview of the jury.

Three youths who were eye-witnesses to the shooting of the Sicurella boy, testified at the inquest they went to the Sicurella home on New Year's Eve to buy wine. The boy was lying on a sofa asleep when a brother entered and awakened him. James got up very sleepy and then lay on the floor. His father ordered him to get up and then pointed a revolver at him and fired as he said, "Look, Jimmy."

GREAT FUTURE SEEN IN CANADA

URGES GOOD WILL.

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 17.—(Canadian Press).—"I believe Canada before many years will be the first of the Dominions to evolve into a manufacturing country," declared Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, ex-Premier and chief of the Conservative Opposition, at his final speech in Belfast Saturday. "The prospects for Canada's future are boundless" said Mr. Baldwin, "and you in this great Ulster have helped largely in the development of Canada into the mighty Dominion she is to-day."

"The most helpful approach to bring closer the ties between the Dominions and ourselves" continued Mr. Baldwin, "is to be found in industry. Free trade within the Empire is truly a great ideal, but freer trade within the Empire is practical, hard-headed politics. While we do not know how far we may be able to go at the start, I believe we could be of great assistance to the Dominions in the development of their industry and such assistance could be given in the way of developing our own industries. This is the only way I can see whereby you may work toward the conception of the Empire as a unit.

Free Trade Inside

"Until you have that idea well in mind" said the Conservative leader, "you cannot begin to approach the wider subject wherein so much interest has been shown of late, namely, the possibility of having your unit protected against the world, with free trade inside its boundaries as there is free trade within the United States.

"Nothing would please me better than to see in operation this great conception. But the last word rests, not with us, but with the Dominions, but with a generous application of good-will we can travel at least some distance along these lines.

ARMS AND HANDS LOCKED

Ontario Man Helpless with Rheumatism

THEN LANDLADY ADVISED KRUSCHEN

Here is another amazing case of the wonderful effects of Kruschen Salts in a hopeless case of Rheumatism. The story comes to us from the sufferer's landlady—read it in her own words :—

113 McNaughton Street, Galt, Ontario.

"I have a gentleman boarding with me and has done for 10 years. Last year he had a very bad turn of rheumatism and could not move arms or hands and was in the hospital for one year. The doctor tried everything, in fact, the doctor said, 'If I could cure you of Rheumatism I would be able to sit in a golden chair.' He came home and I said, 'Why don't you try a bottle of Kruschen Salts. It must be good it comes from England.' He asked me to get him a bottle and I did, and now he can put his coat on and do his own shoes up, which all last year I had to do for him. He is now on his third bottle and says himself that it is the only thing that has done him good."

MRS. SHRUBSALL.

The pains of rheumatism are caused by needle-pointed uric acid crystals forming in the joints. The joints swell and harden, and after a time become locked as in the case of the sufferer mentioned above.

Two of the six salts in Kruschen have the power to dissolve uric acid so that it can be easily washed out of the system. Other salts assist nature to flush out this dissolved uric acid through the bowels and kidneys. Furthermore, Kruschen prevents any more formation of uric acid deposits by checking food fermentation in the intestines.

If you suffer from rheumatism you should try Kruschen without delay.

FREE TRIAL OFFER

If you have never tried Kruschen—try it now at our expense. We have distributed a great many special "GIANT" packages which make it easy for you to prove our claim for yourself. Ask your druggist for the new "GIANT" 75c. package.

This consists of our regular 75c. bottle together with a separate trial bottle—sufficient for about one week. Open the trial bottle first, put it to the test, and then, if not entirely convinced that Kruschen does everything we claim it to do, the regular bottle is still as good as new. Take it back. Your druggist is authorised to return your 75c. immediately and without question. You have tried Kruschen free, at our expense. What could be fairer? Manufactured by E. Griffiths Hughes, Ltd., Manchester, Eng. (Estab. 1760). Importers: McGillivray Bros., Ltd., Toronto.

POLICE ARREST ROY LONSWAY

Man is Being Held as Material Witness in Saturday Morning Fire Tragedy.

TAKEN TO ORANGEVILLE.

DUNDALK, February 16. (C.P.)—Following the death of his wife and two children in a fire which destroyed their farm home in Melancthon Township, four miles from here early on Saturday morning, Roy Lonsway, 36, was placed under arrest last night, and taken to the Orangeville county jail. He is being held as a material witness.

Provincial police officers who made the arrest, said Lonsway told them he was doing chores at time of the outbreak and that he had lit a fire in the kitchen stove prior to leaving the house. The first intimation of the blaze was received by him when neighbors arrived at the farm, Lonsway said.

The Ladies' Aid Society of George Street United Church served a delicious banquet to the laymen of the six United churches of Peterborough, Friday evening, when about two hundred and fifty sat down to tables attractively decorated in the Valentine colors. The head table, at which was seated the speakers, Mr. Denton Massey and Rev. W. Harold Young of Toronto, and the pastors of the churches represented, was decorated with cut-outs of red hearts and cupids. The hearts formed a centerpiece around a pretty frilly red and white crepe paper vase filled with red carnations. Tall red candles in silver holders and serviettes with red cupids completed a very effective decoration. The speaker at the banquet was Rev. Harold Young who with his usual flowing eloquence spoke on "The Losses of Our Gains." At the meeting later in the church auditorium, Mr. Denton Massey's subject was "Modern Youth." A pleasing musical program consisted of a solo by Miss Alma Blanchard, accompanied by Miss Clarry, organist, of Trinity United Church, and the male quartette of George Street Church composed of Messrs. W. H. Cunningham, G. D. Carlisle, A. V. Lillow, S. H. Mitchell. Mrs. Latimer was in charge of arrangements for the supper which was arranged by the social committee and the executive and Miss Mary Elliott looked after the decorations.

FASHION SERVICE

Delightfully versatile afternoon frock for the smart deb and sub-deb that employs orange-red flat silk crepe, so strikingly chic and youthful.

It shows Spanish influence in wide hip sash tied in bow at right side. The circular flounces like all the grown-up models, are placed exceedingly low to keep trim slender hipline.

The moulded bodice has the flattering bertha cape collar that is decidedly new inasmuch as it starts at either side of front, falling softly over shoulders.

It is an economical choice for it can be worn all through the Winter and Spring in this new red shade.

Style No. 3223 can be had in sizes 14, 16, 18 and 20 years.

It is perfectly adorable and ultra-smart in coarse net in tobacco brown shade for formal afternoons and informal evenings.

For real conservative wear, choose midnight blue wool crepe, printed rayon crepe in beige and brown colorings with plain crepe contrast, bottle green canton crepe, rust brown faille silk crepe and feather-weight tweed in Spanish red coloring in tiny self-checked pattern, worn with matching suede belt.

Pattern price 15 cents. Be sure to fill in size of pattern. Address Pattern Department. Our Fashion Magazine is 15 cents, but you may order a pattern and a Fashion Magazine together for 25 cents.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

I KNOW A FEW women who, before starting the housework each morning, read the morning papers through from beginning to end and often this takes as long as half a hour.

• • • • • • •

Many times I have wondered if these women realized that such a procedure is very unwise, in that it makes the mind unfit for the duties that they must do later.

• • • • • • •

It may, perhaps, affect some people worse than others, but in nearly every case what I say is true. And it is a very serious matter!

• • • • • • •

The housewife then, should determine to keep herself best fitted for tasks during the day and if she desires to keep herself fit, there are certain ways and means she can use.

• • • • • • •

One help is to deliberately hold one's thoughts to the accomplishment of a present duty. This can be done in at least two ways.

• • • • • • •

One is to turn your thoughts in the morning to the definite matters that pertain to the routine of the day. You can see how this would be impossible if one started out by reading the papers.

• • • • • • •

Very likely one reads of accidents and others matters which disturb one's mind so that you are constantly thinking of it and consequently you cannot keep your mind on your duties.

• • • • • • •

If you do the result is rather disastrous. Keep from conversing or thinking about disturbing subjects. Do not allow yourself to read a letter, paper or document that will detract your attention from your duties at hand.

• • • • • • •

Use your will power and keep from reading these. Put your work first and pleasure next. Wait until you have the opportunity to read!

• • • • • • •

Concentrate faithfully on the matter and give it the same undivided attention that you have to the other tasks, until the time you can allot it to passes.

• • • • • • •

In doing this, perhaps you can see one step that you can take in the direction of finding a solution to your baffling problem. And then when you again take up your duties, put all disturbing thoughts from your mind.

• • • • • • •

By so doing you are letting your sub-conscious mind come to your aid for that is just what happens.

• • • • • • •

If you should fail in this method, try the second one open to you. This way is much like the first except that the mind is relaxed instead of keying it up with determination.

• • • • • • •

I, myself, think the latter way is the better, but, of course, your opinion might differ with mine. When the mind is relaxed, turn the thoughts into pleasant channels.

• • • • • • •

Have you ever noticed that happy thoughts tend to make one competent? They are stimulating and that is just why they are so desirable.

• • • • • • •

Then when under the influence of the peaceful mind, accomplish the present duties with undiminished energy. When the routine duties have been performed to your satisfaction and you are still in a pleasant mood, tackle the matter that disturbed you before.

• • • • • • •

It does not matter then which one of these solutions you prefer, so long as your problems are solved, but every homemaker, I am sure, will agree with me that she must keep herself mentally as well as physically fit if she wishes to be able to do her duties efficiently.

CUTTING DOWN ON INSULIN.

A physician treating a child for diabetes noted that the amount of sugar in the urine during the way was considerably less than that which was passed during the night.

This was explained by the fact that the youngster was about during the day walking, and possibly playing some.

Accordingly the physician began giving the child a certain amount of physical exercise every day, and found that even less sugar was found in the urine, as the sugar was used up by exercising and the child began to feel better. Continuing the exercises the physician found that he could give the child an increased amount of starchy food, without having to inject insulin.

Accordingly the physician has now laid out a system of treating diabetic children which is proving very successful.

Insulin is given daily until the child gets strong enough to take exercise.

Then exercise such as walking, climbing, running and gymnastics is given, and the amount of insulin gradually decreased.

In the morning the patient receives a large amount of starchy food, and given as much exercise as possible. Insulin is not given before, nor after this exercise. At noon he is given mostly fats (milk, cream and butter) and proteins (meats, eggs or cereals).

In the afternoon a small amount of starchy food and a little insulin is given, and in the evening a large amount of starchy food and insulin.

Now why do I talk about this?

Not that I want to prove the value of insulin because insulin is saving thousands of young lives, and preserving older ones. It has brought happiness to homes where formerly there was only blank despair.

But because it shows, in a dramatic manner, that exercise will burn up the starches and prevent diabetes.

This means that under ordinary circumstances the pancreas can supply the amount of insulin necessary to keep up the heat of your body and give you energy.

However, if you eat more than you need, then your only safe plan is to take more exercise. Also exercise replaces fat with muscle, and you are just that much stronger physically.

2 Glasses Water, Not Too Cold, Help Constipation

One glass water is not enough—take 2 glasses a half hour before breakfast. You get quicker and better results by adding a little simple glycerin, saline, etc., (known as Adlerika) to one glass.

Unlike other remedies, Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removes old poisons you never thought were in your system. Adlerika stops GAS and sour stomach in 10 minutes! Relieves constipation in 2 hours. McDermid & Jury, E. L. Payne, McDermid Drug Co.

W.M.S. MEETS AT NORHAM

Interesting Reports Read on Presbyterial Meeting Held in Campbellford.

GOOD PROGRAM.

NORHAM, Feb. 17 (Examiner Correspondence).—The February meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Norham Church was held at the Parsonage on Tuesday, Feb. 11. Sixteen ladies were present. The president had charge of the business part of the meeting. The literature secretary, Mrs. Harry Wilson, reported the books out in connection with the reading circle. Six books lent by the Branch Travelling Library for six months were on hand. A discussion took place and it was decided to give mite boxes instead of asking for the annual fee. The Auxiliary became responsible for the fee.

The reports of the Presbyterial meeting in Campbellford were given by Mrs. David Evans and Mrs. Lorne Evans. Both reports passed on some of the inspiration received at the convention, and gave many practical ideas helpful to the society.

Mrs. David Evans, leader of Group B, then took charge of the program.

The devotional leaflet was read by Mrs. Bert Nelson.

Two heralds responded. Mrs. West gave a reading on China, and Miss E. Evans told a little story on Korea. Mrs. Harry Wilson sang very sweetly.

The second chapter of the Study Book, "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem" was reviewed by Mrs. C. Peirson, Mrs. George Palmateer and Mrs. R. Mitchell. The meeting closed with prayer and singing, "Jesus Shall Reign."

PROMINENT LIBERAL.

Patrick Mulqueen, of Toronto, Appointed to Replace Major Mulholland.

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—(C.P.)—Canada's first woman Senator will be Mrs. Norman Wilson of Ottawa. This exceedingly important announcement was made from the historic east block Saturday night by Premier King. She will be sworn in on the day of the opening of Parliament. She is the mother of eight children.

Another appointment announced was that of Patrick Mulqueen of Toronto to be a member of the Toronto Harbor Commission. He replaces the late Major Mulholland.

The practice in the Senate in past years, and it is presumed it will be followed in the case of Mrs. Wilson, although there is no hard and fast rule about it, is for the newly appointed member to be introduced almost immediately after the Governor-General has read the Speech from the Throne. Mrs. Wilson will be accompanied by Senator Dandurand as Government Leader and a Senator from Ontario into the Red Chamber, where, at the table, the clerk will administer the oath of office. After this she will be introduced to Hon. Hewitt Bostock, Speaker, and will then be accompanied to her seat. Her title will be Hon. Cairine Wilson.

Declines Interview.

"All this publicity overwhelms me," she said to the Canadian Press representative, as she declined to grant an interview. Requests for interviews and photographs were pouring in on her Daly avenue home, but she declined.

Premier Mackenzie King said that the Government hoped to announce further Senatorial appointments before Parliament opens or quite early in the session. The appointment of Mrs. Norman Wilson of Ottawa to the Senate leaves three vacancies in Quebec and one in Ontario.

LOCAL DRUGGISTS GUARANTEE RHEUMA TO RHEUMATICS

What chance does any sufferer take when Rheuma is guaranteed to banish all rheumatic suffering, muscular aches and pains, neuritis and gout or money back?

Why not investigate this offer? Talk to McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store about it. Rheuma must drive rheumatic poison from the system, bring swollen joints back to normal, and relieve all agony, or it costs nothing.

People so crippled with rheumatism that they could not walk have been absolutely freed from the iron grasp of the demon, rheumatism, with the Rheuma treatment. A few hours after the first dose Rheuma begins to drive the dangerous poison from the body through the natural channels.

Everybody can afford Rheuma—it's not expensive, and money back if it doesn't satisfy.

VALENTINE SOCIAL.

Jolly Affair Held Under Auspices of St. George's A.Y.P.A.

A Valentine social under the auspices of St. George's A.Y.P.A. was held in the church basement on Friday evening. Guests of the occasion were the church wardens and sidesmen and members of the Ladies' Guild, all guests being invited to bring a Valentine in person with them. A pleasant time was spent in music, games, and contests, the balloon contest, which was played ladies vs. gentlemen, resulting in a winning score by the ladies. The mending of "broken hearts" caused much mixing of those taking part, the first three persons to complete the "broken" heart being the prize-winners. Vocal solos were given by Beatrice Curtis and Rev. J. L. Hughes, and a pianoforte solo by Marjorie Sims. A good supply of sandwiches, cakes, and coffee formed a welcome addition to the evening's enjoyment, full justice being done to this part. Jack Adamson, secretary of the branch, spoke a few words of welcome, and Mr. E. Tucker, on behalf of the visitors, extended thanks to the young people for the very enjoyable evening. Members of the A.Y.P.A. who were responsible for the success of the evening were Beatrice Curtis, Hilda Curtis, Marjorie Sims, Mary Bishton, Jack Adamson, and Clarence Hopkins. Rev. J. L. Hughes had charge of the games and contests. Miss T. Allen, president, was unavoidably absent owing to sickness in the family.

SOCIETY MEETS.

Mrs. E. Cooney Hostess to Members of St. George's Church W. A.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. George's Church held their regular monthly meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. Cooney, Lansdowne Street. There was a good attendance of members. The president, Mrs. E. Tucker, presided for the opening devotions. Satisfactory reports were given, the Living Message secretary, Mrs. F. McBride, especially showing much progress in her department, the number of copies sold having increased from 16 to 28, with prospects of even a larger sale. Some time was spent in discussing the working of part of a girl's outfit to form the portion of a bale which is being undertaken this year. Mrs. W. J. Downer, Dorcas secretary being convenor of this. Three delegates were appointed to attend the executive meeting in connection with the world day of prayer. In response to the rector's request for collectors to canvass the district on behalf of the Bible Society, the following ladies volunteered to undertake the canvass for donations: Mesdames E. Tucker W. Carter, J. M. Brownlie, W. H. Andrews, R. King, J. Doggett, H. Wood, and P. Malsch. Several other matters were discussed, after which the meeting closed with prayer. Dainty refreshments were served and the thanks of the meeting was extended to Mrs. Cooney for her kind hospitality.

CUTTING DOWN THE COUNCIL.

Thus St. Thomas is seeking legislative permission to cut down its City Council from a mayor and 11 councillors to a mayor and seven, while New Toronto is asking the right to reduce from nine to seven members.

This trend is significant in the indication it gives of the fact that people are becoming commission-minded; that is, that they are fast approaching the stage when they will demand municipal government by commission in preference to the present method.

It is generally admitted that municipal business is handled with greater despatch as well as with greater efficiency by a small council than by a large and unwieldy body of civic legislators.

That explains the move in various centres to cut down the size of the council, which is, of course, a long step forward in the direction of the commission form of government.

The results attained in those cities which succeed in reducing, their councils will be watched with great interest by the people of other communities.

WISER TO HAVE SERVED HIS SENTENCE.

A contemporary shrewdly points out that the Senator's son who was released after he had served only eleven days of his twenty-day jail sentence on a charge of being drunk in charge of a car might better have refused to be liberated, inasmuch as the attention of thousands were called to the case when only a few people knew about it before.

By this time probably the prisoner himself and everybody concerned with his release will agree that it would have been much wiser if he had served his full sentence.

The whole case is unfortunate.

Had the liberated man been a person with no influence in higher places the pardon granted him might have been accepted as an act of justice.

Under the circumstances, however, the public cannot be blamed for thinking that the prisoner would have spent his whole twenty days in jail if his father hadn't happened to occupy a seat in the Upper Chamber.

There is a general demand for the elimination of the drunken driver from Ontario's highways, and in the face of that demand the release of this prominently connected offender was a travesty of justice as well as a striking proof of lack of judgment on the part of all concerned.

GOOD ELECTION MATERIAL.

If Mr. Dunning is keeping his ear to the ground these days—and he generally does—he will have no hesitation in deciding that one of the most popular proposals he could possibly include in his first budget would be one to materially slash the excise duty on cigarettes.

If there is to be an election this year, and the signs all point that way, the new Minister of Finance would be unable to find any election material more acceptable than a cut that would bring about a sizable reduction in the cost of smokers' supplies.

The Dominion Board of Statistics has never reported on the number of Canadian voters who smoke cigarettes, but the figures as to the consumption each year reach a huge total, which proves that the number of people of voting age who "reach for a cigarette" must be enormous.

There is no doubt that the present tax is exorbitant.

It is an unfair burden upon the Canadian consumer, a handicap to the Canadian manufacturer, a detriment to the Canadian producer, and a direct encouragement to Canadians to smuggle large quantities of cigarettes from over the border where they retail at half the Canadian price.

Mr. Dunning would be well advised to study the situation before he makes the final draft of his budget.

COMPLETING THE CANAL.

Central Ontario again has on its hands the task of convincing a Minister of Railways and Canals that the Trent "Canal" is not a mere useless ditch on which a lot of public money has been wasted, but a beautiful waterway with immeasurable potentialities from a tourist standpoint, and with considerable commercial possibilities. After some years of persuasion, the Hon. C. A. Dunning was prevailed upon to make an official trip over the waterway during the past summer. At its conclusion Mr. Dunning gave a very encouraging interview, in which he said he realized that the waterway had a part to play in the development of this part of Ontario, and that it was his intention to carry it to completion by the construction of the remaining locks on the Severn. But no sooner do we get that far when Mr. Dunning is translated to the post of Minister of Finance, and we have another Minister of Railways and Canals to deal with—a Westerner, and doubtless more or less of a skeptic on this question. We shall hope, however, that before he left Mr. Dunning took steps to fulfill his promise to Mr. Duffus and that the coming session will see a substantial vote in the estimates for construction work on the Trent Waterway. Let us hope also that part at least of the vote may be for the purpose of resuming work on the Severn division, which has been abandoned since the dam at Swift Rapids was completed in 1917. The opening of water communication with the Georgian Bay, for large craft is a matter of great import to Orillia, both from an industrial and tourist standpoint.—Orillia Packet and Times.

THE DOPE PROBLEM.

Mayor James Walker of New York said not long ago that "the drug-crazed boy is New York's biggest crime problem to-day," and that "drugs, dope if you will, form the most damnable curse of modern humanity."

Because these statements are true and because they apply with more or less force to other communities in the United States and to a lesser degree perhaps to larger Canadian centres, the fact that the week from February 21 to 28 is to be observed as Narcotic Education Week sponsored by the World Conference on Narcotic Education is of more than usual interest.

The dope evil is a menace that threatens not only its victims but society at large, for no one is safe when a gunman under the influence of drugs swings into action.

And most of the gunmen are slaves to dope.

To again quote Mayor Walker:

"New York's crime wave? A crop of gangling youngsters—youngsters who under more ideal home environment might be staunch, useful citizens—their spirit of bravado stirred by a handful of conscienceless gang leaders, who play the puppet kids for all the world like a master of a marionette show—the sly, fearful introduction of opiates to these boys, sanity becomes maniacal—a gun never manufactured for immature hands suddenly turned loose in the pulsied fingers of youth—murder!"

EDUCATION COSTS MONEY.

As a result of the opening of the new vocational department of what is now the Oshawa Vocational and Collegiate Institute, the taxpayers of Oshawa will this year be required to provide over $36,000 more in school taxes than was the case last year. This figure, of course, may be subject to revision should the City Council ask the Board of Education to revise its estimates with a view to making an effort to reduce them.

The estimates, however, give some idea of the heavy costs which are incidental to education in these days. The operation of a vocational school calls for much new equipment of a special type, and it also calls for the employment of teachers who are specialists in the various subjects which are being taught.

Since the taxpayers of Oshawa, by their votes on the question, decided that they wished to have a vocational institute, then they must look for heavier school taxes to meet the costs of its operation. There is some hope, of course, that the increase in assessment will enable the Council to meet the need for higher school appropriations without making too great an increase in the tax rate, since increase there must be to take care of the higher Board of Education estimates. The assessment on which the tax rate is to be based is $800,000, approximately, higher than it was last year, and at a tax rate of 42 mills on the dollar, that represents increased revenue of $32,000. On the other hand, there are added debenture charges to be faced that may add to the burdens which will have to be passed on to the people.

The increase in the board's estimates, however, shows the great difficulty which is experienced by municipal bodies in keeping down tax rates. The people are continually demanding services which cost money, and education, while one of the most necessary, is one of the most expensive of them all.—Oshawa Times.

A PRIVATE CALENDAR.

It seems beyond question that the case for calendar reform is making progress. Many nations have committees at work studying the problem, and it is expected an international conference will be called next year under the auspices of the League of Nations to consider a question in which Canadians have a special interest because Dr. Moses B. Cotsworth, of Vancouver, perhaps more than any other individual is responsible for its development.

The National Committee on Calendar Simplification in the United States has issued a bulletin reporting "definite and gratifying progress." It finds that "existence of a strong demand for a calendar change" in that country was proved by two independent surveys of public opinion last year, and states similar surveys are being made in fifteen other countries.

But more interesting evidence is provided by the great mail-order house of Sears, Roebuck and Company, of Chicago, which last month joined the ranks of business houses working under the plan of an unofficial "thirteen period" year. Explaining its plan this comanpy says:

"The calendar to be used by Sears, Roebuck & Company for the conduct of its own business will always begin on January 2 for the first period, and the first period will end on January 29. There will always be four Mondays, four Tuesdays, four Wednesdays, four Thursdays, four Fridays, four Saturdays, and four Sundays in each Sears, Roebuck period. January 2 will be the first day of the period, no matter on what day of the week January 2 falls. For a time it is going to be something of a task to adjust the figures of 1929 during which year the regular twelve-month calendar was followed, and to compare those figures with the thirteen periods of the year 1930. However, after these adjustments have been taken care of, all future comparisons will be accurate and more easily understood than the comparisons which have been made month to month when the twelve-month calendar has been used."

It is emphasized that the plan is adopted "to make more definite and accurate comparisons." And the company's 40,000 employees will be paid on the thirteen-period basis, but in the matter of holidays "and in all other contacts with the business world" the regular calendar will be followed.

"Business would profit from a reform that would substitute months of equal length for the present irregular ones, and permit of direct comparisons from year to year. Among the chief advantages claimed for standardization is that it would be possible to set a fixed date for the observance of Easter, thereby greatly reducing the spring irregularity in business activity due to the widely shifting dates on which Easter now falls. According to the League report on this subject, the churches have raised no dogmatic objections."

And the Journal of Commerce adds:

"Everybody, however, stands to profit by a standardized calendar that will eliminate the year-to-year variability of our present system and enable us to fix our holidays with more precision. These advantages, however, cannot be secured by individual initiative. They require international agreement along the lines suggested by the League inquiry."

Such a momentous modification of the established order as is proposed in calendar simplification must be expected to meet powerful opposition, but the propaganda of Dr. Cotsworth and his associates already has made ultimate action seem not in the least improbable.—Ottawa Journal.

If February 17 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11.10 a.m. to 12.50 p.m., from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m., and from 9.40 p.m. to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., and from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m.

There is nothing of a spectacular or eventful nature predicted for this date, although a moderate degree of success will be generally experienced. A change for the better may be anticipated for those who have been "under the weather." Influences favor health.

The child born on this February 17 will be hyper-sensitive, and although wise and careful training is essential, it would be wrong to bring it up in a silk-lined world, or to inculcate the idea that it is different from other people. It must be prepared to meet the world on its feet.

You are lacking in perseverance and your powers of concentration are weak—your interest flies from one thing to another at the slightest pretext, and you have not yet learned to hold yourself to any one purpose. You are easily distracted, and it is very difficult for you to do things except under most favorable conditions. You have virulent attacks of enthusiasm, but they never become chronic. You do not realize the wisdom of saving your best wind for the 'homestretch"—you are "petered out" the first quarter. If you have met with repeated failures and disappointments, careful self-analysis will probably prove how hazardous these two failings are to you. You must take a tumble to yourself if you ever expect to become a real "winner."

These are admirable traits about you—you have a buoyant, sunny disposition, and others are always glad to do things for you. You make very favorable first impressions—you are thought to be both clever and pleasing. You are always the latter, and you could be the former. Your personality is your entrance key to many desirable fields from which other with more ability are excluded. You have a fund of good humor, and you take your falls with good grace.

THE GREENE MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE

Shortly after Doctor Von Bion's departure two other men from the Homicide Bureau arrived, and the next two hours were spent in interrogating the members of the household. But nobody, except Sibella, admitted seeing hearing the shot. Mrs. Greene was not questioned. When Miss Craven, the nurse, who slept on the third floor, was sent in to her, she reported that the old lady was sleeping soundly; and the Sergeant decided not to disturb her. Nor was Ada awakened; according to the nurse, the girl had been asleep since nine o'clock.

Rex Greene, however, when interviewed, contributed one vague and, as it seemed, contradictory bit of evidence. He had been lying awake, he said, at the time the snowfall ceased, which was a little after eleven. Then, about ten minutes later, he had imagined he heard a faint shuffling noise in the hall and the sound of a door closing softly. He had thought nothing of it, and only recalled it when pressed by Heath. A quarter of an hour afterward he had looked at his watch. It was then twenty-five minutes past eleven; and very soon after that he had fallen asleep.

"The only queer thing about his story," commented Heath, "is the time. If he's telling the tale straight, he heard this noise and the door shutting twenty minutes or so before the shot was fired. And nobody in the house was up at that time. I tried to shake him on the question of the exact hour, but he stuck to it like a leech. I compared his watch with mine, and it was O. K. Anyhow, there's nothing much to the story. The wind mighta blown a door shut, or he mighta heard a noise out in the street and thought it was in the hall."

"Nevertheless, Sergeant," put in Vance, "if I were you I'd file Rex's story away for future meditation. Somehow it appeals to me."

Heath looked up sharply and was about to ask a question; but he changed his mind and said merely: "It's filed." Then he finished his report to Markham.

After interrogating the occupants of the house he had gone back to the Bureau, leaving his men on guard, and set the machinery of his office in operation. He had returned to the Greene mansion early that morning, and was now waiting for the Medical Examiner, the figner-prints experts, and the official photographer. He had given orders for the servants to remain in their quarters, and had instructed Sproot to serve breakfast to all the members of the family in their own rooms.

"This thing's going to take work, sir," he concluded. "And it's going to be touchy going, too."

Markham nodded gravely, and glanced toward Vance, whose eyes were resting moodily on an old oil-painting of Tobias Greene.

"Does this new development help co-ordinate any of your former impressions?" he asked.

"It at least substantiates the feeling I had that this old house reeks with a deadly poison," Vance replied. "This thing is like a witches' sabbath." He gave Markham a humorous smile. "I'm beginning to think your task is going to take on the nature of exercising devils."

Markham grunted.

"I'll leave the magic potions to you . . Sergeant, suppose we take a look at the body before the Medical Examiner gets here."

Heath led the way without a word. When we reached the head of the stairs he took a key from his pocket and unlocked the door to Chester's room. The electric lights were still burning—sickly yellow disks in the gray daylight which filtered in from the windows above the river.

The room, long and narrow, contained an anachronistic assortment of furniture. It was a typical man's apartment, with an air of comfortable untidiness. Newspapers and sports magazines cluttered the table and desk; ash-trays were everywhere; an open cellaret stood in one corner; and a collection of golf-bags lay on the tapestried Chesterfield. The bed, I noticed, had not been slept in.

In the centre of the room, beneath an old-fashioned cutglass chandelier, was a Chippendale "kneehole" desk, beside which stood a sleepy-hollow chair. It was in this chair that the body of Chester Green, blad in dressing-gown and slippers, reclined. He was slumped a little forward, the head turned slightly back and resting against the tufted upholstery. The light from the chandelier cast a spectral illumination on his face; and the sight of it laid a spell of horror on me. The eyes, normally prominent, now seemed to be protruding from their sockets in a stare of unutterable amazment; and the sagging chin and flabby parted lips intensified this look of terrified wonder.

"Would you say, Sergeant," he asked, without looking up, "that Chester and Julia saw the same thing as they passed from this world?"

Heath coughed uneasily.

"Well," he admitted, "something surprised them, and that's a fact."

"Surprised them! Sergeant, you should thank your Maker that you are not cursed with an imagination. The whole truth of this fiendish business lies in those bulbous eyes and that gaping mouth. Unlike Ada, both Julia and Chester saw the thing that menaced them; and it left them stunned and aghast."

"Well, we can't get any information out a them." Heath's practicality as usual was uppermost.

"Not oral information, certainly."

"Come, come, Vance. Be tangible." Markham spoke with acerbity. "What's in your mind?"

"'Pon my word, I don't know. It's too vague." He leaned over and picked up a small book from the floor just beneath where the dead man's hand hung over the arm of the chair. "Chester apparently was immersed in literature at the time of his taking off." He opened the book casually. "Hydrotherapy and Constipation.' Yes, Chester was just the kind to worry about his colon. Some one probably told him that intestinal statis interfere with the proper stance. He's no doubt clearing the asphodel from the Elysian fields at the present moment preparat'ry to laying out a golf-course."

He became suddenly serious.

"You see what this book means, Markham? Chester was sitting here reading when the murderer came in. Yet he did not so much as rise or call out. Furthermore, he let the intruder stand directly in front of him. He did not even lay down his book, but sat back in his chair relaxed. Why? Because the murderer was some one Chester knew—and trusted! And when the gun was suddenly brought forth and pointed at his heart, he was too astounded to move. And in that second of bewilderment and unbelief the trigger was pulled the bullet entered his heart."

Markham slowly nodded, in deep perplexity, and Heath studied the attitude of the dead man more closely.

"That's a good theory," the Sergeant conceded finally. "Yes, he musta let the bird get right on top of him without suspecting anything. Same like Julia did."

"Exactly, Sergeant. The two murderers constitute a most suggestive parallel."

"Still and all, there's one point you're overlooking." Heath's brow was roughened in a troubled frown. "Chester's door mighta been unlocked last night, seeing as he hadn't gone to bed, and so this person coulda walked in without any trouble. But Julia, now, was already undressed and in bed; and she always locked her door at night. Now, how would you say this person with the gun got into Julia's room, Mr. Vance?"

"There's no difficulty about that. Let us say, as a tentative hypothesis, that Julia had disrobed, switched off the lights, and climbed into her queenly bed. Then came a tap on the door-perhaps a tap she recognized. She rose, put on the lights, opened the door, and again repaired to her bed for warmth while she held parley with her visitor. Maybe,—who knows?—the visitor sat on the edge of the bed during the call. Then suddenly the visitor produced the revolver and fired, and made a hurried exit, forgetting to switch the lights off. Such a theory—though I don't insist on the details—would square neatly with my idea regarding Chester's caller."

"It may've been like you say," admitted Heath dubiously. "But why all the hocus-pocus when it came to shooting Ada? That job was done in the dark."

"The rationalistic philosophers tell us, Sergeant"— "that there's a reason for everything, but that the finite mind is woefully restricted."

Successful Afafir Held Under Auspices of Campbellford C.W.L.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 17 (Examiner Correspondence).—Amid a mase of hearts and arrows, the Valentine euchre and dance staged by the C.W.L., which took place in their hall Friday evening, proved an outstanding success. Card tables, walls and electric light fittings were profusely decorated, transforming the hall into a palace of delight. They were in play twenty-four tables. The winners were as follows. For game—Ladies, Mrs. Roy Sherwin; Gents, Mr. V. Farrel. Lone hands—Ladies, Miss B. Shannon; Gents, Mr. W. J. Smith. Lucky number, Miss May Callaghan.

After the game lunch was served by the ladies. This consisted of an individual box to every person, each having a Valentine and well filled with eats. During the lunch period, Mrs. J. Black entertained with a recitation entitled "Too Utterly Utter." The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

A LESSON FOR US.

To the Editor of The Examiner.

Sir,—Charles Evans Hughes has been appointed by the President and Congress of the United States to the most responsible position in that country, viz., Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Ex-President Taft was the previous holder of that position, and was appointed in the same way. If the system of seniority had been observed as we hear so much about here neither of these men would have got the job.

An Investment that does not fluctuate in value – Life Insurance

OWNERS of life insurance have had occasion recently to compare the stability of this form of investment with that of even the highest grade securities.

A chart of the market price averages of leading stocks for twenty years shows an irregular line that rises and dips, sometimes vertically, with "peaks and valleys".

There are no "depressions" in the investment values of life insurance policies. They do not fluctuate with business cycles.

Daily Averages in 1929

2,233 per day, Claims Paid.

20,674 per day, Policies Issued and Revived.

$11,137,296 per day in Amount of Life Insurance Issued, Revived and Increased.

$2,026,714 per day in Payments to Policyholders and Addition to Reserve.

$1,039,881 per day in Increase of Assets.

FROM year to year, the 44 million Metropolitan Life Insurance policies show a steady increase in values to policyholders.

The man who regularly invests part of his earnings in life insurance can go to sleep each night with the knowledge that he is building an estate of the greatest security and with a sure investment return for every dollar paid in.

Life insurance is an investment whose value constantly increases the longer it is kept in force.

Work is a Pleasure Without Backache

Says Manitoba Lady Who Used Dodd's Kidney Pills

"I take pleasure in telling you how delighted I am with Dodd's Kidney Pills," writes Mrs. C. Brown, 159 Blenheim Avenue, Winnipeg, Man. "I suffered for twelve months with my Kidneys. I took four boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now I am without Backache. Work is a pleasure. I certainly will not be without a box in my home."

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

Winnipeg, February 17. — Improved export business reports failed to halt the decline in wheat Saturday and closing quotations were 1 3-8c to 1 7-8c lower. May was cut down 1 3-8c and July 1 1-4c, though October's decline was only 7-8c.

Good resting orders brought recovery from a break of 1½c at the openng, recovering almost the entire loss, but outside buying failed to recover the entire drop that sent prices to low points for the day in the late trading.

Export business in cash wheat was very quiet, and oats was the only coarse grain to attract the least buying interest.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, February 17. — As forecast by local wholesalers toward the close of last week, egg prices, as quited to the retail trade, have undergone another downward revision of one to two cents per dozen on the fresh grades. Very few eggs are now left on the market, and on these also prices have been reduced. Dealers report the continuation of a strong demand which developed a few weeks ago, and though Canadian production is increasing but slowly, sufficient American eggs are being imported to meet the steady demand.

A slight improvement in out-of-town demand for finest New Zealand was the main feature of the local butter market at the week-end. A generally firm tone continued to prevail, with several car lots changing hands at 36c to 36½c in spot, but with the greater part of the morning's dealings confined to odd lots.

Potatoes held steady at the week-end, prices remaining unchanged. No changes in prices of dressed poultry were reported at the week-end.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17. — Plenty of wheat for sale here Saturday on all hard spots proved to be more of a weight on values than buyers were prepared for. Export business in wheat from North America was almost at a halt totalling only 500,000 bushels, chiefly Canadian, and more than half of it to China. Meanwhile, Agentine wheat was being offered to Europe at below a parity compared to either the United States or Canada.

Chicago closing prices on wheat were unsettled at but little above the days bottom level, 7-8c to 1¼c a bushel below yesterday's finish. Corn closed ½c to 3-4c down; oats ½c to ½c off, and provisions varying from 2c to 5c decline to 7c advance.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by nigh medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Loch Lomond Rebekah Lodge No. 248 Hold Annual Festival at Campbellford.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 17 (Examiner Correspence)—Installation of officers and the initiation of three new members featured the annual function of Loch Lomond Rebekah Lodge, No. 248, in the lodge room, Ferris Block, last week. District Deputy Sister E. Taylor, Brighton, Ont., was the guest visitor.

The new officers are as follows: P.N.G., Sister H. Jeffs; N.G., Sister L. Simpson; V.G., Sister Gertrude Jeffs; Recording Secretary, Sister Mary Phillips; Financial Secretary, Sister Della Petherick; Treasurer, Sister M. Mills; R.S.N.G., Brother T. Craighead; L.S.N.G., Sister Reta Cochrane; R.S.V.G., Sister Edith Scott; L.S.V.G., Sister E. M. Hatfield; Conductor, Sister E. M. Palliser; Warden, Sister Janet Finney; Chaplain, Sister Stella Keir; Inside Guardian, Sister C. Wynn; and Outside Guardian, Brother Roy Loucks.

The three new members are, O. Burgis, Roy Loucks, and Gerald West.

Following the work, a chicken supper was served by the ladies; during which S. A. McGuire, in a very able manner, expressed his appreciation of the work of the lodge and indulged for a short time in poetic eloquence.

At the close of the evening, a very interesting function took place, when on behalf of the lodge, Sister L. Simpson presented a pair of silver salt and pepper shakers to Sister May Phillips, for her splendid work as leader of the degree team. Sister Phillips responded in a few well-chosen words for the token of esteem and appreciation offered her.

SPEAKER OUTLINES WORK OF ANGLICAN NATIONAL BOARD

Canon S. Gould Addresses Congregation of Christ Church, Campbellford.

VISIT ALL DIOCESES.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 17.— (Examiner Staff Correspondence.)— Representing the Anglican Field Commission, Canon S. Gould of Toronto, was the special speaker at the morning service at Christ church yesterday. The speaker, in a masterly way, outlined the work of the Anglican National Commission. The service which was choral, was conducted by the Rector, Rev. N. Clark Wallace. The choir, under the direction of William Pierson, organist, rendered special music.

Canon Gould, in a brief introduction, explained the organization of the Commission. It had been appointed at the request of the General Synod, to represent all spheres of church life, and consisted of 34 members. This commission had in turn appointed a field commission, consisting of three members, the Lord Bishop of Niagara, Canon Gould and Chancellor Gisborn, and with their appointment they had received a definite command, said the speaker, "To make a complete survey of all the problems and needs of the Anglican church in Canada." The Field Commission had gone forth, and in the past two years had surveyed seventeen out of the 26 dioceses of this country. The method used was that of conference and meeting all the representative groups of church people in every diocese. "It was not a sign of weakness that the commission had been appointed," said the speaker, "but the measuring of the church's strength and the summing up of her assets, so that she could boldly face the future and its possibilities."

MIXED IDEAS.

Of the problems of the church, Canon Gould thought that three were pre-eminent, Distance, Population and Modern Thought. "Canadians have very little conception of the vastness of their country," he said.

A country that embraces every geographical condition, varied climate and area hard to realize. Added to this was the scant population, and mixed ideas, ideals and blood. He thought that the group system, too, a bad one. "Every immigrant coming to Canada, brings with them their own ideas of family life and state government," said Canon Gould, and when they settled together the tendency was to retain those ideas, instead of being absorbed into national life. Our object should be the building up of a common peoples with a great mass of common ideas and ideals. Along this line, said the speaker, the Church of England has a contribution to make that no other body could make." That was the building up of British tradition. He had accomplished the task in the Old Land by solidifying the ideas and ideals of the Scotch, Irish, English and Welsh, and creating that tradition so dear to the hearts of the British. It was the Church's contribution and task in Canada.

Modern Thought

Speaking of Modern Thought, Canon Gould said it was a problem shared by the world as a whole, and the outcome of the World War. It has done a lot, he said, in bringing the nations of the earth together in mutual understanding, but there was the fear of it destroying Christian faith. "We must never forget the love of God and all it stands for," the speaker said. It is the love that is the key-note of life."

Chancellor Gisborn, who was to have been the special preacher, was scheduled to address congregations in the Lakefield district yesterday.

OBITUARY

DANIEL WHETUNG.

The funeral of Daniel Whetung Sr., was held from his late residence, Curve Lake, to Curve Lake Cemetery, on Friday afternoon, and was attended by numerous friends which he had won during a lifetime of unfailing good humor. It was said to be the largest funeral ever held at Curve Lake.

His sons, Chief Daniel Whetung Jr. and Albert Whetung, desire to thank the many friends who visited the hospital and were so kind during their father's illness. They are extremely grateful to the superintendent and nurses of Nicholls Hospital and to all who sent floral tributes.

The service was conducted by the local pastor, Mr. Branscombe, Rev. T. M. Wesley of Lakefield, and Rev W. S. Edgar of Gilmour Memorial Church, Smith Township.

SIDNEY FITZGERALD.

MILLBROOK, February 17 (Examiner Correspondence). — Word was received on Sunday of the death of Sidney Fitzgerald, aged sixty-six years, a lifelong resident of Millbrook until the death of his mother, Mrs John Deyell, some months ago, since which time he has lived with his brother-in-law and sister, Colonel and Mrs. J. A. V. Preston, at Orangeville, Ontario.

Mr. Fitzgerald's death followed an attack of flu from which he had been suffering for the past week and from which until within the last two or three days, hopes had been entertained of his complete recovery.

Deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. (Colonel) Preston, and Miss Gertrude Fitzgerald, of Orangeville; and three brothers, George of Regina, Percy of Chicago, and Howard of Portland, Maine.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday, February 18, from St. Thomas' Church, Millbrook, at 1 p.m., the remains being brought here for burial, on the 11.40 a.m. C.N.R. train. Interment in the family plot at St. Paul's Cemetery, Fourth Line, Cavan.

MRS. JOHN DEYELL.

Mrs. John Deyell passed away on Sunday at the residence of her son, lot 13, concession 14, Otonabee, in her 90th year.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard Matchett, and was born in Otonabee Township, having lived there all her life.

Her husband predeceased her some time ago, and she leaves to mourn her loss three sons, Ernest and Herbert of Otonabee, and John of Detroit; also four daughters, Mrs. Jas. Thorp of Otonabee, Mrs. Frank Morrison of South Monaghan, Mrs. Geo. Trotter and Mrs. Harvey Trotter, both of Frobisher, Saskatchewan.

The deceased was a member of the Mark street church, and during her long and useful life in this district had come to be regarded with much esteem and affection.

The funeral will take place on Tuesday, at 1.30 p.m., from the residence of her son, William Herbert. The service will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Dudgeon and Rev. A. E. Thornley, and interment will be at Little Lake cemetery.

CAMPBELLFORD.

H. Lowney, of the Hall garage, returned from Toronto on Saturday, where he has been attending the Ford School of Instruction. W. Smith leaves on Tuesday to take the same course.

What This

Does For You!

IT induces you to save on a scale that you yourself have set after due deliberation.

It joins your savings with those of others in a co-operative investment that is big enough to secure all advantages, and puts your savings in the hands of those whose business it is to know what you cannot know about investments.

It gives your savings the safeguards provided by Dominion laws affecting life insurance funds.

It leaves you free to give your whole time and thought to further earnings, saving you all anxiety and vexation incident to the safe investment of money.

It overcomes the uncertainties of your earning power and provides for such modifications as circumstances require, making sure you get all your investment calls for, even if you fall short of your original intention.

Best of all, and in addition to it as a means of saving, it plays the role of a fairy godfather to dependents who find themselves cast upon their own resources through the premature death of the one who provides.

It is the easiest, surest and most satisfactory way to save—and keep on saving—for those who have no dependents, and it is even better for those who have.

There is an Imperial Policy that will just suit your requirements. Write for particulars today.

"Do women with maids have lovelier hands?"

We asked

305 Famous Beauty Shops . .

"Can you tell from looking at a woman's hands whether she does her own work?"

The wisest, most inexpensive beauty care known . . . Lux in your dishpan! Keeps your hands lovely for less than 1c a day!

We put this question to the experts in 305 of the finest beauty salons in the country . . . here is their answer—

"With all our experience we cannot distinguish between the hands of the woman who has servants to do all her work and the hands of the woman who uses Lux in her dishpan. Lux gives real beauty care."

Isn't it wonderful to know that right in your dishpan you can have beauty care for your hands? . . . that Lux for all your soap and water tasks means hands as truly lovely as those of the woman of leisure and wealth?

Here is the reason—Lux suds are so very gentle and bland they protect and soothe the precious beauty oils of the skin . . . keeping busy hands smooth, white, adorably young looking.

LINDSAY AND SAINTS TIE AGAIN; EACH SCORES ONCE AT LINDSAY; THIRD GAME TO SETTLE TITLE

Rival Junior Teams Battle Each Other to Another 1-1 Deadlock.

PLAY TO-NIGHT

Big Lindsay Crowd Sees Game Packed Full of Excitement.

After battling sixty exciting minutes in Lindsay on Saturday night the Lindsay Olympias and the Peterborough St. John's team are just where they started, so far as settling the championship of Junior O.H.A. Group 2 is concerned.

For the second time in three days the rivals struggled through to a 1-1 deadlock and the round is tied with a total score of two goals each.

Tonight the two section winners will go at each other for the third time in a sudden death game at Oshawa that must be played through to a finish.

Until six minutes before the end Saturday night the Saints looked to have the game and round salted away.

After an even and scoreless first period they came on in the second twenty minutes to distinctly outplay the Olympias, although no markers were registered, and then opened the final dash with a fast Weir to Dallin play that enabled the left winger to register the first goal of the game.

That slender margin loomed up bigger and bigger as the minutes sped by and the close checking of the whole Saints team held the Olympias tightly.

And then with fourteen minutes of the period gone, Harvey McPhail, the Cannington youngster, who is left wing substitute for the Olympias, stepped into the limelight, qualified for the role of hero, and sent the big Lindsay crowd into a delirium of joy by a swerving rush that wound up with the tieing goal.

The Saints, with the round snatched back out of their hands, steamed in with rare abandon in search of another goal that would settle the argument. They came close, too close for weak hearts in the crowd but the final bell found the score unchanged.

The gallant bid of the Olympias for group honors has stirred all Lindsay into an old-time state of hockey madness. Although it was the big business night of the week the stores closed at 9 o'clock to let everybody go to the hockey match. And everybody apparently went for the biggest crowd in years threatened to squeeze out the sides of Lindsay's hoary little ice box.

And the game was worthy of the crowd. It was electric with excitement at all stages and the pace never slackened. The Saints, changing their forward line at frequent intervals, strove to skate the Olympias into the ground but the Lindsay youngsters, although they tired perceptibly toward the end of each period, hung on gamely and fought it out to the bitter end in front of some remarkable goalkeeping by Jack Stephens, the sixteen-year-old net guardian who made a host of clever saves.

So for that matter did Tommy Miller, the Saints' goalie, and the two deserve first mention when the stars of the night are being selected. That Lindsay rink is a goal-keeper's nightmare for its small surface means plenty of scrambles in front of the nets and a fusilade of shots ripping through a mass of players. Both Stephens and Miller were called on frequently under the conditions and they rose to the occasion with sparkling exhibitions of goalkeeping. The Lindsay goalie had more close range shots to deal with, it is true, but both had lots of work and they did it well.

For St. John's the defence pair, Weir and Howe, were very effective defensively and Weir especially prominent on the attack. It was his speedy thurst down mid-ice and a perfect pass to Dallin that made the Saints' goal possible. On the firing line Dallin played his best game of the season, Cuthbertson was prominent going both ways and Hewett was always working and always effective. And the second line, composed of Terry Hall, Calladine and Dunkerley shared honors with the other trio. Hall and Dunkerley contributed some great singling and Calladine's work in close should have put him into the scoring column.

The Lindsay stars in addition to Stephens were Forbert on the defence and Mills and McPhee up in front. Forbert again check effectively and rushed to advantage. McPhee was the most effective puck carrier on the forward line and Mills a veritable hornet when it came to checking.

The game opened at top speed with each forward lines covering their checks carefully and smothering rushes before they could get nicely started. There was a lot of mid-ice play enlivened with an occasional fast dash and a blazing shot that kept the goalkeepers busy. Miller saved cleverly from Mills on one of these dashes and right after Stephens made a great stop of a low drive from Dunkerley and cleared fast with Calladine and Hall in on top of him. The Saints drew three penalties during the period while the Olympias escaped without losing a player. They failed, however, to take any advantage of the penalties to the Peterborough players and the first twenty minutes' play was about even so far as scoring opportunities were concerned.

In the second period, however, the Saints had an edge that should have seen them in front before the rest spell. Stephens made some clever stops, it is true, but on other occasions was lucky to avert a score. Early in the period Hewett checked Forbert inside the Lindsay blue line and sailed in to miss at point blank range. Then Weir came down and drove a vicious shot between the defence pair that Stephens glimpsed just in time to get his finger tips on the puck and deflect it over the net. A little later with Stephens prone on the ice a shot from a scrimage headed for the corner of the net was stopped by the goalie's toe. And on top of that Calladine stickhandled out of the corner, brought the rubber round the post and was foiled when Stephens flopped. He had two more bangs on rebound from this play but too close in to lift them over the prostrate goalie. Lindsay too had several chances, Miller making two fine saves in succession from close in scrimmage after Forbert had carried the rubber down.

A little over a minute after the last session opened the Saints at last broke into the scoring column. Weir got away from his own blue line and outskated the Lindsay forwards and slipped Dallin a neat pass when the defence was reached and the left winger coasted in on top of Stephens to blaze a foot high shot into the corner of the net, a drive that gave the goalie no chance.

That goals seemed enough to win, especially as the Saints continued to press. Weir, a few second later, came close to adding another goal when he tore in after his own shot and rounded the Lindsay net, only to have Stephens make a smart save. The St. John's forwards were covering their checks well and backchecking so effectively that the one marker lead locked big as a house. And it continued to look that way until McPhee sent the Lindsay crowd into a frenzy of delight when he went down centre ice, cut over to the left boards and then suddenly swerved back to centre again to slide the tieing goal into the net. There was an element of luck to the counter for Dallin, backchecking fast, just got his stick on the rubber as McPhee started his shot away and the puck was diverted to the opposite side of the net. Miller's desperate dive being too late to make the stop.

It was a merry battle for the remaining six minutes with the Saints in the driver's seat and doing the bulk of the attacking but unable to beat Stephens for the goal that would have made a third game unnecessary.

It is a real series; incidentally this group race must have established some kind of a record. The Saints played their first game in the group on December 26th and here eight weeks after the title is not yet decided.

The teams and summary:

NOTRE DAME FLASH MAKES NEW RECORD

Jack Elder Gives Sensational Performance—Dr. Paul Martin Wins.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17—Jack Elder, flying football star from Notre Dame bettered the world's record for 60 metres at the Crescent A.C. track and field games here Saturday night, running the distance in seven seconds flat.

Elder's time clipped one-fifth of a second off the best previous mark indoors of 7½ seconds, set in 1927 at Brooklyn by Bob McAllister, the erstwhile "flying cop."

Jimmy Pappas of the Newark A.C. was second and Frank Hussey of the New York A.C. third. Elder's victory in the 60-metre event followed his triumph in a special 50-yard sprint a few minutes earlier. Elder announced after his record-breaking sprint that he would compete in no more indoor meets this season.

The one mile walk saw Mike Pecora of Centra Y.M.C.A. outstep Mack Weiss, veteran Newark, N.J., star in 6 minutes 45 3-5 seconds. Good time for the distance.

George Spitz, sensational schoolboy from Flushing High School, won the high jump with a leap of six feet three inches.

Dr. Paul Martin, Swiss middle distance runner, captured the Metropolitan A.A.U. 1,000 yards championship. His time was 2 minutes 17 1-5 seconds. Second place went to Walter P. Gasener of New York University, who finished about 20 yards behind the flying ace from Switzerland; H. McArdle of the Columbus Council, K. of C., was third.

New York University won the Metropolitan championship, scoring 30 points. New York A.C., which held the record for several years, was second with 21 points. Unattached runners scored 17 points and the Newark A.C. 13 points.

There are only about 4,000,000 white people on the entire continent of Africa, as compared to a total population of 130,000,000, about 120,000,000 of whom are negroes and Bantus.

HOLD RECORD.

TORONTO, Feb. 17.—(C.P.)—Running in four goals in the last half of the third period, the Boston Bruins kept intact their record of not having lost a game in Canada this season by defeating the Maple Leafs 5 to 3 at the Arena Gardens Saturday evening before the third largest crowd that has ever packed that building. It was a surprising finish by the Bruins, who until that time looked headed for defeat.

VICTORY FOR CANUCKS.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—(C.P.)—Howie Morenz, flashy merchant of speed and defence, led Canadiens of Montreal to a 2 to 1 victory over the Chicago Black Hawks in an overtime National Hockey League game before 15,000 spectators at the stadium last night.

WIN AGAIN ON SUNDAY.

DETROIT, Feb. 17.—(C.P.)— The champion Boston Bruins took a mild National Hockey League game from the Detroit Cougars, 4 to 2, here last night. The Bruins, with "bad boy" Eddie Shore playing the entire evening without a single penalty during the game. The Detroit team drew three penalties.

Kitchener Ousts Galt From Second Position

TORONTO, Ont., February 17 (Canadian Press). — Galt Terriers dropped still further in the Canadian Hockey League standing over the week-end when Kitchener ousted them from second place by defeating the league-leading Guelph sextette, four goals to two. It was an exceptionally fast game, marked by numerous penalties. Each team notched a marker in the opening frame. Kitchener counted the only tally of the middle frame and outscored their opponents two to one in the last session.

Mrs. D. W. Douglas was hostess to some of her friends at her residence, Booth street, Friday evening. The function, which was a bridge party, took the form of a Valentine social evening. Eight tables were in play, and a very enjoyable time was had by all. The winners at cards were as follows: Ladies: 1st' Mrs. R. McLaren; 2nd, Mrs. Roy Smith. Gents: 1st, Mr. J. T. Archer; 2nd, Mr. I. R. Smith. The rooms were artistically decorated for the occasion. At the close of the games, the hostess served a dainty lunch.

Thursday and Friday will be big days in Campbellford, for it is expected that large crowds will attend the High School Commencement on those days. On both evenings a play will be presented by 45 of the students, entitled "The Wishing Well." This is a musical comedy in three acts and, if reports are true, should be a major production of the season.

A feature of the two-day Commencement will be the presentation of certificates, diplomas, medals and scholarships.

LOCAL QUINTET BEATS OSHAWA

VISITORS' DRIVES WEAK.

Displaying superior class during the greater part of the clash, a quintet representing the Peterborough Y.M.C.A. defeated Oshawa by the count of 32-23 in a fast basketball fixture on the local "Y" floor Saturday evening. The game was one of two home and home exhibition matches.

The visitors lost their game in the first of the three fifteen minute periods played. They found difficulty in steadying down to the comparatively small floor and their work was very rough. Their drives towards the Petes basket were weak and their defence was at loss against the repeated swift rushes of Sturgeon, McLeish and Kingston for the home boys. At the end of the first sitting the Petes had run in 20 points to the visitors' 4.

In the second session the battle began to even up. The Motor City lads began to get the hang of the foreign floor and the backboards which they discovered were somewhat faster than their own. They carried the fight to the Petes' end more frequently and broke up the Petes' combination that had been carried out without any resistance in the first part of the struggle. Their own combination began to look up as they improved their passes and got wise to the "Y" boys' game. They got seven points, of which four were on field baskets and three on free tosses. Similarly the locals got seven.

The tally at the end of the second period was 27-11 in favor of the Petes and the home lads felt secure in their position. The visiting men came out with different ideas however and opened up with a display of fast ball. They run up eight points on field successes and four on free tosses. The best the local men could do was two field baskets and one point on a free try.

Bim Sturgeon was a cyclone for the Lift Lock men. After the first minute of milling about after the game was opened by Scotty McLeish, Sturgeon hung up the first on a spectacular long shot from center. He registered ten points in the first period but managed only a foul goal and one field goal in the second and a field counter in the third. Ken Kingston was good, getting seven points and making a number of notable assists. McLeish gave Hubbell a battle at center and got five baskets. Cooper, Hall and Dobbin did their best work on the defence line in the first period.

Gummow took part in one of the nicest plays of the evening when he got Oshawa's first basket late in the first period. Hubbell shot the ball from center to him and he dribbled to nick it neatly on a push-up shot. Working with Young and Hubbell he was in smart combines in the latter part of the fixture. Granik, a former Peterborough basketeer, drew applause when he sunk a field goal from over half the length of the floor.

The Teams.

Oshawa—Forwards, Young, Armstrong, Gummow, Webb; center, Hubbell, Rogers; guards, Baird, Granik, Carver, Luke.

Referee—Arthur McLeish.

BISONS BLANK PANTHERS 4-0 OVER WEEK-END

Canadien Teams Fare Badly in Three Games in International League.

BITTER STRUGGLES.

Bulldogs Drop 4-1 Decision to Indians While Tigers Lose Out 2-0.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 17 (C.P.)—Canadian teams fared badly in the three games played in the International Hockey League over the week-end. The London Panthers, battling for first place, were dicisively beaten, four goals to nothing, by the Buffalo Bisons. Windsor Bulldogs failed to advance in their drive for a play-off berth by losing to the league-leading Cleveland Indians, four to one. Hamilton Tigers, playing on successive nights, played stubbornly against Detroit, but were outscored two to nothing. All three contests were played in the United States cities.

Cleveland, by defeating Windsor, further strngthened their hold on first place to five points over London. The Bulldogs were game enough and played tenaciously throughout. Frank Carson took Hap Emms' pass to put Windsor in the lead almost from the opening face-off and they maintained this slim margin until the middle frame. At this stage the Indians solved the Bulldog guard and rapped two goals into the Windsor cage. They added another brace in the last period to clinch the verdict.

London lost to Buffalo because the Panthers failed to take advantage of scoring opportunities. The game was one of the most cleverly-played the fans have seen in Buffalo district this season. After a scoreless opening session Dutch Cain scored unassisted to put the Bisons in front half-way through the second period. In the final frame the Panthers weakened badly and the Bisons scored three markers to register a surprise shutout.

A tally in the first and another in the third period gave the Olympics their margin of victory over the Tigers, who contested the issue bitterly even though the result had no effect on their standing in the league.

DISCUSS FORWARD PASS.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 17.—(C.P.)—Lengthy deliberations centering about the forward pass, proposed abolition of Provincial and Dominion Interscholastic play-offs and Toronto Argonauts' application for membership marked the annual meeting here Saturday of the Ontario Rugby Football Union.

In connection with the forward pass a recommendation was forwarded to the Canadian Rules Commission suggesting that the pass, as used in United States' football, be adopted almost in its entirety by the Canadian body. The American style of interference it was thought would be adaptable to the Canadian game, and it was decided this should be kept apart from the forward pass and not introduced into Rugby.

During the discussion of the pass practically every delegate expressed approval of the play but the majority believed that it was not definite enough as now regulated in the Canadian code.

Interscholastic Problems.

Interscholastic football was the topic of a lengthy debate following the proposal to confine secondary school students to group championships. Many of the delegates representing various sections of the Union favored the discontinuance of the play-offs as it was considered too long a season when the students competed in Provincial and Dominion championships. The matter was put into the hands of the Executive committee who will meet delegates attending the annual meeting of the Ontario Educational Society late in March and discuss the problem further.

Application Tabled.

Toronto Argonauts' application for membership was tabled until further developments. The Executive pointed out there was no room for another team unless further applications are received and the two groups enlarged. No mention was made by Argo officials regarding their Interprovincial League connections, but it is understood they will continue to operate in the "Big Four" even though they are successful in putting a team into the Senior O.R.F.U.

At the election of officers John Degruchy, Toronto, was re-elected president and H. H. McKee, Toronto, was chosen honorary president.

Other officers elected follow: First vice-president, H. B. Jenney, Toronto; second vice-president, C. E. Wigle, Hamilton; third vice-president, Dr. Robert Ferguson, Kitchener; secretary-treasurer, Harold Bailey, Toronto; Executive committee, Ross Mackinen, Oshawa, Jack Newton and E. N. Asbury, Sarnia, F. A. Edwards, St. Thomas, F. H. Gillen, Hamilton and William Cawkell, Toronto.

NET STARS RANKED BY CANADIAN BODY

Dr. Wright Placed on Top—Gilbert Nunns in Third—Annual Meeting Held.

TORONTO, February 17. — At the forty-first annual meeting of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association held at the office of the secretary on Saturday afternoon, the official ranking of the players in the Dominion was promulgated as follows:

1—Dr. J. A. Wright, Montreal (1).
2—Willard F. Crocker, Montreal (2).
3—Gilbert Nunns, Toronto (3).
4—Dr. Arthur W. Ham, Toronto (4)
5—Walter Martin, Regina (6).
7—W. LeRoy Rennie, Toronto.
7—Marcel Rainville, Montreal (9).
8—C. W. Leslie, Montreal (7)
9—W. W. Giles, Winnipeg (8).
10—John S. Proctor, Toronto.

Players ranked last year and not on this year's list were: No. 5 Gordon Shields and No. 10 T. O. Ryall, both of Vancouver. The committee for this ranking, which, incidentally, was absolutely unanimous in its selection, consisted of Garnett H. Meldrum, president; G. Davidson, treasurer; J. deN. Kennedy, secretary; John M. Miller, Montreal, Eastern vice-president; E. J. H. Cardinall, Vancouver, Western vice-president; and R. I. Campbell, Winnipeg, secretary of the Manitoba Lawn Tennis Association. The meeting on Saturday unanimously ratified the committee's recommendation.

The 1930 Canadian lawn tennis championships were allotted to the Toronto Lawn Tennis Club, and will take place during the week July 14 to 19.

An interesting insight into the progress of the game in Prairie cities was given when Dr. E. W. Boak of Victoria, representing the Saskatchewan Association, made formal application that the Canadian tennis championships in 1932 should be awarded to the Regina Tennis Club, which has 12 new clay courts and upto-date equipment, which will enable them to handle the tournament satisfactorily. The meeting placed the request on file with sympathetic references.

FARRELL VICTOR IN PENSACOLA TOURNEY

Former National Champ Comes From Behind to Defeat Gene Sarazen.

PENSACOLA, Fla., Feb. 17—(Canadian Press).—Johnny Farrell, slim, debonair shot maker from St. Augustine, Fla., has ushered in the winter campaign among the professions in Florida by posting a score of 287 for 72 holes to win the second annual $3,500 Pensacola open golf tournament.

The former National open champion, came from behind yesterday to stroke his way over the final round in 68, three under par, nosing out Gene Sarazen, diminutive Italian pro who apparently had the crown safely tucked away with a 288.

Farrell sank a 25-foot putt on the rolling final green to score a birdie three and finish a stroke ahead of the stocky Italian who recently won the $25,000 Agua Caliente open.

Sarazen had taken the lead at the end of the first 54 holes with a 218, and continued his brilliant golf to score a 70, one under par. However, he missed a six foot putt on the final hole. Farrell's complete card was 71, 74, 74, 68—287, and Sarazen's 72, 74, 72, 70—288. The winner received $800 and the latter $600.

Retain One-Point Lead

The Drafting Room, speedy sextette of puck carriers, who were C.G.E. shop champions last year, held their one-point lead in Group 1 of the same league, by battling their outstanding opponents, the Tool Room No. 1 team, to a 2—2 tie on Saturday at the Brock Street Arena.

Vigorous playing and dangerous gunning characterized the play of the Toolmakers, who showed to advantage in the first two periods and also played clever defensive hockey in the third, and on the general play should have notched a victory.

The Draftsmen took the ice, minus Howe, their husky defence player and were forced into a defensive style of play in the first few minutes by the Tool Room, who opened up with an aggressiveness that carried them within striking distance, time and again in the first few minutes, flashing a smart brand of combination hockey. The Toolmakers' shooting was rather erratic in this period and on numerous occasions, sizzling shots completely missed the net. The first goal was registered three minutes after play started by the Toolmakers on a three-man combination play. Corkery carried the puck along the left boards, passed to Epps at the blue line and the latter whipped the disc over to Mickey Williams who scored.

The Drawing-Makers were inclined to bunch and failed to work in close in this period, while the Toolmakers usually broke three abreast. Corkery put the Tool Room two up in a brilliant individual effort which beat Kearns in the Drafting net from close in and the period ended.

On Even Tone in Second

Play was more even in the second session when Rooke, Meagher and Allin unlimbered same heavy checking which slowed up the Tool Room forwards and forced the play into the latters' territory resulting in a few busy moments for Stan. Jones, the Tool Room goalie. Swanger and Mickey Williams each drew a penalty in quick succession to leave the Toolmakers two men shy, but their teammates were able to weather the offensive play of the league leaders until the teams were on an even footing. The first goal for the Drafting was chalked up when Thornton followed a pass from Meagher into the corner and whipped the puck out to Masterson, who countered.

The final period was a torrid one with neither team having an edge, although the Draftsmen missed the most chances to score. Corkery played his best game of the season on left wing opposite Thornton, whose wicked shooting has been a thorn in the side of the Toolmakers, but the persistent work of Corkery kept him blocked on Saturday. Griffin playing on defence for the Tool Room also was a standout, while Palmer and Masterson distinguished themselves for the Drafting Room. End to end rushes were a feature of the play in the frame, both forward lines going in fast for the rebounds. The tying goal came in the last few moments of the game, when Rooke passed the puck out to Palmer in centre, who shot the puck through a maze of legs to lend it in the Tool Room goal.

The finished combination work of the Toolmakers was an entertaining feature of the game, Epps, at centre, engineering more dangerous rushes than in any previous game. The teams:—

Tool Room No. 1.—Goal, Jones; defence, Swanger and Hatton; centre, Epps; wings, Corkery and A. Williams; alternates, G. Williams and Griffin.

Refree—J. Killoran.

Penalties—Swanger, A. Williams.

BRASSMEN LOSE OUT

The second contest of Saturday's program between the Tool Room 2 and Brass Dept. was the fastest and best played game seen in Group two of the C.G.E. League this season. The Brass aggregation set out to defeat or tie the Toolmakers and thereby give the Machine Shop a chance in the play-offs. They almost did it but their playing lacked finish and some of the forwards were loathe to pass the puck, nevertheless the Tool Makers had their hands full and found it no easy task to get their one goal win.

The Tool Room played classy hockey, exhibiting some of the neatest combination work seen this season in the Shop League and rendered the Brass Dept. forwards ineffective with a very creditable exhibition of back checking. Connors Craig and Milliken were the best for the winners, the last two combining effectively, while Connors looked best alone, his fast skating and stick handling fooling the opposing players many times.

The Brass played better offensive hockey than defensive and can attribute the Tool Room victory to their own inability to cover up in front of the net, as Milliken slapped home the winning goal on a pass from behind the Brass net. Heal and Higgins were the stellar performers for the Brass while Hope in goal showed the crowd that he knew plenty about the art of goal-keeping.

Tool Room No. 2—Goal, "Red" Hollingsworth; defence, Connors and Griffin; centre, Craig; wings, Graham and Milliken; subs., Earle, Muir, and Hughes.

Referee—Jack Thornton.

BLANKS PUNCH PRESS.

The Armature Winders chalked up a 7-0 victory at the expense of the lowly Punch Press team who, despite the fact that they were one man shy, played a splendid game.

The Winders showed more speed and team work than their opponents and also played the whole game without subs. Millard, Sutherland and Chas. McGillen were the best for the winners, each securing two goals apiece, while Calladine scored the other.

This makes the fifth consecutive win for the Winders and gives them the leadership of Group 3, with one more game to play. The teams:

Referee—Jack Thornton.

6-3 WIN FOR OFFICE.

Office No. 3 team continued their winning streak by trouncing the Tool Room No. 3 team 6-3 on Saturday. This win keeps them within striking distance of the Winders, who are leading the group, and if the Pen Pushers can stage a win over the leaders they will be tied for first place.

The Office showed a more polished style than their opponents and engineered their rushes in good formation, working close in on combination plays. The teams:

Office— Goal, Adamson; defence, Gibson and O'Toole; centre, Payne; wings, Daniels and Parsons. Subs, Masters, Cheu and Gray.

Tool Room No. 3—Goal, Jones; defence, Mowry and G. Snowden; centre, Ridley; wings, Pilling and Batterson. Subs, Heffernan, Alcock.

Referee—L. Hollingsworth.

CAN THE PETES WIN FROM THE R.M.C. CADETS TO-NIGHT?

A capacity house will see the Blue and White start to-night's game at the local arena with a three-goal deficit, but there is confidence in the Peterborough camp, and if the Petes can back-check while getting their fast passing attacks loose, those three goals will melt away.

The Cadets combine speed and condition and it was these two factors that gave them two counters in the final forty-five seconds of play at the Jack Harty arena. The Petes are confident that they will be able to nail the Cadets better at the Brock, and it is expected that the local defence will take a prominent part in doing this work.

The Petes are fresh and eager for the fixture and are in much better shape to enter the fray than after that long train ride on Friday. That, too, may have plenty to do with to-night's results.

Should the Petes win, they will engage the winners of the Walkerton-Watford series in a sudden death game in Toronto on Wednesday night.

JUNIORS ENDEAVOUR TO BREAK TIE TO-NIGHT.

St. John's and Lindsay Olympias battled to another 1-1 tie at Lindsay on Saturday night. The first period was even on the play, but St. John's had a distinct margin in the second canter, and early in the third they plugged the twine. Fourteen minutes later Lindsay scored the tieing counter.

At the new Oshawa arena to-night these two clubs will battle to a finish. It is expected that the larger ice surface will benefit St. John. The winner will meet the smart Kingston Juniors on Wednesday and Friday, in the second round.

P.C.I. PRESENTED WITH CREST.

Peterborough Collegiate's senior rugby team was presented with its crest as Central Ontario Interscholastic League champions at the 48th annual meeting of the Ontario Rugby Football Union held in the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, on Saturday.

The O.R.F.U. decided to recommend that the Canadian Rugby Union adopt the onside pass, governed by the same rules as those in the United States game, be adopted. Failure to interpret the present onside pass rules properly caused the O.R.F.U. to pass this recommendation to the Dominion body. Michael Rodden, Hamilton Tiger coach, declared that the United States pass was past its experimental stage, having been used for 25 years, and that the C.R.U. could do nothing better than adopt it.

The question of the Interscholastic series of opening the season early in September, and having the play-offs over earlier, was threshed out, and a committee of three appointed to deal with the matter. Twenty-eight schools favored a shorter season, and the question of eliminating the inter-group play-offs arose.

John Degruchy was again unanimously elected to the presidency. With one year interval this is his fifteenth term in the chair.

PLAY-OFF BERTH FOR LEAFS SLOWLY VANISHING.

Until the final ten minutes of the Boston-Maple Leafs game in Toronto on Saturday night it appeared as though the wide-eyed fans were going to see the ramping Bruins defeated for the world champions' fifth loss this season. In the final 41 minutes the Bruins changed a threatening 3-1 loss into a 5-3 victory.

The game drew the largest house of the season, but proved to be a tame affair, the bruising and bumping common to the Bruins' play, failing to materialize. The loss placed the Leafs four points behind Ottawa, and will make it more difficult for Connie Smythe's men to get into the N.H.L. play-offs.

FROM NEWSPAPER TO RING ARTIST.

"Keed" Chocolate got $44,500 for his end when he fought Al. Singer in New York recently. A little more than a year ago when the Cuban fighter reached New York with his manager, Louis Gutierex, nobody would give them a tumble, and the Keed boxed for $40.00 at Mitchell Field.

When he paid off seconds and so forth, he had $8 for himself. In less than a year since he has sent $124,000 to his mother in Cuba, built himself four houses, and sports 20 suits, 80 shirts, and a different hat for every turn out. He wants to make his ring earnings half a million, and retire. He says if business continues, as is, he can marry and quit the ring in another year.

The Kid is just another lad, who grew up in poverty. He was a newsboy in Havana, and made himself rich with his fists. Gutierez was sports editor on the sheet the kid was selling. He saw him box in an alley, signed him up, and now they're both rich.

LOCAL RINK ENTERS IN TORONTO 'SPIEL

R. P. Best Slated to Meet T. F. Robertson in First Round of Ryrie-Birks Competition.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 17 (C.P.).—The third annual Toronto bonspiel got under way this morning when play commenced at seven artificial ice rinks and this afternoon four more sheets were used at the Lakeview club. As there will be six draws to-day, at 10 o'clock, noon, 3, 6 9, and midnight and 46 sheets of ice will be available for all of them, it is expected that much progress will be made to-day and the second rounds will be completed in at least two of the four competitions. The events are the Ryrie-Birks and North American Life, both open competitions, and the Wrigley and Sieberling, for losers in the Ryrie Birks and North American respectively. The semi-finalists in each of the four events will be drawn for play in the Royal York and the winner of this will qualify for the Canadian single rink championship for the MacDonald Brier Tankard, starting here a week from to-morrow.

In all 149 rinks are competing. There were 151 entries but two skips have notified the committee they will have to default.

Ray P. Best is slated to play T. F. Robertson of Toronto Lakeview Club, and the draw places his game in the first round of the Ryrie-Birks contests.

Other players who have starred on the local ice and who are scheduled to play in the Toronto spiel are as follows: L. O. Clifford, Oshawa; G. A. Davison, Unionville; R. Besse, Claremont; W. Armstrong, Stouffville; Dr. F. L. Henry, Oshawa; L. V. O'Connor, J. Carew, W. J. Bryson and F. C. Nugent of Lindsay, and J. O. Strickland, Lakefield.

POINT-TO-POINT RACING GAINS IN POPULARITY.

LONDON, Feb. 15 (U.P.).—Point-to-point racing, closely allied to the sport of hunting, is thoroughly organized in England, and is carried on chiefly in the early months of the year.

It is claimed that racing between the flags was carried on long before horses were run over distances on regulation tracks.

Practically every hunt meet in the country and also in Ireland has its point-to-point race meet, and being a purely democratic sport it appeals to all sporting country folk, the spectators including lords and landed gentry, farm hands, and inhabitants from the surrounding villages.

Each horse must be certified by the master of a recognized pack of foxhounds, staghounds, or harriers, as having been regularly hunted during the current season, as these meets are intended for genuine working hunters and not for horses prepared for racing. During the 1929 season there were over 900 races with about 12,000 entries with at least 10,000 horses taking part.

MOTHERS' HOPES

What Chance Have They if Real Music Must Be Sacrificed to Machine-made Sound?

MOTHERS strive valiantly to give their children happiness—a chance to enjoy the richest, fullest lives. Contrary forces forever oppose Mother's hopes.

Today change—speed—unrest work to thwart her longing for contentment. . . . The ruthless spirit of the Machine Age threatens to crowd out all humanizing culture. . . . Men and women whis headlessly through life to the clatter of the eternal machine. . . . Now, the machine has entered the realm of the musical art. Is this the Song of Progress? No! Machine-made music can never provide a substitute for the mellowing cultural influence of Real Music. Those concerned for the future of the race will resent the strangling of the art of music by a mechanical substitute in the theatre. Yet the art will be strangled if this false economy is not halted by public demand. . . . Here is opportunity for Mother and all who share her hopes to cast a vote for preservation of Living Music. K. OF P. CONVENTION IN HAMILTON CITY

Large Delegation From Local Lodge Will Take Part in Annual Affair.

Local members of the Order of Knights of Pythias will be interested in the announcement of the monster convention to be held at Hamilton, on Wednesday evening, February 19, when a double object will be fulfilled—the celebration of the institution of the order, and the paying of a worthy tribute by the district deputies grand chancellor of the province to their leader, Bro. Frank Bels grand chancellor. This novel idea originated with D.D.G.C. Bro. O. J. Kerr, of Stratford, in charge of district No 6, and has found wholehearted support in the efforts of his colleagues to make this one of the outstanding events of Pythian history in Ontario. Bro. Harry Midgley D.D.G.C., of this district, will have a prominent part in the work of the evening, which will embrace the initiation into the order of 75 candidates from every part of the province. He will be accompanied by his quota of candidates and many of the brethren of this city of Hamilton. It is estimated that fully 700 Pythians will be in attendance at the convention, which will have as its hosts for the evening Hamilton lodge, No. 8.

Bro. George Gimblett, chancellor commander of Marathon lodge, will be in charge of the local party, and members desiring to make the trip will be furnished with all the details.

Trent River

Messrs. Barrie and Harold Thompson, of Norwood Road, made good work with their snow ploughs Thursday afternoon. Two teams of horses were used to draw the plough.

Mrs. James Dunn returned Thursday from Cobourg, where she was called to see her father (of Roseneath) who is confined in Cobourg General Hospital, suffering from serious complications as a result of having his foot amputated some time ago.

Mrs. Ed. Howse and little son Paul, sisters Elgan and Madolin Ruttan, of Toronto, spent over Sunday with relatives.

The Women's Institute held their monthly meeting Thursday afternoon at Mrs. Frank Pollock's.

Mr. Thos. J. Brown is drawing the remainder of his wood, which he had cut from Brown's Island last year.

COMMENT ON MORNING STOCK MARKETS.

Lower prices for crude oil forced a decline in oil stocks and doubt about copepr price put all copper stocks lower, including Noranda and Nickel, but latter was inactive. Less than 100 shares of Walker were traded before noon, indicating market has discounted the worst that Ottawa can do.

WHEAT PRICE DROP UNSETTLES MARKET

Selling Develops in Practically Every Group on Toronto Exchange.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 17. (C.P.)—A further drop in wheat futures this morning had an unsettling effect on the securities market. The public was unwilling to take on additional commitments and traders were disposing of part of their holdings. The fact that New York was soft at the opening further influenced the local market and selling developed in practically every group. Liquidation was not of forced character, however, and price recessions were gradual and small in the aggregate.

Setback in C.P.R. Old.

C.P.R. old suffered more than the other better known stocks. Since this stock was carried up around 227 on new of split, the price has gradually fallen back and this morning sold down to 215, later picking up a point to 216 at midday. At this price it is approximately 16 points above the level where it held following the market break. The split shares were down ¾ of a point at 55¾. Nickel sold off to 37 where it was the lowest since the recent rise which carried it above 40. Noranda lost between one and two points, being subject to pressure of the same nature as nickel.

The reaction in B. A. Oil, halted at the end of last week, was resumed this morning with the old stock driven under 40 again and the new off approximately ½ point. Imperial Oil, International Petroleum, other chief issues in this group, also were soft. Supertest ordinary, on the other hand, was upheld by moderate demand.

Ford, Brazilian, Canada Gypsum, Massey-Harris, Moore Corporation, Dominion Stores, in fact the great majority of listed issues sold down from a fraction to one point. Building products, of which the annual statement will be issued this afternoon, was firm above 28 and Standard Steel received support. The buying which has been going on steadily in Duffrein Paving continue and upholds the price at recent high levels. Accumulation is thought to be of an institutional nature although reports are heard of attempts to wrest controlling interest.

Chicago Grain Drops; Setbacks At Liverpool

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 17. (C.P.)—Sharp breaks in wheat values here took place early to-day preceded by decided setbacks at Liverpool and by a $2,000,000 grain failure at Winnipeg. Notice was also being taken of assertions current in some quarters that European importers had definitely beaten North American wheat growers in the price war which has been waged for the last six months. Opening 1 to 2 1-8 lower, Chicago wheat afterward showed little power to rally. Corn, oats and provisions were also weaker, with corn starting ½ to 1 3-8 off, and subsequently keeping near to the initial range.

PLANE IN AIR OVER SIX HOURS

Sub Zero Weather No Handicap to Northern Airways Students.

INSTRUCTION FLIGHTS.

Virtually a test of endurance, Pilot W. N. Miller sat at the controls of the Northern Airways De Haviland Moth yesterday from noon till well after dusk, in sub-zero weather.

A visit to the shack at the ice-coated edge of Little Lake, which is doing temporary duty as the club house and store, revealed a group of flying students, the mechanic, timekeeper and Pilot Haydn-Bailey huddled around a stove which emitted a bright and cheery glow of heat, whilst the plane droned overhead on instruction and passenger flights.

It was somewhat strange to sit there and watch the students don their fleece-lined helmets, to see them leave the seat on which they had been waiting and go out to the plane, to take their turn for instruction and then after a lapse of time, which seemed but a few minutes, for them to return to speak of having flown over Stoney Lake, Rice Lake and other seemingly distant points. It seemed almost incredible to one who is not air-minded and brought one to a realization of the great possibilities which aviation holds—well might the airplane be described as the magic carpet of the present age.

Besides instruction flights there were numerous passengers taken up in the course of the afternoon, which accounted for the late hour when the last student took to the air.

The western horizon was bathed in the crimson rays of the fast setting sun, and the first star twinkled in the east as the plane, with a mighty roar, and leaving a minature blizzard in its wake, gracefully skimmed over the ice and soared heavenward on the final flight of instruction. It continued to circle around over the artificially-lighted city and presented but a tiny black speck when outlined against the darkening sky. It was well after 6.30 when the pilot brought his machine to rest for the day, and it is fairly safe to say that he was not sorry to reach the comforting warmth of the stove in the shack.

the authorities giving a report of the examination of the head. It stated that a microscopic examination of the animal's brain revealed the presence of a few negria bodies thereby arousing strong suspicions that the dog had rabies.

The first of 14 Pasteur treatments was given to the girl yesterday by Dr. Yelland. Her condition is quite normal to-day, and there are no evidences of poisoning in the wounds inflicted by the dog. The treatments, which consist of serum injections, will be given over a period of two weeks.

MIXED TREND ON STANDARD

High Priced Stocks Sustain Losses While Low Issues Display Underlying Strength.

SETBACK IN NICKEL.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 17. (C.P.)—To-day's early session on the mining market was particularly listless as far as most issues were concerned, but price action was rather mixed, the higher-priced stocks sustaining losses while the lower-priced stocks displayed an underlying strength.

International Nickel and Noranda were the weak members of the list, the former selling off a point to $37 and the latter showing a loss of $14.0 to $39.85 at noon. The quiet copper buying both for domestic and foreign account being met with at present is believed to be having its effect on the larger copper enterprises generally. Hudson Bay recovered some of Saturday's lost ground, selling up a quarter at $13.75.

Whilte Teck-Hughes and Wright Hargreaves appeared to be subjected to some minor selling and showed small recessions, the majority of the golds were strong, Hollinger gaining 5, Howey and Kirkland Lake Gold 2 points each. The Lindsleys were rather mixed Falconbridge and Ventures holding unchanged, Sherritt easing 2 an Sudbury Basin 15.

Pacific Coast Strong.

The Pacific Coast group displayed underlying firmness, Base Metals remaining steady at $4, Pend Oreille gaining 10 and Big Missouri and Premier selling up 2 each at noon. Abana held interest in the general list, advancing 6 to $108 and Barry Hollinger moved up a fraction, selling for a time as high as 20. Mining Corporation and Waite were both off 5 at noon. The oils were irregularly higher throughout.

RAVINSKI MAY GET REPRIEVE

Sweetheart of Man Condemned to Die Thursday Gives Mounted Police a Tip.

SLOANE AND BROWN SAME?

SYDNEY, N.S., February 17 (Canadian Press). — That the arrest of Emmett Sloane, Montreal, committed to stand trial for the murder of Deblois Rehberg, here, will certainly bring a reprieve for Herman Ravinsky, sentenced to hang at Regina on February 19 for the murder of David Gat, Toronto bond salesman, at Duck Lake, Sask., last winter, was the statement made here to-day by Sergeant H. H. Bleakeney, of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Halifax, who, acting on instructions from Commissioner Cortlandt Starnes, Ottawa, proceeded here and interviewed Sloane at the County Jail in the presence of J. W. Maddin, K.C., for the Crown, and D. A. Cameron, K.C., for the defence.

The action of the Mounted Police followed a wire from Miss Love, in Saskatchewan, described as Ravinski's sweetheart. Upon reading a newspaper story of the Sydney murder, she said she instantly recognized Sloane's description as tallying almost exactly with that she had heard Ravinsky gave of "Jimmy Brown," the man Ravinsky claimed killed Gatz. Brown could not be located.

to 1899 prior to his appointment as Archbishop of Toronto.

His brother priests to-day expressed their congratulations on his appointment to Peterborough but stated that his appointment would entail a serious loss to the diocese for during his appointment as rector of the seminary he has earned the love and respect of priests and people, Catholic and non-Catholic.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 17 (Canadian Press). — Confirmation of new appointments to three Canadian archdioceses, as reported from Vatican City to-day came from the palace of the Papal Delegate here this afternoon. On his return from Montreal soon after noon, His Excellency Mgr. Andre Cassulo, Papal Delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, confirmed that Mgr. James Charles McGuigan has been named Archbishop of Regina; Father Gerald Murray of Toronto, named Bishop of Victoria, B.C., and Mgr. Dennis O'Connor made Bishop of Peterborough, Ont.

Appointment of a Bishop to the new Saskatchewan Diocese of Gravelbourg still awaits consideration. There is no indication of how soon the seat may be filled. Creation of the diocese of Gravelbourg follows division into two parts of the Archdiocese of Regina, of which Mgr. McGuigan has been appointed Archbishop.

MRS. KATHARINE MOORE DIES

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 17.—Mrs. Katharine Moore, 51, wife of Harold Moore, Assistant to the Editor of The Manitoba Free Press, died Sunday, following a protracted illness.

Mrs. Moore was a daughter of J. A. Chapman, of Port Elgin, Ont. Besides her husband, she is survived by a son, a daughter, her father, two brothers and four sisters.

The funeral will be held Thursday

BULLISH FACTORS RULE AT TORONTO

Trading Depressed Due to Lack of Interest on Part of Speculators.

TORONTO, Feb. 17. (Special to Examiner.)—Bearish factors looming forcibly before the public at the opening of the week were given more weight than those of a bullish nature and right across the board stocks were being sold. Not to such an extent as to suggest forced liquidation nor such as to cause prices to break between sales but still imparting a tone of depression. Although both the markets and public have passed through the worst of the reactionary phase and should now be open to constructive influences, news of a bearish nature is given weight proportionately more than it should receive. There is the danger this may lead to a gloomy outlook which would distort true facts and actually lead to depression or at least impede the process of recovery. While the local market has always been influenced by New York it has been noticeable that when Wall Street recently was pushing upward the market here held back and that at the first signs of reaction in Wall Street the local list sold off again.

Statistical services are hastening to point out that sufficient reports on January activity have become available to prove that business rebounded rather decidedly from the slump of October-December. They add however, that the recovery was entirely due to an exaggerated seasonal expansion in automotive output from the inordinately low level reached in the preceding months. Other branches of industry were influenced and this pick up in manufacturing output has improved business sentiment somewhat and has been reinforced by certain favorable development in the financial field, such developments illustrate the fact that economic resources have not been exhausted or submerged by the stock market crash of last fall. There is yet a considerable carry over of buying power from the active business period of the considerable carry over of buying power last two years and despite the recession of demand in various directions there still remain unsatisfied needs.

75 PER CENT. OF CRIMINALS

attempt to secure the office and without any political influence.

Boys and Girls Biggest Asset.

The most important asset to any country, he said, are the boys and girls, and next in importance as an asset are the men and women. Any attempt to create an atmosphere to make the boys and girls, men and women, to live decent lives should be encouraged. The influence of home, school, church, and such movements as the Boy Scouts were efficient in making the individual into good citizens. Of Ontario's population of three millions only five to six thousand annually were convicted for crimes. This is only a small percentage that break the law and are sent to prison.

One of the most important factors in creating an atmosphere of right living are good laws, and in this respect Ontario is blessed by having one of the best code of laws in the world. There are also efficient officers to enforce these laws. Dr. Lavell said that he did not know of any country with a more efficient law enforcement.

"The old ideal of law enforcement," he said, "was to rule with a club. The police wanted to be custodian and jury. Our work has nothing to do with police work. We try to co-operate with them as much as possible, and largely they co-operate with us. That we do not have full co-operation from all police officers you know. We are ready to co-operate with anyone for the salvaging of criminals."

Tracing the steps that lead the criminal behind the bars, he said, he is taken before the magistrate and sentenced. In the old days the idea was to soak the criminal. Crime must be controlled by punishment. One of the basic methods was to cut the criminal's head off. Some people seem to want that to-day. Mention was made of the manner of torturing prisoners and the miseries of confinement in dank, dark dungeons below the ground. When these methods were used it was found that crime increased.

"There is no greater misconception than that crime can be stopped by punishment. If they could not stop it with a flail in the old days, how can we stop it to-day with a feather duster. Comparing our methods of punishment with those of the past they are only as a feather duster to a flail," he said.

Recently a chief officer had entered his office and bemoaned the fact that now he was not allowed to use the third degree and that the prisons were not what they were in the old days. To-day the prisons are above ground, there are fewer rats and better food. In the old Portsmouth penitentiary the cells were only 27 inches wide, but now they are decent respectable cells. Although the penitentiaries and reformatories have vastly improved the jails have remained the same.

Reformatories and industrial farms have sprung up and the speaker compared the conditions at the Ontario Reformatory, Guelph, with conditions in the old Central prison. At Guelph the guards do not carry revolvers or guns; there are lawns, flower gardens and no high walls. There are fewer repeaters return to Guelph than there were to the Central prison, because the prisoners were sent out less biased to commit further crimes than from the Central prison.

What was the man sent to prison for? For punishment. That was the old idea. It means that the man has broken a reasonable law and that he is no longer a free man among free men, but that he has lost his liberty.

In the old days the man lost his liberty and in jail he was associated day after day with men infinitely worse than himself. He was surrounded by bad men, who schooled deeper in the ways of crime.

Now he is under control and it is up to the Province to keep an eye on the day that man is to be released. What kind of a man he is going to be depends largely on the frame of mind in which he leaves the prison. If he is treated harshly he will become a brute; if sentimentally, he will grin at the law; if he is controlled and scientifically led, he may turn out to be a good citizen.

Dr. Lavell declared that he could not as chief officer of the Parole Board let anyone out of prison until it has come before and passed the board. The board is not influenced by politics, he said. It is the board's claim that there is nothing gained in keeping men in jail without good reason.

Make Prisoners Assets

Criminals and prisoners are liabilities, and it is the board's work to make them into assets. These convicted criminals have been tossed away by society. The speaker stated that the board were not hundred per centers and did not claim to be. They are criticized, but most of it is laughed at by the board. Often the board does not succeed, but these failures, he said, were all published in the board's annual report.

The board has no power to shorten any man's sentence, but it has the power to say how much time of that man's sentence shall be spent in prison and how much under the care of the board out of prison. Some are beyond redemption and must spend all their time in jail.

The board considers the cases carefully, without vindictiveness and scientifically. They are out under the board's direction, and 75 per cent of them prove successful. Under another system, that of the extra-mural, 94 per cent prove successful.

Dr. Lavell stated that the board welcomed criticism that was intelligent and had knowledge, but he declared that the board could best criticism themselves and were always doing so. Much of the criticism was just noise, a roar from the depths of the forest, and the board feels sorry for these critics and pays no attention to them. He stressed the difficulty of choosing men, stating that of the twelve men chosen by Christ one had proved a failure. Most of the board failures, were not due to the board, but because the men failed. The board cannot advertise its success, but Dr. Lavell stated that he could relate hundreds of stories that would show how many had been freed from prison to gain success.

He said that the board were pioneers, but he believed that they were fundamentally right. There were many improvements that would later be made. Ethics stated that it is proper to forgive and that is the method that should be adopted with prisoners who have shown themselves willing to make another attempt to live decent lives.

TWO THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

THERE are two things you should think about in considering an investment.

One is the security itself—its safety, the income it yields, its marketability.

The second is your own position. A man of thirty has not the same investment needs as a man of sixty. A man who holds a large proportion of common stocks is not in the same position as a man who holds bonds.

In other words, it is not sufficient to know that a security is good in itself. It should also be suitable to your particular needs. We are always ready to assist investors in considering such questions and we invite enquiries regardless of the amount involved.

LOCAL DELEGATES ATTEND CONFERENCE

Ontario Leaders Corps Holds Annual Convention in St. Catharines.

Eight representatives from Peterborough attended the annual conference of the Ontario Leaders' Corps held at St. Catharines on Saturday and Sunday. There was a total of more than 200 delegates from many cities of Ontario.

A gymnastic team made up of McLeod, Routley, and Ward represented Peterborough in the great gymnasium display that followed the opening banquet of the conference on Saturday evening. They won third place for this city, competing with Toronto Central, St. Catharines, Galt, Brantford, and London on the parallel bars, horse, high bars, single bar, and the side horse.

Ellis Jones, president of the St. Catharines Association, welcomed the delegates on Saturday night. John Kirmis, general secretary of the Y. M.C.A. of Cairo, Egypt, spoke on Saturday night to the men and again on Sunday. On Sunday morning a church parade to Welland Avenue United Church took place, followed later in the day by the closing addresses of the conference. The theme of the conference was 'Character Values in Leadership Work."

PETERBOROUGH MALE VOICE CHOIR PRACTICE.
Last Tuesday evening found a representative gathering at the weekly practice of the Male Voice Choir. The period of rehearsal of the "Maritana" music was enjoyed by all, and marked improvement in the several parts was noticed. With a large attendance to-morrow (Tuesday) evening in the Legion Hall at 8 o'clock, further progress should be the result. It is hoped every lady and gentleman will be on hand. Please bring music.

EARLY LIFE OF CITY ENACTED BY PUPILS

Interesting Program Presented By Two Academic Thirds of Local Collegiate.

A performance with a distinctly local flavor was the presentation on Friday afternoon by the two Third forms (Academic) of the Collegiate Institute's Literary Society, of several scenes from the early life of Peterborough. This glimpse into the pioneering incidents which form a portion of the history of the city was enacted by pupils of the two forms, and was preceded by a Radio Hour, in which there was an orchestral selections; a selection by the Ideal Entertainers; a cornet solo by Harold Wilson, and a brief account of the early history of Peterborough by Bert Munro.

The first scene was the Adam Scott episode in which the dialogue, prepared by Stuart Mackey, delineates the arrival of Adam Scott, Peterborough's first settler, with his companions, from Port Hope, to choose a site for a mill, built later in 1820, near where the Peterborough Canoe factory now stands.

Taking part in this scene were Albert Chase as Adam Scott; Alfred Pooley as Barnabas Fletcher; Reg. Hunter as C. Fothergill; William Todd as John Ward; H. Cunningham as W. Farley, and A. Worsencroft as John Edmison. This was followed by some views of Peterborough in the early days, with sketches by Henry Shepherd. Those included in the portrait sketches were the Hon. Peter Robinson, played by Donald Lillico; Mrs. Alexander Stuart (Fern Rahmel); Adam Scott (Albert Chase); Jeanette Scott (Bertha Inch); Mr. Armour (Edward Brown); the Rev. Father Crowley (William Boddy); Mrs. Nicholls (Dorothy Routley); and Mr. and Mrs. David Fife (Harold and Jean Wilson). Others taking part were Alan Eason, Jack Allison, Reginald Hunter and Laura Edmison.

Government House

Two scenes from Government House were enacted, one the episode where Sir Pergrine Maitland, Governor of Upper Canada, who visited Scott's Plains, as it was then called, in 1826, received several deputations, and the next at which he entertained some of the local celebrities at a dinner party.

The part of Sir Pergrine was taken by Hugh McCullough; Mr. Wilson and Mr. Bromwell, spokesmen for the Smith deputation, seeking a new mill, were portrayed by Stuart Mackey and Ivan Hagerman, while Jack Allison took the part of Patrick Barragan, the Irish schoolmaster, petitioning the Governor for more teachers and clergymen.

In the second scene, Miss Fern Rahmel took the part of Mrs. Alexander Stuart, suggesting that the name be change to Peterborough, in honor of the Hon. Peter Robinson. The dialogue for this scene was prepared by Mark Kirkwood, Fern Rahmel and Thomas Thompson, and Irish songs were sung during the two scenes by Isobel Weddell, Jean Wilson, Barbara Watson, Constance Legon, Grace McCannan and Jean McKone. An old rustic dance, performed for the Governor and his guests, was done by Helen Cole, Gwen Sorby, Patricia McLellan, Hazel Bradley, Dorothy Routly, Lily Bull, Mary Vance and Virginia Deyell.

ALMOST SIXTEEN MILLIONS PAID TO POLICYHOLDERS

Metropolitan Life Reports Record Year—Nearly a Billion Dollars Insurance in Force in Canada—Welfare and Economic Activities Increasing.

Canadians from coast to coast, who have 2,759,358 policies in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company will be interested to know that payments to policyholders in Canada in 1929 amounted to $15,992,826, representing an increase of over three million dollars over the preceding year. Insurance in force in Canada amounts to almost a billion dollars, being $947,927,397. These figures are particularly interesting in view of the fact that the Metropolitan is a mutual company, that is, it has no stockholders but is owned by the policyholders themselves who are the sole beneficiaries in the company's progress. In the latter part of the past year the soundness of life insurance as an investment, as well as a protection, was brought home to people and the increasing appreciation of this fact is reflected in the greater amount of new insurance issued in 1929, which totalled $292,324,966 an increase of over twenty millions of dollars. This total comprises Ordinary, Industrial and Group policies, all of which show a substantial increase.

HENRY E. NORTH
Third Vice-President and Manager for Canada.

Canadian investments of Metropolitan Life continue to increase, having reached $189,300,437, an increase in the twelve months of almost eighteen millions. These investments are in Dominion and Provincial Government and Municipal Bonds and Mortgage Loans. Growth of Metropolitan Life is graphically shown in a survey of ten-year periods. Total policies in force at the end of 1929 amounted to 44,333,332, covering $17,933,600,452 insurance. Assets total $3,010,560,051. Of particular interest in Canada is the attention being paid by the company to welfare and economic activities. The Welfare Division reports a total of 368,310 visits to policyholders. Of this total 206,871, were on Maternity cases, constituting a valuable contribution to the country's child welfare movement. Nearly 3,000,000 pamphlets on health subjects were distributed, bringing the total to date to more than 28,000,000. In co-operation with local health boards, Metropolitan participated in over 50 health campaigns. During the year the Metropolitan Policyholders' Service Bureau conducted 40 special investigations covering merchandising, distribution and manufacturing problems. One classified industrial survey was carried out as well. These activities constitute an invaluable economic service to the business of the country.

NEW CHAIRMAN IS APPOINTED

C. A. Salmonsen Succeeds J. F. H. Wallace as Head of Friday Night Supper Club.

POPULAR MEMBER.

Carl A. Salmonsen, superintendent of the Canadian General Electric and enthusiastic Y.M.C.A. supporter, has been chosen to succeed J. F. H. Wallace to the chairmanship of the Friday Night Supper Club at the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Wallace has been forced to announce his withdrawal after six years of leadership of the club on account of his departure for Montreal in March.

Mr. Salmonsen came to Peterborough about a year and a half ago from Schnectady, N.Y., but has become in a short time a popular member of the "Y." Interest he has shown in young men recommended him to the club executive as the man to carry on the work of Mr. Wallace.

The Friday Night Supper Club was organized in 1924 and has grown to be the largest organization of its kind for young men in the city. From the first it was operated under the chairmanship of Mr. Wallace, who gave it much attention and was instrumental in increasing the original average attendance at the Friday night suppers of about 30 young men to the present average of 60.

The club was designed to be a social group in the "Y" with each department of the institution's work represented. The young men and senior sections of the Y.M.C.A. enrollment have been most heavily represented in the club. A recent innovation was the forming of an executive committee in 1928. This is composed of eight members, among whom the work of administration is divided. The present vice-chairman of the club is Lawrence Killaly.

OSHAWA HOUR.

Oshawa is to have an hour on the air on Wednesday over CKGW through the courtesy of the Satin Finisth Hardwood Flooring Company which provided for Peterborough's hour two weeks ago. It will be between 10 and 11 o'clock and talent from Oshawa will take care of the entertainment. A ten-minute talk will be given on the subject of Oshawa.

DANGEROUS SPOT.

Complaints have been heard concerning the condition of the section of roadway on the Hunter street bridge opposite the Quaker Oats entrance. This part has been very icy for the past few days and ruts have been working with the ice to cause skidding. Serious accident have been narrowly avoided several times when cars have skidded to the bridge sidewalk, almost pinning pedestrians to the wall of the bridge.

ADDRESSES STUDENT BODY.

Speaking of the profession of nursing, Dr. A. W. McPherson addressed the student body of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute and Vocational School at the opening exercises of the school this morning. His talk was for the benefit of the girls, and he outlined the entrance requirements for the various nursing schools and hospitals, the length of training and the monetary rewards to be expected from the profession. He also told the students of the different lines of work in nursing.

The possibility of having a series of such talks on the professions of men and women at the Collegiate is being considered.

NOT ALL FEROCIOUS

Contrasting the behaviour of the police dog which attacked a small child the other day and who paid the extreme penalty for his ferocity, a large dog in harness was noticed on Charlotte street, Saturday morning being fondly caressed by a little boy who sat on the steps of the A. and P. store.

The scene was striking by the marked evidence of confidence and understanding which existed between the two. The dog, possessed of a snow-white coat, was fastened to a home-made sleigh to which was nailed a wooden packing case, and presented the picture of submissive gentleness, seeming to appreciate the lavishness of his little master's caresses.

TRENT FILM AT SUNSHINE CITY

The wide publicity which this district will receive and is receiving from the Trent Waterway film is apparent from the enthusiastic reception it has obtained wherever exhibited. The latest report came from far away Florida, in a paragraph clipped from The St. Petersburg Times, dated Sunday, February 9th, which says in part. "Don Ce-Sar guests enjoyed a rare treat Saturday evening through the courtesy of Mr. Gordon Fraser, who is honorary president of the Trent Waterways Association of Ontario. Mr. Fraser exhibited the recently-completed film of this project, showing the work of the hatchery branch of the Provincial Department of Fisheries, wild life and hunting scenes and the harvesting of wild rice by the Indians." The report goes on to give a short description of the Trent System, stressing the fact that it is a waterway specially adapted to pleasure craft.

HUSKY YOUTH

The cold weather of the past few evenings has not succeeded in driving away the hardy little skaters from the city's open-air rinks. The four rinks have been kept in fine condition all season and the children of the city have flocked to them in numbers large enough to more than justify their existence.

AUTOMOBILE FIRES.

Two automobile fires, which did not occasion any serious damage, were dealt with by the fire department over the week-end. One car came from 205 Sherbrooke Street, whilst the other was to a car which was in trouble at the corner of Charlotte and Park Streets. A chemical extinguisher was found sufficient to cope with the trouble in both instances.

SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT.

Almost on par with the fabled goose that laid the golden eggs, a white Leghorn belonging to H. J. McCannan of 612 Walkerfield Avenue, is at present working overtime producing eggs of phenomenal size. Mr. McCannan brought one of them to The Examiner office this morning, weighing almost four ounces, and possessing a circumference of eight inches by six and a quarter inches. In appearance, this egg resembles a duck egg. The hen, belonging to one of the smaller species of the poultry world, and which are noted as good layers, evidently believes in earning her keep as she has produced almost a dozen double-yolked eggs of equal size recently.

OBITUARY

GEORGE BOYLER.

George Boyler, aged and well-known citizen, with a wide connection of friends in the railway world, and the oldest active member of the A. O. U. W., Peterborough Branch, passed away on Sunday evening, in his 87th year.

The late Mr. Boyler was born in London, England, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Boyler. His father attained the ripe old age of 12, while his mother was a year older than that when she was laid to rest.

He came to this city 60 years ago, and was employed as a boiler maker with the William Hamilton Company and was also with the C.P.R., and followed his trade at many different cities in the States. It was whilst in the States that he joined the A.O. U.W., and on his return to this city he was transferred to the local branch, which has since been absorbed by the Foresters.

He has lived a life of retirement for the past twnety years and resided on Otonabee street, near Downer's Corners. He was wont to sit out on the lawn in the summer time, and there were many kindly enquiries as to his welfare last year when he was absent from his customary place owing to illness.

His wife, Elizabeth, died 14 years ago, and he leaves to mourn his loss three sons, George St. of this city, E. J. of New York; Eddie, of Biggar, Sask., and five daughters, Mrs. C. P. Keast, Ely, Minn., Mrs. H. Jackson, Long Beach, California, Mrs. W. C. Pennington, Carlsbad, Calif., Mrs. F. Downer, Queenston, Ontario; Mrs. M. Swan, Otonabee, and grandchildren, Mrs. Harold Rose and Edmund Boyler, of this city, and numerous other grandchildren, in the States. One grandson, the late Pte. Harry Boyler, was killed in action in France.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday at 2 p.m., from the family residence. The service will be conducted by Rev. James L. Harton, of Park St. Baptist Church, after which interment will be in Little Lake cemetery.

197 of the Offenders Were Between Ages of 21 and 30 Years.

As shown by Chief Constable Samuel Newhall's annual report to the Board of Police Commissioners, there were in Peterborough during the year 1929 two fatal motor car accidents and 239 non-fatal. This report, which in its concise brevity, gives complete statistical data on work of the police during the twelve months of 1929, was read at the Police Commissioners' meeting held yesterday afternoon and was adopted.

It shows that there was a total of 553 cases disposed of in Police Court during the year, which goes to bear out the claim that crime in Peterborough is not as prevalent or as deep-rooted as in many other cities in the province of equal size.

158 Offenders.

Under the Liquor Control Act there were 158 offenders, and this forms the largest number charged under one head. Vagrancy was the charge for which 60 faced the magistrate

Thirteen were charged with driving a motor car while intoxicated. Theft brought 42 into court and shopbreaking and theft 14. Fourteen were charged with forgery; two with bigamy; three with perjury, and fourteen with disorderly conduct. The other charges run the whole gamut of human offences against law and property.

Nearly all of those charged were Canadians, four hundred and sixty-four giving Canadian as their nationality. Fifty were English, twelve were natives of Ireland and ten were reared in Scotland. Only four swore their adherence to the United States, and the others came from

Heads Committee

F. D. McINTYRE,
Reeve of the Township of Otonabee, who was named head of the Fife Memorial Committee, whose nucleus was formed yesterday.

F. D. McINTYRE IS NAMED HEAD OF FIFE COMMITTEE

Otonabee Township, Home of the Pioneer, Takes Lead in Organizing Memorial Body.

OTHER MEMBERS NAMED.

The nucleus of a general committee to consider and advance the projected David Fife Memorial was formed yesterday by Reeve Fred McIntyre of Otonabee township acting upon the authority of the county council.

In view of the fact that David Fife was a pioneer of Otonabee, the members of the township Council have all been named to act on this committee as follows: Reeve McIntyre, chairman, Deputy-reeve Alex Houston, Councillors Percy Davidson, Joseph Burns and Gus Boland.

Reeve McIntyre has also invited as prominent representatives of Otonabee, W. A. Anderson, ex-M.P.P., Morley E. Smithson, Fred Eason and Sam Armstrong, to assist in the preliminary work of organization.

City Will Co-operate

Rural Peterborough has been assured by Mayor Denne of the fullest co-operation from the city, and it is expected that the Chamber of Commerce, and other local bodies, will join in this movement which has been so eloquently advocated through the columns of The Examiner by a number of prominent Canadians who are deeply interested in the establishment of a memorial to David Fife.

This is not the first time Otonabee sentiment has proposed a Fife memorial. As The Examiner recalled a few weeks ago similar suggestions were put forth in 1960, and on that occasion one farmer who tried to arouse interest in honor of David Fife was Samuel Armstrong, Whom Reeve McIntyre has remembered by inclusion on the committee.

Toronto Group Available

Not ony is support promised from this city, but also from Toronto where possibly a strong auxiliary organization may be formed to reinforce the Peterborough body. Senator W. H. McGuire during Old Home week here last July reminded the people of this city and county of their neglect of the memory of David Fife, and in his recent letter to The Examiner he carefully pointed out that former Peterborough city and county men now living in Toronto could not properly take any initiative toward the establishment of a memorial until the home community had taken the first step.

The men of Otonabee are assured of the continuation of The Examiner's assistance, and it is hoped that they will promptly proceed to enlist the most impressive and numerous committee or association within the bounds of their circumstances.

BOARD OF WORKS ASKS $81,100

SEWAGE PLANT $11,000.

Continuing its attempt to cut the 1930 tax rate in Peterborough to the limit the Board of Works last night which is composed of the entire council reduced its estimates $4,900 over those of the year 1929. This year the sum of $81,100 will be required to finance the city's heaviest spending department while last year there was $86,000 placed in the estimates and $89,224.15 spent.

The three largest items in the Board estimates were $11,000 for the maintenance and operation of the sewage disposal plant; $10,000 for dust laying which is a cut of $7,882.22 over that spent in 1929 and $10,000 for gravel.

Two new trucks will be purchased and one of the old ones turned in the cost of erecting the city's share of the Bethune street bridge was set at $7,000 and the erection of the Jackson Park bridge $3,000.

The board decided not to buy a flusher at an estimated cost of $12,000.

Juneau Cold Snap Comes as Surprise

JUNEAU, Alaska, February 18 (Canadian Press). — This may be in the "frozen north" of fiction fame, but Juneau, which has not experienced below zero weather for more than five years, has been poorly prepared for the continuous snowfall of the past three days.

The city found only 12 shovels available at hardware stores, all others having been bought by the citizens Tractors were attempting to keep the streets open yesterday.

On Douglas Island, near here, freight is being delivered by sleds, automobile traffic is at a standstill, and lack of coal has resulted in its being distributed a sackful at a time to families.

MANIWAKI, Quebec, February 18. — C.P.) — Coming in the early morning, and in biting cold weather, fire brought sudden tragedy to this little northerly outpost in the Gatineau Hills, and virtually wiped out the Galarneau Family. Mrs. Narcisse Galarneau, a widow of only two months, and her two children, were burned to death, as well as Nelson Bertrand, a guest, before they could escape from the Hotel Garlaneau, which broke out in flames at 4.30 o'clock. John Marenger, brother of Mrs. Galarneau, escaped safely, but rushed back into the burning building in an attempt to rescue the others, and lost his life.

Paul Lariviere.

Hero Loses His Life.

The affair was not without its hero —John Marenger, who at first escaped from the building, lost his life when he went back in an attempt to rescue his sister and her children. His was the only body recovered and it was found in the basement of the building. It is thought the floor collapsed under him shortly after he reentered the hotel.

Marenger was the first person in the hotel to awaken. When he found his sister had not got out he rushed back in on the futile quest in the face of almost certain death

Citizens of the little winter-bound town turned out in force to fight the blaze. They were summoned from their beds by the excited and repeated blasts of a railway engine standing overnight at the station and the ringing of the church bell. Handicapped by lack of fire-fighting equipment, however, they were unable to save the building and its occupants.

The four persons listed as injured sustained their hurts in jumping to safety from third-storey windows. Romain Bertrand is suffering from a broken hip; Miss Robillard has painful bruises, and is suffering from shock; Glory Galarneau sustained cuts and shock, and Paul Lariviere has his hair singed off. All are being cared for at the local hospital.

The two Bertrand brothers arrived at the hotel only last night from Sudbury, and were the only occupants outside of the Galarneau family

MARITIME STORM DAMAGE SEVERE

ROOFS SWEPT AWAY.

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 18.—(C.P.)—Reports following Sunday's storm show that Digby county and Cape Breton suffered most severely in Nova Scotia. The entire waterfront at Tiverton, Digby county, was wrecked, involving an estimated loss of $100,000, and at Meteghan, in the same county, three schooners, the Harry A. McLennan, Avon Queen and Edwin G. Farrar, was torn from their moorings and piled up on shore. It was feared the McLennan, a four-master, would be a total loss, but the other two vessels will probably be saved, although their release may have to wait for the spring tide about March 12.

Damage to buildings and paralysis of rail and highway traffic were outstanding in Cape Breton. A spectacular incident was furnished when the walls and roof of a new boat-house at Sydney were lifted by the wind, carried 150 yards through the air, and smashed into an alley. Several houses were unroofed at Sydney, and at Whitney pier the roof from a house blew against two other residences, breaking all the windows.

Mission Play Been Given 3,000 Times

SAN GABRIEL, Cal., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—Greetings from President Hoover and from King Alfonso XIII, of Spain were read here last night at the three thousandth performance of the Mission Play, a historical production depicting rise and fall of missions founded in California by Father Junipero Serra during the Spanish regime. Former President Calvin Coolidge and Mrs. Coolidge attended the performance.

MACDONALD ENDS CONNECTION WITH LEFT WING PARTY

NO REASON GIVEN.

Believed Premier Will Apply Disciplinary Rather Than Persuasive Methods in Future.

LONDON, Feb. 18. — (Canadian Press).—The long-strained relations between the Labor Government and the left-wingers of the Independent Labor party, culminated yesterday in the resignation of Premier Ramsay MacDonald from membership in the I.L.P. No stated reason for the action was given, and, perhaps none was necessary, for, in the words of a friend of the Premier, "the reason must be obvious to every one."

The Independent Labor Party is controlled by the left-wingers, men who have persistently refused on principle, to subscribe to the idea that "half a loaf is better than no bread" an idea which circumstances have forced the Parliamentary Labor party many times to spouse. Government policies and ministers have time and again been attacked, and the week-end meeting of the southern counties' division of the party hardly tended to pour oil on the troubled waters.

The week-end deliberations will probably result in an appeal for funds, a move which the "regulars' view with unconcealed disfavor, as these funds will avowedly be used to finance opposition to Government policies. Not only this, but a motion was carried, with only five dissentients, congratulating James Maxton, the radical Glasgow member, and his supporters in their attitude in the recent debate on the unemployment bill. Maxton's attack on the Government, and the Right Hon. Margaret Bondfield, minister of labor, in particular, was endorsed, on the ground that not enough had been done in the matter of doles. Joseph Beckett, Labor member, who moved the resolution, described meetings of the parliamentary party as a farce.

In view of this out-and-out opposition, Mr. MacDonald's resignation yesterday caused little surprise. It is felt, however, that the Premier will seek, in future, to apply disciplinary rather than persuasive methods in the governing of his party, and moreover, that the die is cast and the glove is in the ring.

Peterborough's Young Curling Wizards

PETERBOROUGH'S YOUNG CURLING WIZARDS.
Charlie Kay's rink of youngsters, who figured so prominently in the recent bonspiel of the Peterborough Curling Club, and who were only defeated in the finals for the Matthews-Blackwell trophy, by Percy Spence of Lakefield, by 15-14, in sixteen ends. This rink proved the stumbling block for some of the veteran curlers from far and near, and their work was the sensation of the 'spiel.

Left to right they are: Charlie Kay, 17, skip; Ralph Clarke, 15, second stone; Billie Widdess, 16, vice-skip; and George Robertson, Jr., 17, lead. The rink's aggregate age is 65 years.

GEN. SIR A. CURRIE HIGHLY PRAISED IN SEELY'S STORY

"Adventure" Gives Many Interesting Insights Into Noted War Characters.

HUGHES 'ECCENTRIC GENIUS'

Vivid Picture Painted of Men in Canadian Cavalary Brigade.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—(By Thos. T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—General Sir Arthur Currie had almost a fanatical hatred for unnecessary casualties", comments Major-Genral J. E. B Seely, commander of the Canadian Cavalry Brigade in the World War, in his life story written by himself, and published by Heinemann today. The title, appriprate enough, is "Adventure."

Of the Commander of the Canadian Corps, Major-General Seely adds: "Of all the men I knew during four years on the western front I think Currie was the man who took most care of the lives of his troops. Moreover, again and again he nearly brought his career to an end by bluntly refusing to do things he was certain would result in great loss of life without compensating advantage.

Survived All Escapes

"That Currie survived all the narrow escapes he had—and he was a big target—not only from shells and rifle fire but even more dangerous onslaughts from official superiors, and that finally he commanded the Canadian corps in the hour of victory, is the source of pride and happiness to every Canadian" Major-General Seely adds.

Anyone who knows Seely personally or knows even a little of his dashing career, will not be disappointed with his work. It conveys to the full the heartening radiness of the many great events in which he has played a not inconspicuous part.

He served in the South African War; was Under-Secretary for the Colonies 1908-1910; Under-Secretary for War in 1911; Secretary of State for War in 1912-1914; after the war, Under-Secretary for Air in 1919. At various periods since 1900 he sat in

A decided change has occurred in weather conditions. This morning the temperature was at 26 degrees, and the lowest last night was but 18 degrees. Yesterday afternoon Rev. Mr. Spence, of Apsley, informed me that on Sunday morning his thermometer registered 38 degrees below zero, and yesterday (Monday) morning it marked 35 degrees below zero. Mr. Spence has the official and standard instruments at that place. This city fortunately lies a little south of the usual track of the cold waves that cross the country from west to east.—W. P.

ARCHBISHOP O'BRIEN IS PLEASED WITH CHOICE

KINGSTON, Feb. 18.—(Special to The Examiner.)— His Grace Archbishop O'Brien said he was greatly delighted over the selection of Monsignor Dennis O'Connor as Bishop of Peterborough, and his successor in the diocese. 'I know Monsignor O'Connor personally and I know of his splendid attainments of mind and heart. It is a source of great satisfaction to me that so distinguished a scholar and orator is to come within the precincts of my Archdiocese. I know he will be greatly beloved in Peterborough diocese."

HITCH APPEARS IN TARIFF BILL

Senate Republican Leaders Tell Hoover it May Not Pass Till March 10.

COALITION HOLDS SWAY.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 18. — (Canadian Press).—President Hoover, after a week of quiet contemplation in fishing off the Florida coast, has asked for a speeding up of the Legislative machinery of the Government, especially as it affects the Tariff Bill, and has been told by his party leader that the nominal republican majority in the senate is "at the mercy of the coalition."

The coalition is that group of Democrats and Republican independents who have been busy for weeks in paring down rates in the Hawley-Smoot Bill, already passed by the House but which has been so changed in the long Senate consideration that it would hardly be recognized by its authors.

The President, feeling that business leaders were disturbed by the delay in enacting some sort of a Tariff Bill, and that other legislation was being held up, made it his first task upon his return to the capital to summon Senate and House Leaders to an intimate breakfast conference to-day so that the situation might be threshed out. He was told that what could be done would be done. But he also was advised that there probably could be no Tariff Legislation until about March 10. Senator Watson, of Indiana, the Republican leader, frankly informed the President that the 'coalition" was in charge of matters affecting such legislation.

DENTISTS' OFFICES ROBBED

GUELPH, Ont., Feb. 18.—(Canadian Press).—Breaking into the offices of three Guelph dentists, burglars got away with a quantity of dental gold, the value of which has not been estimated, in addition to a small sum of money. The offices ransacked were those of Dr. G. H. Weber, Dr. Douglas Foster and Dr. C. E. Morgan. An attempt was also made to break into Dr. G. B. Tovell's suite, but a safety lock on the door resisted the efforts of the thieves. Police believe the burglaries were committed by the same gang that entered a number of Kitchener dental offices at the week-end.

100,000 SQUARE FEET TO BE ADDED TO FLOOR SPACE OF C. G. E. COMPANY ESTIMATED COST SET AT $400,000

Company Now Has Approximately 700,000 Square Feet of Floor Space in City.

TENDERS BEING CALLED AND ALL PLANS ARE READY

Building Will Be One Storey, of Brick and Steel Construction.

COMPLETED IN FALL.

Construction of Building Depended on Action of City Council Last Night.

Plans and specifications for the large new addition to the Canadian General Electric Company's local plant were sent out to-day and tenders will close within two weeks, E. G. Patterson, works manager of the plant, told The Examiner to-day.

The present floor space of Peterborough's largest industry is now approximately 700,000 square feet, and this addition will increase it by close to 100,000 square feet. The building's estimated cost was placed at $400,000. It will be 400 feet long by 160 feet wide with an addition 240 feet by 100 feet.

Start Work in Two Weeks

Work will start almost within a fortnight on the building, Mr. Patterson stated, and it is planned to have the building finished by Fall. It was declared that the increased business of the C.G.E. warrants the addition and that it is expected that the number of employees will enjoy a corresponding increase.

The building will be one storey of brick and steel construction with concrete foundation. It will occupy the site west of the concrete building and

BORDER TRANSIT LEASE EXTENDED BY CITY COUNCIL

Five By-laws Are Passed at Special Meeting of the City Council.

C.G.E. LEASE APPROVED

Committee Will Visit Board of Education in Regard to Reducing Its Estimates.

An extension of the lease of the Border Transit Company Limited for a period of five years was granted that Company at a special meeting of the City Council held last night when five by-laws were given the necesary readings. Mayor Denne reported for the special committee that had viewed the new bus that has been brought into the city and he expressed himself as well satisfied with the type of bus and thought the Council ought to be thankful that there was a company in Peterborough that was willing to provide transportation.

By-law 2888, introduced by Alderman Cotton and seconded by Alderman Phelan provided for an increase in the salaries of certain members of the fire department.

By-law 2889, introduced by Alderman Stocker and seconded by Alderman Holland, provided for the execution of a lease with the Border Transit Company for the old car barns on King street.

By-law 2890, introduced by Alderman Stocker and seconded by Alderman Holland, provided for the execution of an agreement for a further period of five years with the Border Transit Company.

In discussing the by-law Alderman Phelan said that the citizens should be glad to have a transportation system for when he heard that the management of the company was coming to Peterborough he thought they were going to ask for financial assistance.

Aldermen Stocker and Tuggey both endorsed the renewal of the franchise.

C.G.E. By-law.

By-law 2891, introduced by Alderman McIntyre and seconded by Alderman Fitzpatrick, provided for the entering into an agreement with the Canadian General Electric Company

LINDSAY RINK ELIMINATED IN SECOND ROUND

ONE EXTRA END GAME.

Preliminary and First Round of Seiberling Trophy Played To-day.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18 (C.P.) — After the stirring start yesterday when some 200 odd games were played, the first draw on the second day's play of the third annual Toronto bonspiel this morning was small in comparison. There were only 25 games scheduled compared with 46 on several of Monday's six draws and only five of these were in open competitions, these being in the second round of the North American Life, which brought the number of rinks in the 32's up to 23. The remainder of the games were in the preliminary and first round of the Sieberling Trophy, for rinks defeated in the North American Life.

One extra end game was played. F. R. Michael of Oshawa defeating Matt Kennedy Jr., of Owen Sound, 10—9, in the North American. Dr. McTavish of Winnipeg, was eliminated from this event by Bob Falconer of the local High Park club, but he was accompanied in his exit movement by F. J. Carew of Lindsay, who lost to Harry Kennedy of Meaford, 13-11, Davie Walker of Fort William kept rolling along merrily and entered the third round by defeating E. C. "Pat" Goldie of the local Granites, who was handicapped by one of his rink failing to turn up, 15—3.

Queen of Sweden Very Ill in Rome

ROME, Feb. 18 (C.P.).—Condition of Queen Victoria of Sweden was said by her physician, Dr. Axel Munthe, to-day to be grave. A formal bulletin was given out to newspapers and agencies.

The Swedish colony here is considerably alarmed, remarking that Dr. Munthe, as well as King Gustav, has spent the last few days at Her Majesty's villa, not returning to his apartment at all.

King Gustav had planned to go to the Riviera a few days ago, but instead remained in Rome. Giving out to-day's bulletin here instead of in Stockholm, where they have been forwarded, was an unsual procedure, interpreted by some as betokening increased gravity in the Queen's long illness.

French Government Resigns Office

TARDIEU GOV'T LOSES ON VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Crisis Arises on Refusal to Increase War Widows' Pensions—Tardieu in Bed.

DIRECTS POLICY TO LAST.

PARIS, February 18 (Canadian Press). — The political storm threatening the Tardieu Cabinet since the Naval Conference got under way in London broke in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday and the Government went down to defeat.

A few hours later the ministers handed their collective resignation to President Doumergue, who immediately accepted it. The Cabinet had been in office for a little more than three months.

The political consequences of the resignation were obscured last night by the excitement attending the Government's downfall. M. Tardieu is considered to be the favorite candidate to succeed himself, with former Premier Poincare, who recently returned from a rest cure on the Riviera, second choice. Many politicians thought the new Cabinet would contain both men, M. Tardieu as Premier and M. Poincare as Minister of Finances.

Directs Policy From Bed.

Premier Tardieu went down with colors flying, and though unable to rise from his sick bed, where a severe attack of grip has confined him, directed the Government's tactics, in the Chamber by telephone.

Three successive attacks were beaten off before the Government finally fell on the fourth vote of confidence by a margin of five votes. The figures were 286 to 281.

The vote was taken on M. Tardieu's orders on a financial measure of M. Cheron, who in accord with the Premier refused to accept an increase in pensions for the widows of officers and soldiers killed during the World War.

Before bringing the measure to a vote of confidence, M. Cheron telephoned M. Tardieu, who gave him full support.

FIRE RAGES IN NEWPORT CITY

Two Business Blocks Valued at $125,000 Destroyed—Whole Section Threatened.

NEWPORT, R.I., Feb. 18 (Canadian Press).—The entire business district of this city was threatened by fire early to-day which destroyed the Oddfellows' and the Builders' and Mason blocks, and spread to the Merchants' Exchange. The fire was still out of control at 2.30 a.m.

Aid was summoned from Fall River, Fort Adams, the Newport Training Station and Middleton. The whole business section was showered by flaming brands carried by a northeasterly wind.

The fire was checked in one direction after a tenement had caught fire and families were driven out.

The two blocks destroyed were four-storey wooden buildings valued at more than $125,000. The Merchants' Exchange is a two-storey wooden building. The adjacent structure is the Washington Square branch of the Aquidneck National Bank, a wooden building. All securities were removed by officials of the bank.

Two Villages Felt Tremors on Sunday

BRANTFORD, Feb. 18.—(C.P.)—Simcoe and Tillsonburg, within a few miles radius of this city, report distinct earth tremors between the hours of six and seven thirty Sunday morning. Simcoe reports that the tremor was plainly felt at about 7:17 and Tillsonburg early risers say the quake was of sufficient magnitude to rattle windows and shake dishes. Brantford felt no tremor or if there was such a shake it was of such small proportion as to attract no attention. No explosions have been reported near either Simcoe or Tillsonburg that would account for the phenomenon.

PESSIMISTS RULE AT NAVAL PARLEY

Powers Show No Signs of Moderating Figures—Britain Hints France Must Back Down.

WAIT ON FRENCH GOV'T.

LONDON, Feb. 18. — (Canadian Press).—With the sudden swiftness characteristic of French politics the Tardieu Government fell last night. And until it is reconstructed or another cabinet takes its place the labors of the Naval Conference will be halted.

The downfall of the Tardieu Cabinet climaxes a day during which the pessimists at the Conference had full sway. Discussion between the British, American and Japanese delegations continued but there was forthcoming no indication that any of the great powers were willing to moderate their naval demands. In British circles it was even broadly hinted that unless France displayed a willingness to revise her demands in a downward direction, Great Britain and the United States might have to revise their demands upwards. In other words, as has already been pointed out, any suggestion of a threat from Continental Europe of a large naval armament might have to face an Anglo-American construction agreement.

France takes the position she has no such naval ambitions and points out that even including her naval programme her navy will be in a reduced position as compared with pre-war years. All she claims to desire is the insertion of a paragraph embodying a security guarantee.

Until the new French Government is formed however, no clear idea can be formed as to whether the French programme is amendable to modification.

DUNDALK BLAZE ACCIDENTAL, IS POLICE BELIEF

LONSWAY ON $12,500 BAIL.

Organs of Wife and Children To Be Analyzed—Coal Oil Found in Bedroom.

TORONTO, Ont., February 18 (Canadian Press). — Although rumors flew thick and fast yesterday in connection with circumstances surrounding the death of Mrs. Roy Lonsway and her two children in the fire which destroyed their farm home four miles out of Dundalk early on Saturday, Provincial Police said last night they believed the fire was accidental in origin.

Inspector McCrea, of Kitchener, brought the organs of Mrs. Lonsway and her children to the Provincial Laboratory here yesterday where they will be analyzed.

Father Released for Funeral.

In releasing Roy Lonsway from the Orangeville County Jail where he had been confined since Sunday as a material witness in connection with the deaths of his wife and children, Provincial Police said there is an entire lack of motive surrounding the affair.

Lonsway was allowed to attend the funerals of the trio, and the inquest, which will be opened to-day, probably will adourn until next week, the police said.

In relating details of the fire as gathered by police, Inspector McRea said Mrs. Lonsway and her two children slept together in a bedroom adjoining the kitchen, while Lonsway occupied a room upstairs. Lonsway informed police he arose about 6 o'clock Saturday morning and awakened his wife, instructing her to throw wood on the fire in the kitchen stove while he went to the barn to do his chores. He said he would be back in two hours. After working in the barn a short time, Lonsway said he smelled smoke and looking out saw his house in flame. He found the children burned in their bed, but the mother was lying near a window as though she had jumped from the bedroom.

Oil Spilled in Kitchen

Police found evidences of oil having been spilled in the kitchen near the stove, Inspector McRea said, but this was believed to have been done accidently by Mrs. Lonsway in her efforts to kindle a fire. The blaze was almost entirely confined to the kitchen and bedroom and did not cause damage of more than $50 in material value.

Little significance was attached to the circumstances by police in the finding of a rope draped around the neck of Arthur Lonsway, aged five years. The rope, Inspector McRea hung about his neck in a fashion indicating he had been playing horse. It had not choked the lad.

Lonsway will be held on bail of $12,500 until the case is definitely cleared up, police said.

BEAVERBROOK FORMS UNITED EMPIRE PARTY

New Body Will Forward Cause of Empire Free Trade—100,000 Enroll.

ISSUES MANIFESTO.

Canadian Peer Sees No Hope in Old Parties Who Are "Slaves to Tradition."

LONDON, February 18 (Canadian Press). — A new party has emerged from Lord Beaverbrook's Empire-free-trade crusade, and its rejection by the Conservative, Liberal, and Labor organizations. In a manifesto issued yesterday the Canadian peer and newspaper owner declares he sees no hope in "the old parties, slaves to tradition and impervious to new ideas," and announces he and his colleagues of the crusade have decided to launch a new party, called the United Empire Party, and he expects to enroll as members at one "100,000 men and women who have enrolled as founder members of the Empire-free-trade crusade."

Text of Manifesto.

Lord Beaverbrook's manifesto follows:

"It is now ten weeks since I invited all men and women who believe as I do on the matter of Empire trade to join a crusade to further our objects. Already 100,000 men and women have enrolled as founder members, and I receive daily from every part of the country and the Empire letters revealing ardent hopes and intense enthusiasms inspired by the free-trade policy. It has aroused new hopes among people who were beginning to despair of ever being offered a straightforward constructive policy as a remedy for our unemployment and poor trade.

"Men and women of all classes and of all political parties have welcomed the crusade with all their hearts, and people are flocking to join us. But the emergence of a new and live policy caused nothing but dismay among the party leaders. For once the chiefs of the old political machines—Conservative, Liberal and Labor—found something on which they could all agree, namely, the necessity of stamping out any new ideas.

"I have therefore decided, in full consultation with my colleagues of the Empire crusade, that we will forthwith form a new party called the United Empire Party, to seek by every means within its power to place before the electors and to carry into effect the plain principles for which the Empire crusade has been launched without being shackled by tactical considerations or the temporizing counsels which at the present moment are paralyzing British politics."

SCOTCH TRAINS COLLIDE IN FOG

Fifty-one Passengers Injured As They Are Hurled Out Upon Rails.

SIX SERIOUSLY HURT.

GLASGOW, Feb. 18. — (Canadian Press).—In a fog, which was termed the densest for months, two trains collided last night near here, and when rescuers got to the scene they found 51 passengers injured, and 6 of them in a serious condition.

Two coaches of one train were thrown off the track, and only prevented from overturning by the high walls of a stone bridge. The rear coach telescoped into the one ahead of it; the floors of both collapsed, and the occupants of the crowded compartments—most of them women and a few men and all travelling home after the day's work—were thrown into a jumbled mass onto the rails beneath. Rescuers declared it almost a miracle that more were not seriously hurt.

Warkworth Farmer Is Shot in Leg By His Own Man Trap

WARKWORTH, Ont., February 18 (Canadian Press). — A man trap devised by Howard Aikins, a local farmer, to eliminate persistent pilfering of his poultry, which he never had the opportunity of testing, has, with the aid of the Aikins cat, proven its practicability. The cat jumped from a roof on to the trap, and Mr. Aikins received a charge of buckshot in his leg.

QUIET SESSION IS SPENT IN GIVING SECOND READINGS

Amendment to Municipal Act Allowing Two or More Municipalities to Buy Air Port Jointly Passes.

ROUTINE BUSINESS.

True Bills Dealt With in Committee of the Whole—Change Fire Marshal's Bill.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18.—(Canadian Press).—Government private bills received second readings in the Legislature yesterday. Practically nothing but routine business took place in the sparsely-filled house.

The amendment to the Municipal Act, introduced by F. G. McBrien, Cons., Brockton received second reading. It provided that where a lane is put through on a petition and some of the adjoining property owners possess garage space along it, they shall not be assessed for any portion of the paving or sewage costs.

Municipal Act Amendment

S. C. Tweed, Lib., North Waterloo, introduced an amendment to the Municipal Act that also received second reading. It would allow two or more municipalities to purchase jointly and maintain an airport. This situation had arisen in Kitchener and Waterloo, Mr. Tweed said.

On the request of Premier G. H. Ferguson, an amendment to the Municipal Act, dealing with control over hawkers and peddlers, was allowed to stand. It was introduced by F. G. McBrien, Cons., Brockton. It was designed to cover cases where peddlers and transient traders went into a municipality and took orders for future delivery. It asking that it stand over, the Premier said it had become a perennial question and that an earnest endeavour would be made by the Government to clear it up at this session.

Another Bill introduced by the Liberal member for North Waterloo, an amendment to the Railway Act, rceived second reading. It would allow a municipality which owned its street railway system also to operate a bus system.

T. J. Mahony, Cons., Wentworth, introduced a bill, which received second reading, which would permit a municipality to take on a two or three-year premium note for insurance irrespective of the fact that it is forbidden to incur a debt not included in the particularly year's estimates.

Charities Accounting Act Changed.

A Government bill introduced by Attorney-General W. H. Price, an amendment to the Charities Accounting Act, received second reading. It provided that in a will which named one or more charitable institutions as beneficiaries, it would not be necessary to send a copy of the will to each. Notice of the gift would be sent to each charity and a copy of the will would be sent to the public trustee. There have been complaints received of the cost of sending copies of wills to each charity named, the Attorney-General said.

Attorney-General Price introduced another bill that also received second reading. It was an amendment to the Trustee Act and provided for the payment into court by the trustee or debtors of a person, who through infancy or otherwise is incompetent to manage his own affairs.

An amendment to the Crown Administration of Estates Act, introduced by the Attorney-General, received second reading. It dealt with the administration of the estates of persons who died intestate without any next-of-kin in Ontario or who were infants.

Five Bills Up.

In the committee of the whole, five bills were dealt with. An amendment to the Lunacy Act, to avoid the necessity of an annual accounting by the committee of a person confined

HUNT FOR NEW PREMIER BEGUN BY DOUMERGUE

Poincare Among First of Political Chiefs and Party Leaders Summoned.

TARDIEU AGAIN FAVORED.

French Naval Policy Not Changed No Matter Who Heads New Cabinet.

PARIS, February 18 (Canadian Press).—President Doumergue's search for a new French Premier began this morning wiith customary consultations with political chiefs and party leaders. Former President Poincare was among the first summoned to the Elysee Palace, the President wishing his views on the situation created by the defeat of Premier Tardieu and his Government in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday.

Paul Doumer, president of the Senate, according to tradition, was the first sent for. He was followed by Fernand Bouisson, President of the Chamber. After them came Senators Etienne Clementel and Victor Berard and Deputies Louis Malvy and Paul Boncour, Presidents of the Senate's and Chamber's Commissions of Finances and Foreign Affaires.

Believe Tardieu Choice.

Camille Chautemps, Radical Socialist leader, and others of the left wing opposition which last night overthrew Premier Tardieu, also were included in the list of callers. In some quarters reception of the visitors was regarded as merely a perfunctory measure, expectation being that M. Tardieu would be asked again to form a Government, and would accept.

There was some mention of Aristide Briand, Foreign Minister in the last Cabinet, as a possible selection to head the next Government, and as possibly being able to gather a stronger majority for the moment while there was conflict between M. Tardieu's Cabinet and the Chamber in matters of tax reduction.

It was generally conceded that selection of M. Tardieu once more was almost necessary because of his familiarity with affairs at the London Naval Conference, where he is considered to have raised considerably the prestige of France. No one else is considered quite so well equipped as he to finish that job.

Tardieu's Fall Internal Politics

Premier Tardieu's fall, since it came on a trivial clause in the budgetary internal politics. Hence it was necessary that the advice of the party leaders be given considerable weight in order that the Government would be able to muster a substantial majority and prevent any further crisis

BROKERS PROBED IN BORDER CITIES

Check Upon Non-Members Purely Routine—No Complaints Received by Price.

Conference Report Thursday.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18.—(C.P.)—Two representatives of the Attorney-General's Department will leave for Windsor to-day to investigate and audit the books of the non-member brokers of the Border Cities. Col. W. V. Denison, Registrar of Companies and Brokers and Norman Harris, Special Investigator, the same two men who recently checked up on the Ottawa brokers, will conduct the investigation.

It was said here last night that no complaints from Windsor had been received by the Attorney General's Department and it was understood that the check-up will be purely routine and in keeping with the general policy of the Department.

Either Wednesday or Thursday, the Governments of the six provinces represented at the conference here last week on the brokerage house and stock exchange question will issue a report, simultaneously, as to what they intend to do in future to improve trading conditions throughout the country.

Once this is made public said Hon. W. H. Price, Ontario Attorney-General, this department will start to work to prepare the Security Frauds Prevention Act amendments, which were recommended at the conference. The amending bill will be brought down to the Ontario Legislature as soon as possible in order that it may be thoroughly discussed before being passed by the House.

BELLEVILLE CLUB HOUSE IS BURNED

FIGHTERS SUFFER COLD.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 18.—(C.P.)— A large and commodious club house owned by the Canada Cement Company at Point Anne, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday. The fire was of unknown origin, the loss amounting to $35,000, covered by insurance. Many of the executive officers of the plant roomed at the club house, but were able to make their escape in scanty attire but lost all their personal belongings. The fire brigade from Belleville went to the scene and although unable to save the club house, were instrumental in confining the fire to one building. There was a strong north wind blowing with the thermometer registering ten below zero and all assisting in subduing the blaze suffered from exposure. As the fire started in the roof, the workers were able to remove part of the furnishings from the lower half of the club house. The building which serves the recreation needs of a large number of workmen, will be rebuilt.

SUSPECT HELD IN VANCOUVER

Held in Connection With A. A. Johnston Fatal Shooting—Will Make No Statement.

IDENTITY KEPT SECRET.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 18.—(C.P.)—The police have arrested a man, whose name they refuse to divulge, following the shooting to death of Archibald A. Johnston, former police chief of Medicine Hat, Alta., here Sunday. The man was arrested late Sunday.

An unidentified assailant entered the office of Johnston and during an argument fired two shots from a revolver, one bringing instant death to the former police official, the second narrowly missing a woman working in a neighboring apartment when it whizzed through a kitchen window.

The arrested man refused to make any statement, according to police. He will be placed in the morning "showup" at central headquarters today in an effort to have him identified by persons who saw the slayer escape from Johnston's office in an apartment building.

Vengeance is ascribed as the motive for the murder. Police state Johnston had been accepting bets on horse races, possibly gaining an enemy through some racing deal.

$200 DENTIST'S GOLD STOLEN

GALT, Feb. 18 (C.P.)—The police announced yesterday that Dr. C. O. Bond's dental office, in the Masonic Block, had been entered over the week-end and $200 of gold stolen. The thief used a sharp instrument between the door and jam to force back the spring lock.

Pneumonia

....often follows neglected colds

Unless checked, the simple cold pulls down the body resistance and frequently paves the way for pneumonia's deadly attack.

The safe thing is to treat every cold promptly with Vicks VapoRub. This is doubly important during the next few weeks when pneumonia is at its height. Rubbed on the throat and chest, Vicks acts two ways at once in relieving colds:

(1) Its healing vapors, released by body-warmth are inhaled direct to the inflamed air-passages loosening phlegm and easing the breathing.

(2) At the same time it acts like a poultice or plaster and "draws out" the tightness and pain.

This method of treating colds originated with Vicks. Today, the whole trend of modern medical practice is away from needless "dosing."

NEW YORK BOOTLEGGER OWNED I'M ALONE EVIDENCE INTIMATES

Testimony is Brought Forth Before House Appropriations Committee.

FIRST DEFICIENCY BILL.

WASHINGTON D.C. February 18 (Canadian Press) — That there is "considerable evidence" the I'm Alone sunk as a rum runner in the Gulf of Mexico several months ago by the coastguard, was "owned in the United States by a New York bootlegger," was asserted in testimony before the House Appropriations Committee on the first Deficiency Bill reported to-day.

This testimony was given by William R. Vallance, assistant to the Solicitor of the State Department.

"As far as the testimony of witnesses is concerned," he said, "of course, we have an interest in pending before the tribunal the dummy stockholders of the Canadian Corporation in whose name the I'm Alone is registered. We have considerable evidence that the I'm Alone was owned in the United States by a New York bootlegger."

JAMES McCAULEY FRACTURES LEG

Warsaw Youth Meets With Misfortune While Playing With Companions.

FIRE FUND DANCE

WARSAW, Feb. 18.—(Examiner Correspondence)—Jim McCauley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland McCauley, broke his right leg just above the ankle on Sunday morning. He and the other boys were playing at Cephas Payne's when the youth fell and broke his leg. Dr. Munro was called. He reduced the fracture, and the boy was brought home.

Fire Fund Dance.

The dance held in Warsaw Town Hall on Friday evening in aid of the fire fund was a very pleasant affair. Cold and bad roads evidently kept some away, who generally attend these affairs. The hall was comfortably filled and the amount received will help materially in reducing the debt on the engines. Dr. Munro assisted by Mr. Aitken, Mr. Leahy, Mrs. Roland Payne, Mrs. Munro and some others supplied the music. Eddie Payne was floor manager. The attending ladies provided most of the refreshments.

ORATORY CONTEST IN MILLBROOK HALL

Entries Eligible From Townships of Cavan, Manvers and Hope.

CAVAN, Feb. 18.—(Examiner Correspondence.)— At the annual public speaking contest for East Durham, to be held in Millbrook Town Hall on Friday evening, February 28th, boys and girls from Cavan, Hope and Manvers are eligible to speak.

There will be separate prizes for boys and girls. A handsome silver cup will be given to the best speaker, boy or girl in East Durham, and one to the best speaker in West Durham. This cup will become the permanent property of the boy or girl winning it twice, not necessarily in succession. This cup was won by Clare Winslow in 1929. In addition cash prizes will be given as follows:

Girls' Contest—1st $5.00, 2nd $4.00, 3rd $3.00, 4th $2.00, 5th $1.00.

Boys' Contest—1st $5.00, 2nd $4.00, 3rd $3.00, 4th, $2.00, 5th $1.00.

The subjects are as follows:

1, Our Home Markets; 2, The Junior Farmers in Ontario; 3, Trip to the Royal or C.N.E.; 4, Agriculture, Ontario's Chief Industry; 5, Reforestation and Value of Our Forests; 6, Farm Power; 7, Music in the Rural Communities; 8, Labor Saving Devices in the Farm Home; 9, Birds of Ontario and Their Value; 10, The Junior Institute in Ontario; 11, Income Earning for Farm Girls; 12, Educational Value of Modern Exhibitions and Shows; 13, A Motor Trip to Montreal; 14, Why We Have a Better Seed Campaign; 15, Beautification of Farm Homes; 16, Women's Opportunity in Agriculture; 17, Why Young People Leave the Farm.

MASQUERADE ENDS IN DEATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 18.—Death to-day had ended the masquerade of "Dr." Hjalmar W. De Danneville, 70, a woman who for 12 years lived and worked here, dressed always as a man. After her arrest in 1925 for masquerading as a man she was given a permit to wear masculine clothing. She died after a few days' illness.

French Mark Time At Naval Parley

LONDON, Feb. 18 (C.P.)—George Leygues, French Minister of Marine, acting on behalf of the French delegation to the Naval Conference, called on Premier Ramsay MacDonald this forenoon and informed him that, pending a solution of the French political crisis, the French delegation would have to mark time here.

M. Leygues had hoped to return to Paris to-day, but last minute instructions of M. Tardieu, who will act as Premier until himself or another is designated, bade him remain in London and act as observer at the Conference. Naturally, M. Tardieu, Briand and Pietri will remain in Paris until a new Cabinet is formed.

Omemee

OMEMEE, Feb. 17. — (Examiner Correspondence)—The annual banquet of the Anglican Young People's Association was held on Monday evening in the Sunday school-room of the church. The tables were very prettily decorated with red tulips, red candles and red favors at each place; also Valentine place cards. The menu was most appetizing and the gathering did ample justice to the bountiful feast provided.

Mr. Horace Hill, president of the society, was toastmaster, the list being as follows:

His Majesty the King, proposed by the toastmaster and responded to by the singing of the National Anthem.

Canada, proposed by Mr. Woodhead, one of our new Canadians, and ably responded to by Mr. John Bent.

At this time Mr. Benson, from Peterborough, rendered a vocal solo, accompanied by Mr. Sidall at the piano.

The toast to the church was neatly proposed by Mr. N. Burgomaster and beautifully responded to in an address by a former well-loved rector, Rev. E. R. James, of Peterborough.

Mr. Howard Bent at this time gave a humorous reading, which elicited much applause.

The toast to the A.Y.P.A. was given in a breezy manner by Miss Mabel Rowan and responded to by the rector, Rev. A. T. Weir.

The ladies' toast was fittingly proposed by Mr. Will Stephenson, Jr., who was quite in his element in the proposal of same. Miss Violet Moyer ably responded on behalf of the ladies.

Community singing interspersed the toasts and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" brought to a close another event in the year's activities of the A.Y.P.A.

Musical Recital.

The junior pupils of Miss Isobel McKee of the Conservatory of Music, Peterborough, held a studio recital at the home of Mrs. P. Parsons on Thursday evening. A number of ex-pupils were also present through the kind invitation of Miss McKee. At the conclusion of the program an amply supply of home-made candy was enjoyed.

The following was the program, accompanied by a short sketch on the life of the composer given by each pupil:

Intrata (Bach), Allegro (Clementi), Intermezzo Caprice (Duval) — Jean Southworth.

Violet (Graham)—Mildred Jones.

Reverie (Englemann)—Jean Parsons.

Black Forest Clock (Heins)—Jean McGinness.

Skating (Klein)—Mildred Jones.

Sonatina in F (Beethoven) — H. Vaughan.

Pixie's Gavotte (Brown), Village Dance (Pennington), Hide and Seek (Ellenberg)—G. Stephenson.

Elfin Dance (Jensen) — F. MacPherson.

La Parisienne (Wachs)—A. Weir.

God Save the King.

It was regarded as certain, however, that France's naval policy would not be changed no matter who heads the new Cabinet. This naval policy is the result of months of consultation by Premier Tardieu with all political parties and is based on a gradually developed attitude since the Washington Conference. Premier Tardieu's stand has gained remarkable popularity, and espousal by all except extremeists.

M. Bouisson, who spent an hour with Tardieu before seeing President Doumergue, said after leaving the President, that he doubted if the conferences with political advisers and the summoning of some one to form a Government would be concluded until to-morrow night.

The Bourse took the Ministerial crisis calmly. There was a slight drop at the opening in Government bonds and the Bank of France, while other banks and some industrials showed improvement.

an asylum, stood for third reading.

An amendment to the Public Trustee Act, providing for the appointment of a deputy trustee, went through without a change, as also did an amendment to the Private Detective Act transferring the licensing from the Treasury Department to the Department of the Attorney-General.

A bill to give the Ontario Fire Marshal wider powers in the inspection and entering of buildings also stood for final reading. Changes in the Evidence Act, made necessary through the change in status of the Irish Free State, went through the committee without amendment.

An amendment to the Judicature Act was allowed to stand. It provided that a judge, hearing a case arising out of an accident in which personal injury had been sustained, could order one or more independent medical examinations of the plaintiff.

Marmora

The Careful Gleaners Girls' Class and the Senior Boys' Class of St. Paul's Sunday school had a sleighing party to Deloro on Friday evening. Upon their return the party adjourned to the White Hall for a bean feast and games.

A skating party will be held on the Deloro arena on Tuesday evening. After a comical football match in which brooms will be used by teams styling themselves Broneos and Canucks, a short program of races will be carried out. The costumes will then be judged and as a concluding event, a hockey game will be played between O'Neill's Reds and Mumby's Whites.

OBITUARY

JAMES HUNTER

MILLBROOK, Feb. 18. — James Hunter, a well-known citizen of Cavan township, passed away at his residence, Hunter street, Millbrook, on Saturday, February 15th, in his 84th year. Mr. Hunter's health had been failing for two years, and he had been confined to his bed for two weeks previous to his death.

He was a son of the late William Hunter of the Seventh Line of Cavan, and was actively engaged as a farmer prior to his removal to Millbrook. His wife was Francis Kinsman, who predeceased him six years ago.

He leaves to mourn his loss, three brothers and one sister: William Hunter of Midland, Thomas Hunter of Millbrook, Joseph Hunter of Peterborough, and Miss Mary Ann Hunter of Millbrook.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon from his late residence to Presbyterian cemetery. Rev. Mr. Jones of Millbrook conducting the services.

GEORGE BOYLER.

George Boyler, aged and well-known citizen, with a wide connection of friends in the railway world, and the oldest active member of the A. O. U. W., Peterborough Branch, passed away on Sunday evening, in his 87th year.

The late Mr. Boyler was born in London, England, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Boyler. His father attained the ripe old age of 102, while his mother was a year older than that when she was laid to rest.

He came to this city 60 years ago, and was employed as a boiler maker with the William Hamilton Company and was also with the C.P.R., and followed his trade at many different cities in the States. It was whilst in the States that he joined the A.O. U.W., and on his return to this city he was transferred to the local branch, which has since been absorbed by the Foresters.

He has lived a life of retirement for the past twenty years and resided on Otonabee street, near Downer's Corners. He was wont to sit out on the lawn in the summer time, and there were many kindly enquiries as to his welfare last year when he was absent from his customary place owing to illness.

His wife, Elizabeth died 14 years ago, and he leaves to mourn his loss three sons, George S. of this city, E. J. of New York; Eddie, of Biggar, Sask., and five daughters, Mrs. C. P. Keast, Ely, Minn., Mrs. H. Jackson, Long Beach, California, Mrs. W. C. Pennington, Carlsbad, Calif., Mrs. F. Downer, Queenston, Ontario; Mrs. M. Swan, Otonabee, and grandchildren, Mrs. Harold Rose and Edmund Boyler, of this city, and numerous other grandchildren, in the States. One grandson, the late Pte. Harry Boyler, was killed in action in France.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 p.m., from the family residence. The service was conducted by Rev. James L. Harton, of Park St. Baptist Church, after which remains were laid to rest in Little Lake Cemetery.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—Eggs continued to attract an active demand at steady prices on the local dairy markets yesterday while the butter demand was slight. The bulk of the day's dealings were reported at from 36c to 46½c a pound for New Zealand finest or Eastern Townships No. 1.

Local cheese dealers continued to report a featureless market as seasonal quietude held the market. Eastern's sold at 19c and Westerns from 19c to 19½c a pound.

The extremely cold weather was responsible for the firmness of the local potato market, especially in New Brunswick potatoes. Prices remained unchanged at from $1.70 to $1.75 for New Brunswicks and $1.70 for Quebecs per 90 pounds in bulk in car lots, ex-track here. Dressed poultry held unchanged with a fair demand.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Feb. 18.—Bear traders wielded the scimitar in the wheat market yesterday, lopping 4¼c to 4⅝c from the already low prices of futures. Every closing figure was the lowest on that future since early last summer. At one time during a morning of rushing sales values were 5⅞c below Saturday's close.

Weakness at Liverpool and Buenos Aires broke values 2⅜c within two minutes from the opening and heavy buying from a local interest failed to bring more than a temporary halt. Then came another drop to 3⅛c below the last close, and at noon the groggy market staggered at its lowest points. Slight recovery preceded the close.

At its lowest level May reached $1.17⅝. No. 1 Northern closed at a cash quotation of $1.14½. Apart from a little stop-loss selling of farmers' cars, the cash wheat market was idle. Export business was flat.

TORONTO LIVESTOCK

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—The trade on the Dominion Livestock Exchange this morning opened very slow. Prices were steady at $6.00 to $8.25.

Milch and Springer trade was very dull.

Calves are slow with packers bidding a dollar lower at $14.00 to $14.50 for choice.

Hogs were unsettled, with packers bidding $13.50 F.O.B. for bacon or $14.50 off car.

Lambs are steady at $12.00 to $12.50 for good ewes and weather lambs. Sheep were scarce.

Culls $3.50 to $5.

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, February 18. — There was comparatively little change on the local wholesale produce market yesterday, though the forecast for the first of this week was "a weaker egg market." Prices remain the same for eggs as quoted yesterday, that is to country shippers, fresh extras are still 45c to 46c; firsts, 42c to 43c; seconds, 33c to 35c; and pullet extras are bringing 38c to 40c. The quotation to the retail trade is about the same. Receipts are light, but the market remains firm due to importations of American eggs, a few cars of these taking care of the demand.

Poultry Firm.

Poultry prices remain the same as quoted yesterday, and no change is expected until later in the week. The poultry market should strengthen soon as supplies are diminishing rapidly and it is expected cold storage supplies will begin to move about the end of this week or the first of next.

Lull in Butter.

All the wholesalers seem to have stocked up with butter, for there is a lull in trade between jobbers and wholesalers. There is a good retail demand, but the wholesalers seem able to meet it without doing any purchasing themselves. The best demand, from the jobbers' viewpoint, is for No. 2 Ontario butter, especially the top scoring No. 2. But there is very little of this grade available at the present time. There is no great demand for Ontario No. 1, or New-Zealand, due to the fact that wholesalers have been stocking up.

Cheese Steady.

The cheese market remaiss firm with only a moderate trade. There are only two changes in the price list to the retail trade, new, large, is selling for 20¾c to 21c, and new, twin, is bringing 21c to 21¼c.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Only the Federal Farm Board's newly-organized National Grain Stabilization Corporation stood up yesterday as a strong rallying point for wheat values. Almost every other known influence counted against upholding of wheat prices, with Chicago future deliveries forced down to nearly the lowest level yet this season. A specially disturbing factor here was word that the Winnipeg market, shaken by a $2,000,000 grain failure and by flattening out of export demand for wheat from North America, was reported as semi-demoralized.

Capping the climax of adverse developments for friends of higher prices on wheat was a late announcement that the United States wheat visible supply showed a disappointingly small decrease for the week. The decrease amounted to just 632,000 bushels, compared with 3,811,000 bushels curtailment a week ago. Earlier the market here had been thrown into turmoil by tumbling down of prices at Liverpool and Winnipeg, and by spreading of assertions that European importers had definitely beaten North American wheat growers in the price war which has been waged for the last six months.

VARIOUS CLASSES FINANCIAL BONDS

A. J. Armour is Principal Speaker at Campbellford Rotary Club Luncheon.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 18.—(Examiner Staff Correspondence.)—The weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club which was held in the St. Lawrence Hotel here yesterday, was featured by a talk on 'Bonds' by A. J. Armour, local business man. N. A. MacCall presided.

Mr. Armour stated that the bonds he wished to speak of were bonds of finance, not marriage. "A bond was the finest security of any company," he said, "and was a deed to pay a certain sum at a certain time in a certain place, with security."

The speaker gave a very able description of the different kinds of bonds on the market. This list comprised coupon bonds, with interest and principal payable to bearer; registered coupon bonds, with principal registered and interest payable to bearer; fully registered bonds, with interest and principle registered; gold bonds, which were all payable in gold, and currency bonds, payable in the legal tender of any country.

Mr. Armour ranked the bonds of this country as follows: Dominion, Provincial, Municipal, Railway and Public Utilities and Corporation. Again sub-dividing, he put them in the following classes First mortgage close bonds, first mortgage bonds, general mortgage bonds, guarantee bonds, collateral trust bonds and income charge (or preferred stock) bonds. "Bonds," said the speaker, "constitute one of the chief methods of saving and heartily commended his brother Rotarians to invest.

whereby that company's lease on the surplus water at the water works dam would be renewed for a further period of twenty years. The company will pay the annual sum of $3,000 and also to erect a new factory building at an estimated cost of $400,000.

By-law 2892 introduced by Alderman Huffman and seconded by Alderman Tuggey, provided for the construction of sewers and the paying of the same by issuing debentures.

Sydney S. Crowe wrote offering the Council $600 for the vacant lot south of the Canada Crayon Company, but as the company had made a previous offer of a like amount the matter was left over to see what it was going to do.

The Weights and Measures Inspector wrote the Council notifying it that the market scales were condemned. He stated that the scales had been in use for 30 years and were not adequate to weigh the heavy loads.

The Utilities Commission asked the Council to designate the streets which it intended to pave this year so that the proper drains might be immediately laid. The matter was left to the Board of Works.

The Automobile Club sought co-operation of the Council in helping to paint the Peterborough signs at the entrance to Port Hope and also the upkeep of the information booth on Charlotte street.

Would Like Estimates Reduced.

A special committee was appointed to see the chairman of the Board of Education to see if that body could not clip something off its estimates. The Mayor said that the Board's estimates were up some $17,000 over last year and that co-operation was needed if the tax rate was to be kept down.

Alderman Stocker suggested a conference with the Board of Education and Chamber of Commerce, whereby the estimates for the year could be discussed.

Alderman Holland: The amount of $225,000 seems large but that is not all as there is the interest and sinking fund to be added to this.

Alderman McNabb: The Board of Education is elected by the people but the Council must supply the money and take the bumps. Our estimates have been cut this year and I believe those of the police department so I think we all ought to get together to keep the tax rate down.

Alderman Huffman: We cannot dictate to the Board of Education but I think if we ask them to co-operate they will.

Alderman Stocker: I do not believe the times warrant an increase in expenditure.

Alderman Tuggey: We must keep within our bounds. I think the working man is paying all he can at present and I believe there should be strong pressure brought upon the School Board to reduce its estimates.

On motion of Aldermen Cotton and Macdonald a committee will see the chairman of the Board of Education and endeavor to get the estimates reduced.

Those present were: Mayor Denne, Aldermen Phelan, Cotton, Stocker, Holland, McIntyre, Fitzpatrick, Macdonald, McNabb, Huffman and Tuggey.

PRECAUTIONS CALLED FOR.

While there is no occasion to be panic-stricken over the situation, the fact that the dog which bit a child here last week and was shot by the police has been found to have been suffering from rabies calls for rigid precautions.

Chief of Police Newnall announced a few days ago that the by-law in regard to dogs running at large was to be put into force again.

In view of the discovery that at least one dog here was infected with rabies the regulation must be strictly enforced, and dogs kept off the streets unless on a leash.

With the dread disease present in the city, there is no means of telling where the chain of infection lies or how many animals may be carrying the germs and thus constituting themselves a menace to the public safety.

Rabies is not to be trifled with, and having regard to the existing situation, persons who are bitten or scratched by dogs should consider it a wise precaution to have medical attention and advice as soon as possible.

Prompt action in dealing with the menace will be expected of the authorities.

A "MEAN" BRANTFORDITE.

A resident of Brantford, who had lived in that city for fifteen years, applied for civic relief not long ago, making the customary declaration that he had no money or securities that could be converted into cash.

Afterward it was discovered that this individual had $1,850 in a savings bank, and the sequel of the case was that he was haled into court and fined $100 and costs.

The punishment will strike the man on the street as entirely justifiable.

The magistrate who heard the case described it as a "mean" one, an adjective that exactly fits the circumstances.

The person who, in spite of the fact that he has an ample reserve of funds, tries to take municipal relief is guilty of nothing short of theft.

As one contemporary expresses it, "according to motive it would be about the same as taking money from a charity collection when no person was looking."

It takes all kinds of people to make up a world, and the Brantford case is a demonstration of the fact that there are some folks who will stoop to anything to acquire or save money.

JUSTICE FOR THE VETERAN.

No legislation to be introduced at the coming session of the Federal Parliament is more eagerly awaited than the promised amendments to the Pensions Act, which are expected to provide a new deal for Canada's service men and their families.

In this connection the statement from Premier King that the lengthy sitting of the Cabinet on Friday had been spent "in discussion of measures in respect to war veterans" is of great interest and importance.

It indicates that the Government has been thoroughly impressed with the necessity of remodelling the machinery which was created for the purpose of doing justice on behalf of a grateful country to the men who fought, and which in the light of years of experience and testing has failed to function as it was hoped.

No matter what legislation may be arranged it will be impossible to iron out all injustices or to correct every mistake, but surely the Government, which is to be commended for the serious consideration it is giving the whole question, will be able to draft amendments that will wipe out the evils of the present system and substitute sympathy and warmth for the matter-of-fact administration that has disheartened and irritated Canada's war veterans.

THE PROVINCES GETTING AWAY.

A trend that is gratifying is evident in the announcement from British Columbia that there is to be an inter-provincial conference on educational methods with a view to securing uniformity.

Following closely upon the inter-provincial conference just closed at Toronto where the brokerage situation was considered by representatives of seven Provinces, the statement from the Pacific Coast is welcome as a sign that the various provincial administrations are realizing the value of co-operation in as many fields as possible.

There is no reason why that policy should not be developed to a greater degree.

Uniformity in traffic regulations throughout the Dominion would be of great benefit, not only to our own people, but to the millions of tourists who come into this country and find different laws in different Provinces confusing.

It should be possible, too, to make the game laws and fishery regulations in various parts of Canada more alike, and there are many other provincial activities in which it might be well to seek common ground.

The conference on education should produce good results in bringing the courses in the different Provinces to a common standard so that a pupil in British Columbia may feel that he is receiving just as good an education as his fellow-Canadian in Ontario or vice versa.

It is a satisfying condition to find the Provinces of Canada getting together in this way.

WHY A SYSTEM OF PAROLE?

It is reported that one of the men who attacked a St. Thomas taxi-driver on a lonely sideroad near Tilsonburg the other day has a police record, and owned his liberty to being on parole.

Complaints have been made by the police from time to time about the system of parole, which has reached generous proportions in Ontario, and it evoked a vigorous protest from a chief of police in Eastern Ontario a week or two ago in a particularly flagrant case.

There seems little doubt that the system of parole is being abused. It was instituted at a time when crime was not so rife as it is now, nor were there so many crimes of a felonious character.

There are certain classes of crime in which the mercy of parole may be extended without qualms. But for men convicted of any crime of violence, the parole should not be granted unless for reasons of health. The man who committs crimes of violence is not the type who reacts to leniency. He is made of a tough fibre, quite different from the man who has stolen from necessity, or temptation. He only laughs at the authorities when they review his case and let him out because he has been a good boy in prison.

When a judge passes sentence he passes what he feels the prisoner deserves. He does not pass a longer sentence than his conscience thinks right, expecting that the Parole Board will lop a piece off anyway.

In the case of men convicted of brutal crimes, the parole system simply undoes the work of the police who may have had a hard job to get their men, and perhaps risked their lives in affecting their capture.

The leopard cannot change his spots. Men of the thug type are prone to continue their attempts to get "easy money" by violence, and the parole privilege should be withdrawn from such characters.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

WANT THE OLD HYMNS.

Here's something worth thinking over. Judge Ira E. Robinson, of the Federal Radio Commission of United States, says that radio audiences prefer hymn singing to anything else in the way of music that is at present being broadcast. This is not his own opinion, but is based on a rather wide survey which he conducted.

The judge believes that the old hymns are winning new friends. At Christmas hundreds of thousands were listening to the carols and hymns of years ago; at Easter the same thing takes place. On Sunday evening especially there is an increasing demand, the judge says, for the old songs of praise and of salvation.

Certain it is that many of the old hymns are far superior to much of the supposed sacred clap-trap which has come out in recent years. It is not merely age that makes a hymn stick; it is because there is a message in it, perhaps a sacred memory, too.

There was a fad, fortunately now well spent, of getting out new hymn books for every evangelist who started out to conquer the world. Many of the selections were new; they were supposed to be jazzed up to appeal to the people of this age. Plain truth is they didn't appeal at all in many cases because there was nothing holy or beautiful about them.

• • • •

There are plenty of homes in this district where people will sit around Sunday evening for Seth Parker to come on. It is a picture in old songs of a gathering Sunday evening at the home of Seth in the New England States, where things are very simple still, and where it is considered right to gather around Sunday evening to sing a few old hymns and listen to the logic of Seth.

It is miles removed from being modern. "Ma" plays the little organ of the type where the feet pump in the wind while the hands on the keys take it out. Why, but you say, we used to listen to an organ like that a generation ago—the thing is out-of-date—there is nothing like that used now.

Grant that without argument, but it fits into that old-fashioned picture. A piano wouldn't do, neither would a pipe organ or a good orchestra. That little old organ is the instrument to which hundreds of thousands listen at 10.45 on Sunday evening. And when Seth Parker and "Ma" sing "My Jesus, I Love Thee" after the folk have departed from their place, and just before it is time to blow out the lamp, they are singing right into the hearts of thousands of listeners who find there a trace of the anchorage which somehow they may have missed in the intervening years.

It was a collection of those simple things that used to make home-life more real than it is to-day. We have the facilities for doing the things that used to be done, but we don't use them for a very good purpose.

In how many homes is there one of those Sunday evening gatherings? You know the kind we mean, where some one used to play the piano or the organ and where every person joined in the singing of some well-known hymns?

And where, too, conversation was apt to be along rather substantial, uplifting and helpful lines. It was there that young folk found strength of character. The mental fodder was not too thin and it gave them something to bite on for quite a time after.

Old hymns, old convictions, old standards of right and wrong—perhaps they may have been fogged a trifle now and then in the great scramble for thrills, but they never did disappear. They're just as sound and just as satisfying to-day as they ever were.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Judging from the effects it produces, native wine is potent enough to require Government or some other sort of control.

Premier Ferguson's announcement of changes in the organization of the higher courts of Ontario did not explain the situation clearly enough to enable an intelligent judgment to be formed of the value of the proposals.

And now will the Chatsworth sage please promise an early spring? And make good on the prophecy?

They're all saying it. Witness ex-Premier Stanley Baldwin's statement that "the prospects for Canada's future are boundless."

That new Oakwood liquor store is receiving plenty of advertising. And liquor, according to the terms of the Liquor Control Act, is not supposed to be advertised.

If you must drive a car while intoxicated, the Hamilton Spectator points out that there is an important formality which should be observed—get your father appointed to the Senate.

It is a fortunate thing for Canada that the Canadian Pacific Railway disregards Mr. Deachman's advice and places all the orders it can with Canadian firms.

Mr. Ferguson intimates that there may be fewer judges in Ontario. And after the confession of a magistrate that he took part in the recent election, there should also be one less magistrate.

A Thought

NEW DAYS

Nothing is more deadening than the influence of things that are gone but the ghosts of which walk the earth in the shape of inherited prejudices and hostilities. Inability to let the dead stay buried prevents many persons from doing their best, and others from doing what is worth while. Every day is a new day, a fresh adventure in life. It has its own character, and it has a right to be dealt with on its own merits; and we have a right to deal with it unhampered by voices of the past.

Tennyson sings:

But the tender grace of a day that is dead
Will never come back to me.

It is true that the day is gone will not return; but if it could, doubtless we should give it scant welcome. Here are new days, pressing on continually, insistent in their demands, glorious in their opportunites, entrancing in the visions they reveal of possible beauty and power. The most compelling virtues are born not of memory but of hope. The noblest ideals call to us not from the past but from the future.

—Rev. Paul Sterling.

IN DAYS GONE BY.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY
February 18, 1920

To-day is Ash Wednesday the commencement of the Lenten season.

A special G.T.R. train is to be run from this city to Belleville for the sudden death game between Kingston and Peterborough, which will decide the superior team. The game is looked upon as one of the most interesting engagements of the year.

TWENTY YEARS AGO
February 18, 1910

Lakefield is temporarily without electric light owing to a bad accident to the electric light plant when the pulley wheel blew to pieces. The damage to the building was quite extensive, from the flying metal.

All grades of sugar advanced 15 cents per hundred yesterday, owing, it is said to the scarcity of raw material.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
February 18, 1905

For the past weeks the railways have encountered all sorts of trouble because of the snow and wind. Traffic has been paralyzed; on some roads being practically blocked. Conon others a couple of days late, the roads being practicjally blocked. Conditions are not as bad in Peterborough as they were last year. The Grand Trunk is hit hardest and on the Belleville line no trains ran to-day. On the Lakefield division also the tie-up is complete, no trains having been run over it for some days past.

THE GREENE MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE

The Story Thus Far.

Philo Vance, with a hobby for solving mysteries, becomes interested in the Greene murders when District Attorney John F. X. Markham and Sergeant Ernest Heath, of the Homicide Bureau, are called in after the fatal shooting of Julia Greene and the wounding of her younger sister, Ada. Old Tobias Greene had been dead about twelve years, and left his fortune to his widow, a helpless parlytic, on the stipulation, that she occupy the old Greene mansion with five children, Julia Chester, Sibella, Rex and Ada, an adopted daughter, for twenty-five years. Dr. Von Blon, the Greene family physician, phoned headquarters, about midnight, and Heath responded, finding the two women, one dead and the other unconscious—both shot. Snow had fallen during the early night, and a set of footprints besides Dr. Von Blon's led to and from the front door of the Greene mansion. Vance has questioned Chester Greene, the servants, old Mrs. Greene, as well as Sibella and Ada. The latter says that she woke in the dark, and although she heard nothing, felt a presence in her room, an when she rose encountered an uncanny hand, and then a shot which wounded her, an old 32-caliber revolver of Chester's has disappeared from his room, although Sibella says that she saw it there, and also accuses Ada of having been rummaging around in her brother's room. And, as the investigation reaches an impasse, another grim and unaccountable tragedy is enacted in the old mansion. Chester Greene is found shot dead, seated in a chair in his room, with a look of consternation and horror on his face. Again footprints are found to and from the entrance door of the mansion.

CHAPTER 11.

Heath made no reply. He stood in the centre of the room running his eye over the various objects and pieces of furniture. Presently he stepped to the clothes-closet, pulled open the door, and turned on a pendant electric light just inside. As he stood gloomily peering at the closet's contents there was a sound of heavy footsteps in the hall and Snitkin appeared in the open door. Heath turned and, without giving his assistant time to speak, asked gruffly:

"How did you make out with those footprints?"

"Got all the dope here." Snitkin crossed to the Sergeant, and held out a long Manila envelope. "There wasn't no trouble in checking the measurements and cutting the patterns. But they're not going to be a hell of a lot of good, I'm thinking. There's ten million guys more or less in this country who coulda made 'em."

Heath had opened the envelope and drawn forth a thin white cardboard pattern which looked like an inner sole of a shoe.

"It wasn't no pigmy who made this print," he remarked.

"That's the catch in it,' explained Snitkin. "The size don't mean nothing much, for it ain' a shoe trac . Those footprints were made by goloshes, and there's no tellin how much bigger they were than the buy's foot. They mighta been worn over a shoe anywheres from a size eight to a size ten, and with a width anywheres from a A to a D."

Heath nodded with obvious disappointment.

"You're sure about 'em being goloshes?" He was reluctant to let what promised to be a valuable clew slip away.

"You can't get around it. The rubber tread was distinct in several places, and the shallow, scooped heel stood out plain as day. Anyhow, I got Jerym to check up on my findings."

Snitkin's gaze wandered idly to the floor of the clothes-closet.

"Those are the kind of things that made the tracks." He pointed to a pair of high arctics which had been thrown carelessly under a boot-shelf. Then he leaned over and picked up one of them. As his eye rested on it he gave a grunt. "This looks like the size, too." He took the pattern from the Sergeant's hand and laid it on the sole of the overshoe. It fitted as perfectly as if the two had been cut simultaneously.

Heath was startled out of his depression.

"Now, what in hell does that mean!"

Markham had drawn near.

"It mighta indicate, of course, that Chester went out somewhere last night late."

"But that don't make sense, sir," objected Heath. "If he'd wanted anything at that hour o the night he'd have sent the butler. And, anyway, the shops in this neighborhood were all closed by that time, for the tracks weren't made till after it had stopped snowing at eleven."

"And," supplemented Snitkin, "you can't tell by the tracks whether the guy that made 'em left the house and came back, or came to the house and went away, for there wasn't a single print on top of the other."

"That ,now, is a most interestin' point, Sergeant," he commented. "I'd file it away along with Rex's story for prayerful consideration." He sauntered back to the desk and looked at the dead man thoughtfully. "No, Sergeant," he continued; "I can't picture Chester donning gum-shoes and sneaking out into the night on a mysterious errand. I'm afraid we'll have to find another explanation for those footprints."

"It's damn funny, just the same, that they should be the exact size of these goloshes."

"If," submitted Markham, "the footprints were not Chester's, then we're driven to the assumption that the murderer made them."

Vance slowly took out his cigarette-case.

"Yes," he agreed, "I think we may safely assume that."

At this moment Doctor Doremus, the Medical Examiner, a brisk, nervous man with a jaunty air, was ushered in by one of the detectives I had seen in the drawing-room. He blinked at the company, threw his hat and coat on a chair, and shook hands with every one.

"What are your friends trying to do, Sergeant?" he asked, eyeing the inert body in the chair. "Wipe out the whole family?" Without waiting for an answer to his grim pleasantry he went to the windows and threw up the shade with a clatter. "You gentlemen all through viewing the remains? If so, I'll get to work."

"Go to it," said Heath. Chester Greene's body was lifted to the bed and straightened out. "And how about the bullet, doc? Any chance of getting it before the autopsy?"

"How'm I going to get it without a probe and forceps? I ask you!" Doctor Doremus drew back the matted dressing-gown and inspected the wound. "But I'll se what I can do." Then he straightened up and cocked his eye facetiously at the ergeant. "Well, I'm waiting for your usual query about the time of death."

"We know it."

"Hah! Wish you always did. This fixing the exact time by looking over a body is all poppycock anyway. The best we fellows can do is to approximate it. Rigor mortis works differently in different people. Don't ever take me too seriously, Sergeant, when I set an exact hour for you.—However, let's see . . ."

He ran his hands over the body on the bed, unflexed the fingers, moved the head, and put his eye close to the coagulated blood about the wound. Then he teetered on his toes, and squinted at the ceiling.

"How about ten hours? Say, between eleven-thirty and midnight. How's that?"

Heath laughed good-naturedly.

"Well, well! Always was a good guesser." Doctor Doremus seemed wholly indifferent.

Vance had followed Markham into the hall.

"An honest fellow, that archiater of yours. And to think he's a public servant of our beneficient government!"

"There are many honest men in public office," Markham reproved him.

"I know," sighed Vance. "Our democracy is still young. Give it time."

Heath joined us, and at the same moment the nurse appeared at Mrs. Greene's door. A querulous dictatorial voice issued from the depths of the room behind her.

". . . And you tell whoever's in charge that I want to see him—right away, do you understand! It's an outrage, all this commotion and excitement, with me lying here in pain trying to get a little rest. Nobody shows me any consideration."

Heath made a grimace and looked toward the stairs; but Vance took Markham's arm.

"Come, let's cheer up the old lady."

As we entered the room, Mrs. Greene, propped up as usual in bed with a prismatic assortment of pillows, drew her shawl primly about her.

RE FIFE MEMORIAL.

Editor, Examiner:

Sir,—I wish to offer an expression of appreciation for your efforts to have that fine old pioneer, David Fife, remembered and honored in some suitable manner. Sometimes not enough credit is given to a newspaper for space given free for some worthwhile object. To Senator McGuire, of Toronto, to Samuel Armstrong of Indian River (who worked hard for this cause many years ago), to the Rotary Club and to The Examiner, will be due the credit if something tangible results; but to The Examiner most of all for keeping up the agitation.

Most people agree that a service-giving institution of some kind is preferable, as a memorial, to a lifeless monument of stone or bronze, so the idea of a demonstration farm has been approved, generally.

I have another suggestion to make to which you may or may not give your consideration. Some one has said that the nineteenth century solved the production problem and the twentieth century must solve the distribution problem. Now my contention is that the farmer will look after the production end if he can produce at even a small profit. If his products can be sold to the consumer, without the exhorbitant toll of the middleman, he and the consumer will both benefit. Very few farmers there are who would not buy and use fertilizer if they could afford it, who will not try to raise better cows, horses, sheep, swine, etc., if they have the money to finance them.

So although a demonstration farm would no doubt be a great help and incentive still a greater need is a school of co-operation. The prairie provinces have made a good start. Saskatchewan has a lending library of books on co-operation. Short courses are held here and there like our farm short courses and the radio is used greatly as almost every prairie farm has a "set" of some kind. Alberta holds a summer course of a month at the University of Alberta, where the principles of co-operation are taught.

A resident of Peterborough county many years ago did such a big thing for the production end, what a fitting memorial would be a school that would do great things for sane distribution of farm products. What more fitting place to make a start than in the county that David Fife called home.

Senator Buchanan might endorse my idea as he is broad and progressive.

With thanks. S. O. S.

UNDER THE FLEUR DE LYS.

Dear Sir: I would like you to give me a short space in your paper from time to time to try and encourage the Scout movement in the city, having been connected with the Scouts since 1911. I have lately got out of touch with the movement, but feel sure that a few helpful hints would help the Scout movement, and also the Scouts and the Cubs themselves. The first thing I would like to do is to give parents an idea what Scouting really means, and thereby getting them interested in the movement.

Twelve good reasons why your boy should become a Scout:

1. Scouting fills a boy's spare time with healthy occupations in health company.
2. Scouting gives a boy character which is essential to success in any career.
3. Scouting is not a military movement; it helps to make good, individual citizens, not imitation soldiers.
4. Scouting gives a boy opportunities for service for God and his neighbor. This is the basis of religion.
5. Scouting makes a boy handy. His hobbies are useful at home as well as interesting to himself.
6. Scouting gives a boy a sense of honor and loyalty. He will not lie you down or tell you a lie.
7. Scouting teaches a boy self-reliance so that he can fend for himself and help other people.
8. Scouting gives a boy health through open-air exercise and self-care, he gains a sound mind in a healthy body.
9. Scouting finds a boy's natural gifts, and so helps to find "square holes for square pegs," in the choice of career.
10. Scouting gives a boy happiness through cheery comradeship and the enjoyment of nature.
11. Scouting widens a boy's outlook, since its branches in every civilized country are in mutual touch with one another.
12. Scouting will make a man of your boy and the sort of man you would wish him to be.

Tips from the Old Wolf to Cubs.

Good turns are frightfully important, and the best of all good turns for Cubs is "helping mother." You know, chaps, you owe a great deal to your mother, more perhaps than you realize. But a day does arrive in all our lives when we do realize, and that is the day she is called home. Think about it, Cubs!

The Chief Scout, in the Wolf Cubs Handbook, says: "No one can tell a Cub how to help mother—it is a lesson only love can teach."

Besides, different mothers like to be helped in different ways. Each mother when she finds her boy is waiting to do his best about the house will find him a job. So learn first to get a real wish to help mother, and then let her see this. She will do the rest.

OLD WOLF.

There are head hunters in Burma, Siam, New Guiana, Africa, Borneo and many other places in the world. The practice survived in England as late as the middle ages.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head and ear noises or are growing hard of hearing go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ½ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

RESCUE PARTIES WORK ALL NIGHT TO SAVE MINERS

Heavy Fall of Rock Traps Two Workers in Greenhill Mine at Blairmore.

SECOND SHIFT SENT IN.

Hours of Labor Rewarded By Faint Sound of Pick Work Behind Barrier.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., February 18 (Canadian Press). — Rescue parties are digging frantically to-day into the depths of Greenhill Mine at Blairmore in an attempt to rescue two miners trapped by a heavy fall of rock. All night, miners have been struggling to tear away the piled-up stone barring the entombed men. Faint tapping, barely heard by the toiling rescuers, indicates that the imprisoned men are still alive.

Telephone communications from the Blairmore, tangled by a windstorm in the mountains, has prevented news from being flashed down from the mine in the coal area on the Alberta-British Columbia border. Meagre details told of two men being caught in the cave-in at the mine, and of hope being abandoned in the belief that they had been killed by the fall of rock.

Despairing friends of the lost men refused to believe that death had come with the cave-in, however, and immediately began efforts to cut away through the interior. After hours of labor, the sound of pick work from beyond the intervening rock gave definite encouragement that rescue was not impossible. Until midnight, the pick-crew labored, when they were relieved by a second shift of workers. It is not known how much time will be consumed before the cave-in can be pierced.

COLONEL TAYLOR URGES DOMINION GRAIN BOARD

Take over Entire Crops of Three Prairie Provinces and Market it.

WINNIPEG, February 18. (C.P.) — Appointment by the Dominion government of a grain board that would take over the entire grain crop of the three Prairie provinces and market it, was urged by Lieut.-Colonel Fawcett G. Taylor, K.C., Conservative leader, in the Legislature last night.

Colonel Taylor claimed that an assurance by the Federal government that it was prepared to take such action in the situation that has developed, would have a most beneficial effect, and he pressed the Provincial government to make the representations to Ottawa at once.

Premier Bracken said he did not think the situation is so alarming as to justify the Legislature acting on the suggestion without further consideration.

Light Wheat Gains On Winnipeg Market

Winnipeg, Man., Feb. 18. — (C.P.) — Disappearance of selling pressure which has held the Winnipeg market in its grip for more than a week, ended the downward trend of wheat prices about noon to-day, and gains of one cent to two cents above yesterday's close were marked up. Scattered buying was responsible for the upward swing.

DECLINING PRICES HALT GENERAL MARKET RECOVERY

Public Waiting For Atmosphere to Clear Before Again Entering Market.

ABITIBI ADVANCE.

TORONTO, Feb. 18. (Special to Examiner.)—Declining prices for commodities is slowing up the stock markets and has brought to a halt progress for the recovery from the extreme low levels. This is particularly true of the Canadian lists were securities of a number of companies directly affected are listed and the public is waiting for the atmosphere to clear before taking action in purchasing securities. Most interest centres around wheat and the possible effect it will have on general business in the dominion. The shares of companies doing a large business with the west, such as the implement manufacturers, etc., are soft and the old favorite Brazilian Traction fails to show any life, due to the coffee situation. The uncertainty as to whether the present price of copper and other metals can be maintained is a drawback to producers and the oil group is reflecting the drop in the price of crude.

Abitibi Advance.

In a generally weak market, the action of Abitibi Pulp and Paper this morning in rising from its recent level around 28 to above 30 stands out conspicuously. Abitibi will shortly make public its annual statement but assurance has already been given that the preferred dividend has been safely earned. Rumors concerning newsprint companies are constantly circulating the street and the latest mentioning Abitibi suggests that a merger may be in prospect with a group of Canadian companies and one of the largest newsprint manufacturers in the field. Little credence is placed in such a report by those intimated acquainted with the new spring situation.

With respect to the Canadian oil companies and the drop in the price of crude it is well to keep in mind that these organizations are mostly refiners and distributors of the manufactured product. The finished product has not dropped in price and the supply of crude is plentiful which should work tobe advantage ofthe Canadian industry. For a long time the margin between the price of crude and the finished article has been out of line and it is said the present pricereduction was forced by the large refiners to bring the two more in line. It is also pointed out the drop may only be seasonal as about this time in 1929 crude sold down 25 cents a barrel only to recover the same amount in May. With a plentiful supply of crude Canadian companies should do well under the circumstances and those companies doing a straight refining and merchandising business are assured of an adequate supply of raw material to fully look after their requirements.

International Pete.

Canadians have a large share interest in International Petroleum and many are asking themselves what effect the reduction in the price of crude will save on this large producer. In official quarters it is admitted the price reduction will affect the company to some extent but it is not considered serious for the future. International Pete increased their production in 1929 over 1928 and in 1930 is continuing to produce to capacity. As well as being a large producer of raw material the company operates large refineries and is occupied in turning out a complete line of manufactured products representing a large portion of the annual turnover. At the present level below 20 pete at the dividend rate of $1 a year, returns slightly over 5 percent and compares more than favorably with others.

TREND CONTINUES ON LIGHT DECLINE

Weakness Most Apparent in Oil Group—List Fails to Interest Speculators.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—Drifting lower from the opening, the trend of prices on Toronto Stock Exchange to-day followed the same general course as on recent sessions. Buyers there were, but they were making their own prices and until such time as sellers met their prices they were holding back from the market. Trading was slow from the outset and the volume up until midday was only nominal.

Weakness was most apparent in the oil group. Reduction in crude oil prices brought about selling yesterday and to-day the leader in the group were depressed to new low levels for the year. B. A. oil at midday was unchanged at 39 but it had sold as low as 38¾ and the new at 19¾, while Imperial oil under 24 and International petroleum under 19 were both at new lows for the year.

The pivotal issues such as Nickel, Noranda, Ford, Brazilian did little. Nickel and Noranda each lost ¼ of a point while Brazilian and Ford were steadier, holding to last night's close.

One of the outstanding spots this morning was Abitibi, which rose from around 18 to 30¼. To-day's movement repeats that of a few weeks ago when the stock broke through 30, only to sink back again. Rumors emanating from eastern financial centres this morning were to the effect that Abitibi may be concerned in a merger with other Canadian companies.

Steel stocks were quiet and unchanged. Liquor issues made no headway and majority of curb stocks to appear sold lower before the noon-hour.

Wheat Tumbles To New Low Records

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—All deliveries of wheat, corn and oats tumbled down to-day to new low price records for the season, but quickly recovered, and even scored gains. Sensational breaks in wheat quotations at Buenos Aires and Liverpool caused an early rush of selling here, following which active commission house buying developed. Opening 1c to 2¾ off, Chicago wheat future deliveries suddenly turned up grade. Corn started 5-8 to 1 1-8 down, and then rebounded. Provisions held about steady.

LIST APPLICATION RATES TOO HIGH

No Official Report Received Noranda Listed on New York Stock Exchange.

TORONTO, Feb. 18.—Special to Examiner.)—Though no definite action has been taken by the exchange, it is understood the larger mining brokerage houses are at present limiting marginal trading to a selected list of issues which are acceptable to the banks for loaning purposes. The effect of this action is to be seen in the reduced daily turnover for it is believed many stocks selling over $1, the minimum price on which members are allowed to permit marginal operations by their clients, are not included in a list of this character.

Asked regarding a rumor that Noranda stock had been or was to be, listed on the New York stock exchange, President Murdoch stated the action had been suggested several times by various interests but that in view of the large expenditure necessary in such a course, no official application had as yet been made. Though listing on the "big board" undoubtedly adds background to any issue, the costs, which are based on the capitalization of the company, are extremely high and, it is thought would not greatly affect local loaning value of the shares.

Furnace at Noranda.

Unofficial word is that Noranda is preparing to install a third reverberatory furnace and the necessary equipment to bring the capacity up to a maximum of 3,000 tons daily. The plans are understood to call for the utilization of the three furnaces, but all of them will not be operating all the time, shutdowns being necessary from time to time for repairs. Two furnaces, however, will be in continual operation and three part of the time, bringing the average daily tonnage well over the present 2,000 ton mark.

Albana Report.

The north is busy these days discussing the forthcoming Abana report which is expected any day now, and some of the wise acres are of the opinion followers of the stock may get a little surprise in the information it will contain. One point that is getting the benefit of the doubt is that copper values are running very high, and there are some who believe Abana will be shown to be a copper mine rather than a zinc—copper proposition was generally understood in the past. The quantity of ore reserves is another fact over which considerable optimism is being shown.

Average Decline.

Though production tonnage at Wright-Hargreaves during 1929 showed a decline of 26 (per cent due to deliberate curtailment, profits showed an increase of 18 percent on the basis of the tonnage treated over the previous year. There was an advance of $1.71 a ton in costs as compared with 1928 as a result of the heavy development but the recovery of gold per ton was substantially better.

STOVE EXPLODES—BOY INJURED

GALT, Ont, Feb. 18.—(C.P.)—Johnny Culham, aged nine, was severely injured at his home yesterday following an explosion in the kitchen stove. His right arm was severed above the wrist and his throat gashed. Two other children in the house at the time escaped injury.

The explosion was believed to have resulted from a water boiler steam jacket becoming frozen, leaving no outlet for the generated steam.

CAB ATTACKS CONTINUE.

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Attacks on taxicabs continued here to-day while efforts were being made to have Mayor Charles H. Kline ban the operation of cabs in the city until the strike of cab drivers is settled.

Third Ottawa Baby Dies From Scalds

OTTAWA, Feb. 18.—The tragic coincidence of two weeks, ago when two young children in widely separated sections of the city died as the result of burns from boiling water, developed itself further Sunday in the death of Odette Lavergne, 18 months old. The infant pulled a pan of scalding hot water over herself Friday and died within 24 hours.

The three children were all scalded on a Friday and died on a Saturday, and in the same hospital.

Financial News and Briefs

A Special Service to the Examiner

ALUMINUM, LIMITED.

Although comparatively little is heard these days of the physical status of Aluminum Company of Canada, Limited, now controlled by Aluminum, Limited, there appears to be a growing interest in the shares of the latter company in company with those of Aluminum Company of America. This interest is encouraged by the fact that aluminum as a product seems to be to-day in very much the same position nickel and monel metal were in the years immediately after the war. In other words, there is being created for aluminim a widely expanded market through the creation or new uses for this alloy. Very rapid prof gress is being made in this particula direction and has been accelerated by the new methods of alloying pure aluminum, which gives a product comparable to steel as regards strength and has a very great advantage with respect to weight. Thus utility of aluminum has been greatly increased and it is finding growing employment in nearly all major industries in forms varying from a thin foil to heavy beams for construction purposes. The metal is being produced in sheets, tubes, rods, wire and ingots, from which shapes an extremely wide variety of products are being manufactured, extending all the way from cooking utensils, radio sets, automobiles, aeroplanes, to hydro-electric equipment and steam and electric railway equipment.

Aluminum Company of Canada operates at Arvida, Que., near Chicoutimi, and at the head waters of the Saguenay River. There the company has a plant capable of producing ultimately 100,000,000 pounds of aluminum ingots per annum, although this capacity at the present time is being only partially utilized. The big market outlet for this product is of course the United States, but export markets can be advantageously served. In connection with this operation the Chute a Caron hydro-electric development on the Saguenay River, with a capacity of 800,000 h.p. is controlled.

On June 4th, 1928, Aluminum Company of America gave to its shareholders of record all of the issued capital stock of Aluminum, Limited, it received in exchange for shares of corporations outside the United States which it owned. Therefore on that date, shareholders of Aluminum Company of America and of Aluminum, Limited, were the same; but since that time shareholders have changed considerably, due to sales and purchases of shares. The whole of the issued capital stock of Aluminum, Limited, is owned by the public at large. Aluminum, Limited, is a holding and management company owning the shares of the Aluminum Company of Canada, Limited, several other Canadian corporations and nearly all of the foreign bauxite, aluminum producing and fabricating and selling companies formerly owned by the Aluminum Company of American.

The only available annual report to date of Aluminum, Limited, is the one covering operations of the company from its inception May 31st, 1928, to December 31st, 1928. This showed total assets of $45,344,099, of which the largest items represented investments in subsidiary or affiliated companies ($23,939,048) and advances to subsidiary companies ($20,140,710). Capital stock consisted of 572,678 shares of no par value, carried on the books at $25,033,888; 5% bonds due 1948 amounted to $20,000,000. Profit and loss report showed total income of $720,400, made up of interest and dividends, etc. Interest on bonds, administration expenses and other charges, absorbed $711,310, leaving a balance of only $9,089 to be carried forward.

During 1929 Aluminum, Limited, shares on the New York Curb ranged between 99½ and 280, and more recently have ruled between 108 and 150. Meantime Aluminum Company of America shares ranged from 146 to 539½, and this year have fluctuated between 275 and 350.

LIGHT LOSSES ON MINE MART

Prices Continue to Show Weakness Under Comparatively Light Liquidation.

LINDSLEY GROUP DROPS.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—Prices continued to show weakness under comparatively light liquidation on the mining exchange during the early session to-day, the big majority of the list displaying more or less unimportant losses at noon. Turnover was light and attention confined to relatively few stocks.

The weakness of the Lindsley group was the main point of interest, Sherritt-Gordon receding before some evident selling after exhibiting considerable strength for several weeks. Falconbridge and Sudbury Basin, at $5 and $3.75, respectively, were off 20 each, Ventures down 5 and Sherritt off 17 to $2.76.

Though International Nickel failed to recover, selling down a quarter at $37.25, Noranda failed to recover, selling down a quarter at $37.25, Noranda strengthened up slightly, gaining 40 to $40.75 while Hudson Bay advanced 10 to $13.60.

In the gold stocks, Dome and Teck Hughes moved up 15 and 10, respectively but McIntyre was off a quarter to $18.25 and Wright-Hargreaves eased 5 to $1.93. The balance of the group was practically unchanged and inactive.

The Pacific coast stocks developed a downward trend, Pend Oreille dropping 15, Big Missouri 3 and Base Metals a point. The general list displayed little change, Barry Hollinger being the feature with an advance to 20 on the strength of favorable development reports Amulet and Bana each receded 2, Newbec and Arno a point each, and Siscoe 3.

Any changes in the oils were the result of a lack of attention and an easier feeling marked this class throughout. Albert a dropped 15 to $1.80. Associated and Ajax 3 each to $1.07 and 82, respectively. Home Oil was off 5, and Dalhousie 4 to $1.66.

Canadian Cavalry Brigade.

The latter portion of the book is devoted exclusively to Major-General Seely's command of the Canadian Cavalry Brigade. He has many a fine story to relate of the men, high and low, who served with him — Prince Antoine D'Orleans, of whom he speaks with particular affection "Archie MacDonell" (Major-General Archibald Hayes MacDonell, commander of the Royal Canadian Regiment and then of the Fifth Canadian Infantry Brigade), "one of the most remarkable men alive."

He mentions also that the "Gallant Doherty"—"See him now, poised there for a second; while his gallant men leapt up as one man an enemy bullet struck him in the head and he fell dead,—Foghorn" MacDonald, who had a great command of language "which Canon Scott, but nobody else, and certainly no General, could moderate, and Padre Scott himself, "that eccentric saint."

In the writer's estimate the late Sir Sam Hughes was an eccentric genius. There is a story of how he went to inspect the Canadians at the front. "He was eloquent, with a very loud voice," writes Major-General Seely. "I was warned by one of my Colonels he would probably speak for an hour. This was a gloomy prospect, for addresses to soldiers should, I think, never take more than two minutes. But just as he was about to begin, a German airplane flew over. He had hardly uttered two sentences when the whine of a shell was heard, and there was a tremendous crash which put an end to the speech and the parade."

STOCK A DAY

FAIRCHILD AVIATION CORPORATION

The Fairchild Aviation Corporation was formed in 1927 and is now controlled through stock ownership by the Aviation Corporation of Delaware. The Fairchild Corporation is a holding company with subsidiaries engaged in most of the various lines of avtivity of the aviation industry. One subsidiary makes aerial photographs, maps and surveys. Another manufactures aerial cameras most of which are sold to the United States army and navy and to foreign governments.

There is a Fairchild Flying Corps which conducts the flying operation incident to surveying and mapping. The Fairchild Airplane Manufacturing Corporation has a plant at Farmingdale, L. I., N. Y., where cabin monoplanes and pontoons are turned out. At the same place, the Fairchild Engine Corporation manufacture' the Caminez cam type airplane engine which utilizes a cam instead of a crank shaft. In addition the parent concern has an interest in a Canadian company and one in a Mexican manufacturing and operating company and one in a concern making airplanes at a Maryland factory. In 1929 it organized the Cuban Flying Service, Inc., to operate a general airplane sales agency and operate a flying service in Cuba.

There is no funded debt. Capital stock outstanding totals 559,765 shares of no par value. No dividends have been paid as yet on the stock. As of March 31, 1929, total current assets were $3,177,374. Current liabilities were $162,613 and net working capital was $3,014,761. Book value applicable to the capital stock amounted to $14.22 a share. (Copyright, 1930, by the Bell Syn., Inc.)

MARGINAL TRADE RESTRICTION INDICATED IN SMALL TURNOVER

LIST STRENGTHENS IN LATE TRADING

Many Issues Marked Up 1 to 6 Points Above Last Week's Final Quotations.

By Stanley W. Prenosil, (Associated Press Financial Editor.)

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 18.—Strong rallying tendencies developed in to-day's stock market after a heavy week end accumulation of selling orders had given a reactionary appearance to early trading. Many of the early declines of 1 to 6½ points were cut in half, or wiped out, by early afternoon, and a rather long list of issues were marked up 1 to nearly 6 points above last week's final quotations. Trading was only moderately heavy in volume.

In the morning reaction, Auburn Auto dropped 6½ points, Vulcan Detinnim 6¼, and Newton Steel, American Machine and Foundry, Vanadiuj, Westinghouse Electric and Lackawanna dropped 3¼ to 5 points. Coppers and oils were weak because of the uneasiness regarding the price structure in those industries, Standard Oil of New Jersey sinking to a new low level for the year. U. S. Steel common sold down 1½ points to 184½ but recovered its loss by early afternoon.

Strength and activity of the American Woolen issues, in the ace of unfavorable trade reports, aroused considerable curiosity. American Woolen preferred ran up 6 points to 44 and the common moved up 4 to 20 or more than double their low rices of the year. American Tobacco established a new high record for all time just under 240 after having sold down to 233½. Brooklyn Union Gas, Concolidated Gas, National Air Transport, Liggett and Myers A. and B, and Brooklyn Manhattan Transit also moved into new high ground.

circle. Paul Lariviere was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Galarneau and made his home at the hotel. He sustained his injuries in assisting Glory Galarneau to safety.

Valued at $10,000.

The Hotel Galarneau stood apart from the main part of the town but within its limits. It was a three-storey frame structure on the north bank of the Desert River, and was valued at about $10,000. The adjoining hotel, owned by Fortunate Ethier, was damaged to the extent of about $2,000, and a barber shop on the opposite side was damaged.

Twelve-year-old Glory Galarneau, only surviving member of the Galarneau family, was an eye-witness of the death of his mother and younger brothers. He told of seeing his mother carrying Raoul, aged 4, and Donat, aged 2, running along the hall towards the stairway. Just as she started down the steps flames burst through the floor and the stairs collapsed. The little lad virtually saw his mother and two brothers enveloped in flames.

The flames rapidly crept along the floor, driving the boy back towards a window, where he ran into the arms of his uncle, Paul Lariviere, who carried him out on the roof of a verandah and so to safety.

Chief Labelle expressed the fear that the death loss might be even higher when a check-up is made later to-day, as he learned that during the night there had been a party at Galarneau's, at which there were at least fifteen or twenty present, including some strangers who had recently returned from working in the bush for a lumber company near Haileybury, in the north.

"We are definitely certain that five were burned to death, including Mrs. Galarneau and two of her three children, and have recovered one body in the ruins, which is so charred that it is unrecognizable," said the Chief.

An intensive search was to be conducted as soon as the ruins had cooled off sufficiently.

FIREMEN RESCUE FIVE

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Feb. 18. (Canadian Press).—Trapped on the upper floor of a building in the east side section of the city to-day five men were rescued by firemen, police and citizens when their escape by stairways was cut off by smoke and flames. Flames, shooting from the front of the building which had been blown out by an explosion enveloped the ladder as the firemen struggled to get them to safety.

MONTREAL FREIGHT WRECKED.

NORTH TROY, Vt.—Ten cars of a Boston bound freight train from Montreal on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railroad were derailed in this village early to-day and their contents, largely butter, strewn over the right of way. No one was injured. A broken wheel was believed to have been the cause of the accident.

LEAD IN CLINTON TOWNSHIP.

BEAMSVILLE, Ont., Feb. 18.—(C.P.)— Prospects of unearthing lead, zinc and silver in paying quantities in Clinton township appeared more rosy yesterday when representatives of the Treadwell-Yukon Mining Company, made their appearance accompanied by engineers and commenced an essay of the soil and advised immediate start of diamond drilling.

Renewed Abana Activity Forerunner of Further Development Reports.

CAMPS ON McINTYRE.

TORONTO, Feb. 18. (Special to Examiner.)—The effect of the restriction of marginal trading on the activities of mining speculators is clearly seen in the reduced turnover and lack of buoyance shown by the big portion of the list during the past few days. Open account business is estimated to have been responsible for about 90 per cent of the turnover in the past and it is therefore not to be wondered that a big reduction in the class of trading should be followed by an important falling off in interest and demand.

Activities in Abana.

The activity in Abana is believed to be due to anticipation on the part of followers that the report of reserves and development which was delayed by new finds at the property, will be out this week. Gossip around the street is that the Quebec government is ready to put up at third of the cost of the road from Dupuis to the property and that work will be started on this very necessary facility in the near future. It is understood the new motor road will open up a district in which several other properties are in the course of development.

No Copper Demand.

Copper buying both on domestic and foreign account in New York is reported to be quiet, and authorities on the situation are of the opinion littl more than hand-to-mouth tactics will be used until the early part of next month. Fabricators it is believed, are awaiting the appearance of statistics which will give the actual results of the curtailment in production which is now under way. Stocks of refined copper are not excessive, it is understood.

Reports from Montreal to-day state camps have been erected on the McIntyre property at Birch Lake and that a diamond drill is expected to be on the property before the spring break up.

FRENCH FIGURES STAND DESPITE FALL OF GOV'T

Italy Prepares Case During Halt But Gives No Specific Totals.

FEEL GREAT CONCERN.

LONDON, Feb. 18.— (By George Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)—Pending solution of the French Cabinet crisis and the appointment of a new French Premier the Naval Conference must halt. Discussions arranged between the British, American and French delegations on the French total naval tonnage estimate, the great question now before the conference, have perforce been cancelled.

The meeting of experts who are deliberating on special classes of ships has gone by the board. And no plenary sessions can be held until a French delegation is in its proper place.

Memorandum Remains.

But while the cooks are away the meal remains. The French memorandum, with its naval program of 724,479 tons by 1936, implying a building program of 240,000 tons by that time, is still officially before the conference.

The fall of the Tardieu Government, it is intimated, has made no technical difference in the French position before the conference. The naval document stays until it is either withdrawn or modified by a new French delegation.

And while the conference halts, Italy is preparing her case. The Italian intentions, the Canadian Press learns, are to confine their memorandum to a statement of principles. They do not propose, like the French, to put in specific figures. The basic ideas of the Italian memorandum will be, instead:

(1) The right to naval parity with any other power on the European continent;

(2) A declaration in favor of the reduction of armaments to the lowest possible level.

The Italians are not taking any pains to conceal their deep concern over the French memorandum. It is described in Italian headquarters as creating not merely consternation, but actually fear.

Why Need For Large Totals?

The Italians continue to ask against what power does France need such security? They can only see in the program a menace to Italy. They observe that under the Locarno Treaties Italy is a joint guarantor of the French eastern frontier; that under the Treaty of Versailles German armaments are rigidly limited

Further seeking to find some justification, in their eyes for the French demands, the Italians turn to the menace of Germany's "pocket battleship," the Ersatz Preussen, and its future sister-ships. They find that no matter with what skill Germany builds them, the total of her armaments is so limited that French security cannot be threatened.

The Italian position is that they want parity recognized not with France in particular, but with any European continental power which happens to hold naval armaments. As justification for their claim, they declare 65 per cent. of their food supplies and raw materials must come through the Straits of Gibraltar or the Suez Canal.

CHAUTAUQUA IS WELL RECEIVED

Capacity Audience Greet Opening Performance of Presentations in "The Patsy."

AT MILLBROOK.

MILLBROOK, Feb. 17. (Examiner Correspondence).—A complaining wife, given to tears and hysteria, and ambitious to climb socially; a high-spirited and jealous-minded elder daughter; a husband who for twenty-five years has given in to his wife's domineering temper; a very sweet and attractive younger daughter who plays the title-role in 'The Patsy'; and a lover who shifts his affections while instructing the maiden who has given him her heart unasked in the 'seven secrets' for winning a man's love; such was the cast that developed the plot of the comedy the opening night of the Chautauqua Festival on Thursday, February 13, at Millbrook.

The seating capacity of the Town Hall was practically sold out to season ticket holders before noon of the opening day, and the local committee, who had worked hard for at least three weeks in the ticket-selling campaign, had a very happy satisfaction as they realized they had gone 'over the top', so far as the amount of the contract was concerned, preceding the initial concert of the series which closes on Monday, February 17, with the play, 'Give and Take' by the Martin-Erwin Players.

Moments of pathos and near-tragedy in 'The Patsy' are offset by many ludicrous situations that develop in the family life, and the love affairs of the two girls, Grace and Patricia, the latter's ridiculous interpolation of 'smart sayings' culled from the books she has surreptitiously bought have no relevance to the subject of conversation on hand, being one of the "high lights" of the play. "It's no use crying over spilt milk—there's enough water in it already"; and "All the world's a stage but most of us are only stage hands," are two of her favorite quotations.

The human interest is well to the fore when father and daughter try to get together in understanding the mother, whose sympathies are all with Grace, failing tragically to appreciate her younger girl's outlook and actions. "The sportsmanlike thing to do" was the ideal Mr. Harrington had held up before Patsy, and she lived up to it even when it involved the courage to endure misunderstanding from those she loved. Three acts of comedy, romance, mystery and pathos end happily, the audience showing throughout the two hours production on which side its sympathies were strongly enlisted by applauding Pat Harrington and her father, while the mother and Grace drew half-smothered cries of 'Out' when some particularly flagrant piece of selfishness or falsehood came to the fore.

The play is a splendid start-off for the Chautauqua series, the cast of characters being: William Harrington, grocery salesman, Frank Weed; Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Vera Weed; Grace Harrington, Miss Adeline Wykoff; Patricia Harrington, Miss Miriam Coughlan; Tony Anderson, Pat Avery; Dillon Cornwall, Reeve Percy Stinson made a few introductory remarks before the opening of the local Chautauqua entertainments on Thursday evening, expressing the pleasure of the citizens in welcoming the artists to the community, and the gratitude due the committee who had sponsored the concerts undertaking the heavy financial responsibility and the labor involved in its successful discharge, also the satisfaction generally felt at the packed house which greeted the performers on the first night of the series.

Mr. [illegible], the business manager for the series here, who has won many warm friends during her stay in the village was next introduced and after a brief address outlining the program for the four days of the festival, asked the audience to rise and sing 'O Canada' previous to the curtain going up on the first act of "The Patsy", presented with exceptionally fine talent by the Martin-Erwin Players.

Friday afternoon saw the Town Hall again filled by 3.30, the local schools, and apparently some of the rural schools as well, having dismissed early to allow the teachers and scholars the privilege of hearing Miss Constance Neville Jones in her informative lecture, "The Land of the Kangaroo."

Musical selections by the Petrie Quintette formed a pleasing prelude to Miss Neville-John's introduction to her large audience of interested hearers. Mr. Albert Petrie performing this service, as he preceded his presentation of the talented lady with an explanation that the blue of her dress was emblematic of the evening sky in the Antipodes, while its sparkling sequins told of the stars which shine so brilliantly in the southern sky; the silver diadem in her hair was centred with a cross of stars; "We call her the Lady of the Southern Cross", Mr. Petrie concluded as Miss Johns came on the stage and bowed while the audience greated her with prolonged applause.

By means of charts, and pictures, Miss Neville-Johns told a fascinating story of "Topsy Turvy Land", 'the oldest (in point of land formation) and the youngest (as regards settlement) of the continents'. The products include sheep, wheat, fruit of all kinds, sugar, tobacco and cotton, with many kinds of wood, but particularly the eucalyptus, or gum tree; industrial activity is enforced because it is too costly to send our raw materials half round the world to be made into the finished products.

"Ninety-seven per cent of the people of Australia are British, and it is the only country in the world where all the inhabitants, with the exception of the aborigines, speak the same language. It is four-fifths the size of Canada, or twenty-eight times the size of the British Isles. Its population is only six millions, and two millions of these are in the cities of Sydney, and Melbourne. Two thirds of the interior is desert, though not sandy like the Sahara, and here the average temperature is 110 in the shade, varying from 102 to 122 in the hot months. Illiteracy is practically unknown, as are also slums or extreme poverty."

Speaking of the kangaroo, its great size and weight, and the habit of the mother animal of carrying its young in a pouch in front, the lecturer whimsically remarked: "Here we have real origin of the rumble seat" while her hearers laughed and clapped. "The kangaroo is said to be a relic of the age of the dinosaur and one evidence of the great age of the island continent."

Many other facts of absorbing interest were presented by Miss Neville-Johns in her lecture, and in concluding it she gave a remarkable imitation of the bird known as kookaburra, or the "laughing jackass", described the aborigines and showed some of their weapons such as different types of boomerangs, clubs, spears, and a small shield with which they are wonderfully agile in protecting their bodies.

In the evening a capacity audience greeted the Petrie Quintette, who presented a novelty program, with Miss Neville-Johns in a new role, that of a coloratura soprano, her beautiful voice and gracious personality endearing her once again to her listeners. Special lighting effects, scenic effects and lovely costumes added to the variety, novelty, originality, and enhanced the charm of the attractive program.

NEW PROMOTIONS ARE ANNOUNCED

Changes Are Made in Staff of Canadian Goodrich Company, Ltd.

P. S. Sargeant, vice president and general manager of Canadian Goodrich Company, Limited, Kitchener, Ont., has recently announced several and constructive changes in the executive personnel of that organization.

L. G. Needles, assistant to the general sales manager for the past four years, has been made sales manager tire division, in charge of tire sales and branch personnel.

A. J. Minkler, who has been with the Goodrich company since 1925, has been made sales manager footwear division.

G. R. Donaldson, formerly Vancouver district manager, has been transferred to Toronto, as district manager of that territory.

N. L. Mullett, who for many years in the past has been one of the star salesmen of the Vancouver branch, will succeed Mr. Donaldson as district manager there.

A. Koehler, formerly general sales manager, has severed his connection with the company, as has W. W. Atkinson, formerly Toronto district manager.

"We regard 1930 as a year of bright prospects in each of the two branches of Canadian industry which we serve with tires and footwear", says Mr. Sargeant. "Present indications point to a possible reduction in the volume of original tire equipment business over 1929, which was an exceptional year, but for this very reason the replacement market gives greater promise.

"In footwear, new Goodrich styles, shortly to be announced, will go a long way to still further increase Goodrich's lead in the rubber footwear field".

Roseneath

ROSENEATH, Feb. 17 (Examiner Correspondence).—At the Woman's Institute meeting that was held at the home of Mrs. Joe Robins, it was decided to withdraw the concert dated for February 28th.

The skating rink takes first place in amusements and it would almost be impossible to practise for a "play" when the ice is in such condition.

The skating season being of short duration, the members of the Institute were willing for those who skate to enjoy themselves, and mentioned having a play or entertainment in the early Spring. This was the only discussion during the meeting.

A relief box for the needy in the far North will be packed and shipped at an early date. Those who wish to contribute may do so by leaving clothing, etc., at Charles Brown's store.

The March meeting will be held in the town hall. It being the open meeting, an invitation is extended to everybody, men included and will take the form of an entertainment.

Program committees are as follows: For game: Mrs. Davey, Miss Annie Brown and Miss Mary Braithwaite; Contests: Misses Mary and Doris Mouncey and Mrs. George Mouncey; Music and Vocal Entertaining: Mrs. Lily Turner and Mrs. Lottie Nichol. Prizes will be awarded for games and contests.

Suggestions for uses of sugar sacks was given by many of the members and were very interesting to one another.

Congratulations were extended to Mrs. Orie Varcoe at the meeting, it being her wedding anniversary and all showed a good spirit by singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." The program consisted of readings by Mary Mouncey, "A Tree"; Mary Braithwaite, "Ted's Problem," Doris Mouncey, "Be Kind to the Old." A "sweet" contest was given by Beatrice Sandercock, which made considerable amusement and exercise for the brain.

Good Address

Mrs. Albert Halstead, in her cheerful and efficient manner, addressed the gathering with her topic, "A Canadian Women's Responsibility to Herself, Her Family and Mankind." In it were many good points valuable to everyone. Mrs. Halstead began by saying every person has a responsibility, no matter how we may try to shrink it.

We are born creatures of brain, and given will-power and reason, as the Bible say: No man liveth to himself. Our responsibilities are in proportion to our opportunities. Some have greater opportunities than others, so more will be required of them. As the parable of the talents, more was required of the man who had ten talents than the man who had five and one, but the man with the one talent was not left without his responsibility, and when he failed to make use of it, he was censured.

There are women in homes with perhaps small children or an invalid to care for or it may be physical weakness of their own. We cannot expect the same is required of them as the person with no home ties to prevent them from taking part in things outside the home.

What is women's responsibility to herself? asked Mrs. Halstead. We find where many women fail and that their failure is through unselfishness and love. They often forget the duty they owe to themselves. Women are often the chief burden bearers in the home. Perhaps not so much now as in the days gone by. We see mothers sacrificing themselves for their children, doing without things themselves in order that their children may have luxuries; slaving at home what the young folks are having pleasure.

Therefore the mother should give each child a responsibility, thus making life easier for herself and a benefit to the children.

A woman owes to herself a duty, to be as attractive as it is possible for her to be, not allowing herself to become old or dragged out before her time. She should mingle with congenial people, so that she has fresh interests in life, keep herself posted in what the outside world is doing which will enable her to talk intelligently about something else, other than her house-keeping trials and her family affairs.

Again, the woman should be interested in her husband's business, to be able to talk it over with him, not merely a pal to her husband, but to know something about business herself. Upon the atmosphere of the home life much depends. It it be cheap, frivolous, unwholesome or unsophisticated, its product will almost always be the same.

Mothers should train their children to something useful, they are in a position to find out what children are adapted for more quickly than the father. The young people should have to help bear the burden of obtaining whatever they are striving for, as anything secured easy is not often appreciated. Often we see children who have to work their own way, come out ahead of those who have everything to their hand.

Increased opportunities bring increased responsibilities. In olden times women's position was very humble. She was held in subordination and was not given any chance to show what she could do, either in the community or in public life. Women have the ballot now, are elected to Parliament, serve on school boards, etc., and can fill almost any position open to man. Her responsibilities have become greater and are valuable.

In conclusion, Mrs. Halstead urged the women to use their influence in every way, to have laws enacted, which are for the betterment of mankind. Men and women have equal opportunities in the business life to-day, so let us see that we as women do not fall short of these opportunities and responsibilities.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Halstead, also to Mrs. Robins for her kind hospitality. The meeting closed with singing the National Anthem.

Afternoon tea was served by the young ladies of the Institute.

Smooth skin always wins . .

Hollywood directors find

9 out of 10 screen stars keep their skin lovely this way . . .

Mary Duncan, exotically lovely Fox star, says: "A screen star's skin simply must be silken smooth to be 'studio skin.' That's why I am so faithful to Lux Toilet Soap."

"BEAUTIFUL smooth skin is the great heart winner." George H. Melford, famous movie director, thus expresses the experience of 39 leading Hollywood directors.

"The public certainly takes to its heart the actress with a skin that shows flawless—faultlessly smooth—under the terrific test of the close-up lights," he continues. "Such a skin is a prime factor in making her a star."

Nine out of ten screen stars use Lux Toilet Soap. It keeps their skin exquisitely smooth for that most important of all tests: the all-revealing close-up. And all the great film studios have made it the official soap for their dressing rooms.

You, too, will find that this delicately fragrant white soap keeps your skin exquisite and smooth. Try it—today. And use it for bath and shampoo, too.

CASUALTY CLEARING STATION WITH SOME WHO PLAYED PROMINENT PART

The usual things

It is difficult to imagine the world to-day without some of the things that make our living in it so pleasant and comfortable. How naturally we lift the telephone receiver, step into an automobile, and look for the news of the world in the newspaper—every day of our lives.

Another of these usual, invaluable things, accepted as part of the routine of existence, is the guidance given by the advertisements in this newspaper in supplying our wants from day to day. We read them. They help us to save time and money. And our lives go on—more easily and more fully.

Every day the advertisements suggest ways in which we can get things we want with the greatest possible satisfaction to ourselves. They tell us of new conveniences and comforts of which we would not otherwise have known. They help us to get down-to-the-dollar satisfaction. They assure us of proved values.

Advertisements are among the necessities to-day . . . read them regularly.

Toronto Dealer Believes Penn Is Genuine

Although there has been some doubt cast as to the authenticity of "the million dollar Penn documents and relics" by some sections of the English press, Thomas Ryan, Toronto art dealer, is convinced the collection genuine. He has stated that experts from New York have pronounced the relics genuine, declining, however, to divulge the names of the experts. In 1927, Hunter Charles Rogers figured in the "discovery" of Penn and other relics, for which he served twelve months' imprisonment. Mr. Ryan states emphatically that Rogers did not figure in this "discovery." The photographs here show: (1) Water color drawing of two girls, attributed to Sir Thomas Lawrence and produced by Rogers at the same time as he produced Shakespearean relics at Toronto and sold at auction here. (2) Hunter Charles Rogers, with two old leather folios in which certain documents which he ascribed to Shakespeare were alleged by him to have been discovered, and (3) one of the Penn relics, among which is included a document alleged to be the original draft of the United States Declaration of Independence. This drawing is also said to be by a master artist.

New Book Rouses Interest

W. Redvers Dent, Anglican preacher of Orillia, two years ago wrote "Show Me Death," impelled perhaps by a somewhat similar post-war reaction that inspired "All Quiet on the Western Front,' "Good Bye to All That," and a score of other war stories that have been since published, but publishers were inclined to be chary at first of a new author's story which was so startlingly different and so brutally realistic. Now they have embraced it enthusiastically, and it is to be published next month, the story of how the C. M. R's. proved they were not the C. M. Rums. The early scenes are laid in Toronto, and many well-known characters, including General Draper, are disguised in its pages "Cry Havoc," a condensed version of the story appearing in the two February issues of a current magazine, have aroused considerable attention.

LANGUAGE OF THE CHINESE VERY SIMPLE, STATES SPEAKER

MILLBROOK ADDRESS

MILLBROOK, Feb. 18 (Examiner Correspondence).—"There lies China sleeping; let her sleep, for when she awakes, God help us"; this remark, said to have been made by Napoleon on one occasion, is brought forcibly to mind in the course of the brilliant, witty, and cultured lecture given by Dr. Tehysi Hsieh, who is on a tour of America in the cause of international goodwill, and who spoke to a crowded hall here on Saturday night, in connection with the Canadian Chautauqua Festival.

The awakening of China is vividly pictured by Dr. Hsieh as he tells of her definite break with the past upward which she has been facing for milleniums, her abandonment of certain outgrown ideals, and her adoption of new principles that mean a deliberate change of attitude.

"The only impossible language is 'Canadian slangwidge'", declared Dr Hsieh, dealing with the statement that Chinese is an exceedingly difficult tongue; on the contrary, he said, the language of his native land is one of pictures expressing simply the thought to be conveyed, just as the auto signs in Canada tell the story of the road ahead; so, for instance, in Chinese a straight trunk, with two branches, signifies a tree; two of these a forest; a half circle is the moon, a full circle the sun; the two together, light. Adding some definitions in words, he said 'a lemon is a grape fruit that has had its chance'.

Able Speaker.

The remarkable versatility of Dr. Hsieh is shown by the fact that, while lecturing constantly, his talk is never wholly a repetition of one given on any previous occasion; he has the happy faculty, as was illustrated in Millbrook on Saturday night, of learning names of people in each community which he visits, and facts connected with their occupation or families, and weaving these into the prelude of his address.

Tracing the wide circuit of places visited in connection with his Chautauqua engagements, the doctor stated he had come into contact with upwards of six hundred thousand people, in addition to the three or four hundred on committees; his thought on coming into a community usually is, not only what native son or daughter has come to fame, but that among his hearers there may be someone who will climb high on the ladder of success. "Never be ashamed of your birthplace; rather go out to become great, and come back to make your home town great."

No Yellow Peril.

"There is no yellow peril", the speaker declared; the idea was put into words by the Kaiser, and was suggested by China's old flag, depicting a dragon with oustretched claws and open mouth 'ready to swallow the globe.' The new flag of China was displayed by Dr. Hsieh, the red signifying life and the right to its protection; the blue, intellectual aristocracy; and the white the privilege to have justice rule in the hearts of men. A burst of spontaneous applause greeted the doctor's showing of this flag side by side with the Union Jack. The 'rainbow flag' was also shown though this is not the national flag; it represented the Republic of China at first and each color has a significance in connection with the provinces into which the former Empire is divided.

Three Great Fours

Still in a ferment with the leaven of the new life, the Chinese are a great people with a great inheritance, Dr. Hsieh saying he has 'in mind the 'three great fours'—4,700 years of history; over four million square miles of territory; and four hundred and eighty millions of a population. "Life is not in holding a good hand, but in playing a poor one well", and out of their break with the past, the Chinese, who are not a dying race but a strong and vigorous people, with a constitutional form of government, will settle their internal problems and become a recognized force in world history.

The cause of famine in China, through the overflow of the Yellow river with the destruction of crops and villages, was explained by the lecturer who mentioned the need of scientific knowledge to overcome such handicaps as a death rate of 47.2 per thousand, although the birth-rate is 67.2 per thousand; by way of contrast, the death rate per thousand in Saskatchewan is only 7.2. The statement that China is not overcrowded, and that two-thirds of her territory is unused, came as a surprise to the audience. Thibet, Mongolia, Manchuria, and other parts of the great land having ample room for a greatly increased population. The need for [illegible] reforestation, as the speaker showed.

Reference was made to the debt China owes the Christian Church, the opening of roads throughout Mongolia, the making possible the change from the Lunar to the solar calendar, the [illegible] of the Imperial Manchus and the establishment of a democratic form of government being but a small part of the service he has rendered his native land.

That Dr Sun Yat Sen, the first president of the Chinese Republic will always occupy a niche in the hall of fame, is Dr. Hsieh's opinion as he went on to state that the headlines in the newspapers do not give a correct story of conditions in the land of his birth. The 'Reds' he believes will never gain a lasting foothold in China, and applause followed his suggestion that the initial letters of the 'ism': Communism, Radicalism, Anarchism, Bolshevism and Socialism, form 'crabs' "and that expresses what they are."

Broadminded deism in religion is evidently a characteristic of Dr. Hsieh's family; "my father was a Confucianist, my mother a Buddhist, five of my sisters are Presbyterians; and four brothers are Baptist; while I am a Methodist." (Laughter). That the Chinese do not worship Confucius who is rather a philosopher, but that they do worship God was the speaker's contention as he described the Temple of Heaven in the former capital city once Peking, now Peping:

"This temple is approached on three sets off stairs, the first signifying youth; the second middle life; and the third age; on the top is a platform with an altar, and overhead the sky, the abode of the Supreme Being of the Universe. The hands folded one over the other and raised over the head signify worship of God; before the nostrils, honor to Confucius; and in front of the body, near the region of the heart, the salute to a fellowman promising a square deal."

Do Not Advertise

That Canada is likely to become the ampitheatre of the western world, and the pivot of world power, was the contention of the eminent Chinese diplomat, who said, "You do not advertise your own country; I as a Chinese will cackle for Canada on my visit to twenty-seven colleges and universities in the United States upon which tour I will be engaged." (Applause).

China's fine share in the great war came in for proper mention, the speaker adding, "They died side by side with your soldiers as comrades-at-arms; remember China can mobilize forty millions of men in two months' time, if need arise, and she will stand by you to the last man." (Applause).

The change in the marriage laws; the development of 'flappers' among the Chinese girls; the ancestral vault with its supply of money for the care of the crippled members of the family; the fact that in all China there is no government owned hospital for the mentally weak, or insane; these unfortunates being looked after by their own people; the significance of the great wall of China, the symbols expressing China's state; economically sound; politically young; socially pure; morally high; and educationally advancing; were points dealt with in the concluding part of Dr. Hsieh's lecture. It was a satisfaction to learn that Britain is not responsible for bringing opium to China in the first place, though she enlarged the traffic. That China has great need of doctors, nurses, lawyers, dentists, druggists, and of proper sanitary laws to save her children, 'who die like rabbits', was the closing of the address which was followed by a question period, prolonged applause.

HOVIS-olive and walnut sandwiches

Put English Walnuts through the meat grinder, using a rather coarse blade. Drain thoroughly, and chop an equal bulk of Olives stuffed with Pimentos, using a chopping knife and bowl as the meat grinder squeezes these too dry.

Mix and add enough mayonnaise dressing to make a soft paste. Spread between thin slices of buttered HOVIS.

Extra wheat heart in HOVIS

The HOVIS loaf is Nature's vitality concentrated for you in bread. Added quantities of the wheat heart wherein is stored its strength and energy, are in HOVIS. There is a further advantage—HOVIS is delightful to the palate.

HOVIS means health and vitality.

for over two years—in fact, I didn't have the strength to walk down town without stopping several times to rest. I had a weak, sick feeling in my stomach and never was able to eat a meal and have any peace afterwards. My appetite went back on me completely and I just couldn't seem to keep up my strength.

"Four bottles of Sargon have done a remarkable job in overcoming my stomach trouble and I can now eat anything I want without any bad effects. My appetite is keen; I've put on some weight, and am so much stronger that only to-day I walked down town without stopping a single time to rest! My friends are simply astounded at the wonderful improvement in my health and strength, and I don't believe there's another medicine made that could have done as much for me."—David J. Male, 6 Somerset Ave., Toronto.

Sargon may be obtained in Peterborough from Bond's Drug Store.

PLEASING PROGRAM AT GUILD MEETING

DISTRICT NEWS.

STIRLING, Feb. [illegible] (Examiner Correspondence)—The Guild of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church met in the S. S. rooms on M[illegible] evening with a good attendance. The program, arranged by Mrs. M[illegible], was in charge of L. Anderson. After the singing of a hymn Mrs. Robins read the Scripture [illegible] and Rev. A. N. Reid led in prayer. A duet by Mr. A. S. Murdoff and Mrs. Colin Simpson was well received. An excellent paper on "The duties of a member of a Guild" was given by Mrs. G. Spry. Mrs. R. Mecklejohn put on a menu contest. Next Monday the program will be a musical one arranged by Mrs. Murdoff.

St. Andrew's W. M. S. held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. McGee on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. A. B. Farrey occupied the chair. After the opening exercises Mrs. A. S. Murdoff gave a well rendered vocal solo. Mr. Bisonnette, in a very capable manner, gave the Glad Tidings review. The topic taken from the new study book was ably given by Mrs. Jos. Reid and Mrs. J. M. McGee. Mrs. Farrey and Mrs. McGee will represent the auxiliary at the Kingston Presbyterial to be held in Kingston next week. The April meeting will be at the home of Mrs. T. Spry.

The A.Y.P.A. held a Valentine party last Monday evening at the rectory, which was suitably decorated for the occasion. Miss Hazel Danford read Rose Hartwick Thorpe's poem, "Curfew Shall Not Ring To-night." After a search for hearts, which had been hidden all over the rooms, there were several Valentine contests. A "hit the heart" game played with heart shaped bean bags proved very amusing. Miss Margaret Bateman gave a piano selection, "Rose Petals." After a "heart race," a most original "forfeit game" was put on by Mrs. L. Hamel Cook. Team III won the prize by obtaining the highest score in the different games. A beautiful prayer book was presented by Mr. Byers on behalf of the A.Y.P.A. and S. S. to Mr. Carl Cooke as some appreciation of the active interest he has taken in the A.Y.P.A. and S. S. Carl is being moved by the Royal Bank to their branch at Norwood. After a delicious lunch was served the guests joined hands in singing, "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows," which concluded a most enjoyable evening.

The Y. P. S. of St. Paul's United church met on Monday evening with a large number present. The devotional exercises were in charge of the president, Mrs. H. Hulin. Miss Drenelda Richardson read the Scripture lesson and prayer was made by Mr. F. Hulin. Miss Florence Bailey, 2nd vice-president of the missionary department, conducted the program. Miss Madaline Leury gave a piano selection. Miss Lucy Williams continued the talk taken from the study book, "That they may be one" and based her remarks on "Strangers within our land," urging her hearers to do all they could to make these strangers feel at home in their new homes. Mrs. Percy McGuire put on an "ice" contest. Mr. Rowland and Mr. L. Munroe sang a duet and the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

The W.M.S. of St. Paul's church held their monthly meeting in the S. S. rooms on Tuesday afternoon with Miss Lucy Williams in charge. After prayer by the Rev. E. W. Rowland the new officers were called to the platform and in a very impressive service the officers were installed by Mr. Rowland. The roll call was "Prayer." Mrs. Clifford Lansing gave a Scripture commentary on the Lord's prayer in a very interesting way. After the singing of a hymn Mrs. H. C. Martin, delegate to the convention recently held in Napanee, gave a very comprehensive report of the various meetings. Another hymn and the Mizpah benediction brought the meeting to a close.

Representatives of the various denominations met on Tuesday to arrange for the women's day of prayer meeting.

WORLD'S RADIUM SUPPLY IS NOT OVER 550 GRAMS

Output divided between Cancer and Luminous Paint.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—Cancer and luminous paint divide most of the world's radium, and more is greatly needed for cancer, the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers was told today by Richard B. Moore, head of the Chemistry Department of Purdue University. He said "the world's total production up to the present was probably between 500 and 550 grams, and that it was doubtful if the world's supply of radium for medical purposes was over 250 grams."

Our Mail

ANNE WILCOX

Dear Anne:

Just now I am a very disappointed woman. I suppose you remember me saying that I intended going to Florida this spring. I fully intended to but just last week my father took seriously ill, so ill that he may not get better! Of course, I could not go in that case; I have cancelled my tickets and other things connected with it. So far, I seem to be more sorry about the trip than my father but that is not so. Although I and the rest of the family and household and doctors have faith that he will get better, he just lies on his bed and whenever I enter his room just says, "My end has come, my end has come." Then when I leave he thinks he may not see me again and says, "Good bye, Jane, we shall meet again—sometime." It is very pitiful and heart breaking.

I noticed a letter from Ad Nauseam the other day. I wonder what her name means. I presume it is latin and all I know is the ad if it is that language. She was saying how people always say she is different. I consider that a blessing. My, but it is nice to be different, I should think. Of course there is a big difference from being different and from being odd. So many people are just the same. I think every person is meant to be different. God makes us that way. We all know, at least, that He makes our looks different. But we do not carry it out. In reality, there are very few people in comparison with the millions who are different. There is nothing that is original, either. Some person may write an article by picking up an odd phase or sentence here and there to make up something of his own. I would not call that original, although I suppose in a way it is. Perhaps Ad Nauseam is something like me—sensitive. I do not like personal remarks made about me, especially all the time. But dear Ad Nauseam do not let the thought of being different haunt you for to be different is a blessing from Above.

I wonder how many of the neighbors have had the pleasure of a trip to Denmark? Perhaps I am a little more fortunate than most people as far as travel goes, although most of my time in travelling has been spent in Europe. When I started this paragraph I intended to speak of Denmark but I will leave that for another time. The thought just came to me of how I felt when I left Europe and it made me think of how Mary, Queen of Scots, felt as portrayed by a French poet, when she left France, which she had adopted for her native land so I thought I would quote it.

I wonder how many of us know what the meaning of Valentine's Day is? I did not know until last year and as Valentine's Day is almost here, I thought I would explain it. The 14th of February is called St. Valentine's Day as the name day or feast day of eight different Christian martyrs named Valentine, that is, in the medieval church services were held on that day in memory of this martyrdom. The custom of sending valentines or gifts has nothing to do with the martyrys, however. It happened that a springtime festival which was kept by the Romans fell on the same day. The making of gifts on that day has come down from this old festival, but the origin of the custom was generally forgotten, and in time the gifts were called Valentines from the name given to the day. This is a good example of the manner customs survive sometimes for centuries among people who do not remember how they arose.

Rowena.

I'm sorry Rowena, that I had to leave out the poem—with space so limited it is impossible to get them in, with of course, the exception of one verse or so. It isn't compulsory that your name be known, but it is usual that the neighbors also inclose their names with their pennames.

Dear Anne:

If I were Ad Nauseam I certainly would feel highly flattered to be considered different. To be different is to be more interesting—it is to be just a shade more clever than the average, just a little better conversationalist, just a little more thoughtful, just a trifle more witty, just a wee bit more sensitive. It is to be a friend worth keeping,a guest always welcome and an acquaintance worth knowing. But why, oh why! stay on the hilltop alone and why oh why call it a cross? Come down and join your would-be-friends they are longing to know you, they'd love to make you one of themselves and would thoroughly enjoy the extra wim and wit and brightness you could contribute to their social life. Don't think they don't want you. Do you not hold back so you will be just out of the circle? Are you not just a little reserved? Isn't there a sort of wall between you and the others with whom you would be friendly? If there is you will have to do your part in scaling that wall. You must meet them half way, otherwise they will withdraw their overture and seek others more easily reached. Don't continue to be misunderstood, come out of your shell and learn what a glorious friendly world is about you. I would like to know you. I would like to penetrate the mask you have hidden behind and enjoy the real you, being different.

I too, have been told I do things differently but I love to hear the word. I do enjoy getting a hat or dress that is different. I enjoy planning a party that is different or serving refreshments or a dinner that is different. Perhaps it's only a dash of paprika in the right place, perhaps it's an unusual icing or an extra special dish of meat. If it is judged as different I feel it is a success. To be different is to be distinctive. You could go far if you would!

And now my contribution to wealth. An old sermon shelved in my memory storehouse says, 'It's the part of the blanket that hangs over the edge that keeps us warm.' If we were to sleep with coverlets that barely stretched over our bodies, we would be well nigh frozen in zero weather. It's the extra that comes down at the sides and the ends that does the trick. It's the ingrained love of beauty of literature of religion, of life that constitutes the extras because if we love these things we are bound to seek them out each in our own way. Poverty will not down one who loves music. If it prevents me from studying modern music and the great classics I can still charm my soul with the music of nature. The birds, the pipes of Pan in the forest, the music of the winds. Who is there to say I am not as wealthy as one who can sit in luxury and listen to a great master? The beauty of nature is here for everyone to enjoy. Why should I, who am poor, envy you who have much? Wealth avails us little, true it eases the bumps out of the road, it brings the little extras to us more quickly, but the bumps, the patient plodding and the contrivial seeking leaves such a depth of quality to the character of those who are not wealthy, in a monetary sense that it keeps the soul warm. It's my belief that of two men equally endowed mentally but starting life the one handicapped by poverty, the other with wealth to make his needs easily attained, the poor man will eventually dominate over the other in quality and refinement of character, and that is wealth.

Aren't we having just a glorious winter? It is so healthful and exhilarating. I often wonder if there is anything more charming than snow and the gorgeous sunsets of our Canadian winter. There was a wonderful sunset just the other day that I revelled in seeing. The lengthening shadows of the setting sun appeared on the snow as deepest cobalt blue shading to violet. The western sky with the same background of deepest blue and violet touched up here and there with a dash of rose and orange. The colors interchanged and blended anew with possibly less of rose and more or orange with touches of green and finally long after the sun had disappeared a strange greenish after-glow almost a transparent green.

And the snow Have you ever looked on the forest after a freshly-fallen snow, not yet disturbed by a breeze? The fantastic shapes and domes of little evergreens the hooded branches and snow-laden trees. The unbroken expanses of snow, beautiful, white, undisturbed. Venture in on your snowshoes, if you will and listen to the silence, profound and infinite. The boom of crackling ice in a stream or lake near by, the sharp snapping of some frost-bitten tree, the song of the pines, these are the only sounds in the huge silence. If by chance you go on a moon lit night you will experience a feeling of awe and reverence for the great Maker of the Universe that is unforgettable! And the stars! Have you ever noticed how the stars twinkle and glow, shimmer and dance on a frost-laden night? Always bright but seemingly much brighter when seen through the clear ether of a winter night. May I quote from Lampman:

The stars that singly then in flocks appear,
Like jets of silver from the violet dome,
So wonderful, so many and so near
And then the golden moon to light me home,
The crunching snowshoes and the stinging air,
And silence frost and beauty everywhere.

Marie Christine

I'm sure Ad Nauseam will feel better when she has finished reading your letter Marie Christine, I think she was just out of sorts' the day she wrote—I'm sure she doesn't feel that way all the time. I'm glad to know that you too, are a lover of nature!

Dear Anne:

First of all I must say how sorry I am to not have welcomed you, I really have no good excuse, just a case of putting things off until another day. At the time Marion left I was out of the city and did not know who was taking her place until near Christmas then of course, I was, as most quite busy.

In last night's paper I read a letter from Al. She asks for some cheese recipes and I am enclosing one or two I like very much. Al also brings up the subject of making your own clothes and the attitude of some toward those who wear home made dresses. I do most of my dresses, etc., myself and sometimes one or two for my friends. Now what I can't understand is why people should think the dresses I make for others deserves so much more praise than one I make and wear myself. I have heard remarks such as these, 'Say I like that dress very much, where did you buy it?" "Well she certainly made it well." Then the same party will ask about a dress I am wearing and when told I made it myself will say "Oh!" In some cases I think they are a little jealous of any who can make dresses or in fact do anything that they can't do.

But to tell the truth I feel better dressed in a dress I have bought (if a good one) than one I have made myself and I don't really know why.

Some of the neighbors write such long interesting letters that I feel ashamed of my little notes but then I never could write long letters to anyone. While we are on the subject of dresses what do you and the neighbors think of the new longer dresses? I think there are a great number of knees that look much better covered and then some of the long coverings look terrible while the medium length looks better from every angle. I often wonder that we have to go to extremes in such things. There are always a number who do you know.

Well I have talked long enough on one subject now, so will go and find my cheese recipes for Al. Wishing you every success with the page and the very best to all the neighbors.

Ella May

Thank you for your welcome Ella May and may I welcome you back to the page? I think maybe the reason you feel better in bought clothes, is because you are not conscious of some little fault which you may find in your own home made dresses. Usually the person who makes her own clothes can have some times twice as many as the one who has to pay the usual high price for Parisian styles. There are some, as you say, who are just jealous because they aren't gifted along this line. Thank you very much for the cheese recipes for Al.

Dear Anne:

I just came in for a little one-sided chat with Ad Nauseam. Your letter is surely a thought builder. To read the lines I am puzzled, but when I read between the lines I see a very beautiful character, being the possessor of that you need not worry. In your letter there is a good lesson for us all. It is the little attentions that you pay strangers that turn them into friends. You remember how it was with Mrs. Blank. You met her with a lot of other people that you didn't know at a bridge and you would never have thought of her again except that next day she sent you a magazine with an article in it that had been under discussion and that you hadn't read. That little attention opened up the acquaintance that has ripened into a beautiful friendship. The same with Mrs. White, she was just a woman across the street with whom you had a nodding acquaintance until that sad day when your mother died suddenly and she came to you with a sympathy and helpfulness that turned her almost into a sister.

Don't ever be afraid of being human or of showing people that you like them and admire them and that you are glad of their triumphs and sorry for their misfortunes. All of us, even those who seem the most reserved and self-contained have something in us that cries out for companionship in our triumph and our bitter moment of defeat. All the world wants praise and sympathy, even as you and I. Nor can there be any guide to the art of conversation more infallible than just trying it out on yourself. Consider those who bore you to extinction. Are they not those who talk interminably about themselves, the egotists who think they are giving you a rapturous nour listening to them blow their own horns? If before we spoke we stopped to consider how we would like to have that thing said to us or that thing told about us, it would not only make us popular in society but it would save us many a bitter regret for a cruel speech that stabbed like a dagger, or for a scandal that we started on its way.

All of which, boiled down, simply comes to this, that the Golden Rule is a mighty good rule to live by and it works just as well socially as it does morally. My dear Ad Nauseam I hope you will enjoy all the nice things that are said about you, just forget the people and their remarks that are unpleasant.

Wishing you continued success,

Lucinda

Thank you Lucinda for your bit of cheer for Ad Nauseam, I would like to hear from her again about how she is enjoying all these lovely letters from the neighbors.

Dear Anne:

To Ad Nauseam: In a family where there are both sisters and brothers, there are often one or two different from the others. This, generally does not cause any bother, they are all loved alike by mother and father. There's lots coming to others which you will not get, for which being different you need have no regret. Each of us has our own peculiar turn of mind, mother nature did not leave you far behind. Being different you need not feel you're too commonplace, even though with some you cannot keep pace. When you feel different like others not the same, and you are sure it's not yourself is to blame, where's the use of always being in a worry over what you can't help and that keeps you in a flurry? Get down in the valley and join the cheerful crowd, perhaps on your hilltop some may think you are proud. Forget you are different and 'twill do you no harm to try helping some others whose heart you may warm. Far better to be different than an indifferent one and see nothing else but for yourself to be done. I do not think your difference is so serious as you suppose, and soon of the thought you will properly dispose. If anything in the home went wrong, you were not blamed first, being different you are not considered the worst. Coming in from school you were not upbraided, because in your class you so low graded. Being different certainly seems to have disturned your peace. So banish the thought, and secure a release, by a verse in the Book of all Books so free, contained in Isaiah twenty-six and verse three.

Meta

I hope Meta that Ad Nauseam will soon be changing her name to something more pleasant. After reading all the lovely letters from the neighbors who have come to her aid, I'm sure she must feel better.

Dear Anne:

When Marion was in charge of your department I wrote a couple of letters requesting that some of her time be devoted to the interests of the business girl but regret nothing was done to that end. Now you know we are not all housekeepers and that our interests lie in different channels than what seem to be the purport of most of the letters written to you.

Surely there are some business girls who write to you and who would be willing to open a discussion regarding the life of a girl associated with the business world. Perhaps you could write a Whatnot on say office etiquette for instance. I'm sure there are many girls who would be glad of advice along this line.

Let's see what you will do for the business girls, Anne. With kind regards.

Oddity.

Thank you for checking us up on this point. I guess we have been so interested in matters that particularly interest the home ,that we have neglected the business girl—however I'll try and do my part at least once a week with an article for the girl who has business interests outside the home. Will you assist me with your letters?

The fitted silhouette is interestingly treated in this Philippe and Gaston model in beige crepe de chine.

AN INTERESTING TREATMENT OF THE FITTED SILHOUETTE.

By Monsieur Gaston.
Creator for Philippe and Gaston.

The fitted silhouette is interestingly treated in this afternoon frock of beige crepe de chine, in which I have used a series of those tiny tucks, called nervures, to shape the gown to the figure and to give added interest to the design. For informal frocks of this type, I keep the skirt a few inches below the knee, reserving the long skirt for more formal occasions.

NEWEST FASHIONS REMINISCENT OF OTHER DAYS

SUIT IS PUT FOFRWARD ON THE SPRING CALENDAR

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (U.P.).—A new interpretation of the flaring silhouette in suit jackets that gives promise of achieving an important place because of its adaptability to figures of different types, is that in which back and front are flat, while each side gives emphasis to the flare.

This is important not only in daytime costumes, but enters into the making of formal wraps as well ,the flat back line in such models developing into a trailing panel, providing greater emphasis for the shorter, flaring sides. In the color choice, honey beige is becoming important in the sheer velvet group, united with dark color furs.

For daytime, jackets of tweeds or other rough surface woolens, are cheviots and novelty pebble weaves, wide pleats may be posed at the sides, while in soft woolens, as wool crepe coverts, chiffon broadcloth and novelty weaves the circular peplum interpretation retains the extended sides. In the latter class the peplum tapers, joining the flat, narrow back panel.

A virtue of this silhouette, compared with that of the all-around circular flare in jackets, is found in the fact that it may be worn by figures of moderately large proportions, as well as by the slim person. The earlier exploitation of circular peplum, or flaring gored sections, confined such jackets to the smaller sizes, while the newer type introduces a version that retains the idea of the rippling hem employed in a manner to appeal to a greater proportion of the buying public.

There is evidence that the consumer is extremely interested in the suit of fitted lines in tweeds that retain the classic tailored aspect. The molded waist is not achieved in an obvious manner, by tucking or exaggerated sectional lines but through deftly curved side seamings. The hem, long at back, rising in a gradual upward line, is considered important in this type of suit. The notched type of collar invariably is chosen. This represents a second silhouette of which much is expected, since it too, is suited to varied figure types.

Ranking impartially with both these types are the youthful belted suit jacket, a preferred manipulation being the incrusted self-fabric belt, tying neatly at front, also the cardigan silhouette, this jacket closing with three or four buttons, placed low, being unbelted and advancing the notched collar. Wool crepe is a favored fabric for the latter type, while tweeds are highlighted in the flared peplum suit.

What To-day Means To You

"AQUARIUS"

If February 18 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m., from 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., and from 8 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The danger periods are from noon to 1 p.m. and from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The influences for this date will be rather distracting and it will be difficult to concentrate—diversified activities will take place and no big thing will be accomplished. Society events will go off with a bang, and hosts and hostesses will be repaid for their efforts.

Children born on this February 18 will feel "certain" of themselves and will possess an attractive dignity, old for their years. They may be prigs, but they will never suffer from an inferiority complex. They will be capable of deep feelings, but will be far from demonstrative in their affections.

Only your family or those who know you intimately, are able to appreciate that a truly warm-hearted being, capable of being most human, exists underneath your cloak of coldness and reserve. Your manner is very standoffish, and you repel instead of attracting people to you. You are admired by many, but are loved by a few. Once a friend, always a friend; and it can almost be said, once an enemy, always an enemy. You are sternly just—to you there are no degrees of right and wrong. If you are slightly critical and unforgiving toward others, your own conscience is much more severe on yourself. Remorse and regret often make you most miserable.

In a way your life is a lonely one. You cannot force yourself to make first advances, and others do not always take the trouble to break through the superficial barriers with which you surround yourself. You miss many a warm friendship because of your inability to event meet others half way.

All people of your type are conscientious workers—slow but sure. You are rather lacking in initiative, but you never stint either time or energy when you are on any job. If you be a woman, you are probably a "fussy" worker and you waste precious time over unimportant details. You never spare yourself in any way, and you must take care that your nerves do not become frayed. You need to learn how to relax—it will save both your physical and mental makeup.

WHEN A CHILD IS FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour belching, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally show food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant-tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont. It will be sent FREE.

In buying, be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 80 years.

The Senior Valentine party of the Y.W.C.A. held last evening was the closing event in the recent Balloon contest for new gymnasium members. The eighty girls who were in attendance were dressed as little children, and a happy time was spent in a program of games, races, stunts, songs and recitations by the children and gymnasium drills and dances. Later, refreshments were served in the green room, where Mrs. Reg. Turner and Mrs. W. F. Butcher poured coffee. A feature of the evening was the presentation of Royal Life Saving Society certificates and medals. The Physical Director, Miss C. Littlefield, spoke of the difficult tests involved and the honor of securing these awards. Mrs. W. F. Butcher then presented the Proficiency certificate to Alice Davis, the Bronze medallion to Elda Bradley, Florence Taylor, Jean Fairweather, Hazel Schram and Ruth Milburn, and the Award of Merit to Doris Rogers, Elda Bradley and Florence Taylor. The prize for the best costume went to Ruby Revere, in pink checked rompers, while honorable mention was accorded to Lorraine Irwin as a Scotch Lass, Violet Lowes as Raggedy Ann, Myrtle Pearson as a Five-Year-Old, Jean Fairweather as a Baby, and Jessie Pattison and Irene Biddle, as Little Tots. Prizes for races were won by Sophia Yeotis and Nellie Day. A prize was also presented to Clara Foy, who brought in the most new members in the gymnasium balloon contest. An announcement in connection with the Y.W.C.A. Foreign Work campaign was made by Miss L. Brownscombe, general secretary. The Y.W.C.A. members have been divided into ten groups and each group is striving for fifteen dollars for this work. Cards showing a map of China, India and Japan, divided into small squares, each selling at ten cents, will be the method used for raising a large portion of the amount. A large map in the hall will record the contributions of the various classes and clubs. The holly party then closed with a good night dance in the gymnasium.

Fifty-Two Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Throop celebrate the fifty-second anniversary of their wedding to-day in their comfortable home, 104 Lock Street. George K. Throop and Sarah Stell were married in Cobourg on February 18, 1878. They have lived most of their married life in this city, and have raised seven children, two boys and five girls. There will be no celebration this year, but another milestone marking their happy wedded life will be quietly remembered. Their many friends are congratulating them on this occasion. It is learned that both Mr. and Mrs. Throop are still enjoying a good measure of health and strength.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

NEIGHBORS, WE HAVE been neglecting the younger folk!

• • • • • • •

We have been so interested in what we have been considering, the most important thing in life—the home, that we have forgotten that others read our page—people who are not necessarily housewives and therefore do not take a great deal of interest in our discussion. So we will have to be more considerate!

• • • • • • •

Oh, dear, I fear we have been selfish!

• • • • • • •

And so I promised "Oddity" when she wrote that I would devote at least one article a week to the girls and those readers who are not devoting their time to the keeping of the house.

• • • • • • •

All you neighbors will help, I know! Especially you mothers who have girls in business.

• • • • • • •

"Oddity" suggests as a starter an article on Office Etiquette. It is sometimes hard to know what to do when certain things crop up in the office life, some say do one thing when our conscience says, "No."

• • • • • • •

Just about a month ago, a number of questions were asked regarding the giving of Christmas gifts to the employer.

• • • • • • •

I heard quite a number of girls say they had chosen a gift for their employer. Modern Etiquet says, as well as that of former days, that we shall not give unto our employer gifts at any season of the year!

• • • • • • •

We may accept gifts from them, providing, of course, they are suitable ones. Usually at Christmas time, the gifts takes the form of money or a bonus and in that way, makes the gift more easily accepted. It would be, of course, absolutely absurd to have office managers giving jewelry or any such things as gifts for Christmas—I say Christmas, for that is the only season of the year when we are permitted to accept gifts from members of the office staff.

• • • • • • •

So much for gifts—"Oddity" didn't say what part of the office etiquette she wished refreshed in her memory, so as I had just been hearing a little of Christmas giving in offices, I thought perhaps it might help some to know what modern etiquette says is correct.

• • • • • • •

Usually the heads of the firms are so busily engaged in business affairs during office hours that it is difficult to see, if we can at all, the human side of them.

• • • • • • •

If you have ever read 'His Official Fiancee' by Berta Ruck, you will get the idea I'm trying to get at.

• • • • • • •

Yet after all they are human—and the sooner we realize it the better we will be able to assist them with the ideas they are trying to put across.

• • • • • • •

Don't be afraid to speak when asked for ideas—yours may be more valuable than you realize.

• • • • • • •

Be dependable—don't take too many things for granted—find out, and don't trust your memory to always serve you, use a memo pad.

• • • • • • •

Act in the office as your conscience dictates—with respect for your employer, and then if your work is done in an efficient manner your employer's respect for you will be worth having.

Knox Choir Returning to City Sees Massive Ball of Fire Shoot Through Sky.

NO NOISE HEARD.

Majestically sailing out of the southern sky and traversing a north easterly course, a meteor, providing a most brilliant and awe-inspiring spectacle, was observed in the small hours of Friday morning by the members of Knox Church Choir who were returning by sleigh from the home of George Fowler of North Monaghan.

Rev. William McDonald, pastor of Knox Church who was the first members of the party to see the meteor informs The Examiner that the two sleigh loads of people had completed half the distance home. The moon was high in the heavens shedding her cold radiance on the earth whilst the sky was studded with stars. He was sitting facing south when he caught sight of what appeared to be a star moving out of the southern sky. He watched it closely and was soon aware that it was a meteor. Excitedly jumping from his seat he cried, "look, look, look," and the others, about 25 in number, gazed heaven-ward and were rewarded by seeing a massive ball of fire about half the diameter of the moon as seen from the earth, proceeding leisurly and majestically across the sky. "It had a short tail of greenish-purple gas" said Mr. McDonald, "and when it appeared to be over the city it suddenly burned out and disappeared."

"Had it not been for the brilliancy of the moon I believe that it would have lighted the whole countryside. It was observable for about ten seconds."

Asked if it made any noise Mr. McDonald said, of that he could not be certain as the jingle of harness and the pounding of horses hoofs on the still frosty air excluded any other sound.

Meteors and meteorites are believed by the highest scientific authorities to be fragments of a world which was disrupted before the origin of our planet, and whose particles have been travelling around in space for aeons before coming into the earth's gravitational field. They dash into the earth's atmosphere at a speed of from ten to forty miles per second and the heat generated by friction with the upper air vapourises or burns them. Meteors rarely if ever become visible at a greater height than 100 miles above the earth and disappear before they have descended within thirty miles of the earth's surface.

It is stated by Dr. Moulton of Chicago that between ten and twenty million of them strike the earth's atmosphere daily, but that many are so small as to escape observation.

Sometimes large meteors usually termed meteorites dash into the earth's atmosphere, glow brilliantly from heat generated, roar like a waterfall and occasionally produce violent detonations and vary in weight from a few pounds to several tons. These are rare occurrences.

The great astronomer Dr. P. Lowell, says, "some are stone, some iron — meteoric iron, joined with nickle. They are old with age which staggers imagination. Older in cycles of evolution, if not in years, than anything we see in the countless spangles of a winter's night in the blue-black firmament of the sky. Before the silent tale they tell, history shrinks into yesterday, the earths career into the day before, and the evolving of the solar system itself into modernity. Through their surface we seem to be gazing past the iron bars into the immensity, not of space alone, but of eternity."

IN PETERBOROUGH CHURCHES

ST. JAMES' UNITED CHURCH.

Rev. J. H. Dudgeon, continuing the subject "Regeneration" from last Sunday, spoke from St. Matthews' Gospel 18:3 "And said, verily I say unto you, except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven." Jesus Christ was the greatest preacher the world has ever known. He has the secret of drawing people to Him, by using familiar expressions in a fascinating way. His lessons were taken from such simple illustrations as the farmer sowing his grain, the woman baking bread and the 'Prodigal Son.'

An important truth He introduces with the word "Verily" or "Behold". These words are God's finger-posts to point us on the way, as expressed in the text.

What hope in it is there for the moralist who says he has no need of new birth or conversion, but that the moral law is sufficient. But Christ answers him with the words, "Ye shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven except ye be converted."

Some believe that God is so loving, so merciful, that they will be saved without this decisive step. The eighth and ninth verses of this chapter show the great need of conversion for Christ said, "It is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire."

Four Questions.

There are four great questions to be answered:

1. How Can I be Saved?
2. Do I Know When I am Saved?
3. How may I know when I am saved?
4. What is Conversion?

When a man purchases a property it is converted to him. He pays a price for it. Jesus has eternal and everlasting life to offer us, and we must pay the price which is to exercise Faith and belief in Him. This is in reach of all. There is none too young and none too old. Conversion means a new heart, new mind and a new spirit. 'It is a change of conduct—Not a journey. It is Christ living in you'.

No two people have the same experience in conversion.

Jesus healed the three blind men each in a different way, but the important thing was that they could see.

How may I be converted? By a power outside of ourselves which convicts us of the need of a Saviour and in an act of Faith we accept Him. Conversion is a personal act between God and a soul.

One man may know the place, hour and day when God first spoke to him. Another may not have this definite experience. It is not a question of time or place. The important thing is: Do we know Him now?"

How may we know we are converted. Not always by feelings or emotions. Our authority is found in God's word. Just as the written deed assures us of our ownership of property so the word of God gives us proof of our salvation.

By this deed we have the right to transfer this property, so Jesus has the right to transfer Salvation to us, and He has sealed it with His precious blood.

The world knows that we are Christians by our works. If you have the spirit of God in you it bears witness.

Give us that simplicity of a child that we may reach forth and take Jesus.

Evening Service.

The first of a series on the subject "Where are the dead"? was begun, by request, on Sunday evening, by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, who based his sermon on Ecclesiastes 12:7, "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."

Long ago the question was asked "Can this new religion solve the mystery for us of what comes in the great unknown." Job, too asked: "If a man dies shall he live again. "There are many theories concerning this question to-day, some of which are misleading, giving pain, rather than joy. The Bible has the only answer to this question.

Let us consider what we mean by the word "I" or "me". This is not the body, but something greater and more mysterious, for the body is continually changing, neither is it the brain for it too, changes, and is but an instrument which we may ruin by misuse. The real "I" is greater than body, brain, nerve, tongue, hand or foot.

It is impossible to destroy or get away from this self or soul which survives all changes. There are three great creative acts of God: First, the material world, second, animal life and third, man, into which God breathed out of his nostrils the breath of Life and man became a living soul. This was the greatest act of all.

The soul is ever existing, never dying, for everything that comes of God is eternal, we may measure the tremendous value of the soul by what God has done for it in the gift of His only Son. Death is but a birth into another career in the future which stretches for endless ages. Death must happen because of sin.

Eternity is not a misty affair but is outlined plainly in God's word. It is thought that humanity is too magnificent to be damned eternally, but if angels were cast out of heaven, what plea has man? The crucified Christ weeps over a sinful world. Why did He come and die if the soul is not worth saving? There is no annihilation of the soul. Somewhere in the great beyond, we will be living. Christ is the door, the only way to Eternal bliss.

Song Service.

A service of son in keeping with the subject preceded the evening worship and was led by a large choir. The morning anthem was "Teach me to do Thy Will" with Mrs. E. Kitney, soloist, and "Onward Christian Soldiers" was sung in the evening.

The Junior Choir also sang at both services, and a specially appropriate duet "When Mother of Salem was sung by little Misses Frances and Freda McMahon. "Life's Railway to Heaven" was rendered in duet by Messrs. Moynes and Henwood.

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

WE ARE STILL PIONEERS.

There are no new continents for modern Columbuses to discover.

There are no wild tribes to be subdued.

The old type of pioneer, who took an axe and a rifle into the wilderness and brought it under cultivation is now to be found only at the ends of the earth.

But the pioneer is not gone, nor is the pioneering spirit.

There was recently gathered at Des Moines, Iowa, a group of distinguished men, all pioneers in their several lines, and all as intrepid and determined adventures as Kit Carson or Daniel Boone.

These men have no wild natives to fight. Their job is to master the forces of nature as far as they can be mastered by man, and to conquer the prejudices and ignorance which stand in the way of the advance of intelligence.

They are just as daring as the pioneers of old, and of even more importance to the future.

America simply had to be discovered. The mystery is why it was not discovered before, and many students of the Maya civilization believe that it was.

But the secrets that science is seeking do not bulk as large as continents on the earth.

They must be hunted down with infinite patience and thought and with untiring research.

The pioneer of to-day needs far more than a gun and a canoe and a few months' rations for his outfit.

He must be equipped with elaborate scientific apparatus, and under his hat he must carry the accumulated knowledge of many long years.

His is the real pioneering job of to-day. And upon the way he does it depends the comfort, perhaps the very existence of the people who are to inhabit the earth long after you and I have gone on to what we hope may be a better life than this.

The lad who laments that there are no more buffaloes to drive from the face of the earth, no more Indians to force back into the forests, will find an outlet for his ambition in this new pioneering, which is far more interesting than the old.

There are microscopic creatures far more deadly than grizzly bears and panthers and rattlesnakes.

There are wildernesses far more tangled and pathless than those that lay beyond the Mississippi when DeSoto found it.

The spirit of adventure has far more opportunity to-day than it had when Fremont traveled west.

We are still pioneers, and happily we shall be for perhaps many thousands of years to come.

FUR COATS

Better Buying Than Cloth Coats

Good Furs Last for Years and Can Frequently Be Re-Styled

A Good Fur Coat is always better buying than a cloth coat, notwithstanding the difference in price. They outlast a cloth coat by many years, and can be re-styled from time to time at little cost. A re-styled Fur Coat is in utility and appearance a new one. Then think of the extra comfort, beauty and protection a Fur Coat gives in a climate such as we have.

Saints Defeat Lindsay Juniors on Round 5 to 3

ST. JOHN'S CAPTURE GROUP BY BEATING LINDSAY 3-1 AT OSHAWA; PLAY KINGSTON HERE TO-MORROW

Saints Outplay Olympias Throughout and Deserved Bigger Margin.

WEIR A STAND OUT

Peterborough Youngsters Finish Strong to Nail Deciding Battle.

(By F. D. C.)

St. John's finally completed their long battle for the junior group honors at Oshawa last night by beating the Lindsay Olympias 3 goals to 1 in the sudden death game ordered to break the deadlock on the round. The victory gives the Saints a 5 to 3 margin on the series and the right to meet Kingston in the second round, the Limestone City team coming here tomorrow night for the first game with the second fixture billed for Kingston on Friday.

Despite a courageous stand by Lindsay St. John's should have toppled the Olympias by a bigger score. The Peterborough youngsters outskated and outplayed their rivals at all stages, sweeping inside frequently all through the battle, and while Stephens, in the Lindsay net, played another wonderful game, he would undoubtedly been beaten oftener had the Saints' work in front of the nets matched the smoothness with which they worked into the scoring zone. It was not until they had missed a dozen beautiful opportunities in the first two periods that the winners managed to put a finish to their attack in the third session, but when they finally got the combination they ran in three goals in quick succession to get a stranglehold on the game and round.

In so far as the first two periods were scoreless the game was identical with the other two Lindsay-St. John's tussles but from the viewpoint of scoring possibilities the Saints had the lion's share of the play and all things considered the Olympias were lucky to have escaped so lightly. Their defence was cleanly beaten often enough for St. John's score to have mounted to double figures, while on the other hand the Lindsay raiders had trouble shaking off the Saints' backcheckers and in tricking the defence pair.

Despite the short notice which prevented any elaborate advertising a crowd of close to 1,000 fans, a goodly proportion of them from Lindsay, saw the Group 2 rivals settle their argument. And they were rewarded with a tidy game that contained plenty of action and excitement, especially in the last period into which all the scoring was crowded.

The Lindsay youngsters, outskated and outmanoeuvred on the big Oshawa arena, deserve credit for sticking to their guns until the final bell. Even when the Saints broke through Stephens' hitherto unbeatable service for three quick markers the Olympias did not toss in the sponge. On the contrary they threw everbody up on the firing line in a desperate effort to pull the game out of the fire and while they did not succeed in doing that they were rewarded by scoring the last goal of the night and went down fighting—a game band of youngsters who will be heard from next season.

Archie Weir was the outstanding performer for St. John's last night. The big ice surface was right to the liking of the Saints' captain, whose speedy skating and good stickhandling fooled the Lindsay defence repeatedly. Weir got two of the St. John's three goals—and he might easily have had three or four more for he was inside a half dozen times with only Stephens to beat and all but twice the goalie foiled him. Howe teamed up effectively with Weir on the defence and did his share of rushing as well while Miller played a cool, careful game in the nets to hold the Lindsay goal total down to one, the sixth game in succession in which the Saints' net guardian has been beaten only once.

Of the attacking brigade, Cuthbertson, Dallin and Hewett were perhaps particularly prominent but had little on the second forward line who held their end up every time out. The first line had the edge in attacking strength but Burke, Hall and Dunkerley made plenty of dangerous moves on their own account and backchecked to good advantage. Cuthbertson's play for the first goal with Wier on the firing end was a beauty and his poke checking in centre ice broke up many a Lindsay rush. Dallin showed a world of speed and Hewett's rushing and checking left little to be desired.

Lindsay honors go first to Stephens, who saved repeatedly with his defence fooled and was only beaten by three shots at point blank range. Forbert was not as effective as usual on the defence, but Begley played his best game of the series. Up in front Mills and McPhee again monopolized the honors. The centre man, a veritable puckhound, mussed up plenty of St. John's plays and made a few himself while McPhee, whose rush in Lindsay Saturday night made a third game necessary, did some fine stickhandling and once more came through with the only Lindsay goal. Mike Spratt, a nephew of the redoubtable Pete of that name, who was among the Lindsay delegation on the side lines, was the best of the rest.

For a few minutes after the start both teams seemed to have difficulty in adjusting themselves to the big ice surface. Then the Saints began to hit their stride. Cuthbertson and Howe combined through for a close-in play that ended with a Stephens' save. Howe was penalized for dumping Forbert, but the sides were evened again when Begley got the gate for crosschecking Weir. The latter followed with the first of his spectacular rushes in which he fooled the Lindsay defence and then swept in on top of Stephens, only to have the Lindsay goaler make a great save. Begley came close to putting Lindsay in front when he went down alone, shoved the rubber between the Saints' defence pair and jumped through himself. Miller had started out to clear and Begley had an empty net to bang at, but the Lindsay defenceman registered a clean miss. Dallin got away for a speedy raid along the boards but was dumped by Forbert, who was chased. The Saints pressed with the odd man advantage but could not cash in on their openings and the bell found the score column a blank.

The Olympias had the first real chance in the second period when Mills picked up a loose puck and had a close-in shot at Miller, who made a great save. Back came Weir with a rush that carried him around the whole Lindsay team save Stephens. The goalie flopped in time to block the shot when a goal seemed certain. On top of that he kicked out a hot drive from Dallin after Cuthbertson had given the left winger a pass to beat the defence. The Saints lost another golden opportunity soon after when Burke rounded the Lindsay net and gave Hall a perfect pass. The right winger took too much time on the play and a Lindsay backchecker smothered him. The Olympias were trying hard but could not work inside and their only shots were easy for Miller. Penalties to Hewett and Howe did no harm, so far as the Saints' cause was concerned and they continued to force the play without result, so far as goals were concerned.

St. John's found themselves in the third period. Two minutes after the start Cuthbertson pokechecked the rubber away from Forbert at the Saints' blue line and with Weir alongside, raced down, went round the Lindsay defence, pulled Stephens over to one side and slid the disc over to Weir, who tapped it into the opposite corner of the net, a play that gave Stephens not a chance in the world.

The Saints came right back with another. Hewett and Dallin broke together and when the Lindsay defence played for a pass Hewett went through alone and although Stephens stopped the first shot the right winger registered on his own rebound.

The Olympias hit back gamely and a rush by Spratt was followed by a mix up in front of the Saints' citadel during which McPhee tried to throw the rubber into the net with his hand and drew a penalty. Once again Weir dashed through the whole Lindsay crew and once more Stephens saved. He repeated the feat a minute or so later and this time lifted the rubber into the top of the net, for the Saints' third goal. It looked as if he had found the system but when he stickhandled inside again, Stephens beat him once more. Howe drew a penalty and Lindsay, tossing all hands up, battled hard to get up on even terms. The Saints were content to kill all the time they could shooting the rubber down the ice, tactics that failed to please the Lindsay rooters, but good strategy nevertheless. Finally, however, the Olympias averted a shutout when Spratt and McPhee went down together and the Cannington youth slid one into the corner of the net. Despite a penalty to Cuthbertson the Saints easily held them safe for the rest of the game.

The line up:

St. John's—Goal, Miller; defence, Weir, Howe; centre, Cuthbertson; right wing, Hewett; left wing, Dallin; alternates, Burke, Hall, Dunkerley.

Referee—W. Green, Belleville.

SAULT DEFEATS FENELON FALLS

Second Fenelon Rink Drop 11-9 Decision to Bala in North American Life Competition.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18. (Canadian Press).—Among the outstanding results in the first round of the Ryrie-Birks competition at the Toronto Bonspiel yesterday, was the defeat of the strong aggregation from Meaford skipped by William Pilligrem, finalists in the Royal York Competition last year. Bert C. Hall's Kitchener quartet provided the upset by eliminating the Meaford four 14 to 11 in a first-round game. W. Braithwaite's rink, also of Meaford, received an 18 to 2 trouncing at the hands of the H. Baxter rink of Drumbo.

McDevitt of Bala, who eliminated the H. H. Chisholm Toronto Victoria rink in the preliminary round yesterday morning, was in turn defeated by A. C. Gardiner of Sarnia in the first round by a 12 to 6 score. G. L. Harstone of Hamilton and the strong Barrie four piloted by Rev. J. Shortt, staged a brilliant battle, the former winning by a 12 to 9 margin. Paul Charlebois' Oakwood four eliminated the Cobourg entry skipped by Judge O'Connor, in a hard-fought game by a 9 to 7 score.

In the North American Life trophy Lakeview beat Meaford 10-7. Barrie defeated Toronto Royal Canadians 15-8; Owen Sound beat Newmarket 18-11; in the first round of the same competitions; Sault Ste. Marie won from Fenelon Falls 14-11 while a bala rink defeated Fenelon's second team 11-9. Nicholson's Sault squad beat Richmond Hill 10-9, while Toronto Vics beat Owen Sound 13-4.

R.M.C. Students Eliminate Petes 11-8

INTERMEDIATES BATTLE CADETS TO 3-ALL COUNT IN HARD-FOUGHT TUSSLE

Locals Force R.M.C. to Play Defensive Game Throughout Sixty Minutes of Fast Hockey.

OVER-EAGERNESS FATAL.

Hatton Scores Two Counters For Homesters—Lackie and Lebarr Good.

In a blaze of lights and to the urging cheers of over a thousand excited fans that spurred them to their task, the Petes last night at the Brock street ice palace strove valiantly to overcome that three-goal lead set up by the Royal Military College team at Kingston, and failed.

At that the Petes pass out of the O.H.A. Intermediate picture in a blaze of glory. They battled those skating Cossacks from R.M.C. to a 3-3 tie. And in doing so they presented an appreciative house of fans with the best hockey game seen locally since the triumphant days of the "Ace" Bailey-led Peterborough Seniors.

They also forced the Cadets to stage a terrific running defensive game over wide stretches of the sixty minutes, and maintained the whip hand for most of the play although they could not plug the twine sufficiently.

At no stage of the battle were the Petes out in front, but they came from behind on three occasions to knot the count, and twice within a minute of the Cadets' scoring time.

The Petes were always in the hunt, and again and again they threatened the Cadets' cage so relentlessly as to have earned more than an even-break on the score sheet. Especially was this true in the final canter, which passed without a score.

It was Goalie White in the R.M.C. nets that was their greatest obstacle. Persistent ill-luck and their own over-eagerness combined for their misfortune too, but it was the sturdy White who blocked their shots from all angles and spread-eagled himself over the goal's doormat when matters became too hot, that kept the Petes from at least reducing the Cadets' lead.

It was far from bieng a lop-sided game, though the Petes did bombard rubber at White at certain stages. R.M.C. were there all the time, and their speed, condition and team play were always prominent. Their system of backchecking broke up the Petes' combination and made them depend largely on individual effort to break through the defence.

The Petes never rested in their attempts to get goals. Ernie Legon, their mentor, was prominent by his energetic checking at mid-ice and his rushing. The defence pair, Lackie and Lebarr, loped up the ice on many a timely rush and their defence action was of the best.

Hatton was the big goal scorer, getting two of the counters and he worked hard. The others, Maudsley, Dundas, Hayden and Creighton were all effective and gave of their best. Creighton's work was greatly reduced because of a painful injury to one of his ribs gained early in the setto.

Gillespie gave a sterling performance in the nets, although he did not have nearly the work to do that White did. The Cadets were always bearing in for rebounds, which increased his job greatly.

Irvin, star man of the Cadet squad, failed to sally forth from his station on defence as he did in the Kingston game, but he was again the most effective playmaker that the Cadets had. Lane, Storms and Rainnie formed their chief attacking brigade and their pace and passing was brilliant. The whole squad backchecked the full length of the rink on every Peterborough attack.

The teams:

R.M.C.—Goal, White; defence, J. T. Carr, Irvin; centre, Rainnie; wings, Lane, Stone; alternates, Armstrong, W. P. Carr, Blanchard.

Referee—Ernie Collett, of Toronto.

Close Work At Mid-Ice.

Referee Collett tossed the teams the old rubber biscuit and they were off to a whirlwind start. Lebarr drifted down centre for a backhand shot at the Cadets' cage. Both teams were checking closely at centre ice and it was tough trying to get a real attack under flight.

Lebarr returned and the goalie just flicked the shot out of the hemp box. The Petes were pressing, but their shooting was all from outside defence. Irvin went through for a smart Cadet thrust, but the defence knocked him off balance and he couldn't get his shot away.

The close checking continued, and there were few developments. Blanchard drew a penalty, and Lebarr worked through for another long shot. Hatton and Legon whirled round the soldiers' nets, but they failed to notch a counter while the Cadets were shorthanded.

After twelve minutes of play Irvin and Lane combined on one of the sweetest plays of the setto for the first score. Quinn sifted down centre and wafted the pass to Lane, who salted it into the outside corner.

The Petes spurted, Creighton bouncing a hot one of the goalie's pads. Lebarr and Dundas combined and then Maudsley came through with a solo effort that beat the defence. Irvin came through alone, but his shot was wide.

The Petes were storming and Hatton had carried the rubber into the corner. He attempted to pass out to Legon, camped at the goal mouth, and the shot was deflected off a Cadet's skates. It crept over the goal line unhindered to make the score. R.M.C. 1, Peterborough 1.

Scurrying around the soldiers' defence the Petes were striving desperately for another counter. Legon was taking a big hand in the play, checking hard and working in close. Hayden went in for a rebound, but he was outlucked when the rubber hit the side of the cage.

Again Petes Tie It.

The Cadets gave Gillespie some close calls to open the second stanza. Again the "Sailor" sifted up centre, split the defence, but failed to get his shot off the ice. Lackie and Maudsley combined and Goalie White did a split to deflect the shot. Lackie let drive and the old rubber heel struck White on the chest.

The game hit a new fast pace with both squads making rink end rushes. After five minutes Blanchard wafted a shot from centre ice that punked in the twine behind Gillespie.

The Petes weren't long getting that back for exactly one minute later, Hayden took a shot from the right boards, and Hatton tore in fast to plug the rebound.

J. Carr and Armstrong lifted the fans from their seats when they beat the defence and crashed two shots at Gillespie. The goalie made sensational saves of both. Irvin returned but Legon nabbed the pass right on the goal's carpet.

Again the Petes took the upper hand and were tossing the rubber at White. Lebarr bored a hot one at the outside corner, but White knocked it away. The Blue and White were beating around the soldiers' goal, but luck was against them.

Rainnie and J. T. Carr combined for a beautiful dash, but Gillespie flopped to prevent the score. Legon drew a penalty and the Petes were hard pressed. With Legon still in the box the Cadets' rang up their third score when Storms gave Rainnie a pass, and the R.M.C. captain flicked the disc in. The pass looked to be at least ten feet offside, and the fans raised a united holler, but Referee Collett saw it differently and the goal stood.

Lane was benched, and the tide swept for the Petes. They eddied around White's citadel. Legon gave Lackie a pass right out front, but White flopped on the rubber. It had to happen; sooner or later the Petes must gain reward and they did. Hayden slipped the disc from the corner to Legon, and the Petes' skipper rattled the hemp. That tied the game 3-all.

Legon returned, but the goalie flopped. There was a face-off in front of the nets, but nothing happened. The Cadets were back at full strength and the teams chased the rubber for swift excursions up and down, but the goalies were unbeatable.

Lady Luck's Icy Stare.

Lady Luck failed to smile on the Petes' banner in that final canter. Unquestionably they had the major portion of the play and at one stage they had the Cadets three men short, but with Goalie White skipping from post to post with unerring skill and their own hard efforts going for nothing on wild gunning, the Petes failed to sink one.

It opened with the Petes all over their opposition. Legon was teaming with Dundas and Maudsley on the front line, Creighton being assigned to short shifts because of an injured rib gained in the melee, and this trio did everything but score. Carr drew a penalty, but Lane and Rainnie combined for a great combination attack.

The Petes bottled the Cadets up and pounded the rubber at White, but the soldiers were checking too closely to allow them to get set for shooting. Irvin drew a penalty and then the Cadets were penalized another player for having one extra man on the ice. For sixteen seconds they had three men in the box and the Petes went into a frenzy in attempting to cash in on their manpower. Over-anxiety hampered them and R.M.C. was marshalled at full strength without a score. There were plenty of close ones as the Petes spurred in with great dash.

Again close checking developed at centre. Dundas flicked the top of the nets with a sizzler and Carr drew a penalty to again give the Petes numerical superiority, but there was nothing added to the score sheet. Irvin drew a penalty and again the Petes swarmed around, and behind the Cadets' goal, but nothing came of it. Near the close Legon tore in on Dundas' rebound, but the goalie spread-eagled in front.

Quickly the seconds ticked past as the Petes' timekeeper, in a fever of anxiety, droned out the ever-shortening time. "Fifty seconds, forty-five, forty", came his dirge. And all the time the Petes fought for a score, but it was not to be and the end came.

STIRLING BLANKS MILL TOWN 2-0 TO CLIMB NEARER TOP; POINT LEAD FOR HOMESTERS

Combination Efforts on Part of Campbellford Prove Ineffective Against Marton.

MANY PENALTIES.

Ingram and Darres Sink Two Counters of Game For Visitors.

(Examiner Correspondence.)

Campbellford, February 18. — With keen ice and a packed arena Stirling fought their way to a 2-0 victory over the home team here last evening. The game, which was a Trent Valley League fixture, proved to be as fast as was anticipated. Penalties were numerous, but the play as a whole was clean.

The first period was even and suggested a stern fight. Campbellford kept the puck busy and made several combinations efforts for the Stirling's nets, but Morton played too strong a game in goal.

The second period proved more interesting, when after one minute of play Ingram netted the rubber. This spurred the Maroons to greater efforts, and for the rest of the period the game was a determined series of checks and counter-checks. Both teams played a splendid defence. Irwin in the Campbellford net saved many well-placed shots, and helped considerably to keep the score down for the mill town.

Grim Struggle.

The third period was a grim struggle for supremacy. Campbellford seemed determined to even up and pass Stirling, but the Reds proved a strong aggregation.

Bringing the puck from the blue line after five minutes of play, Davies placed it in the Campbellford net. From then on it was a fight from one goal to another until the gong sounded.

Although at times combination was good, solo work prevailed throughout the game. In the last period Stirling tried many long shots but failed to score by them.

Campbellford now registers 19 points to 18 for Stirling. The teams were:

Referee: William Jackson, of Peterborough.

First Period.

No score.

Penalties: Hardy, H. Ingram, F. Ingram, Ibey.

Second Period.

Stirling, H. Ingram, 01.

Penalties: McKay, McArthur, F. Ingram, Wallace, J. Archer.

Third Period.

Stirling, Davis—05.

Penalties: McArthur, H. Ingram, I. Archer.

Final score: Stirling 2, Campbellford 0.

Cellar Teams Will Tangle Again To-night

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18 (C.P.) —The nip and tuck struggle for second place in the International Hockey League standing will be resumed to-night when the third place Buffalo Bisons meet the cellar occupants, Toronto Millionaires in the latter team's rink. The Bisons are one point behind London, holders of second place and as the Panthers draw a well-earned rest, the Bisons can move up a notch by winning.

Toronto has won but five games this season by playing good hockey at times, and may provide keen opposition for the speedy Buffalonians. A victory will mean nothing to Toronto, however, as they are firmly entrenched in last place.

No other games are scheduled.

rison, and Charlton vs. Spence will be played on Saturday night.

SENTIMENTAL APPEAL LACKING IN SECOND ANNUAL BATTLE AT MIAMI TO BE STAGED FEB. 27

ADVANCE SEAT SALE AMOUNTS TO $175,000.

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 18.—(C.P.)—It's the same old moon, the same old palms and the same arena, with improvements and a new location, but it is a different show, with new words and music, for the second annual battle of Miami.

A good deal of the melodrama of 1929 is missing. Tex Rickard is just a memory now and so are most of his time-honored methods. No individual figure is cutting the glamorous figure that Jack Dempsey did in putting over last year's winter heavyweight carnival. In short, the fantasy and novelty that preceded the Sharkey-Stribling fight is completely absent.

It is strictly a fight show and a business proposition this winter minus sentimental appeal. It is a bigger show, from the standpoint of actual tonnage displacement of the participants, exclusive of the battle royal that opened the 1929 festival.

Whether it is a better show, from a competitive angle, remains to be determined by actual events in the ring. The promotion board of directors, headed by Farnk J. Bruen and William F. Carey, thinks it will be, based on the idea that if Jack Sharkey and Phil Scott do not furnish any excitement in the main bout, Johny Risko and Victorio Campolo, the semi-final combatants will.

Financially, the venture is already 'off the nut," the experts say, translation of which is that sufficient "gate" already is in hand to assure a profit. The advance sale was around $175,000 to-day, not quite up to last year's mark with a fortnight to go before the ring fest Feb. 27, but enough to warrant the prediction that the receipts will reach $350,000. Last winter, the total was slightly in excess of $400,000.

The estimate is that the show will cost $150,000 to stage but this depends on the aggregate, inasmuch as Sharkey and Scott both are working on a percentage basis.

Stadium Reconstructed.

The 'Madison Square Garden stadium" located on the outskirts of Miami, has been reconstructed in the process of transplanting from Miami beach, with an increase in the seating capacity from 30,000 to 50,000.

As a concession to less bulging bank rolls, there will be 5,000 more $5 seats than there were a year ago in Flamingo park, but the choice tickets bear that familiar $27.50 stamp. So far there has not been the slightest indication of any speculating.

Sharkey easily dominates the preliminary scenery, without any such competition as he had from the Stribling family circus last year. None of the ancient artifices of the ballyhoo are needed to reveal that the Boston sailor is in fine fighting condition, nor has anything happened so far to change the prediction of experts that he will enter the ring with a big advantage in fighting equipment, speed and punch, over the British champion, Lanky Phil Scott.

SUGGESTION APPROVED AT ANNUAL MEETING OF FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION

Much Discussion Arises Over Lengthening of Partridge Shooting Time Limit.

MORE INSPECTORS NEEDED.

Members Urge Necessity of Aggressive Membership Campaign For Local Association.

James Gravestock, noted locally as a devotee of the rod, was last night elected to the presidency of the Peterborough Fish and Game Association for 1930 at the annual meeting held in the Empress Hotel. He succeeds Claude H. Rogers. Supporting him an executive was appointed, consisting of Alexander Weddell, first vice-president; S. Black, second vice-president; and Chris Graham, secretary-treasurer.

By acclamation, E. A. Peck, M.P., was appointed honorary president. The new executive body chosen consists of Fred L. Roy, L. A. Turner, B. W. Harvey, C. H. Rogers, J. Jubv, A. L. Killaly, F. Bradburn, H. Lacheur, Frank Barrett, and Herb. S. Routley.

Commenting on the activities of the past year, the retiring president reported that he, with Mr. Roy and Mr. Graham, approached the Department in Toronto in an attempt to have the opening date of the fishing season for bass and maskinonge set once more at June 15 instead of July 1. The Department, however, stood behind the contention that spawning is not completed until July 1, and that it would be detrimental to fishing conditions to open the season earlier, although it was admitted that the completion of spawning is at an earlier date in some waters.

Will Co-operate.

Mr. Rogers said that the Hon. Charles McCrae, Minister of Game and Fisheries, was anxious to do anything possible to co-operate with the Peterborough association, and would gladly consider suggestions. He reminded the meeting of the Government's action in regard to fishing through the ice for pickerel, to which they put an effective stop.

The report of Chris Graham, 1929 secretary-treasurer, indicated that there was a falling off of five members in the association roll over the year 1928. Lamenting this fact, he claimed that there are more than one thousand anglers and sportsmen in the city whose best interests are served by the association.

It was decided to look into the matter of acquiring gun licences in the County of Peterborough that would cover all types of guns and afford some check on promiscuous shooting. This will probably be passed to legislative authorities as a suggestion.

Few Partridge.

Much discussion was aroused over the question of whether the privilege of shooting partridge should be extended to two days in the fall of each year. It was claimed that partridge have now become plentiful enough to allow such a move, but the general opinion was that the number of partridge has not increased enough since the original restrictions were set on the shooting to warrant their removal.

A suggestion by A. L. Killaly that the reward of $25.00 offered by the association last year for information against poachers and other breakers of the fish and game laws out of season be repeated and extended to cover unlawful taking of any protected game and fish whether in season or out was accepted.

To Stock Otonabee.

After considerable talk the meeting passed a suggestion by the president, seconded by Sid Black, to the effect that aid be sought from the Government in stocking the waters on the Otonabee between Peterborough and Lakefield with pickerel this year.

It was further decided to send a resolution to the Department to the effect that a size limit be set on maskinonge taken from the waters of Ontario. At present there is no minimum limit to the size of this fish that can be kept.

Fred Roy expressed the opinion that the Peterborough association's demands for more inspectors in the district be pushed during the year in an endeavor to get enough men the year round to properly cover the district. He stated that the Hon. McCrae is willing to establish fish and game sanctuaries in the district as fast as it is practicable.

Stressing the importance of activity in fish and game matters in the district, he said: "Every man, woman, and child in the county is vitally interested in the matter of our game and fisheries." He pointed out that thousands of dollars are attracted to the district through tourist trade in the summer by the fish and game, and that the continual increase of this revenue that has been evidenced in the past five years will cease if the game and fishery factor is allowed to depreciate. He stated that the main interest attracted by the Trent Waterway display at the New York Motor Boat Show this year was directed mainly at the game and fishery angle.

He urged also an aggressive membership campaign for the local association.

Before the meeting was adourned the resolution already submitted to the Government by the association to the effect that the matters of commercial fisheries and game fisheries be put under the control of separate authorities in the Department was endorsed.

RACE TIGHTENS IN O.H.A. RACE

R. M. C. Will Meet Walkerton in Sudden Death Game.

VICTORY FOR FALLS.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18 (C.P.) — Teams in all three series of the Ontario Hockey Association are now in the midst of the annual playdowns. Chatham and Kitchener were eliminated from the Senior series last night, the former failing to match the Woodstock sextete's all-round cleverness and passed out of the picture, six goals to one, on the round. Kitchener played two fine games against Hamilton Tigers, before going down in the third game, four goals to nothing, and on the round, six to two.

The Tigers will now clash with Port Colborne's great team in the next round. The game will be played at the Lake port, Feb. 19.

R.M.C. Meets Walkerton

In the intermediate series Paris advanced at the expense of Acton, three goals to two. The teams had previously played two games, each winning a contest by three two two. Walkerton's well - balanced aggregation trounced Watford, seven to nothing and nine to one on the round, and will now meet Royal Military College, Kingston, in a "sudden-death" match at Toronto, Feb. 19. The Cadets earned the right to meet the Western Ontario team by defeating Peterborough 11 to 8 on the round. Jordan staged a great rally in the last period of their game with Simcoe to win the round 10 to 3. Coldwater gained a one-goal lead over Bradford by defeating the latter team, two to one. The second game will be played at Bradford Feb. 19. Toronto Customs and Brokers will meet Paris in a "sudden-death" game at the Western Ontario city also on Feb. 19, the winner advancing into the third round.

Niagara Falls, pre-season favorites to win the Junior crown, met with little opposition in their series with Port Dalhousie and won the round, 22 goals to 3. Oshawa gained a two goal lead over Oakville, winning in the latter frame, four to two. The return game will be at Oshawa, Feb. 19. Peterborough St. John's also won on the round with Lindsay, 5 to 3, the score last night being three to one.

Short Left Hook Followed By Right Cross Proves Undoing of "Man Mountain" Erickson

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 18.—(Canadian Press).—Primo Carnera, the biggest boxer of them all, crawled out of his sixth United States boxing ring here last night with another two-round knockout victory dangling from his belt.

Behind him, wondering what it was all about, he left John O. "Man Mountain" Erickson, big Chicago Swede, a victim after one minute and 45 seconds of the second round of what was scheduled as a ten-round bout, had elapsed.

The Chicago Swede seemed willing to mix things, and a stinging right that landed on Carnera's jaw, followed by a short jab to the stomach, aroused Primo's ire.

He tore in, tumbling the big Chicagoan twice in rapid succession before the final count was tolled.

Erickson fell victim to a short left hook, followed by a right cross that was ticketed with the ten count when Primo started in. Just prior to this Carnera had sent the Big Swede sprawling across the ropes for counts of eight and nine.

TWO GROUP LEADERS TANGLE TO-NIGHT IN NATIONAL LOOP TILT

Bruins Have Won Two and Maroons One of This Year's Clashes.

RACE TIGHTENS.

Canadiens and New York Rangers Also in For Tough Assignments.

(By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 18. — Fans who have begun to figure what will happen in the playoffs for the National League hockey title and the Stanley Cup are interested in the game to-night in which Boston meets the Montreal Maroons. The Maroons are leading candidates for the top of the Canadian section, while Boston has clinched first place in the American group.

The Maroons have a five point lead over Les Canadiens of Montreal and ten more games to play. The Flying Frenchmen have 11 in which to overtake them. This margin looks pretty safe, and if it is, the Maroons and Boston will clash in the opening series of the playoffs.

Fourth of Season

To-night's game is the fourth of the season after the Bruins have won two and Montreal one of the previous clashes. Unless Boston starts coasting after clinching its first place it should be as keen a struggle as their expected playoff games.

The second place teams of the two divisions, the Canadiens and the New York Rangers, also tackle tough opposition to-night in clubs of lower ranking. Canadiens play away from home against the Detroit Cougars for the final game of their year's series. They have won two of the contests but were shut out 4 to 0 in the third. The Rangers entertain Toronto after having lost two early season games to the Maple Leafs by one-goal margins.

On the basis of the standings, the second place teams should win and they have good reasons for taking the games. The Rangers still are but two points ahead of the Chicago Blackhawks after having played 34 games to Chicago's 32. In addition to their stern chase after the Maroons, Les Canadiens are but three points ahead of the Ottawa Senators.

Although Ottawa was the victim of one of Pittsburgh's five victories this season, the strong Senator squad should have little trouble tonight in making it three out of four for the series and in cutting the Canadian lead to a single point should the Flying Frenchmen lose to Detroit.

WILL COACH DON CLUB

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18 (C.P.).—Harry Arlett, youthful English rowing authority, who prepared Jack Guest, local oarsmen, for his races in the Diamond Sculls last year, arrived here yesterday to commence his duties as coach of the Don Rowing Club.

Joe Cattarinich of Montreal, who each year handles nearly $75,000,000 in race-track wagers, through a perfected calculating system that enables a dozen men to check each other, after which he himself checks all twelve. In addition to racing, Cattarinich is a part owner of the Canadiens N. H. L. hockey team, as well as being known as the "Tex Rickard" of Montreal. Although he rarely appears in the public prints, he is known as the controlling force of the boxing game in the Canadian metropolis. He introduced the pari-mutuel betting machines in Chicago, New Orleans, Tampa, and Cleveland, and controls several tracks in Montreal.

FRANK BOUCHER TOPS N.H.L. POINT SCORERS

Most Goals, Thirty-three, Tallied by "Dit" Clapper of Boston.

MONTREAL, Feb. 18.—Players of the teams which are leading the two sections of the National Hockey League, continue to wage a close and interesting struggle for scoring and point honors. The weekly statistics, issued last night from the office of President Frank Calder, and including the games of Sunday night, reveal that Boston and Montreal Maroons lead in the actual scoring of goals, while players of contending clubs figure largely in the fight for points.

KINGSTON TEAM MEET ST. JOHN'S HERE TO-MORROW

Saints Will Tackle Eastern Group Winners in Second Round.

VISITORS CLEVER.

Reports From Kingston Say Limestone City Youngsters Have Fast Team.

The St. John's team, the only Peterborough entry left in the O.H.A. race will hook up with the fast Kingston Juniors at Brock Street Rink tomorrow night in a Junior O.H.A. second round game that should be a thriller. The return fixture is scheduled for Kingston on Friday night.

Reports from the East say that the Kingston youngsters, who won their own section and then eliminated Trenton in the group play-offs, are a smart and fast squad, who will take a lot of beating. Led by Matthewson, their centre ice star and chief play-maker, the Limestone City kids play clever hockey going both ways and the Saints will have to step on the gas of they expect to take the decision.

The Lindsay series has put St. John's on edge for the second round battles, however. The long lay-off before the games with Lindsay had let the Saints slip back some, but they are going well again now and are hopeful of overcoming the Kingston opposition and winning their way into the third round of the O.H.A. competitions.

They are the only local team in the running and should have the whole-hearted support of the fans in their remaining games. They have a long and expensive trip to Kingston to face this week and in view of that fact and their good showing to date should have a real crowd to cheer them on tomorrow.

Ernie Collett of Toronto will referee to-morrow's game, which will get away at 8.30 o'clock.

The reserved seat plan is at Bond's Drugs Store and seats will be in great demand.

COBOURG RINK IN THIRD ROUND

39 IN N. A. L. CUP.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 18. (C.P.)—Staging six draws yesterday the committee in charge of the third annual Toronto bonspiel got away to a good start. This morning there were 282 games decided, sixteen of them being by defaults. As a result fifteen rinks have reached the 32's in the Ryrie-Birks trophy, the first of the two open competitions, and 18 in the North American Life, the other open event. Only 39 rinks remain in the latter event and although there will be only three draws to-day, owing to the annual banquet this evening the hard part of the event is behind.

There were some upsets yesterday but these were to be expected. There were four extra end games reported.

Among the 18 rinks that have reached the third round in the North American Life are F. Wilson of London, J. Conleyn, St. Thomas; Judge L. V. O'Connor, Cobourg; Emmett Smith of Haileybury, and T. J. Godfrey of Sault Ste. Marie and 8 local rinks including Chisholm of the Victorias who won the Ryrie-Birks and Royal York trophies last year.

Nicolson of the Sault is the first rink to reach the 32's in both competitions and among those who have progressed as far in the Ryrie Birks are D. Walker of Fort William; R. D. Emelie, S. Thomas; F. R. Johnston, Guelph; F. Carew, Lindsay; and Coss Hanstone of Hamilton.

Dr. McTavish of Winnipeg lost to Charlie Snow of the local Lakeviews in the second round of the Ryrie-Birks but meets Bob Falconer of High Park in the second round of the North American Life to-day.

CURLING

Schedule games played last evening on Charlotte Street Curling Rink resulted as follows:

J. Wiley Skip	11	J. W. Maynoord Skip	7
J. H. Connel Skip	9	W. G. Morrow Skip	18
A. Archibald Skip	6	D. Davidson Skip	14

HOCKEY.

The Midgets of the Church Hockey again drew a draw when all Saints and Trinity played to a 2-2 score.

These teams will meet again on Monday, Feb. 24th, on all Saints' rink from 6 to 7 and play to a finish. The Petes will take charge of the game.

Two sections of the Juvenile finals in the Church hockey league were played on All Saints' rink last night, when Park street earned the right to meet All Saints in a sudden death game to be played on the Brock street rink, on Thursday night, Feb. 21, from 6 to 7.

Managers and teams are requested to note the hour and place of this game.

The Junior Section of Last night's game between George street and All Saints' ended with a score of 2 to 1, for George street. The deciding game will be held in Brock street rink, Friday, February 21, from 6 to 7. Murray Hartley will act as referee. Managers and teams are requested to note the hour and date.

WRESTLER INJURED

SEATTLE, Washn., Feb. 18 (C.P.)—Injured in his wrestling bout here last night with Ed. "Stranger" Lewis, former world's champion, Charley Hansen, Seattle, was taken to a hospital. He was in a serious condition, doctors said, from convulsions. Lewis won the match.

George Simpson, the U.S. spring flash who is credited with covering the century in the fastest time on record 9 2-5 seconds with starting blocks) will attempt a new Canadian record and try to steal the sensational thunder that was set up in Toronto by Percy Williams at the first Canadian Indoor Championships. For business reasons, Williams name will not be found with the galaxy of stars at this year's meet. Many still believe that Williams can take any of the world's sprinters on and show his heels to them. This year's meet will no doubt show the greatest competitive races yet witnessed in the Queen City for it is rumored that the best that can be obtained in this continent will toe the mark on the 20th of this month. Jack Elder is also expected to oppose Simpson and along with him Johnny Fitzpatrick Canada's fast stepping Hamilton Olympic Club member. A few figures show that the boys will have trouble with Simpson: 60 yards, 6 2-5 seconds; 75 yards, 7 3-5 seconds; 100 yards, 9 2-5 seconds; 220 yards, 20 3-5 seconds, and in twelve starts at the century distance has been credited with being clocked with times better than ten seconds while at the furlong distance he bettered the twenty-one second mark.

TALKING PICTURES CELEBRATED THEIR 17TH BIRTHDAY YESTERDAY

OFF MARKET TILL 1925.

(By Hubbard Keavy, Associated Feature Service Writer.)

There was no indication that an entertainment novelty introduced to the public in New York on Monday afternoon, Feb. 17, 1913, was the forerunner of revolutionary change in the motion picture that has caused Hollywood to open its mouth and the rest of the world to open its ears and eyes.

Invented By Edison.

Seventeen years ago combined sight and sound was projected by means of advance called the kinetophone, perfected by Thomas A. Edison It was more than a device—it was two devices, the motion picture projector and the phonograph. A belt ran from the motor of the projection machine to the phonograph back of the screen, operating them together.

For a short time it amused audiences in New York and elsewhere, but it was looked upon as an oddity and soon removed from the market.

Little was heard of the talking pictures after the demise of the kinetophone, known also was the camera-phone, until about 1925, when it became known that a motion picture company had acquired the rights of a newly-projected sound recording and reproducing system. In 1926 the first of the new type of talking pictures as shown publicly.

For the pioneer talking picture of 1913 a phonograph record was first made of the actor's voice. Then as the record was played the actor sang or talked again, this time for the camera. When the action was in fairly good synchronization with the record the talkie was completed.

Get Out of Alignment Easily.

It was easy for the record and film to get out of alignment in the showing and the result was farcical. Even present-day talkies are not immune and the effect is just as ludicrous.

Talking pictures date back even further than 1913, but they were of a different variety. Another camera-phone, later called the actophone, traceable to the Edison experiments, had been perfected by 1905.

The 1905 talkie did not project its pictures on a screen, but ran them in a peep-show afair which accommodated only one customer at a time. As the flickering pictures ran before his eyes, the patron got an ear full of the accompanying sound through two small tubes.

Of all the nations in Europe, the French have the least children and the Irish the most.

BIBLE SOCIETY WORK OUTLINED BY SECRETARY

130 Local Canvassers Attend Banquet in Murray Street Sunday School Room.

IN WORK 125 YEARS.

City's Churches Are Well Represented at Gathering—Rev. Pinnock Speaks.

Inspiring and encouraging was the address delivered by Rev. S. G. Pinnock, of Toronto, Field Secretary of the Upper Canada Bible Society, to the local women canvassers of the Bible Society, last evening.

Arrangements had been made to hold the banquet at the Y.M.C.A., but so large was the gathering—120 people in all—that it was found necessary to use Murray Street Baptist Church Sunday School Room.

A. S. Zavitz, president of the Peterborough branch, occupied the chair, and expressed his pleasure at seeing such a splendid gathering. He gave the assembled canvassers a few pointers, in order that they may be equipped to answer any questions with which they may meet, when on their canvass of the city during the last two weeks of February.

One fact he pointed out that would especially appeal to Canadians was that special agents of the society meet all immigrants and give or offer them a portion of the Scriptures in their own language.

Mr. Zavitz thought the gathering was a very representative one, and to prove his contention he called the roll, which disclosed representatives from the following churches: Anglican, St. John's, All Saints', St. George's; Baptist, Murray Street, Park Street; Bethany Tabernacle; Gospel Hall; Presbyterian, St. Paul's; Salvation Army; United Church, George Street, Knox, Mark Street, St. James', St. Andrew's, and Trinity.

Addressing his audience as "honored women," which term he thought was most applicable, Rev. S. G. Pinnock said: "This is the most representative group of friends interested in the work I have met. On March 28, a band of women will gather in a home in Toronto to listen to an address by Lady Willingdon concerning the work of the society in England. The gist of her message will be that the women of England are the greatest friends and most zealous workers for the Bible Society, but," added the speaker, "she would not need to tell you women that."

He said he wished his message to be not only for their information, but for their inspiration to go forth with courage and hope and feel the work in which they were engaged was worthwhile.

125 Years Old.

"Over nineteen hundred years ago the Christian Church was born of prayer; one hundred and twenty-five years ago the Bible Society was likewise born of prayer. The speaker said he liked to consider those two great thoughts.

He continued to speak of the close friendship existing between the Translation Society and the Bible Society. When a missionary goes to an unconverted tribe, it takes that man or woman five years to learn the language and translate but one Gospel, which is at the best a very incomplete translation. When a missionary has done this much the Bible Society comes along and says: We are ready to commence printing that work for you, free of all charge.

The greater the missionary society the greater its obligations to the Bible Society. The Church of England Missionary Society is the greatest in number of missionaries and converts and therefore the greatest debtor to the Bible Society.

Why Has Work Increased?

"I have been asking myself the question," said Mr. Pinnock, "why has the Bible Society been steadily continuing and increasing the work in the past 125 years? You may think there is no need for such a society when the missionaries are carrying on so well, but we have to remember that the Bible is not the only sacred literature. There are works equally sacred in China, India and Arabia. The people of these countries revere their sacred literature as we do the Bible. Why should we of the white race make the Bible appear more important than any of these other books? Because there is no Gospel contained in them as expressed in the Gloria in Excelsis. Because of the Bible's great message of hope and salvation it has been readily received in the uttermost ends of the earth.

You may consider Buddha, Confucius or Mohammed but nothing in their teachings will compare with Christ's Sermon on the Mount, in their teachings which speaks of salvation or of a Saviour.

Mr. Pinnock went on to say that Gandhi has received into his mind the idea of sacrificial suffering from the Bible, and when the people of India are suffering he will punish himself and fast. There is no name but the name of Jesus by which men can be saved, and for this reason the Bible Society has been sending out the Word for so many years.

56 Bible Houses

Ten new languages were dealt with last year, and twenty-five years ago there was only one Bible House in London. To-day there are 56 Bible Houses scattered throughout the world, including one in Jerusalem, Abyssinia and Lagos. Every Bible house stands like a lighthouse on a dark and rugged shore shedding beams of light on people who live in darkness and in the shadow of death.

The speaker went on to relate some interesting experiences he had been through in foreign fields, and pictured the Bible House as a place of refuge, where a man, whatever his station in life, could always be assured of Christian charity and helpful sympathy. "I ask you," he continued, "is that the kind of service a Bible House should render throughout the world? Is it not in accord with the teachings of Christ. He did not ask is a person worthy, but is that person in need.

A statement made by the speaker to the effect that in Nigeria 19 million natives composed of 230 tribes speaking as many languages and that only thirty-six translations of the Gospel have so far been made in this territory, made one realize the enormous task which confronts the Bible Society and the wonderful work which they have set out to accomplish. The information was added that there are over 700 languages to master and translate in Africa alone, before the Scriptures are fulfilled in which they say, "The everlasting Gospel shall be preached in all the world."

Peterborough has given generous support to this wonderful cause in the past; last year they exceeded all previous marks with the sum of $1,300. "Can you see the importance of your work?" asked the speaker.

He related numerous interesting and humorous incidents of the work amongst the natives in Africa, and it was quite a revelation to know that one dusky native king had a son who was studying at Cambridge University and who intended to take a law course.

Mr. Zavitz thanked the speaker for his address on behalf of the gathering, after which E. H. Roper, secretary-treasurer, also voiced a few words of appreciation and afterwards spoke to the canvassers concerning the arrangements which have been made for covering the city in a systematic manner. He thought the interest in the campaign was steadily growing, saying that when the collections were taken up in the churches for this cause the amounts used to be around $500 to $600, but since they had commenced an annual canvass the amount had averaged $1,000 each year in the last three years.

CANADIAN AIRLINES MAP WITH PROPOSED ROUTES

The map reproduced here shows existing Canadian air routes throughout the Dominion, and also a new air mail service route, being planned by the post-office department, out of Winnipeg, is indicated. Although the map does not show the route from Sudbury to Toronto, mail service planes from Winnipeg will follow this path. The new route will cut two hours off service between Toronto and Winnipeg and Edmonton. The new air route is planned for both east and west of Winnipeg. The mail leaves Winnipeg for Sudbury, the junction point for service to Toronto, Pembroke and Montreal. This service will have first made connection with Calgary and Edmonton mails.

Representatives to the Local Council of Women, Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Wand; Representatives to the Home and School Council, Mrs. Craig and Miss F. Pammett.

An interesting program arranged by Trevor Miller, was presented at the meeting, and included a song by the girls of the Junior Fourth room; a dialogue, entled "The Bargain Hunter," a duet by Donald and Gerald Perks; a solo by W. Binks, and a dialogue entitled "Taking the Census."

At the close of the business session refreshments and a social half hour were enjoyed. The executive met later to discuss plans for raising funds. They decided to hold a card party in the Community Hall during the last week in February, and a St. Patrick's tea in March at the home of Mrs. H. Morgan.

Jabs and Jottings as Picked Up by an Examiner Reporter

CELLAR FIRE.
The Peterborough Fire Department received a call yesterday afternoon to a small fire which had broken out in the cellar of a dwelling-house at 281 Romaine Street, and at 7.05 p.m. dealt with a chimney fire at 201 King Street. In the first case chemical extinguishers were used, but in the latter case nothing was used.

AUTOS RUB.
Pedestrians on Main Street about noon to-day got the long and the short of it. A small auto driven by a small man figured in a collision with a large bus driven by a large man. Neither the cars nor the men in the fracas were injured severely, but the drivers dismounted, carried out an argument that provided no little bit of entertainment for numerous spectators before they gave up to drive off in their chariots in disgust.

CELEBRATES 65TH BIRTHDAY
Friends of Ed. E. Elliott, county clerk and treasurer, did not forget his sixty-fifth birthday yesterday, Monday, Feb. 17. Mr. Elliott is going strong toward the patriarchal three score years and ten, still exceeds the two hundred pound mark, and has lost none of his deep interest in the welfare of Peterborough county.

SECOND VICTIM DIES.

Three Year Old Port Hope Boy Succumbs to Burns Received in Last Week's Fire.

PORT HOPE, Ont., Feb. 18 (C.P.)—Death to-day claimed the second victim of the Walsh fire last Tuesday, when John A. Walsh, aged three years, died in hospital from burns received when his father's home was destroyed, and from which his younger brother died last Thursday. A still younger child is still confined to hospital here.

150 Calls Answered In Space of Two Hours

That the interest in the Intermediate O.H.A. play-off between R.M.C. and Peterborough, and the Juniors' battle at Oshawa, was at fever heat, was evident from the numerous telephone enquiries which were received at The Examiner office last evening.

One hundred and fifty telephone calls were answered between the hours of nine o'clock and eleven-thirty p.m., an average of one call per minute, and the news that St. John's had beaten their opponents to the tune of 3-1 was received with evident delight.

It is quite an interesting study to sit at a telephone instrument and attempt to visualize the person at the other end of the line, and it is not very difficult to judge the temperament of that person on such an occasion. Deep bass voices, which asked in terse and concise manner: "What is the score at Brock street?" or "What is the score at Oshawa?" indicated that one was possibly conversing with a business executive, whilst on hearing an uncertain hesitating query prefaced with an enquiry as to whether that is The Examiner office, and other time-wasting preliminaries, one could be fairly certain that the enquirer was anything but a business man or woman.

One person on being told that the score of the Brock street rink game was 3-3, repeated the figures in a somewhat puzzled manner, adding "Is that for Kingston?"

Another type is the person that metaphorically shrew his hat up in the air on being told that the Pete Juniors had triumphed. "Oh, that's fine!" was the exclamation, with many variations, which came over the phone in delighted accents.

The Examiner bulletin board displayed the result immediately after the conclusion of both games, and as the immense crowd swelled out of the Brock street rink, and trickled past the office, cheers of delight, apparently at the Oshawa results, rent the air, and were incidentally quite a tribute to The Examiner's speedy service, which it endeavors to give its readers at all times.

UNDERWRITERS PLAN CONGRESS

IN PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Life underwriters from many towns and cities of Eastern Ontario will gather at Peterborough on Friday for a one-day education congress, the first of a series of such meetings to be sponsored by the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada and the local Life Underwriters' Association this year. It will take place in the Public Library.

Frank C. Hoy, C.L.U., Canada Life Assurance Company, Toronto, and G. A. German, C.L.U., Toronto, city manager Crown Life Insurance Company, will be the feature speakers of the day. Basing their talks on long experience and deep study in the business, they will deliver instructive messages for every life underwriter.

John I. Allen, district superintendent of the Prudential Insurance Company, and F. L. Ray, manager of the local branch of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company will each deliver an address of interest to men in the industrial field.

The congress will be opened at 9.15 o'clock by Mayor Roland Denne after registration. In the morning and afternoon two addresses each will be given by Mr. Hoy and Mr. German.

An invitation has been extended to the congress by the Kiwanis Club to dine with them at noon at the Empress Hotel. Mr. Hoy will address the luncheon.

D. M. Bissell, president of the Peterborough Underwriters' Association, will preside at the congress. George Gibbons of the Mutual Life, assisted by George Liddle, is in charge of the entertainment.

CHIEF GIMBLETT RECOMMENDS SUB FIRE HALL IN SOUTH END

2,887 INSPECTIONS.

"During the past year the department responded to 375 alarms, this being an increase of nine alarms and eight fires over the previous year" reports Fire Chief G. Gimblett in his eighth annual report to the City Council concerning the operations of his department. Of these alarms forty-six fires of more or less serious nature were responsible for a loss of $74,639.53. Three of these fires were responsible for a loss of $55,072.66 leaving a loss for the other 43 fires of $19,616.92.

There were nine calls for the Pulmotor during 1929 whilst the inspections for the year totalled 2887.

"The conduct of the members of the department has been excellent during the year with the following exceptions, late 17, absent from alarms 19, neglect of duty 22, under the influenceof liquor 2, insubordination 1."

RECOMMENDATIONS

Chief Gimblett continues, "I would again recommend for your consideration a Bungalow Fire Hall in the south section of the city, as since the last report two more factories have located in that section of the city. That 1000 feet of 2 1-2 inch hose be purchased to keep the supply up to standard and replace hose worn out and discarded. That four more alarm boxes be added to the system also a three-way siamese connection and a foam generator machine for serious oil fires. Twenty tarpaulins, also a brass sliding pole for north apparatus floor. That the council consider ways and means of establishing a pension fund similar to that in other cities.

He also recommends that the question of a proper heating plant for the Fire Hall be taken up with the City Trust as there are parts of the building that are not properly heated. This matter was recommended last year.

Another suggestion is that a new car be purchased and the present one turned in as part payment, as it has been in service five years and now would be a good time to realize a good price on it.

The chief recommends that six extra men be appointed stating that at times he has only seven men on duty.

In continuing his report he says: "I desire to thank His Worship the Mayor the City Council, chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee for their co-operation and support in the discharge of my duties as Chief Officer of the Fire Department, also to the City Clerk and other City officials, the police department and the press for the impartial manner in which they have reported the workings of the department. I also wish to thank the members of the Department for their co-operation and loyalty during the past year.

During the year 1929 the department used 12,550 feet of 2 1-2 inch hose, 3950 feet of 3-4" chemical hose, 100 feet of 1 1-2 inch hose, 1194 gallons chemical, 42 gallons foam, 3 gallons carbon tetrachloride, 1450 feet ladder and 52 tarpaulin.

Apparatus.

Six cylinder Lafrance triple pumper, 1000 U. S. gallons 1927.

Six cylinder Lafrance double bank ladder truck, 1927.

Six cylinder McLaughlin roadster, 1925.

Six Lafrance combination chemical 1918.

Four cylinder Reo combination chemical 1918.

Four cylinder Reo combination chemical, 1925.

Hose

There is 10,850 feet 2 1-2 inch hose in the department, 6150 first class, 4200 feet second class, and 1000 feet inferior used by Board of Works. 850 feet 3-4 inch chemical hose, 150 feet 1 1-2 inch hose; 500 feet 2 1-2 inch hose was discarded as unfit for further use.

JOHN DONALD McISAAC

John Donald, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John McIsaac of 111 Gladstone street, who passed away early this morning, at the age of 6 months and 16 days, will be buried at St. Peter's cemetery on Wednesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

MRS. MARY TODD.

The death occurred on Sunday of Mrs. Mary Todd, in her 79th year, at 470 Park Street.

Mrs. Todd was a native of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, but had lived in this city for the past ten years. Her husband predeceased her 32 years ago, and she leaves to mourn her loss two sons, William of Saskatoon and David of this city, also one daughter, Mrs. Alexander Kidd, of Belleville.

She was a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and her late pastor, Rev. William Allan, will conduct the funeral services which will be held on Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the family residence, with interment at Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. H. ALLEN.

The death occurred on Monday of Mrs. H. Allen, beloved wife of Herbert Allen, 99 Morrow Street, after a brief illness, in her 65th year. She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband, eight sons, Albert, William, Fred, Frank, Darrel, and Charles of this city, and Robert of Buffalo, also three daughters, Mrs. D. Baker of Detroit, Mrs. Wilson of this city, and Victoria at home.

The funeral will be held from the family residence on Wednesday at 2 p.m. to Little Lake Cemetery.

MRS. ALICE DAVIDSON HALL.

Mrs. Alice (Davidson) Hall, widow of the late William Hall of Cambray, passed away this morning, after a short illness, at the advanced age of 95 years and five months. Her husband predeceased her about nine years ago. She leaves to mourn her loss five sons and two daughters, Adam Hall and Thomas H. Hall, of Francis, Sask., R. R. Hall, K.C., of Peterborough, William J. Hall and Andrew Hall of Cambray, Mrs. Alex. Carley, of Fenelon Falls, and Mrs. George Bagshaw of Cambray.

The late Mrs. Hall was born in the County of Down, Ireland, and came to Canada in 1851, by a sailing vessel and by boat up the St. Lawrence River and Lake Ontario, to Cobourg, where she came overland to Rice Lake, and up the Otonabee River, as that was the ordinary means of transportation at that time. Some of her brothers and sisters had previously located in Peterborough County.

Mrs. Hall was blest with a long life and excellent health, which she inherited from her father, who lived to the advanced age of 80, and her grandfather, who lived to be 103.

Funeral announcement later.

DIED

ALLEN.—On Monday, Feb. 17, at Nicholls Hospital, Mrs. H. Allen. Funeral Wednesday, Feb. 19th, from her late residence, 99 Morrow Street, at 2.30 p.m. Interment in Little Lake Cemetery.

McISAAC.—At St. Joseph's Hospital, on Tuesday, February 18, 1930, John Donald McIsaac, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McIsaac. Age six months.

BORLAND.—Mrs. Elizabeth Borland died this morning at 11.30, at her home, 25 Victoria avenue, in her 90th year. Funeral announcement later.

countries in every quarter of the globe.

Under religion there were an equal number who claimed membership in the Anglican Church and adherence to the Roman Catholic faith, there being 142 for each. The United Church was represented by 139, the Presbyterian by 70, and the Baptist by 25. Four said they had no religion and six were Hebrews.

Young Men Lead.

According to age, the greatest number of offenders, 197, were between the ages of 21 and 30 years. Between 16 and 20 there were 109, and between 31 and 40, 106. Under 16 years of age there were 11, and over 61 there were 29.

Only two of the 553 charged said they could not read and write. Only thirty-one were females, of which nineteen were single. There were 305 married men charged. One hundred and twenty-four were non-residents of the city.

The amount collected in fines totalled $3,694.83, which was $1,513.00 more than in 1928.

Peterborough lost during the year property valued at $2,341.33, but of this all but $696.50 was recovered. The value of the property stated to be stolen was $21,299.57; and of this all but $1,446.17 was recoverd.

The report follows:

Traffic.—During the year there were 2 fatal accidents and 239 non-fatal, all of which are to be deplored, but considering the number of motor vehicles and the few prosecutions in Police Court, this city must be blessed with fairly careful drivers.

Thanks to the local press for their co-operation with the police, also the removal of snow from the streets, no doubt prevented many accidents. Lastly, the electric stop and go signals have made crossings where they are installed very much safer and should be added to, from time to time.

Warnings.—A large number of drivers of automobiles were warned or cautioned during the past year for minor breaches of the traffic regulations.

Fires.—Several outbreaks of fire were nipped in the bud by the vigilance of the police and citizens combined. The police attended 21 fires during the past year.

Crime.—During 1929 there were 272 cases of theft, house and shopbreaking and other serious offences reported to the police, the majority of cases being where there is little or no police supervision.

Carrying of Concealed Weapons.—During the past year there were two cases reported to the police, and the offenders were brought into court.

Disorderly Houses.—The city is practically free from houses of ill-fame, but 10 houses were prosecuted during the year, arising from the abuses of home-made beer, which takes up a lot of time with a limited force obtaining the evidence necessary.

Pool Rooms.—These licensed places have received special attention, which resulted in there being no breaches of the law observed.

Narcotic Drugs.—Through the vigilant efforts of the police to suppress this evil, no breaches of this Act were observed.

Discipline.—The inspector, sergeants and constables of the force have discharged their duties in a very creditable manner; time and again when extra duty faced them it was done willingly and faithfully.

I express my appreciation to the members of the 1929 City Council for enabling me to improve and equip the force when it was so badly needed.

Police Matron.—I wish to thank the Police Matron for her tireless efforts in carrying out the many unpleasant duties she has to perform, pursuing cases, with such determination and success against great odds.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the Board of Police Commissioners on behalf of myself and the members of the force for their kind consideration, assistance and co-operation during the past year.

Eskimo Being Rushed to the Pas

WITH LOWER LIMBS BADLY FROZEN DARING ATTEMPT IS BEING MADE TO REACH THE PAS WITH ESKIMO

Somewhere in Barren Lands Railway Employee is Rushing to Hospital.

SEVEN DOG TEAM DRAWING ESKIMO

Gangrene is Reported to Have Set in Since Accident Occurred.

11,000 MILES TO COVER.

THE PAS, Man., Feb. 19 (Special to The Examiner).—Somewhere in the barren lands on the line of the Hudson Bay Railways, Bud Stewart, paymaster's gas car driver, is running a race with death, while he mushes toward The Pas with a seven-dog husky team hauling Egatook, an Eskimo, from Churchill regions who was found some time ago with his lower limbs frozen nearly to the hips, and one arm badly frost-bitten.

Aided By R.C.M.P.

Word of the Eskimo's plight reached The Pas, and at once the entire resources of the North became operative to render help to the stricken man. The Royal Canadian Mounted Police started Egatook on his long journey from the North. W. G. Tweddell, Indian agent here, and members of the R.C.M.P., acted in conjunction with Canadian National Railways and Hudson Bay officials to see that the man reached the hospital here with all speed.

Reports reaching here stated that the Eskimo was brought in to Churchill from Chesterfield Inlet. If such is the case, his limbs were frozen at least five weeks ago. Allowing a dog team 30 miles a day at the most, it would take more than a month to make Churchill from Chesterfield, and another three days to reach the winter terminus of the Hudson Bay Railway, making the entire distance travelled about 11,000 miles to The Pas. Word reached here last night that the Eskimo was frozen February 13th and gangrene had set in, and recovery was doubtful. His age and occupation are not known. Rumor had it last night that he was a member of the Vance and Blasdale party of McAlpine fliers who were mushing out to Churchill. This could not be confirmed as the wires on the Hudson Bay Railway are down at Mile 438 and Mile 461½.

Arnott Peters Is Given Three Years

T. J. Godfrey of Chapleau Defeats Ray Best By Two Shots.

LINDSAY WINS.

TORONTO, February 19. — (C.P.) —Thirteen rinks, who had gone through their engagements during the first two days of the Toronto bonspiel without defeat, where whittled down when six of them were beaten to-day. Eight games in Ryrie Birks competition found exactly half of the undefeated rinks eliminated. T. J. Godfrey, Chapleau, defeated Ray Best, Peterborough by 11-9, while Bob Falconer of High Park, lost to Norman Rule, Collingwood, 15-11. J. O. Strickland, Lakefield, sustained his first defeat, when he lost to Sherwood of Haileybury, 12-10. F. C. Nugent, of Lindsay, defeated Barsse of Owen Sound 11-10, after an extra end and another Lindsay four, skipped by W. Bryson, also advanced in the primary event.

Only two games were played in the North American Life but both of them saw hitherto undefeated rinks beaten. Davie Walker, Fort William defeated Dick Butler, Lindsay, 13-9. P. Conley, St. Thomas, fell before W. Bethune, Midland, 17-11. J. O. McKellar, Sault Ste. Marie, defeated Bill Scott of the Royal Canadians in the lowest scoring game of 'spiel so far, 7-6.

NEW YORK, February 19. — Automobile manufacturing companies of the United States plan to expend $15,000,000 in scrapping approximately 400,000 old automobiles this year, in accordance with a program endorsed by the directors of the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, it was announced yesterday at the offices of the Chamber.

The program, which is known as the "Highway Safety Plan," proposes that the manufacturers provide a fund to remove permanently from the roads "those cars that menace the safety of other highway users." The plan will be worked out by each company participating, in line with its general sales policy and the volume of its production.

Some of the money will be spent in the form of allowances to automobile dealers for junking old cars taken as trade-ins, and part of the fund may be expended in an arrangement with old metal dealers by which they will acquire and junk old cars.

"This widespread experiment will strike right at the heart of the unsafe vehicle problem by eliminating a huge block of those cars which are in the poorest condition," said Alvan Macauley, president of the Chamber.

"The rattle-trap car is only one factor in the accident difficulty. Unsafe, incompetent, and reckless drivers, as well as reckless pedestrians, cause a large proportion of the accidents. Blind curves and other highway defects are also to blame.

"The expenditure of $15,000,000 will not clear away every unfit old car, but it is so big a move that the experiment will demonstrate fully whether it is worth while to carry the program further."

AUSTRALIA LAYS DOWN PLAN FOR BIG WHEAT POOL

Undecided Whether Control Will Rest in Hands of Gov't or Wheat Growers.

TO STABILIZE PRICE.

Gov't Offers 96 Cents Bushel at Country Sidings For Year—Growers Ask Three Years.

CANBERRA, Australia, Feb. 19. — (Canadian Press Cable, via Reuter's). —A great wheat pool will be established in Australia. There is some difference as to whether it will be a Government-controlled body, or one under the direction of the wheat growers themselves. But there is little doubt that a Commonwealth wheat marketing body will be in operation in a comparatively short time.

A great conference between the Commonwealth and State Government and the Wheat Growers' Associations, held yesterday, decided on the pool. The Federal Government wants it to be under Government control, with a State board in each state operating under a Commonwealth board at Canberra, on which the State boards would be represented. The wheat growers want it to be under control of the farmers.

Difference On Time Guarantee.

The real difference, however, centres around the Government guarantee of a stabilized price for the farmer. The Government offered to guarantee 96 cents a bushel for wheat delivered at country sidings, the equivalent of $1.08 a bushel f.o.b., for one year only. The wheat growers asked that this guarantee be extended to cover three years. Hon. C. Motoney, Federal Minister of Markets, said to-day the Government could not agree to extending this guarantee until it was seen the scheme for an Australia-wide wheat pool was in operation.

But when the pool is established and is working satisfactorily, the Government will favorably consider the suggestion of extending the guarantee of price, the Minister promised.

The Weather

Spring-like conditions prevail today. While it would be premature to say that spring is here, it has all the ear-marks of the real thing. The temperature last night for the first time in many moons did not get down to the freezing point, and at noon the thermometer pointed very close to the 50 degrees mark. It is the warmest day since Thanksgiving day (Nov., 11th.) The mild spell is probably good for several days at least—let us hope that it will be more. I know one person to whom the cawing of the crow, and the merry "Cheerio" of the robin will be a welcome sound.—W. P.

World Needs Love, So Novelist Says

MONTREAL.—The world needs more love, William Gerhardi, young British novelist, declared in a lecture before the Montreal Women's Press Club. Mr. Gerhardi said there were three kinds of love—"Ideal, real and fatal," and so described them: "Ideal love is when a man is unaware that his idol has feet of clay and still loves her; real love is when a man is aware that his idol has feet of clay, but loves her; fatal love is when a man hates her feet of clay but loves her."

France to be Given Chance to Settle Political Question

The Five Power Naval Conference Adjourned To-day on the Suggestion of Henry L. Stimson, U.S. Chief Delegate, Until Wednesday Next.

EXPERTS' COMMITTEE WILL CONTINUE ITS WORK

ITALIAN STATEMENT IS MADE PUBLIC AT MEETING

It is Hoped By Delegates That France Will Have Her Political Situation Settled Before the Body Meets Again—Hope to Save Conference.

LONDON, February 19 (Canadian Press). — The Five Power Naval Conference to-day adjourned until next Wednesday.

The following communique on the week-long recess of the Naval Conference was issued this afternoon:

"As a result of consultation between the heads of all delegations now in London, it has been decided that the Naval Conference stand adjourned until Wednesday, February 26. Meanwhile the Experts' Committee will continue work upon which it is now engaged."

The adjournment was taken to give the French an opportunity to adjust their domestic situation growing out of the fall of the Tardieu Cabinet.

United States Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson, head of the United States delegation, suggested the holiday this morning to Premier MacDonald who immediately consulted foreign minister Grandi of Italy and former Premier Wakatsuki of Japan.

There was widespread feeling in Conference circles that it would be better to take a few days' vacation during the present crisis in France.

Some doubt was expressed whether the French would approve such a suspension since they would have to bear the blame for the delay, although everyone is cognizant that the present slackness is due to the French political crisis!

The French naval experts were observers when the sub-committee which is discussing special and exempt vessels assembled at St. James' Palace this morning.

Dino Grandi, Italian Foreign Minister and delegation head, this morning circulated Italy's eagerly awaited statement of naval policy and requirements to the other delegations. He planned to give the statement to the press later this afternoon.

Parley Waits on Paris

Floundering in a morass of uncertainty the conference to-day had its ears turned toward Paris, fearful lest, if the French Government critis is not speedily settled, a real crisis may confront the delegates of the four Powers now represented in London.

Meanwhile, the Italian delegation announced they exepected shortly to issue a statement setting forth their viewpoint on naval limitation and reiterating and explaining their claim

ITALY IS WILLING TO REDUCE NAVY WITH ANY POWER

ABOLISH CAPITAL SHIPS.

Would Consider Abolition of Submarines in Connection With Real Reduction.

LONDON, Feb. 19. — (Canadian Press).—Dino Grandi, Italian foreign minister and head of the Italian naval delegation, to-day issued a statement announcing that the fundamental position of Italian policy was based upon reduction and parity with any continental power.

The Italian statement completed the series of definite announcements of national policies at the Conference already made public by Great Britain, the United States, France and Japan.

Italy, to-day's statement said, believes her policy is justified by the existence of the pact of the League of Nations, the Pact of Locarno and the Briand-Kellogg Treaty and responds to the public opinion of all Italy.

Italy is prepared, said the Grandi statement, to examine favorably the complete abolition of capital ships.

Reduce as Low as Any

Italy will agree, the statement added, not only to hold her fleet strength equal to that of any continental power but will agree to reduce her navy to the lowest level that continental powers can agree upon.

Grandi's declaration restated Italy's willingness to consider abolition of submarines in connection with real reductions in other forms of naval armament.

It also restated the Italian naval position as being, at present, practically at parity with France if capital ships are excluded from the calculations.

Grandi characterized the Italian statement as one of "faith, hope, parity and reduction."

NEW U. E. PARTY DRAWS RIDICULE

Information Lacking as to How Dominion View Scheme—Tory Press Quiet.

FERGUSON BACKS DOWN.

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 19. (By Thos. T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Concrete plans for support of the new party by Lord Rothermere; an appeal for Liberal support from Rt. Hon. C. A. McCurdy, former Chief Liberal Whip; outpourings of ridicule from the Labor press; and a total lack of information as to how the Dominions themselves view the whole scheme, marked to-day's developments in the growth of Britain's youngest party, the United Empire Party.

The official Conservative press refuses to give any particular prominence to news about the formation of this party, which comprises Lord Beaverbrook's greatest effort to further his campaign for free trade within the Empire and a tariff barrier against all foreign nations. At the same time, the Conservative attitude towards the movement is on the whole respectful. The official Conservative policy in fact is on a line with the Beaverbrook crusade except insofar as the actual elimination of duties are concerned.

But there is something Gilbertian in to-day's announcement that Sir John Ferguson, who was elected as a Conservative and Empire free trader for Twickenham when the holder of the seat, Rt. Hon. Sir William Joynson-Hicks, was elevated to the peerage last year, declines to join the new party. He will remain a member of the Conservative party, believing the views he holds on Empire development can be carried out better within the party than outside it.

IMPERIAL OIL WELL WRECKED

Six Men Have Close Call as 1,000 Quarts of Nitro-Glycerine Explodes.

FIRE FOLLOWS.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19 (C.P.) — Shaking the Turner Oil Field for miles, a premature explosion of 1,000 quarts of nitro-glycerine early to-day completely wrecked Royalite 23 well of the Imperial Oil Company, and scattered the derrick and machinery far and wide over the district.

A private message to Solloway Mills and Company to-day, says fire followed the explosion, and the machinery is a total loss. The tools are still in the hole. Residents of the Valley described the sudden crash in vivid fashion. A "sizzling sound" gave warning of the approaching explosion, and the six-man crew of the well promptly ran to a safe distance. They were knocked over by the impact, and while badly shaken, did not sustain serious injury.

Parag on Hall Filled to Capacity to Hear U.F.A. Member's Address.

FARMER IS ENTITLED TO MAKE FAIR RETURN

Ought to Have Right to Barter With Those Whom They Exchange Goods.

CO-OPERATION NECESSARY.

Wheat Pool Has Done All Expected of It, Speaker Tells Audience.

"Our great task is to get all the farmers to speak with one voice and that is what the Wheat Pool is for" said William Irvine, M.P., in the course of his eloquent and forceful address before the U.F.O. last evening, adding: "If we had not had the Wheat Pool last fall when all the wheat came from the Argentine, Canadian wheat would have been dumped along with it and would have dropped the price to 50c per bushel."

The meeting held in the Paragon Tea Rooms was under the auspices of the Peterborough U.F.O. No. 519 with Carman Seymour in the chair, the spacious hall being filled to overflowing — a fitting tribute to Mr. Irvine of Bentley, Alberta, U.F.A. member for the House of Commons for Wetaskiwin, who is recognized as one of the most outstanding speakers in the Federal House.

"I am delighted to have the privilege of addressing you to-night" said Mr. Irvine, "it is a pleasure to speak to people who are giving serious thought to social and economic problems of our time. This is not the first opportunity I have had of addressing organized farmers of this Province, nor the first time I have spoken in this city. During the last fifteen years I have spoken in almost every county in Ontario."

Stimulate Interest

"I am doing my best to stimulate interest in the organization under whose auspices we meet here this evening. It is one of my greatest pleasures to watch the growing interest on the part of the people in the study of their own affairs. Some time ago there was great difficulty in establishing an organized farmer's local and I was once informed in Alberta to attempt such a thing was a hopeless task."

To illustrate the absurdity of such a pessimistic view the speaker asked his audience to consider the many attempts, resulting in failure, which a child makes when attempting to walk, saying, that just because of these failures a mother doesn't take the child up in her arms and say "didn't I tell you that you could not walk" and then decree that the child must lie on its

OTTAWA FEELS EARTH TREMORS

Nearby Villages Report Loud Rumblings Like Thunder Claps.

6.38 THIS MORNING.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 19 (C.P.). — Slight earthquake rumblings discernable to residents of Ottawa suburbs were registered on the Dominion Observatory seismograph early this morning. Starting at 6.38 o'clock, eastern standard time, the tremors continued to record at the Observatory for 15 seconds.

Early risers of the town of Westboro, four miles west from the heart of the capital, reported hearing loud rumblings similar to claps of thunder at the time the 'quake registered on the seismograph. Residents of Brittania village, a few more miles westerly, also heard the crash.

No reports of damage had been received up until noon.

ANNUAL COST OF EDUCATING CHILD IN PETERBORO IS $72.07

$335,121.16 Must Be Taken Out of General Tax Rate For Educational Purposes.

COLLEGIATE RATE UP.

Taxpayers of the City of Peterborough will directly contribute $2.56 more this year than in 1929 for the education of each child enrolled in the schools of the city if the Board of Education insists on its original estimate for the year.

Without considering any aspects of the cost of educating each child other than the direct costs to the ratepayers through the current account and the debenture account, $72.07 will be required for each enrolled child in 1930. Last year $69.51 was the requirement for each child.

The demand for the current account of the Collegiate Institute and Vocational School for 1930 is $88,200, up $12,800 from last year. The Collegiate rate for current account shows an increase of .44 mills. The requirements of the Collegiate for interest on sinking fund on the Collegiate Institute debentures for 1930 is $19,602.44, a decrease from $21,314.46 of last year.

The Public School demand for current account for this year is $167,200.00, up $5,100 from last year's demand of $162,100.00. The requirements for interest on sinking fund on public school debentures is $36,543.10, the same figure as that of 1929.

Slight Increase

An increase also appears in the demands for Separate Schools although it is small. The demand for this year is $23,575.62. Last year it was $23,404.84. The Separate Schools carry no debentures.

According to the above figures, the total requirements that must be got from the taxpayers of the city this year for education amounts to $335,121.16. Last year's requirement was $318,762.40. The increase in total requirement is thus $16,358.76.

The per capita cost of education in the city was worked out on a basis of the total enrollment figures in the Collegiate, Public Schools and Separate Schools in the month of January in the respective years, 1929 and 1930. The total enrollment in 1929 was 4,586, and for January this year was 4,650, an increase of 64.

The Collegiate Institute rate for current account was the only one that showed an increase despite the general increased requirements for the year. In 1929 the Collegiate rate for current account was 3.21 mills and this year 3.65 mills. The Public School rate remained the same at 7.72 mills. The total increase of rates for current account was thus .44.

The decrease in the rates for debentures this year was due maily to the increased assessment.

Rum Caravan Falls Into Police Hands

SARNIA, Feb. 19 (C.P.)—A liquor caravan with an estimated value of $16,000, carried in eight automobiles was intercepted on the ice of the St. Clair River between Port Lambton and Marine City yesterday. The runners abandoned two cars containing more than $3,500 in liquor, but succeeded in bringing the others back to the Canadian shore. U.S. Federal officers seized the abandoned cars.

RAINY LAKE WATERSHED DISPOSAL PROVES PUZZLE TO U.S. AND CANADA

Spring is Here

"Cold and cloudy" was the report of the weather a year ago to-day. Pedestrians scurried about the streets with their heads buried in upturned collars and mufflers shuddering at the sight of thermometers.

What a different aspect to-day—Store owners basking in the sunshine and enjoying the spring air in front of their shops; pedestrians strolling leisurely about the streets with a cheery comment on the turn of the temperature ready for everybody; running water everywhere and—yes, even marbles in evidence! Small boys pursuing the springtime sport of "miggles" on the Charlotte street sidewalk made it necessary for indulgent passers-by this morning to make slight detours!

Although no robins were reported, the report of a flock of wild geese flying north over St. Joseph's Hospital this morning was greeted with "I told you so's" by many believers in an early spring.

To-day was the warmest day experienced in this district since last Thanksgiving.

TORONTO TAX RATE 31.80

TORONTO, Ont.—The Board of Control to-day struck the 1930 tax rate at 31.80 mills, which compared with 31.50 last year, and 31.80 in 1928.

MANY COMPLICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 19 (By Ken Clark, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Stretching 250 miles northwest from the shores of Hiawatha's "Shining Big Sea Water," Lake Superior, lies the Rainy Lake watershed, on the boundary between Ontario and Minnesota. What is to become of this land of woods and lakes and streams which is potentially an international playground, wherein might be developed waterpower and minerals. This is the question at present before the Governments and people of the United States and Canada.

Two Bills Proposed

On Capitol Hill, the House Committee on public lands hears testimony on two bills, the one presented by William I. Nolan of Minnesota and the other by William A. Pittenger of the same State. These bills would preserve the country on the United States side as the forest primeval. E. W. Backus, the pulp, paper and power king of Minnesota, who wants to make certain developments in the territory, opposes both bills.

But there is further complication. A number of the 1,000 lakes in the watershed make up the international boundary. Over such waters the International Joint Commission has jurisdiction and for several years the Commission has been investigating water levels. The Canadian Government has drawn the attention of the

S. C. TWEED SAYS STOCK CRASH IS FAULT OF PRICE

MACAULAY REPLIES.

Farmers Not Had Fair Deal in Contrast to Urban Dwellers in Hydro Rates, Medd States.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19 (Canadian Press).—When the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne was resumed yesterday, three members spoke, representing each of the party divisions in the House. They were W. G. Medd, Prog., South Huron, who attacked the Government on its liquor policy and its system of rural Hydro rates; Leo Macaulay, Cons., South York, who spoke in favor of the Township School Board Bill sponsored last session by Premier G. H. Ferguson, and who suggested to the Government that a partial system of compulsory automobile insurance be adopted, and S. C. Tweed, Lib., North Waterloo, who attacked the administration of the Security Frauds Prevention Act under Attorney-General W. H. Price. In this connection he claimed that the Attorney-General on June 28, 1929, at the opening of the Toronto Standard Stock and Mining Exchange, told the members that short-selling was a good thing for the market, as it stood off a constant bullish tendency.

Price To Blame.

In his maiden effort before the house, the Liberal member for North Waterloo said, "the responsibility for the present disaster in the mining stock market which has resulted in the loss of tens of millions of dollars to the people of Ontario must be placed at the door of the Attorney-General and the Government."

In reviewing the events in the "brokerage situation" for the past few months, Mr. Tweed claimed that the Government and patricularly the Attorney-General must have known that "bucketing, wash-sales and manipulating of prices" was being indulged in. He said that only through pressure from the public and the press was Attorney-General Price prompted to action.

Premier Ferguson a few days ago, the member for North Waterloo continued, said that the Government had inspectors and auditors investigating the books of exchange members. If the information were available, the Government should compel every broker to cover immediately his short sale.

"The argument against this," he continued, "is that the stock market would immediately sky-rocket. This would, in my opinion, be a good thing as it would give the public a chance to get back some of the money it was swindled out of by the bucket-shop methods of certain brokers. The Prime Minister says there might be a panic. If there were any danger of this, it would have taken place on Jan. 30, the day that 13 brokers were arrested.

Royal Commission Favored.

"Here are 51 members of the Standard Stock and Mining Exchange. Members of five of the houses have been arrested. It is a well-known fact that a number of the smaller houses are either controlled or were operating in the pools or rings of the larger houses. I have talked with a number of brokers in the past few days and they are unanimously of the opinion that the appointment of a Royal Commission is the proper way to investigate the present situation. The brokers say this method will put an end to bucketing and short selling against clients. Give the Government authority to appoint an auditor of outstanding ability and integrity who in turn will draw up list of approved auditors, from which each firm of brokers shall select their auditor, who shall make at least a quarterly report to the Government's official auditor."

MURDER CHARGE IN IWANTZ CASE

APPEAR ON SATURDAY.

HAMILTON, Ont., Feb. 19. (Canadian Press).—Murder charges will be laid against three of the five men held in connection with the slaying of John Iwantz, at Winona recently, it was learned this morning. The men will appear before Magistrate Vance in County Police Court on Saturday morning.

In addition to evidence secured by the crown was revealed by the police to-day. Officers paid a visit to the boarding house where Mike Smith stayed. After a search, they found buried behind a wood pile a .38 calibre revolver, fully loaded, and beside it a paper in which five cartridges were wrapped. It was a .38 calibride shot which took the life of Iwantz.

It is learned that Mike Smith and Joe Mckolsy will be charged with murder. Who the third man to face this accusation will be is kept secret by the Crown but will be revealed in court on Saturday. The other three men held are Martin Shawra, Paul Hurshikuk and "Red Mike" Kostyniuk. Two of this trio will face lesser charges, it is intimated.

OIL EXPLOSION FATAL TO FIVE; SIXTY INJURED

No Hint of Warning Given Before Sheet of Flame From Refinery Envelops Victims.

MANY ARE BLINDED.

Majority of Those Hurt Were Constructing Building Scant Two Feet From Alcohol Plant.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Feb. 19. — (C. P.) — Five men were killed and 60 injured, more than a score critically, in the explosion of gas that escaped from a maze of coiled pipes late yesterday afternoon at the Bayway refining plant of the Standard Oil Company. Most of the injured were burned about the face and hands, and doctors feared that some would lose their eyesight.

A brief statement by J. Raymond Carrigen, general manager of the plant, said the blast was caused by the rupture of a "gas line." A number of the injured men reported seeing a 'blue vapor" escaping from the alcohol plant in which the explosion took place, before the sheet of flame that enveloped them came.

"Everybody Afire."

Most of the injured men were brick layers, pipefitters and carpenters, working on a building under construction a scant two feet from the alcohol plant. None could tell what happened. One man said he turned at the sound of the explosion, to see "everybody afire," and "running or falling from the scaffolds." In addition to the burns several of the injured suffered broken bones.

Of the dead only one man was identified, two of the men were trapped in the alcohol plant, and the body of one was taken out later in the position in which it was found—on hands and knees.

Every available ambulance from the city's three hospitals rushed to the plant, about a mile beyond the outskirts, when word of the accident spread.

FRIENDS RESCUE ENTOMBED MINER

Fears Mount For Safety of Friend Held in Shaft Since Monday.

MAY BE CRUSHED.

BLAIRMORE, Alta., February 19 (Canadian Press). — Weary mine workers, toiling in shifts, were digging relentlessly last night through massed tons of rock and shale in the interior of the Greenhill Mine here in efforts to rescue a fellow-miner. Since a cave-in on Monday, Frank Cheesek has been entombed in the mine's depths. Yesterday afternoon Frank Bombardier was rescued.

Fears for the safety of Cheesek have mounted since his partner's rescue. Bombardier, weak after his 24-hour imprisonment, was unable to give any information about the still missing man. It is feared Cheesek was crushed to death by rock that fell inside the mine shaft.

Two-Year-Old Comes From England Alone

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—After a long travel across the broad Atlantic and a third the way across the Continent, two-year-old Johnny McLelland awakened from sleep yesterday afternoon to find himself in the arms of his mother.

Johnny was one of the many passengers to embark from the White Star liner Albertic this week-end and is a real traveller for his size. Conductor A. Burt, who brought him in on the Canadian National Railways' boat train from Montreal late yesterday afternoon, said Johnny hadn't given him a bit of trouble all the way along and had made a score of friends.

Scarcely out 24 hours from England, the youthful voyager found a friend in Mrs. R. Kendish, who was on her way to Tisdale, Sask., and stuck close by her right to Toronto. When she arrived here, he was asleep in her arms. He had a welcome smile for his mother, however, and with tears streaming down her cheeks, she gathered him to her. As she left the station he had a wave for the friendly train crew and his fellow passengers with whom he had become fast friends in the past two weeks.

REVINSKY CHEATS DEATH BY LAST MINUTE REPRIEVE

Hamilton Man Was to Die at Midnight For Death of Toronto Salesman.

GALLOWS SET UP.

Arrest in Sydney of Man Suspected of Being Mysterious "Jimmy Brown" Brings Stay.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19. — (Canadian Press).—Herman Revinsky, 23, of Hamilton, sentenced to die at Regina shortly after midnight for murder, was snatched from the gallows last evening when Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, announced a reprieve until March 11.

Revinsky was to die for the murder of David Kates, 22, slain in the sand dunes near Gull Lake, Sask., on June 9, 1928, also known as Katz, was a former resident of Picton, Ont., and was a clothing salesman for a Toronto firm.

The gallows had been set up and Arthur Ellis had arrived to carry out the execution when word of the reprieve was flashed to Regina.

Arrest of another man at Sydney, Nova Scotia, believed to be the mysterious "Jimmy Brown" who Revinsky claims committed the murder, resulted in the reprieve.

Even under sentence of death Revinsky claimed he had been merely an accessory after the murder in burying Kates' body and that "Jimmy Brown" had beaten the young salesman to death with a shovel during a quarrel on the prairie.

PARTY IS BACKED BY ROTHERMERE

Believes United Empire Group Be Most Powerful Political Force in Few Weeks.

LAUDS BEAVERBROOK.

LONDON, Feb. 19 (C.P.).—"I believe the United Empire party will, within a few weeks, become the most powerful political force in Great Britain." With this unequivocal prediction, Lord Rothermere, whose name with that of Beaverbrook, has become almost synonymous with the power of the British press, arrays himself behind Beaverbrook and his new born party dedicated to the furtherance of the Empire Free Trade crusade.

Writing under his own name in today's Daily Mail, Rothermere declares he finds himself in complete agreement with 90 per cent of the Beaverbrook scheme, and adds: "I have the greatest confidence in his powers of leadership."

COLLAPSED ON FIRST BED

Kidneys were terrible, Hamilton woman declares.

Blesses Gin Pills

To Mrs. Louisa Pike life was unbearable. She admits frankly, "I had backache almost continually—could not carry a pail of water without getting dizzy or giddy."

What a plight to be in! But this wasn't all. Mrs. Pike's letter states further, "I couldn't sweep the floor without sitting down frequently, or walk upstairs without collapsing on the first bed. I decided to try Gin Pills," she goes on, "and now I feel the best I have ever felt in my life."

Attention to your kidneys now may save you pain and money later. Take Gin Pills the very first time you notice symptoms of trouble—backache, dizzy spells, spots before your eyes, headaches, swollen joints, brick dust in urine, a burning sensation attendant on scanty or too frequent urination. Soothe and strengthen your kidneys. Stay healthy. 50c. a box at your drug store. National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada Limited, Toronto, Canada.

CHICAGO CUTS NIGHT'S DEATHS TO ONE MURDER

Assassin Shoots Young Chinaman in Back After Chasing Him Some Blocks.

GENNA BROTHERS ARRESTED

During 24 Hours Preceding 11 O'clock Only Seven Burglaries Committed.

CHICAGO, Ill., February 19. (C.P.)—A Chinatown murder and the arrest of the two surviving Genna Brothers, Sam and Peter, were overnight developments in the crime situation.

During the 24 hour period ending at 11 p.m., last night, only seven petty burglaries, no robberies and no shootings were reported.

During that period 628 arrests were made, carrying the total in the continuing drive against crooks towards the 6,000 mark.

The murder of Bong Poy, a 22-year-old Chinese, occurred early today, shortly after the police report had been issued. Poy was shot dead at Wentworth Avenue and 22nd St., the cross-road of Chicago's Chinatown. Poy, pursued by a man, ran down 22nd street. The man caught Poy at the intersection with Wentworth avenue, and, holding with one hand, pressed a pistol against Poy's back and fired four times.

Assassin Escapes.

The arrest of the Gennas, who, with another brother, H. M., are the last of the brothers once known as Gargantuas of the Gans, was made in a flat building on Blue Island avenue. The names of three other Gennas are listed among the gang war dead. Angelo Genna was the first to fall, going down under a rain of bullets, May 26, 1925. Mike Genna followed three weeks later, a victim of a gun fight with policemen, but a shot from his own pistol took a police officer to death with him. Tony Genna was killed a month after Mike.

WEST BRIGHTENS AS WHEAT PRICE DROP IS HALTED

Sale of 1,000,000 Bushels at Monday's Low Level May Revive Export Demand.

8 CENTS UNDER LAST WEEK.

Approval By State Govt's in Australia of Commonwealth Pool Well Received.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 18 (C.P.).—Farmers on the Prairies, Western business in general, breathed easier.

After watching wheat prices slump to new low levels yesterday, they saw the decline halt and the market climb to levels slightly above the dismal figures of Monday.

World news was more encouraging than the market quotations, which still remained 8 cents lower than the middle of last week.

There were indications that the export demand might revive with the discovery that 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been sold at Monday's low figures. The export movements included a substantial portion of durum wheat for Italy.

Of greater future significance was the statement that practically all the State Government in Australia had approved the Federal proposal for stabilization of wheat prices by a Commonwealth wheat pool.

With the United States and Australia following the Canadian Pool's marketing ideas and the pool system being discussed in Argentine and other exporting countries there is a growing feeling in the West that the world producers will eventually be able to battle on even terms with the world buyers.

ITALY MAINTAINS DEMAND

LONDON, Feb. 19 (C.P.) — The Italian delegation, in the Naval Conference lull caused by French internal difficulties, yesterday reaffirmed its demand for the right to build a fleet equal to that of France or any other continental power.

At the same time the head of the Italian delegation, Dino Grandi, outlined Italy's desires for the elimination of all naval competition, provided the other powers are willing.

"THANKS TO BON-TONE, I AM BEGINNING TO ENJOY LIFE," SAYS MR. DOBSON

Tried Dozens of Different Remedies For Stomach Condition and Dizzy Spells

MR. JAMES DOBSON.

Mr. James Dobson, 950 Broadview Ave., Toronto, well-known member of Protective Association of Canada and Masons, Lodge No. 537, states: "For the past five years my health has been none too good and seemed to be continually getting worse. I was bothered greatly with very severe headaches and dizzy spells every day which left me feeling very weak. Specks would seem to float before my eyes. My stomach was not right, and I didn't enjoy my meals, as, although I had a good appetite, my food wouldn't digest as it should. I felt listless and draggy and lost all my pep and ambition. I read so much about BonTone and what it had done for people right here in Toronto, so, although I was pretty skeptical, as I had tried dozens of different remedies without results, decided to give it a trial. When I started to take Bon-Tone I had been home sick for a month and couldn't even walk to the corner of our street without getting those awful dizzy spells and nervous headaches, but after only a few bottles of this great remedy, I feel like a new man and haven't missed a day from work. For the first time in five years I am beginning to enjoy life. My vision has cleared—headaches and dizzy spells gone—stomach and liver conditions rapidly clearing up, and I have only taken 4 bottles of Bon-Tone so far. It is a great medicine, and I heartily recommend it to all."

Don't try new remedies. Bon-Tone is not an experiment, but a definite proven remedy and will surely give results if directions are followed carefully. Call or write to the Bon-Tone representative who is meeting the public daily at Bond's Drug Store, George and Hunter Sts., Peterborough, Ont., for more information about Bon-Tone, and ask for the free booklet, "The Road to Success."

ORANGEMEN HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Frank Millard Elected County Master of West Peterborough Association.

FINE ADDRESSES

A very large and enthusiastic gathering of Orangemen of the County of West Peterborough, assembled in the Orange Hall on February 4, for the annual meeting, C. M. Wor. Bro. C. H. Luffman, presiding. After the usual routine business County Master C. H. Luffman, gave an inspiring address on the work of the order in West Peterborough, during the past year, showing the order to be in a flourishing condition.

Officers for 1930.

The election of officers for the current year was then proceeded with, Wor. Bro. J. J. Cunningham, P.C.M., officiating most capably. The elected were:

County Master: Frank Millard.
Dep. C. M.: Fred Sanderson.

THE FIFE MEMORIAL.

It is peculiarly fitting that the chairmanship of the general committee acting under the authority of the County Council to further the movement to honor the memory of David Fife should be headed by an Otonabee man, Fred McIntyre, reeve of the township.

David Fife was a resident of Otonabee; it was there that he made his experiments that resulted in such a material contribution to the national wealth of this country, and it is appropriate that Otonabee should give leadership to the effort that is being made to honor the memory of an Otonabee pioneer.

The whole district will, of course, co-operate in the movement.

There is unanimity of opinion in Peterborough and the surrounding countryside that a fitting tribute should be paid to the achievements of a man whose persistent efforts to discover a wheat strain that would resist rust and meet the climatic tests of this country resulted in the Northwest being opened up many years before its lands would otherwise have been under cultivation.

CHIEF NEWHALL'S REPORT.

Chief of Police Newhall's annual report covering the activities of his department for last year is most satisfactory in the proof it offers that Peterborough is comparatively free from major crimes, the majority of cases heard in the local police court during the year involving breaches of the Liquor Control and Traffic Acts.

The absence of serious cases, especially of crimes of violence, is a matter that testifies to the law-abiding nature of the citizens of this community, while the statistics given by Chief Newhall as to the amount of stolen property recovered offer strong evidence of the efficiency of the police department.

When out of a total of $21,299.57 worth of property said to have been stolen all but $1,446.17 was salvaged by the police, good work on the part of the department has been clearly demonstrated.

The chief's report is always an interesting document in the light it throws upon various phases of police activity.

The figures in regard to automobile accidents in his latest summary are particularly worthy of note, inasmuch as Chief Newhall reports that while there were 241 traffic accidents investigated by the police during 1929, only two of these mishaps involved fatalities, a percentage that in view of the volume of traffic is remarkably low.

HOME-BREW CONDEMNED.

The home-brew evil is once again stressed in the annual report of Chief of Police Newhall, who points out that ten houses were prosecuted during 1929 on charges arising from the abuses of home-made beer which, the chief says, "takes up a lot of time with a limited force obtaining the necessary evidence."

Other police departments have made similar statements in regard to the evil results of the home-brew industry.

They claim that the home manufacture of beer is responsible for many breaches of the Liquor Control Act and for a greater part of what illegal sale may be carried on, and it is a mystery to most law enforcement officers why the temperance organizations of the Province have not devoted their attention to this particular trouble and made an earnest effort to have the Federal Government abandon the present system of permitting home-brewing.

Control of the sale of native wine by the Liquor Control Board and a refusal on the part of the Ottawa Government to legalize home manufacture would, in the opinion of a great many persons in a position to know, create much better conditions and relieve police departments of a great deal of work that they have to take care of under present conditions.

KEEPING DOWN THE TAX RATE.

Peterborough's City Council is to be commended for the sincere effort it is making to keep the civic tax rate down to the lowest possible level.

In that endeavor it merits the co-operation and assistance of other spending bodies, and while The Examiner does not believe that the Council should have any supervision over the expenditures of the Board of Education so long as that body is elective and therefore responsible to the people, this paper is of the opinion that it is the duty of the board to trim its estimates to the bone.

If the Board of Education has not done so, if it has not confined its spending program to what is necessary to ensure the efficiency of the schools under its jurisdiction, if its appropriation for the current year contains anything that could be postponed or held over, the members of the board should realize that with the larger demands being made upon the civic treasury for expenditures that cannot be avoided, such as mothers' allowances, old age pensions, suburban roads and the addition to the sewage disposal plant ordered by the Provincial Board of Health, it is imperative that there should be a policy of retrenchment in all departments where retrenchment is possible.

The City Council controls less than a third of the revenue it collects, and it is making a real effort to cut down; in that effort it should have the support of other municipal bodies to the fullest degree.

With such support the city tax rate can be kept down. The Examiner feels sure, to 39 mills—without it a higher rate can scarcely be avoided.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS IN QUEBEC.

The campaign which has been undertaken by a small body of Quebec women, with the support of certain influential men of the same Province, to secure relief from the disabilities under which women labor in that part of the Dominion, is beginning to bear fruit.

Almost a year ago Premier Taschereau appointed a commission of legal experts to study proposals for the betterment of the civil status of women in Quebec and to bring in recommendations for the benefit of the Government. That commission has now presented its report and has incorporated in it various recommendations which, if acted upon, will undoubtedly improve the position of Quebec women.

Some of the recommendations which the commission has made are the following:

That the married woman shall have the right to receive the results of her work and to dispose of such proceeds. At the present time the wife works for wages that the husband has the right to collect and dispose of.

That the woman separated from her husband shall have the right to dispose of her property without having the authority of her husband.

That the wife be permitted to insure her life for the benefit of her husband.

That the age of legal marriage, in the case of women, be raised from 12 to 14 and that of men from 14 to 16.

That the marriage of a man with the widow of his brother be declared valid.

That a woman may be an authentic witness to a will.

These recommendations, with others that have been presented by the commission, meet some of the objections to the present civil code which have been raised by those who have been leaders in the fight for women's rights and, if translated into legislation, will visibly improve their status.

They illustrate the backwardness of the code, which dates in numerous respects from the period of French occupation, and, if they are acted upon, they will bring the Quebec code into something approaching conformity with the more generous treatment that is now accorded women under the law in other parts of the civilized world.—Brockville Recorder and Times.

THE SENATE AT ITS WORST.

(New York Herald-Tribune)

The Senate's credit has again been pitifully lowered—if such a thing remains possible—by the attitude of a large minority of its members toward the Hughes nomination. That twenty-six Senators should vote to reject so admirable a nomination as that of Mr. Hughes to be Chief Justice of the United States is a symptom of aggravated degeneracy in a body now habituated to disesteem and decadence.

For many years the Senate has been squandering its prestige. Once the "overshadowing" branch of Congress, once able to battle with the President for precedence on the Washington stage, once boasting of itself as the "most august deliberative body on earth," it now finds few who remember its great tradition or are willing to do it reverence because of its ancient glory. Formerly composed of men who strove to measure up to exacting standards, it has now become too largely a refuge for marplots and mediocrities, whose controlling motive in politics are envy, suspicion and trouble making.

The Senate has played many snarling and mean-spirited roles in recent years. But it has never staged in the public view so ignominious an opposition as that which has for the last few days been barking at the heels of President Hoover's ideal nominee for Chief Justice. The nomination was received with universal commendation. It met all reversal commendation. It met all requirements. Mr. Norris and Mr. Borah made no serious protest against it originally. But the hateful spirit of factionalism got to work in the Senate. Hope of uniting the Democratic-Irresponsible coalition on an issue apart from the tariff bill inspired a campaign of insinuation and childish demagogy which has converted consideration of Mr Hughes' high qualifications for the post into a sort of lobby investigation committee hearing, with all its incitements to defamation. The appointee's earlier distinguished service on the Supreme Court bench, his learning, ability, character and professional standing were held to be inconsequential—or at least outweighed in importance by certain political or economic leanings attributed to him and found uncongenial to his excited critics.

This is a ridiculous approach to an examination of a man's fitness for judicial office. The primary requisites of such an office are integrity, wide experience, capacity and intellectual independence. Mr. Hughes has all these. His enemies have attacked him because his political and economic opinions differed from theirs. They have imputed to him at the same time the opinions of various clients who had employed him. This is nonsensical. A lawyer is not responsible for the actions and policies of his clients. If that were so, an attorney who defended a man convicted of murder would be practically an accessory after the fact to murder. A lawyer does not accept his client's political or economic philosophy. He protects the client's legal rights and in so doing he helps defendants. His political and economic opinions are his own.

When a lawyer becomes a public servant he protects public rights. That is his moral obligation. Can any one say that Mr. Hughes did not loyally and energetically protect public rights when he was an associate justice of the Supreme Court or when he was Secretary of State or Governor of New York?

The country was delighted that a jurist of Mr. Hughes' eminent fitness was available for appointment to the Chief Justiceship. It has been amazed at the disgraceful spectacle which the Senate assailants of the nomination have been making of themselves. It was stunned to think that cheap blocintrigues could thus delay confirmation. It is well, perhaps, that the full malignity of the bloc spirit has been discolored. The public will stand for a good deal, but not long for a system which is making the Senate a laughing stock and a nuisance.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

There were 241 motor accidents in Peterborough last year. How many of them could have been avoided with ordinary care?

What To-day Means To You

"AQUARIUS."

If February 19 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a.m. to 11.15 a.m., from 4 p.m. to 5.30 p.m., and from 11 p.m. to midnight. The danger periods are from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 9:40 to 10:50 p.m.

The astrological signs are rather veiled in their indications for this date and prophecies are uncertain. If you go on the principle that "One to-day is worth two to-morrows," it cannot become a blank day in the history of your life.

The child born on this February 19 will need to be praised and encouraged, as it will be lacking in self-reliance. It will become easily discouraged when things go wrong, and it should not be allowed to give up. It will have a lovable nature, and it will quickly respond to kindly guidance.

You have a very positive, very peculiar and a very conflicting nature. A man born on February 19 is a man's man—you understand and get along far better with those of your own sex than with those whom you consider the weaker sex. You treat women as puppets or playthings, and they resent your rather superior, rather patronizing manner. You might become a woman's master, but hardly her pa . You are frank outspoken and truthful with men, but you "fairy tale" to your women friends. Your manner entirely changes with your audience.

Both men and women are highly strung and restless and you become easily bored by your surroundings or associates. A sameness in anything irritates you—you demand surprises and changes and adventure. You will probably make a very good father r mother, but a poor husband or wife. There is more "taking" than "giving" in your nature and you are not fitted for harmonious team work.

Gifted with a keen intellect, you do not suffer fools gladly, and you have very little patience with those who cannot match your own wit. You both think and act quickly yourself, and you want others to keep up with your pace. A rather turbulent, but interesting life and career is predicted for you.

THE GREENE MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE

"Oh, it's you ,is it?" she greeted us, her expression moderating. "I thought it was those abominable policemen making free with my house again . . . What's the meaning of all this disturbance, Mr. Markham? Nurse tells me that Chester has been shot. Dear, dear! If people must do such things why do they have to come to my house and annoy a poor helpless ol woman like me? There are plenty of other places they could to their shooting in." She appeared deeply resentful at the fact that the murderer should have been so inconsiderate as to choose the Greene mansion for his depredations. "But I've come to expect this sort of thing. Nobody thinks of my feelings. And if my own children see fit to do everything they can to annoy me, why should I expect total strangers to show me any consideration?"

"When one is bent on murder, Mrs. Greene," rejoined Markham, stung by her callousness, "one doesn't stop to think of the mere inconvenience his crime may cause others."

"I suppose not," she murmured self-pityingly. "But it's all the fault of my children. If they were what children ought to be, people wouldn't be breaking in here trying to murder them."

"And unfortunately succeeding," added Markham coldly.

"Well, that can't be helped." She suddenly became bitter. "It's their punishment for the way the've treated their poor old mother, lying here for ten long years, hopelessly paralyzed. And do you think they try to make it easy for me? No! Here I must stay, day after day, suffering agonies with my spine; and they never give me a thought." A sly look came into her fierce old eyes. "But they think about me sometimes. Oh, yes! They think how nice it would be if I were out of the way. Then they'd get all my money . . ."

"I understand, madam," Markham put in abruptly, "that you were asleep last night at the time your son met his death."

"Was I? Well maybe I was. It's a wonder, though, that some one didn't leave my door open just so I'd be disturbed."

"And you know no one who would have any reason to kill your son."

"How should I know? Nobody tells me anything. I'm a poor neglected, lonely old cripple . . ."

"Well, we won't bother you any further, Mrs. Greene." Markham's tone held something both of sympathy and consternation.

As we descended the stairs the nurse reopened the door we had just closed after us, and left it ajar, no doubt in response to an order from her patient.

"Not at all a nice old lady," chuckled Vance, as we entered the drawing-room. "For a moment, Markham, I thought you were going to box her ears."

"I admit I felt like it. And yet I couldn't help pitying her. However, such utter self-concentration as hers saves one a lot of mental anguish. She seems to regard this whole damnable business as a plot to upset her."

Sproot appeared obsequiously at the door.

"May I bring you gentlemen some coffee?" No emotion of any kind showed on his graven wrinkled face. The events of the past few days seemed not to have affected him in any degree.

"No, we don't want coffee, Sproot," Markham told him brusquely. "But please be good enough to ask Miss Sibella if she will come here."

"Very good, sir."

The old man shuffled away, and a few minutes later Sibella strolled in, smoking a cigarette, one hand in the pocket of her vivid-green sweater-jacket. Despite her air of nonchalance her face was pale, its whiteness contrasting strongly with the deep crimson rouge on her lips. Her eyes, too, were slightly haggard; and when she spoke her voice sounded forced, as if she were laying a role against which her spirit was at odds. She greeted us blithely enough, however.

"Good morning, one and all. Beastly auspices for a social call." She sat down on the arm of a chair and swung one leg restlessly. "Some one certainly has a grudge against us Greenes. Poor old Chet! He didn't even die with his boots on. Felt bedroom slippers! What an end for an outdoor enthusiast!—Well, I suppose I'm invited here to tell my story. Where do I begin?" She rose, and throwing her half-burned cigarette into the grate, seated herself in a straight-backed chair facing Markham, folding her sinewy, tapering hands on the table before her.

Markham studied her for several moments.

"You were awake last night, reading in bed, understand, when the shot was fired in your brother's room."

"Zola's 'Nana,' ro be explicit. Mother told me I shouldn't read it; so I got it at once. It was frightfully disappointing, though."

"I put my book down, got up, donned a kimono, and listened for several minutes at the door. Not hearing anything further, I peeked out. The hall was dark, and the silence felt a bit spooky. I knew I ought to go to Chet's room and inquire, in a sisterly fashion, about the explosion; but, to tell you the truth, Mr. Markham, I was rather cowardly. So I went—oh, well, let the truth prevail: I ran up the servants' stairs and routed out our Admirable Crichton; and together we investigated. Chet's door was unlocked, and the fearless Sproot opened it. There sat Chet, looking as if he'd seen a ghost; and somehow I knew he was dead. Sproot went in and touched him, while I waited; and then we went down to the dining-room. Sproot did some phoning, and afterward made me some atrocious coffee. A half-hour or so later this gentleman"—she inclined her head toward Meath—"arrived, looking, distressingly glum, and very sensibly refused a cup of Sproot's coffee."

"And you heard no sound of any kind before the shot?"

"Not a thing. Everybody had gone to bed early. The last sound I heard in this house was mother's gentle and affectionate voice telling the nurse she was a neglectful as the rest of us, and to bring her morning tea at nine sharp, and not to slam the door the way she always did. Then peace and quiet reigned until half past eleven, when I heard the shot in Chet's room."

"How long was this interregnum of quietude?" asked Vance.

"Well, mother generally ends her daily criticism of the family around ten-thirty; so I'd say the quietude lasted about an hour."

"And during that time you do not recall hearing a slight shuffling sound in the hall? Or a door closing softly?"

The girl shook her head indifferently, and took another cigarette from a small amber case she carried in her sweater-pocket.

"Sorry, but I didn't. That doesn't mean, though that people couldn't have been shuffling and shutting doors all over the place. My room's at the rear, and the noises on the river and in 52nd Street drown out almosy anything that's going on in the front of the house."

Vance had gone to her and held a match to her cigarette.

"I say, you don't seem in the least worried."

"Oh, why worry?" She made a gesture of resignation. "If anything is to happen to me, it'll happen, whatever I do. But I don't anticipate an immediate demise. No one has the slightest reason for killing me—unless, of course, it's some of my former bridge partners. But they're all harmless persons who wouldn't be apt to take extreme measures."

"Still"—Vance kept his tone inconsequental—"no one apparently had any reason for harming your two sisters or your brother."

"On that point I couldn't be altogether lucid. We Greenes don't confide in one another. There's a beastly spirit of distrust in this ancestral domain. We all lie to each other on general principles. And as for secrets! Each member of the family is a kind of Masonic Order in himself. Surely there's some reason for all these shootings. I simply can't imagine any one indulging himself in this fashion for the mere purpose of pistol practice."

She smoked a moment pensively, and went on:

"Yes, there must be a motive back of it all—though for the life of me 'I can't suggest one. f course Julia was a vinegary, unpleasant person, but she went out very little, and worked off her various complexes on the family And yet, she may have been leading a double life for all I know. When these sour old maids break loose from their inhibitions I understand they do the most utterly utter things. But I just can't bring my mind to picture Julia with a bevy of jealous Romeos." She made a comical grimace at the thought.

"Ada, on the other hand, is what we used to call in algebra an unknown quantity. No one but dad knew where she came from, and he would never tell. To be sure, she doesn't get much time to run around—mother keeps her too busy. But she's young and good-looking in a common sort of way"—there was a tinge of venom in this remark—"and you can't tell what connections she may have formed outside the sacred portals of the Greene mansion.—As for Chet, no one seemed to love him passionately. I never heard anybody say a good word for him, but the golf pro at the club, and that was only because Chet tipped him like a parvenu. He had a genius for antagonizing people. Several motives for the shooting might be found in his past."

"I note that you've changed your ideas considerably in regard to the culpability of Miss Ada." Vance spoke incuriously.

Sibella looked a little shamefaced.

"I did get a bit excited, didn't I?" Then a defiance came into her fvoice. "But just the same, she' doesn't belong here. And she's sneaky a little cat. She'd dearly love to see us all fnicely murdered. The only person that seems to like her is cook; but then, Gertrude's a sentimental German who likes everybody She feeds half the stray cats and dogs in the neighborhood. Our rear yard is a regular pound in summer."

Vance was silent for a while. Suddenly he looked up.

"I gather from your remarks, Miss Greene, that you now regard the shootings as the acts of some one from the outside."

"Does any one think anything else?" she asked, with startled anxiety. "I understand there were footprints in the snow both times we were visited. Surely they would indicate an outsider.

"Quite true ," Vance assured her, a bit overemphatically, obviously striving to allay whatever fears his queries may have aroused in her. "Those footprints undeniably indicate that the intruder entered each time by the front door."

"And you are not to have any uneasiness about the future, Miss Greene," added Markham. "I shall give orders to-day to have a strict guard placed over the house, front and rear, until there is no longer the slightest danger of a recurrence of what has taken place here."

Heath nodded his unqualified approbation.

"I'll arrange for that, sir. There'll be two men guarding this place day and night from now on."

"How positively thrilling!" exclaimed Sibella; but I noticed a strange reservation of apprehension in her eyes.

"We won't detain you any longer, Miss Greene," said Markham, rising. "But greatly appreciate it if you would remain in your room until our inquiries here are over. You may, of course, visit your mother."

"Thanks awfully, but I think I'll indulge in a little lost beauty sleep." And she left us with a friendly wave of the hand.

"Who do you want to see next, Mr. Markham?" Heath was on his feet, vigorously relighting his cigar.

But before Markham could answer Vance lifted his hand for silence, and leaned forward in a listening attitude.

"Oh, Sproot!" he called. "Step in here a moment."

OYSTER CONTEST.

Bowles - Ball Celebration in Springville Garage is Jolly Affair.

Walter Bowles and Harold Ball, recent deserters from the ranks of bachelorhood, celebrated their entry into the happy company of the benedicts with an oyster supper Friday night in Bigelow's garage, Springville. They were joined by about twenty-five of the gentlemen from the section of Cavan township, and during the evening received the heartiest felicitations from their friends. Several of those who were present remarked that it was an oversight to have neglected to offer a prize to the guest who consumed the most oysters. While no one kept an exact account of what was eaten, nevertheless there was a suspicion that such a prize would have to go to Sam Staples or Reg Armstrong with honors so even they would have to draw for it.

SECOND MINER DEAD.

Body is Recovered After Rescue Parties Dig Frantically For Hours.

CALGARY, Alta., Feb. 19 (C.P.)—One life had been yielded to-day to a cave-in in the Greenhill Mine in the Blairmore coal fields—but another had been snatched from the treachery of mining toll. Frank Bombardier, after being entombed for 14 hours in the interior of a coal-shaft, yesterday was dragged out alive by rescuers who had labored through the night. But the body of Frank Cheesek, his companion, hours later was recovered, shattering hopes that the second man had not been killed when the mine-wall collapsed.

Indifference Abroad Lowers Chicago Trend

Chicago, Ill., February 19. (C.P.)—Wheat prices here ranged lower early to-day, owing largely to indifference which the Liverpool market showed regarding yesterday's advances on this side of the Atlantic. Argentine shippers were reported as pressing to sell abroad at quotations below competitors.

Opening ½ to 1¼ off Chicago wheat future deliveries afterwards continued to sag. Corn, oats and provisions were also easier, with corn starting 1-8 to ½c down, and subsequently holding near to the initial figures.

ALEXANDER WILL GIVE NO DETAILS

Balks Questioners in Effort to Ascertain How Far the Gov't and Admiralty Agree.

EXPERTS WERE CONSULTED.

LONDON, February 19 (Canadian Press Cable). — Efforts by questioners in the House of Commons to find out how far the Government sees eye to eye with the Admiralty on the naval reductions were frustrated today by the refusal of Right Hon. A. V. Alexander, the First Lord of the Admiralty, to enter into details.

He answered affirmatively the question whether the Government had consulted the naval experts before cutting the 1929 construction program.

Asked whether the naval advice had been unanimous, the First Lord gave a blunt refusal to answer "a question like that."

Another questioner tried a new avenue of approach, with the unexceptionally worded request whether the Government decisions were in general accord with the advice tendered by its advisers.

"We take the responsibility for the decision. I have nothing to add," concluded Mr. Alexander, helped out by a parting quip from the Labor benches at the Conservatives, as to whether the country was governed by Parliament or by the Board of Admiralty.

UTILITY STOCKS LEAD ADVANCE

Liquor Stocks Break Above Low Prices Which have Prevailed For Past Week.

BRAZILIAN ACTIVE.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19. (C.P.)—A general betterment in Dome market trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. After days of listless trading during which prices sank continually lower, the market late yesterday took heart under the stimulating influence of active buying in Brazilian and Candian Wire and Cable "B". This quickened interest carried over this morning, though buying switched from yesterday's leaders to other stocks today, chiefly International Nickel and Walkers.

The utilities maintained their gains made, however, and Brazilian at midday was selling near the high of yesterday and more than a point above the close last night. Bell Telephone was up a point and C.P.R., came out at 717, the bid price at Tuesday's close.

The advance in Walkers was especially well-received by market followers. The liquid stocks have been a drug on the market and Walkers has found a steady resistance to any advance above 10; yet this morning the price finally broke through that figure, rising to a high of 10½. Distillers-Seagram also moved upward with Walkers, selling ¼ of a point higher at 10½.

Nickel climbed to 39 by easy stages and Noranda made a small gain, though turnover was light. The oils were not accorded any better support, though on the other hand trading dwindled to a nominal figure. Ghe demand which several days ago carried Supertest upward renewed to-day and the price shot up over two points. Abitibi advanced a point to 32, Brompton sold at 26½.

Canadian Dredge still was soft and Consolidated Bakeries declined again, selling under 23 this morning.

NEW YORK LIST IS IRREGULAR

Trading Falls Off Due to Absence of Any Extensive Public Participation.

UTILITIES ACTIVE.

By Stanley W. Prenosil (Associated Press Financial Editor.)

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 19.—The stock market drifted irregularly lower to-day despite aggressive bullish demonstrations in a select group of public utilities and specialties. Trading showed a market falling off in volume, due to the absence of any extensive public participation.

Call money held steady at 4½ per cent the time money and bankers' acceptance markets were quiet with no change in rates.

Iron Age reported that "Steel production has made a further slight gain, but has lost the momentum that caused it to rise so rapidly in January. Pig iron and steel prices held steady.

The brisk demand for the public utilities was inspired largely by merger rumors, although there were no new tangible developments along those lines. Brooklyn Union Gas ran up 7½ points to 173½. American Water Works ran up 5 points and one block of 10,000 American and Foreign Power changed hands at 101¼, up 4 5-8.

Gulf States Steel ran up 5¼ points to a new high at 80, on what appeared to be competitive buying between the Republic Steel and American Rolling Mill. interests who are reported to be anxious to secure the Gulf properties.

Simmons broke 4¼ points on what looked like a renewal of bear selling. United Fruit sank four to a new 1930 low at 92. J. I. Case, Norfolk and Western and Vulcan Detinning dropped three points or more.

Coppers were freely sold as a result of the reduction in the Calumet and Arizona dividend, that stock breaking below 75 to a new low for the year, while Anaconda, American Smelting, Kennecott, Magmma and Cerro De Pasco yielded a point or two.

The units correspond to 2½c, 6, 12 and 24 cents. The product of the factories include tin and lacquer wear, clothing, printed fabrics, linens, laces, ribbons, cotton goods and food stuffs. The company has a subsidiary which has started chains in France and has interests in companies making coaps, perfumes, shoes, fur goods and curtains. About 23,000 people are employed.

Net earnings in the fiscal year ending January 31, 1929 amounted to $2,422,335 as compared with $2,369,250 the preceding year. Sales for the first 9 months of the 1930 fiscal year were far heavier than those for the corresponding periods of the 1929 year.

Funded debt totals $14,843,000 in 6 per cent gold 6 per cent bonds and 38,249,224 reich marks. Capital stock outstanding consists of 8,000,000 reich marks in shares of 100 reich marks par and 62,000,000 reich marks of 1,000 reich marks par. The American shares were issued in the ratio of 25 American shares for each 1,000 R. M. par value. Dividends are paid on the American shares at the prevailing rate of R. M. exchange. The present rate is 12 per cent annually in R. M.

As of January 31, 1929, total current assets were $34,993,574, current liabilities were $14,183,351 and net working capital was $20,810,223. Book value of the American shares was $14.28.

NEW BOND ISSUES READILY ACCEPTED

Speculators Subscribe For Shawinigan Water and Power Company Debentures.

TORONTO, Feb. 19. (Special to Examiner.)—With the shares of Canada Wire and Cable displaying strength in the market added interest is given to the annual general meeting which will be held at Leaside on March 17 next. The financial statement to be presented will be the first since the recent financing and is expected to confirm unofficial eports of substantial earnings on the class "B" stock. At current levels the price of the class "B" stock has almost reached the point where the purchase warrants attached to the preferred become profitable the preferred issue was offered in April, 1929, at $100 carrying warrants entitling the holder to purchase one share of class "B" at $40 per share for each preferred share. This privelege remains open until April 1, 1934.

Canadian Dredging.

Canadian Dredge and Dock Company, Limited, ended their fiscal year in January last and present indications are that earnings for the year will be below those of 1928-1929 but sufficient to meet the annual dividend of $3 a share on the ordinary stock 1½ times over. It is anticipated earnings will be in the neighborhood of $4 or $4.50 against $6.48 in the preceding year. An official statement of earnings for the first six months of the year showed this company to be doing well with net reported at $319,915 for the half year, after depreciation, reserves for contingencies, etc., but before taxes, compared with $629,950 in the twelve months ended January 31, 1929. In the latter half of 1929 operations were not so profitable and, it is understood, the favorable pace of the first six months was not maintained to the end.

Meet Good Reception.

Public offering of new bond issues of Canadian municipalities and industrial corporations are meeting with a good reception. The offering of $15,000,000 5 per cent, forty year bonds of the Shawinigan Water and Power Company made to-day was readily subscribed for by investors in Canada and in United States. Of the total $5,000,000 was reserved for the Canadian market and the balance is being placed in the United States at a price of 98.50 to yield 5.08 per cent. The last issue of bonds by this corporation carried interest at the rate of 4½ per cent and was sold to yield approximately 4.70 per cent. Another issue to meet with a ready response was that of the greater Winnipeg Water district, amounting to $1,900,000 and offered at 99.75 to return over 5 per cent.

The $5,590,000 series debentures of the city of Toronto awarded Tuesday to a syndicate composed of the National City Co., Dillon Read and Co., Harris Forbes. Guaranty Company of New York. Bankers Company of New York, Dominion Securities Corporation, and the Canadian Bank of Commerce issuing offered in New York on a 5 per cent basis and reports at noon indicated the entire issue would be completely sold before the day ends. A favorable rate of exchange gave the New York market an advantage over the Canadian market and the bonds brought a better price there and could have been obliged here. Bidding for this issue was the keenest witnessed in years, the second tender, being only 3 cents per $100 below the price paid by the successful syndicate. At the price paid of 97.597 the money is costing city of Toronto 5.08 per cent.

PRISONERS PAY WITH LIFE

AUBURN, N.Y., Feb. 19. (C.P.)—William Force, Jesse Thomas and Claude Udwine, Auburn prisoners, this morning were sentenced by Supreme Court Justice Benjamin D. Cunningham to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison the week of March 31, for the murder of inmate Henry Sullivan, in the Dec. 11 Auburn prison riot. Notice of appeal was given on behalf of the men.

DULL SESSION ON STANDARD

Lack of Constructive News Considered Partially Responsible For Lack of Interest.

LINDSLEY GROUP SOFT.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19. (C.P.)—Poth price movements and trading on the mining market during the early session were particularly listless, the period being one of the dullest experienced in some time. The lack of constructive news in considered partially responsible for the absence of action and the waiting attitude of the general public is also having its effect in reduced activity.

About the only point of interest was the continued softness of the Lindsley roup, Sherritt Gordon, whose annual meeting is being held this afternoon, dropping 16 to $2.75, and losing most of the ground regained late yesterday. Falconbridge was just holding while Sudbury Basin and Ventures receded 5 each to $3.65 and $2.20, respectively.

International Nickel was the strongest issue among the higher priced groups, Noranda and Hudson Bay easing a quarter each on very light demand. The large increase shown in stocks of refined copper during January has had an effect which is only partially offset by the decrease shown in production rate.

Teck Hughes displayed the only firmness in the golds, selling up 10 to $6.35 with turnover relatively small. Wright-Hargreaves softened and Howey and Kirkland Lake Gold exhibited slight losses at noon.

The Pacific group, with the exception of Big Missouri which dropped a point, was unchanged, and some small gains appeared in the general list. Amulet sold up 4, Towagmac 5, Manitoba Basin 2 and Abana and Siscoe a point each. Mining Corp. moved back to its old levels around $3, showing a loss of 5 at $3.05 at noon. The oils were mixed, Ajax gaining 2 while Home Oil fell 10 and Alberta 3.

Financial News and Briefs

A Special Service to the Examiner

MASSEY HARRIS COMPANY

One of the features of the financial statement of Massey-Harris Company, Limited, has been the marked improvement in the net working capital during the past three years. This has been secured mainly through issues of bonds and of capital stock. The necessity for strength in the way of working capital was demonstrated in the 1929 report, when inventories were increased nearly $6,000,000, from $25,830,739 to $31,814,545. The increase was due partly to finished stocks provided in anticipation of a normal harvest in Western Canada last year, which was not realized, and partly to the fact that the company has factories in several countries which make it necessary to carry increased quantities both of raw materials and of finished goods. Had the company not possessed ample working capital to meet both these conditions, the one unfavorable and the latter favorable, banking credit undoubtedly would have had to be secured or operations curtailed. Another increased outlet for the additional working capital lay in bills and accounts receivable, which rose during the past year from $16,928,914 to $22,810,950, or almost $6,000,000, a gain curiously enough almost equal to that of inventories. This increase in amounts owing the company was due mainly to enlarged business. Collections, at least from a percentage standpoint, were the best in the past twelve years.

Two Items Taken Into Current Liabilities: Reserve for Receivable and Taxes.

In figuring out the total of net working capital in the table given below FINANCIAL COUNSEL thought it best to include among "current liabilities" two Reserve items in the balance sheet, namely one of $2,237,985 as a reserve against receivables, and $395,410 as a reserve against taxes, on the assumption that both might reasonably be called on during the year, a portion at least of the reserve for receivables. Probably only a portion, for this amount now represents nearly 10% of the total as against actual losses over a period of years of only 2%. It could be argued also against taking this in as a current liability, on the ground that an amount of $925,000 as accrued interest on receivables was not added to the total as a credit, and might reasonably be considered as sufficient to offset any losses. However, taking in the reserve against receivables as a liability, perhaps extreme conservatism, there would still remain as net working capital $46,768,191 as against $34,947,353 for 1928, while in 1925 the total was only $20,115,769.

CANADA MALTING SHARES IN BETTER DEMAND.

Quite a little interest was created by the broadened-out market which developed for Canada Malting Company's shares in Toronto and Montreal. This demand apparently met very little stock around the lower price levels of aweek ago and as a result on the really the shares about made up their recently lost ground. FINANCIAL COUNSEL has already referred to the position of the company, indicating a satisfactory experience in the first five months of operations of the current fiscal year. The company's marketing experience has been rather better due to the narrowing down of the differential as between barley prices at Fort William and Minneapolis, with the spread now around 3c where about a year ago it was as great as 18 and 20 c. this giving American malt manufacturers an opportunity to dump their products in Canada.

It is reported that people closely acquainted with Canada Malting have been taking advantage of the depressed market for the shares on the promise that the company's position was satisfactory and that it could continue to earn the $1.50 annual dividend on the stock and still leave an ample margin for application to surplus account.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19. (Special to Examiner.)—It has often been remarked that the action of the mining market created mining news—that price movement was the factor by which the value of developments in a company's affairs were judged—and the present dearth of important information may possibly be directly traceable to the apparent lack of incentive for gathering it existing in circles surrounding the market at the present time.

Shareholders of Sherritt Gordon may have something to talk about for the next few days following the general meeting this afternoon but the action of the stock during the past few days does not indicate any announcements of importance.

The increase shown in the production of silver in Canada during January does not help matters much, stocks of the metal in this country having risen from 822,000 ounces on January 1 to 1,244,000 ounces on February 1, last, compared with 344,000 on February 1, 1929. A significant point in the report on world statistics is that stocks in India were down nearly 4,000,000 ounces on January 22, from the December 22, 1929, figure while stocks in Shanghai were up a like amount for practically the same period.

In view of the fact stocks of refined copper showed a large increase in January buying of the metal continues hand to mouth fabricators still holding off for more decisive indications of future trend. The reduction in world production is encouraging and it is believed February figures should show still further material decrease in output.

Bunker Hill Mines.

It is expected that the annual report of the Bunker Hill Extension Mines which will contain an outline of the past years work and the balance sheet, will be issued in a short time. It is understood the company has liquid assets of approximately $165,000 at present.

Many derricks are reported to be suffering from high winds in the Turner valley, and there is some time of operations being temperarily suspended until the force of the wind lessens. Several roofs were torn from houses and Dalhousie no six, Royalite nos. 17, 21, 9 and 10, Aerolite, Mercury No. 5, Illinois Alberta and one not identified in the south end are numbered among those blown down.

WISE CHOICE OF TIME FOR SPLITTING C.P.R. STOCK

Some question has been raised as to the choice of time by the directors of the Canadian Pacific Railway for splitting the common stock. It has been said that the present was inopportune; that the market would not respond readily to "good news" such as this; that it would have been wiser to wait until the spring or even next fall, when, the announcement would have appealed more to "market sentiment", and would have exercised a greater influence upon the price of the old and the to-be-split stock.

FINANCIAL COUNSEL is strongly of the opinion that the objections that have been raised comprise in themselves the strongest proof of the wisdom of the C.P.R. management in taking the step it did. A few days ago it was urged in these Bulletins that any manipulation of the stock that might send it up substantially, would only defeat the object the Canadian Pacific had in mind, namely to extend the number of Canadian shareholders. Had the split stock jumped say to $65 a share, where it would have represented practically the high of last year around $260, the "appeal" to Canadian investors would in large measure have been dulled. In other words, Canadian Pacific Railway new stock at 65 obviously has not anything like the investment value or attractiveness under present market conditions, that tock around 55 or 56 or 57 would have. Had the directors chosen last August or September, or even the early days of October, it is conceivable that the split stock might have been driven up as high as 75 a share, representing an equivalent of 300 on the present $100 par stock, and at that level showing a yield basis of only 3 1-3%. Stories might have been circulated of an immediate intention of increasing the dividend rate beyond the $2.5 that will be paid when the stock is split. There might also have been stories of an intention to segregate other assets of the company from the railway properties and operations, or indeed, a flood of other rumors might have been utilized to run the stock up to absurd levels.

Coming as the management did in what may be termed the "ebb" time of the market, this welcome news has had a very orderly aftermath. At present levels, C.P.R. common stock stands as one of the most attractive investments in the whole Canadian list, and Canadians who desire to share in the growth of Canada as represented in one of its greatest industrial corporations and public utilities, should find a purchase of this stock one of the most satisfactory among their high grade investments.

ASSAULT CASE IS ADJOURNED

E. S. Alger, of Oshawa, is Fined $25 For Speeding.

POLL TAXES PAID.

Charged with assault and doing actual bodily harms, Maurice Sweeney appeared before Police Magistrate Langley this morning and pleaded not guilty. Arthur Eggleton, the youthful informant, claimed that Sweeney, a big man, "took a punch" at him on Monday, right on one of the main business streets. Eggleton wore a bruised cheek into court, and stated that the feud with Sweeney was of some two years' duration. Both stated that they wanted to see their lawyers before continuing the case, and the magistrate adjourned its hearing until Friday.

Ewart S. Alger, of Oshawa, led Traffic Officer Ted Hornick a merry chase from Springville to Bailieboro on a recent wild winter's night, but this morning in court he paid out $25 and costs. Alger, according to the officer, was hitting a terrific speed over the frozen road.

Several names of local men were called out in court for not having paid their poll tax, but it was found that all had settled with the tax collector just previous to their cases coming up.

FRANCE TO BE GIVEN CHANCE

for parity with France or any other Continental power.

In a conference with Secretary Stimson and Premier MacDonald yesterday Dino Grandi, head of the Italian delegation, outlined the principal points in the forthcoming statement. Italy will be the last of the five Powers to make formal publication of its conference policy.

It was understood that principally the Italian statement, besides reiterating the Rome contention for parity with any other Continental Power, would uphold the thesis that naval needs are not absolute, as France claims, but are relative, and that no level tonnage is too low providing other countries reduce proportionally.

May Cause Serious Question

In the event there is considerable delay in forming a new French Govment—and private reports received by one delegation predicted some time would elapse before a settlement—a serious question before the conference would arise in just what procedure to follow.

It was believed generally nothing could be done without French participation but not one of the chief delegates would even unofficially utter any forecast. The experts expected to have plenty of technical work to occupy their time, even though the French are not present, but it was realized that this cannot proceeded for very long.

It was considered probable that Mr. MacDonald would call a meeting of the chief delegates within the next few days to discuss the situation and receive proposals on how to continue the conference.

RAINEY LAKE PROVES PUZZLE

United States to the fact that the bills now pending would fix water levels in defiance of the International Joint Commission and treaty rights. The State Department has asked the Public Lands Committee to add to the bills clauses which would protect the Commission's duties.

Backus holds such addition would have the effect of killing both bills. He wants the International tribunal to pass upon what shall be done in the border waters.

Clause Agreeable to Nolan

Representative Nolan informs the Canadian Press he is quite agreeable to the inclusion of a protective clause in his bill and is not of the opinion that such inclusion would destroy its effect.

The outcome of the legislative situation on the Hill is doubtful, but the probability is that nothing will come of it. The International Joint Commission is now bringing to fruition its survey work in the district.

The preliminary report of the Commission's engineers is ready and the Commissioners should soon be able to begin consideration.

A hundred years ago crude oil came from a well in Kentucky. The black dirty stuff was called "the devil's tar."

VALUATORS FOR UNITED COUNTIES COMMENCE WORK

START IN BOWMANVILLE.

Towns Will Be Assessed First, With Rural Municipalities Last.

The three valuators appointed by the council of the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham began on Monday their big task of evaluating the ratable property of the two counties for the purpose of obtaining a new basis for the equalization of the counties' assessment this year.

The three men who were appointed by the counties council three weeks ago are Colonel T. J. Johnston, of Peterborough, George Thompson of Cobourg, and R. J. Rowe of Clarke township, Durham County. They held several organization meetings in Cobourg last week, and although it was suggested that the new appraisal might begin in that town, the Board finally decided to swing over to the western border of the two municipalities.

It is the intention of the valuators to confine their work to the urban municipalities first, and the townships will be left until the snow is off the ground.

Absolutely Free.

In discussing briefly the preliminaries which this organization has already gone through, Colonel Johnston said he emphasized to his associates that he was absolutely open-minded, and wished to give the two counties the best possible service. Mr. Thompson proposed that the work might as well be begun in Cobourg, but Colonel Johnston reminded him in a jocular way that the present Mayor of Cobourg had stated in his election appeal that he had been successful in opposing last year the efforts that were put forth in the counties' council to revise the equalized assessment. That fact, however, was not a serious consideration in the decision to put Bowmanville under the microscope first.

Mr. Thompson represents the towns and villages, Mr. Rowe the rural municipalities, and Colonel Johnston is the independent member.

When a White Collar Man "Goes Army"

Perhaps he doesn't learn a few things!

DON'T envy a man who "only has to work a typewriter."

So we were told by Mr. Solon S. Bloom of 3503 Woodbrook Avenue, Baltimore, Md., whose health began to give way because his work gave him no bodily exercise.

"I decided to get away to a military training camp," says Mr. Bloom, "thinking the rough and tumble with the army would do me good for a month. I asked the doctor what to do about my condition. 'I've seen men, I've known men,' he said. 'I know what they eat, drink, and how they live. I know cathartics, physics, and all the ways men try to keep themselves regular—and the only two that go together well are men and Nujol. Nujol soothes and heals the membranes and expels bodily poisons normally, naturally, easily, so that you are regular as clock-work.'"

That was what Mr. Bloom learned when he left his typewriter and went into the army. If you are like most other people, you too will find that Nujol will make all the difference in the world in the way you feel.

Remember Nujol is not a medicine, for it contains no drugs of any kind. It is simply bodily lubrication that everybody needs.

You can get a bottle of Nujol at any good drug store, in a sealed package, for the price of a couple of good cigars. If you will start today and try it for two weeks you will agree that Nujol is the easy normal way to keep well and make a success out of your life. You will be astonished at the results!

The many friends of the Misses Voyer, who are spending the winter with their sister in Farnham, Quebec, will be pleased to hear that they are both enjoying better health.

Mrs. H. Kiernan is spending a few weeks with friends in Peterborough.

In a letter to a friend here, Mrs. M. McNichol wishes to be remembered by her Havelock friends. Her son Alphonse was home from the Seminary for Christmas, which will be his last visit to the parental home until after his ordination to the priesthood, a year hence.

The many friends of Mrs. Kiernan, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Penrose in Toronto, will be pleased to hear that in a letter to a friend, she states that she is feeling better now than for some time.

Mr. Percy Newall, who has been working in the woods east of Havelock, was knocked unconscious on Friday last when he fell from the sleigh he was driving, and alighter on his head. He is confined to his home for a few days.

There was a mild commotion in the school yard on Thursday about noon, when a gigantic icicle was seen to be hanging in a rather threatening position from the room, just over the science room. There was great danger to the children if it should fall during the recreation period, so after a consultation among the teachers, and caretaker, Mr. Buchanan procured a long pole, and from the window of the science room knocked the overhanging ice to the ground.

Mr. Will Copp is confined to the house with a sprained back which he sustained on Saturday afternoon at the skating rink. He may not be able to attend to his duties at the C.P.R. for a week or ten days.

Miss Mary Anderson, of the Peterborough Business College, spent the week-end at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Elmhurst, of Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Heuston, of Indian Road, Toronto, spent Friday with Mr. Heuston's sister, Mrs. Fred Watson.

BRIDGENORTH.

Misses Hilda and Olive Bell have returned to their home in Smith after spending a few days with Miss Greta McColl of Lakefield.

Mrs. T. Black, of Bridgenorth, has returned home after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. W. McConkey, of Peterborough.

Mr. Russel, of Peterborough, spent Monday with Rev. W. S. Edgar of Chemong Road.

Mrs. Herbert McConkey, of Smith, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Fitzgerald of Peterborough.

Mrs. Gratten Telford and family, of Smith, were recent guests at the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison, of East Emily.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Mann, of Smith, spent a few days with the latter's brother and sister, Mr. Herbert Jackson of Orange Corners, Mrs Evans Storey, of East Emily.

Mrs. Harold Lewis and son Jack, of Smith, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McGregor.

Mr. Barret, of Woodstock, Mr. Rodgers of Campbellford, and Mr. Brown of Peterborough were recent visitors at the home of Mr. J. Gordon Mann, of Smith.

CAVAN.

Mrs. Gerald Shurtle, of Hamilton, and Mrs. Willis Bryans, of Campbellcroft, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Howden, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bigelow and daughter, Eleanor, of Peterborough, visited Mrs. Bigelow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Swain, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pritchard have returned home after spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Moncrief, of Fraserville.

Mrs. H. Snyder entertained a number of ladies on Friday, it being in the nature of a "pot-luck dinner." Amongst those present were Mrs. A. B. Kennedy, Mrs. A. Byers, Mrs. Will Seymour, Mrs. R. Syer, Mrs. M. Mathett, Mrs. Margaret Staples and Mrs. Will Tinney.

Mrs. J. C. Swain spent the week-end in Peterborough.

A progressive euchre party was held in St. John's Parish Hall on Friday evening. Miss Margaret McCamus won the ladies' prize, E. Touchbourne the gentlemen's and B. Fee the consolation prize.

"PERMANENT PARTNERS OF THE CONTINENT"

In Ringing Declaration President Macaulay Describes This As Effect of Sun Life Company's Investment Policy.

Its Wisdom Vindicated in Wonderful Report For Past Year.

MONTREAL, February 19—A most lucid explanation of how little the fluctuations of Wall Street affect companies which buy securities, not for resale, but for investment, was given by President T. B. Macaulay at the annual meeting of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada. He reduced to the plainest terms what is obscure to many, when he compared the Stock Exchange to an auction room where prices fluctuate according to the mental condition or the bank balance of the bidders, and not according to the intrinsic value of articles on sale. Mr. Macaulay expressed comparative indifference to these things, his company being concerned primarily and chiefly with the continuance or increase of dividends on the sound securities held by his company.

Impressive Vindication of Investment Policy

And judged by that test, the head of of the Sun Life Company surely had remarkable vindication of his investment policy in the report he submitted to a crowded meeting of enthusiastic policyholders. Not only was he able to report new assurances for the year of over $650,000,000 which carries his company well on to the three billion mark of assurances in force—he was able to show profit earnings which have risen close to $43,000,000. And as though in mockery of the gyrations of the Stock Market, the dividends actually being paid on Sun Life stocks are $3,374,000 in excess of those payable on these shares when purchased, while the rights and stock privileges have been worth about $17,000,000.

Great National Future Shared by Company

"Through our large stock holding," he said, "we have become permanent partners in the great utility and other corporations which furnish such essential service that they may almost be said to be part of our national life.

"We believe in the future of our entire nations—both Canada and the United States. What will they be fifty years from now? Does anyone doubt their future?

"We have hitched our investment policy to the star of this Continent." Mr. Macaulay declared amid loud applause, "and, in particular, to our great cities, and, just as surely as they continue to grow and prosper, so surely will our investments grow and prosper."

The President's Speech

Mr. Macaulay spoke as follows:

"It is with very special pleasure that I move the adoption of this fifty-ninth annual report of the Company. We have grown accustomed to great and increasing prosperity, but the achievements of the past year surpass all previous records in even our history.

"The new Assurances paid for reached the huge total of $654-000,000. Even more impressive, however, is the fact that this is an increase of more than forty-eight per cent. over last year.

"The Assurances in force now exceed $2,400,000,000, an increase of over half a billion. But a few years ago we rejoiced at reaching the one billion mark; we now have passed the second billion and are well on towards the third billion.

"The Income has reached $172-000,000, and the Assets are now $568,000,000.

"More important still, the profit earnings of the year have risen to nearly $43,000,000. We have as usual applied a considerable proportion of these earnings to further strengthening the position of the Company.

"Another $10,000,000 has been deducted from the market values shown in the report, raising that item to $30,000,000; $1,000,000 has been written off the Company's buildings, while over $2,000,000 has been added to our various special reserves.

"The sum of $22,600,000 has been distributed as profits to our policyholders, and in addition to all this nearly $6,000,000 has been added to the undistributed surplus, now more than $60,000,000.

"This wonderful showing is, as always, based on a valuation of our securities enormously below the market quotations actually existing at the close of the year, so that the real strength of the Company is only partially disclosed.

Stock Exchange a Mere Auction Mart

"That such results should be achieved in the face of the Stock Exchange panic, of which we have heard so much, may at first appear strange. It is, however, not so surprising, for we are apt to over-estimate the importance of that crisis, serious though it was. What is the Stock Exchange? It is merely a place where public auctions are held. It differs from other auctions only in the articles sold, and in the volume of the transactions. It is no more true of this auction than of other auctions that the prices bid are an infallible index of the real value of the articles dealt in. The quotations fluctuate with the optimism or the pessimism of the bidders. They are frequently much better evidence as to the bank accounts and credit of the bidders than of the value of the stocks bought and sold.

Business as Usual

"That was exactly the situation during the recent price reaction. It was purely a Stock Exchange panic. It was not caused by any trouble in general business. We did not see the closing down of factories, wholesale discharges of employees, and other symptoms of business distress such as marked the great depressions to which our minds revert. Outside the ranks of the unfortunate speculators there was little to show that anything unusual was happening in the Wall Street auction rooms. On the wildest days of the reaction the business of the country went on as usual. Men continued to work, children continued to be born, the population continued to grow, the great electric companies continued to increase their output, enlarging their power houses or building new ones. The great corporations whose stocks we own continued to expand, continued to prosper and to earn even larger dividends, just as if there were no dealings in their shares at all. What happened was merely that last June, in a wild burst of enthusiasm, speculators bid up prices beyond normal levels, and this in turn produced a wave of selling which began as profit-taking, but ended in a panic which carried prices as much below normal levels as they had previously been forced above them. The prices of November last, of course, showed a great drop from the quotations of mid-September, but in reality that great reaction did little more than remove the temporary bulge caused by the over-enthusiastic bidding of the previous months of the year. The actual intrinsic value of the shares was, of course, not affected by the fact that the speculators had exhausted their bank accounts and had had to lower their bids.

Dividends on Securities Greatly Increased

"The investor who buys for permanent holding is but little concerned as to the prices which may be bid for his stocks by those who frequent the Exchanges. What interests him is to know that his dividends will not only be paid regularly but will gradually increase with the passing years. I will apply this test to our own holdings. At present time the dividends actually being paid on our stocks are $3,374,000 in excess of the dividends payable on those same shares when we purchased them. This is equal to one and a quarter per cent. per annum on the book value of all our holdings. We have also received rights and stock privileges worth about $17,000,000. And the end is not yet. Even since the slump began on say October first, the dividends payable on our stocks have increased about $1,500,000 and we have received rights with a value even in these markets of $1,100,000.

No Losses by Permanent Investors

"To imagine that loss was caused to any except those carrying shares on margin because market prices in 1929 marched up a hill and then marched down again, is to remind me how an old friend told me mournfully some years ago that he had lost over a million dollars during the preceding twelve months. When I replied sympathetically, he added with equal mournfulness: 'Yes, I have lost over a million by not buying stocks a year ago when they were low.' The loose supposed to have been suffered by permanent investors, such as the Sun Life, are like those of my jocular friend—they are not losses at all, but merely profits which we might have made had we known just when the peak was, and had altered our practice so as to sell out at that time.

Following the Continent's "Star"

"When investing our funds, we look always to the distant future ten, twenty, thirty years hence. Through our large stockholdings we are become permanent partners in the great utility and other corporations which furnish such essential service that they may almost be said to be part of the national life. We believe in the future of Montreal, of New York, of Chicago, and of all our great centres of population. We believe even more in the future of our entire nations—both Canada and the United States. What will they be fifty years from now? Does any one doubt their future? We have hitched our investment policy to the star of this Continent, and in particular to our great cities, and just as surely as they continue to grow and prosper, so surely will our investments grow and prosper. What need we care for the moods or pocketbooks of in-and-out speculators? Why should we reverse our policy and throw our great holdings on the market for some possible temporary gain? Could we be sure that we would ever get our places back? We prefer to continue as permanent partners.

Sun Impregnable on Blackest Day

"We must, of course, consider market quotations when preparing our annual report, but our policy is so to undervalue our holdings that there can be a tremendous drop in prices without even reaching the figures at which our securities are carried in our accounts. Last year we announced that we had a margin of $100,000,000 to provide for just such a possible market crisis as we have experienced. We expected a reaction, but I confess that we did not expect one of such severity. Our assets have now been tested by one of the worst financial reactions in history, and you will be interested to know that the provision made by us for such a contingency proved more than ample, for even on the blackest of black days we still had about $35,000,000 of the amount intact as a margin of excess valuation still remaining to protect our surplus. I am now able to say that even after distributing the large profits which we have announced, after making the further reserves to strengthen our position, and after adding $6,000,000 to our declared surplus, we have today the entire margin of $100,000-000 again intact. The blow has fallen, the slump has come, the values are marked down and we are in a stronger position than ever before in our history.

"This practice of undervaluing our securities is now a permanent feature of our investment policy. I look forward to the time in the not distant future when we will have an undisclosed margin so huge that even the present large figure will appear comparatively small. It is our ambition that the values placed on our securities will always be buttressed by safeguards so great that market fluctuations will affect us no more than the winds that whistle around our building.

Securities Compared

"I would not have you suppose that I am blind to the merits also of well selected bonds and mortgages as investments. There is much to be said for them. Their values, nominally at least, do not fluctuate greatly. They are particularly attractive at times when stock quotations appear unduly high, as in the latter part of last year. But while they offer greater resistance to price reactions, they have no power of growth. Personally I prefer securities that live and advance, that keep pace with national growth and development—securities with a future, rather than securities which, even if protected against deterioration (not always successfully) by gold caskets, can, at best, only remain stationary and unchanging by the side of the road while the army of progress marches past. There is a happy medium. I think that our Company should always have a large amount invested in choice bonds, but I also think that in the best interests of our policyholders a considerable proportion of our assets should always be invested in high grade progressive common stocks.

A Future that Defies Prophecy

"It is a wonderful report that we present, but I always think of the present as a mere vantage ground from which to get an ever further vision into the future which must be planned for. What is our future, to be? The realities of the present are far in advance of anything that we ever imagined possible but a few years ago, and the outlook now is brighter than ever. I hardly dare to make a prophecy. If any of you care to calculate what our position will be if we can maintain anything like our present rate of progress for even the next few years, the results will surprise you. We already occupy a remarkable position. We have a character and an individuality all our own. We have an enthusiastic army of policyholders, and we enjoy the confidence of the public in a very unusual degree. We can, I think, look forward to a future so glorious that even the achievements of the present will then seem small. And let us never forget that every extension of our business is an extension of service and blessing to humanity".

RICHARD HALL, Limited

UNITY ON THE PART OF FARMERS

back for the rest of its life. Not if the child is to acquire the characteristics of an adult it must practice until it reaches the full stature of manhood.

In all human history there is no failure. All the so-called failures of the past are mere stepping stones and so the same thought is true of the Farmer's organizations. If you are discouraged by lack of response in your community let me assure you, there is no such thing as failure and that you are building a great movement — it's growth is naturally slow because of its greatness."

Social Plan.

"The proper study of anything can only be made when we study it in relation to other things and so if we are to understand what we are doing we must study society out of which our movement emerged.

To properly develop his remarks which had a bearing on the structural development of society Mr. Irvine prepared a chart but first explained that he intends to present an analogy between an amoeba and the social structure.

The social plasm was the term which he gave to the earliest forms of social endeavour on this continent, contending that when our forefathers were hewing homes out of the willerness on the St. Lawrence, they were the same kind of people, motivated by the same urges and same hopes and all performing the same kind of work. Later on developed the desire of these people to branch out into different spheres of labour, with the result that the social plasm was now divided into four separate divisions, namely traders, professions, homesteaders and tradesmen. At this stage however, one could still go from one end of society to the other without any serious difficulty coming in between. The work was still interchangeable.

The next diagram on Mr. Irvine's chart however, showed a different state of affairs in which the social structure was beginning to break up into distinct and varied divisions, each almost inaccessible of approach by the other. The divisions in order, in this instance, were manufacturing, business, professions, farmers and labour and next we have the modern stage of social structure with the divisions finance, manufacturing, business, professions, farmers and lastly labour. It is not through developing yet, nor are you through developing said the speaker, and in this development certain parts which were very much needed are not needed now and instead of being of service are becoming a menace to our lives.

One of the most drastic revolutions ever known in human history was wrought with the discovery of steam and there have been more changes in the last century and a half than in all the previous history of mankind. This is an age of specialization. You as farmers are looking after the food, the professions look after your bodily and intellectual needs, business looks to the distribution of goods whilst manufacture looks after the fashioning of the implements of production. Specialised functions of various groups constitutes Canadian Society.

No Lack of Production.

As soon as you farmers become conscious that you are performing the function for which you have been fitted by nature, you become organized to make your contribution to society the greatest and most efficient possible. I hope that we will go on to improve, to produce more and better things with less work. It is not that we lack production. You are now producing sufficient to bring to you that status of living which will mark you as equal to any other class in the community.

Dealing at some length with the factor of exchange, Mr. Irvine said that under the present conditions of society a farmer no longer produces everything he requires and he therefore exchanges so much wheat or turnips for a car or other commodity which he requires — forget about money in this case, he told his audience, because it is quite true that whatever you pay out represents part of your production whatever it may happen to be. Finance is controlled by one class that controls it not that it might function as a distributing factor but that it might bring profits to themselves. But that is a subject in itself, he added as an afterthought.

The gist of his argument was that whilst the farmer has his products to market and is entitled to a fair return for his labour, he is unfortunately being exploited and is not being treated on a basis of economic equality in the exchange of products.

Dumped Wheat on Market.

To bring out the full significance of his contention the speaker cited the case which was quite common in the West before the days of the Wheat Pool. A farmer would drive several miles to town with a load of wheat, often times in very cold weather. Arriving at the elevator he would ask 'how is the price today?' and would probably be informed that there had been a sudden drop on the wheat market. This placed the farmer in the necessity of selling his wheat at whatever price he could obtain. The absurdity of the method was brought home to the audience when the speaker, said can you imagine a storekeeper driving out to a farm and asking a farmer, 'what will you give me for this suit of clothes'? No! he would wait until the farmer came to buy from him and would lay a suit on the counter and say this is so much, with the implication that the customer could either take it or leave it.

"I am not asking that power be given to agriculturists that I would not extend to other classes" exclaimed Mr. Irvine, "but I do ask that we have the right to barter with those with whom we have to exchange our goods" (applause). "Less than that makes us slaves, I don't ask for more power than that. I would be ashamed to take it, and equally ashamed to take less."

"I want to insist that there is first a necessity for co-operation on the part of the individual group we call the agriculturists. What I can do to raise the price of wheat as an individual is nothing. The reason we have been so weak in the past is because there are so many of us without proper organization. Our great task is to get all the farmers to speak with one voice. That is our job and that is what the wheat pool is for."

Speaking of the recent scare in the wheat market he said that the Wheat Pool has done all we expected it to do and has been feeding out our wheat to the world's mouth just as fast as that mouth could swallow it. If we had not had the Wheat Pool last fall when all the wheat came from the Argentine, Canadian wheat would have been dumped along with it and would have dropped the price to 50c per bushel. We still have our wheat, however and it would have been a bad job had we sold it."

Co-operation Necessary.

In his concluding remarks he pointed out the necessity for co-operation amongst the various divisions of society and said if you knock the miner on the head you will freeze to death for lack of coal, and if he knocks you on the head he will starve to death. Competition has no place in the present order of things. Can you imagine anything more destructive or foolish than each of these groups of society struggling against each other, when each group is essentially interdependant, and necessary to the life of the nation? Such a state of affairs is daily threatening civilization itself.

All we need is the development of intelligence and a spirit of co-operation to make Canada the greatest nation in the world and to make the world a place fit for humanity to live in.

The conclusion of Mr. Irvine's address which obviously created a deep impression, was greeted with an outburst of applause and in a few well-chosen words the chairman voiced his thanks on behalf of the members of the branch, describing the address as inspiring and instructive.

A splendid programme of music was provided through the earlier part of the evening by the Coldsprings orchestra a talented group of young musicians, whilst Miss Helen Staples, the ever-popular elocutionist provided much amusement with her humorous monologue "Levinsky's Wedding" which was followed by an encore number. Community singing was also greatly enjoyed by all present.

ber for South Huron, went after the Government on the subject of equalization of Hydro rates. The farmers, he said, have not had a fair deal in contrast to the urban dwellers of Ontario. In some districts, power was much higher than in others. For instance, in the city of Owen Sound, he said, a charge of $17.70 a killowatt hour was charged; one mile outside the corporation, the charge was $49.80, and eight miles outside the city, the charge was $104.

Mr. Medd advocated the changing over to a flat rate for the entire Province. This could be done gradually, he believed and could not work a hardship on any one section or class.

Changing over to the subject of the dairy industry of Canada, and Ontario particularly, the member for South Huron attacked the Australian Treaty of the Federal Government on the grounds that it was working a hardship on dairy farmers. Canada's imports of butter in 1929 doubled the figures for the preceding year, he claimed and laid all the blame on the fact that New Zealand butter, to the extent of 4,000,000 pounds had entered the country. He believed that the best way for the dairymen of Canada to meet this competition was for them to increase the quality of the butter and to take steps to discourage the sale of second grades.

Pleased With Permit Action

The member for South Huron said he was glad to know that the Government had issued instructions that liquor permits were not to be sold to young men between the years of 21 and 25 without the consent of their parents. This regulation applied only to those who lived at home. This, he said, was a move in the right direction, but he believed the Government should not discriminate.

"'Amendments to the Liquor Act to curb the ever-increasing number of drunken drivers on the highways is needed, and needed badly," he said. He recommended to the Government study of the Bill introduced by Lord Russell in the House of Lords recently under which a drunken driver was liable to four months in jail and a fine of $250 upon conviction. Friends who were in his car with him were treated as accessories and were liable to jail terms. Teaching of temperance and total abstinence should be made compulsory in public and high schools and he advocated that the Government spend "'some of its liquor profits in an advertising campaign to this effect."

In a brief reference to some of the anomalies unearthed in a study of the comparative statements of the party votes at the two last provincial elections, Mr. Medd said that he believed something had to be done to restore representation by population in Ontario. He suggested that the alternative vote system in three-cornered contests and the proportional representation vote system in large centres might accomplish the desired results. As far as the five-year term for the Legislature was concerned, he favored it, he said.

Macaulay Differs

Leo Macaulay, Conservative member for South York believed that the suggestions of Mr. Medd were impractical as he could not be convinced that election figures for the mass of the people could be compared. To the Liberal Party in Ontario he held out a ray of hope, pointing out that other parties in other provinces had been in worse straits numerically and weathered the storm. In 1904 in Nova Scotia, there had been 18 Liberals and no Conservatives elected; in 1908 in New Brunswick, there were 11 Liberals and 2 Conservatives elected; in the 1921 Federal election in Quebec, the Conservatives did not secure one seat out of 65 and in 1926, in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta there was only one Conservative returned.

20 Private Bills

Averging one bill every 30 seconds, 20 private bills were introduced in the Legislature before the resumption of the debate on the Speech from the Throne. Each was given first reading and sent on to the King's printer. They were as follows:

A. Russell Nesbitt (Cons., Bracondale), two bills to amend the Municipal Act; J. St. Denis (Cons., Prescott), a bill respecting the town of Eastview; F. W. Elliott (Lib., North Bruce), a bill to amend the Municipal Act; Rev. A. C. Calder, (Cons., West Kent), a bill respecting the city of Chatham; W. G. Willison, (Cons., Niagara Falls), a bill respecting the city of Niagara Falls; J. F. Hill, (Cons., Hastings East), a bill respecting the town of Deseronto; F. J. Skinner (Cons., Leeds), a bill respecting the city of Kingston; and E. C. Graves (Cons. St. Catharines), a bill to incorporate the Niagara Peninsula Sanitorium Association; Frank Spence (Cons., Fort William) a bill respecting the city of Fort William; Leopold Macaulay (Cons., South York) a bill respecting the township of East York; Rev. W. G. Martin (Cons., Brantford), a bill respecting the city of Guelph; Karl K. Homouth, (Cons., North Waterloo), a bill respecting the city of Sandwich; George Ecclestone, (Cons., Muskoka) a bill respecting the village of Windermere; Dr. J. M. Robb (Cons., Algoma), a bill respecting the town of Sudbury; Fred G. McBrien (Cons., Brockton), a bill to amend the Public Health Act; W. H. Ireland, (Cons., West Hastings) a bill to amend the act incorporating Albert College; Wm. Morrison (Cons., East Hamilton, a bill to amend the Municipal Act; and J. P. Moore, (Cons., North London), an act respecting the city of London.

POLICE SEARCHING FOR MISSING CAR

Harry Loche Has Vehicle Stolen From Outside Campbellford Rink on Monday Night.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 19 (Examiner Staff Correspondence).—To enjoy the thrills of a good hockey game and to come out of the rink and find your car was absent without leave, was the experience which occurred to Harry Locke of Seymour township Monday evening, when, after watching Campbellford go down to defeat before Stirling, returned to the spot where he had parked his sedan to find was gone. Chief G. E. Bromley was immediately notified, and is making every effort to locate the missing car.

Up to a late hour to-day, no word had been received of its whereabouts but it is believed it will eventually be located in Toronto.

OBITUARY

MRS. ALBERT TUCKER.

STIRLING, February 19 (Examiner Correspondence). — Mrs. Tucker was a lifelong resident of this section, her maiden name being Rupert, and she leaves one brother, Thomas Rupert, of Springbrook, to mourn, as well as her only son, Clayton Tucker, with whom she lived. She was 87 years of age.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday at Bethel United Church, interment in the adjoining cemetery.

BEST RINK IN TO-DAY'S DRAW

Local Entry Meets Godfrey of Chapleau in Ryrie-Birks Competition.

Thirteen Undefeated Rinks.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19 (Canadian Press).—The second day's play in the Toronto Bonspiel leaves thirteen undefeated rinks still in competition for the trophies. This will be reduced by three at 9 a.m. to-day, when the strong Macdonald rink from Fort William greets Dick Butler's Lindsay four in the North American Life competition, while Falconer of High Park and Rule of Collingwood, Best of Peterborough, and Godfrey of Chapleau, are opponents in Ryrie-Birks' Trophy contests.

Conley's strong St. Thomas rink narrowly averted a blemish on their undefeated record by beating the New Liskeard rink skipped by A. E. Stevenson by 2 shots after a bitter struggle. T. J. Godfrey had very little trouble in taking his match with W. S. Cameron's Toronto Victorias. Michael of Oshawa was forced to go an extra end to gain a win at the expense of M. Kennedy, Jr., of Owen Sound in the most exciting match of the day's play.

Two local rinks are still among those who have yet to taste defeat. Both are from the High Park club, skipped by Robert Falconer and Mr. Nagel.

The Seiberling and William Wrigley rounds are well under way, with competition keen, and out-of-town rinks showing surprising strength.

C.G.I.T. MEETING

E. A. Peck Gives Interesting Talk on House of Commons and Government at Ottawa.

E. A. Peck, M.P., described very interestingly the House of Commons and the Government Mint at Ottawa for the members of the group of Canadian Girls in Training of Trinity United Church, at their last regular meeting, with the president, Miss Jean Fairweather, in the chair.

Mr. Peck, in vivid style, described the costumes worn during the sessions of the House and other items of much interest to his audience.

Reports of the secretary and treasurer were given and a jolly sing-song was led by Miss Catherine Hodgens. A piona solo was given by Miss Elizabeth Wren, also a reading by Miss Dorothy Stewart and a vocal solo by Miss Olga Huffman. The service of dainty refreshments and the C.G.I.T. "Taps" brought the meeting to a close.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, February 19. — The dealers reported a slightly softer feeling on the local butter market yesterday with little trading taking place. Prices for finest New Zealand and Eastern Townships No. 1 were from 36¼ to 36 3-4c a pound. A few dealers are quoting 38c for solids and 39c for prints, but the majority still quote one cent higher for both varieties.

Eggs were again in demand as the local market continued to depend to a large extent on American importations to meet the growing demand for all grades. A slightly better feeling was reported in the local potato market, although prices were unchanged at yesterday's levels. Dressed poultry continues to move well with a steady demand for all lines at steady prices.

TORONTO PRODUCE.

Toronto, February 19. — There was a rumour in local produce circles yesterday that a car of New Zealand butter, costing 33¼c a pound at Halifax, could be laid down in Toronto, duty paid for 35c a pound. Rumors of this kind do not help to strengthen the market of course, and the result was an uneasy feeling among the jobbers. The market has not been affected yet though and stocks on hand held firm yesterday. There is still a good inquiry for top scoring No. 2 butter but otherwise the market remained quiet and dealers expect very little change in the situation for a month. As mentioned in Tuesday's Globe the dealers are well supplied.

There was a little change in eggs yesterday but it was in regard to American eggs. The American market broke 4c and local buyers were active in ordering. But these supplies will not arrive here until the end of the week, and as receipts are still light, the market remains firm. Dealers anticipate a lower market toward the end of the week or the early part of next week.

The cheese market was still firm. Small lots of new cheese find a ready demand at 20¼c to 21c for No. 1 large. June and September cheese is bringing 20 3-4c to 21c for government graded, No. 1 colored, large paraffined.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19. — Friends of higher prices regained their grip yesterday after wheat, corn, oats and rye had all suffered knock-downs to the lowest level yet this season. Word that 1,500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been purchased yesterday for shipment to Europe, the largest amount taken from North America in a long while, had much to do with bringing about the price rallies.

Brisk buying of Chicago wheat future deliveries was also done, many traders taking hold because of confidence in the ability of the Federal Farm Board's stabilization measures to offset results of a temporary apparent world surplus of wheat.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 19.—The first advance in six days sent wheat prices above the previous close on the Winnipeg market yesterday by 1 3-8c to 2 1-2c. Improved export demand, due to buyers coming in on Monday's break to new low values for the season, coupled with a friendlier feeling on the part of local dealers tended to stem the continued decline.

On the opening break before buying support came into the mart, May wheat sold at the lowest price this season, $1.16½.

Reports stated that about 1,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat had been disposed of by local shippers and direct exporters on Monday's break. Durums for Italy were included.

The cash wheat market was dull, and coarse grain trading was inactive.

It is believed that a person might live for three or four months without eating anything provided he were given water and did not exercise himself.

COUNCIL MEETS.

Burleigh and Anstruther Council Approves $2,000 Road Expenditure By-law.

APSLEY, February 19 (Examiner Correspondence).— The regular meeting of Burleigh and Anstruther Council was held on February 12 in the Town Hall, all members being present. After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and adopted, Mr. Spence presented the auditor's report, which was accepted, on the motion of Messrs. Windsor and Coones. Colonization Road By-law No. 320, providing for an expenditure of $2,000 on the township roads, received first and second readings, and will be sent to the Government for approval.

On the motion of Messrs. Booth and Windsor, Allan Church was appointed weed inspector for the current year. Moved by Messrs. Downing and Booth, that no action be taken regarding request of C. E. Smith, of Peterborough, to be allowed to build a garage on road allowance. Carried.

The collector's time was extended to the next regular meeting of the Council.

Moved by Messrs. Coones and McCauley, that the clerk get an increase of $10.00 in salary. Carried.

The following accounts were passed: Peterborough Examiner, $10.00; Municipal World, $14.01; C. Spence, $6.00; M. J. Tucker, $6.00.

MAIL BAG RIFLED

LONDON, Feb. 19. (C.P.)—A hundred registered letters, mostly containing money orders and bills in dollar currency, were stolen from a postal bag which left Montreal on Feb. 9 aboard the Doric, and was sent by train from Queenstown to Belfast, via Dublin. The theft was discovered yesterday at Belfast. The seals of the letters were found to have been broken, but the bag had been retied.

JOHN FAUX GIVEN MONTH IN PRISON

Judge Huycke Reverses Decision of Acquittal Given By Magistrate Langley.

SECOND OFFENSE.

John Faux was yesterday sentenced to one month in the County Jail by Judge Huycke in consequence of his decision to allow the appeal of Samuel Newhall against the decision of Magistrate O. A. Langley. Faux was found guilty of driving a car while under the influence of liquor.

The case originated on November 19 last year when Faux was driving south on the canal road near the Lift Locks and struck a truck loaded with logs driven by Casey. Faux's car was considerably damaged, but the truck little injured. Police were called and arrested Faux, charging him with driving while under the influence of liquor.

He was brought up in police court and, after two remands, was acquitted by Magistrate Langley. Twenty-six witnesses were produced by Joseph O'Brien, acting for the accused. Their testimony was mainly to the effect that Faux was sober at the time of the accident.

Chief Newhall appealed the case and it came up in the First Division Court of the year before Judge Huycke in January. An adjournment was secured until February.

After a great mass of evidence was produced by a great many witnesses the case was brought to an end and after reserving his decision, Judge Huycke allowed the appeal. Faux came up for sentence yesterday.

Peculiar Case

In his judgment Judge Huycke said that the case was a peculiar one with "a great many witnesses giving in some instances very peculiar evidence." He referred to the conflicting evidence in regard to the question of whether the respondent, Faux, was intoxicated and drew attention to the fact that Faux's action in turning across the road to the wrong side causing the accident was very peculiar. He discounted the evidence given by many witnesses to the effect that Faux was sober all afternoon, to within a few minutes of the accident, at an auction sale in the township of Otonabee.

Passing sentence, the Judge said that he believed the accused to be a respectable farmer, but that in view of his decision of guilty on the charge of driving while intoxicated, would have to deal with him strictly as required by law. V. J. McElderry, prosecuting in the appeal, drew the attention of the court to a previous conviction of Faux on a charge of driving while drunk. Mr. O'Brien, in pleading for a suspended sentence, made the suggestion that nothing but expert medical testimony with regard to the intoxication of a man be accepted in the courts.

John Faux, when asked by the Judge if he wanted to say anything, said, "Only that I'm innocent."

Judge Huycke said, that in view of the matter being a second offence, the only thing the law allowed him was to impose a sentence not less than one month and not more than three months. He ordered that every consideration be shown the prisoner.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D

TONSILITIS, RHEUMATISM, HEART DISEASE.

An acquaintance of mine had an attack of sore throat-tonsilitis—some months ago, but seemed to get over it all right.

A couple of months later he suffered a severe domestic loss, and about the same time was moved to a distant city by his employers.

He was naturally in great distress over his loss, and the moving at this time upset him considerably.

Then followed another attack of tonsilitis which however was very severe. Within a few days he was stricken with rheumatic fever and for several weeks lay in the hospital practically helpless.

Now the reason that the last attack of tonsilitis was so severe was likely due to his emotional distress and the disturbance of moving, because there is not only the mental and physical fatigue which was brought on in this way, but emotional distress or disturbance so upsets the digestive tract that the natural movements of stomach and intestine are delayed and often stopped for minutes and even hours. Constipation follows as a natural result.

And the tonsils, as well as the tongue, reflect the condition of the intestinal tract.

In fact the very first treatment in tonsilitis is not to the throat, but a dose or doses of calomel, followed in four or five hours by epsom salts, with the idea of cleansing the intestine and relieving congestion. And the tonsils share in the relief thus obtained.

However, as mentioned before, after tonsilitis comes rheumatism, and after rheumatism come organic heart ailments. The acquaintance mentioned above had been warned about his tonsils for some years, but as he usually got over his 'sore throats' without much trouble he simply ignored the advice.

Just how much damage rheumatic fever is going to do to his heart, to say, nothing of his joints, remains to be seen.

For rheumatism as you know has a tendency to recur, and while it is convenient to be able to tell the approach of bad weather when you have rheumatic joints, a barometer is less painful.

And as to heart ailments, rheumatic fever furnishes the majority of cases.

Don't take a chance on neglected tonsils.

OUR CHILDREN

By Angelo Patri

THE ALIBI.

"However did you come to get such a report card?"

"Did she give me bad marks? I just thought she would. The mean old thing. I bet she didn't give Puss Raynor a bad mark."

"What do you mean? That the teacher is to blame for your poor mark?"

"No. She isn't to blame for my poor marks but she needn't have given them. She's just mean, she is. Always had a grudge against me. Shelf I raise my hand she won't call on me, but if Puss Raynor lifts a little finger she calls on him and gives him extras. All his poor marks she cancels with extras. I know her all right."

"What extras? How do you get extras?"

"If she asks a question nobody can answer and you answer it you get an extra and that takes off a bad mark for one you missed."

"So. Then you didn't know any hard questions, nor any easy ones either because you have a very bad mark. Looks to me as if you had every chance to get a good one, but you couldn't get it."

"I'll never get a good mark with that teacher. None of the fellows hardly can get a good mark. Our whole row got bad marks. Ask them. You just ask Curry if he didn't and Marksie, and Beanie. They'll tell you how we never get a chance and all those other fellows get second chances all the time."

Don't encourage him. The worst of it is he believes what he is saying. The more he says it, the more he believes it. By and by he will work himself up to the place where he firmly believes the teacher marked him the first day of the month and then saw to it that the daily record verified her marks.

The human mind is a mysterious thing. It is bound to justify itself. By hook or by crook it will prove itself right when it knows itself wrong. The moment you get a child piling up alibi after alibi, blaming the teacher for bad marks, blaming the captain of the team for poor plays, blaming the weather for poor test marks, asking why the family doesn't co-operate with him instead of trying to make things hard for him all the time, take him in hand. He is on the way toward making himself one of those very unhappy people who believe the world has organized for his defeat.

Explain, and keep on explaining, to this child that whatever he does was done by him. Nobody on earth can keep him from doing good work. Nobody on earth can make him do bad work. The only person who can do things for him or to him, is himself. He controls his own fate with ten times more chance to success than anybody else can hope to have on the same basis. He carries his self wherever he goes, through whatever he does. That self is of his own creating largely. Don't let him charge it to anybody else.

Don't ,especially if you are his mother, let him put the responsibility for his conduct upon your shoulders. Teach him to stand up for himself and take what he brings to himself. Otherwise he is going to remain in this childish state of growth, a child-man, a child-woman, the most pitiful of failures.

SMART DINNER DRESS IN ROSE-BEIGE LACE.

The lace dinner dress is always smart. In this one I have used a rose-beige lace, shirring it just below the decolletege and at the hipline, and using ornaments of rose and natural-colored pearls. The cape effect in back is one which many women find becoming, particularly in the new high-waisted dresses, where it has the effect of breaking a line which is sometimes trying.

SCHOOL CONCERT.

Enjoyable Affair Staged Under Auspices of May Schoolhouse Association.

A very enjoyable concert was given in May's School under the auspices of the Home and School Association, with Rev. J. D. Paterson as chairman.

The program was as follows: Solo, Miss A. Blanchard; reading, J. John; piano solo, Miss E. Webber; solo, Mrs. E. Johnston; harmonica trio, Messrs. Arnott, Rose, and Heasman; reading, Miss I. Cox; violin solo, Stewart Dawson; address by Rev. F. H. Gibbs; piano solo, Mrs. Poole; dialogue, entitled, "The Rev. Mr. Bryce," given by the ladies of the Home and School Association; solo, Miss A. Blanchard; piano solo, Miss A. Winterbottom; reading, Mr. John; violin solo, Stewart Dawson; reading, Miss I. Cox; harmonica trio.

At the conclusion of the program, J. Barnes, on behalf of the society in charge, thanked the musicians who so kindly contributed to the evening's entertainment.

HASTINGS.

Mr. Lynn Hill, the popular star on the Combines intermediate hockey team, who recently purchased the grocery business of L. J. Elliott, opened the new store on Monday after making some extensive alterations and decorating.

Mr. C. Nelson, of Campbellford, has accepted the agency of the Prudential Life Assurance Co. for Hastings.

R. F. Sedgwick, of Peterborough, was a business visitor in town on Monday.

Mr. Jarvis, of Grimsby, who purchased the Laking barber parlours, has moved his household furniture into the house of C. R. Fowlds.

GOOD PROGRAM BY CUTLER AUSTIN TRIO

Pleasing Violin and Vocal Numbers at Havelock Presentation.

HAVELOCK, Feb. 19.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The Cutler Austin trio of the Canadian Chautauqua entertained the Havelock audience on Thursday afternoon with a program of violin and vocal classics. Mr. Cutler has a clear, pure tenor voice which was at its best in the English classic "In the Time of Roses" and the negro spiritual "Swing Low Sweet Chariot." Miss Irene Smith has a delightful coloratura soprano voice and delighted the audience with "Comin' Through the Rye" and an Italian classical number as well as a number of others. Miss Austin, the violinist, is a finished violinist, with an engaging personality. Perhaps her afternoon numbers were too classical for most of those present, but some were there who felt that her numbers alone were worth the price of the ticket. In the evening she won the hearts of all with her rendition of the more popular numbers. Her Hungarian Gypsy costume attracted the youngsters in the crowd and the music was entrancing. Miss Smith and Mr. Cutler displayed plenty of talent in their several duets. The tenor solo "Ave Maria" with violin obligatto which was given in the evening by special request, was surpassingly lovely, and displayed the beauty of Mr. Cutler's voice to the best advantage.

Modern China.

The address on modern China by Dr. Hsieh dispels the illusion of a everyone agreed that his talk alone, from the educational standpoint was worth the price of the season ticket. Dr. Shieh dispels the illusion of a menace in the great numbers of Chinese. He declares that his country is in great need of leaders, to develop the resources, and educate the people in making the most of their advantages. He says Canada and China can be of great help to each other. In China there is a growing demand for our Canadian wheat. There are many opportunties for honest men with even a small capital in China. He cites the case of a small body of water in China, about two thousand feet across, which in their present water craft, the monsoon, takes hours to cross. If some enterprising man from Canada would go there and erect a couple of piers and have a ferry to carry passengers across his fortune would be made. He said this was no fairy tale, but it was a fairy (ferry) boat. His remarks were interspersed with light bantering, which kept the youngsters, who might find an ordinary lecturer dry, in the best of spirits. He declared that England has pledged herself as willing to lose her huge revenue from opium trade to help stamp the traffic out, and if this can be accomplished, as it can, the future of China is assured. This terrible drug was first introduced into China by the Mongolians, and it is said that in five years this opium habit entirely destroys every bit of manhood in its addicts. He showed the flag of the new China and asked the audience to regard the Chinese as brothers under the skin, ready to stand side by side with Canadian in peace or war. Thousands of his compatriots had helped to dig the trenches for the allies, and they would be ready to help again if the need arose. One felt after hearing the Doctor's message that we have greatly wronged our yellow brothers.

On Friday evening the last of the series was given, when the Martin Irwin players gave their hilarious comedy of modern business, "Give and Take." This was a screamingly funny play and was greatly enjoyed by a capacity house. Rev. P. C. Howard took occasion between acts to thank the patrons of the festival for their attendance, and words of appreciation, and assured the audience that the Chautauqua would be back again next year, with a larger committee to assume the responsibility for its success. This time twenty signatures have been affixed to the contract.

Valentine Social.

The school room of Knox church prettily decorated in keeping with the season, presented a very attractive appearance on Monday evening, when the Christian Endeavour Society held its second annual Valentine social.

Before announcing the program the president of the Society, H. F. McNichol spoke a few appropriate words of welcome and also expressed pleasure that his health again permitted him to take an active part in the work of the Endeavour.

A very interesting and instructive address on "How to Become a Success" was given by the minister, Rev. John Lennox, who in his opening remarks said he was pleased to see such a large gathering. In order to become a success Mr. Lennox said we must have an aim in life and along with that aim we must have intense interest and energy. The reason why so many young men and women are failures is because they are living aimless lives.

Valentine Social.

If the churches in Havelock are to make their influence felt, they must have an aim, interest, and energy. The reason why so many churches are powerless is because they are aimless, disinterested, and lack energy. If we are to get anywhere we must have an aim, and we must get energy behind that aim. In this light flippant age we are only playing at church work. The idea of being jealous of the fellow that is doing something, is a poor game. Let everybody pull together and then success will be attained.

Two piano solos by Miss Jean Anderson, and two duets by Misses Aileen Butters and Barbara Fennell, were much appreciated, furnishing a valued share in the program. Mr. John Kinnaird acquitted himself with his usual merit, with two recitations and a ukelele solo. A vocal solo by Mrs. Jamieson, a vocal duet by Miss M. Sexsmith and Mrs. Jamieson and a solo by Rev. J. Lennox were also well received by the audience.

An observation contest followed the program, the prizes being awarded as follows: First prize, Miss Muriel McNichol; second prize, Miss Dorothy Watson; consolation prize, Miss Alma Martin.

Delivery of mail from the postoffice came next. Postmaster Frank McLaughlin, and his assistant, Miss Dorothy Watson, having a well filled bag of Valentines to assort. Those when distributed caused much merriment in the audience. The proceeds amounted to twenty dollars. Both the financial and social success are due, in part, to the untiring efforts of Mrs. (Rev.) Lennox.

Her Little Boy Had Severe Cold and Croupy Cough

Mrs. Henry E. Lyman, West River, N.B., writes:—"My little boy caught a very severe cold, and had a croupy cough.

"I tried several medicines, but he got no relief from them.

"I was advised to try

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

and he had only taken three doses when he got relief, and before he had finished the bottle he was all rid of his cough.

"I would not be without it in the house as it is a wonderful cough medicine."

LILY LAKE C. E. STAGES CONTEST

Attendance Contest is Being Held By Christian Endeavor Society.

BOYS ARE LEADING.

That great interest is being taken in the attendance contest being staged by the Christian Endeavour Society of Lily Lake Sunday School was evidenced last night when more than forty members attended the meeting which took the form of a social evening. The members are divided into two groups, the boys in one and the girls in the other, being captained by Clarence Hancock and Katheryn Rowland. This was the third meeting in connection with the contest, the boys maintaining a lead of about five points. At the end of six weeks, the group losing will provide a program and social evening for the winners.

The president, Miss Mary Middleton, presided for the devotional period and afterwards thanked those who had made the evening the success it was. The scriptural reading for the topic was read by Cecil Hancock and the topic, "What Makes People Great" was given by Katheryn Rowland. Miss Dorothy Rowland acted as organist during the evening.

The following is the topic in part: "Can you tell me what things go toward making a great person? Let me suggest a few: courage, perseverance, honor, love, hard labor, wisdom, happiness, peace, friendliness, health, ambition. We must practise all these qualities. Even though we try hard to get all these that make up a great life and though we practise them, we may still fall short of greatness unless we think not so much of getting things for ourselves but of giving and helping others.

"Do you know that giving is the foundation of greatness? If we try to give our friendship, love, time, possessions and help, the getting will come naturally. The great man is the unselfish, the sacrificing, the giving man! Have you ever thought that sometimes there are very little things that keep one from becoming great? Little lies, little cheatings, falsely accusing others of things when you are not certain your accusations are justified; little moments that we waste? "The spice of life is battle" wrote Robert Louis Stevenson. If we never had to overcome any difficulties, if we never had to fight against temptations and if we never had any enemies, do you think we would be strong?

"A great person is one who does impossibilities. For what did Paul say, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me." These were, I believe, the words of Dr. Francis E. Clark when he founded this great Christian Endeavour movement, of which we are proud members.

"We become great, by being successful, personal workers of our Lord and Saviour and the successful soul winner is the surrendered Christian. Prayer is one of the most important elements in personal work and one of the great foundation principles of Christian Endeavour. As Christ intercedes for others, so we must intercede for others. You need Christian Endeavour because others need it. That is what this society is for, to train you for service. All Christian life and experience is an endeavour; a constant pilgrimage with the Master; a life of service with Him for and Him. Christian Endeavour as a movement, takes this essential fact and holds it before youth as an ideal. It seeks to-day to bring young people to Christ; to unite them in Christian fellowship and to train and inspire them for loyal service, thereby helping them to become great."

After the devotional period, games and contests, were enjoyed, suitable prize being awarded the winners. The service of refreshments brought the pleasant evening to a close.

Have You An Acid Stomach?

When gas, pain and distress follow a good meal, it is an almost sure sign of "too much acid" in your stomach. Get rid of it now for it is dangerous. Ulcers are apt to follow. No matter how much acid is in your stomach, you can enjoy and relish your next meal without fear of after effects if you have some Bisurated Magnesia handy to prevent the trouble before it starts. Try it. Eat whatever you like, in reason, and then take a little Bisurated Magnesia to neutralize the acid, sweeten your stomach and protect the stomach lining. Doctors recommend Bisurated Magnesia—thousands use it because it positively prevents stomach trouble or stops the worst attack in less than five minutes. Get a trial package, either powder or tablets, from your druggist, use as directed, and indigestion and stomach troubles will go like magic.

Fashions

NEWEST FASHIONS REMINISCENT OF OTHER DAYS

SUITS SOMETIMES STEP OUT OF MASCULINE CHARACTER

NEW YORK, Feb. 18 (U.P.).—Although so much is heard and seen of masculine suit types designed for town wear in men's wear fabrics, these do not dominate completely the spring suit situation. Active rivals are cited in the short, unbelted, open jacket, and another competitor is the peplum belted jacket suit, which also sounds the importance of brief length. Both of these utilize dressy fabrics rather than men's suitings or fabrics of sports character. Black chiffon cashmere joins forces with these silhouettes in soft versions of the two suits, introducing a note that is consistently feminine rather than foisting detail on masculine types in the effort to feminize them.

In the matter of length, some models are scarcely longer than a long bolero, while others reach the top of the hip, or in some instances, an inch below. This trend toward brevity, however, is not confined entirely to unbelted open front jackets, for it is becoming something of a new cult. The short jacket, and the modified flare in skirts is pointed out as the suit silhouette that will capture major attention, representing, as it does, the much-desired youthful line.

In constructing these short, open front and unbelted versions, a departure from the emphasised fitted line is observed, which is considered another point in the youthful accent. In short peplum jackets showing the indented waist there is provided a fitted version that faithfully preserves the youthful effect.

In the peplum jacket which ties at front and usually adds a collar or scarf of flat fur, as broadtail, lapin, galyak or a pony belt of fine texture, the blouse does not play as prominent a role as it achieves in accompanying the front, short jacket. In the latter type, being fully in view, it acquires fresh interest. Where sharkskin is the fabric choice in the suit, the blouse may repeat the dotted motif in its embroidered dots; again, where diamond motifs are worked in the weave of a cashmere cloth.

SEEKS CONGRESS SEAT

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Feb. 19. (U.P.)—Jennings Randolph, athletic director of Davis-Elkins College, and professor of public speaking and journalism, has announced his candidacy for congress in the second West Virginia district. Randolph is one of the youngest men to seek the office; he will be 28 next month.

Germs imprisoned on teeth cause decay

A dangerous FILM coats teeth—breeds the bacteria of decay and gum disorders

GERMS cause tooth decay. Germs plus tartar are the chief cause of pyorrhea. Virtually every common disease of teeth and gums results from germ infections.

There is but one way known to fight germs and safeguard teeth and gums. You must remove a slippery, stubborn film that gives bacteria to the tooth's enamel. Film forms in crevices and clings so tenaciously that ordinary brushing fails to remove it successfully.

Today dentists are urging patients to turn from other ways to the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent. You will notice the difference from ordinary tooth paste the instant it touches your teeth. No pumice, no harmful grit or crude abrasive, but a scientific action that recommends it for the most sensitive teeth and gums.

. . . And no other way can make teeth so dazzling white. Write for free 10-day supply to The Pepsodent Co., 191 George St., Toronto 2, Ont.

ASSOCIATION MEETS.

Plans For Future Activities Discussed at Meeting of King Edward Society.

A very successful meeting of King Edward Home and School Association was held on Friday afternoon, Feb. 14th, in the Kindergarten of the school.

The members rallied in large numbers, making the business of the day a real pleasure, with the president, Mrs. J. J. Pollock, presiding.

The meeting was prefaced as usual with a short devotional period in which all the members joined.

The minutes were read and adopted, and a report presented by the treasurer.

The association expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Roberts for the very enjoyable card party given by her under the auspices of the Home and School Association.

Plans for future activities were discussed, which promise some pleasurable social evenings.

The March regular meeting will be included in these, when Mrs. Groombridge and Mrs. Hubel will preside over a table of home made candy. A specially good program is being arranged for this meeting.

As a means to raise money to carry on the work a paper collection was announced for Feb. 24 and 25. This collection is already assured of success.

The National Anthem brought the meeting to a conclusion.

The Rev. F. H. Gibbs, who recently occup'ed the position of curate at All Saints Church, was the guest of honor at a large gathering of friends and members of St. Alban's Mission held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Thompson of 24 Brown street, and was the recipient of a gift from the friends he has made since coming here in October last. The evening was spent pleasantly in the enjoyment of a program of games and music, to which contributions were made by Mrs. T. Poole, Mrs. Panter, M'ss Edwards and Miss Young, with a pleasing recitation given by little Miss Isabel Young. Mr. F. Wallwork made the presentation of a pen and pencil set to the Rev. Mr. Gibbs, with an address which expressed the regret of the assemblage "at bidding farewell to one, although he has been with us but a short time, has proved himself a sincere friend to each and every one of us. It is not every day that we meet a man like you" the address went on, "and it is indeed difficult to express our appreciation and gratitude for your untiring efforts and good will towards all." The gift was then presented, "as a small token which conveys to you our best wishes for your health, happ'ness and prosperity in the future. We are sorry indeed to lose you and trust that while you are carrying on your good and faithful mission in another community, you will not forget your many friends in Peterborough. May God's blessing be with you throughout your ministry here on earth." The address was signed, on behalf of the members and friends of St. Alban's Mission, by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Poole, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wallwork, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dummitt, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. F. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R. Pilling, Mr. and Mrs. Risko, Mr. and Mrs. Whiteside, Mrs. Howarth, Mrs. Ross Crouter, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Busby, Miss Winifred Wallwork, Miss Edith Wallwork and Mr. George Williams. The Rev. Mr. Gibbs made a suitable acknowledgement of the gift and address, after which the Rev. T. J. O'Conor-Fenton of Norwood, who was present, gave a very interesting review of the history of St. Alban's Mission. Later, dainty refreshments were served by a willing band of helpers and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the host and hostess of the evening. The proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and three cheers for the Rev. Mr. Gibbs.

Mrs. A. J. Throop of 362 Burnham street was hostess yesterday afternoon at a very pleasant Talent tea held at her home under the auspices of the Ladies' Association of Mark Street United Church. The rooms were beautifully arranged with Spring flowers, daffodils, sunburst roses and narcissus. Members of the reception committee were Mrs. A. Cox and Mrs. G. Hurl, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Thornley and Mrs. W. K. Payne. Mrs. Hurl ushered the ladies into the dining room, where refreshments were served in buffet fashion, in charge of a committee consisting of Mrs. W. Binks, Mrs. H. Cooper and Mrs. D. White, assisted by Mrs. Lorne Cunningham. Mrs. Benson officiated as treasurer and Mrs. E. Wand had charge of a very enjoyable program which included vocal solos by Mrs. G. A. Richmond, Mrs. L. H. Ingram and little Orval Wainman; a vocal duett by Mrs. E. Wand and Mrs. C. Telford and readings by Mrs. H. E. Connelly and Gwenyth Parnell. Accompanists were Mrs. W. A. Greenslade and Mrs. C. Telford.

Mrs. T. E. Curvin of 747 Water street, lent her charming home for a very successful tea yesterday afternoon, to the members of Group A of the Women's Missionary Society of George Street United Church. The guests were received by the hostess assisted by Mrs. J. C. Wood, leader of the Group, and ushered to the cloak room by Miss Helen Bonney. The spacious rooms were very attractive with a grate-fire, floor lamps and vases of Spring flowers. The tea table covered with a beautiful Irish point lace cloth and centered with a silver basket of yellow daffodils and tall yellow candles in silver candle-holders with silver tea service, produced a charming effect. Mrs. Frederick, mother of Mrs. Curvin, and Mrs. Allison poured tea and tea-room assistants were members of the group with Mrs. H. Dulmage as convenor. A splendid program, arranged by Mrs. Curvin and Mrs. Bonney, consisted of piano solos by Miss Margaret Fairbrother and Mrs. Purdy, and a mouth-organ selection by Allenby Curvin; vocal solos by Miss Alma Beavis, Miss Viola Fusee and Miss Helen Mulligan, and readings by Mrs. Henry Turner and Miss Frances Clark, and a short dialogue by the Misses Frances and Mabel Clark. Mrs. Purdy acted as accompanists for the soloists and played several selections during the afternoon. Mrs. W. J. Copp acted as treasurer.

Mrs. T. P. Hooper of 562 Gilmour street lent her home yesterday for a very successful and well-attended Valentine tea held under the auspices of the Women's Guild of All Saints' Church. The decorations of the rooms and table were quite elaborate and were carried out in a manner appropriate to the season. The table was lovely with a cloth of Venetian lace and was guarded at its four corners by red cupids with darts and red tulle bows around their curved wire frames. A central mirror reflector, swathed in smilax, held a silver basket filled with red and white tulips. On the buffet were two large silver candelbra holding lighted candles. The reception rooms were decorated with Valentine tokens of love; little pictured verses on lace paper which hung in the archways and on the curtains, along with red cupids, hearts and arrows. On the mantelpiece over a lighted grate fire were red candles in silver candlesticks and red tulips in silver bud vases and there were silver baskets filled with red tulips, on the side tables. The guests were received by Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. James Pace, president of the society, and Mrs. J. D. Paterson. They were ushered by Mrs. P. Fuller, the past president, into the tea room, which was in charge of Mrs. L. Dobbin. Tea was poured by Mrs. G. A. Benor, assisted by Mrs. R. Bolton, Mrs. B. Burns and Mrs. H. Roberts. Mrs. A. W. Clysdale acted as treasurer. A sale of home-made cooking and candy, in charge of Mrs. G. Worboy and Mrs. T. Sabin, was held from a table with a white cloth and a large heart-shaped red basket tied with a tulle bow and topped by a cupid with a love verse.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

I HAVE NOTICED in some homes where I have been a visitor, that certain pieces of furniture and other parts of the household equipment showed signs of hard usage.

• • • • • • •

As I have told you before, I do not make a practice of looking over everything in the room when I am a visitor to these homes, but being observant, I can't help notice such things.

• • • • • • •

Not that I mean the furniture and equipment were actually shabby, but that certain things needed freshening up a little.

• • • • • • •

And warding off the ill effects of hard usuage is a thing which has had to become an art in many homes. The well-cared for look, dear to the homemaker does not continue by itself.

• • • • • • •

Furniture in the home of the most careful homemaker will show these ill effects if something is not done to freshen it up.

• • • • • • •

I have know housewives to keep a piece of oilcloth or linoleum for nearly a score of years, without it losing that 'new' appearance. Perhaps you doubt this, but let me tell you how such equipment may be preserved.

• • • • • • •

When you have purchased your linoleum or oilcloth and have had it down for about a week or two, varnish it all over and it will keep it in its fresh looking condition, almost indefinitely.

• • • • • • •

Of course, you must not leave it too long before the varnish is applied, because when the pattern becomes worn, the linoleum or oilcloth loses its fresh appearance.

• • • • • • •

I am told that either varnish or a hard butcher's wax should be resorted to in the case of hardwood floors that look shabby at the threshold of where the lines of household travel lead.

• • • • • • •

And then I have noticed window shades which have accidently become torn a little, but otherwise in good condition. These, too, add to the shabby appearance, unless the tear is mended. This may be done by using a little adhesive tape in the narrow width.

• • • • • • •

Often the housewife purchases window hangings, thinking the material to be good, only to find that soon after they are put up the color starts to fade.

• • • • • • •

Should this be the case, you might freshen them up by immersing in a home solution of dye, if they are of cotton or linen variety, and whose lightness of weight does not preclude their being handled.

• • • • • • •

I read somewhere a few days ago where a housewife, whose home is done in the Italian manner, dips her curtains every year. They are of a dark brown shade and take the color evenly.

• • • • • • •

And that is what you must strive to do—dye the material so that the color is even and not streaked like a rainbow. But if you have some valuable curtains or other hangings you would like to freshen up, get the advice of an expert before attempting to dye them.

• • • • • • •

I have known more than one housewife to ruin altogether valuable hangings which they attempted to dye, without having had any previous experience with the dye pot.

• • • • • • •

What about the electric light cords in your home? Do they contribute to the shabbiness by being worn in some places? It is well to be on the lookout for these worn places as there is danger if the casing becomes badly broken.

• • • • • • •

If the cord has just started to fray, you might use a little adhesive tape and then touch it up with crayon colors to make it the right shade.

• • • • • • •

There are many little ways you might employ to freshen up the furniture, etc., in your home, thereby helping to keep that well cared for look which the homemaker delights in.

Interesting Address on Mission Work Among Indians Heard at Meeting.

The regular Mission Band of Gilmour Memorial Baptist Church was held Sunday afternoon in the basement of the church, with a fairly good attendance. The meeting was opened with singing "Little Children May be Heralds," followed with prayer by Mrs. J. Mann. The scripture lesson was taken from the "Bible Arrows." Readings were given by Misses Eunice Hammond and Phyllis Moore. The topic was taken by Margaret Mann, which was on "The Customs of the Indians," and "Our Work Among the Indians."

Work Among Indians

The Baptists have been working among the Indians called the Six Nation Reserve near Brantford. This reserve is not very large; just six miles wide and ten miles long.

Their first Baptist church was organized in1842, and was held under some large oak trees, and had twenty-six members. The only settled pastor on the reserve is Mr. Rough, who along with his wife, have proved a real success in church work.

One of the great Canadian poets, Pauline Johnson, was from this reserve.

A cache of canned meat, planted in the Arctic 77 years ago by searchers for the lost Sir John Franklin, expedition, was discovered September 2, 1919, by Canadian Mounted Police, and tasted as good as fresh meat.

RAN AWAY IN YOUTH—CAPTURES FAME AND PRETY WIFE

When James Rennie ran away from home fifteen years ago, he had but one ambition—success on the stage. He has achieved that ambition and has returned to his home town, Toronto, after successes on the stage and in movies, as leading man in "Gala Night." Mr. Rennie's crowning success, as he states, is the fact that he won Dorothy Gish for his wife. Here is shown James Rennie and his wife, known to the world as Dorothy Gish of movie fame.

VETERAN FRIEND THE RED CROSS

During Past Year Ontario Branch Has Spent $44,528.28 on Care of Returned Men.

VISITED 3,443 REGULARLY

Despite the fact that to-day, and for years past, there have been in Canada many organizations with local or national spheres of work, which make it their special duty to collect funds for the relief of soldiers, to find them employment, to pay their rent when necessary, and to provide general relief for returned men or their dependents, the Red Cross has always stood ready to step in wherever there is urgent need for emergency help.

Men in hospital, on pension or allowances, are visited and are kept in constant receipt of kindnesses and comfort from Red Cross visitors. Frequently, special surgical or other appliances are supplied to disabled men, when needed, while crippled or otherwise handicapped children of returned soldiers are looked after in many instances, by the Junior Red Cross.

In the past year, a total sum of $44,528.28 was spent by the Ontario Red Cross on care of the returned soldiers, or their families. The number of soldiers regularly visited by Red Cross members was 3,443, the number of visits made them or their families were 181,810, while no less than 1,149 men and 924 of their dependents were looked after in their own homes. At Christmas, a very special effort is made by the Red Cross everywhere to see that cheer and comforts go to returned men or their families, who are in need or distress, in all parts of the province. Last year this meant that 912 soldiers and 79 families were given generous provision at this festal season.

The total expenditure on help and extra comforts to soldiers in hospital, was $19,337.66 throughout the year; that on soldiers in their own homes $3,418.63, and on the dependents or families, some $21,771.99. Thus it will be seen that whatever other activity the Red Cross finds it necessary to undertake in its peacetime program of service, the returned soldier remains, as he has always been, its first care, whether he be in a military hospital or in civilian life.

Peterborough Branch of Red Cross Society is holding its financial campaign during the last week of February.

SATISFACTORY REPORTS.

Congregation of Centreville Presbyterian Church Holds Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian congregation of Centreville was held on February 4, at 2 p.m. In the absence of the minister, Rev. J. Riddell, N. Dodds was elected to take the chair, and the meeting was opened in the usual manner, after which good reports were submitted by all departments of the congregation, showing both Sunday School and church to be in a thrifty condition. At the close of the meeting a hearty vote of sympathy and good wishes was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Riddell in their trial of sickness and during their period of separation from the many friends of Millbrook and Centreville.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian Sunday School of Centreville was held on Sunday evening, February 2, at 7 o'clock. James H. McGill, who has been the efficient superintendent for many years presided. A splendid report was given by McIntosh Bradshaw, the secretary-treasurer, showing an increase in attendance and also the financial report, the best given for the past ten years. The hope was expressed that the good work would continue with even greater success during the year just entered.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Caris

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SLIM JIM.

After Mother Bear had taken lost Baby Bear from Uncle Wiggily's bungalow to her den in the woods, as I told you in the story before this, many of the rabbit children wished to visit them. For they thought Baby Bear was very cute. And Jingle and Jangle wanted to thank Mother Bear more than they thanked her at first when, with her long claws, she dug open a tight log in which the rabbits were caught while playing tag.

"But no," said Uncle Wiggily when his rabbits asked him to take them to the bears' den in the woods. "It is still winter, and though coming out of the warm den once in a while may not harm the Baby Bears, it isn't good for them to come out too often so you bunnies may see them. Remember, little bears are born without any warm fur overcoats on, and it will not be until it is nearer the warm spring time that they will have any. So let them stay in the dark, warm den with Mother Bear until their coats are grown."

"We'll be polite to them, wont we?" asked Baby Bunty.

much to be taken to the bears' den. But they said they would be glad when spring came so the little cubs could come out to play.

"But they will soon be too big for you to have fun with," Uncle Wiggily said. "A baby bear is very little when first born, not much larger than you rabbits. But they grow very fast, and when they are your age they are many times larger than you."

"And do they have long claws?" asked Baby Bunty.

"Very long, strong claws," said Mr. Longears.

"Then I'm not going to play with them," said Baby Bunty.

"We can go out in the woods and play by ourselves," suggested Jingle.

"And if any bears come along," said Jangle, who was Jungle's twin sister, "why we'll just tell them to run along and claw the bar on a tree but not to claw us."

"Only we'll be polite to them; won't we?" asked Baby Bunty.

"Oh, surely!" said Jingle. "It's always best to be polite to bears 'cause they have such long claws."

"Only," said Orphan Baby Bunty, with a smile, "if that little wee, tiny bear without any fur overcoat comes out of his den we can play with him; can't we Unkie Wig, 'cause his claws aren't very long or strong, or sharp yet."

"Yes," said Uncle Wiggily, "I guess so. But Baby Bear will stay in the warm den with his mother a long while, I think."

So the rabbit children went out in the woods to play after school, and when it began to get later in the afternoon, and when it would be soon night, Nurse Jane said to Mr. Longears:

"You haven't had an adventure today, Mr. Longears. So hop to the woods and tell the children it is time to come home. You may have an adventure doing that."

"I shall do as you wish," spoke the rabbit gentleman, and away he hopped over the fields and into the woods. As he came to the edge of the forest Uncle Wiggily heard the voices of Baby Bunty and the other rabbits. Baby Bunty was saying.

"How long and slim he is!"

"Very slender and so nice and soft!" spoke Jingle.

"Maybe he's a new kind of baby bear," was what Jangle said.

"Oh ho!" thought Mr. Longears. "My bunnies must have found something new to play with. Well, as long as they aren't caught inside a tight log, as they were the time Mother Bear had to claw the log to get them out, I guess it's all right."

But when Uncle Wiggily reached the place where the children were he gave a big jump and waving his paws at them cried:

"Quick! Hide! Jump down in that hole," and he pointed to an old rabbit burrow he had made in the summer.

"Why should we hide?" asked Baby Bunty.

"We just found something new to play with," said Jingle. "See!"

She pointed to a long, slim white animal, with hungry eyes and a tail tipped with black. This animal was creeping toward the rabbit children. Uncle Wiggily saw him just in time.

"Quicker!" cried Mr. Longears, pointing to the old burrow hole. "Jump in and hide. That's Slim Jim!"

"Slim Jim! Who is he?" asked Jingle.

"Never mind about asking questions now!" cried Unlle Wiggily. "It's a wonder Slim Jim the weasel, hasn't caught you long ago. There must be something the matter with him. He must be lame, or something. But into the burrow, quick!" And pushing the children, Uncle Wiggily made them crawl in, and got in himself, just as Slim Jim jumped.

Uncommon Sense

By John Blake

PRIDE OF POSSESSION.

I know that it is fashionable to decry civic pride and the "boosting spirit."

Writers find that by satirizing the local bodies which seek to convince the world that they have the "best town on earth" they can amuse their readers and gain a reputation which is beyond their deserts.

These very writers frequently belong to associations which in their spirit are very much like the "Soosters" clubs, only it is their own kind of activities that they boost.

I have found abundance of civic pride in great and small communities, and it is always a benefit.

The man who lives in a city is not willing to work to make it a better city is a very poor sort of citizen.

Even if he does brag a little, bragging is better than inertia.

Believing in one's town and wanting to help it is just as patriotic as believing in one's country and being willing to fight for it.

I admit that I am sometimes worried by the garrulousness of real estate agents, but I think more of them than I do of the people who are willing to do nothing whatever for their own communities.

Schools are built, libraries are founded, educational institutions are endowed by people who take pride in their own towns and want to help them.

That pride is founded on the sincere belief that their towns are, if not the best, aiming to be the best of all places in which to dwell.

Supposing there is a little bragging, a little overestimating of the virtues of the climate and the "natural advantages."

That boasting is more likely to be translated into action for the benefit of the citizens than are sneering and slurring.

Pride of possession is not a bad quality, but a good and useful one if it helps to make the possession more worth having.

We cannot get away from the fact that we all possess it, that we all are more or less braggarts at heart.

And if we can make our bragging good by hard work, and by efforts to help our neighbors when we help ourselves, we are useful citizens.

Cheese.

Dear Anne—Here is a cheese recipe of which we are very fond. Take about as much cheese as the number of people served would eat. Grate or shave finely. For four people I add two level tablespoonfuls of flour, a salt spoon of mustard, half teaspoon of salt and teaspoon of butter, perhaps more. Mix so that the flour is smooth, with a little cold milk, and add enough hot milk to have all cook to a cream. It needs to be carefully watched not to burn. Serve on hot buttered toast on hot plates, and see that the family is ready when the dish is ready.

It is nicer if an egg is beaten in, but one of our family finds it too rich.

Truth to tell, I never measure a bit of it. We often have potatoes and cheese as you do macaroni and cheese.

The defeat deprived the Black Hawks of a tie with the New York Rangers for second place in the American division.

OUST SECTION RIVALS.

BOSTON, February 19 (Canadian Press). — The Boston Bruins, due to the brilliant work of "Dit" Clapper and Cooney Weiland, edged the Montreal Maroons, their likely play-off rivals, out in a 3-2 victory here last night before a capacity crowd.

OTTAWA, February 19 (Canadian Press). — Ottawa Senators showed a brilliant combination in breezing through to a 3-2 victory over Pittsburg in a National Hockey League game here last night. The win left the men of Lalonde still firmly entrenched in third position of the league's Canadian section with the play-off race now under way.

EASY WIN FOR CANADIENS.

DETROIT, February 19 (Canadian Press). — Montreal's flashy Canadiens had no trouble in disposing of the Detroit Cougars in a mild National League hockey match here last night, the Cougars taking a 2 to 0 blanking

QUEEN'S NEED ANOTHER WIN

Victory Will Tie Varsity and Tricolor For Second Place.

O.H.A. ELIMINATIONS.

TORONTO, Ont., February 19 (Canadian Press) — Windsor Tech's smart junior Ontario Hockey Association team, regarded in many quarters as capable of taking the measure of such championship favorites as Niagara Falls, Oshawa, Parry Sound, and West Toronto, gained a four-goal lead over the Kitchener Juniors, in the first game of the second round play-downs last night. Played at Windsor the contest proved exciting at all times with Windsor winning six to two. The return game will be played at Kitchener on Thursday.

Parry Sound Juniors advanced another step by defeating Newmarket two to nothing, and four to one on the round. They will now meet University of Toronto at Parry Sound, on February 20.

The Senior A series game played here last night resulted in a surprise victory for Queen's University over Toronto Nationals, by a one to nothing count. This keeps Queen's in the running for the play-offs and by defeating University of Toronto in their next meeting the Tricolor can tie Varsity for second place.

Port Colborne and Hamilton clash to-night in the Senior B series at Niagara Falls. This is the first of home-and-home games to decide a winner to meet Woodstock in the group play-offs.

TRICOLOR DEFEATS TORONTO NATIONALS

Queen's Seniors Remain in Running By Reason of 1-0 Victory.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19.—(C.P.)—Fighting desperately against the rearranged National line-up, the Queen's University seniors defeated the locals by 1 to 0 at the Arena Gardens last night and thereby remain in the running for a play-off place in the Ontario Association series. Bellringer scored the lone goal four minutes after the game began when he intercepted a pass made by Goalkeeper Holmshaw, and from then until the finish the struggle was as even as the score indicates.

Contrary to expectations the game was the cleanest seen in the senior series this winter. Probably anticipating a renewal of the bitter feeling that prevailed when those teams met at Kingston, a large crowd turned out, but the fireworks failed to materialize, it having been announced before hostilities started that any one indulging in fisticuffs would be banished for ten minutes. Queen's had too much at stake to try any rough play, and the Nationals showed no desire to even old scores.

Brants and Guelph In 1-all Deadlock

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19.—(C.P.)—Brantford and Guelph played to a one-all deadlock in the only Canpro hockey game played last night. Poor ice conditions slowed up the game, which was marked by a penalty to Goalkeeper Baxter, of Brantford, in the last period.

Guelph took the lead late in the opening period when Werner Schnarr scored on Goodwillie's pass. Brantford tied the count half-way through the middle frame when Grossman scored on a rebound.

BUFFALO BISONS IN SECOND PLACE

Herd Sextet Have No Trouble in Copping 6-1 Victory From Millionaires.

CHANCE FOR PANTHERS.

TORONTO, Ont., February 19 (Canadian Press). — As was expected, Buffalo Bisons brushed aside Toronto Millionaires in an International Hockey League fixture here last night, six goals to one, to advance into second place in the league standing.

The Bisons played with almost mechanical-like precision and had little difficulty penetrating the Toronto defence for a brace of markers in each period. The losers' lone goal came after Buffalo's pair of counters in the initial frame. Teasdale, recruit from a local junior team, got the goal in his first professional appearance.

Lloyd Gross led the winners on the attack, scoring three goals.

London Panthers have a chance to regain their second place berth tonight when they entertain the fifth place Windsor Bulldogs. Both teams have enjoyed a few days rest, and London fans will undoubtedly witness a tirring struggle. In the other scheduled game Cleveland Indians play Tigers in Hamilton. The Indians are safely lodged in first place with a four-point lead over Buffalo, but they will not be able to increase the margin easily against the Tigers, who provide stubborn contention for all teams.

O.H.A. Referee Again Makes Use of Plane

"Bill" Jackson, who refereed the Campbellford-Stirling T.V.H.L. game last evening, chartered the Northern Airways De-Haviland Moth to transport him to the scene of action, and arrived within nineteen minutes after the take-off from the Mark street bay on the Little Lake.

It was 5.06 p.m. last evening when Pilot W. N. Millar clambered into the cockpit of his machine with his passenger, and it was but a short time afterwards that the plane was headed for Campbellford, where the landing was made on the canal at 5.25 p.m.

The machine made the return trip, leaving Campbellford at 7 o'clock this morning, giving "Bill" ample time to take up his daily task on schedule.

It is interesting to make a comparison, with due deference to the railroad companies, that had the journey been made by rail it would have necessitated leaving Peterborough at mid-day yesterday, kicking one's heels in a hotel lobby till evening, rising next morning in time to catch the 6.38 a.m., and arriving home after a lapse of two hours and thirty-seven minutes.

NORTHEY WINS CASEMENT CUP

Competition Keen in Skips' Bonspiel Event at Lakefield.

TANNER CUP PLAY.

LAKEFIELD, Feb. 19 (Examiner Correspondence).—The final game for the Casement Cup in the skips' bonspiel was played on Monday night, with a great deal of local interest in the contest. The result is as follows:—

A. Millar	N. A. Moore
C. H. Hunter	H. G. Fitzgerald
J. H. Payne	Dr. S. J. Gibson
E. H. Northey	G. H. Spence
Skip.....10	Skip.....5

Northey and his rink win the cup.

Games began Tuesday night for the Tanner Cup in the vice skips' bonspiel.

BONSPIEL OPENS IN CAMPBELLFORD

Denike and Meyers Will Play For Victoria Cup This Evening.

CAMPBELLFORD, February 19 (Examiner Staff Correspondence). — Yesterday saw the opening of the two-day local bonspiel when twelve rinks coinpeted for three trophies. The Victoria Cup will go to the winners of the first play-off, the second place rinks will compete for the Campbellford Cup (consolation), and the Reindeau Cup will be won by the rink with the highest score.

Rinks with the following skips are competing: D. Douglas, C. Palliser, John Gay, J. P. Archer, P. S. Sarginson, W. West, D. E. Tait, A. J. Meyers, H. Denike, F. C. Bonnycastle, F. J. Smith, and W. Wiggins.

In the morning's play-off, D. Douglas led C. Palliser 8-7, J. P. Archer was victorious over John Gay 12-2, P. S. Sarginson won from M. West 11-6, A. J. Meyers played a close game against D. E. Tait, winning 12-11, H. Denike scored up against T. C. Bonnycastle 10-8, and F. J. Smith trimmed W. Wiggins 13-4.

Centre ice was a little slow, but one and three sheets were fast. Ten-end games are being played.

Douglas battled with Archer in the afternoon and lost 5-11, and Sarginson went down before Meyers 8-9.

Victoria Cup.

Last evening's play-off in the Victoria Cup event was keen with good scoring. Denike trimmed Smith with a 13-9 count, while Meyers ran the ends up against Archer 10-8. The decision for this trophy will be played off this evening between Denike and Meyers.

In the Consolation Trophy Tate handled an 11-5 victory against West. A bye was played between Bonnycastle and Wiggins, in which Bonnycastle won an 11-8 game. Archer has dropped down from the Victoria contest, and is scheduled to meet the Bonnycastle rink to-night.

THE BIKERS ARE COMING

BERLIN, Feb. 19. (U.P.)—Five German six-day bicycle stars have decided to follow the German boxers' trail across the Atlantic and try for the proverbially big American purses. Duellberg and Petri both of whom have been in the United States before, will soon return there after a brief 'guest performance" in Germany. In addition, Rausch, Buschenhagen and Kroschel, three men who have won a fair reputation in European six-day races, are planning to try their luck on United States tracks this summer.

KINGSTON JUNIORS WHO PLAY ST. JOHN'S HERE TO-NIGHT ARE TOUTED AS A FAST MACHINE

Saints, However, Are in Fine Shape and Hope to Surprise Invaders.

COLLETT IN CHARGE.

Despite the Thaw Ice Conditions Are Good For Battle.

The Kingston juniors, who meet St. John's at Brock street rink in a crucial second round Junior O.H.A. battle, were the winners of a smart section, defeating Gananoque, Royal Military College and Queen's to take the section and then overpowering the speedy Trenton juniors to annex the group honors.

On their record they are a clever hockey machine and the Saints will have to hit their best stride early and keep up the pace until the end if they hope to earn the verdict from the Kingston youngsters who are highly fancied down east.

The ice at Brock street rink has been carefully nursed for this important battle and despite the mild weather which seems to jinx every St. John's home fixture, the conditions will be surprisingly good tonight under the circumstances.

The Saints came through the Lindsay grind in good shape, barring a few minor injuries, and they will take the ice tonight fit and ready for their most exacting test of the year. Defensively St. John's have been playing airtight hockey having been scored on only once a game for the last half dozen fixtures and if they put the final punch to their attack the red and white team should take Kingston, despite their reputation, for a ride tonight.

The biggest junior crowd in years is certain. The Saints are Peterborough's only hope and the whole hockey public is pulling for them to continue their march toward the top. They are the first local junior team to win an O.H.A. game for a number of years and their willingness and team spirit have won them a lot of friends.

Ernie Collett of Toronto has been assigned to handle tonight's battle and he will send the teams away at 8.30 o'clock.

The demand for reserved seat tickets, which are now on sale at Bond's Drug Store, indicates a big crowd for the all important junior clash.

St. John's so far this season have played twelve games their only loss being in an overtime game with Brantford in the S.P.A. series. Here is their record:

O.H.A. GAMES
Preliminary Round
St. John's 16; Lakefield 0 (at Peterborough).
St. John's 5; Havelock 4 (at Peterborough).
St. John's 3; Havelock 1 (at Norwood).
St. John's 10; Lakefield 2 (at Lakefield).
Section Play-offs.
St. John's 3; Havelock 1 (at Peterborough).
St. John's 3; Havelock 1 (at Norwood).
Group Play-offs.
St. John's 1; Lindsay 1 (at Peterborough).
St. John's 1; Lindsay 1 (at Lindsay).
St. John's 3; Lindsay 1 (at Oshawa).
S.P.A. Series
St. John's 3; U.T.S. 2 (at Toronto).
St. John's 3; Brantford 6 (at Toronto);
Exhibition.
St. John's 1; Campbellford 1 (at Campbellford).

Summary: Played 12; won 8; tied 3; lost 1.

St. John's 52 goals; opponents' 21.

The best of sportsmanship was in evidence during the exciting three-game series between Lindsay and St. John's. When the final bell sounded at Oshawa there was a general handshaking all round on the ice and the Saints' players congratulated Goaler Stephens on his great exhibition as the teams came off the rink. Then Lindsay officers and players swarmed into the Saints' dressing rooms to wish the Peterborough kids the best of luck in their future games. Ford Moynes on behalf of the Lindsay Club formally congratulated the Saints and old-timers like Pete Spratt and Art Carew added their best wishes. In the old days a Peterborough-Lindsay clash was real warfare, but since St. John's entered the A.H.A. a far better feeling has sprung up and in the three seasons Lindsay and the Saints have clashed there has been much more pleasant relationship between the two clubs.

It takes ten times as much invested capital to give a worker a job now as it did 100 years ago. That is the result of machinery.

On Thursday night of this week during the Canadian indoor track championship meet at Toronto, the hurdle event appears to have more material in the way of championship form than any other. Ravensdale, the Canadian champion, who will meet Wells of the United States, along with Spence of Detroit, promises to be one of the best numbers on indoor track meets this winter. Ravensdale has been turning in times that have the critics guessing along with his sensational performance at Banff last summer where he won the Canadian title. As for Wells, little was said by the press after his performance at the Millrose A. C. in New York recently, but the facts is that he knocked the world's title for a loop and set up a new mark. That's why on Thursday night more than one track and field fan will watch the results of this event with interest. It is more than likely that there will be a new mark set for the Canadian record.

PITTSBURGH HAS FREAK SCHEDULE IN FOOTBALL

PITTSBURGH Feb. 19. (U.P.)— A peculiar arrangement between the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Institute of Technology will give Pittsburgh football fans an equally peculiar season next autumn.

For the first time in years Pitt will play more games away than at home and only three of its major games will be staged in Pittsburgh.

On successive mid-season Saturdays, neither team will play at home.

All this is brought about by an agreement between Pitt and Tech governing the use of the huge stadium built by the University of Pittsburgh at a cost of $2,000,000. By this agreement, the two schools dove-tail their schedules and take turns at playing in the home town.

Pitt will travel to play Ohio State, Nebraska, West Virginia, Syracuse and Western Reserve. At home the Panthers will meet Waynesburg, Notre Dame, Carnegie Tech and Penn. State.

Carnegie will play a more balanced schedule but neither team will be here November 15 and November 22. The former date is an open one for Tech while Pitt will be at Columbus, O., for its Ohio State game. The following week is open for Pitt and Tech plays Temple at Philadelphia.

COMMUNISTS ARRESTED.

ATHENS, Greece, Feb. 19 (Canadian Press).—Two more Communists were arrested at Larissa yesterday as they took a train for Salonika. Thousands of inflammatory proclamations urging Macedonian workmen to revolt Feb. 26 and March 6, and proclaim the independence of Thrace and Macedonia, were found in their baggage.

Cricket is becoming almost as popular as a summer game, as football is for winter, in the Argentine.

14 HURLERS ON OFFICIAL LIST OF FIRST SQUAD

Only 11 Players Not Among Those Ordered to Present Themselves at This Time.

RUTH STILL HOLD-OUT.

Former Pitching Star Pilot Confident Yankees Will Be Flag Factors.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—At the expense of great pain and by careful devotion to detail, Edgar Barrow was able to bring forth a news story at the Yankee offices yesterday. Names of the twenty-five players who will report to Manager Bob Shawkey at St. Petersburg, Fla., next Monday was officially announced.

The same list was made known about two weeks ago, but it wasn't official and, besides, it wasn't in alphabetical order. Mr. Barrow had everything arranged alphabetically for the scribes yesterday, except Pitcher Henry Johnson, who worked his way down to where Zachary ought to be.

Only eleven Yankees are not among those ordered to report with the first squad. Babe Ruth, a well-known hitter, is one of the boys who didn't receive notice. There is some vague doubt felt at the present time concerning whether Ruth would report Sunday even if they told him as he is engaged in the frolicksome Spring pastime of holding out.

Aside from Ruth, the select set includes Lou Gehrig, Tonny Lazzeri, Mark Koenig, Earle Combs, Ken Williams, Tom Zachary, Ed Wells, George Pipgras, Herb Pennock and Waite Hoyte. The four mysterious holdouts are probably in this group, starting with Ruth and Williams.

Fourteen pitchers are scheduled to appear at St. Peterburg on Monday, namely: Ivy Paul Andrews, Fred Asbeck, Lee Craig, Foster Edwards, Vernon Gomes, Fred Heimach, William Henderson, Henry Johnston, Louis A. McEvoy, Americo Polli, Gordon Rhodes, Roy Sherid, Floyd Van Pelt and Robert E. Walsh. Catchers include Benny Bengough, William Dickey, Bubbles Hargrave, Arndt Jorgens and W. J. Karlon.

Ben Chapman, Lyn Lary and Jimmy Reese will appear for their early infield tryout with Sam Byrd, Allen Cooke and Cedric Durst getting their outfield trial at the same time.

The New York contingent, consisting so far as is known of only Catcher Karlon, will depart on Friday evening in charge of Mark Roth and Paul Krichell, who will work alternately in two shifts. Edwards and Heimach possibly may leave in Karlon's company, thereby extending the scope of labor that Messrs. Roth and Krichell must undertake.

Years of pleading by Professor Wilbert Robinson for an enlarged scouting staff finally brought results yesterday with the signing of Joe Becker by the Brooklyn Robins. Becker, an Internationl League umpire in 1929 and a Pacific Coast League umpire in the six preceding seasons, will do his spying in the Far West.

To Sign One More

Another scout will be signed, according to President Frank York, within the next few days to take care of the mid-West. In this way then entire country will be covered by four Robin scouts. Nap Rucker and Larry Sutton henceforth will confine their watchfulness to the South and East, respectively.

Bobby Clark, the new National League umpire, will make the Spring trip with the Robins. Last year the work was done by Dolly Derr.

INDOOR TRACK MEET OPENS ON THURSDAY

Some of Greatest Stars in Canada Will Compete in Events.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19.—(By the Canadian Press.) — Canadian and world field records are due for a fine old bending and breaking when the second Canadian indoor track championships get under way here to-morrow night, if present indications mean anything.

The meet already shapes up as one of the greatest ever held in Canada, and, naturally, most of the opposition will come from the United States. However, Canadian athletes are expected to hold more than their own, even against the more than strong invasion from the "other side."

One of the outstanding events will be the hundred yard dash, with George Simpson, Ohio State College flyer, going to the start a strong favorite. However, Simpson will have to "pick 'em up and lay em' down" right smartly to walk away with the honors to-morrow night. His opposition consists of Leigh Miller, of Hamilton, winner of the Millrose A. A., sprint at New York recently; Johnny Fitzpatrick, Toronto, who was second to Miller; Chester Bowman, Newark, N.J., speedster who set a new world's record for 45 yards recently, and Victor Leschinskey, of Detroit, who does a lot of practising while patrolling a police beat there.

And then, of course, Dr. Paul Martin, of Switzerland, who is considered one of the greatest middle distance runners in the world, will also be among those present. He will be opposed by Phil Edwards, who has also been heard from before, and one James Ball, who hails from the great open spaces of the Canadian west, and who, it may be recalled, was somewhat of a sensation on Canada's Olympic team. Jimmy 'tis rumored, is back in his Olympic form, and it would not be greatly surprising to see him cast a few splinters from his flying spikes to-morrow night.

Monte Wells, Boston hurdler, is also an entry. Monte has been creating world's records over the timbers quite often recently, and he is already established as a favorite for these events.

R.M.C. FAVORED TO DEFEAT WALKERTON.

Following the games to-night there will be four teams only left in the race for the Intermediate O.H.A. honors. Fans here are favoring R.M.C. to be one of these, by defeating Walkerton at the Arena Gardens in a sudden-death battle to-night. Should the Cadets do the expected they will have advanced into the semi-final round along with Jordan, which team entered the charmed circle by winning over Simcoe. Paris and Toronto Customs and Brokers will be tossed together to-night, and the winner goes into the semi-finals, while Coldwater and Bradford will battle for the same right.

Jordan, according to reports, is a smart aggregation, and it is expected that this sextet will give the Cadets their greatest opposition in the hunt for the championship.

HOME AND HOME SERIES WITH T.V.L.

The prospect of now merely hanging up their uniforms, and calling it a season, is proving too much for the Petes. It has already been decided that an attempt should be made to arrange a home-and-home series with the winner of the Trent Valley League.

The clubs in the T.V.L. have been playing great hockey and their schedule is coming near a close. Campbellford has a shaky grip on first place at present, being one point in the lead of the pack. Stirling pulled a surprise over Campbellford by pulling a win on Monday night, 2-0, right in the Mill Town. Stirling is treading close to the leaders.

CITY LEAGUE CLUBS ON HOME STRETCH.

The City Hockey League should come into its own now. The clubs are staging a merry race down the home stretch and every game furnishes smart hockey. This league will not hold its regular games to-night because of the important battle at the Brock between Kingston and St. John's, but it can be expected that it will hold sway to-morrow or Friday night.

* * * * * *

MUCH INTEREST IN LOCAL GAME TO-NIGHT.

This Kingston-St. John's set-to to-night in the second round of of the Junior O.H.A. playdowns should attract a capacity house. St. John's has earned the support of a large following by their determined play, and they deserve the support of every fan.

This squad from the Limestone City are a fast, rangy bunch of players, who took Trenton into camp. Kingston is rather proud of this team and have visions of them copping the championship.

St. John's improved greatly during their series with Lindsay, and they should, on their play, have won that game in Oshawa by a flock of goals rather than by just two counters. Fans are promised a smart game when they engage Kingston here to-night.

SOME HOCKEY FANS STILL SKEPTICAL.

The Bruising Boston Bruins went through a hockey game in Detroit three nights ago without taking a penalty all evening.

Though it is now a matter of official record and thousands of reputable Detroit citizens witnessed the event, says John Kiernan, in the New York Times, hockey fans throughout the country are still skeptical. It seems hardly credible.

In any event it happened, and now almost anything seems possible. Babe Ruth may never hit another home run for the Yankees and Phil Scott may chase Jack Shirkey into the surf at Miami. One of Carnera's proposed victims may accidentally hit the voluminous Venetian, and knock him over, and there may be a soccer game without an accompanying riot. Bob Jones may not win a major golf championship all year. The Boston Red Sox may win the world's series.

Perhaps that last statement goes a bit too far in the range of possibilities, but a game without a penalty for the bruising Bruins is either a fairy tale or a miracle. Why every time a referee blows a whistle three or four of the Bostonians start automatically for the penalty coop. Eddie Shore was dozing as a taxicab carried him down Eighth Avenue, after the last Ranger-Boston game, and the shrill whistle of a traffic cop sounded through the night.

"You're blind!" shouted Eddie, rousing up indignantly, "I never tripped him. He ran into me!"

That's the Boston spirit, and it deepens the Detroit mystery Perhaps the Bruins can furnish an alibi. Strangers may have stolen their uniforms and played under their names. Perhaps the Detroit authorities bound over the Bruins to keep the peace. A committee should be appointed to get to the bottom of this thing. If the Bruins have really become pacifists world peace is just around the corner.

* * * * * *

MAROONS LIKELY NEW STANLEY CUP HOLDERS.

Although the Bruins are far in the lead in the N. H. L. in total victories, and have one of the greatest teams in the history of the game, some close followers of the game think that the Montreal Maroons will come through to win the Stanley Cup in the play-offs.

The Maroons have a fine team and anything can happen in a short series. This is the same Maroons' team that finished nowhere last season, swishing the rubber aimlessly about the ice and skating like a brigade of antiquated bricklayers. Except for a few spares the Maroons haven't been changed at all.

Toronto has an outside chance to scramble into the play-offs, but the odds are on the Ottawa Senators to hold their position and make the grade. The teams can take it easy now and prepare for the post-season scramble.

KILLED IN PISTOL DUEL

SPARTANBURG, S.C.—In a pistol duel at such close range that the clothing of both men was set on fire, a desperate negro was killed and a constable seriously injured near here early to-day. Both fell, their clothing blazing. Sam Bird, the negro, was dead when other officers secured water to extinguish the flames.

SAVED ICE FOR TO-NIGHT'S FIXTURE

As a Result Conditions Are Good For Battle With Kingston.

The ice in Brock Street Rink is in much better shape for to-night's big Junior O.H.A. battle between Kingston and St. John's than would be imagined from the conditions outside. The rink staff got two good floods on the surface after the Intermediate game on Monday night, and the building has been tightly closed ever since, saving the ice for to-night. As a result, while the streets were running with water this morning, there was 6 degrees of frost inside the rink.

You Need Bon Ami Powder as well as Cake

DO you know that Bon Ami comes in two forms—Powder and Cake? Both are made from the same ingredients —both have the same wonderful gift of cleaning and polishing without scratching —both blot up the grime without hard rubbing or scouring.

For cleaning and polishing windows and mirrors, the handy Bon Ami Cake has been the world's favorite for 38 years. But for bathtubs, tiling, fine kitchen utensils, Congoleum and other large surfaces you'll find the scratchless, snowy-white Powder, in its sifter-top can, more convenient. Most housewives keep both Powder and Cake always on hand!

NEW AIR MAIL ROUTE.

Western Airways Plane Lands at Hudson to Open Service Into North.

HUDSON, Ont., February 18 (Canadian Press). — A Gipsy Moth airplane belonging to the North-Western Airways Limited, and equipped with Handley-Page safety slot devices, landed here this afternoon from Winnipeg to inaugurate a new air service between here and points north. The planes are to give a regular service from here which has been without a regular air service since the Western Canada Airways moved away in 1928, and also at all times to give service to the long traveller. This later will fill a long felt want as the Western Canada Airways with their larger machine, will be able to do this to advantage except on regular mail days. Later, if business warrants it, cabin planes will be placed in service.

TELEVISION SIGNAL SUCCESS

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. — For the first time in history, according to officials of the General Electric Company here, a television signal was transmitted over a distance of 20,000 miles to-day. The signal was transmitted from W2XAF, the company's experimental short wave station, to VK2ME at Sydney, Australia, the signal was received in Australia and rebroadcast, being picked up again at Schenectady.

Needless Pain!

Nowadays, people take Aspirin for many little aches and pains, and as often as they encounter any pain.

Why not? It is a proven antidote for pain. It works!

And Aspirin tablets are absolutely harmless. You have the medical profession's word for that; they do not depress the heart.

So, don't let a cold "run its course." Don't wait for a headache to "wear off." Or regard neuralgia, neuritis, or even rheumatism as something you must endure. Only a physician can cope with the cause of such pain, but you can always turn to an Aspirin tablet for relief.

Aspirin is always available, and it never fails to help. Familiarize yourself with its many uses, and avoid a lot of needless suffering.

HOME IS BURNED; MOTHER IS DEAD; FAMILY IN NEED

Husband From Erie, Penn., Finds Mother and Four Children in City With Another Man.

CLARINA CASE.

Regular Monthly Meeting of Children's Aid Society is Held.

One of the brief, business-like sessions that are characteristic recently of the meetings of the Board of Management of the Children's Aid Society was held yesterday afternoon in the City Council Chamber. In the absence of the president and first vice-president, the chair was taken by the second vice-president, Mrs. J. Fanning.

J. Edgar read the minutes of the last meeting and his own report as superintendent of the society. Two items that were of interest were the one relating to the visit here of a man from Erie, Pennsylvania, in search of his four children, brought here by his wife when she left their home with another man. This was the second occasion on which the wife had deserted her husband. The first time he took her back. This time he reclaimed the children and refused to have anything more to do with the fickle-minded lady.

The second item was with regard to a family at Clarina, about thirty miles from here, in urgent need of assistance. The family was burnt out recently and the mother has since died, leaving several children in dire need of help. It was rather a problem, according to Mr. Edgar, who contemplates visiting them soon, to find the best way of transportation. F. H. Dobbin advised the superintendent to travel by plane to Warsaw and thence by stage, if possible.

Mr. Edgar reported 7 applications for children during the last month; children brought to the Shelter (not wards), 10; children returned to parents (not wards), 3; children made wards, 4; complaints received and investigations made, 4; mail received, 49; mail sent out, 107; places visited (one), Gull Lake; Police Court attendance, 1; wards in foster homes heard from, 4; wards placed out, 4; wards returned to the Shelter, 2; wards visited, 3; warnings given, 1. BROCKVILLE WILL HAVE NEW PLANT

Feldspar Company of Canada Will Open Factory Shortly —Grind Feld Spar.

MAKE TILE IN FUTURE.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Feb. 19 (Canadian Press).—Cleveland interests, it was announced here to-day, will establish a plant here within a short period of time for the grinding of feldspar with which to cater to both the domestic and foreign trades and eventually will open a further plant for the manufacture of tile and similar products. The concern, to be known as the Feldspar Company of Canada, is connected with plants in Cleveland and Warsaw, N.Y., and is controlled by A. H. Martin, of Cleveland. A factory will be built immediately on a site adjacent to the industrial area and the raw feldspar will be obtained in Hastings and Lanark Counties.

600 LUMBER-FEET IN ELMWOOD LOG

Timber Brought From Ennismore By Peterborough Lumber Company.

"The biggest log ever seen in Peterborough" was the broad statement made by an interested bystander who gazed in wonder at the loaded sleigh brought to rest by the driver, W. D. Cavanagh, of Ennismore, outside the Hunter street office of the Peterborough Lumber Company, to whom the load was consigned.

The focus of attention, to the little knot of onlookers—a log, boasted a length of fourteen feet, with a 36 inch diameter at the bottom and 32 inch diameter at the top. It was estimated that it contained about 600 feet of marketable elmwood and it was valued at $30. The weight it was compted would be in the neighborhood of three tons.

The log represented half of a tree which was cut on Mr. Cavanagh's property in Ennismore, the other half was brought to the city to-day.

Quite a brisk discussion was opened up, opinions beoing pretty eevnly divided. The manager of the Lumber Company's office, a man with an extensive experience in the handling of lumber, and whose opinion could be said to carry weight, was of the opinion that the log was a mere "wort" compared to other logs which are at present lying in the company's yards.

He further stated that on one occasion two logs, each of much larger dimensions than the one disputed, were brought into the city as one load.

Other men took up the cudgels in the manager's favor and said they had seen trees so wide of girth that when falled, one could not see over the top of the trunk.

How the argument resulted is not known but it can be said without fear of contradiction that the load would have made an admirable yule log for the mythological Cyclops— that is supposing such a festive season was observed by these giant dwellers of the caves.

CONFERENCE IS DATED SEPT. 30

Great Imperial Gathering Will Be Staged in London—Held Every Three Years.

POSTPONED LAST YEAR.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Feb. 19.—(Canadian Press Cable, via Reuter's).—It was officially announced in Australia to-day that the Imperial Conference would open on September 30 in London.

The Imperial Conference, usually held every three years, was postponed a year ago in view of the then unsettled state of British politics and the British Labor Government's endeavors to arrange the present Naval Conference.

The British Government last July announced it was inviting the Dominions to attend an Imperial Conference at which the chief subject for discussion will be ways and means of extending and developing inter-Empire trade.

At that time the Labor Government expressed the view that extension of the Imperial tariff preference system was not the best method of fostering Empire trade.

The Conference will be practically simultaneous with the gathering of the Chambers of Commerce of the British Empire, to be held in London next October.

STUDENTS CHANGE LITTLE.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19 (Canadian Press). — Students in Canadian universities possess very much the same characteristics as past generations, Dean A. T. Delury, University of Toronto, said to-day when asked if students were not becoming more flippant. Any tendency to flippancy or irresponsibility or desire for excessive freedom, he believed was due to the large numbers in attendance and the consequent publicity that follows any unusual acts on their part.

PETERBOROUGH CANADA

PIETRO FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Trial Arose Out of Fatal Shooting Following Drinking Party Last October.

TWO SHOTS FIRED.

WELLAND, Ont., Feb. 19 (C.P.) — Following deliberation of one half hour a jury in the local Assizes yesterday found Frank Pietro, Thorold South, not guilty of the murder of Poseph Lupuschinski, also of Thorold South.

In discharging Pietro, Mr. Justice Garrow said he had had a narrow escape from a long prison term or even a more serious result.

The charge arose out of the shooting of Lupuschinski on the night of October 14 last. His body was found on a vacant lot in Thorold township the next day. Evidence showed deceased with five other of his countrymen had visited a house in the neighborhood and attempted to gain admittance for a drink and a visit with several girls who lived there. Refusal to admit them resulted in a fight. Pietro, a boarder at the house and another Italian, who has not been seen since, attacked the six Poles with clubs.

In the course of the fight two shots were fired, one of which mortally wounded Lupuschinski, who travelled about 400 yards before falling dead.

Few Contagious Disease Cases in City at Present

Other cities may have their health problems and scarlet fever cases, but Peterborough has none of these. It was reported at the Board of Health meeting yesterday afternoon that there are only five cases of contagious diseases known here.

The Board will ask the City Council for an appropriation of $7,000 for maintaining Queen Mary Hospital for the current year. This is a decrease of $600 from last year.

A resolution was passed and will be forwarded to the Ontario Board of Health asking that the Provincial Department make a report on the pasteurizing plants in the city.

Healthful Advice

MR E. is a prominent business man in a central western city, engaged in the brokerage business and owning a string of producing oil wells in an adjoining State. Mr. S. is his attorney, one of the most prominent members of the bar in his State.

E. had been ill for some time, and didn't care who knew it. It was not the acute sort of illness that permits one to take to bed and "suffer in comfort," but the kind that most of us are familiar with; the kind we have to take to work with us—or to the theatre; the kind of illness that spoils work and play.

Among others to whom he complained of his condition, E. told S. of his symptoms. S., a big husky, healthy sort of fellow, gave E. the name and address of his Chiropractor and told him that adjustments would undoubtedly help him.

E. had more than once risked a hundred thousand dollars on the judgment of his attorney. But, strange to say, he didn't think his advice in health matters worth a plugged nickel. He may not have thought of it in that way, but his actions so indicated, for he failed to take the advice.

Weeks went by and E. felt worse than ever. Again he was telling S. of his sufferings.

"Didn't my Chiropractor help you any?" S. asked him.

"I didn't go to see him, John. I'm too sick a man to monkey with any faith-cures."

"So—you think Chiropractic is faith-cure, do you?" the attorney retorted. "Well, Bob, that just shows that as a health-seeker you are a good oil man. Now, just in the line of business, I'm going to take you to my Chiropractor right now! If you don't understand what business I have in taking you there, I'll explain that you are too profitable a client for me to let you pass out. Now get your hat on and come with me, for I'm not going to answer the questions you came here to ask until you have taken that adjustment and arranged for enough more to get you back on your feet again. Let's go!"

Beyond question, E. was thinking sulphurous phrases that he did not care to put into language, but he went to the Chiropractor, for there was little else he could do.

And it was only a couple of months later, when the cause of his troubles had been corrected by adjustments, that he had to admit that S. knew something about health as well as the law. To-day he is more grateful to S. for having set him on the road to health than for any of the good legal advice he has ever had from him.

The following with their committees will be chairmen: Heavy Horses—Tom Graham; Light Horses—Chris Graham; Beef Cattle—Charlie Westlake; Dairy Cattle—Charles Moore; Sheep — Wes. Fallis; Swine—Tom McIndoo; Agriculture—Frank Kitney; Horticulture—E. F. Mason; Grounds and Concessions— Jack Gillespie; Grounds and Improvements—Tom Brown; Reception —Vincent Eastwood Sr.; Sports—D. A. Loomis; Gates—Charlie Cummer; Poultry—George Paxman; Race Horses—Stanley Lowe.

These committees will meet separately and arrange their prize lists and then a complete prize list will be drawn up.

CANADIAN LEGION B.E.S.L.
Peterborough Branch

At the monhtly meeting of the Canadian Legion held on Monday evening at the Legion Hall, presided over by J. Abraham, president, a great deal of routine business was dealt with. It was unanimously decided to adopt the suggestion of the Provincial Command to change the financial year, which is at present from January 1 to December 31, to April 1 to March 31.

It was reported that the Program Committee is very busy and will be in a position to make the monthly meeting nights well worth attending, as they intend to furnish some prominent speakers as well as entertainment. The Program Committee will work in conjunction with the Entertainment Committee.

The president gave an address on Pension Matters and other items pertaining to returned soldiers' problems, after which a great deal of discussion took place.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

OBITUARY

MRS. LEONARD G. GROTTICK.
The death occurred on Tuesday of Mrs. Leonard H. Grottick of 122 Dublin street, in her 21st year.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Whitworth and was born in England.

In addition to her husband and parents, she leaves one daughter and a son, also eight sisters: Helen, Violet, Annie, Ethel, Myrtle, Celia, Frances and Irene.

The funeral will be held on Friday at 2.30 p.m., from the family residence to Little Lake Cemetery. The service will be conducted by Rev. J. G. Bousfield.

J. B. CUNCANNON
Word reaches The Examiner of the death of J. B. Cuncannon, a former resident of this city, which occurred at Morrin, Alberta, on February 14, and will doubtless be received with much regret by his many old friends here.

The late Mr. Cuncannon was a native of Liskeard village, Durham County, and had attained the age of 63 years.

His wife predeceased him two year ago. He leaves to mourn his loss two sons, Max and Stanley, and two daughters, Mrs. C. Baille and Mrs. S. Boyd, all of Morrin, Alberta, and three sisters: Mrs. T. H. Ashby and Mrs. Charles Gibson of this city, and Mrs. M. Miller of Pontypool, and one brother, T. W., of Birtle, Manitoba.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Cuncannon paid a visit to this city four years ago to renew old acquaintances after an absence of eighteen years.

MRS. ELIZABETH BORLAND.
Following a short illness, Mrs. Elizabeth Borland died at her home, 25 Victoria Avenue, Tuesday, at 11.30 a.m., in her 90th year. She was in general good health, although confined to her chair for some few years.

Her husband, Lewis Borland, predeceased her 33 years ago. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ellen Borland, and one brother, Richard Carveth, both of this city; two daughters, Emma and Martha, both of this city; three sons: Lewis of Calgary, Alberta, Alfred of Dauphin, Manitoba, and Gilbert of Peterborough, and two grandsons, Donald in Dauphin and Homer in this city.

Interment will take place in the family plot at Little Lake Cemetery, following the service at the home at 2.00 p.m., Thursday. Rev. McLean of St. Andrew's United Church will officiate.

NINE DIE IN GREEK BLAST.

ATHENS, Greece, Feb. 19. (C.P.)—Nine persons were killed and a number of others injured in an explosion which to-day destroyed the powder works and munitions depot at Liosia, a suburb of Athens. The fire which followed the explosion was finally extinguished.

The depot cantained 200,000 hand grenades, all of which were destroyed. Complete details were not immediately available but authorities saw no reason to suspect incendrianism.

Sergeant-At-Arms.

Lieutenant-Colonel Henry W. Bowie, sergeant-at-arms of the House of Commons, is the functionary who, when Parliament opens February 20, will answer the door of the green chamber when Black Rod knocks to announce that the Governor-General desires the attendance of the Commoners in the Senate. — Photograph by Editorial Service.

GOOD PROGRAM AT SOCIETY MEETING

Omemee Women's Institute Holds Regular Monthly Meeting—District Notes.

OMEMEE, Feb. 19. — (Examiner Correspondence).—The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. E. Jamieson on Wednesday evening. There were seventeen ladies present. The meeting opened in the usual manner with the president in the chair. Following the minutes of the previous meeting, the roll call was responded to by singing, recitations and readings. Two piano solos by Miss Frances MacPherson and Miss Jean McGinness were nicely rendered and much enjoyed.

Correspondence read by the secretary, Mrs. H. McGinness, included a letter of appreciation from Mrs. Brown, of Utterson, for the splendid bale of clothing, and also for the donation of $10, which was used in purchasing underwear for the needy of that place.

Mrs. T. E. MacPherson and Mrs. J. Magee were appointed to purchase material to commence sewing and it was also decided that each member make an 18-inch square of crazy patchwork and bring to the next meeting where it would be arranged to have them made into quilts. Several ladies were appointed to quilt a quilt for a non-member at the home of Mrs. T. E. MacPherson.

A letter was read regarding the home nursing course which commences March 17.

A question drawer was planned for the next meeting. Mrs. J. Palmer consented to take charge of same.

A social time was enjoyed, with Mrs. R. J. Cornwall, Mrs. F. Evans and Mrs. W. McQuade as hostesses.

Wide Awake Mission Band.

The Wide Awake Mission Band of Trinity United Church held a very successful Valentine program and social in the Sunday school-room on Friday evening. The decorations were very attractive and appropriate to the season. Cut-outs of red cupids and red hearts adorned the walls, while the windows were curtained with red and white and baskets of red roses adorned the platform, which was made cozy-looking by the use of home furnishings.

The leaders, Mrs. Blanchard, Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. C. L. Morcombe, are to be congratulated on the success of the affair.

The following program was rendered, after which dainty refreshments were enjoyed:

Opening hymn. Lord's Prayer.
Instrumental duet — Hazel and Gladys Wilson.
Chorus by the Mission Band.
Remarks about recitations from the study book, "Friendship Trails"—Mr. Blanchard.
Recitation—"Up to Date," Arthur Weir.
Recitation — "My Indian Friend," Arthur Marshall.
Solo—"My First Music Lesson," Doreen Morcombe.
Recitation—Maye Faulkner.
Recitation—Wilma Bradley.
Recitation—"Just Girls and Boys," Jack Williamson.
Vocal duet—Mrs. Morcombe and Miss L. Race.
Recitation—Billy Palmer.
Recitation—"Canadians All," Howard Vaughan.
Instrumental duet—Mrs. I. Connell and Miss L. Race.
Solo—Doris Vaughan.
Recitation Audrey Baxter.
Recitation—Rebecca Palmer.
Recitation—Florence Marshall.
Trio—Mrs. Morcombe, Miss L. Parsons and Rev. J. T. E. Blanchard.
Playet—"Mrs. Smith's Mite Box," by six girls.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Cyril Elliott.
Reading—Rev. J. T. E. Blanchard.
Duet — Misses M. Faulkner and Christina Connell.
Duet—Arthur and Russell Marshall.
God Save the King.

Horses Runaway.

While unloading cream cans at the C.N.R. station one morning last week, Oswald Ruth's team of horses became frightened and made a dash for liberty. The driver managed to hold on to them until they turned at Sturgeon street corner when the sleigh slewed, striking a telegraph pole and upsetting the driver and the contents of the sleigh. The horses continued on their way toward home, but were caught a short distance out of the village where the driver, who was none the worse for his mishap, soon had them in charge again.

Sleighing Party.

The first sleighing party of the season was held on Friday evening by the Anglican Sunday school scholars, who enjoyed a merry ride around the village streets. Later they retired to the school-room where refreshments were served and, needless to say, met the requirements of the inner man.

Men's Church Choir.

On Sunday evening next the choir of Trinity United Church will be composed entirely of men, and no doubt a treat is in store for those who attend. The pastor has chosen for his subject, "Play the Game."

Personals.

Mr. George Morton, of Belleville, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Morton. His friends will be sorry to learn he is suffering from blood poisoning in his hand.

Mrs. William Magee and daughter, Mrs. Ed. Jamieson, were called to Toronto last week, owing to the sudden and serious illness of the former's brother, Mr. T. A. Mills.

Mr. Balsdon, of Whitby, is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. C. L. Morcombe.

Mrs. Harry Bigelow, of Bethany, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Howden, over the week-end.

Mr. Merritt Bradburn, of Kingston, paid a short visit with his mother and sister in town on Wednesday evening, having came up to take degree work in the local Masonic lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ford, Peterborough, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ford, on Saturday.

Miss V. Moyer spent Saturday with Toronto friends.

Mr. W. Connell visited his sisters, Mrs. A. L. Brown and Miss M. Connell, in Lindsay, on Wednesday.

Mr. Grant, of Bobcaygeon, was in town Saturday on business.

Mrs. Hallingham and Mrs. Tully, of Peterborough, spent Wednesday with Mrs. J. Rutherford and the Misses Rutherford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cornell, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Cornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker and daughter, Miss Buddy Parker, of Toronto, and Miss Irene Nelson, of Peterborough, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Parker over Sunday.

Mrs. T. A. MacPherson was called to Penetang last week, owing to the death of her cousin.

Miss A. Rutherford spent the week-end at the home of Mr. D. McMann, of Reaboro.

Mr. Stanley Tripp, of Toronto, paid a short visit with his father, Mr. G. Tripp, on Monday.

Mrs. J. T. E. Blanchard left on Saturday for her home in Merrickville, having received the sad news that her sister-in-law was ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Harley Overholt is recuperating at his home in Omemee after his serious operation in the Cobourg Hospital five weeks ago for appendicitis.

Mr. I. H. Fee visited his daughter, Mrs. T. Rowan, in Lindsay, on Wednesday.

Mr. Walter Mitchell visited his wife in Toronto on Sunday, where she is convalescing with her mother.

Dr. Harry Bradley, of Wheatley; Orville Bradley, of Detroit; Fred Bradley, of Brighton, and Gordon Bradley, of Toronto, attended the funeral of their father, the late Joseph Bradley, on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Wagstaff, of Campbellcroft, visited her daughter, Mrs. L. Parker, over Sunday.

TAX MILL RATE UNDECIDED.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 19 (Canadian Press).—The local Board of Control was unable to strike the city's tax mill rate last night when Finance Commissioner George Wilson presented a report which revealed a deficit of $3,000,000 in the Police Benefit Fund. The report said steps should be taken by the city at once to place the fund on a sound acturial basis.

Mayor Bert Wemp said the report was unfavorable to an increase in wages asked by the police force and fire-fighters.

ASSISTANCE TO WAR VETERANS PROMISED

1,500 U.S. Guardsmen to Patrol Border

PROPOSED U. S. BORDER PATROL IS AIMED AT ILLEGAL ENTRANTS NOT GOOD CITIZENS OF CANADA

Total of 3,000 Men Divided Between Mexican and Canadian Ports of Entry.

10,000 Aliens Cross Yearly.

Be to Advantage of Dominion to Make Some Changes if U. S. Plan Goes Through.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 20. — (By Ken Clark, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—"To keep the bad people—not good Canadians—out" and to stop smuggling along the Canadian border the treasury, according to present plans, will propose to Congress a patrol of about 1,500 men between ports of entry. The "bad people" are smugglers and those who attempt to enter the United States illegally

The Canadian Press learns plans for re-arrangement of customs stations on the border and a patrol, the subject of conferences between departments, have progressed to a point, where a most accurate assessment is possible. The figure of 3,500 is based on the estimate offered by the Department of Labor for a total of 3,000 men on the Canadian and Mexican lines

Same Powers as Coast Guard

These patrol men would have the same status as enlisted men in the Coast Guard, but it is understood the organization would be separate from that body. They would not be charged with any other duties now falling upon the shoulders of employees in the customs, immigration or agricultural departments. They would simply be policemen crying "Hey, you! where do you think you are going. Can't you see this isn't a point of entry?"

Some emphasis is now being laid upon the function of the patrol in keeping out illegal entrance. There are naturally no statistics upon alien smuggling, but a well-founded guess at the number of aliens illegally crossing the Canadian border is 10,000 a year.

It is now definitely assumed there will be a conference at Ottawa upon proposals for re-arrangements of customs stations. If the United States realigns its customs houses, it is said here, it would be to the advantage of Canadian and American services and citizens to have some changes made in the Canadian positions.

$5,940 SURPLUS IN WATERWORKS

Total Revenue For Past Year Amounted to $134,626.46.

The total net operating profit of the Waterworks Department of the Utilities Commission for 1929, as shown in the annual statement, was $5,940.03, as compared with $578.57 in 1928, an increased profit for last year of $5,325.46.

The total revenue for the year was $134,626.46, which was more than $4,000 in advance of the $130,535.72 revenue in the previous year. Of this revenue $53,918.68 was from the domestic consumer, $31,800.43 from metered consumers and $32,127.68 for city fire protection.

Total operating charges were $55,548.48, and sinking fund charges reached $17,194.98. The interest paid to the city less accrued bank and other interest, was $54,969.36, and depreciation charges on office equipment, tools and plant, and trucks, reached $1,009.61. The gross operating charges totalled $128,722.43.

The latest Federal estimates show that there were 47,171,000 head of sheep in the United States on January 1, 1929. These were valued at more than $500,000,000.

Seat in Synagogue Costs Victor $50

TORONTO, Ont.—As the result of a week's arbitration Judge Tyler announced in County Court to-day that Harry Sopman must pay Zelig Wagman $50 because he forced him from a pew in the House of Jacob Synogogue. A claim of $50 damages for the plaintiff was dismissed as was a counter claim of the same amount of the defendant.

Lots of Farm Work For Those in Need

TORONTO, Ont.—Every unemployed man in Toronto who is sincere about undertaking farm work, can be found employment in from two to four days, according to G. A. Elliott, Director of Colonization for the Ontario Government. An average of from 150 to 200 men per month have been placed on farms during the Winter, he said.

KINSMEN HEAR MAJOR BANTICK

National President of Kinsmen Clubs Addresses Local Organization.

OBJECTS OUTLINED.

Outlining in a clear and forcible manner what Kinsmanship really meant and what the objects of the Kinsmen organization were National President Major S. H. Bantick addressed the Peterborough Kinsmen Club in the Empress Hotel last night. Major Bantick was accompanied by National secretary R. V. Millar and National Registrar Max Kirby. The event was a big affair in the history of the Peterborough club, the twenty-seventh chapter in the Dominion of Canada.

Ten years ago Harold Rogers, a Hamilton boy returning from overseas, found that many of his pre-war days pals had made the supreme sacrifice or had left their native city, so he had the happy thought to form some kind of a club so that the young men of Canada might carry on in Canada as those who had been left behind in France did. Since that time with no paid organizers twenty-seven chapters of the Kinsmen have been organized in Canada with Western Canada taking the lead. In the past year the membership has increased ninety-five percent.

Kinsmen have but one object declared Major Bantrick and that is to make some little contribution to the betterment of Canada our home or country. The creed of Kinsmanship is set forth in four articles and may be summarized in the development of business and professional ethics; community service work; upholding of constitutional authority and the national development of Canada within the British Empire. The kinsmen organization is Canada's only truly National Service club and is composed of young men between the ages of 21 and 40.

President Bantick in closing outlined to the members of the Peterborough club 25 in number the various kinds of social work being carried on in the other clubs in the Dominion. The gathering was preside over by Alex Elliott the president of the local organization.

CITY'S GAS PLANT SHOWS PROFIT

$254.21 SURPLUS.

The city-owned Gas Department under the management of the Peterborough Utilities Commission, declared a profit of $254.21, above a depreciation and renewal reserve of $12,066.62. The Utilities Commission took over the Gas Department on November 1, 1928, and the financial statement just announced is for the period extending to the end of 1929.

The total revenue for the fourteen months was $104,947.08. Operating expenses were $65,455.55, interest on the investment, $24,678.50, and depreciation and renewal reserve close to $14,500.00.

During the period a total of $8,363.08 was spent on machinery and equipment, city mains and meters.

Debenture obligations on the plant amount to $335,000.00, while accounts payable total $2,348.51.

WIDE INTEREST IS ROUSED OVER NEW U. E. PARTY

Morning Post is Favorable But Claims Empire Union Plan is Tory Policy.

WILL ONLY SPLIT PARTY.

No Mention Given of Any Commons Member Forsaking Conservatism to Join.

LONDON, February 20 (By Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent). — The Morning Post consistently maintains an orthodox conservative attitude. But to-day it makes its own position clear in regard to Lord Beaverbrook's United Empire Party. It announces that yesterday it rejected a three-column advertisement issued by Lord Beaverbrook, appealing for campaign funds.

In an open letter to Lord Beaverbrook The Post says: "As you know, your policy of an economic Empire Union is one that we all in The Morning Post have at heart. The official Conservative Party policy may not be all we could wish for, but in politics things are only achieved in stages. It seems the Conservative Party is moving towards the goal at which you, and Lord Rothermere and The Morning Post are aiming. The formation, therefore, of a new party appears unnecessary, and can only result in one of two things—the disruption of the Conservative Party, or the failure of the United Empire Party. Of the two, we prefer the latter."

Telegraph Stays Aloof.

The Daily Telegraph, Lord Burnham's old paper which is now owned by Lord Camrose (William Ewart Berry), a brother of Sir Gomer Berry, is standing aloof from the present dispute. In the Burnham days The Telegraph followed the recognized Conservative track in a jog-trot fashion an dits policy under later ownership has not altered. The Berry brothers have newspaper interests almost as far-reaching as Lord Rothermere, and more extensive than Lord Beaverbrook's holdings, but neither brother has attempted to impress his own personality upon the political field.

While admitting the truth that everybody who has mentioned "food taxes" in recent history has come to grief the News warns its leaders the latest appeal is being made to a vast new electorate, profoundly ignorant of the elements of economics. "Lord Beaverbrook and his

Lindsay Chief Asked To Take Fingerprints

Lindsay's police chief was recently visited by a lady who asked to be "fingerprinted." The chief, always ready to oblige, but not a little surprised at such a request, got out his equipment and "inked up" the applicant's fingers.

It appears that this lady had served overseas as a nurse with a United States unit. At the end of the war she received a pension and as she moved to Canada, it comes here by mail. One a year the department sends her a statement to be signed and to which her fingerprints must be attached or the pension will cease. The idea is that her successors could forge her name and keep on receiving the pension after her death, but no one can forge the fingerprints.

EIELSON'S BODY FOUND IN WRECK

Message From Pilot Crosser States Death Had Been Instantaneous.

CRASHED IN FOG.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, February 20. (C. P.) — The body of Pilot Carl Ben Eielson was found on Tuesday in the wreckage of his plane 90 miles southeast of North Cape, Siberia, Pilot Joe Crosson radioed from the fur-trading ship, Nanuk, at North Cape, to-night.

Eielson and his mechanic, Earl Borland, were lost November 9 last, while flying from Teller, Alaska, to the Nanuk. Borland's body was found last Thursday.

Killed Instantly.

Crosson messaged that Eielson had been killed instantly, as had Borland. He said the bodies of the two fliers would be brought to the Nanuk tomorrow if the weather conditions permitted and would be taken to Fairbanks as soon as possible.

The flyers' plane crashed in the fog while Eielson and Borland were on a flight to the Nanuk, a fur trading ship icebound here. The wreckage was found on January 25 by Pilots Joe Crosson and Harold Gillam, who had conducted numerous scouting trips from the Nanuk.

The plane was torn asunder by its impact with the earth, the various parts of the craft being scattered over a wide area. The motor, near which Borland's body was found, was hurled 100 feet beyond the fuselage, while one wing was broken off 200 feet from where the main portion of the plane came to rest.

DAVID FIFE MEMORIAL MOVEMENT WILL BE DISCUSSED BY ALDERMEN AT MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

Board of Education and City Council Will Confer About Estimates.

39 MILL RATE HOPED FOR.

Active Leaders in Many Fields Are Planning to Aid Memorial.

In their efforts to sit on the tax lid and hold the rate at 39 mills this year, the city council will confer with the Board of Education next Monday night. The council's contention is that a reduction of $5,000 from the Board's requisition is necessary if the tax rate is to be pegged at the figure now contemplated by the aldermen.

Another subject which Mayor Denne will bring up for discussion is the extent of the city's participation in the movement for a memorial to David Fife The Mayor has been for a long time interested in obtaining a demonstration farm or experimental station for this district, and that is one of the reasons for his active support of the memorial which has been suggested through The Examiner.

Must Decide Memorial

While Reeve McIntyre is going ahead with his general plans the city council will immediately decide how it can best help and further the work of the county and the township of Otonabee. One of the first questions which will have to be considered is the form of the Fife memorial. Although there has been unanimous approval of the suggestion of a demonstration farm as a practical memorial, it is first of all desirable that public sentiment shall be conclusively canvassed on this point. Then having formally

FOUR BILLS APPEAR ON SLATE FOR SECOND READING IN THE HOUSE

Ancient Hawkers' and Pedlars' Problem Holds Legislature Up.

SHORT SESSION.

TORONTO, Ont., February 20 (Canadian Press). — In a short mid-week session yesterday, the Legislature considered four Bills up for second reading, sent two of them to the municipal committee for discussion, and passed four Government orders in committee of the whole House.

Amendments to the Municipal Act proposed in two Bills introduced previously by Opposition members, F. W. Elliott, Liberal member for North Bruce, and S. C. Tweed, Liberal, North Waterloo, will be considered in committee. A version of the ancient and much embattled hawkers' and pedlars' problem contained in Mr. Tweed's Bill held it up.

Many Difficulties.

"I think if my friend had sat through half the summer on the committee that tried to settle this problem he would appreciate the difficulties it presents," commented Premier Ferguson. Mr. Tweed sought to have agents selling glass ware and vitreous products added to the list of persons compelled to obtain licenses in municipalities.

A bill providing legislation to adjust school conditions in Burlington Beach was given second reading. Discussing the bill, Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, stated that this municipality at present enjoyed extremely low taxes, 16 mills, including school tax. A commission had hitherto been appointed to administer the district, and this body south further powers.

The Dependents' Relief Act will undergo minor amending through the provision of another bill given second reading. Speaking in the absence of the Attorney-General, the Premier explained that a shrewd lawyer had found a hole in the Act by which "family obligations" might be disregarded in a will.

Act to Protect Widows

The Act provides machinery for dependents who have been disregarded in a will to apply to court and have their share of the estate to which they should be entitled granted them. This Act had been enacted to protect widows and orphans left penniless by men who willed their es-

SECOND REMAND IS GIVEN BROKERS

Bail Renewed For All Nine, Also on Six Employees—Stobie's Cut to $80,000.

CASE UP APRIL 3.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20.—(C.P.)—A further remand to April 3, was granted nine brokers and six of their employees when they appeared in court to-day on charges of conspiracy to defraud the public. The charges were brought as the result of the Government investigation into the stock brokerage situation in Toronto.

Bail, with the exception of two cases was again renewed at the same amount. A reduction of $20,000 was made in the bail of Malcolm Stobie, bringing his bail to $80,000, while in the case of his business partner, C. D. Forlong, it was reduced to $50,000.

Federal House Is Opened With Pomp Of Pre-War Years

Distinguished Citizens From All Parts of Canada Participate in Historic Ceremonies at the Opening of Parliament — Vice Regal Salute Fired.

MORE ADEQUATE PROVISIONS WILL BE MADE FOR NEEDS OF THE VETERANS OF GREAT WAR

Bill Is To Be Introduced To Consolidate the Canad Grain Act and There Are To Be Further Amendments to the Elections and Bankruptcy Acts.

OTTAWA, Ont., February 20. (C.P.) — With distinguished citizens from all parts of the Dominion participating in the historic ceremonies, the Parliament of Canada was opened this afternoon. Spring-like weather made it much more comfortable than is often the case for the crowds which lined the route His Excellency Viscount Willingdon took in proceeding from Government House to the Parliament Buildings.

The weather, however, made one change in the ceremonies. The present Governor-General had revived the custom of earlier predecessors of travelling in state in an open sleigh, instead of the closed automobile which was used during the war years. However, the thaw of the past few days has taken most of the snow off the streets, so the sleigh had to be dispensed with this afternoon. His Excellency, accompanied by his aides, in resplendent uniforms, rode in an open motor car, and received the cheers of the crowds along the way. The Geovernor-General was escorted by Dragoons in full review order.

Salute is Fired.

Sharp at the hour of three the battery from the east side of Parliament Hill boomed forth the Vice-Regal salute. The Guard of Honour from the Governor-General's Foot Guards formed up before the main entrance, presented arms, and the band played the National Anthem as His Excellency arrived.

The Governor-General proceeded to the Senate Chamber where Her Excellency had arrived before him. For weeks tickets for the red chamber have been eagerly sought, and although the place, rich with its golden ceiling, its luxurious furnishings, and its war pictures, was crowded, only a small proportion of the numbers who sought to enter, had been successful.

The members of the House of Commons had been summoned, and when they took their places at the bar of the Senate His Excellency read the Speech from the Throne, which outlined the government's program for the present session.

Many of the Lieutenant-Governors were present, judges of the Supreme Court, members of the headquarters staff, and representatives of the church, were there. The richly gowned women made the spectacle a colorful one.

Legislation foreshadowed in the Speech from the Throne follows along lines already indicated.

Important Legislation.

Possibly the most important legislative proposal mentioned in the Speech is that respecting the various railway companies comprised in the Canadian National system. Also the Speech states that there will be legislation "to make more adequate provision for the needs of the veterans of the Great War and their dependents" and further amendments to the Elections Act, the Bankruptcy Act and the Criminal Code. There is no indication of the nature of the proposed amendments. A Bill, it is announced, will be introduced to consolidate the Canada Grain Act. This measure received much attention at the last session of Parliament.

The attention of the members will be drawn to two important reports which, while the Speech does not say so, are almost certain to produce legislative enactments. These are the reports of the Royal Commission on Radio Broadcasting, and the Royal Commission, which, headed by E. W. Beatty, investigated the question of salaries paid to professional and technical employees of the Civil Service. As already indicated, the Government proposes to introduce legislation based on recommendations made in the former report. The report of the Beatty Commission has not been made public yet. It will be laid on the table of the House probably on Tuesday.

The Speech touches on differences between the Dominion, Ontario and Quebec with respect to water powers. "A solution," it states, "has been sought by conference which it is hoped will lead to a statisfactory settlement of this highly controversial problem."

Return of National Resources

There is mention of agreements which have been arrived at between the Dominion and the Provinces of Manitoba and Alberta for the return of the natural resources to those Provinces. It is also stated that British Columbia and the Government have arrived at an agreement for the return of the lands in the

GOV'T WILL FIGHT INDIAN CAMPAIGN OF DISOBEDIENCE

Governor Appeals to Public Not to Let Extremists Disturb Domestic Peace.

GANDHI AGAINST VIOLENCE.

Claims Freedom's Battle Must Be Fought Till No Representative Left Alive.

LUCKNOW, India, February 20 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters). —Sir Malcolm Hailey, Governor of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, told the Legislative Council today that if Indian extremists started their proposed civil disobedience campaign the Government would use every legal means in its power to defeat it.

The Governor appealed to sober public opinion that the Extremists should not be allowed to disturb India's ordered progress or impede domestic peace.

GANDHI WILL FIGHT.

AHMEDABAD, India, February 20 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).— In another pronouncement on the civil disobedience campaign which the All-India Nationalist Congress has authorized him to put into effect, Mahatma Gandhi, Hindu leader, today declares that if it meets with violence, then violence must be resisted until not a man in the movement is left alive.

Writing in his own newspaper, "Young India," Gandhi declares the only danger of violence is that it may be incidentally aroused in connection with the campaign. And if violence is encountered—he intimates this will come from the authorities. "From whatever quarter it comes," freedom's battle must continue "until not a single representative is alive."

Gandhi declares he would never raise force which would be ultimately hostile to the British. His love of non-violence is superior to everything else, he explains. He is embarking on the civil disobedience campaign much out of his love for the Englishman and the Indian. "By self-suffering I seek to convert, never to destroy him," he adds.

DISPUTE SETTLED.

NEW DELHI, India, February 20 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters). —Loud cheers were evoked in the Indian Legislative Assembly to-day when President V. J. Patel announced he had accepted the agreement proposed by the Viceroy, Lord Irwin, for settlement of the dispute as to where the responsibility lay for the policing and protecting the Assembly.

When Mr. Patel some time ago made his own provisions for policing the Assembly, and there were overridden by the Viceroy, the Viceroy explained the Government assumed responsibility for the safety of the legislators. A series of conferences have been held since and Mr. Patel to-day added he was always willing to be guided by the considered advice of the authorities.

Exchanges Accept Drastic Rules

WIDE CHANGES IN STOCK DEALINGS ARE SUGGESTED

Penalty of Seven Years For Bucketing Heads List of Amendments to Fraud Act.

SIX PROVINCES TO AGREE.

Brokers to be Prohibited From Trading Against Clients—Record Kept of All Trades.

TORONTO, Ont., February 20 (Canadian Press). — Drastic changes in both Provincial legislation and regulations to be imposed by all stock exchanges on their memberships, were recommended to the Provincial Governments of Canada by representatives of the Attorneys-General who conferred here last week on the question of control of brokers and their transactions.

In the report of the conference released last night simultaneously in six provincial capitols, it was recommended that all provinces adopt uniform Security Frauds Prevention Acts, and that, wherever possible, that all stock transactions be made subject to the same exchange regulations and restraints.

Accepted by Six Provinces.

That the report had been accepted and will be acted upon by all Canadian provinces with the exception of New Brunswick was stated here last night by Attorney-General W. H. Price, who presided at the confere. Because most of the Legislatures are now in session, he said that Bills will be introduced at once incorporating the recommendations.

The principal recommendations were that a wider interpretation of "bucketing" be enacted by the Federal Government and that a maximum penalty of seven years be fixed; that brokers be prohibited from trading against their clients; that brokers furnish clients with written confirmation of each transaction, setting forth the quantity purchased, the price, the time of day of execution, the name of the broker from whom purchased or to whom it was sold; that when a stock is fully paid up and held by a client, it be segregated and held in trust for him; that before a stock is listed that more care be shown in determining the financial structure of the commodity; that a record be kept by all traders showing the stock position from day to day, and that a Bill be introduced by the Federal Government setting forth that companies operating within a province, whether or not a Dominion charter is held, shall be liable to the security laws of the Province.

Sufficient Powers Needed.

The report stated: "Experience only will show the method of curbing certain abuses and it is desirable that sufficient powers be given so that these things may be dealt with without the delays occasioned by further amendments to the Act."

In dealing with the question of market trading, the report suggested that the various provinces co-operate completely with the brokers and the leading financial institutions as well as exchanges in securing the adoption of rules for trading that will protect the investor, and, at the time not interfere with the practical methods of trading. The report also urged that the development of the mining and other natural resources of the country must always be kept in mind and care should be exercised in the remedying of abuses not to create others which would only stifle business and not advance the general interests of the public.

TORONTO LIFE GUARDS RESCUE YOUNG MAN TRAPPED IN TREE AS HUMBER RIVER BREAKS UP

Salis Barely Escapes From Car As It Disappears Through Ice at Midnight.

WATERS RISE 12 FEET.

Residents Make Vain Attempts to Launch Boats in Roaring Torrent.

THISTLETOWN, Ont., Feb. 20.—(C.P.)— Bucking their way in a motor boat past the huge cakes and through the swirling waters of the Humber river, life guards from Toronto early to-day rescued Victor Salis, 22, from his perch in a tree, where he had been forced to climb when the ice gave way beneath his motor car last night. Salis was unconscious when rescued and was immediately rushed to the Hospital for Sick Children in this town.

Up Tree All Night.

Aside from cold and exposure he apparently suffered no serious affects from his all night confinement in the upper branches of a shaky elm tree, while the blocks of ice crashed against the trunk and the water continued to steadily rise. Reinforced by the rapidly melting snow the Humber has already risen 12 feet above its normal level and a gliding stream has been transformed into a rushing current.

Salis was caught in the floods late last night when he attempted to make his way in his roadster acros field off the main road. His car began to sink, and a sudden break up in the ice carried it down stream. Young Salis leaped from the machine and clutched frantically at the little tree already strained by the heavy piles of ice against it.

Police Sent For.

Aroused by the cries of help, nearby residents brought police and sent a call to Toronto for the life guards. Motor cars were run up along the river and their headlights focused on the tree where Salis was isolated. A number of vain attempts were made to launch small craft, but the swirling waters cast them back on the ice along the banks. When the lifeguards arrived with their motor boat, rushed up from Toronto on a truck, they tied their craft with a heavy rope to a tree and gradually let themselves down stream to the helpless man.

RARE GOLD VASE FOUND IN TOMB

Believed to Have Once Adorned Dining Room of High Priest Rawer of Egypt.

WONDERFUL NECKLACE.

CAIRO, Egypt, Feb. 20 (C.P.) — Further finds in the ancient tomb discovered recently near the Sphinx were made known here yesterday. Archaeologists were quoted as believing that the chief prize was a large gold vase containing flowers fashioned from gold and which, it is believed, once adorned the dining-room of the High Priest Rawer. It is said that this vase has no parallel in any existing collections of Egyptian antiquities.

A number of additional necklaces have been found. One is composed of 4,000 rubies mounted in a magnificent gold chain and probably belonged to the mother of Rawer.

QUEBEC, February 20 (Canadian Press). — The Bill designed to amend the statutes so that women might be admitted to the practice of law in the Province of Quebec was defeated in the Legislative Assembly yesterday.

POLICE REQUIRE $27,456 IN 1930

Increase of $149 Over 1929 is Asked Council by Police Commission.

SALARIES $22,494

The Police Department's estimates for the current year total $27,456, which is an increase of $148 over 1929. These estimates were passed yesterday by the Police Commissioners.

One hundred dollars of the increase is in telephone and telegraph tolls, and $46.50 is made up of an increase to Inspector Reid.

Chief Newhall withdrew his application of a slight increase to his men, owing to the increased expense to the city of other branches of municipal work. This application was to grade the salaries of each officer to an even 100, bringing them up to a more equal basis with St. Catharines, Stratford, Chatham and other like cities in the province.

This application would have met an increase in the estimates of $1100, but the Chief willingly withdrew out on account of the large city expense this year.

CHAUTEMPS IS REQUESTED TO FORM CABINET

Leader of Radical Socialist Party Asks Tardieu to Accept Portfolio.

STAY AT NAVAL PARLEY.

New Choice of Doumergue Believed to Have Slim Chances of Success.

PARIS, Feb. 20 (C.P.)—Camille Chautemps, President of the Radical Socialist Party, was called upon today by President Gaston Doumergue to form a new Government, replacing the Tardieu Ministry, which resigned Monday.

Chautemps asked former Prime Minister Tardieu to take a portfolio in the new Ministry and to remain at the head of the French delegation to the Naval Conference in London.

M. Tardieu, whose Government was overthrown largely through the efforts of Chautemps, reserved decision on the invitation.

Parleys With Leaders.

M. Chautemps told the President he would try to get together a Cabinet. He left the Elysee Palace and at once began consultations with his supporters and leaders of other groups in search of a Cabinet combination which would give him a majority in the Chamber of Deputies.

M. Chautemps, besides being president of the most important group of the Left wing in the Chamber, recently has superseded Former Premier Edouard Herriot as leader of the entire Left side which Monday voted down Premier Tardieu and his Minister of Finance, Henri Cheron, on a trivial budgetary item.

Political observers thought the chances of M. Chautemps were slim. They were lessened by disagreement within his own party, the Radical Socialists. He was promised the support of the Socialists, second largest group in the Chamber, and more extreme than his. But the Socialists announced that his program must be "satisfactory," a condition which may contain many jokers.

The new Premier-designate spent nearly an hour with the President discussing possible combinations of men which would bring him the support he needed. He spent most of yesterday and last night sounding out various leaders as to whom they would support and what representation they would demand in the Cabinet.

Know Fate To-night.

He told Doumergue that he would report to-night about six o'clock, probably knowing by then whether it would be possible for him to form a ministry.

In accordance with custom the President sent his Secretary-General in the presidential car to escort the chosen man to the Elysee, thus plainly indicating his choice before actually asking him to become Premier.

Chautemps, also in accordance with custom, immediately after leaving the President went to call on the Presidents of the Senate and Chamber, and then on M. Tardieu, to get their counsel.

REPORT UNFAIR O'CONNOR SAYS

Principles of British Justice Violated by Publishing Findings of Probe Into A.B.C.

ONE SIDE PRODUCED.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20.—(C.P.)—Addressing a local Progress Club here yesterday, W. F. O'Connor, K.C., counsel for Louis M. Singer, K.C., head of the Amalgamated Builders' Council, an organization which was recently investigated by a Royal Commission under Gordon Waldron, K.C., said the principles of British justice have been violated by the publication of the findings of the commission.

Displaying a booklet, which he said was issued by the Canadian Department of Labor and contained the Commission's report, Mr. O'Connor commented: "The half-baked opinion of an investigator has been published as Government literature and circularized throughout the whole Dominion.

"The statutes under which the investigation was conducted," he continued, "states the investigation must proceed in camera except for certain portions that will not reflect on anyone. This is a rule evolved in order that the public will not receive a wrong impression. Yet here only one side of the matter is produced and deputations are injured by the reflection.

"It is against the principle of British justice to allow the procedure of investigation to become public when the accused is not given an opportunity to defend himself," said Mr. O'Connor. "Yet this document has gone to every nook and cranny of the country. British justice forbids such a thing."

He intimated if the Commission did not carry through the investigation to a conclusion he would undertake to see the entire situation was cleared up.

FARMERS WORRY AS GRAIN MARKET SETS NEW LOWS

Many Holding For Months, Sacrifice as Prices Slide Six Cents For Record Low.

STEWART SAVES DAY.

Veteran Dealer Stops Drop By Heavy Buying in Face of Drop.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 20 (C.P.)—Downhearted farmers are worried about a grain market cracked wide open. Many of them, after holding "long" wheat for months that have brought only dwindling values, sacrificed their tenure yesterday when prices toppled into a six-cent break and set up new seasonal lows. Others, hanging on in the face of fast-receding prices, dreaded possible further recession at the opening to-day.

Break Without Warning

Wheat quotations fell back 4¼ to 2½ cents per bushel, and they would have dropped still farther had not sudden buying developed at the close. The break came suddenly and as unheralded as a lightning flash in a clear sky. Near the close of an orderly session, the bottom fell out of the market when a report from London said that Wheat Pool officials had accomplished nothing by their journey to Britain.

To James Stewart, veteran grain dealer on the Winnipeg Exchange, observers credit the halt in wheat's reckless rout. He strode into the pit as sales came rushing down in tremendous volume and bought in the face of prices speeding downward. Before the slight rally that came at the close, May wheat had made another new low-price record for the season at $1.14 per bushel.

ADVERTISE IN THE EXAMINER

"There is one item of my home treatment which never varies—the preliminary cleansing of the skin with pure soap and water at least twice a day. For this purpose I always recommend Palmolive Soap."

Antoine

5 Rue Caumon, Paris

"The vegetable oils of Palmolive Soap leave the skin soft, refreshed, responsive"

says the celebrated* ANTOINE *of Paris, who symbolizes the height of beauty culture for lovely women of two continents

Olive oil, as combined with palm oil in Palmolive Soap, produces a lather which brings out natural loveliness. It protects the skin . . . is safe, soothing, delicate.

"SOME clients seem to think," says Antoine of Paris, "that my treatment will give them a beautiful complexion with no more effort on their part than an occasional visit to my salon. 'You compliment me too much, madame,' I say. 'It is necessary for you to do your share between visits to my salon.'"

Antoine continues by stressing the need for soap and water cleanliness . . . and he prescribes, for this purpose, "just one soap—Palmolive."

"Its delicate yet penetrating lather," he says, "is the most effective means of clearing away every trace of dust and rouge and powder from the tiny pe--- -' 'he skin."

Beauty specialist to Paris society

Paris society, New York society, the better-known figures in the theatrical world, form Antoine's exclusive clientele. He is one of the most far-famed of all Parisian beauty specialists with a reputation which extends to both England and America.

Antoine has, of course, experimented with various home beauty methods to determine which would be best. And he is convinced that nothing is so satisfactory as Palmolive.

Pure soap—olive and palm oils

Palmolive is pure. Its color is the natural color of olive and palm oils. It contains no other fats whatever. The natural odor of these oils makes unnecessary the addition of heavy perfumes.

And more than 18,900 beauty experts recognize its special advantages. They find that it cleanses as other soaps can not—that it removes impurities without skin irritation.

You should follow the advice of Antoine of Paris, who numbers among his patrons the world's smartest women.

Massage a lather of Palmolive Soap gently into the pores for two minutes. Then rinse it away with warm water, till you can actually feel the pores being freed of impurities, dirt, make-up. Then rinse with cold water . . . almost to icy temperature. There! Isn't that refreshing?

"I always recommend Palmolive Soap," says Antoine. And his clients find it ideal for the bath, as well. You will, too.

PAST YEAR ONE OF PROGRESS FOR CAMPBELLFORD CHURCH

Treasurer's Report Shows St. John's United Church on Strong Financial Basis.

LARGE CONGREGATION.

CAMPBELLFORD, February 20 (Examiner Staff Correspondence).—The annual meeting of the congregation of St. John's United Church was held on Tuesday evening in the church, when all organizations gave their reports. The pastor, Rev. R. C. Tait, presided.

Mr. Tait, in a few introductory remarks, thanked all who had supported him in his ministry. He looked forward, he said, to greater accomplishments in the future, even though the past had been one of great Strong Financial Basis.

S. A. McGuire, recording secretary giving the treasurer's report, showed the church to be on a strong financial basis. A total amount of $8,200.12 had been handled. Out of this, all expenses had been met, including repairs to church property and salaries. The allocation had also been met in full, and there was a balance for the new year of $43.69.

The report of the Session was read by G. A. Kingston, clerk, and showed a fine standing of the congregation. There were 370 families linked up with the church, with a total of 851 persons.

The strength of the various organizations was very encouraging. The Sunday School totalled 400, the Young People's League 90, the Woman's Missionary Society 160, while the Ladies' Aid had a membership of 65.

Activity in W.M.S.

Mrs. A. D. Bennett, presenting the report of the W.M.S., showed a year of increased activity for that society. Not only had the full number of meetings been held, but membership had increased. The allocation had also been met by systematic giving. Mrs. D. W. Douglas, presenting the secretary's report for the same society, showed total receipts of $925.66. With this money all expenses had been met and many works of charity performed. The church had also benefited materially from the efforts of the ladies.

Choir Report.

The choir report, which was read by Dr. H. Richardson, showed a year of hard work and great accomplishment. During 1929, a total of 140 anthems had been rendered, as well as the presentation of many solos and trios. There was also a balance in the bank of $64.30, with total receipts amounting to $173.48.

J. Irwin, speaking for the Church Property Committee, stated that the buildings were in good shape and fit for many years' service.

He spoke of the effort of last year to raise sufficient money for a new church building but thought that the time was not ripe for action. G. A. Kingston in discussion, stated that the Sunday school and young peoples' organization urgently needed more space, if progress was to be made, and asked that the congregation send a recommendation to the committee to do something definite in the matter.

Ladies' Aid.

Mr. McGuire in the absence of Mrs. C. K. Stevens, read the report of the Ladies' Aid. It showed a year of progress and endeavor. A set of ten communion plates had been given to the church at a cost of $65.

Work on the parsonage had also been undertaken, included in which was the installation of an electric range, valued at $112.18. The financial report showed a total receipt of $4,321.46, with a balance of $3807.33. Mrs. F. de F. Free rendered the financial statement.

Sunday School Report.

The Sunday school report which was read by G. A. Kingston, showed active progress along all lines. The total receipts for the year were $357.07, with a balance on hand of $69.77.

The Cradle roll statement given by Mrs. Bennett, showed a total membership of 55 and a balance of $2.85.

With regard to the Teachers Training Report 25 credits were registered by St. John's for the year 1929.

The C.G.I.T. group showed an advance over the previous year, while the Young men's class, an innovation a few weeks old, which had as its teacher Rev. Tait, registered 30 members on the roll and gave evidence of a quick and prosperous growth.

The major portion of the Girl Guides' report was given by Cecil Stevens, who in a very able manner gave a resume of last year's camp at Stony Point, at which he was an instructor in basket work.

Young People's League.

Dorothy Stenson gave the report of the Y.P.L., which showed a year of activity hard to beat. Plays, teas, lectures and the interesting regular meetings had not only increased attendance but added to the finances. A total of $102.97 had come into the treasury, and a balance of $38.05 remained on hand.

The report of the Mission Circle was read by Nellie Haige. It showed a substantial amount raised with a goodly balance in the bank. Mrs. Tait reported the Mission Band had a year of progressive activity, with a balance of $5.00 to the good.

At the close of the session, I. Armour and T. E. Hall were re-appointed auditors for next year, and S. A. McGuire remained in the office of recording secretary.

A vote of appreciation to the pastor was voiced by Nelson Stone, with a hope that more would take advantage of his scholarly sermons by attending divine service.

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—Big breaks of 6c a bushel in wheat prices at Winnipeg, together with virtual collapse of export demand, severely jolted the Chicago wheat market yesterday. Rushes to sell out and stop losses overwhelmed the wheat pit near the end of the day, forcing Chicago values down nearly 5c to a new bottom-price record for the season and 4c under the Federal Farm Board's basis for loaning money on wheat at collateral. Giving special impetus to the smash in prices were London despatches current asserting that hand-to-mouth buying on the part of European importers would continue unaltered.

Chicago closing quotations on wheat were nervous, 3¾c to 4c a bushel lower than Tuesday's finish. Corn closed 1 5-8c to 1 7-8c to 2c down, oats 1-2c to 5-8c to 1c to 1 1-8c off, and provisions showing 15c to 30c drop.

MONTREAL PRODUCE.

MONTREAL, Feb. 20.— The local butter market exhibited a distinctly softer tone yesterday, with finest New Zealand and Eastern Townships No. 1 changing hands at 35½c, with some odd lots as low as 35c and some as high as 35¾c. Dealers reduced their prices to retailers to 38c for prints and 39c a pound for solids.

Fresh egg supplies here are sufficient to meet the demand, and because of this fact prices were further reduced yesterday. Fresh specials were quoted at 51c to 52c a dozen; fresh extras, 49c to 50c; fresh firsts, 47c to 48c; fresh pullet extras, 47c; fresh seconds, 45c; storage firsts, 43c, and storage seconds, 42c a dozen. The demand is still brisk, however.

A slightly steadier tone was reported in the potato market without change in quotations.

The cheese market continued its quiet trend, with little trading.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 20.—Wheat received another jolt yesterday just as a quiet session on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange was drawing to a close. Canadian Wheat Pool heads are returning from London after conferences with British Government officials "disappointed," said a special news despatch from the English Capital which reached the wheat pit late in the day. Holders immediately tossed their offerings overboard, the market slumped sensationally to show declines as low as 6¼c and only a last-minute rally brought values back 2½c. The close was 4¼c to 2½c lower.

In light trading, cash wheat spreads remained unchanged. Coarse grain prices ruled fractionally under the previous close.

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, February 20. — The American egg market took another drop yesterday, this time to the tune of 3½c, which makes a drop of 7½c in two days. The local egg market was unsettled. Some dealers were quoting the same as the previous day, but others cut their prices. This variation in prices makes extras 42c to 45c; firsts, 39c to 42c; seconds, 31c to 34c; and pullet extras, 36c to 38c. Buyers stated that they could bring a car of American eggs into Toronto, duty paid, for 33c, and as these eggs will grade at least 50 per cent firsts, it is easily seen why the market continues to drop, though receipts of Ontario eggs are few. The latest reports received from the other side suggests that the break in prices was a little too rapid and that American buyers are starting to pay a premium for early deliveries. If the United States' market strengthens to-day, which is altogether likely, the local market should remain firm. Cars of American eggs are arriving in this city daily, and many more are on order.

The butter market continued dull. There are very few sales between jobbers and wholesalers. The latter seem to have an indefinite supply on hand. But though dull, the market changed very slightly. No. 1 came down ¼c for creamery pasteurized, and the price was 36c to 36¼c. Churning cream remains the same at 33c to 41c for special, 37c to 40c for No. 1 and 34c to 37c for No. 2. Another boatload of butter is due to arrive from New Zealand at the end of the month. It is the S. S. Surrey and has 106,000 boxes of butter on board—5,936,000 pounds.

The cheese market remains firm, with prices the same as quoted yesterday.

more involved and technical forms has been found difficult to prove in court, the conference recommended that the Federal Government amend the Criminal Code. Under the amendment drafted—and which will be sent to the Federal Government—the interpretation of bucketing was enlarged and would make a broker convicted of the charge liable to seven years in jail. The common form of bucketing, in which no purchase is made, is covered by the ordinary theft charge. The conference, to extend the opportunity of proving a bucketing charge, made it clear that if a broker has less stock on hand than the orders call for, he shall be guilty of bucketing.

Taking the Ontario Security Frauds Prevention Act as a basis, the conference recommended the following trading regulation amendment: That if a broker who is carrying on a marginal transaction for a client sells stock of the same company in which the customer is dealing and if the effect of the sale is that the amount of the marginal collateral is reduced below the amount of securities which he should be carrying for all customers, that the broker shall be guilty of an offence. In addition, the customer may recover all monies paid, together with interest.

Written Confirmation

Another amendment to the Act will be that each broker shall send promptly to each customer a written confirmation of each transaction, setting forth the quantity and description of the security; the name of the person or company from or to whom the security was bought or sold and the day, and, in the case of a member of a stock exchange the half hours between which the transaction was made. This latter regulation was aimed at the elimination of brokers giving clients the low price for the day when they bought. Under the "time stamp" system, it was thought this would be eliminated because of the competitive ease with which a crosskup could be made with the prices listed on the board of the Exchange.

Another amendment to the Act will be that every broker will be made to keep a record showing the time at which each transaction took place and shall supply to any customer, on demand, particulars of the time at which a transaction took place and the particulars and verification of the matters set forth in the written confirmation referred to above.

Check Exchanges in Boundaries.

Each conference will confer with the exchanges within its boundaries and will endeavor to have them put into force rules and regulations contained in the report. Among these are that more careful inquiry be made before a stock is listed. If annual meetings of a company are not held, and adequate annual statements are not sent out to the shareholders and if important changes in the financial structure of the company are not reported to the Exchange, the stock of that company should not be listed, the report recommended. All such information as the above should be secured by affidavit.

As to trading methods, the conference recommended that exchanges take steps to stop their members from trading against their clients. "This practice," the report stated, "has been the cause of many of the abuses in respect to which complaint is made." The practice of "wash sales," by which one broker, trading with another broker, deals in the stocks figuring in the transactions of the first broker, also must stop, the report said, in recommending to the exchanges that steps be taken to combat it. "Cross sales" and "put throughs" by means of which a broker sells to one customer the securities ordered sold by another customer, should be stopped the Exchanges were informed. On the Toronto Exchange, when a broker is seen both buying and selling on the same transaction, the other brokers are warned by a bell ringing.

No member of an Exchange shall trade with a firm or a member or employee of a firm without his written consent, and a monthly statement of such trading shall be made to the member and his firm, it was recommended.

An important recommendation was the following: Where brokers hold securities fully paid for by their customers, such securities should be segregated and earmarked as held in trust for each customer owning the same.

24-Hour Delivery

It was recommended to clearing houses that the present three-day delivery be changed to one of 24 hours except where it would be impossible, because of distance and time. Where such a system is not possible, it was suggested that the clearing houses conduct a periodical check-up on the floor of the Exchange against clearings of transactions whenever deliveries appear to be unreasonably slow or delayed.

To correspond with the confirmation slips given to customers, members of Exchanges should keep records from day to day in which should be entered the particulars of orders, the time of receiving them, time executed, prices paid or received and from whom or to whom the transaction was made, it was recommended.

The confirmation slips given to customers, it was recommended, should contain a time stamp, showing just when a transaction was made. This would be in addition to the other party in the deal and the Exchange upon which it was made.

Exchanges Should Have Control

Summing up the subject of control of exchanges over their members, the report said: "Every Exchange should have full power to control the trading practices and business methods of its members and possess the power to suspend or expel any member who is unwilling or unable to comply with any financial or other requirement of the Exchange."

The conference recommended that the Federal Government pass a bill, as an amendment to the Companies Act, which would set forth that Provincial laws apply to stock selling within a Province. This has been a matter of contention between the Federal and the Provincial authorities for some time. It has been held by the high courts that certain "blue sky" laws were ultra vires of Dominion legislation and that the Provinces could not lay down regulations for a company operating under a Dominion charter. The proposed amendment, which was patterned after the bill proposed by the 1926 Interprovincial Conference held at Ottawa, would make it plain that Provincial laws applied in such case.

OBITUARY

STANLEY CONNELL

WESTWOOD, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).— The funeral of the late Stanley Connell was held on Friday afternoon from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Connell.

Deceased, who had been in very poor health for a number of years, was a boy of bright disposition and had been a patient sufferer.

He leaves to mourn his loss, besides his parents, one brother, Stewart, who resides at home.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. William Allan of Peterborough. Interment was made at the Cameron cemetery.

MRS. JOHN DIXON.

(Contributed.)

On Thursday morning, Dec. 12, the many friends of the family throughout the district were shocked to hear of the death of previous night, Dec. 11, after a brief illness with pneumonia, of Mrs. John Dixon, wife of one of the best known farmers south of Morse.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, who before her marriage was Elsie May Frost, came to Morse in the early spring of 1914, shortly after their marriage at Peterborough, Ontario, and has lived here ever since that time, during which they earned for themselves a host of friends. The late Mrs. Dixon was a little over 40 years of age, and leaves to mourn her loss, in addition to the bereaved husband, three children, Marjory May, 14 years, Robert John, 12 years, and Mary Marguerite, aged 5 years. An infant son, Cecil Raeborne, predeceased her in 1920.

In addition there are the following immediate relatives, brothers: Ralph Frost, Cavina, Cal., Albert Frost, Seattle, Wash.; Elmer R. Frost, with the father George Frost and Charles Frost, at Peterborough, Ontario; George Frost, Toronto. Sisters: Mrs. Edward MacGregor, Livelong, Sask.; Mrs. Arthur Holden, Peterborough; cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Theo Guthrie, Neidpath, Sask. Her mother died in April of this year.

The funeral was held from the United church on Friday afternoon, the 13th, to the Morse cemetery, Rev. H. R. Vessey assisted by the Rev. George L. Dech being in charge of the services at both the church and the graveside, during which, in accordance with the last wish of the deceased, the hymns, "Abide With Me," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," were sung. As a token of respect to the departed, as well as to show their sympathy for those left behind, the last rites were attended by a large number of friends and neighbors, and many beautiful floral wreaths and sprays testified to the esteem in which the late Mrs. Dixon was held.

The pallbearers were: Alfred McGhie, Harry Weppler, James S. Montgomery, William Montgomery, James N. Shaw and W. R. Edwards.—Morse, News, Morse, Sask.

DR. WILLIAM STEWART FRENCH

In the death of Dr. William Stewart French, Thursday February 6th at Trent River, Amherstburg lost one of its most colorful personalities and popular citizens and the place he held in the affection of the people of this district was evidenced by the large and representative funeral for him Sunday afternoon.

Services were solemnized at the home on Richmond street, by Rev. (Dr.) Prudham, pastor of Wesley United Church, assisted by Rev. H. A. Wright, rector Christ Church; also by the officers and members of Thistle Masonic Lodge, of which the deceased was a Pastmaster. A lovely feature of the service was the fine rendition of a solo "What a Friend we have in Jesus" by Mrs. Doris Maloney. Burial was in Rose Hill cemetery, where the beautiful ritualistic service of the Masonic Order was read by the Master, John W. Cooper, following the burial service by Dr. Prudham. The pallbearers were six pastmasters of Thistle Lodge: E. R. Lewis, Hilton Mickle, E. A. Patton; A. W. Marsh, F. J. Maloney, C. R. Hackett. Members of the Masonic Order from Harrow, Essex, Windsor and other points joined their Amherstburg brethren in paying the last token of respect to one who had rendered great service to the fraternity in years gone by. The manner of Dr. French's death was tragic—like in its suddenness and met him while he was absent performing a last labor of love for his aged mother to whose dying bed he was called at Trent River. The weather there was very extreme and he contracted a cold which developed into lobar pneumonia and though a Peterborough specialist was called in consultation with Havelock physicians their combined medical skill was of no avail. The end came very peacefully Thursday afternoon and next day his remains were brought to his home here, accompanied by his sorrow-stricken wife who had been at his bedside for a week. The circumstances surrounding his last illness was all very sad. His mother's remains had to be removed from her home and buried from the undertaking parlor, Campbellford, so as not to disturb her stricken son.

Dr. French was a native of Campbellford, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles French and was 56 years of age. One sister, Miss Bessie G. French of Trent River, survives. On graduating from High School he entered the Dental College in connection with Toronto University and became an honor graduate of that institution after a brilliant course. He came to Amherstburg in 1897 and engaged in dental surgery here from that time until a week before his death. He was a pastmaster of his profession and his outstanding skill brought him a very large practice, many patients coming from long distances. He possessed a keen analytical mind, a remarkably retentive memory and a love of athletics which made him prominent in various enterprises outside of the dental surgery profession. He was an ardent advocate of sports, was a bowler in one of Amhersburg's historic cricket clubs; a prominent member of the Amherstburg Lawn Bowling Club and Brumer Mond Club. He served on the Public School Board, was chairman one year and secretary treasurer for several years. He early allied himself with Thistle Masonic Lodge and Prince of Wales Chapter, R.A.M. He became Master of the former in 1907 and was First Principal of the latter in 1915-16, and his skill in the science was so great that he was appointed Superintendent of St. Clair District R.A.M. and served with much distinction in that high position. In 1899 he was married to Miss Josephine Auld, daughter of the late John A. Auld, M.P.P., and she survives, with one son Charles, of Amherstburg, and one sister, Miss Bessie G. French of Trent River, to whom deep sympathy is extended. —(Amherstburg Echo).

MRS. DAVID HEASLIP.

BAILIEBORO, Feb. 20.—The funeral was held on Monday last of Mrs. David Heaslip of Bailieboro, who passed away after a long illness, at her late residence on Friday last, aged 79 years.

She was a native of Manvers Township, and had lived in Bailieboro for the past forty years. Prior to her marriage she was Mary Jane Armstrong.

Left to mourn her loss are two sons, John of Bailieboro and Wesley of Detroit, and four daughters: Mrs. Gooderam of Portage la Prairie, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Westlake and Miss Effie Heaslip, all of Toronto.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Roberts of Millbrook Anglican Church, after which interment was made in the Baptist Cemetery. The bearers were: T. E. Dawson, T. Wood, F. Wood, J. McCamus, W. Westlake and R. Hill.

ST. ANDREW'S BAND.

A meeting of the Mission Band of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. S. Murduff. The supervisors, twenty-seven children and several mothers were present and several mothers were present and the meeting proved a very helpful and enjoyable one. Harold Baker read the Scriptureal lesson which was followed with prayer by Mrs. Bissonnette. Plans were presented for several future meetings. A playette by four junior members, Thomas and Cameron Montgomery and Earl and Jean Dafoe was well given. Little Donnie Murdoff recited 'Five Fingers to Work for Jesus", Helen Murdoff sang "I'll be a Sunbeam for Jesus," and the senior members gave a playette which completed the program. A lunch was served which brought a pleasant afternoon to a close.

Mr. Allan Meiklejohn of Queen's University, Kingston spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Meiklejohn.

Mr. A Wannamaker received a message on Friday informing him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Fred Elliott of Moira after a very brief illness.

Mr. William Fitchett has sold his farm in Thurlow to Francis Hagerman who will take possession shortly. Mr. Fitchett has purchased the farm formerly occupied by William Robinson in the Fourth Concession of Rawdon and lately occupied by Herbert Solmes, Cannan Fitchett will move from the Thurlow farm to the Solmes farm.

STIRLING

(Examiner Correspondence)

STIRLING, Feb. 20.—The Mission Band of St. Paul's United Church held a very successful afternoon tea and sale of home cooking and candy in the S. S. rooms on Friday.

The rooms were suitably decorated for the day (St. Valentines) and presented a pleasing appearance. At intervals piano selections were given by Mrs. E. W. Rowland, Miss E. Lindenfield and Miss D. Jobbin, recitations, Madeline Leury and Olive Munroe. The proceeds amounted to $40.

You can lead a horse to water But you cannot make him drink

This is an old saying which can be applied in many ways to present day conditions.

While we may advertise extensively and put forth propaganda that will bring people to our stores for an article or two, we cannot hope to have them buy their weekly supply of groceries from us unless the three great essentials—Cleanliness—Price and Quality—predominate.

Over three-quarters of our patrons buy their full requirements from us. This clearly shows that we not only attract the thrifty buyers to our groceterias, but that they appreciate and benefit by the many advantages and savings they get on their visits week by week.

THE LITTLE RED SCHOOLHOUSE.

Hon. Wm. Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, is to be commended upon the efforts he is making to interest rural school trustees in the subject of beautifying the surroundings of country schools.

The booklet, "Trees for Schools," which his department is circulating, contains a good deal of useful information as to the methods of tree planting, how plants may be secured and cared for, and other details that will improve the conditions of school grounds.

The Globe remarks that "the country schoolyard and the country cemetery appear to be among the neglected spots of Ontario," and the truth of that statement cannot be gain said.

Wherever we drive throughout the country you see schoolhouses stark and bare, most of them without a tree or anything else in the way of ornamentation.

If Mr. Finlayson succeeds in securing action on the part of at least some school sections he will have done a great deal to improve the appearance of the schools under their jurisdiction and to add to the comfort of the pupils.

It is a movement that deserves general support and encouragement.

SCRAPPING THE WRECKS.

American automobile manufacturing concerns announce the proposed expenditure of some fifteen million dollars this year in scrapping some 400,000 old cars this year.

While the program, despite the fact that it is to be known as the "Highway Safety Plan" is primarily a business proposition aimed at improving the used car situation and preventing the saturation of the market, it will nevertheless contribute materially toward safer driving conditions.

Undoubtedly there are far too many mechanically defective cars in commission, and their faulty condition is a factor in the accident record.

Under the system at present in vogue in Ontario not enough attention is paid to this feature of the automobile problem.

When it comes to securing a driving permit a test is insisted upon, but license markers can be secured for any old wreck of a machine regardless of its condition or the harm it may possibly do on the highway.

A police check-up sometimes detects the defective brakes, but so far as the general condition of the cars in commission is concerned there is no regulation.

Anything that can run is allowed to, whatever may be the consequences.

THE EXHIBITION CHAIRMEN.

The fact that running the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition is a year-round job and not merely something to engage the attention of the directors a few weeks before the annual Exhibition, is emphasized by the selection of chairmen for the various committees and the announcement that these committees have to get to work at once upon their share of the prize lists.

The Exhibition has always been fortunate in enlisting the services of live and energetic directors who gave freely of their time and ability to the immense amount of spade work that has to be done before the big fair opens its gates to the public each September.

A glance over the list of chairmen for this year, many of them veterans in point of service on behalf of the Exhibition, shows farmers and city dwellers alike are making their contribution toward the success of the event.

The co-operation that exists between the two means much to the Peterborough Industrial and perhaps more to the general prosperity of the community, for the good feeling and better understanding brought about by this working together for a common cause are doing their part in establishing the closer entente between city and country that is essential to the best interests of both.

A BOOST FOR THE APPLE.

The Brampton Conservator offers an excellent tip to Canadian apple producers in bringing forward the suggestion that if the Canadian apple were advertised as extensively as are oranges or grapefruit the consumption would show a remarkable increase.

There is no denying the fact that the citrus fruit producers have by persistent and intelligently advertising sold their "crop" to the consumer until most people have come to feel, as the Conservator points out, that they must never be without grapefruit or oranges.

"At our door," says the article, "is the Canadian apple—as lucious a fruit as grows—and yet our consumption of apples has risen but little comparatively. It is a fruit that contains the necessary vitamines and one whose skin is as edible as its pulp. There is no waste. Our growers have not sung the praises of the Northern Spy, the Delicious and the MacIntosh, and drilled into us their virtues by concentrated advertising. A highly colored bowl of apples in our magazine would soon make our mouths water. The old slogan of 'an apple a day keeps the doctor away' is never put boldly before our eyes. Therefore, we forget that the apple is the king of fruits as we go on buying dozens of oranges."

There, if that doesn't make Examiner readers go right out and look for a few choice specimens of Canadian apples, the printed voice has lost its power.

Seriously though the Conservator does a real service in calling attention to the apple.

The whole question of marketing Canadian fruit deserves more consideration than it has received.

FROM AGRICULTURE TO MINING AND MANUFACTURING.

Manitoba's changing position from a Province devoted almost exclusively to agriculture to one of important mining and industrial development was emphasized by Premier Bracken in delivering his budget speech to the Legislature. While it, in common with the other Western Provinces, passed through a difficult year in agriculture, he reported a favorable year in mining, except from the point of view of financing new undertakings, and stated that the manufacturing industry continued the rapid expansion which commenced five years ago.

The activity in mineral, power and industrial developments had a pronounced effect upon the whole economic life of the Province. At Island Falls, where power is being developed for the Flin Flon mine, only half of the potential capacity will be used at present, but the initial cost will be over $7,000,000. The quantity of food of various kinds taken in there by sleighs last winter reached surprising figures, in addition to ten tons of cigarettes and tobacco. "From the business standpoint, the value of the non-agricultural parts of Manitoba has more than doubled in the past three years," said the Premier. "Measured in terms of actual value of its products, and in the money spent on transportation and power facilities, in mining development and prospecting and in manufacturing establishments in the district, the buying power of non-agricultural Manitoba increased by more than sixty million dollars during the three-year period of 1926-28, over the preceding period of 1923-25."

The actual money already ear-marked for expenditure during the next three years on power plant, railways, factories and proven mines in the northern area amounts to $62,000,000, not to mention other projects which probably will be started in the meantime. The Premier maintained that these investments are not speculative, but are justified, for two years ago in the Flin Flon mine alone there was indicated ore of greater value than came out of the Cobalt district in the last twenty years, while to-day the value of indicated ore for four of the larger mines in Manitoba is nearly twice as great as the twenty-years' production of the Cobalt district. "Made-in-Manitoba" products have been widely used in these projects and the opening up of new [illegible] along the Hudson Bay Railway and in other sections has increased the demands not only for construction materials, but also for the every-day needs of new settlers. Premier Bracken added that there is a distinct trend toward the decentralization of industry in Canada, and that the establishment of branches of Eastern concerns in Manitoba, together with the development of natural resources, indicates that the industrial progress of the Province will be well maintained.—Mail and Empire.

HE GOT IN TOO DEEP.

A young man in this city has written a letter to the Beacon-Herald wanting to know if there "is no law that will protect a man against a firm that comes and takes an article from his home because he has not been keeping up the payments."

Apparently he feels quite annoyed, because he adds "all the people along the street could see the truck that came along here and stopped in front of my place. It was empty when it came, and they could all see the load it took away, and I have heard since they were all talking about us along this street. It seems a strange thing that such a thing can take place. Please tell me the proper course to take."

This paper has no legal department, and it offers no advice to readers regarding the course they should pursue in their own family or business affairs. A little inquiry from the man who wrote the letter, though, disclosed some interesting facts regarding his purchases and what he was attempting to handle.

His experience is well worth noting because it illustrates how much involved a person can become when trying to handle too many articles on the deferred payment plan.

There will be no mention of his name, nor of the street where he lives, nor of the nature of the work at which he is employed. He told his story in confidence to that extent and it will be respected.

* * * *

When he is working full time he makes about $23 per week, but there are some weeks when he does not work at all, and others when he suffers financially from a few hours off. We would judge that his average would not be much above $20 per week.

A year ago he decided he would have a car; it would be very nice to take his wife for a drive now and then, so he made a payment on a used auto, hoping to be able to get it cleared off in time. He found that by the time he bought gas and oil and had repairs made now and then he had nothing left to keep up his payments. It should be mentioned that he had one other article in the house on which he was making payments.

The reason for his protest about a firm coming and taking away a piece of furniture was that he purchased a radio on a small cash amount, giving a phonograph as part payment. He was several months behind in his payments on that; he admitted he could not save enough to discharge his obligations, yet he resented the idea of the firm coming and taking the machine away. It gave the neighbors a chance to know something of his circumstances, and he would prefer to keep these hidden.

To an outsider it would appear that the salesman who convinced this young man he could afford to pay for a radio was suffering from too great a desire to make a sale. Had he made careful inquiries he would have found that his weekly wage, rather small at any time, already had several lines attached to it before the radio could possibly figure in the outlay.

He really has no very good ground for complaint at all about the firm taking away the instrument. That was clearly in the contract when he agreed to taking the thing. He is suffering from a desire to surround himself with many more things than he can pay for, and until he puts the cleaver firmly through that idea he is going to be in trouble all the time.

People cannot buy everything they see, nor can they possess all the things they desire. This young man would be better employed spending his spare time studying, or trying to fit himself for a better position where his income might be greater. He—himself—is his own first problem, and he cannot go very far ahead until he attends to that.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

When it comes to variety of climate Canada is in a class by itself.

So far as is known, the earthquake felt at Ottawa yesterday was not caused by the appointment of a woman to the Senate.

The youth who tried to rob a Toronto bank a few weeks ago goes to the penitentiary for three years. He has probably concluded before this that honesty is not only the best but the safest policy.

The naval conference seems due for a complete collapse, the defeat of the Tardieu Government following the attitude of the French delegation in London.

But suppose the Government had interfered with the mining market when everybody was making paper profits?

United States has been so busy tugging in that "one more big battleship" that her delegates can't see that are blocking the road.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

The Question Box

Question—What time would it take to go from Halifax, N.S., to Vancouver by train.

I would like to know how many hours from the time you left to the time you would arrive at Vancouver?

Thanking you

A Traveller.

Answer—Travelling by Canadian National Railways from Halifax to Vancouver, a train can be taken in Halifax at 3.30 Saturday afternoon and the passenger will arrive at Vancouver at 7.50 next Friday morning. A new C.N.R. schedule is being put into force which will cut down this time it is understood. The elapsed time is 136 hours.

By Canadian Pacific the trip can be made between 8 a.m. Saturday morning and 10 p.m. the following Thursday evening. The elapsed time is 134 hours.

By S. S. VAN DINE

CHAPTER 12.

The old butler appeared at once, calm and subservient, and waited with a vacuously expectant expression.

"Really, y'know," said Vance, "there's not the slightest need for you to hover solicitously amid the draperies of the hallway while we're busy in here. Most considerate and loyal of you; but if we want you for anything we'll ring."

"As you desire, sir."

Sproot started to go, but Vance halted him.

"Now that you're here you might answer one or two questions."

"Very good, sir."

"First, I want you to think back very carefully, and tell me if you observed anything unusual when you locked up the house last night."

"Nothing, sir," the man answered promptly. "If I had, I would have mentioned it to the police this morning."

"And did you hear any noise or movement of any kind after you had gone to your room? A door closing, for instance?"

"No, sir. It was very quiet."

"And what time did you actually go to sleep?"

"I couldn't say exactly, sir. Perhaps about twenty minutes past eleven, if I may venture to make a guess."

"And were you greatly surprised when Miss Sibella woke you up and told you a shot had been fired in Mr. Chester's room?"

"Well, sir," Sproot admitted, "I was somewhat astonished, though I endeavored to conceal my emotions."

"And doubtless succeeded admirably," said Vance dryly. "But what I meant was this: did you not anticipate something of the kind happening again in this house, after the other shootings?"

He watched the old butler sharply, but the man's lineaments were as arid as a desert and as indecipherable as an expanse of sea.

"If you will pardon me, sir, for saying so, I don't know precisely what you mean," came the colorless answer. "Had I anticipated that Mr. Chester was to be done in, so to speak, I most certainly would have warned him. It would have been my duty, sit."

"Don't evade my question, Sproot." Vance spoke sternly, "I asked you if you had any idea that a second tragedy might follow the first."

"Tragedies very seldom come singly, sir, if I may be permitted to say so. One never knows what will happen next. I try not to anticipate the workings of fate, but I strive to hold myself in readiness—"

"Oh, go away, Sproot—go quite away," said Vance. "When I crave vague rhetoric I'll read Thomas Aquinas.'

"Yes, sir." The man bowed with wooden courtesy, and left us.

His footsteps had scarcely died away when Doctor Doremus strode in jauntily.

"There's your bullet, Sergeant." He tossed a tiny cylinder of discolored lead on the drawing-room table. "Nothing but dumb luck. It entered the fifth intercostal space and travelled diagonally across the heart, coming out in the post-axillary fold at the anterior border of the trapezius muscle, where I could feel it under the skin; and I picked it out with my pen-knife."

"All that fancy language don't worry me," grinned Heath, "so long's I got the bullet."

He picked it up and held it in the palm of his hand, his eyes narrowed, his mouth drawn into a straight line. Then, reaching into his waistcoat pocket, he took out two other bullets, and laid them beside the first. Slowly he nodded, and extended the sinister exhibits to Markham.

"There's the three shots that were fired in this house," he said. "They're all .32 revolver bullets—just alike. You can't get away from it, sir; all three people here were shot with the same gun."

As Heath spoke, Sproot passed down the hall and opened the front door, admitting Doctor Von Blon.

"Good morning, Sproot," we heard him say in his habitually pleasant voice. "Anything new?"

"No, sir, I think not." The reply was expressionless. "The District Attorney and the police are here—Let me take your coat, sir."

Von Blon glanced into the drawing room, and, on seeing us, halted and bowed. Then he caught sight of Doctor Doremus, whom he had met on the night of the first tragedy.

"Ah, good morning, doctor," he said, coming forward. "I'm afraid I didn't thank you for the assistance you gave me with the young lady the other night. Permit me to make amends."

"No thanks needed," Doremus assured him. "How's the patient getting on?"

"The wound's filling in nicely. No sepsis. I'm going up now to have a look at her." He turned inquiringly to the District Attorney. "No objection, I suppose."

"None whatever, doctor," said Markham. Then he rose quickly. "We'll come along, if you don't mind. There are a few questions I'd like to ask Miss Ada, and it might be as well to do it while you're present."

Von Blon gave his consent without hesitation.

"Well, I'll be on my way—work to do," announced Doremus breezily. He lingered long enough, however, to shake hands with all of us; and then the front door closed on him.

"We'd better ascertain if Miss Ada has been told of her brother's death," suggested Vance, as we went up the stairs. "If not, I think that task logically devolves on you, doctor."

The nurse, whom Sproot had no doubt apprised of Von Blon's arrival, met us in the upper hall and informed us that, as far as she knew, Ada was still ignorant of Chester's murder.

We found the girl sitting up in bed, a magazine lying across her knees. Her face was still pale, but a youthful vitality shone from her eyes, which attested to the fact that she was much stronger. She seemed alarmed at our sudden appearance, but the sight of the doctor tended to reassure her.

"How do you feel this morning, Ada?" he asked with professional geniality. "You remember these gentlemen, don't you?"

She gave us an apprehensive look; then smiled faintly and bowed.

"Yes, I remember them . . . . Have they—found out anything about — Julia's death?"

"I'm afraid not." Von Blon sat down beside her and took her hand. "Something else has happened that you will have to know, Ada." His voice was studiously sympathetic. "Last night Chester met with an accident . . "

"An accident—oh!" Her eyes opened wide, and a slight tremor passed over her. "You mean . . . Chester's dead!"

Von Blon cleared his throat and looked away.

"Yes, Ada. You must be brave and not let it—ah—upset you too much. You see——"

"He was shot!" The words burst from her lips, and a look of terror overspread her face. "Just like Julia and me." Her eyes stared straight ahead, as if fascinated by some horror which she alone could see.

Von Blon was silent, and Vance stepped to the bed.

GLYCERIN MIX REMOVES CAUSE OF STOMACH GAS

Simple glycerin, buckthorn bark, saline, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing poisons you never thought were there and which caused gas and other stomach trouble. Just ONE spoonful relieves GAS, sour stomach, sick headache and constipation. Don't take medicine which cleans only PART of bowels, but let Adlerika give you a REAL cleaning and see how good you feel! It will surprise you! McDermid & Jury, E. L. Payne, McDermid Drug Co.

The building industry is said to be the second largest industry in the country, with an annual volume of business of approximately $8,000,000,000.

What To-day Means To You

WHAT TO-DAY MEANS TO YOU

"Pisces"

If February 20 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 7 a.m. to 8.40 a.m., from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. and from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 11 a.m. to noon and from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The full value of the harvest reaped on this date will not be appreciated until later on. Unusual and vivid experiences are presaged and the day will long be remembered. You will arise full of pep and vim, and will go at things in a "winning" spirit.

The child born on this February 20 will open its eyes on a world of which it is augured to see a large portion. It will be endowed with the spirit which was essential to our pioneers —it will have courage and perseverance.

You have chosen a most trying and most unappreciated role to play in life, albeit it may be an unselfish one. You not only do your own duty, but assume duties which belong to other people, for which you probably receive ingratitude. If there is a sacrifice to be made, you speedily bid for the privilege of making it. You are a self-appointed martyr, and there are no good people who receive so little sympathy.

As you never consider yourself, you are usually so over-worked and rushed that your nerves are frayed at the edges. You are too tired and too worried to be an optimist. You consider yourself an unlucky creature. "The Gods have a special (down) upon you". You keep your fingers nimble, but the same cannot be said of your mind. You are efficient and you are good, but you are not interesting or cheerful.

If you be a woman, you will make a devoted wife and an indefatigable mother—you will give yourself altogether to your family. Your own slavish ways will tend to make your family selfish, and your efforts are probably not appreciated. If you choose to be a door-mat—other will let you Cannot you strike a happy medum? Assert your own rights and take your proper place, before it is too late!

ECZEMA GOES IN SEVEN DAYS

Or Money Back

Thousands of people who suffer from itching skin, eczema and unsightly eruptions will be glad to know that Moone's Emerald Oil, a clean, powerful, penetrating antiseptic oil, will banish their trouble in seven days or less.

For years they have been using ointments and salves, and while they helped to relieve the itching, soreness and pain they often chocked the pores and did not allow the poisonous matter to escape.

Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) overcomes this objection, for this oil penetrates down through the pores and leaves them free to discharge all poisoneus secretions. It is highly concentrated, and only a few drops are required at an application. You can get it at McDermid Drug Co. Ltd., Bond's Drug Store, McDermid & Jury, or any progressive druggist's and if it doesn't end your trouble in seven days—money gladly returned—directions on each bottle.

Don't neglect a COLD

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat—that so often leads to something serious—generally responds to good old Musterole with the first application. Should be more effective if used once every hour for five hours.

Working like the trained hands of a masseur, this famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients bring relief naturally. It penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses. Keep Musterole handy. All druggists.

HAVELOCK PASTOR AWARDED DEGREE

Rev. John Lennox Completes Another Stage Towards Goal of Ambition.

HAVELOCK, Feb. 20.—Rev. John Lennox, Presbyterian minister, recently received word from The Southern School of Divinity, Dallas, Texas, that he has completed another important stage toward the goal of his ambitions in that he has succeeded in reaching the highest standard of a course in theology and related subjects, with a standing of Magna Cum Laude and that his diploma B.D., is being prepared and will be forwarded to him in the course of a few days.

"Seeing that I have done so well", says Rev. Mr. Lennox, B.D., "I think I might as well go ahead for the D.D. degree, but I almost dread to start it. It means so many long hours of study along with my pastoral work, but with God's help I will go through with it."

Rev. Mr. Lennox's success will be a cause for extreme gratification to his many friends and is the result of five months' hard and persistent study. He went through five great text books in theology, psychology, exergesis, opologetics, dispensational truth and a history of missions from the time of Abraham up to the present.

"Your paper manifests a thoroughness and a breadth of scholarship that fully merits the highest grade," reads the report from the faculty of the college, which is quoted in part.

Rev. Mr. Lennox, to put it in his own words, "made the grade by getting at his studies at 4 a.m. an old practice developed years ago.

DURANT MOTORS AT NEW HIGH

Toronto Exchange Featured By Cross Current in Tone During To-day's Session.

WHEAT REACTION FEARED.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20. (C.P.)—Operators for the advance found it increasingly difficult to boost prices on Toronto Stock Exchange to-day as the local securities market faltered in the face of another reaction in the Wheat Market. There was nothing in the general situation to-day that could be said to be of a buyoant nature; consequently only individual stocks on which reports had been issued or were expected shortly and of a favorable nature were open-to-bullish influence.

While selling was in preponderance, the outstanding characteristic of the market was the conflicting cross-currents occurring not only in different groups, but in the same class of securities. While Brazilian Traction was holding around the level of last night, C.P.R., and Twin Cities both were lower. Lake Superior and Steel of Canada were down, the latter off nearly two points during the morning, while at the same time Hamilton Bridge firmed on the curb.

Ford of Canada made a new low for the year, slipping below 30; on the curb Durant Motors made a new high since the beginning of 1930, adding a small fraction to last night's closing price of 9¾.

Oil generally were heavy, supertests unchanged from last night. B.A. oil old decline again but up until midday the new stock had not had a single trade.

GOOD SPEAKER.

Rev. W. G. Martin, Brantford M.P.P., Will Be Speaker at Young Conservatives' "At Home."

Rev. W. G. Martin, Conservative member for the city of Brantford in the Ontario Legislature, will be the principal speaker at the large At Home of Young Conservatives to be held in the Canadian Legion Hall to-morrow evening. Rev. Martin is an outstanding speaker and his address will be of a highly entertaining nature.

Arrangements have been completed to make this At Home one of the outstanding events of the local Conservative party's social life.

ALL SIGNS POINT TO REVIVAL OF INTEREST IN TURNER VALLEY OIL STOCKS IN THE NEAR FUTUR

With the number uncompleted wells now working in the deep limestone formation at a new record, and with a number of other favorably located wells expected to reach that formation within the next few weeks, all signs point to a revival of interest in Turner Valley oil stocks in the comparatively near future. The total now stands at 20 wells in the lime, and at least a half-dozen others are believed to be within striking distance of that objective. Included in the list are wells in all sections of the field. Some of the wells have already been drilled to considerable depths in the limestone with only moderate success, while others, particularly a group in Section 20, Township 19, close to the Home wells, have only recently reached the lime.

Examination of the drilling logs of the various wells shows that there is little uniformity to the distance from surface to the limestone, although in Section 20, Township 19, it is apparent that the wells to the southeast are higher on structure than those in the extreme north. For that reason it is believed that Home 5 and 6 will not need to be drilled to as great depths as were Nos. 1, 2 and 4. The Wellington well, to which Home 6 is an offset, reached the lime at 4,657 feet, whereas Home 4 had to go to 5,402 feet.

Among the wells now in the limestone are Model, Royalite 12, 16 and 19, Illinois-Alberta 2 (shut down for the winter), Freeman-Lundy, Calmont 1 and 2, Hargal, Homestead, Baltac, Alberta Pacific Consolidated 2, Wellington Lowery, East Crest, Mill City, Mayland, Southwest Petroleum, Mercury 3 and Sterling Pacific.

ANNUAL REPORT BELL TELEPHONE

Statement Contains Interesting Material on Development in Ontario and Quebec.

REVENUE INCREASE.

The 50th annual report of the Bell Telephone Company will reach shareholders to-day. It contains some interesting material on telephone development in Ontario and Quebec.

There were 227,828 telephones connected in 1929 and 180,617 disconnected making a net gain of telephones in service of 47,211 as compared with 45,862 in 1928. Over 67 per cent of all telephones are in homes.

There are 833 other telephone systems in Ontario and Quebec whose lines connect with the Bell System for interchange of communication and these companies serve 140,035 additional telephone

Gross revenue showed an increase of $3,725,299 during the year just closed and expenses also increased by $3,191,953.

The increase of $1,375,507 in Long Distance revenue reflects the growing use of the service by both the business and social community.

Gross additions to the Company's plant in 1929 involved an outlay of $30,529,000 exceeding the previous year by $8,000,000. Continued installation of dial telephones in Toronto, Montreal, Quebec and Hamilton has resulted in 50 per cent of the service in these cities being on the dial basis.

A substantial proportion of the gross outlay in 1929 was extensions and improvement of the Long Distance system to which some 14,000 miles of talking circuit were added during the year.

Some noted improvements in service were achieved during the year.

Eighty-one per cent of all local calls are now completed. The importance of this is shown from the fact that an improvement of a little over 1.5 per cent in completion resulted in 80,000 more calls being completed each day than in 1928. The volume of Long Disdance business increased 11 per cent and the average length of time in establishing connection on Long Distance calls of all types was reduced to 1.6 minutes. Eighty-three per cent of long distance calls are being completed while the subscriber remains at the telephone.

The number of troubles per telephone was reduced 12% through continued improvement in maintenance work. A telephone is now installed on the average in 2.2 days and 50 per cent of installations are made at a definite, appointed hour as arranged with the subscriber.

During the year 2,300 employees successfully passed their first aid examinations and of the total male staff of 7,500, 63 per cent are now qualified first aiders. A Bell first aid team of the Toronto staff recently won the Wallace Nesbitt Trophy, representing the championship for Canada in industrial first aid competitions.

Twelve thousand and nine employees are at present subscribing for stock in the Company, having undertaken to purchase 46,277 shares on the payroll deduction plan.

Under the employees' benefit plan, payments were made in 4,043 cases of sickness, accident and death, the total outlay amounting to $402,410. The total payroll in 1929 amounted to $22,527,653 and the average daily exchange connections were 5,146,629 with 70,279 daily Long Distance connections. The shareholders of the Company now number 16,334.

NO CHANGE FELT ON MINE MARKET

Announcement of Brokerage System Measures Has No Effect on Trading.

INDEFINITE TREND.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20. (C.P.)—Though little important action was anticipated, it was generally expected the announcement of corrective measures to be introduced into the brokerage system would make itself felt in a more optimistic tone in the mining market. No change was evident in the attitude of traders during the early session to-day, however, the list, as a whole, still lacking definite trend while trading showed only slight improvement.

Ajax Oil was again in the limelight, adding further ground to last night's late advance with a gain of 3 to $1.18 at noon after touching a high of $1.24. The balance of the oils possibly as a result of reports of high winds and the explosion at Royalite No. 23, were generzlly soft.

International Nickel, Noranda and Hudson Bay, at $38.35, $0.05 and $12.95, respectively were all slightly lower, the continued uncertainty regarding the price of copper and the large increase in stocks of the metal having an adverse effect.

The golds were rather irregular, McIntyre receding a quarter, Teck Hughes 15 and Vipond 2, while Wright-Hargreaves moved up 7 and the balance of the group held unchanged. Sherritt Gordon recovered somewhat on the strength of the optimism displayed at yesterday's meeting, but Ventures dropped 13 to $2.05 and Falconbridge was off 5.

Pend Oreille weakened again to-day, selling off 20 to $3.05 of the balance of the Pacific coast group exhibited a slightly lower tendency. Abana featured the general list with a gain of 6 to $1.25, probably in anticipation of the early issuing of the company's supplementary report. St. Anthony, Amulet and Barry were firm, but Mandy, Mining Corp. and Arno suffered small recessions.

SULLIVAN TO APPEAR AGAIN.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20.—Already serving a sentence of one year at hard labor for a criminal libel conviction, Patrick Sullivan, editor of "The Thunderer," will be brought from the Guelph Reformatory to face a charge of publishing obscene literature. He will appear in the Court of General Sessions which opens March 4.

Companies With Unlisted Stocks Should Mail Each Shareholder Annual Financial Statement

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20. (Special to Examiner.)—Regulations for the publication of annual reports by companies having their securities listed on the exchanges does not provide for a change in the present rules and the amendment to the act does not go far enough. The attorney general should make it law that any company making a public offering of securities should voluntarily mail a financial statement to all shareholders at least once a year and those companies financed privately in the first place but whose securities have since been given a wide distribution should be made to do likewise. In listing securities on the listed department companies must consent to publish a financial statement at least once a year, but this does not apply to stocks traded on the unlisted department and securities are being traded daily for which there is absolutely no official information available as to earnings, assets, etc. Shareholders fortunate to be able to attend the annual meeting may listen to the treasurers read the report but that is all and the vast majority of stockholders who find it inconvenient to attend are practically in the dark as to the operations of their own company. Under the law, these stockholders may demand a financial statement but this is not enough and the law should make it compulsory that each registered stockholder be furnished with a periodical report.

Peace River Block and the railway belt. An offer similar to that made Alberta is now under consideration by Saskatchewan. All these agreements, assuming that one is reached with Saskatchewan, will be presented to Parliament.

An interesting reference to the wheat situation is contained in the Speech. After referring to the strides which have been made by Canada in the realms of Manufacture, mining, agriculture, etc., the declaration is made that:

"The Dominion is already recovering from the seasonal slackness evident at the end of the year, and it is not to be forgotten that the bulk of the 1929 wheat crop still remains in Canadian hands for final disposition.

Marked increase in Canadian Trade is recorded in the preparation for completion of the Hudson Bay railway and the early completion of the Welland canal are indicated.

It is stated that consideration is being given to the final revision of the financial arrangements contemplated in the Duncan Commission report. This reference is of particular interest to the Maritime provinces.

The Speech refers to the Disarmament Conference now in progress at London and expresses the hope that it "will result in a marked lessening of international rivalries and the growth of security and good will." It points out that "for the first time in Canadian history" women have been accorded the right to sit with men in the Senate."

Speech From the Throne

Honorable Members of the Senate:
Members of the House of Commons:

It affords me much pleasure to greet you at the commencement of another session of Parliament, and to be able to congratulate you upon the continued prosperity of the country. The year 1929 was the most productive year in the history of Canada. In industries, other than agriculture, employment reached the highest point on record; new construction was the largest known. Mining production was of unequalled value. Manufacturing production surpassed all previous records. There was a vast increase in the development of Hydro-Electric power. The products of our fields and our herds reached higher standards of excellence and quality than at any previous time. The Dominion is already recovering from the seasonal slackness evident at the end of the year, and it is not to be forgotten that the bulk of the 1929 wheat crop still remains in Canadian hands for final disposition.

Trade Shows Increase

Our trade with foreign countries has shown marked increase. During the year additional Trade Commissioners' offices have been opened in several countries, and additional steamship services inaugurated to Australia and South America. Tenders have been called for proposed extensions of steamship services to India and British East Africa.

Our two railway systems have carried out extensive construction and development plans, and are contemplating further construction and developments. The final section of the Hudson's Bay Railway has been completed. The construction of the Welland Ship Canal is now nearing completion. On the opening of the new canal the Upper Lake grain carriers will be able to reach Lake Ontario and Upper St. Lawrence ports. The work of providing suitable terminals is proceeding.

Legislation will be introduced respecting the several railway properties formerly privately owned and now embraced in the Canadian National system.

Provincial Problems.

For some time past my Ministers have been giving special attention to those problems which, for many years have been a source of controversy between the Provinces of Canada and the Dominion. Among matters of concern have been certain economic and financial readjustments deemed by the provinces essential to their being placed in a position of equality one with the other. To a greater or lesser extent, problems have arisen with respect to all the provinces of Canada. Those of the Maritime provinces were investigated by the Royal Commission on Maritime claims and have been in large part solved by the effect given to the recommendations of that body. Consideration is at present being given to the final revision of the financial arrangements contemplated by the Commission's report.

The provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have negotiated for many years with the Government of Canada for the return of their natural resources. The province of British Columbia has sought the restoration to the province of lands comprising what is known as the railway belt and Peace River block. With the provinces of Manitoba and Alberta and with the province of British Columbia agreements have been reached, which will be submitted to you for approval. An offer similar in character and terms to that made to Alberta has been made to Saskatchewan.

Water Power Question.

The Provinces of Ontario and Quebec have been concerned over the question of water powers in their relation to navigation. It having become apparent, through a reference to the Supreme Court, that this question cannot readily be settled by judicial determination, a solution has been sought by conference which it is hoped will lead to a satisfactory settlement of this highly controversial problem.

My Ministers have also been making careful inquiry into the workings of the provisions and administration of the Pensions Act with a view to ascertaining what, if the light of past and present experiences, may be necessary to ensure full effect being given to the purpose of Parliament in that enactment. As a result, your attention will be invited to legislation to make more adequate provision for the needs of the veterans of the Great War and their dependents.

The report of the Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the existing situation with respect to radio broadcasting in Canada will be presented for your consideration.

The report of the Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the classification and remuneration of technical and professional officials of the Civil Service of Canada will also be presented for your consideration.

New Grain Commissioners.

During the year a complete reorganization was effected in the personnel of the Board of Grain Commissioners. Men of outstanding business, agricultural and scientific experience have been appointed to administer the Canada Grain Act. A Bill will be presented for the consolidation of the Canada Grain Act, in accordance with the recommendation of the Standing Committee of the House of Commons on Agriculture at the last session.

At the September meeting of the Assembly of the League of Nations, the optional clause of the statute of the permanent court, providing for the submission of justiciable disputes to arbitration, was signed on behalf of Canada and all the other nations of the British Commonwealth. It will be submitted for your approval.

In accordance with the recommendations of the Imperial Conference of 1926, a conference was held in London during the past autumn to consider and report on certain phases of operation of Dominion legislation and merchant shipping. The report of this conference will be submitted.

Imperial Economic Conference

In the Summer of last year, an invitation was extended by His Majesty's Government in Canada to all His Majesty's other Governments to participate in an Imperial Economic Conference in Canada at the earliest possible date. It was found that the convenience of the majority of the Governments could best be met by an arrangement to hold the Imperial Economic Conference along with the Imperial Conference in London in the early Autumn of the present year. This has accordingly been arranged.

Canada, in common with the other members of the British Commonwealth of Nations, is participating in the conference on the limitation of naval armament, which was opened in London by His Majesty on January 21st. It is confidently hoped that the discussions so auspiciously begun will result in a marked lessening of international rivalries and the growth of security and good-will.

First Woman Senator.

The eligibility of women for appointment to the Senate of Canada has been declared by the Judicial committee of the Privy Council, and I have, been pleased, on the advice of my Ministers, to avail myself of the earliest opportunity to summon a woman to the Senate. For the first time in Canadian history, women have been accorded an equal right with men to representation in both Houses of Parliament.

Among other measures to which your attention will be invited are amendments to the Elections Act, the Bankruptcy Act, and Companies Act, and the Criminal Code.

Members of the House of Commons:

The public accounts of the last fiscal year and the estimates for the coming year are submitted for your consideration.

Honourable Members of the Senate:
Members of the House of Commons:

In again inviting your careful consideration to the important matters which will engage your attention, I pray that Divine Providence may continue to guide and bless your deliberations.

A. & P. TO INVADE PACIFIC COAST

Twelve Stores Will Be Opened Along West Coast of America.

FINAL LINK WELDED

NEW YORK, February 20.—Formal announcement was made to-day by John A. Hartford, President of The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., that the oldest and largest of the chain systems of to-day will open branch units on the Pacific Coast on or about March 15th. The first of these food stores, possibly a dozen in number, are to be located at Los Angeles. Others eventually will follow along the entire west coast. It was announced as the biggest single step in expansion and development in the seventy year history of the A. & P. organization. There are units now in 34 states and two provinces of Canada. While present plans call for openings of unites only along the Coast, officials admitted to-day that in the organization's nation wide development plan, they are looking forward eventually to establishment of their stores in the intermediate states of Montana, both North and South Dakota, Arkansas, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Nevada, Arizona, Idaho and New Mexico, as well as California, Oregon and Washington.

Opening of these stores on the coast, thus welding the final links of an Atlantic-to-the-Pacific chain, is the fulfillment of a dream long held by George Huntingdon Hartford, founder of the chain store system, in the single store in Vesey Street, New York City, which opened in 1859. Decision to open at this time in California asa starting place was reached after an intensive survey of business conditions as they are now and as they are in the cards for the future. This survey, according to A. & P. officials, points to a healthy, steady and normal growth of public buying power that is naturally based on a very definite trend toward sustained commercial and industrial expansion and prosperity throughout the United States.

Up to the present time the A. & P. system of stores has not extended west of Omaha. Its 15,000 stores which serve 5,000,000 customers daily and do more than a billion dollars' worth of business annually, are located in thirty-four states—all excepting those mentioned. Its expansion into those thirty-four states from the single New York City unit has always been preceded by careful economic surveys, the findings of which have invariably proven exact harborings of future business and commercial conditions, according to Mr. Hartford. Commenting on the decision to open on the Pacific Coast to-day, Mr. Hartford said:

"In going to California, the A. & P. organization will feel entirely at home. For many years we have bought more of California's fruits and other products than any other single customer of that great state. In the past five years we have paid directly to California producers, the great total of $145,000,000 for their products.

"It is commonly admitted that the Retailer of to-day must be constantly on his guard to give the highest quality at the most attractive price. Housewives shop with greater care than they ever have before with those two factors—quality and price—indelibly impressed on their minds. Five Million of them daily, and after day day, go into our stores for a reason.

"Methods of distribution of all merchandising and of foods particularly, are changing rapidly. In this change there is always uppermost in the minds of executives of all great organizations, the reduction of distribution costs, which so greatly affect the prices the ultimate consumer pays. A. & P. has succeeded in eliminating the maximum of multiple handling which accounts in large degree for its ability to effect the economies it does and which it passes along to its customers. Our very growth and our present move to the Pacific Coast are irrefutable proof of this."

"NICKEL" REPORT EARLY IN MARCH

Keen interest is felt in the forthcoming report of International Nickel Company of Canada covering operations for the entire year of 1929, and FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands that this will be available about the 2nd or 3rd of March. The report will provide an unusually complete review of existing and prospective conditions of plant and operations.

It matters little, however, what the exact earnings will prove to be for the year that is past, whether $1.40, $1.45, $1.50 or thereabouts. "Nickel" is not selling at 38-39 primarily on account, either of the past year's earnings or the $1 dividend that is presently being paid, but in anticipation of constant and marked progress in production and in earnings for many years to come. It is in view of this that a few board estimates may be set forth here as to what is going on to-day and what is planned for the near future. As FINANCIAL COUNSEL stated in yesterday's bulletins, the present output from the Frood mines is running a little under 2,000 tons a day, roughly estimated at 50,000 tons a month. This total will gradually be increased as more ore at various levels is made available, up to 60,000 tons a month, then 70,000 tons, etc., It is considered likely that about August next in the neighborhood of 4,500 tons will be produced daily and perhaps 6,000 tons by the end of the present year. Next year will see an increase on this, if the demand for nickel, as seems certain, continues to improve.

Increasing Copper Output as Frood Ore Grows.

In a few months the Levack mine, which has been closed down for some time owing to a fire, will start production again. To some extent, Frood ore is taking the place of this former Mond producer, so that with 2,000 tons daily from the Frood, this does not mean a net increase of this tonnage, but only of a fair portion of this. It is planned, as Frood ore increases, and the Levack mine comes back to production, to scale down the output of the Creighton mine, the original chief producer (as indeed it is to-day) of the former International Nickel Company, as distinct from Mond.

The coming in of Frood ore, of course, makes a considerable quantity of copper available, the proportion being much higher than that produced from the Creighton or Levack ore.

YOUNGSTER HAS CLOSE ESCAPE

Prompt Action on Part of Arthur Jobe Saves Boy From Drowning.

FELL THROUGH ICE.

Keen observation and prompt action on the part of Arthur Jobe of 300 Monaghan Road are the two factors to which Bernard, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hoad of 312 Louis street, probably owes his escape from death by drowning.

It is learned that Mr. Jobe, who is an employee of Fannings Laundry, and who drives a delivery van, was proceeding from the laundry at about five oclock on Tuesday afternoon, when he noticed a red toque resting on the water of Jackson Park Creek on the north side of the King street bridge. Sensing a possible tragedy, Mr. Jobe at once jumped from his van and made his way on to the ice, where he found Bernard almost completely immersed in the icy water. Another couple of seconds, says Mr. Jobe, and the little fellow would probably have gone under the ice to have been drowned.

Grasping the child by the shoulders, he pulled him to safety, enquired the child's address, and rushed him home, where he was rubbed down by an extremely grateful mother, and placed in a warm bed.

In conversation with Mrs. Hoad it was learned that the little boy is suffering no after-effects, and is at present attending school as usual.

Badly Frightened.

"He was terribly frightened when brought home," said his mother, "and I am extremely grateful to Mr. Jobe for his great presence of mind, realising that had my boy not been seen when he was in the water he would in all probability have been drowned, as the water is deep at that particular spot."

Mr. Jobe said that after the incident was over he began to wonder why the boy had been unable to extricate himself from his predicament, as the water does not appear to be very deep in the creek. He went back to the spot the next day and probed the waters with a long pole to discover that the water in that part of the creek is at least seven feet deep.

On the afternoon of the rescue the boy, who had been at play on the ice, was accompanied by another child, who when the little victim was brought from the water exclaimed: "I'll run right home and tell your mother," apparently having the idea that he had no right to be "swimming" with his clothes on."

LOADED AIRPLANE SETS NEW RECORD

Miss Silverton Carrying 2,204 Pounds Averages 175.997 Miles an Hour.

BEATS BRITISH MARK.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 20.—(Canadian Press). — Carrying a weight net including that of himself of 1,000 kilograms, equivalent to 2,204 pounds, Lee Shoenhair, chief pilot for the Goodrich Rubber Company of Akron, O., to-day established what was claimed as a new world aeroplane speed record over a 1,000 kilometere course.

Flying his white streamlined monoplane, the Miss Silvertown, he averaged 175.997 miles an hour. This exceeded by 15.71 miles an hour the former record of 160.260 miles an hour held by Captain H. S. Broad of Great Britain.

Shoenhair established new speed records carrying 500 kilograms over a 100 and 500 kilometere course here Tuesday.

ANNUAL REPORT MONTREAL EXHIBITION CO., WILL SHOW PROFIT BUT EXPECTED LOWER THAN IN 1928

Considerable attention has been directed to the stock of Montreal Exhibition Company because a block passed through at $3 a share, a new record low. FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands that the block of stock was pressed for sale at practically any price, but that as soon as this was cleaned up the price snapped back a couple of points, being 5 bid and 8 asked. In January, the shares sold at 8, while the range in 1929 was 20½ to 7, and in 1928 the price fluctuated between 18 and 36.

FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands that the company has recently improved its position, and according to those familiar with the situation, the interprise is now "making money". A better year than 1929 is being looked forward to; all stores and other similar available space is now rented and several exhibitions have already been planned, for which contracts have been signed resnting space at a satisfactory figure.

Auditors are still working on the preparation of the annual report for 1929, but it is expected that the statement will be issued in the very near future. FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands that a profit will be shown, although this will be smaller than in 1928, when the earnings were quivalent to $1.40 on Class "A" stock. The company had to contend during 1929 with a number of adverse factors, such as poor weather conditions. It will be recalled that on account of poor weather the opening baseball game had to be postponed, as well as the first four-week-end games. This year the baseball schedule has been drawn up so that the first games will be a little later, thus making the chances for better weather much more favorable for the company.

INCORPORATE KENNEL CLUB.

TORONTO, Ont.—Incorporation of the Canadan Kennel Club, which has functioned since 1888 without incorporation, is being sought in a bill before the Private Bills committee of the Ontario Legislature.

BEST RINK IS AGAIN WINNER

Defeats McKellar of Sault Ste. Marie 12-6 in Fourth Round of North American Life.

LINDSAY WINS BY DEFAULT.

TORONTO, Ont., February 20 (Canadian Press). — The ranks of the undefeated rinks in the third annual Toronto bonspiel were completely decimated to-day when the quartette led by Davie Walker of Fort William, the only rink that had survived the first three days' play, fell before Bill Scott, the veteran from the local Royal Canadians, in the fourth round of the North American Life by 14 to 7. Previous to this Walker had accounted for every opponent and had reached the eights in the Ryrie-Birks event.

The morning draw found only one game in the Ryrie-Birks and three in the North American Life, the two open events and ties completed the eights in the latter and filled seven of the eight berths in the fifth round of the former.

Ray Best of Peterborough advanced in the North American at the expense of J. O. McKellar of Sault St. Marie with 12 to 6 win, while Harvey Sims of Kitchener defeated Rev. J. S. Shortt of Barrie, 11-9. The other five rinks left in this event are W. O. Tudhope, Orillia, G. O. Cameron, Barrie, Bob Falconer, Toronto High Park, Hubert Chisholm, Toronto Victorias, and Nate Cornwall of Detroit.

In the two open competitions play will be brought down to the semi-finalists this afternoon, the last four survivors in each reaching the silverware and also qualifying for the play down for the grand aggreate and the Royal York Trophy.

Most of this morning's games were in the two consolation events — the Wrigley and Seiberling.

LIFFORD LINE.

Arrangements made by the Lifford Dramatic Club to present their play "Bar Haven" at Yelverton this week had to be cancelled, owing to serious illness among relatives of the cast of characters. This play was given with great success at the Temperance Hall, Lifford, during the Christmas season, and it is hoped that it will be possible to accept invitations from neighboring centres at a later date.

Mr. John Henderson has been busy hauling grain and farm implements from Fleetwood to his prospective new home on the farm recently vacated by Karl Sisson, who took up residence in Peterborough last October.

Miss Leona Lang, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lang is slowly regaining her former good health, after an illness of five months' duration.

Miss Jane Mill and Aileen Peters, students at the Lindsay Collegiate Institute spent the week end at the home of their parents.

Mr. Cecil Tims was engaged in carpenter work on the new home of Mr. A. W. Wilson last week.

Mrs. Campbell, teacher of music, visited Lifford school on Friday last. Mrs. Campbell has been unable to make her weekly visits to the rural schools of this locality for some weeks past, owing to unfavorable conditions of weather and roads.

Mr. Earl Lathangue, who attends Janetville school, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lathangue.

Mr. Charles Medland was the victim of a painful accident last week while working in the woods of Mr. Cephas Staples. A falling limb struck him on head and shoulder leaving him unfit for work since that time.

Mrs. Austin Fallis of Ballyduff spent the latter part of last week with her father and brother, Mr. Richard and Archie Wilson, of this line.

A few from here attended the basket social given by the Women's Institute in Bethany on Friday last. Mr. Cecil and George Tims assisted in supplying music for dancing.

The teacher and pupils of Lifford school, enjoyed a little Valentine celebration on Friday afternoon in the school.

Word was received here last week of the death of Mrs. Joseph McGill, Deloraine, Manitoba. Her husband, who was a distinguished member of the Orange Order, predeceased her five years ago. He was the eldest brother of the late O. H. McGill of this Line.

Neighbours of Mr. Harry Argue held a bee on Monday to assist him in getting out a supply of wood. Mr Argue is not enjoying good health and is unable to do his own work as in former years.

Mr. Lawrence Staples has been suffering from an attack of tonsilitis and was unable to return to Lindsay as usual in the early part of the week.

The annual meeting of the Fleetwood cheese factory was held Saturday in the school house. Following are the officers for the coming year:

President, Lavergne McKinley; secretary-treasurer, James Shea; cheesemaker, J. C. Cumiskey; directors, William Scott, Hugh Lowery, Wilfred Mulligan, Joseph Whiteside.

Scott Bros. bought the whey for the coming year.

Mr. Cumiskey has been a very successful cheesemaker at Fleetwood for a number of years now and has been fortunate in carrying off a number of valuable prizes.

Miss Mae McGill is enjoying improved health after an illness extending over some weeks.

Mr. Christopher Armstrong of Janetville passed away on Sunday last. He had been a patient in Ross Memorial Hospital, Lindsay, and was a brother of Mrs. (Dr.) Nasmith, formerly of Janetville.

Among those from here who attended the sale of Mr. Verol of Lindsay in Ops last week were Mr. Walter Neals, Gervin and Wilfred Mulligan and Cecil Tims.

YOUNG'S POINT

Mr and Mrs. Frank Young entertained a number of their friends on Friday evening. During the early part of the evening five tables of euchre were played, prizes being won by Miss Irene Young, Mrs. Dave Darling, Ted Young and Charles Young. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess after which the young folk tripped the light fantastic until the wee sma' hours. One of the features of the evening was a step dance by William McFarlane an old gentleman of more than eighty years, who although being in ill health for sometime is still able at times to show what he could do in his younger days. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McIlvina, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Darling, Mesdames William Webb and Greenly, the Misses aLura McFarlane, Clara Young, Marie Webb, Daisy Wilson, Bridge Walsh, Irene Young, Jessie Kearney, and Messrs. Austin Walsh, Fred Johnston, William McFarlane, Victor Young, Frank Carroll, Charles Young, Ted Young, Jack Young and H. B. Simmons.

On Friday afternoon a Valentine party was held at the local school in both rooms when Miss Charlton and Mr. Carroll with their pupils enjoyed a pleasant hour. Valentines had previously been deposited in a small post office.

The Women's Institute is holding a concert on Friday evening when the entertainment will consist of two farces entitled "Women Must Talk" and "The Haunted House." An added attraction of the evening will be a minstrel show put on by eight local boys under the direction of Rev. R. T. C. Deelly.

The many friends of Mrs. R. T. C. Deelly, who has been ill for sometime, will be pleased to learn that her health is very much improved.

Mr. P. J. Young has left for a two weeks' vacation in Toronto and Rochester.

Messrs. F. G. and Ted Young, of Peterborough, spent the week-end at their homes in the village.

Mr. Orville Miller, of Smith was in the village on Wednesday.

Mrs. Thomas Cooper, of Warsaw was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McIlvena.

Miss Viola Redpath, teacher at Haultain passed through the village on Friday enroute to her home in Lakefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Skenner and son Douglas, of Peterborough were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson over the week-end.

Mr. Vernon Ellis spent the week-end in Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Olver McIlvena have returned to the village and Mr. McIlvena has re-opened his blacksmith shop.

Miss Katie Traynor is spending the week-end with her parents at Lakehurst.

The school girls' sewing class in connection with the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Young with Mrs. Fred Young as assistant. The class numbers seventeen girls.

FENELLA

Mrs. W. Sandercock entertained the members of the Women's Institute on Thursday afternoon for their regular meeting. Mrs. N. C. Leach gave a very interesting reading on 'Wasting Time,' which illustrated the importance of conserving time, pointing out the fact that many persons who consider themselves and who are frugal, careful people regarding substances, yet waste many, many valuable minutes, hours, days and years of time—time which has been called the most valuable thing on earth and which can never be replaced, which once lost is lost forever. During the business period arrangements were completed for the Valentine social to be held on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. S. Adams. A letter was read from Mr. Putman, superintendent of Women's Institutes of Ontario asking for a donation of clothing for settlers in the far north, who because of the long cold winter were in need. A sumptuous supper was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Ida Dunnet and son Clayton, of Hamilton were recent guests of Mrs. C. W. Macklin.

Mrs. Wilbert Darvey, Port Hope, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cephas Busbin.

Mrs. Ray Eagleson, Cold Springs was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cephas Brisbin, recently.

ENNISMORE

CAVAN.

On Sunday evening in Cavan United church, the choir, under the leadership of the organist, Mrs. A. B. Kennedy, led in a song service before the regular service began. Next Sunday evening the junior choir will occupy the choir and provide special music. The pastor, the Rev. J. E. Whitham, will preach from the text "Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man", this being the special scripture verse for the Tuxis Square.

The Cavan Women's Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. S. Staples, on Thursday afternoon, February 21.

Messrs. Ralph Staples and Harry McCamus attended the course on swine raising in Toronto last week.

Messrs. A. Matchett, K. Syer and F. M. Staples attended the demonstration on "potato raising" in Millbrook on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Milton Carr and baby son have returned to their home from Dr. Turner's hospital, Millbrook.

Mr. James Paul is in Dr. Turner's Private Hospital, Millbrook, for treatment, going on Sunday.

Mrs. W. White and small son Billy of Port Hope are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Lamb.

CAVAN.

On Valentine day Mrs. J. H. Snider was hostess for a pot luck dinner in connection with the Women's Association of Cavan United church.

Guests included Mrs. M. G. Matchett, Mrs. W. Seymour and baby Wilma, Mr. Ray Syer, Mrs. A. Byers, Mrs. A. B. Kennedy, Mrs. S. Richards, Mrs. J. E. Whitham, Mrs. Margaret Staples, Mrs. Will Tinney.

A bountiful meal was spread. The mystery in the well wrapped parcels adds interest to these gatherings.

When each contribution was placed on the table, there was a delicious, well-balanced meal provided. Valentine serviettes reminded the guests of the particular day which they were celebrating. The majority of the ladies brought their work, and this with music, instrumental and vocal, provided entertainment. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

S.S. No. 7 celebrated St. Valentine Day in a pleasant manner. Each pupil and the teacher provided a special treat, fruit or candy. Valentines were exchanged, and from three until four o'clock was spent in playing games.

The Rev. J. E. Whitham, Messrs D. J. Hunter, R. A. Sutton, A. B. Kennedy and R. Robertson motored to Peterborough on Friday evening to hear Mr. Denton Massey speak in George street church.

NORHAM.

Mrs. Wesley Newman and Mrs. Robert Mitchell are visiting in Toronto this week.

Rev. and Mrs. Clare spent Friday and Saturday in Belleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arkles and Mr. and Mrs. Denike attended the funeral of Mrs. Arkle's sister in Castleton on Monday.

Miss Helen Quackenbush visited her sister over the week-end.

HAVELOCK.

Mr. William Copp suffered a severe wrench to his back while playing hockey Saturday morning. At the time he tried to keep himself from hitting a small boy while skating quite fast, and in so doing wrenched his back. Mr. Copp has been unable to work so far this week and it will likely be a few days before he quite recovers.

Miss Mary Lehane, Continuation School teacher, returned this week after having spent the last two weeks at her home in Lindsay, having been sick from a severe cold.

The Havelock Midgets, if the weather conditions keep up, will likely journey to Norwood Thursday evening, playing the Midget team of that town. Several games have already been postponed, so it is likely that this one will go through.

The Havelock Continuation School is holding a skating party at the Havelock rink Friday evening in aid of the piano fund. The students made nearly forty dollars on their last enterprise on this behalf, and if the weather permits, it is hoped they do well this time. After skating, lunch will likely be served in the school-room, and it is possible musical entertainment will be provided.

The Canadian Chautauqua, which finished their four-day engagement here Friday evening, left with their promise and signature to return again next year. Largely through the efforts of the Havelock committee, the Chautauqua proved a success, although only clearing slightly more than the expenses. The committee expressed themselves as being amply repaid for their work, and so well were these programs liked that eight new men signed their names to the list of fifteen on the first committee, bringing it to a total of twenty-three. The Havelock people were justly proud of the Chautauqua and showed their appreciation by their action in the town hall, their interest in the programs, the hall being filled for every performance, and the number of tickets bought. Everybody was pleased with the different programs, especially with "The Patay," a very interesting play. The afternoon talk on "The Land of the Kangaroo," the evening talk on China on Thursday, and on Friday evening the play, "Give and Take," the bringing into use of new ideas on how to run a manufacturing concern, also the musical programs, were enjoyed very much both by old and young.

SOCIETIES OBSERVE MISSIONARY DAY

Members of St. Peter's Presbyterian and Trinity United Churches Hold Gatherings.

MADOC, February 20. — Thursday, February 6 was the W.M.S. day for the ladies of St. Peter's Presbyterian church, and also for Trinity United church in Madoc.

The Presbyterian W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. W. McIntosh. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Watson, the first vice-president, Mrs. Marshall, took charge of the meeting. The usual business was dealt with and letters of appreciation were read from members and friends. Mrs. Jenkins was appointed delegate to attend the Presbyterial which meets in Kingston on the 18th.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. G. West; Mrs. Hawthorne and Mrs. Marshall will be assistant hostesses.

Mrs. McCaffrey then took charge of the lesson, which was taken from the study book, "The Couriers of the King." The lesson was very interesting, Mrs. McCaffrey naming the different Christians who went from one country into another. Italy was the first country to be Christianized, and Denmark the last of the countries in Europe.

TRINITY UNITED W.M.S.

Trinity United W.M.S. meeting had a good attendance in spite of below-zero weather and the fact that a number of the ladies were members of the home nursing class.

The meeting was held at the home of the president, Mrs. S. S. Ashley. Devotional exercises were led by Miss Wood. The second chapter of the Study Book, "Expansion of the Apostolic Church to the East and South," was taken up by Miss Wood, Mrs. H. McMechan and Mrs. M. Bristol.

The president took charge of the business session. It was decided to hold an afternoon tea during later February, Mrs. Moorcroft offering her home for that purpose. Plans wil be made for the observance of the day of prayer on March 7th. The treasurer reported that $51.70 had been raised during January.

A special feature of the program was the report of the Presbyterial recently held in Napanee, which was most interesting as given by our delegate, Mrs. M. Maybee. Helpful suggestions were brought from this most enthusiastic gathering. Prayer was stressed as the keynote of the work.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Maybee and the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Rivers. A social half hour was enjoyed by all.

HAZZARD'S W.M.S.

Hazzard's W.M.S. was held on the same day at the home of Mrs. D. Gunsolas, in charge of Mrs. R. N. Broad, vice-president, with 14 in attendance.

Mrs. George Harris gave an interesting report of the Napanee Presbyterial.

Mrs. Tumulty, Miss A. Keene and Mrs. Kincaid took charge of the study chapter, and Mrs. Broad continued the story of Ben Hur.

COOPER AND REMINGTON W.M.S.

This meeting was held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Parks, with an attendance of 28, in spite of the cold and bad roads.

Mrs. W. J. Rollins gave the topic, "Living with People of other Races." Mrs. H. Rollins, Jr., gave the delegates' report of Presbyterial assisted by Mrs. A. R. Parks.

Mrs. Arthur Wyatt gave an interesting talk on '100 Miles of Miracles in China." A duet by Miss K. Reynolds and Mrs. J. Hayton, "Jesus Loves the Little Children," and a song in costume by four little girls, was enjoyed very much.

Lunch and a social half hour was the closing feature.

ELDORADO W.M.S.

Eldorado W. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. George Empey, Mrs. A. Empey, the president, conducting the devotional exercises.

Several members read extracts from the Study Book, "From Jerusalem to Jerusalem." Mrs. Leslie Robinson gave an excellent report of the Napanee Presbyterial. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Adamson, combining the regular meeting with the day of prayer. Afternoon tea and a social half hour was enjoyed at the close.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY'S SURPRISE.

Standing in his hallway and looking out of the bungalow door, Uncle Wiggily watched the dark, shadowy figures of Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, coming on tiptoes up the front steps. Jackie carried something in his paws, and so did Peetie.

"So that's my valentine, is it?" thought the rabbit gentleman to himself as he watched the puppy dogs.

"They're going to surprise me, I suppose, and it wouldn't be any fun if I wasn't surprised. So I'll wait until they ring my bell and run away and then I'll see what they have left."

It was the eve of St. Valentine's day. Uncle Wiggily had been out in the woods and fields and he had just brought safely home Baby Bunty, Jingle and Jangle, who had been nearly caught by Slim Jim, the hungry weasel.

Only by hiding in an old rabbit burrow, underground, and stopping up one hole with rocks and dirt, and by coming out the back door, had Uncle Wiggily been able to escape with his bunnies.

'Oh, my goodness!' cried Uncle Wiggily.

Then, as he reached his bungalow he saw Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, and heard them talk with valentines.

"I had almost forgotten it was St. Valentine's day," said Mr. Longears to himself as he watched in the hallway. "So it's a good thing Jackie and Peetie reminded me. Though I mustn't let them know I am here or their surprise will be spoiled."

All over Woodland, near the Orange Ice Mountains that evening, the animal boys and girls were leaving secret valentines on each others' doorsteps, ringing the bell and running away. Uncle Wiggily had some valentines of his own he meant to leave, and there was time enough yet, after tea.

But now the rabbit gentleman was waiting to be surprised by the valentine Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow were bringing for him. Very slowly and carefully, Jackie went up the steps and put down on the doormat that which he had been carrying in his paws. Peetie also left what he had and then, each one pushing the button of the electric bell, away they scampered to hide behind the corner of the house to see what Uncle Wiggily would do.

Of course the rabbit gentleman had seen and heard all. But it would never do if he didn't give the puppy dogs the joy of seeing how surprised he was. So, after waiting a moment, so they wouldn't know he had been hiding there in the hallway all the time, Uncle Wiggily opened the door and seeing the objects on the mat, he exclaimed.

"Oh, how jolly! Valentines for me! I wonder who sent them?" Just as if he didn't know! Ha! Ha!

Hiding back of the corner of the bungalow, Jackie and Peetie trembled with eagerness for what was to come next.

"They must be lovely valentines!" said Uncle Wiggily aloud. "For they are quite large. I can see that. They seem to be in boxes. Oh, maybe they are boxes of candied carrots! I'll open one."

Uncle Wiggily took the paper off the box Jackie had left. And as soon as he opened the package Uncle Wiggily had a surprise. For out popped a funny little elf with long black hair and red eyes. It was a Jack-in-the-box that had jumped up at the rabbit gentleman. And the puppy dog boy had left that as a valentine.

"Oh, my goodness! cried Uncle Wiggily. "That's a funny valentine."

Jackie was so delighted with his trick that he almost laughed aloud. And that would have spoiled everything for there was yet Peetie's box to open, and the little puppy wanted to see what Uncle Wiggily would do to that surprise. For there was another surprise. Oh, yes!

"Well, I hope this other valentine is different!" chuckled Mr. Longears as he picked up the package Peetie had left on the mat, and tried to make believe he didn't know who had sent it. "Yes, I hope this is something good to eat!"

"Oh, won't he be surprised?" whispered Peetie to his brother. "Wait until he opens mine!"

And when Uncle Wiggily opened the second valentine box out popped a big green snake, made of wood. Oh, how the rabbit gentleman jumped though of course he knew that kind of a snake could not harm him.

"Oh, another surprise!" cried Mr. Longears. "Two surprise valentines in one night! I wonder who sent them?" Of course he knew, but, even if he didn't he would soon have found out. For Jackie and Peetie, hiding around the corner, laughed so hard that they stumbled and fell and Uncle Wiggily, hearing them jumped down the steps and caught them.

"Oh, you jolly, little rascals!" he cried. "Giving me two valentine surprises. Well now I'll give you one! Take that! And that!" And Uncle Wiggily gave each of puppies five cents to go buy bone ice-cream cones, which they did and a jolly good time they had. Then Uncle Wiggily ate supper and sent around all his valentines, and went to bed.

Uncommon Sense
By John Blake

MAKE YOUR JOB YOUR HOBBY.

Now that Henry Ford has organized his affairs so that he has a little time to spare, he is indulging in the hobby of collecting taverns and reproducing old villages.

But for many years Mr. Ford's hobby was the making of motor cars.

Through almost all of his life Mr. Edison's hobby was electricity.

Brightly lighted and electrically operated cities all over the world prove that it was a good hobby to ride.

I know of no successful man who was not far more interested in his own job than in anything else.

Mr. Hoover and Mr. Coolidge are fond of fishing, but the one didn't spend much time fishing when he was making a reputation as an engineer in various parts of the world, nor did the other cast many flies when he was gaining his reputation as a lawyer or an administrator.

If you are not more interested in your own work than in anything else under Heaven, you will not be much of a success at it.

I know many men who like to climb high mountains, to catch big fish, to shoot big game, to play golf or chess.

But they have not tried to excel in these things, because they know that their real daily occupations are more important and more fascinating.

You can imagine some of the delegates to a great convention of world scientists talking about tennis or billiards, but you know that they cannot be stars at either.

Herbert Spencer once said to a man who had beaten him badly at billiards:

"To play billiards as I do, sir, is the pastime of a gentleman. To play it as you do is proof of a wasted youth."

The young man who sits at his desk thinking about the golf shots he missed through the week end and how to correct them, is never going to own the business or even become an important executive in it.

The amateur tennis player who quits his job early in order to get out to the courts may have a lot of fun in his young days, but he won't count for much after his muscles get flabby with age.

I am not depreciating hobbies.

Everybody needs a little diversion.

But if one can't get more real fun out of his own work than he can out of any sport, he should find some other kind of work.

Any worth-while calling demands the most of one's time and thought.

It will brook no real rivals. Success will never come to people who do not value their jobs over any hobby, no matter if it be the most interesting that was ever ridden by man.

A THREE DAYS COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

SOVIET SECRET SERVICE OPENS DUEL AGAINST WHITE RUSSIANS

Old Cossack Officers and Other Refugees in Paris Take Up Challenge.

MANY 'ACCIDENTS' PLANNED.

PARIS, Feb. 20.—By Josephine Hambleton, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.—The Tcheka, implacable secret service of the Soviets, has opened a deadly duel against the White Russians whose centre is Paris.

This evil genius of Russia has changed its name, but not its character. Under the Czars, it was the Okhrana, the police of autocracy. Under Lenin it was the Tcheka, a fearful instrument to strike down internal enemies of the Red Republic. Under Stalin, he has become the Guepeou, to track out its enemies abroad.

Mirikine Guetzevitch, an eminent jurist of Russia, an emigre in Paris, a Republican, professor of law in the University of Paris, thus describes, to-day, the powers of the Guepeou:—

Laws Kept Secret.

"The most cruel of the laws of the Soviet Republic remain secret. They are not published broadcast. Only the heads of the government know what these laws are. Such is the law applying to the Tcheka. Created in 1917, it was given in 1918 power to use 'all means possible' to carry out the Red Terror. Even torture, obsolete since the Middle Ages, as an instrument of justice, was legalized.

"In 1922 the Tcheka was abolished. Its name had become too sanguinary. The same day, the Council of State was instituted. It was called the Guepeou. Members of the committee were identical.

"The same day, Feb. 6, the Guepeou was given power of secret trial, of judgment, of death. And, after judgment has been delivered in committee, of executing the sentence of death through its emissaries at home or abroad.

"The guepeou, at first, a terrible wheel in the dictatorship, has now absorbed all other powers. To-day, it is the master of all."

Until the escape of Bessedowski, then acting head of the Russian embassy in Paris, in October, the activities of the foreign section of the Guepeou were carried on chiefly in its office, Loubianka Street, Moscow. It acted on secret dossiers sent in by its own secret agents and by members of Communist societies.

Then occurred the amazing escape of Bessedowski over the garden wall of the Russian embassy in the Rue Grenelle. French police intervened to rescue his family from the embassy because, as Bessedowski naively explained, he feared an accident similar to that which had happened to a friend. The friend had died of a cup of poisoned coffee. He had lost favor with the Soviets.

Treachery Uncovered.

The Guepeou was no longer under any misapprehension about its foreign agents. The ukase went out, "The foreign service must be purified without delay. We must thank Bessedowski for his example. It proves that treachery and defections are possible even among high officers."

The Guepeou began operations. And the White Russians accepted the challenge. The present Soviet minister in Paris declared his life has been threatened. A famous White Russian general has disappeared. Old Cossak officers—some of them now taxi drivers—have formed the "Beggar Cavaliers" with a body guard of 35 for their chief. Russian exiles in Paris are estimated at 50,000. They are preparing for more "little accidents."

WOOLER COUPLE OBSERVES SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Terrill Honored by Friends and Neighbors at Jolly Gathering.

OVER FORTY GUESTS

WOOLER, Feb. 20 (Examiner Correspondence). — Maple Lane Farm, southwest of Wooler, was en fete on Saturday, Feb. 15, when the many guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Terrill, two of Brighton township's most highly esteemed residents, gathered to extend their heartiest felicitations on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary.

A number of guests present had also witnessed the ceremony of twenty-five years ago, when as Miss Lillian Clarke, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Clarke, the bride had been united in marriage to Mr. Clinton Terrill, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Terrill.

Mrs. Terrill, in the bridal gown of twenty-five years ago, with her husband, two sons, one daughter with her husband and baby girl, received in the drawing room.

Immediately following was the baptism of Margaret Lillian Dorland, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terrill. Rev. H. B. Neal performed the baptismal ceremony.

Promptly at six o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, the amiable host and hostess led the way to the dining room, where covers were laid for forty guests. Primroses, with pink basket favors, made a most effective decorative scheme in harmony with fluted streamers in pink and silver provided an added touch of color.

A candelabra containing pink candles and a number of silver candlesticks with pink candle, further enhanced the bridal table, where a full course dinner was served, with S. A. Montgomery acting as caterer.

Seated with the bride and groom were: the flower girl of twenty-five years ago, Mrs. Margaret Sharpe, and her husband; James and Lorne Terrill, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Terrill; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dorland and baby Margaret Lillian.

A very rare and outstanding feature of this occasion was, seated at the table with baby Margaret Lillian was her mother, Mrs. Margaret Lillian; her mother, Mrs. Lloyd Dorland; her grandmother, Mrs. Clinton Terrill and her great grandfather, Mr. Aaron Clarke; her father, Mr. Lloyd Dorland; her grandfather, Mr. Frank Dorland, and her great grandfather, Mr. W. C. Dorland.

Rev. H. B. Neal, pastor of Wooler United Church, made a most entertaining toast master. The toast to the bride, proposed by Mr. Neal and responded to very efficiently by Lloyd Dorland; the toast to the groom, proposed by Mr. Neal; S. L. Terrill responding. The toast to the honored guests, proposed by Mrs. Clinton Terrill, and responded to by Miss Edith Valentine, and Frank Dorland. Mr. Esli Terrill made a few remarks fittingly to the occasion.

Miss Grace Mutton favored with vocal solos during the tea hour.

Each of the speakers referred to the gracious hospitality of the host and hostess and the esteem in which they were held.

After clasping hands and singing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," the wedding party adjourned to the spacious drawing room, where the evening was happily spent in renewing friendships. Many gifts of handsome silver pieces, including money, were showered on the happy couple.

The guests present at this delightful reunion of relatives were: Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Neal, Wooler; Mr. and Mrs. Esli Terrill; and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Terrill, Lindsay; Mr. and Mrs. William Clarke, Codrington; Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Sharpe, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dorland, Mr. and Mrs. Esli Terrill, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Terrill, Mrs. Clarinda Terrill, all of Wooler; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Huycke, Orland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dorland and Mr. and Mrs. Aylmer Dorland, Miss Grace Mutton, Miss Edith Valentine, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dorland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sharpe, Mr. S. D. McColl, Miss Cora Valentine, and Mr. Stanley Montgomery, all of Wooler. The younger guests were: Margaret Lillian Dorland, Lois Sharpe, Mae Sharpe, Ray Sharpe, Lucille Waite, Bernice Sharpe, Leona Sharpe, Gwendoline Elford, Lucille Sharpe, Marjory Sharpe.

Havelock

HAVELOCK.—The many friends of Miss Hazel Hooper will regret to hear that she is confined to her home through illness.

DOMINION LIFE SHOWS PROGRESS

Optimism is Evident for Year 1930 at 41st Annual Meeting.

WATERLOO, Feb. 20.—Consistent progress, well sustained, is the keynote of the 41st annual report of The Dominion Life Assurance Company, as presented by the company's Vice-President, Mr. George A. Dobbie, at the annual meeting held on Friday, February 14th, at Head Office in Waterloo. The President, Mr. Ford S. Kumpf, was prevented by an accident from presiding. While various factors have contributed to the depression of business for all companies during the latter part of 1929, Dominion Life business showed a satisfactory increase over 1928. This company now has above $137,000,000 of assurance in force—nearly double the business on the books in 1924.

In common with other Canadian life companies, the Dominion Life is optimistic concerning prospects for 1930. As a forecast of what may be expected, it points to the fact that its business written in January, 1930, showed a 33 per cent advance over that written for the same month in 1929.

A few of the highlights of the 41st annual report are as follows:

Ten years ago the Dominion Life issued policies amounting to $12,000,000; in 1929 this figure exceeded $28,000,000. Ten years ago the company had only $35,000,000 of assurance in force; at the end of 1929 there was $137,000,000 on the books. Income in the same period increased from $1,182,000 to over $6,000,000. In payments to policyholders, the Dominion Life has also made progress during the past decade. As compared with 1919, when $619,000 was disbursed in such payments, last year over $2,250,000 was so paid out. Assets have increased from 5½ millions in 1919 to nearly 24 millions in 1929. The interest earnings on Dominion Life investments in 1929 was 6.91 per cent.

INCREASE YOUR WEIGHT 5 POUNDS 30 DAYS OR MONEY BACK

Doctors and good pharmacists know that Cod Liver Extract is full of vitamines that make flesh, create appetite, build up the power to resist disease and puts good solid flesh on skinny men and women.

So now men and women who keep up with the times are taking McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets—rich in flesh producing, health building, strength creating vitamines and as easy to take as candy.

So why not start today? Why not fill out those deep hollows in neck, cheeks and chest? Why go on through life with sunken cheeks and narrow chest when you can take advantage of this straight forward offer.

Try them for 30 days if you want to gain five pounds or more. And bear this in mind if they don't help you in that time McDermid & Jury, McDermid's, Bond's, Lynch, Payne's, or any druggist anywhere is authorized to return your money—but demand McCoy's 60 Tablets 60 cents.

CHURCH BANQUET IS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

Review Read of Past Year's Activities of Regent Street United Church.

LAKEFIELD, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence). — Recently the members of Regent Street United Church to the number of about two hundred sat down to a congregational banquet served by the ladies of the Church in the schoolroom.

The Sunday School Orchestra composed of W. Madill, A. Clark, Ivan Madill, C. Bullock, R. Kemp and Jack Hendren with Mrs. H. E. Moore at the piano added greatly to the pleasure of the evening by its selections and by the accompaniments to the hymns.

Rev. S. A. Kemp was in the chair and gave several appropriate readings from Walt Mason, who was an old Ontario county boy. Rev. Mr. Kemp welcomed the company, gathered together as one big family, reviewing the past year's work, taking account of the assets and liabilities and going forward with confidence and hope, to another year. During the past year the church was re-roofed and all the allocations met.

Could Not Sleep HEADACHES Were So Bad

MAN'S POOR BACK LAME AND ACHING

Some backs ache all day long—a steady aching soreness—it seems to the man afflicted that at times his back was breaking!

When you come home from work at night with a back so sore, lame and weak that you feel mighty sure you won't be able to go to work in the morning—DO THIS:

Get someone to give it a good rubbing with Joint-Ease—a soothing, penetrating, pain subduing, wonder working emollient that gets right under the skin—right where the muscles are inflamed and sore.

Then forget your troubles and go to sleep.

Unless you're different from other men you'll wake up in the morning with a back free from aches, pains, stiffness and misery—and you'll go to work with a grateful heart and tell your friends about the mighty swift acting power of Joint-Ease.

Joint-Ease is made right here in Canada and it's just as good for lumbago too—a generous tube for 60 cents at McDermid & Jury, McDermid Drug Co., E. L. Payne, Bond's Drug Store, and druggists everywhere—Guaranteed.

Mrs. Leslie Harrison gave the report of the Mission Band, which has a very successful year, meeting its allocation and having a small balance. The amount raised was $61.86.

Rev. S. A. Kemp, who has been taking the Trail Rangers' work, reported a balance of $3. Miss Thelma Darling reported for the C.G.I.T. group which had raised $134.64 during the year, having a balance on hand of $18.75. Harry Wannamaker reported that the choir had raised the sum of $36.38.

Mrs. W. W. Leonard gave the report of the W.M.S. which had raised $306.15, while the expenses were $286.56. The allocation was $260. Walter Madill reported for the Sunday School orchestra which has a balance of $18.25 on hand after paying $22.05 expenses.

At this time, Rev. Mr. Robinson rose to pay a tribute to the ladies for their work and also to congratulate the Regent Street Church on its splendid record. During his stay in the village he had considered it a privilege to take part in the services.

Mrs. S. S. Spence read the report of the Ladies' Aid which had a banner year in 1929. The receipts amounted to $1,641.22, with a balance on hand of $533.49, after paying all obligations and assisting in many ways the maintenance of the church. This organization has 86 members.

A. E. Higgins also spoke of the pleasure it gave him to be present and Rev. Mr. Kemp spoke of the decoration of the church which is very much needed and on motion the matter was left with the trustees who were asked to see that the work was done immediately, the Ladies' Aid offering to finance the work.

A. B. Burrows gave the report of the Roofing Committee which had received $850 and after paying the contract price, had a balance of $8.50. Stanley Darling gave a very encouraging report of the Sunday School which is going ahead and has a balance of $91.73. Leslie Harrison gave a very gratifying statement of the Maintenance and Mission Fund which is about $100 better than last year, the total amount being $995.96.

The total receipts from the General Funds were $3,401.83 and the expenses, $3,173.69, leaving a balance on hand of $228.14. The amount raised from all sources during the year was $6,329 aand the balance in the bank from all sources is $875.

Thanks were extended to A. H. Clark for his help in the orchestra which was greatly appreciated and on motion of Mrs. A. Darling and Mrs. A. E. Higgins, a vote of thanks was passed to all who had helped the Ladies' Aid with its work during the year and bespeaking the same kindly co-operation in 1930.

A. E. Higgins and George Harrison made a motion of thanks to the ladies for the splendid banquet, which was a popular motion receiving endorsation of the entire company.

Knox United Church

The annual meeting of Knox United Church was held on Tuesday evening, when Rev. T. M. Wesley occupied the chair, with F. J. Burgess acting as secretary.

Reports of the various organizations were given and all showed progress and a satisfactory year. The amount raised for missions by the congregation irrespective of the organizations was $500. The W.M.S. raised $250, and the Mission Band, which has a membership of fifteen raised $60. This was an outstanding achievement and the children were congratulated, also their leader, Mrs Wesley.

The Ladies' Guild raised $250 during the year. J. A. Porter, F. J. Burgess and W. J. Charlton were elected to the choir for its faithful and excellent service during the year. Following the business meeting, the ladies of the congregation served refreshments in the schoolroom.

Valentine Tea

The annual Valentine Tea of the W.A. of St. John's Church was a very great success and the decorations were very pretty, indeed, being carried out in appropriate colors with hearts, cupids, arrows, etc. Visits were received by Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Creighton and Mrs. Marling.

The fancy work table was in charge of Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Barker and Miss F. M. Atwood. Mrs. White and Miss Hetherington had charge of the home cooking table and Mrs. K. A. Mackenzie and Miss Osborne the candy booth. The table of surprise packets was in charge of Mrs. Thomas Watson and Mrs. Mendell Smith.

Mrs. Stenner, Mrs. Chappell, Mrs. Junkin, Mrs. Mahood and Mrs. A. Wannamaker made an efficient tea committee.

In the evening a jolly euchre party was held, eight tables being played and prizes were won by Mrs. Junkin and M. Smith, while Mrs. M. Smith and Harold Trude won the consolation prizes.

The receipts amounted to $130 which does not include a donation of $20 given by a local lady in memory of her mother.

How Pimples Go In Three Days

Sometimes Overnight

Absurd? Not at all because remember now, you're not using any worthless fancy creams and lotions but that powerfully healing and soothing Peterson's Ointment!

Peterson's doesn't peel the skin—it gently soothes and starts right in to heal those unsightly eruptions the minute it's applied. Mild pimples disappear overnight and it's not a bit surprising to see people whose beauty has been ruined for years by pimples with enchantingly clear and velvety smooth skin after 3 days treatment.

A superb skin remedy to end Eczema, Acne, Rashes, old sores and ulcers in the surest, quickest way. A 50c box proves it. All drugstores.

J. W. Spears writes: "The doctor told me it was just my age and that my pimples would go away but I sent for a box of your Peterson's Ointment and it started right in to clear up my skin—it sure is a wonderful Ointment.

WHAT A SHAME

CAMBELLFORD, Feb. 19. (Examiner Staff Correspondent). — Although going down to defeat in their last Trent Valley fixture, the Campbellford team are good sports and can take a defeat as well as a victory. Even though I. Cowell is being treated by Dr. Scott' for a strained ankle, yet even he can appreciate the efforts of the Campbellford bard and hockey fan, in his ode to defeat entitled "What a Shame."

"WHAT A SHAME"

"Tootsie" Irwin out of luck,
Could not get that little puck,
Though he tried, alas he failed,
"Tootsie" Irwin wept and wailed.

And MacArthur, luckless boy,
Is, good sir, devoid of joy;
He's unhappy, and 'tis meet,
He should feel his team's defeat.

And, good sir, I have to say,
Cowell's in his bed to-day—
Wounded and in sore distress,
But unbaffled, I confess.

Further, I have this to say,
Joyless is that boy McKay;
And I think that Billie Blue,
Was maltreated, boys, don't you?

And with reticence I claim,
Buster ruffled in the game;
He was ousted out—out and out—
Worsted in a strenuous bout.

But the saddest part to me,
Is the imputence I see,
For the Stirling boys say we,
Clipped the pinions of T. B.

—Justus.

WEED INSPECTOR IS APPOINTED

Much Business Discussed at Regular Meeting of Cavan Council.

ACCOUNTS PASSED

MILLBROOK, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence.)—At the meeting of the Cavan Council held recently, communications were received from R. C. Muir, chief engineer of Municipal Roads, with the necessary by-law enclosed for township road improvement; Mr. Muir, re the appointment of a Road Superintendent; the Minister of Highways, advising the Council of the annual conference for Road Superintendents and of the Ontario Good Roads Convention; J. F. Carrol, in charge of administering of the Weed Act, advising the Council to appoint a weed inspector at its February meeting and congratulating the township on the work of the weed inspector in 1929; the Counties Clerk, acknowledging the receipt of the audited school accounts for 1929.

On motion of Councillors Ball and McGill, J. B. McGill was appointed weed inspector for 1930. The auditors' report was received and the clerk was instructed to have 100 copies printed.

Deputy Reeve McKnight introduced a by-law to provide for expenditure on roads in the township during the year 1930. The by-law was given its first and second reading, the council going into a committee of the whole for the consideration of the same. The council resumed and the Reeve reported the by-law read a second time and the blanks filled in. Following this it was read a third time, signed, sealed and numbered.

The printing committee reported the printing contract let to the Mirror-Reporter for the sum of $210. The Reeve and Clerk were authorized to sign and submit to the Minister of Public Highways of the Province of Ontario, the petition of the Corporation of the Township of Cavan, showing that during the period of Jan. 1st, 1929 to Dec. 31st, 1929, there had been expended on the township roads the sum of $20,136.46 and requesting the statutory grant on that amount as provided by the Ontario Highways Act and amendments thereto.

The following accounts were ordered paid: Board of Health, regular meeting, $8; W. T. Donaldson, auditor, $10; R Hooton, auditor, $10; J. N. McGill, salary as treasurer in 1929, $150; J. N. McGill, registration births, etc., 1929, $10; A. Coulter, S. S. No. 13, $300; W. Wood, road through farm, $15; F. Ballantyne, P. S. Rsd. No. 12, $23.75; H. J. Hubbard, P. S. Rsd. No. 3, $3.71; Treasurer, Millbrook, Cavan's share court room, $18; Treasurer, counties, hospital fees, McIvor, $38.38; treasurer, counties, hospital fees, Blakemore, $79.63; F. G. Scott, framing Baptie Scholarship certificates, $2.50; Dan Reid, hauling steel rails from boundary to Mt. Pleasant, $10; Canada Ingot Company, culverts, 1929, $1149; F. J. Smith, garage, account for 1929, $514.69; L. H. Gibson, P.S. Var, $84; Council pay, $30; Com. work, Reeve 28, Councillor McGill $2, $24; J. N. McGill, on salary, $27.50.

The council adjourned to meet on March 12, at 1.30 p.m.

Dreaded anaemia can be banished!

IN middle life, when vitality is not as great as it once was, and the blood stream is naturally thinned and devitalized, anaemia easily lays hold on the system. At first, just a tired feeling, it quickly results in bodily weakness that ordinary tonics cannot avail.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills then become a wonderful aid. They supply the necessary oxygen to the blood, increase the blood count and renew waning vigor.

"I was seized with anaemia," writes Mrs. Charles Lambert of Port Hope, Ont., "and was in a very bad state. As a girl I had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for a run-down condition and decided to take them once more. Again the result was marvellous. In a little while I was fully well again."

You cannot begin too early to check anaemia. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold at your druggist's or by mail, postpaid, 50 cents, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RICHARD HALL Limited

FEW OFFICERS ARE APPOINTED

Good Program Provided at Regular Meeting of X. L. Mission Circle.

NEW STUDY BOOK.

A very successfulmeeting of the X. L. Mission Circle was held last evening at St. James' Parsonage when Misses Marjorie Dudgeon, Dorothy Dudgeon and Jennie Smart acted as hostesses. An unusually large number of girls were present and a specially good program was carried out.

The president, Miss Jessie Martin, was in the chair and the service was opened with singing and prayer. The business session followed and the minutes of last meeting were read and a report given by the treasurer. At the roll call the members responded by giving the name of a woman of the Bible. A few appointments were made as follows: Strangers' Secretary, Miss Dorothy Dudgeon; Mite Box Secretary, Miss Zetta Wood; Associate Helpers' Secretary, Mrs. Rose.

The years' program was planned with hostesses for each meeting, assuring an interesting social time as well as a profitable study of the work throughout the year, and letters were read by the secretary, and an outline of a business program was given by Miss Nina Andrus Secretary of Christian Stewardship who had arranged a very comprehensive scheme for raising the year's allocation, through free-will offerings, which was heartily adopted by all the members.

Prayers were offered by Miss D. Nixon and Miss E Wright after which all joined in singing "Prayer changes things." A reading entitled "The Church, in which four girls took part, was very interesting.

NEW STUDY BOOK.

The Study Book Jerusalem to Jerusalem was introduced and the first chapter taken up by Miss Constance Wagar. The study promises to be one which will hold the undivided attention of the girls until finished.

Vocal solos were contributed during the evening by Mesdames H. Fowler and E. Kitney and Miss Geneva Sedgwick, and a piano solo by Miss Jean Rose, each of which added greatly to the enjoyment.

A contest to supply missing words in a questionnaire on the study, evidenced the fact that careful attention had been given to the story of the Apostolic church, and the benediction, pronounced by Rev. Mr. Dudgeon, brought this part of the service to a conclusion.

During the social hour which followed, contests and music were enjoyed.

A pleasing feature of this part of the program was the shower tendered Miss Jean Patterson by her fellow-workers in the Circle.

Miss Patterson will enter Nicholls Hospital in a short time where she will train for the important profession of nursing. The gifts carried many good wishes for her future success.

The service of delicious refreshments proved the three girls to be ideal hostesses.

The meeting was one of the best in the history of a long line of good meetings, and the largest attendance at any regular meeting since the inception of the Circle, with forty-three young ladies answering to the roll call.

Springville

SPRINGVILLE, Feb. 19. — (Examiner Correspondence).—The regular meeting of the Springville W.M.S. was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. S. Staples. The attendance was good at fourteen.

An interesting program dealing with Home Missions in the Canadian West was provided by the members.

Mrs. J. Grandy reported Miss Nellie Forman's address on mission work in the west as given at the second annual meeting of the Peterborough Presbyterial held in Mark street church in January.

Two other splendid articles were read by Mrs. S. S. Staples and Mrs. M. Johnston respectively.

Mrs. A. Hunter led in the opening prayer. The scripture lesson was read alternately from John 10:1-30.

Miss A. Brown was in charge of the study book for this meeting.

Letters of thanks for flowers received by Mesdames Wood and Bothwell, during recent illness were read to the meeting and a few kind words of appreciation were expressed by Mrs. William Whitfield for the letter of sympathy received by her from the society during her recent bereavement. Mrs. Whitfield also thanked the ladies for all kindnesses shown her at this time.

It was decided that at future meetings lunch would be dispensed with, but at the next meeting on the day set apart for prayer, an offering would be taken up, each woman giving as her contribution an amount equal to the cost of her share in providing lunch for the meetings.

Plans were made for the making of quilt blocks. Mrs. A. Hunter volunteered to patch one quilt if the necessary colored material was given her by the ladies. Blocks for another quilt of winter weight materials are being made by each members.

Program and lunch committees were appointed to make arrangements for a St. Patrick's social evening to be held under the auspices of the W.M.S. on Friday evening, March 21, in the basement of the church.

A request was made by the president that each lady bring her February Missionary Monthly to the next meeting.

Closing prayer was offered by Mrs William Whitfield and Mrs. M Johnston.

A dainty lunch was served by the lunch committee for this month, Mrs. William Whitfield, Mrs. Harry Young and Miss Helen Whittington and the social hour was brought to a close by a hearty vote of thanks to the hostess for her hospitality.

MUSKOKA RESIDENT ENJOYS GOODHEALTH

ROSENEATH, Feb. 20.—Mr. James Clark left on Monday for his home at Muskoka after spending several weeks with relatives and friends in the village and surrounding neighborhood. Mr. Clark celebrated his ninetieth birthday on July 12, 1929. His life is a history of its own. He is remarkably bright and vigorous for his years, with all his faculties unimpaired except for a slight deafness.

Mr. Clark, who is Irish decent, is a staunch Orangeman, having joined the order seventy-two years ago, and it is said he is one of the oldest members of the Loyal Orange Lodge in the Dominion of Canada.

Not only July 12 was the Orange walk held in Bracebridge but there also was a great celebration in honor of "Jimmy's" birthday when he was presented with a beautiful gold medal as a slight token for his faithfulness and lengthy career with the Orange Order.

Many prominent men of the Orange Order and other noted speakers addressed the huge gathering and extended hearty congratulations to Mr. Clark, who has enabled them to possess that courage, strength and brotherly love which exists in Orangeism.

Mrs. Robert Mouncey and Mrs. Mary Brown are sisters of Mr. Clark.

WOMAN DIES IN FIRE.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 19. — Mrs. James H. Tehan is dead and her husband, a cripple, is in a serious condition as the result of being overcome in a fire which swept their home to-day. Another woman tenant was carried down a ladder and a second was burned on her arms. Several firemen also were overcome by smoke.

COW MILKED IN PLANE

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Sunnymede Ollie is a queen of the air. She was milked in a plane, and the milk was parachuted down in containers. Sunnymede Ollie is a Guernsey cow.

Save scrubbing and boiling . . . by changing to Rinso!

WHAT a work-saver Rinso is! The dirt fairly slips off—rinses away—and clothes come whiter than ever, safely!

No scrubbing, not a bit of hard rubbing, no boiling—no wonder clothes last so much longer. The makers of 37 leading washing machines recommend Rinso for a whiter, safer wash.

Cupful for cupful, this compact, granulated soap does more actual washing than light-weight soaps. Its suds are thick, creamy, lasting.

Saves the hands, too—they're not in hot suds so much. Get the BIG household package.

BIBLE CLASS HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Valentine Spirit Prevails at St. James' United Church Class Gathering.

The Cheerful Workers' Bible Class of St. James' United Church having attained its nineteenth birthday, was tendered a banquet on Tuesday evening in the Sunday School Hall, when over one hundred were present to enjoy a delightful evening.

The tables were done in the Valentine colors. Long red streamers and tulips of the same bright hue filled crystal vases. After partaking of the delicious viands, chief of which was the beautifully decorated birthday cake provided by the capable committee in charge, a splendid program was introduced by Mrs. Payne, secretary of the class.

Called upon for impromptu addresses, Rev. J. H. Dudgeon, Mr. Prest, the superintendent, and Mr. McLaren, assistant superintendent, and Mrs. Dudgeon, each responded.

Mr. Dudgeon in thanking the Cheerful Workers for their invitation to himself and Mrs. Dudgeon, congratulated them upon the great work they were accomplishing and for the willing and cheerful response to every call of the church. The class is an inspiration and influence to the whole school.

CLASS WELL NAMED.

Mr. Prest said he appreciated the privilege and honor of being present at this banquet. The class he said was well named 'Cheerful Workers.' There is still a great work to be undertaken in St. James' and it is good to realize that such a class is ever in readiness to give its assistance.

In a few words Mr. McLaren also paid tribute to the Cheerful Workers. He expressed his pleasure at being present at this splendid banquet and said that this class provided a banquet of spiritual food every Sabbath afternoon. They have a wonderful name and are living up to it. He liked to see them growing in numbers as well as growing in pace.

Mrs. Dudgeon also wished the class continued success in their work. Mrs. English, class teacher, thanked all the speakers for their kindly expressions of goodwill toward the class. She disclaimed all honor of class success for herself, giving the credit to the wholehearted support and co-operation of every member. Two contests, both showing great originality in style, proved most entertaining, especially that of the bird groups singing. At the conclusion of the program all joined hands in "Auld Lang Syne."

HAULTAIN AND DEER BAY.

The member of the Anglican National Commission, who was to preach at Holy Trinity (Anglican) Church, Haultain, on Sunday afternoon was unable to keep his appointment owing to the bad conditions of the road. It is hoped that the commission will visit this territory with the advent of the better weather.

Mr. William Thompson, of Mount Julian, was in Warsaw on Saturday.

Mr. Arthur Duggan, of Smith Township, is at present with Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, of Deer Bay.

Mrs. David Darling, of Young's Point, motored to Haultain on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shewen, of Burleigh Falls, were in Lakefield on Saturday.

PILE SUFFERERS

You can only get quick, safe and lasting relief by removing the cause—congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Nothing but an internal remedy can do this—that's why cutting and salves fail. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid, a harmless tablet, is guaranteed to quickly and safely banish any form of Pile misery or money back. McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store, and druggists everywhere sell it with this guarantee.

Very Itchy Pimples on Face For Years. Healed by Cuticura.

"For years I was troubled with pimples and blackheads. The pimples were hard, large and red and affected my face. Some of them festered and caused eruptions, and at times were very itchy.

"I tried all kinds of remedies without success. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using it purchased more. In about a month I could see that it was helping me, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Lola Love, Ridgedale, Saskatchewan.

Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c. Talcum 25c. Sold everywhere. Sample each free. Address Canadian Depot: J. T. Wait Company Limited, Montreal.

DISTRICT DEPUTY VISITS TRENTON

Presentations Made to H. Sager and C. V. Wilkins on Behalf of Trent Lodge.

MUSICAL NUMBERS.

MADOC, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).—George W. Weir, of Madoc, District Deputy Grand Master of Prince Edward District, accompanied by the District Secretary, W. E. Connor, paid an official visit to Trent Lodge No. 38, A.F. & A.M. in Trenton recently, when past master's jewels were presented to H. Sager and C. V. Wilkins, by the District Deputy on behalf of Trent Lodge.

V. Little, Master of Trent Lodge, as well as his skilled staff of officers and choir was highly complimented on the efficient and accurate manner of conferring the degree.

After the degree work was completed, a luncheon was served and an orchestra composed of members of of the Lodge provided music. James Bankier, tenor soloist of Belleville was heartily applauded as were solos given by members of the Lodge choir. Trent Lodge has without doubt, the finest Masonic Temple in the district.

PRESENTATION MADE

Miss Rosella Wood, R.N., Honored by Friends at Springville Gathering.

SPRINGVILLE, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).—Miss Rosetta Wood, R.N., whose marriage takes place in the near future, was the guest of honor at the social evening of the Literary Society, Friday, February 14, when she was presented by the young people and friends of the community with a miscellaneous shower.

The presentation was made by Misses Sibyl Robertson and Helen Whittington, while Miss A. Brown read the following address:

Dear Rosella:

We, the young people and friends of this community, have taken this opportunity of having you recognize in but a small way our appreciation of what you have contributed as a member of our community.

While of recent years your profession has severed somewhat your intimate communication we cannot but feel that whenever an opportunity was afforded you, you were in our midst and not only that but at our services and we ask you to accept these gifts, not for their worth, but merely as tokens of our gratitude and may they take to your new home remembrances not to be forgotten.

While many of us feel our ties somewhat broken we must banish the thought and rejoice that you are still to be with us and we trust remain our loyal friend as you have ever and always been in the past.

It is surely with much pleasure that we look forward to your future life among us and we one and all wish you all the happiness that may possibly fall on your pathway.

Signed on behalf of friends: H. M. Whittington, Annie Brown, Sibyl Robertson.

The numerous parcels were arranged artistically in a large white basket, shaded by a prettily colored parasol and draped with white streamers.

Miss Wood, in a suitable manner, made reply, thanking all for their kind thought and beautiful gifts.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a social time with the "bride-to-be." Amusing games and an impromptu debate made a jolly program which was brought to a close when a dainty lunch was served.

VALENTINE SOCIAL.

Fancy Dress Affair Held in Apsley Hall is Big Success.

(Examiner Correspondence)

APSLEY, Feb. 20.—A fancy dress Valentine dance was held in the Parish Hall on Friday evening, when Miss Helen Lean in the character of Night received first prize. Miss Wazar and George Carr were judges for the costumes. Other costumes worthy of mention were those of Miss O'Brian as a gypsy, Miss Idena James as Spring, Mrs. G. Kilborne as a Japanese, Eunice James, Folly and George Kilborne as a Bumble Bee. Mr. and Mrs. William Staples provided music for the very enjoyable dance which made up the evening's entertainment.

SOCIETY MEETS.

Mrs. D. E. Bell Hostess to Members of Marmora Women's Institute.

(Examiner Correspondence)

MARMORA, Feb. 20.—Mrs. D. E. Bell was hostess for the February meeting of the Women's Institute which met at her home on Thursday evening. The roll call was a hot supper dish. A letter was read from Mrs. M. E. Lowe, Toronto, who is to instruct a class in First Aid and home nursing commencing on March 3. Arrangements have been made for the course to be held in the lower part of the Masonic hall.

Interesting papers were given by Mrs. C. A. Bleecker, on 'Travelling on a Pullman,'; Mrs. H. W. Sabine, 'The Editorials'; and Mrs. Clifford Spry on 'The Training of Children'. Readings entitled, "I Shall Pass this Way But Once," by Mrs. W. A. Sanderson and "The Letter" by Mrs. Barrie were much enjoyed.

Mrs. C. Nichol gave an account of a well set table and a bride's first dinner party and also sang Killarney. A delicious lunch was served at the close.

MAIL PLANE BURNS.

ST. JOHN, N.B., February 19 (Canadian Press). — A Canadian Airways mail plane en route here from Moncton on the way to Montreal was forced down on the Kennebecasis River ice this morning, took fire, and was destroyed. The mail was saved. The pilot and mechanic escaped injury.

HOME NURSING CLASSES CLOSED

Miss F. M. L. Alexander, R.N., of Toronto, Acted as Instructor.

HELD IN MADOC.

MADOC, Feb. 20—(Examiner Correspondence).—The classes in Home Nursing and First Aid held under the auspices of Madoc Women's Institute closed on Friday, these being under the leadership of Miss F. McL. Alexander, R.N., of Toronto, who was most painstaking and thorough in all the work undertaken.

Thirty members were enrolled, the average attendance being 21. The first day was largely taken up with organization and during the first week the discussion and instruction was on "The Home Medicine Chest"—what it ought to contain and how it may be used until the doctor arrives and in the carrying out of his orders.

Lists of simple standard remedies and first aid items were given and each remedy discussed as to its purpose and use, also the making and reading of charts.

The second week was filled with practical work and each member of the class felt that each day's instruction was most important and highly necessary. Twenty hours of instruction were supposed to have been over to this, but Miss Alexander gave of her time freely and willingly, both before and after the classes.

Makes Presentation.

On Thursday afternoon, the class planned a surprise, knowing that Miss Alexander planned to leave immediately at the close of Friday's class. Mrs. C. N. Whytock, the president, called the meeting to order after the class dismissal and after a few words, called on Mrs. West, one of the charter members of the Women's Institute, to speak. Mrs. West presented Miss Alexander with a five dollar gold piece on behalf of the members of the class.

Miss Alexander replied, thanking the ladies for their kindness and spoke of the pleasure she had felt in meeting such a genial class.

Dainty refreshments were served by the ladies and a social half hour enjoyed at the close. Through these classes, the Madoc Institute gains twelve new members.

Chinese Banquet.

One of the most pleasing events of the last week was the banquet tendered to Dr. Tehyi Hsieh of China, the brilliant orator whose lecture on "Inside Light of Present Day China" was so much enjoyed during Chautauqua week, by the directors of the Madoc Chautauqua committee.

Immediately after the evening session adjournment was made to the Canadian Cafe where those efficient hosts, Jim Lim and his staff, had made most excellent preparations.

Dr. Hsieh occupied the seat of honor as chief guest and graciously instructed all in the graceful art of using the Chinese cutlery, chop sticks, with which the meal was eaten. Speeches were given by many of the prominent guests and an excellent banquet was enjoyed by all.

Parisian Foibles

This interesting afternoon dress in blue cloth, trimmed with collar and pipings of lighter blue crepe de chine and silver stitching is to be found in the Philippe and Gaston collection.

ATTRACTIVE FROCK IN NAVY BLUE WOOL FOR AFTERNOON WEAR

By Monsieur Gaston

Creator for Philippe and Gaston

The cloth frock in navy blue will always be popular for informal afternoon wear, particularly when it is made as interesting as this one to which I have added collar and pipings of blue crepe de chine in a lighter tone, brightening it up with silver stitching. The buttoned-overcoat effect makes this dress particularly good for street wear without a coat on the warmer days of spring.

NEWEST FASHIONS REMINISCENT OF OTHER DAYS

SUITS, BLOUSES AND PAJAMAS GIVEN NEW PROMINENCE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—(U.P.)—Among the types of costumes brought forward at the Paris openings suits, blouses and pajamas seemed most important in comparison with other seasons.

American buyers present in large numbers showed the greatest interest in suits with peplums, these being the newest feature. Models were shown in tailored woolens and silk dressmaking or costume types.

Blouses included fine jersey jumpers in tuck-in types and with plastrous. There were also tailored piques, shirtings, chiffons — stiffened and otherwise—and a wide range of fabric including laces, printed crepes, and embroidered and plain handkerchief linen. Collarless blouses with a tiny bow os ruffle were among the more admired models.

Pajamas offer unusual interest because their scope is extended from lounging and beach affairs to workmanlike types. Every consideration is also given to pajamas developed in such fabrics as suggest tea time or dinner wear. Paris has every expectation of establishing the pajama and lifting it from the fad to the fashion category.—Copyright.

EUCHRE PARTY

Fenella Women's Institute Celebrates St. Valentine's Day With Social Evening.

(Examiner Correspondence)

FENELLA, Feb. 20.—Friday night, Feb. 14, the anniversary dedicated to the spirit of St. Valentine was the occasion chosen by the Fenella Women's Institute to put on its social evening and progressive euchre which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Adams. A bountiful lunch with many articles on the menu symbolic of the day were served by the ladies of the Institute at the close of the festivities. Eight tables of euchre were played prizes going to Mrs. Clark Jewell and A. Murphy.

The Committee in charge of the euchre was Mrs. H. George and Mrs. Frank George while the girls of the Institute had charge of the fish pond.

Master Eric Adams, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Adams is in Cobourg General Hospital where he underwent an operation on eWdnesday for appendicitis.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D

REMOVING A TAPEWORM.

One of the miserable ailments that unfortunately is too common, is to have a tapeworm in the intestine, getting the benefit of the food eaten, and in itself a source of pain and discomfort to the indidvidual, who is acting as 'host.'

Sometimes there are no symptoms and the individual does not know that he possesses the tape worm which gets into his system as a small egg in raw beef, or pork.

It will often cause anaemia, or run down condition, and nervous symptoms.

Sometimes there is a loss of appetite, and at other times the patient has a tremendous appetite, eating everything and anything.

There is also colicky pains in the abdomen, indigestion, nausea and vomiting.

Sometimes there is dizziness, headache, itchiness of the nose, and 'humming' in the ears.

In former days it was customary to starve the patient for a couple of days, which incidently starved the tape worm also; then a small dose of chloraform was given which put the tape worm to sleep. A strong purgative medicine followed and as the tapeworm was asleep it could not hold on to the walls of the intestine by its hooks or suckers' and so was removed from the body.

Unfortunately the medicine was often too strong for the patient and he was forced to vomit it. Pumpkin-seeds about three or four ounces, bruised and squeezed carefully to get all the juice out of them, is often an effective remedy. All the juice gathered is taken at one dose and followed in one hour by a good purge.

However Dr. S. Margulis has been using the duodenal sound—the small tube about as big as a slate pencil—which he puts down the throat and after it gets past the stomach it enters the small intestine on the sides of which the tape worm is hanging.

The patient had has no food for some hours and has also taken a purge, and before the medicine is put down the tube an enema is given. The medicine is aspidium or male fern, which is now generally used.

The advantage of course is that as the medicine goes through the tube past the stomach to intestine, the patient will not vomit.

He reports 40 adult cases, and 5 children, in all of which this method was successful.

I'm sure that physicians and patientse will be interested in this safe sur method of ridding the body of an objectionable 'boarder.'

SPECIAL DAYS....

Special days hold much entertainment of cultural value for children. Some of them are peculiarly suited to the home and others are for school as well as home. Every special day marks some high moment in the lives of a people and that is of interest to all of us.

Our First of July, Victoria Day, Labor Day, Armistic Day, have tremendous meaning to us. About each of them is clustered enough history, enough fine patriotism to thrill the children through and through.

Christmas and Easter are in a class by themselves. They offer a rich contribution of music, painting, literature, religion, culture of the highest sort to children of all ages.

The study of each day as it comes along is one of the best ways of interesting young children in their history. Beginning with the simplest facts in the lower grades and broadening into world events and associated causes in the higher grades we instill life and interest into what otherwise tends to become dry as dust matter.

There are many good stories for each special day. Tell the children the old folk tales and don't shy at the hatchet story. It lies within the field of experience of the kindergarten and first year children. It can do them no harm and is bound to do them good. It is good for children to hear that the Father of their country could not tell a lie when he was little like them.

While accenting the great days take heed to the lesser ones also. The story and legend, songs and poetry that are associated with them are of real importance in the cultural education of children. They open fields of knowledge to inquiring childhood and the knowledge gained teaches understanding and admiration for the fine qualities of other peoples.

St. Patrick opens the way to the legends and songs of Ireland. That in itself is an illumination of great beauty. St. Swithin has his own delightful legend as hasGroundhog Day,Hallowe'en and St. Valentine's Day. Send the children hunting for information in the reference books, in the story books of the library, from their elders. There is within this group of special days a host of tales the children never tire of hearing.

Thanksgiving Day and Labor Day are peculiarly our own. Many nations velebrate the birthdays of their great men, the saints' days, the great religious festivals, but to us alone belong Thanksgiving and Labor Day. Fill them full of the brim of sunset with joy and appreciation and so enrich another generation.

Mark the calendar so that no day gets by without its occasion being accented in color and song and story, pageant or parade or party. Great beauty and rare lessons lurk in the high days of history.

A.Y.P.A. SOCIAL

Tweed Young People Guests of St. Paul's Society at Marmora.

MARMORA, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).—One of the most enjoyable socials in the history of St. Paul's A.Y.P.A. was held at the White Hall on Tuesday evening, when Tweed A.Y.P.A. were the guests. Upon arrival the visitors were given a rousing welcome. For they are jolly good fellows, with Grace Crawford at the piano. Some community singing followed. Then came a humorous dialogue. "Buying Eggs" in which the local A.Y.P.A.'s leading humorists, Ada Archer and James Rice, Jr., were ably assisted by Stella McGarvey. Next followed a well executed sketch, "Not a man in the house." The five young ladies taking part were Clare Phillips, Iva Phillips, Marjorie Bonter, Mary Jones and Mary Lumsden.

The rector, who was presiding, then called upon the rector of Tweed, Rev. W. Wright to say a few words. Last year the Rev. Wright was appointed to the Dominion executive of the A.Y.P.A. In his few apt remarks, he reminded his hearers that the problem of dealing with young people was a perennial one. He answered criticism recently levelled at the A.Y.P.A. by a fellow cleric and in closing touched upon the large conference to be held at Belleville this fall when representatives of branches from Vancouver to towns in the Maritime Provinces would be present.

Mr. Harry Boyd, another guest on the evening, sang "The Little Bird on Nellie's Hat", to the pleasure of the audience. James Rice, Jr., next made a hit with his monologue "The Family Tree".

Valentines were then passed around to pair up partners for the splendid lunch that was to be served. The evening closed with round and square dancing.

DON'T fool yourself that your teeth are really clean

...unless you've cleansed the tiny crevices where decay begins. Colgate's penetrating foam sweeps down into these hard-to-reach places, removing decaying matter, cleansing teeth completely.

Greatly magnified picture of space between teeth. Note how ordinary, sluggish toothpaste (having high "surface-tension") fails to penetrate deep down where the causes of decay may lurk.

This diagram shows how Colgate's active foam (having low "surface-tension") penetrates deep down into the space between teeth, cleansing it completely where toothbrush cannot reach.

DON'T be content with merely polishing the surfaces of your teeth . . . any toothpaste can do that. Use the one dentifrice designed especially to go deep down into the tiny spaces between teeth where ordinary brushing doesn't reach. Colgate's active, penetrating foam not only polishes brilliantly, but gives an extra protection by cleansing these little fissures scientifically, thoroughly . . . thus removing the danger of half-clean teeth.

Your dentist will tell you that no dentifrice can cure pyorrhea; no dentifrice can correct acid saliva; no dentifrice can firm the gums. He will tell you that the one big job of the dentifrice is to clean the teeth. Colgate's cleans teeth best! That is why most dentists recommend it.

Given by the management to the employees as an expression of appreciation of their loyalty and faithfulness during the year 1929, the staff and employees of the Canadian Nashua Paper Company and its companion concern, the Canadian Sealright Company, in both of which Mr. J. R. Marshall is general manager, were guests at an extremely successful dinner and dance last evening in Austin's Banquet Hall. Last year, the custom of holding this annual social event to which the employees invite their friends, was inaugurated, and last evening saw the second occasion on which the management and staff gathered for an evening of fun and frolic, animated throughout by an atmosphere of jollity and a spirit of camaraderie which evidenced the close sympathy and co-operation between the heads of the firm and the staff and employees. About one hundred members of the personnel of the establishment were present last night, with their friends, numbering an additional sixty. This large gathering was looked after with the utmost skill and speed by Mr. and Mrs. Austin. The dinner was splendidly served and delicious and the service was excellent in such a crowded hall. The tables were decorated with roses and daffodils and the gay paper decorations of the hall, in blue, yellow and rose, with large flower-shaped shades for the lights, gave a colorful note to the assemblage. Mr. J. R. Marshall presided over the dinner. Guests of the evening included Mayor and Mrs. Denne. Representatives of the company from out of town and members of the auditing staff concerned with its affairs and auxiliary firms doing business with the two companies, included Mr. and Mrs. H. E. R. Clark, Miss Theresa McGrath, Messrs. S. Whitehouse, O'Loughlin, Philpott, G. Hooper, R. Page and G. Jephcote, all of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nevin of Montreal, formerly of Peterborough, and Mr. Tacy of Nashua, New Hampshire. The dinner was a gay affair from start to finish, with everyone joining in a general enthusiastic gathering animated by good fellowship and fun. The menus were carried out in gay wrappers from the company's stocks, in blue and gold and ombre shades of pretty "Nirvana" paper. A brief and interesting series of toasts marked the conclusion of the repast, with Mr. Marshall as toastmaster. Mr. S. Whitehouse of Toronto, Sales Manager of the Canadian Sealright Company, introduced as "the white-headed boy of the Sealright Company", proposed the toast to "Our City" describing Peterborough as one of the finest cities in the Dominion, all the way from Vancouver to Halifax. This toast, which was greeted with the singing of "Home, Sweet Home" was responded to in happy fashion by Mayor Denne, who spoke of the fortunate position occupied by Peterborough in having a low charity list during an exceptionally hard winter, and referred to the twelve hundred thousand dollars' worth of new buildings going up this year. The gratitude of the company for the loyalty and co-operation of the employees was sounded in the toast made by Mr. Ray Harding Mill manager, to "Our Employees" which was responded to by Mr A. Parker of the staff of foremen in the local plant. Mr. W. Lockie, in charge of the Sealright section, proposed the toast to "Our Companies" and this was responded to by Mr. Marshall, who spoke of the past year as one of the hardest and yet one of the most successful in the history of the establishment. "We have just completed our tenth year in Peterborough" said Mr. Marshall, "and we have built up an industry of which the city is proud and which it recognizes as one of its main manufacturing establishments. In this organization, the men and women are imbued with a desire to turn out the best possible products. Referring to the whole-hearted support and co-operation afforded by the staff and employees, Mr. Marshall gave the following list of those who have been with the concern since its establishment, ten years ago: Miss L. Hall, Messrs. V. Hamilton, "Chick" Hamilton, W. James, J. Maybee, F. Milliken, J. McCury, R. O.Donnell, A. Parker, J. Rowland, D. McLeod, R. Donough and M. Donoghue. The toast to "The Ladies" proposed in jocular vein by Mr. D. A. Costello, Sales Promotion Manager of the Canadian Nashua Paper Company, was responded to very suitably by Miss Lillian Hall, accountant, and at this juncture, a lovely bouquet of roses, representing joint contributions from every member of the plant, was presented by Miss Ella Lockart to Mrs. Marshall, characterized by Miss Hall as the "Silent Partner." In proposing the toast to the ladies, Mr. Costello referred also to the "Unseen Employees" the mothers, wives and sweethearts who assisted so greatly in helping the men to carry on. Mr. Marshall thanked the guests for the gift to his wife and the evening concluded with several hours of dancing to the strains of Eric Roberts' orchestra, with D. A. Costello as Master of Ceremonies for the Grand March, with its colored paper hats, and the program of merry dances which followed.

A GREAT DEAL has been said recently of the revolution of style.

• • • • • • •

Now the word revolution suggests a definite break with the past, an upsetting of tradition, and, of course, no such dire event has taken place in the mode. Those who speak of revolution either disregard the real meaning of the word, or are without any real knowledge of Paris couture, and the progress of style over a period of years.

• • • • • • •

What has actually taken place in the mode is an evolution—and although in the end the results of evolution may be the same as those of revolution, the process of arriving at those results is quite different.

• • • • • • •

Those who have been watching the mode have realized that a change was taking place not only in styles themselves but in the attitude of the women wearing them. Little by little, the feminine element in dress has become more important and the changes which have appeared in the styles of the present season, and which some people profess to find so startling, are the natural outgrowth of a changing point of view.

• • • • • • •

There is, of course, a definite reaction against the short skirt, but in reality the best designers of Paris never countenanced the exceedingly short skirt. The skirt above the knees was never a thing of beauty—indeed it was often disgraceful and actually ugly, and far from insuring freedom of movement, it only succeeded in making women self-conscious.

• • • • • • •

The skirt now presented for daytime wear, a few inches below the knees, is much more becoming to all women, and it offers exactly the same unhampered freedom that the shorter skirt was supposed to have made possible.

• • • • • • •

My adherence to the longer skirt doesn't for one minute mean that we hope to turn back the wheels of the clock—that can't be done—sport, modern life with its cult of free movement, the automobile—as long as we have these we shall never have daytime dresses dragging on the streets as they once did.

• • • • • • •

Frocks for formal afternoon and evening wear are quite another matter.

• • • • • • •

The time when women might drop into a formal reception still wearing the sports frock donned in the morning, has vanished, and let us hope, never to return. It is doubtful if any women, even the most active, was quite comfortable in doing this sort of thing, even when it was popular.

• • • • • • •

The woman who after an active morning has taken the time to go home for an hour's rest, and has then changed into a dress for the later hours of afternoon, is in an entirely different mood than if she had rushed off to tea in tweeds.

• • • • • • •

She is more leisurely, more gracious, more feminine—more herself.

• • • • • • •

Finally for evening, where luxurious backgrounds are the rule, and where women have every right to appear as gloriously beautiful as the dressmaker's art can make them, we have the long gown.

• • • • • • •

Contrast for a moment the possibilities of line, of drapery, of subtle effects, in the old-type short straight evening dresses and the long gown.

• • • • • • •

Long sweeping lines and rich materials make a portrait of every woman. For evening, black, particularly black velvet, which for suppleness and rich lustre, cannot be surpassed.

• • • • • • •

Chiffon and laces, which have a delicacy and fragility very becoming to certain types of women, also take an important place in the collection.

• • • • • • •

To put all in a word, without returning to the complicated modes of before-the-war, we are coming to appreciate the place of a studied elegance, what the French call recherche, in the mode, which is synonymous with good taste.

• • • • • • •

Carelessness, haste and indifference are ruled out of modern dress, which is truly beautiful and expressive of the elegant woman, only when it is perfect from every point of view.

ST. ANDREW'S Y.P.S.

Interesting Program Held Under Convenorship of Literary Committee.

President Thomas Campbell conducted the regular meeting of the above named society on Monday evening last. The devotional period consisted of hymn 745, the Lord's prayer repeated in unison and Scripture reading from 1 John 1; 7-10 by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed and the roll called. Hymn 606 was sung and Robert McGregor, convenor of the Literary committee took charge of the remainder of the meeting. The topic for the evening "Lessons from John's first Epistle" was splendidly given by Miss Elsie Armstrong. The convenor addressed the society briefly expressing his regret of the death of Rev. Dr. David Perrie moderator of the Presbyterian church in Canada and the young people sang "The sands of time are sinking" with the text "Thine eyes shall see the King in His beauty; they shall behold the land that is very far off," in memory of the late moderator. Mr. Campbell closed the meeting with the benediction.

The next meeting will be held on the 24th inst. which will be a Missionary night. The topic for discussion will be "Home Missions — New Ontario" from the Presbyterian Record. Miss Eva Brady, Missionary convenor will be responsible.

Tickets and programs are now on sale for the St. Andrew's Dramatic Club play "Tompkins Hired Man" to be staged in the High School Auditorium on March 4th. Tickets may be secured from members of the Y. P. S.

ICE CARNIVAL IS BIG SUCCESS

Variety of Costums Seen at Annual Lakefield Gathering.

DISTRICT NEWS

(Examiner Correspondence)

LAKEFIELD, Feb. 20.—The annual fancy dress carnival was held in the Lakefield Rink on Friday evening with a large attendance present. Judges were Mrs. MacMillen, Messrs J. F. Harvey, J. A. Porter and J. W. Ridpath.

There were several very novel costumes, the faithful servant being decidedly original also the young man who bore the label 'Body By Fisher' and the lady who impersonated an aged gentleman also got a good hand for her clever work. The little boy who represented a giraffe was also novel and then there were many pretty costumes where beauty was the main feature and novelty was a mere detail. Mrs. J. C. Smith in a gentleman's costume and Mrs. W. J. Millage as a Pierrot were good, W. W. Yale was splendid in a clown costume. Miss Beatrice Charlton as a rose was exceptionally fine. The following were prize winners: Ladies' fancy: Miss Merle Crawford, as a Perfect Gentleman; gentleman's fancy T. W. Chaplin, Scottish Hunter; girl's fancy, Jean Blewett, Valentine girl; boys' fancy, Gerald Stabler, Herald; Lady, comic; Mrs. Francis McFadden, Granpa; gentleman, comic, Harry Smith, Body By Fisher; girl comic, Cora Charlton, A Faithful Servant; boy, comic, George Tanner, Giraffe. Best dressed boy or girl under 10 years in comic costume, Harry Hunter as a comic valentine.

VALENTINE PARTY

Good Program Provided at Party Held in Norham Public School.

NORHAM, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).— The pupils of Norham school had a valentine's party on Friday afternoon. A program consisting of a St. Valentine reading, choruses, dancing the highland fling and other exercises was given. Then the valentine box was opened and each pupil received her share of valentines.

After dismissal, Mrs. W. Grant and Mrs. B. West were hostesses at a party given to all the pupils in the school and their teacher, Miss Clare. After a jolly time playing games, a bounteous supper was served.

Earlier in the day the pupils made a number of candy boxes and filled them with home-made candy. At the noon hour the children visited all the shut-ins and the older members of the community and left a box of candy and a valentine. Sixteen visits were made.

Ladies' Aid Social

The Ladies' Aid of Norham church held a social on the evening of February 14th in the church hall.

Progressive crockinole was the program of the evening. As there were a number of children present they had the use of the boards for the first part of the evening. Then the grown-ups had a chance. Mr. B. Isaac and Miss Edna Evans were the winners of the prizes. A hot bean supper was served.

Mission Band

The Willing Workers Mission Band held their regular meeting at the church on Sunday afternoon. In the absence of the secretary, Miss Margaret West acted in her place. Two new members joined. Mite boxes were distributed.

The first study of the new study book "Friendship Trails" was taken. The Scripture selections were read by Mrs. Clare and four girls gave the explanation of each selection. Mrs. West gave the story about the Indian, "The Very First Canadian."

FASHION SERVICE

A fascinating frock that adopts a soft fluttering fulness in skirt with decorative trimming effect achieved through scallops at upper edge.

The long-waisted bodice is fitted snugly through the hips with deep vest at front with becoming square neckline offering a definite change. The cape collar is brought down either dise of front in revers and tied at end of V opening.

The original Paris model was black chiffon with Alencon lace to give lingerie touch noted in all exclusive afternoon models.

For street, it is very smart in black silk crepe with eggshell crepe vest.

Style No. 3257 is designed in sizes 16, 18 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust.

Bottle green crepe silk is flattering and exceptionally wearable with vest made of self-fabric.

Crepe marocain, crepe Elizabeth, crepe roma, rayon printed crepe and satin crepe make up beautifully.

THE BEST COMEDY IN AMERICA

Copyrighted, 1929, by The Collegiate World Publishing Co. (College Humor) Through Bell Syndicate.

THE FOUR WATCHERS

Four burly men, wearing shabby caps at accentuated angles over their eyes, stood at the corner of a building in the grim factory section of the town. The morning sun, just topping the skyline, drenched the street with chill orange; patches of wavering shadow held their last fort here and there under an alcove or in an alley mouth.

"'Ere comes the blighter," snarled that one of the quartet whose jaw hung the lowest.

His consorts peered over his shoulder.

"It looks like 'im from 'ere," agreed the second man; his expression was not pleasant.

They remained in silence for a space, nervously clenching and unclenching their calloused hands.

"Tyke another look," commanded the first speaker. One of his companions cautiously glanced around the corner.

"It's 'im, orl right, orl right!" he exclaimed.

The four men stepped back and prepared themselves. They slid out of their sweaters, and circumspectly rolled up their sleeves. One seized a length of pipe that lay near him on the ground; another drew a massive wrench from his pocket; a third grasped the narrow end of a small plank, and lifted it to his shoulder.

"I'll tell you when 'e gets near enough fer us to begin," spoke the fourth, spitting on his hands and approaching the corner.

They held their breath.

"Orl right, mates," hoarsely cried the man on lookout. "'E'll be 'ere in a minute!"

"Let's get at it, then," whispered the first speaker. "We don't want to get caught."

And thus, when the boss rounded the angle, he found his four plumbers hard at work.

SPEAKER OUTLINES OBJECT OF SOCIETY

Warsaw Women's Institute Holds Open Men's Meeting in Town Hall.

WARSAW, Feb. 20.—(Examiner Correspondence).—An open men's meeting of the Warsaw Women's Institute was held in the Town Hall on Thursday evening when Rev. H. B. Herrington acted as chairman.

Rev. Mr. Herrington made a few remarks regarding the cosmopolitan idea of the Institute. All could meet on common ground which they could not in either religion or politics. He spoke of woman's position in the world today and wondered what the old Greeks would think could they come to earth now. The speaker quoted sayings of their wisest men which seemed to put women on a very low plane. Now the question is, "What would we do without the work of women in either church or life of the community.

Maitland Forsythe gave an excellent report of the five hundred young farmers who won the free trip to the Royal Winter Fair and Warsaw Male Voice Quartet sang "Victory Bells."

Interesting Address

E. N. McDonald, ex-M.P.P., gave an excellent address on community life and the part women play therein. Harold Payne and Bryn Thomas sang "The Moon is Shining Bright" after which W. S. Anderson recited, "St. Peter at the Gate."

A pretty playlet, "The Cuckoo's Nest" was given in which circumstances threw a poor young lawyer and his wife in a grand house, which the wife persuaded him to imagine was their own. An old acquaintance driving by sees the woman through a window and she and her careful husband come in to call. Soon the real owner and wife appear and they are amazed but the usurping woman explains to the lady of the house, who at once decides to act maid and have her husband act as butler. They serve dinner to the other four and the callers are rushed off to their train, without knowing the mistake.

The houseowner has a talk with the young lawyer and engages him at a good salary. A parrot plays an important part by calling out "Remember your boy", the part of the parrot being taken by little Milo Payne behind the curtain.

Ralph Selby and Miss Dorothy Hawthorne are the young lawyer and his wife; Miss Della Payne and Clarence Payne, the callers, and Mrs. John Payne and Tom Davis the rightful owners.

The quartet again sang, "Hello" and Bryn Thomas and Harold Payne gave a duet, followed by the serving of refreshments.

Valentine Party.

The senior class of Warsaw school held a valentine party on Friday afternoon when Sidney McCauley acted as chairman. The following program was given: Song, Zelda Crowe and Mary Tedford; mouth organ selection, Mr. Gardiner; reading, "St. Valentine", Merle Bell; mouth organ selection and step dance, Kenneth Jakins; song, Iris Darling; duet, "Will You Marry Me", Aileen Myles and Helen Williams.

After the program valentines were distributed and refreshments consisting of sandwiches, cake, candy and tea, were served.

The junior room, under the supervision of Miss Cameron, held a little party when the room was attractively decorated for the occasion.

Entertain Club.

Mr. and Mrs. David Drain entertained the North Dummer Euchre Club on Thursday evening, when prizewinners were: Mrs. Chester Hamilton and O. Little, with consolation awards going to Franklin Jory and Olive Clysdale.

FIRE DESTROYS CARS.

Solly Seigel Has Car Destroyed While Returning From Windsor.

Fire almost completely consumed the sedan automobile of Solly Seigel on the Port Hope highway, near Fraserville, at 2 o'clock this morning. Details concerning the origin of the fire are lacking, but according to Provincial police, Seigel stated that he was returning from Windsor when the blaze zroke out, wrecking his car.

Nothing but the hood, engine and front wheels escaped. The top and cushions were burned and only a fire-scorched body of twisted metal remained. The car was towed into the city by Reid's service truck, but appears to be beyond repair.

FOUR BILLS ARE BROUGHT UP FOR SECOND READING

tastes to persons with less claim upon them.

"But a shrewd lawyer discovered a way of creating a trust fund which went to someone else after the creator's death," the Premier stated. It is to avoid such acts that the amendment is being made.

Four bills to amend the Municipal Act, the Assessment Act, the Trustee Act and the Crown Administration Act, all of which had been discussed in second reading were carried by the committee of the whole House.

Frood Mines Has Request.

Made necessary through the amalgamation of the Frood and Mond Nickel Mines, the town of Frood Mines, near Sudbury, sought power in a private bill discussed in committee to-day, the right to a portion of the Township of McKim, in which is situated the Mond Mine. The Frood Mine is within the town proper. The bill went through the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature without change.

The right to reduce the size of its council from nine to six was sought by the town of New Toronto. This would not effect its standing in the County Council. Leo Macaulay South York, Conservative, introduced the bill, which was not amended in committee.

The City of Oshawa sought the right to spend $11,000 on local improvements that had accumulated for some years as a premium for debentures issued. W. E. N. Sinclair introduced the bill.

Incorporation of the Canadian Kennel Club was sought by that body. It has been functioning since 1888 without incorporation.

The town of New Liskeard sought validation of monies spent for a bridge over the Wabi River. The bill was reported without amendment.

DOGS MUST NOT RUN AT LARGE

Action Taken By Federal Health Department to Prevent Spreading of Rabies.

THREE MONTHS PERIOD.

Every dog in Peterborough must be tied up for a period of three months, according to an order issued yesterday to the city by Inspector Frank Wood of the Dominion Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, Health of Animals Branch.

Mr. Wood has been in the city for several days conducting an investigation following the discovery in the laboratories of the Department at Ottawa that the dog which attacked and bit Gwyneth Lockie last Thursday was affected with rabies. He is from the office of the district inspector at Toronto. The investigation was prompted by the policy of the Department, demanding instant action in cases of suspected rabies.

Transmitting the order to Mayor Denne, Mr. Wood advised that to tie up all dogs for the three-month period was the only sure way to avoid the danger of the disease being spread. The proclamation has been issued by the Mayor, and is being published. It will be strictly enforced by the police.

It was addressed to His Worship Mayor Denne, and read as follows:

Sir,—I have the honor to confirm my conversation of even date in which you were requested to issue a proclamation ordering, for a period of three months, that all dogs in the municipality of Peterborough be securely tied with a steel chain in an enclosure so that should the animals become loose they could not gain access to freedom at large. This action is deemed advisable in order to prevent an epizootic of rabies in your city.

Authority for this request may be confirmed by communication with either the Veterinary Director-General at Ottawa or the District Veterinary Inspector, Federal Building, 85 Richmond Street, Toronto.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

(Signed) Frank Wood.

Gwyneth Lockie, who was the child bitten by the police dog infected with rabies last week, is reported to be in quite normal condition. She is receiving regularly the anti-rabies Pasteur treatment from Dr. Yelland.

PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS ARE MOST INTERESTING

At the regular meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's United Church, held on Tuesday afternoon, a very satisfactory report of the recent Presbyterial was given by Mrs. J. F. Allan, and Miss M. Craw, leader of one of the groups, and in charge of the meeting, at the conclusion of the business section, gave a short instructive talk on the spiritual side of life, with several references taken from the book entitled The Christ of every Road," written by the Rev. Stanley Jones.

Mrs. A. Porteous led in prayer and Mrs. F. H. Dearborn gave a Scripture reading. Miss M. Ferguson contributed a very interesting paper on the Watch Tower. During the afternoon a pleasing vocal solo was rendered by Mrs. Ford Turner.

DAVID FIFE MEMORIAL

decided upon the object of the local committee an advance can be then launched to attain that end.

Aid From Toronto

Some of the citizens who have been following this project for the past three months are agreed that the fullest opportunity should be given to the former Peterborough men now living in Toronto to assist the local committee. There has been strong assurance of the organization of a Toronto committee to co-operate with the local body, finally bringing together the county, city and Toronto forces in the strongest possible array.

Active leaders are now in these separate fields. In the city the council and Mayor Denne are keen to give all the aid they can muster, James Dutton, president of the Chamber of Commerce, is another who has declared his desire to promote the Fife memorial; J. J. Duffus and the Hon. G. N. Gordon, K.C., are also giving their support. Peterborough Rotary and other local bodies may also actively engage in this effort, and then on the rural side there is the country's interest, and Otonabee township, the committee of which Reeve Fred McIntyre is chairman. Some of the farm organizations such as the county Farmers' Club might also participate; and then finally Senator McGuire may recruit Toronto reinforcements.

Broadening out the personal power of the Fife memorial appeal along the suggested lines may require considerable time, but the city council will not cause any delay according to Mayor Denne's plans.

25 years ago Old Dutch Cleanser was originated to simplify and make household cleaning easier, more convenient and economical and to bring to the home the protection of wholesome, hygienic cleanliness

Through progress and development the uses of Old Dutch Cleanser have steadily increased with the ever-growing demand for a higher standard of cleanliness and safety in cleaning. Today Old Dutch is recognized as the greatest achievement in modern cleaning efficiency and the safeguard to Healthful Cleanliness.

Use Old Dutch, the safe, modern way to clean sinks, bathtubs, tile, kitchen utensils, steel knives, pantries, floors, refrigerators, marble, woodenware, crockery, metal fixtures, glassware, windows, painted walls, woodwork, etc.

Old Dutch makes cleaning surprisingly easy. Its flaky, flat-shaped particles carry away stubborn dirt, grease and stains. It safeguards the home with Healthful Cleanliness by removing the health-endangering invisible impurities.

Old Dutch doesn't scratch because it is free from sand or harsh grit. Save money . . . Old Dutch is economical . . . a little goes a long way.

GALLANT BRITISH SEAMEN HAVE PASSED THE TORCH TO CANADIANS TO CARRY ON GREAT ARCTIC WORK

Pictures of the Vast Wealth in North Shown By G. P. Mackenzie.

AN ESKIMO PARLIAMENT.

Valuable Furs of North Have As Yet Been Untouched, Says Speaker.

"For centuries undaunted British sailors braved the dangers of these northern uncharted seas. Nothing can equal their heroism and the manner in which they faced death from hunger and cold and scurvy. With their dying hands their traced on the blank chart of the Arctic the Canadian Archipelago. They were first in discovery and in exploration. Are the sacrifices and the dreams and the accomplishments of thousands of gallant British seamen to be lost? They fought the good fight. They passed the torch to us and in justice to their memory, we should carry on."

So G. P. MacKenzie, officer in charge of the 1929 Arctic Governmental Expedition, justified the manner in which the Department of the Interior carries out its supervision of the Arctic Canadian Archipelago, maintains there British sovereignty and helps the Eskimos. It was of these Eskimos that the speaker enthused, when he said:

A Worthy People

"Between six and seven thousand Eskimos occupy these islands. They are people immensely worth while, much superior to the Indians, with a philosophy of life which the white man might well emulate. They have few possessions, as we count possessions, and their manner of life is very primitive, but they have a great happiness in life. It would be an unfortunate thing if the Canadian government did not assist these people; these delightful children of the twilight It would be a misfortune if the great white land ceased to echo with their happy laughter."

Mr. MacKenzie spoke to the members of the Women's Canadian Club at the Regent Theatre yesterday afternoon, illustrating his very interesting talk by a series of moving pictures prepared by the Government to demonstrate the route taken by the patrol ships which go yearly to the Arctic Circle to take supplies to the outlying northern posts and maintain possession for Canada of lands in that district. Mr. MacKenzie, taking the wrong train from Ottawa, was marooned for a time at Port Hope. He took a taxi from there, and arrived in the city three-quarters of an hour later than the scheduled time of his address.

The "Beothic"

The pictures were prefaced by a brief talk that outlined for his hearers the reason for this annual visit to the frozen North and the route followed by the steamer. Last year, the 27,000-ton sealing vessel, the Beothic made the trip to the vast Canadian Arctic Archipelago, more than half a million square miles in area, going eight thousand miles through ice-laden waters. With the forty-eight men went their feathered friends, dozens of fowl, and pigs which became such pets on the voyage that the men would not eat them later on, and gave them away instead. There were also fuzzy little husky pups that occupied a large portion of one view.

After a brief historical sketch of the northern lands and the hope which led explorers, even in Queen Elizabeth's day, to brave the rigors of icy waters in an effort to discover a passage which would obviate the difficulties of the traversal of the Cape of Good Hope to far India, which then was the objective of mariners, and the passage around the Horn, Mr. MacKenzie recounted the outset of the voyage and the landing at Godhaven, in Northern Greenland. Here, under the government of the Danes, the Eskimos have their own Parliament, where they conduct deliberations in their own language. Mr. MacKenzie was invited to be present at one of the sessions and his brief talk to them was first translated into Danish and then into Eskimo.

Large Icebergs Encountered

Going on up to the Northern seas, Mr. MacKenzie spoke of the huge icebergs encountered, those great masses of ice which are constantly breaking away from glaciers and which, rising up to three hundred feet in the air, with thousands standing against the skyline, are submerged sometimes fifteen hundred feet beneath the water. The idea of an irresistible force is demonstrated in the spectacle of an iceberg drifting one way while the current around it is flowing in another direction.

Summing up his talk with the question which is often asked of him: "Is it worth it?" the speaker said: "I think it is. What we have we hold. That is a doctrine that I find Canadians subscribing to. And to hold, we must not be like dogs in the manger. We must direct our possessions properly. These northern lands have valuable furs and their mineral wealth is yet untapped. The Americans bought Alaska from the Dominion for $7,000,000. Much criticism of the purchase was voiced in the United States at that time. But to-day, the annual profits from Alaska are fourteen times the purchase price paid for it."

"Nanook" the Bear

In the pictures which followed, falling white snow set the note for the entire showing, as the ship moved into the dark water which enshrouded its bows. Even with the glistening ice—packs and their pure white dazzle, this dark water dominated the views. White icebergs rose from it, with curious serrated edges. Black seals dove from the ice packs into its dark depths and its strange color was echoed later in the dark, grassless sod of the Arctic lands, with low hills breaking the skyline. A curious note in many of the pictures was the absence of hats on the majority of the men. Muffled to the throat with furry parkas, their heads remained bare.

"Nanook" the Eskimo name for the polar bear, and her two cubs, made a placid, undisturbed way across the ice, a hundred miles from shore.

The Muskox of the North

At Cape Sparbo, on Devon Island, there were pictures of muskox, strange creatures with shaggy, buffalo-like heads, dark faces and curved horns. With humped backs and little, bright eyes, they faced the camera and formed into a circle to protect their young from the dogs which chased them. The animals regard dogs in the nature of their hereditary enemies, the wolves, but they have nothing to fear, as a paternal government, after many inroads on the herds had been made by early explorers, has ordered that they be left unscathed, under any circumstances, in every season.

At Smith Sound, the "Top of the World" squad came out to welcome the visitors on their annual trip and at Bache Peninsula, the farthest north of the posts, was Inspector Joy of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police.

The boat, which had been shown nosing her way gingerly in the dark water among enveloping ice packs, anchored at Cocked Hat Island, and then later, there were views of Cape Robertson, Northern Greenland, with the Eskimos facing the camera; those dark-skinned, thatched-haired, plump people with their slos eyes, enveloping parkas and hoods and heavy mocassins. They came out in their kyaks, clumsy-looking boats pointed at either end, without apparent stability or balance, and propelled by a heavy oar dipped first on on side, then on the other. There was an Eskimo igloo also, centuries old.

Little auks were shown, flying in dozens over the dark waters. They are black-backed, white-breasted birds that are easily caught in nets by the Eskimos, who perch on the cliff faces and reach out for them with nets as they swoop by. P. A. Travener, the representative of the National Museum at Ottawa, accompanying the expedition, caught many of them for specimens.

Three a.m. on August 19th was the hour set for taking a view of Panguirtung Post, Cumberland Gulf Baffin Bay, where the Hudson Bay Company has a trading post, and at Lake Harbor, the Eskimo pilot, with an English vocabulary comprising the words "starboard", "port", and "steady", came out to meet the boat.

"Ships that pass in the Arctic Night" were thrown on the screen and the views ended with the return to port of the boat.

A vote of appreciation was accorded the lecturer by the president of the club, Miss Margaret Hamilton.

PHOTOGRAPHERS PLAN CONTEST

$20,000 Offered in Prizes For Most Lovely Mother and Attractive Child.

CLOSES MAY 10.

Mary Roberts Rinehart and Fannie Hurst, famous writers, have accepted the task of selecting the most lovely mother and the most attractive child in America, according to an announcement received to-day by The Roy Studio. Prizes aggregating $20,000.00 will be awarded by the Photographers' Association of America on the basis of their decision.

THE Roy Studio are making plans to assure the proper representation of this city in the contest. More than 100,000 photographs of mothers and children from all over the United States and Canada are expected to be assembled at Cleveland, the headquarters of the Photographers' Association, by May 10th, the closing date. Charles Aylett of Toronto, President of the Photographers' Association, will be associated as a judge with Mrs. Rinehart and Miss Hurst.

The contest is intended to celebrate the golden anniversary of the founding of the Photographers' Association in 1880. May 10th, the closing date of the contest, was the actual birthday of the organization. National and district prizes offered number 444.

Entry blanks are obtainable from The Roy Studio who are members of Phographers' Association.

CANADIANS MUST LOOK NORTHWARD

Finlayson Tells Surveys Bright Prospects Lie in Undeveloped Section.

AT ANNUAL DINNER.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20 (C.P.) — The Great War cured Canadians of their "inferiority complex," showed them they were a match for other nations, turned their eyes to the undeveloped resources of their own country so that to-day "The educated and professional Canadian must look no longer to the south, but northward to the undeveloped wealth of field, mine, forest and river—the hope and prospect of the Dominion."

This was the description of the new Canadian outlook given by Hon. William Finlayson, Ontario Minister of Lands and Forests, at the annual dinner here last night of the Ontario Land Surveyors' Association.

Senator J. P. B. Casgrain, Quebec, urged greater individual realization of Canada's opportunities, stressed Canada's part in the scheme of Empire and told the surveyors "their profession has done more than any other for the development of Canada and the British Empire.

Kingston Blanks Saints 2-0 in First Game

ST. JOHN'S TWO GOALS DOWN IN FIRST GAME OF KINGSTON SERIES

Peterborough Youngsters Suffer Their First O.H.A. Defeat of Season.

A GRUELLING BATTLE

Saints Do Bulk of the Attacking, But Fail to Score Against Visitors.

(By F. D. C.)

In a gruelling battle on soft and watery ice at Brock street rink last night St. John's sustained their first O.H.A. defeat of the season, the Kingston juniors winning the first game of the first round Junior O.H.A. home and home series by 2 goals to 0. The Saints were outtucked, rather than outplayed, for they forced the play during most of the tussle and the visiters were compelled to battle desperately behind their own blue line for minutes at a time. On the play the score might quite easily have been reversed but the Saints' weakness in close, which has been in evidence all season, again robbed them of golden chances.

And after all hockey matches are decided on goals and while there was an element of luck in both Kingston counters they got them nevertheless and as a result the St. John's youngsters will go into action at Kingston tomorrow night, facing a two-goal deficit.

Under the conditions it was a battle well worth seeing. Despite the heavy going the teams set a merry pace and there was no let up in action, particularly in the last period when the Saints worked their heads off trying to pull up on even terms with the invaders who had scored, after 8½ minutes play in the second session and repeated 7 minutes after the third inning had opened. The Peterborough youngsters battled until the final bell, hemming the visitors up in their own territory and the Kingston crew were content to kill time and relieve the pressure by heaving the rubber down the rink. There were many close calls around the Kingston nets, but the Saints could not drive one behind Cunningham.

The Kingston outfit, a rangy bunch of smooth-skating players, who have evidently been well drilled in hockey finesse, broke fast, showed flashes of good combination in spite of the bad ice, and their shooting was generally right on the button. They were at sea at times when the Saints piled in behind the blue line to check them but even though closely pressed they covered up their checks well and gave Cunningham plenty of protection in the frequent scrambles in front of his citadel. The conditions last night plainly did not fit in with their style of play and under the circumstances they were lucky to obtain a lead to carry home, for the Saints had more scoring opportunities and were the aggressors over most of the distance. A bit of loose play, in which the Saints' defence got tangled up, gave the invaders their first goal and their second came on a long shot which hit Weir and then went between Miller's pads, both counters in the lucky category.

St. John's led by Dallin, Cuthbertson and Hewett, who did the bulk of the attacking as well as an immense amount of effective checking made it a fight from bell to bell. They checked the visitors up in the corners and battled persistently around the Kingston nets, giving everything they had to smash through for goals. It was the irony of fate that their determination was not rewarded with a single break.

While Thurlby, Kingston's second string right winger, got both of their goals, the most effective play-maker as well as their most useful checker was Matthewson, their shifty centre ice star, who showed a bag of tricks in spite of the heavy going. Amey and Card, the two wing players of the starting forward line, were also smart performers while Murray, the big boy on the defence, displayed a nice turn of speed when he cut loose with the rubber. Cunningham was steady and sure in the nets.

For St. John's Cuthbertson and Dallin were particularly prominent, although every [illegible] worked [illegible] to draw. Weir and Howe on the defence checked well and both rushed often, although the going did not suit either of them. Miller had a lot of work to do and made plenty of smart saves, only to be beaten eventually by a long drifter—a tough break for the youngster.

Early in the battle both teams found difficulty in shaking off their checks, but the Saints made the first dangerous move and good checking by Hewett and Dallin behind the Kingston blue line kept the visitors hot and bothered for a while, while Cuthbertson's poke checking stopped them repeatedly when they tried to get going. A Matthewson to Card play was the first real Kingston threat but Miller blocked the left winger's shot. The Saints second line came on and both Dunkerley and Hall rattled hard shots at Cunningham, which he handled smartly. Several times the Kingston forwards broke fast and combined smartly, but they could not beat Miller. Then the Saints came back in the attack and Cunningham got a foot out in time to deflect a shot from Dallin, who have received a pass from Hewett in front of the nets. Cuthbertson drew the first penalty of the game for a trip but the visitors failed to take advantage of his absence. When the centre player came back Howe went down the side and shot the rubber across in front of the Kingston net, Cuthbertson just failing to reach the pass with the goaler beaten cold on the play.

St. John's opened the second period with a strong offensive and for a few minutes the visitors could not work the rubber away from their own territory. Murray did ramble down the ice twice and both times Howe toppled him with a bodycheck. The Saints battled inside the Kingston blue line repeatedly and Cunningham was kept on the jump. They failed to beat him, however, and it was the visitors who finally scored. From a mix up near the Saints' blue line the rubber drifted out to Thurlby, who catching the St. John's players in a huddle, batted the rubber past them, and tore in for a shot. Miller came out to save but could not reach the disc. Thurlby driving it past the Saints' goaler for the first goal of the game. This set-back seemed to spur the Peterborough youngsters on to greater efforts and for the next few minutes the visitors were penned in. Blake drew a penalty for holding, but his team mates held the fort until he came back. Near the end of the period Weir was chased for chopping and Card followed him to the side lines for hooking.

Card was still off when the third period opened and the Saints gave Cunningham a hot session. Dallin and Cuthbertson changed places and the two with Hewett staged a continuous attack that had the visitors worried. Then Hewett received a bad gash on his head in a mix up and had to leave the game to be patched up. The Saints continued to press and nearly tied the score when Hall fired a hot one past the post and Cuthbertson slapped the rebound for the corner of the net only to have Cunningham stick out a knee. With Hewett still off Thurlby picked up a loose puck near the right boards and drove a long one past the Peterborough defence pair and between Miller's pads into the net. Hewett returned to the game but his wound broke out again after a few moments and he had to retire for the night. The Saints got a break shortly afterward when penalties to Murray and Blake left the visitors two men short for a brief interval, but they could not slam anything past Cunningham. The visitors relieved the situation by repeatedly shooting the rubber down the ice and although the Saints kept smashing in they were kept off the score sheet and the visitors skated off with their two-goal lead intact.

Kingston—Goal, Cunningham; defence, Murray, Roberts; centre, Matthewson; right wing, Amey; left wing, Card; alternates, Thurlby, Blomley, Blake.

St. John's—Goal, Miller; defence, Weir, Howe; centre, Cuthbertson; right wing, Hewett; left wing, Dallin; alternates, Burke, Hall, Dunkerley.

Referee—Ernie Collett, Toronto.

A REAL SPEED ARTIST

The only really bright ray of sunshine in the invasion of Canadian athletes of both sexes to the annual Millrose Games held at New York on Saturday, February 8, was the sensational victory of Leigh Miller, the ex-Halifax sprinter, who carried the colors of the Hamilton Olympic Club to brilliant victory over a field of crack United States sprinters in the fifty-yard international dash. Miller came down in front with Johnny Fitzpatrick, of University of Toronto and Hamilton Olympics second. Behind them both was the man the United States athletic world was confident would take the plum—Jack Elder, the Notre Dame flyer—who, thanks to his flying start, was the one to beat Percy Williams in his indoor tour last winter. Behind him again was Jimmy Daley of Holy Cross. There were several more United States flyers in the heats of the race, but the two Canucks took their heats. Miller led all the way in the final, but Fitzpatrick had to come from behind to finish second.

WALKERTON IN SEMI-FINALS

Two Intermediate and One Junior Team Takes Count in O.H.A. Eliminations.

OSHAWA ADVANCES.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20 (C.P.) — Teams are being eliminated at fast rate in the three series of the Ontario Hockey Association playdowns. Last night two Intermediate and one Junior team took the count and as a result semi-finals have now been reached in the middle series.

Royal Military College, Kingston, put up a great fight in Toronto before passing out of the picture, losing out five goals to four by Walkerton's well-balanced sextette. The Cadets held a four to two lead, entering the final frame but lacked the stamina to withstand the Western Ontario team's great last period rally, which netted them three goals and victory. Walkerton will now meet Bradford in home and home games in the semi-finals with the first game at Bradford, February 21.

Bradford entered the semi-finals by trouncing Coldwater, three to nothing, last night, giving them the round, four to two.

In the Junior series Oshawa advanced at the expense of Oakville, winning last night's fixture four to nothing. On the round Oshawa finished on top, eight to two. They will now meet West Toronto in the Queen City, Feb. 21.

Kingston Juniors gained a two-goal lead over Peterborough St. John's in the first of their home and home series. The game was played in Peterborough on soft ice and the youngsters found the going strenuous. The return game is to be played at Kingston, February 21.

In the Senior "B" series last night, Port Colborne and Hamilton Tigers played to a one-all tie, in the first of their home and home games for the right to meet Woodstock in the play-off. The largest crowd of the season packed the Niagara Falls rink to see the two teams in action. The return contest is scheduled for Hamilton on Saturday.

SORRELL LEADS HIS TEAMMATES TO 4-0 VICTORY

Brilliant Left Winger Scores Four Goals Against Windsor Bulldogs.

FOURTH STRAIGHT WIN.

Cleveland Scores Overtime Victory From Hamilton Tigers on Latter's Ice.

TORONTO, Ont., February 20 (Canadian Press).—Led by their brilliant left winger, Johnny Sorrell, London Panthers defeated Windsor Bulldogs, four goals to nothing, to regain second place in the International Hockey League standing at London last night. Sorrell notched all four of his team's goals and assumed first place in the league scoring statistics.

In the other scheduled fixture Cleveland Indians added to their first place lead by defeating Hamilton Tigers, two to one. The Tigers forced the Indians into overtime before going down to defeat.

The Panthers' victory marked their fourth straight triumph over the Bulldogs. A crowd of more than 4,000 fans witnessed the struggle which saw the winners show the necessary scoring punch when opening occurred in the Windsor defence.

Eddie Rodden and "Toots" Holway furnished Sorrell with perfect passes for his brace of goals in the middle frame. In the third period Gordon Brydson laid down a perfect pass for the hard shooting left-winger to make it number three. His final goal was the culmination of a splendid solo effort.

Rene Fournier gave the Tigers first blood in their game with the Indians when he scored unassisted in the opening period. The winners tied the score in the third when Ken Doraty notched a pretty marker. Alexander Gray scored on Doraty's pass halfway through the overtime to give Cleveland a victory.

No games are scheduled for tonight.

LAKEFIELD "MAC" FIRES A FEW SHOTS

Says That Peterborough Teams Should Not Be Grouped With District Villages.

Lakefield, February 18.

Dear Wise Cracker.—It is a long time since I have written you although you keep firing those one-sided epistles of yours at me from time to time. You seem to think I am living somewhere that cannot be reached by any kind of communication only your sporting page.

Well, I want to tell you I have been following the hockey doings pretty close this winter, and I am going to tell you what I think of it, now that it is all over except your Saints, and they won't go far.

Well, in the first place, maybe the O.H.A. did not use much grey matter in grouping your Intermediates in a Senior B group. They certainly are not Senior class. But why in tarnation Peterborough would be satisfied to be grouped with Havelock, Fenelon Falls, Lakefield, etc., sure gets my nanny. There is only one reason, Mr. Wise Cracker, and that is, Peterborough "Sports" must have a winner.

I have watched your sports in Peterborough for the last forty years, and it has always been the same. "If the team doesn't win, they aren't any good."

It seems too bad that a city of the size of Peterborough has to take a back seat to Belleville or Kingston when it comes to hockey, just because there is not enough public spirit in the town to build an up-to-date rink that will get the boys away to as good a start as other towns their own size.

But to get back to where we started, old top. I don't want you writing me any more epistles with the idea that you can pull the wool over my eyes, trying to make one believe you have such a wonderful town and wonderful players. Your town and your players are only fair, as far as sports go.

If you want to help (and I know you do), pan the poor sports who "boo" the visiting players whether they be good or bad, who "boo" the referee, right or wrong, and who are satisfied with their teams being grouped with such "hick" towns as Lakefield, Havelock, Fenelon Falls, and Bobcaygeon.

Those little places will have good sport if left by themselves, but when a so-called city like Peterborough comes in with them, it gums up the works. Well, Wise Cracker, now that I have that off my chest, I feel better.

Please don't get sore at me, but take it as it is meant—for the good of the game.

I enjoy your letters to me very much, but I have to smile sometimes when I see the way you kid yourself by thinking you are kidding me.

Yours nevertheless,

MAC.

Mr. Clarence Wellman of Kingston spent the week end under the parental roof. Mr. Wellman has accepted a position as cheesemaker at Victoria factory this year.

Delbert McComb, son of Allen McComb, is seriously ill, with Dr. Zwick in attendance.

Mr. Ernest Stiles spent a few days last week in Toronto.

Miss Grace Stiles of Belleville spent the week end at Bonarlaw.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Wellman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nathan of Marmora motored to Kingston last week.

Mr. Woods and son of Huntington visited friends in this community on Friday.

The many friends of Mrs. Alvin Saur (nee Annie Gibson) of Buffalo will regret to learn of her recent illness at Kingston Hospital.

STUDENTS LOSE TO WALKERTON

R. M. C. Fades in Final Period Under Relentless Attacking System.

FINAL COUNT 5-4.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20 (C.P.) — Walkerton advanced to the semi-final round of the O.H.A. Intermediate series when they eliminated Royal Military College last night in a sudden-death game at Arena Gardens by 5 to 4. However, it was not until the last period, when the winners sent three men up on the attack in their efforts to get goals, that they were able to work their way into scoring positions. It was due to their last-period efforts solely, that Walkerton were able to win the game. In the first period, their play was decidedly ineffective, but as the game progressed Walkerton forwards found their bearings. With combination plays that left the R.M.C. forwards and defence far behind, they swept in on White in the R.M.C. nets to score three goals in the final 20 minutes.

Good Combination

At the end of both the first and second periods the Cadets had a two-goal lead. They scored the only goals of the first period and after Walkerton had knotted the count in the second session, ran in two more counters to take a lead. The final period produced the best and most exciting hockey of the game. Raybould, Walker and Bluham, Walkerton's front rank became organized and their clever combination efforts extended the R.M.C. defence to the utmost. However, it was not until the winners had muffed three chances that seemed would result in goals, that they started to click. The three goals that came in short order and that tied the count and won the game were all earned on fine combination plays.

Walker, Winger, and Raybould, centre, figured in all three goals, taking each other's passes to tally. Walker counted the first goal of the final session when he took Raybould's accurate pass and beat the R.M.C. defence, and Goalkeeper White with his hard drive. A minute later Walker's pass to Raybould, who raced in centre, gave the latter the chance to split the defence and tally. Walkerton's final counter was the climax of a series of clever plays. McArthur, defenceman, started to rush, passed the puck to Raybould, who in turn gave the rubber to Walker. The latter was uncovered, and skated in close to hammer the puck into the net. On these three goals, White had practically no chance to save.

R.M.C. suffered what might be termed "tough breaks." Once in the first period and once in the second they had goals called back on them on offside plays. Walkerton's goal that tied the count in the second session came rather easily. A shot from well outside the Cadets' defence struck J. G. Carr on the face and deflected sufficiently to throw the goalkeeper off balance and go into the net.

Rainie Scores Twice

Rainie, who played an excellent game at centre for R.M.C., scored both goals of the first period. The first came on a fine combination play. Rainie took J. G. Carr's pass and his hard drive was accurate. Rainie scored the second counter on a lone effort. The Cadets' third goal came in the second session when Lane went around Trushinski with apparent ease to score. Irvin repeated a few minutes later. Grant and Trushinski had previously scored for Walkerton. Then came the final session rally on the part of the winners that turned what might have been a defeat into a fine victory and a better chance to capture the Ontario title.

Rainie, centre; Irvin, defence, and Lane and Storms on the wings were outstanding for the losers, while the Walkerton front division, when it finally did become effective, played a fine game.

Walkerton—Goal, O'Berle; defence, Trushinski and McArthur; centre, Raybould; wings, Walker and Bluhm; subs., Pickard, Grant, Ellinghausen, Krampp.

R.M.C.—Goal, White; defence, Irvin and J. G. Carr; centre, Rainie; wings, Lane and Storms; subs., W. P. Carr, Blanchard.

FORT WILLIAM RINK ONLY UNBEATEN ONE

Previously Undefeated Sextets Topple Heavily in Bonspiel Play Yesterday.

TORONTO, Feb. 20. — Up to the end of the 6 o'clock draw, which was completed about 10 o'clock last evening, only one unbeaten rink was left in the various competitions of the Toronto bonspiel. This lone rink is that of D. Walker, Fort William. Yesterday was the fatal day for many hitherto undefeated quarters. The draws brought a number of them together and those that survived that meeting felt later in the day in a different event. The Ryrie-Birks and North American Trophy events reached the fourth round yesterday and it is expected that by late this afternoon the semi-finals will have been reached in at least three of the competitions.

The curlers got down to serious business yesterday after the lay-off for the banquet Tuesday night, and for the most part the scores were close and every end provided the keenest kind of competition. There was a scarcity of extra-end games, but many of them were decided on the final end. Upsets were frequent. Thirteen rinks that remained undefeated up to the end of the play on Tuesday began to topple early. In the Ryrie-Birks event, Ray Best of Peterborough met defeat opposing T. J. Godfrey's Chapleau rink which went unbeaten until the third round of the North American Life competition, when another Northern Ontario quartet, Emmett Smith's Haileybury crew, defeated it.

The Smith rink was beaten by Nate Cornwall's Detroit four and also lost to Nicholson's Sault rink later. And so it went all down the line, the Walker rink alone carrying on into the final night round with a clean sheet. The draws are made easier when the winning rinks begin to fall, and yesterday there was little or no delay in the starting time of most of the games. The curlers were still going strong at midnight, although the final draw of the game was nearly complete at that time.

If you buy out of town, and I buy out of town, and all our neighbors buy out of town, what in thunder will become of our town? Ever think about it?

LUQUE AND LEE JOIN BROOKLYN

Dudley, Bressler, Warner, West and Roy Write Names on 1930 Contracts.

STARTING OUT WELL.

NEW YORK, February 20. -- Evidence of subtle goings-on in Brooklyn plunked out a mail pouch yesterday. Seven signed contracts, two of them bearing the names of avowed hold-outs were received in the offices of the Robins. Adolfo Luque and Hal Lee led all the rest, which indicates that recalcitrant players are being treated with dispatch—and kid gloves. The other properly scrawled papers came from Clise Dudley, Rube Bressler, Max West, Jack Warner and Luther Roy. This brings the total of signed Robins to 23 and the group of unsigned is pared down to 15.

Recent reports stated with emphasis that Lee and Luque were dissatisfied with the first examination of their contracts, and the halting flow of signed contracts from other players indicated that there were others in sympathy with Lee and Luque. Yesterday's mail indicated that a second set of contracts had been distributed to the Robins, and rapid assimilation of the other boys can be expected.

It seems likely that the first meeting of the new board of directors, headed by President Frank York, resulted in the decision to encourage rapid action. The combined hold-out of Dazzy Vance and Doug McWeeny, extending well into the training season last year, caused the Robins some discomfiture. Such a state of affairs probably will be eliminated this year, with York personally attending to the collection of contracts.

The Brooklyn's club's new boss will make the trip to Clearwater for the purpose of bringing Vance to terms, and he probably will confer with Babe Herman there. Before departing however, one of his troubles at home needs settlement. That is Val Picinich, holding out comfortably at his home in Leonia, N.J.

Speaking Of SPORT

By Frank Getty

DOWN SOUTH

The battery men (pitchers and catchers) of a number of major league clubs are in action today down in the sunny (perhaps) Southland.

It has been an invariable rule of the majors that the battery men (pitchers and catchers) should report a fortnight in advance of the so-called regulars.

When a ball club lines up its players for any given season, the infielders and outfielders are fairly well established. But every manager, even when he has the pocketbook of his owner at his disposal, is forced to gamble with his pitching staff.

ROBBIE'S PROBLEM

This recalls the problem presented to Uncle Wilbert Robinson, the popular manager of the Brooklyyn National League Club, a few seasons ago.

Robbie was looking over his ambitious recruits at Clearwater, when he espied a robust, robust, rotund chap in uniform, weighing perhaps 200 pounds and looking every pound of it.

"Who," inquired Uncle Robbie, "if I may ask, is that?"

"Thats one of your new pitchers, Jess Petty," he was informed.

"Why " exclaimed Uncle Robbie, "he's as big as I am!"

Which may or may not have been an exaggeration, but the fact remains that Jess was quite a figure of a man.

• • •

WHEN PETTY SURPRISED

So the manager of the Brooklyn club summoned the robust, rotund figure of a man before him and demanded to know "how come?"

Petty explained that he had been a pitcher for a long time, but only recently returned to major league service.

"Well, go out and run around the field ten times," said Robbie, and turned his mind to more important details of developing a snappy second division club.

"That bird carries too much weight for my club," Robbie confided later. Unlike Caesar, he preferred to have gents around him who wore the so-called "lean and hungry" look.

But when the season opened, the Brooklyn manager changed his mind. Jess had been faithful in his road work around the park at Clearwater.

In the opening game of the season, Petty let the New York Giants down with a single hit.

THE DAVIS CUP

The time is not far off when the United States must select its Davis Cup team and prepare for an attempt to regain the trophy which should be ours.

For the past three years France has triumphed, but considering the natural advantages enjoyed by young tennis players in this country, there is no reason why we should not regain the cup presented by our former Secretary of War.

The fact that the opportunity for regaining the Davis Cup seems so remote can be charged up to the narrow-mindedness of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association, which for many years permitted "Big Big" Tilden and his cronies to dominate the situation.

THE TILDEN INFLUENCE

Admitting that Tilden is the greatest tennis player ever developed in this or any other country, the short-sightedness of the U. S. L. T. A. in allowing the elongated, egotistical Philadelphian to have his way in all matters pertaining to international tennis is nevertheless inexcusable.

"Big Bill" had his way because he was a gate attraction for clubs which were members of the national tennis body and which elected the officers of the U. S. L. T. A. The time now is past when Tilden, the actor, who made a living out of amateur tennis, should be permitted to have a say in the matter of selecting an American team. He is barnstorming Europe, despite his definite promise to cut it out. Let him go. But let us develop a truly American Davis Cup squad from the youngsters and go out and bring the Davis Cup back to this country.

THEY CAN DO IT

There is no doubt in any sensible man's mind that, given the proper encouragement, and with the Tilden myth obliterated, the young tennis players of the United States can hold their own with those of any other country.

"Big Bill" is through, as his successive defeats on the French Riveria this month have demonstrated. But his influence clings on. He is like Jack Dempsey — still a greater drawing card than the men who have beaten him. This should not be so in amateur sport. It should not be so in tennis at any rate, where the best of the youngsters deserve a chance which cliques thus far have denied them.

RADIO HOOK-UP DETRIMENTAL TO BUSINESS, VIEW OF PROMOTERS

Fight Fans to be Cheated on Big Fight at Miami on February 27.

FIGHTERS WORK OUT.

MIAMI, Feb. 20.— After a day of brisk workouts among the combatants, Frank J. Bruen, general manager of the Madison Square Garden Corp., announced yesterday that there will be no broadcast of the second annual fistic festival of the palms on the night of Thursday, Feb. 27.

Bruen, after a conference with Bill Carey, Garden president, discarded original plans to put the boxing show on the air. Last year's show in Miami Beach between Stribling and Sharkey was broadcast and the Garden management, before and since the death of Tex Rickard, has put most of the outdoor fights on the air. Rickard, however, always contended that it hurt business, one suggesting that radio fans should pay 25 cents apiece for the privilege of listening in. The present Garden control holds a similar view of its effect, though it is understood considerable pressure will be brought to bear to effect a radio hook-up.

Fighters Workout.

Rain drops and flip flops featured yesterday's workouts, which attracted greater attention that usual because of the exhibition of more participants in the immediate Miami and Miami Beach area. Between showers, Phil Scott went through nine brisk rounds, but brought a roar from the onlookers when he was tumbled to the canvas in a sparring session with the veteran Canadian Jack Renault. The mishap to the Briton was due more to a shove than any steam in Renault's punches. Phil was backpedalling at the time and his upset was facilitated by the fact that he tripped partly over his own feet and a crease in the ring canvas. He got up to hammer Renault around the ring and complete a nine round workout in which he engaged six sparring partners, including Jack Demave and Babe Hunt.

Sharing the spotlight for the first time with Jack Sharkey at Miami Beach, Victorio Campolo, who opposes Johnny Risk in the semi-final exhibited a terrific right hand punch against three work-mates, two of whom lasted less than a round and a half. One of these, George Neron of New York, sent Victorio back on his heels with a smash to the chin in the first few seconds, but that was the last punch he landed and he quit with a damaged right arm after a few seconds of the second round. Risko's exhibition at Miama was postponed until Friday and Johnny continued his daily work at Hollywood.

Sharkey Idle.

Practicing a shift from which he shot a right to the body, Sharkey went four fast rounds against Johnny Grosso and Pierre Charles, the Belgian. The Boston sailor will not work out to-day, but Scott, with his complete retinue of managers and sparring partners, will accompnay a big party to Palm Beach for a joint workout with Tommy Loughran in an especially arranged society meeting at the exclusive Oasis Club. Tea will be served with dancing afterward in the patio.

IT CAN'T BE DONE.

MOSCOW, Feb. 20.—Red Russia has given birth to some astounding and horrible ideas since it took a new lease on life under the Soviets. The most recent idea is that of L. M. Satsovitch, who suggests that babies be taken away from their mothers immediately after birth and never returned to them. The state would assume control of the children and raise them.

PICTORIAL GOLF

WEIGHT DISTRIBUTION IN GOLF

Harry Vardon has always been considered all that was perfect in golf. The old master has stood in a class by himself these many years an exponent of the unadulterated upright swing. Yet, Vardon, according to the modern school when at the top of his peak as a champion of champions always had too much weight on his left foot at the top of the swing.

This was caused by the perfect pivot and while it was safe and sure so far as direction was concerned, he could not expect to obtain a very long ball. True Vardon was not a long hitter, but a straight one. Most golfers, those who hit the long drives down the fairway, come back on their right foot. They believe that the weight, if too far forward, will prevent the body from doing its share of the work.

WORLD STARS READY FOR COLISEUM MEET

Cream of Canadian Athletes Will Pit Strength Against U. S. Luminaries.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20.—(C.P.)—With United States competitors arriving last night and this morning preparations have been completed for the National indoor track and field championships to be held at the Coliseum here to-night.

The cream of Canadian track and field athletes will pit their skill against some of the best luminaries from across the border and indications point to the most successful meet ever held indoors in Eastern Canada.

In the sprint competitions such ranking Canadian performers as Leigh Miller, the Halifax product, and Johnny Fitzpatrick, University of Toronto, will match strides with the Newark flash, Chester Bowman and George Simpson, Ohio State University, rated the best sprinter in the United States.

Phil Edwards, New York, representing Hamilton Olympic Club, Dr. Paul Martin, Switzerland, Jimmy Ball, Winnipeg, and a number of other clever performers are entered in the middle distance races.

The pole vault hurdles and high jump events will see among others, Vic Packard, Hamilton, Elmer Reick and Rod Godfrey, Detroit, Harold Osborne and Monty Wells, Boston, endeavor to break down the Canadian records.

A speed test for women will bring together those two noted sprinters, Myrtle Cook, Montreal, and Stella Walsh, Chicago.

LETTERS TO (VERY YOUNG) LADIES

Sprite of the North: No turn of phrase
Could speak the grace of velvet flame,
Entrancing to our ravished gaze,
As skating to our hearts you came.

Elf of the ice, whose roguish curls
And roguish curves and roguish smile
Caused ME to try some fancy whirls,

.....

I'm eating standing up a while!!!

To Eleanor Holm

The dolphin folds his fins for shame
When you flash past in silv'ry spray,
And water nymphs give up the game
Because they are not built your way,

So young, so fair, so fleet, so filled
With joy of life and love of fun
What countless thousands you have thrilled!
(And you have only just begun)

Each time you swim new records fall.

.....

Say, Eleanor, please set me right:
Will I be any good at all
Who only practice Saidee night???

To Betty Robinson

A vivid flash of rounded grace,
With bobbed curls flying in the wynde,
You put all others in their place,
And that, with you, is far behind.

Fleet as Diana, who could spot
The stag a start, and beat him, too;

.....

You'll have no need of that, I wot,
For stags will all be chasing you!

To Eleanor Holm

COSMETIC BOOM.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Women all over the world are "making up" more and more, according to export figures of the U.S. Department of Commerce. Exports of cosmetics, perfumes, and other toilet articles from the United States during the first ten months of 1929 were valued at $9,583,000. A big share of these exports went to South American countries.

PIRATES MEET LEAFS TO-NIGHT

Toronto Club Needs Both Points to Retain Hopes of Entering Play-offs.

OTTAWA ON SATURDAY.

TORONTO, Feb. 20. — Only three games are scheduled in the National Hockey League for to-night, Montreal at Americans, Ottawa at Chicago, and the Pittsburg Pirates against the Maple Leafs here. The first game is important only as a game, although the Maroons need a victory to maintain their margin over the Canadiens but the other two are more than interesting to local fans as it is the Senators whom the Leafs must dislodge if they are to get into the playoffs. It is just possible that the locals' play-off chances will be either made or broken in the next five days as they follow up their clash to-night with two games against Ottawa here on Saturday and in the capital on Tuesday. A win to-night over the Pirates and a victory for the Chicago Hawks against Ottawa, will help a lot, and another Leaf victory on Saturday will put the Smythemen right on the heels of the Senators.

The locals showed lots of speed and combinaton in scoring their third straight win over the Rangers in New York on Tuesday night, and Bailey and Cotton apparently have hit their scoring form, as each picked up three points, the right winger with two goals and an assist, and Cotton with a goal and two assists. In the last two games the older members of the team have shoved the kids into the background, and if both sets can get functioning together instead of on different nights there is no reason why they shouldn't overtake Ottawa.

The Pirates have always been known as a fast skating team and they are firm advocates of the policy of staging a strong offence as a means of protecting their goal. They made a strong finish against the Senators on Tuesday, and although they are tail-enders in their own group and the league as a whole, they cannot be under-estimated. Early in the season they defeated the Leafs 10 to 5, and that still rankles.

SPORTS DIRECTOR IS RECOMMENDED

New System Will Enable Toronto Varsity Athletes to Make Better Showing.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 20 (C.P.)—The appointment of an athletic director to take charge of the entire sports of the University of Toronto has been recommended by the Athletic Advisory Board here. The Board contends under the present system that the selecting of a coach each year, and old players leaving and new ones coming in, the coach is at a loss to know just what material he has to work with. Under the new system everything will be at the director's fingertips, and he will know just how the situation stands.

There has been no appointment of a coach for the intercollegiate football squad for 1930 as yet. Last year's coach, "Ronnie" McPherson is not expected to return this fall.

STELLAR LIGHTS WITH THE BOSTON BRUINS

The Boston Bears are leaders in the N. H. L. race and winners of fourteen straight games this winter. Three members of the team are shown above: No. 1, Bill Carson, starred with Varsity before turning pro and was also with the Leafs for a while. Next to Eddie Shore, he is said to be the highest salaried player in the league. No. 2 is Fred Ryan, formerly the Beaches junior. He may not be a showy performer as the self-same Shore, but he is fully as effective. No. 3 is Harry Oliver, smooth right winger.

COUNCIL MEETS

Fire Brigade Deputation Waits on Council Regarding Purchase of New Pumper.

LAKEFIELD, Feb. 20.— (Examiner Correspondence.)—The regular meeting of the Municipal Council was held in the Council Chamber on Monday evening last with Reeve Tanner in the chair and the full council present.

Messrs. A. H. Clark, C. Hunter and G. Scriver, representing the Fire Brigade, were present and addressed the council regarding the purchase of a new pumper, covering the situation very thoroughly.

Charles Tanner, Jr., interviewed the council regarding the purchase of bonds for Trail Rangers and Trail Boys.

The Finance committee presented a report recommending payment of the following accounts: Bell Telephone Co., January acct., $7.35; Dept. Public Highways, licenses, $4.03; C.N.R., freight, $5.12; Frost's Steel and Wire Co., fence, $57.03; Registrary Office, transfers, $1.34; the Clerk, registration fees, $16.75; W. J. Charlton, feed, $19.00; W. J. Charlton, coal, $190.80; Can. Goodrich Co., uniforms, $41.40; Walter Madill, repairs, $27.06; Heaton Publishing Co., hand-book, $3.77; L.H.E.C., street light, $312.00; L.H.E.C., hall light, $13.58; L.H.E.C., stable light, $1.50; County of Peterborough, acct. indigents, $65.62; payroll, wages, $53.40; Walter Chappel, repairs, $1.70.

On motion the report was received and adopted.

By-law No. 688, "To regulate and license places of amusement in the village of Lakefield," received its several readings, was passed, and the Reeve and Clerk authorized to sign and seal the same. License fee $25.00.

Applications for building permits by E. J. Millage and Roland Coons were granted and Chief Webster was appointed building inspector.

A young Negress, wearing almost nothing, came before the Municipal Court on a disorderly and drunk charge. His honor, having noticed her scanty clothing, suggested that she go home and put on some clothes.

"Judge, Ah spects Ah kin dress like Ah wants."

"You are fined five dollars for contempt of court."

Going to the clerk to pay her fine, she was asked what the fine was for. In a haughty voice she replied:

"De court says dat Ah is fined five dollahs for temptin' the court."

—Kansas Sour Owl.

"What was the topic of conversation in the smoking car this morning?"

"How to get rid of the smoke nuisance."

—Stevens Stone Mill.

"Your Majesty, a woman awaits without."

"Without what, knave?"

"Without speaking."

"Show her in. She's the ideal I've been waiting for."

Lloyd George: American women have lost their nerve.

Coolidge: You ought to see some of the entries in our beauty contests.

—Virginia Reel.

Liza: So you think I'se got the nicest form in town?

Rastus: Yup, Ah knows a good thing when Ah seize it.

—Colorado Dodo.

She: According to my diet, I must eat bran.

He: Yeh, well—

She: But bran is for cows!

He: Yeh, well—

—Geo. Washington Ghost.

"What is that man doing with the six letters on his sweater?"

"Why, he just made the girls' basketball team."

—Okla. Whirlwind.

"Do you ever gamble?"

"Well, I put my pin out the other night."

—Wisconsin Octopus.

Chem Prof: A catalyst is something that aids in the completion of a reaction but takes no active part in it. Can you illustrate?

Student: A glass egg.

—Colgate Banter.

VALENTINE SOCIAL AT HALL'S GLEN

Successful Affair Held Under Leadership of Miss Vera McIlmoyle.

HALL'S GLEN, Feb. 20—The Junior Bible Class and its teacher, Vera J. McIlmoyle, of Zion Church held a Valentine Box Social in the church recently, when the evening was spent in games and contests, the winners being as follows: Guessing contest, how many beans in the jar, being won by Clinton Crowe; heart contest, won by Miss W. Darling and Allan Crowe; showing guessing contest for the men, Mr. Herrington; shadow guessing contest for the ladies, Miss Doris Payne; heart hunt, 38 hearts were hidden in the church, Gordon Hamblin being the finder of the lucky heart, and Clinton Crowe held the most number.

The guests were then divided into groups, after which followed a contest entitled "A Musical Marriage." The girls' Valentines were then placed in a basket, the men drawing the Valentines. There were opened and the names called out, each lady coming forward with her basket when her name was called.

Trevor Little and Billy Hamilton poured tea.

Valentine Meeting

The Pleasant Plains Junior Red Cross Club and the teacher, Miss V. J. McIlmoyle, held its seventh meeting in the school house, S.S. No. 4 recently, when Stanley Giles, president, occupied the chair.

There being no business to discuss, the routine work was done and the remainder of the meeting spent in games and contests. Prize winners in the various games and contests included, Elwood Payne, lucky number hunt; Walter Payne, cat contest; Clinton Crowe and Ronald Matthews, wizard's alphabet contest; Ronald Matthews, the squirrel and corn contest.

At the close of the meeting, Laura Skelcher and Doris Lloyd served refreshments, and the Valentines distributed by the winners of the contests.

Guests present included Mrs. H. Payne, Mrs. George Dunford, Miss Lorrain Hamblin, Muriel Payne, Karl Skelcher and Morley Crowe.

JOB WENT BEGGING.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—There's one job in England which went begging recently despite the unemployment situation. In widening a road, workmen came upon a stone which had to be removed. No one would attempt to remove the stone, however, for it bore this inscription: "Curseth be the man that removeth this stone."

MAJOR WOODS TO SPEAK

The public meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, to which the general public is cordially invited, is to be held on February 27th, in the Empress Hotel, where the gathering will convene for dinner.

Major W. H. Woods of the London Ontario Chamber of Commerce will speak on a "Balanced Community" and will illustrate his lecture with an exhibit.

Major Woods was the first Canadian to graduate from the National Institute for Commerce and Trade Organization executives and received his diploma on October 21st, 1929.

OWNER WANTED!

Chief Newhall desires to have the owner of the police dog, which was destroyed by police, following its assault upon a child on Patterson Street, report to him. The Chief said this morning that no action would be taken against the owner, but that in this way he hoped to trace the history of the animal.

SIGNS OF SPRING.

Spring is on the wing. Even if the sage of Chatsworth does predict a cold spell in March, we are having a foretaste of the gay and merry "printemps" of the year. J. A. Foster of Patterson street, encountered a gaudy yellow butterfly on his way down George street yesterday. It was quite lively and was winging its way over the muddy street. It was captured in the vicinity of the Laura Secord shop, possibly having a hankering for a sweet. And this morning, Mrs. James Skinner of Weller street found a large and fat caterpillar making its way along her verandah.

OPINIONS DIFFER OVER NEW PARTY

Amery Believes Body May Weaken Tories in Fight Against Free Trade Superstition.

SHORT LIFE PREDICTED.

LONDON, Feb. 20.— (By Thos. T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent.)— Prominent Conservatives gave the United Empire Party of Lord Beaverbrook only faint praise in speeches last night. The ultra-Conservative Morning Post to-day describes the party, formed to further Lord Beaverbrook's ideal of free trade within the Empire and a tariff barrier against the foreigner, as an unnecessary organization. The Beaverbrook and Rothermere newspapers continue their enthusiastic reports of fresh developments, and the Liberal Daily News joins in with some praise of the party. Finally, the Labor organ, the Daily Herald, declares the new party will be short-lived.

Amery Critical.

Rt. Hon. L. C. M. S. Amery, secretary for the Dominions in the last Government, a noted Imperialist, speaking at Derby last night said he regretted Lord Beaverbrook's decision to launch the party because he saw a danger of struggles for candidatures weakening the Conservatives themselves in the fight against the common foe for free trade superstition. He thought the new move would endanger the Conservative party if the public came to believe the party had really no definite forward policy and was not sincere in its intention of forwarding the cause of Empire unity.

Sir Philip Sassoon, former Under-Secretary for Air in the Conservative Government, said he welcomed the new party insofar as it advocated wider and greater commercial units in the Empire. But he deplored it, when it constituted an attempt to divide the Conservative party, leaving it open to its political enemies. He had not found any new principle in Lord Beaverbrook's party, or any principle which had not been for years part of the Conservative platform. He would remain within the party, he added.

OBITUARY

EDWARD R. McNUTT.

The death occurred last evening of Edward R. McNutt, aged 65, at the home of his nephew, William M. McNutt, 378 Queen Street, after an illness of some two years' duration.

The deceased was born in Norham, Ontario, but for the past twenty years had resided in Peterborough, and previously he was a resident of Lakefield and Millbrook. He was a member of the George Street United Church.

He is survived by three nieces, Mrs. Bert Moore and Mrs. John Downer of this city and Mrs. V. R. Sweeting, of Springville, and also one nephew, William M. McNutt, of this city.

The funeral service will be held from the residence of Wm. McNutt, Queen Street, on Friday afternoon, interment being in the Little Lake Cemetery. Rev. J. E. Millyard will officiate.

GLADYS GODFREY.

The death occurred in Toronto on Wednesday of Gladys Mildred Godfrey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Godfrey, of Myrtle Avenue, Toronto, at the age of 16 years.

Deceased is a niece of Fred English, of 348 George Street South.

The funeral will be held on Saturday, on the arrival of the noon train, to Little Lake Cemetery.

BRIDGE BILL GETS SECOND READING

Scheme Costing $75,000,000 is to Erect Structure Over Thames.

MOVE FAMOUS STATION.

LONDON, Feb. 20. — (Canadian Press Cable.)—The House of Commons late last night gave second reading to the bill promoting the Charring Cross bridge scheme, at a cost of $75,000,000. It involves the erection of a new Thames bridge and the practical removal of Charing Cross railway station from one side of the Thames to the other. The south side of the river at this point will be turned into an embankment with fine gardens, and the whole district will be rebuilt and developed under the expert advice of the great architect, Sir Edwin Lytyens.

IN MEMORIAM

CROSS.—In loving remembrance of a dear husband and father, John Cross, who passed away Feb. 20th, 1924.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture
Of a loved one laid to rest;
In memory's brain we shall keep it
Because he was one of the best.
Lips cannot speak how we loved him,
Our hearts cannot think what to say;
God only knows how we miss him,
Because he was one of the best.

Western Premiers To Probe Grain Selling

THREE PRAIRIE PREMIERS LEAVE FOR WHEAT MARKETING PARLEY OPENING IN REGINA ON SATURDAY

If Provincial Guarantees Necessary, Pool May in Turn Be Asked For Security.

PROBE ORDERLY SELLING.

Pool Officials Refuse to Make Any Statements Before Convention.

EDMONTON, Alta., Feb. 21. (Canadian Press).—Bound for a conference in Regina Saturday at which Premiers of the three Prairie Provinces will discuss the Canadian wheat marketing situation and the financial guarantees to the Wheat Pool which the Governments may possibly be called upon to implement. Premier J. E. Brownlee left Edmonton last night.

"If the provincial guarantees are necessary to support the wheat pool, the Prairie Provinces may in turn demand some security from the pool" Mr. Brownlee stated, prior to his departure.

At Regina the Alberta Premier will meet Premier John Bracken of Manitoba, and Premier J. T. M. Anderson of Saskatchewan. It is the intention of the three Prairie Prime Ministers also to discuss with wheat pool officials the marketing situation as it stands to-day.

Investigate Orderly Marketing

Before provincial guarantees are given in the event of their being called upon, the Alberta Government will wish to satisfy itself that the pool officials have been conducting "orderly marketing" of their wheat and that they have not, as has been charged in certain quarters in England, "been gambling with Canada's crop on the wheat markets of the world."

"There is no more cause for alarm than there was before this conference was planned," Mr. Brownlee said. "We are simply meeting to take a careful look over the situation to assure ourselves that the pool has been conducting 'orderly marketing' and to insist upon security from the pool in the unlikely event of the Province's being called upon to implement their guarantee."

Fast Launch Leads Patrol Long Chase

SAN PEDRO, Cal., February 21 (Canadian Press). — Captured off Point Arguello after a two-hour chase in which the pursuer, a coastguard vessel, fired 21 shots from a one-pounder in her direction, the 70-foot motor launch Liberty and her crew of three were being held by Federal officers for investigation here to-day.

The coastguard patrol boat Tingard encountered the Liberty early yesterday and guardsmen said they chased her for two hours, firing the 21 shots as they raced, before the pursued vessel surrendered. The Liberty was commanded by Captain A. R. Gingross.

WOMAN INJURED BY TAXI DRIVER

Gordon Smith Appears in Court Charged With Criminal Negligence.

CASE ADJOURNED.

Gordon Smith, taxi driver for Gerald Dunford, in Police Court this morning faced a charge of criminal negligence arising from a motor accident at the corner of Charlotte and George streets yesterday afternoon in which Mrs. Wm. Rowe, aged 70, received painful but not serious injuries.

Mrs. Rowe was crossing west on George street at the corner when she was struck by the car driven by Smith, which had taken the left hand turn from Charlotte on to George street. The woman was knocked down and suffered injury to her back and leg. Her face was lacerated.

The case against Smith was adjourned for one week without plea.

LAST MINUTE STAY IN EXECUTION IS GRANTED TO JOHN PASOWEST SENTENCED TO HANG FOR MURDER

Youth Was Found Guilty of Murdering Father on August 1st, 1929.

SURVEY TO BE MADE OF BOY'S MENTAL STATUS

Receives Announcement of Reprieve Without Any Sign of Emotion.

CALM AND UNRUFFLED.

At Trial Youth Said He Confessed to the Crime to Shield His Mother.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., February 21 (Canadian Press). — Seventeen-year-old John Pasowesty, sentenced to hang to-day for the murder of his father, is calm and unruffled on the day that was to have brought him to death. The young farm lad has been reprieved by the Department of Justice until March 7.

No Sign of Emotion.

Announcement of the reprieve was made without any sign of emotion. It is expected a survey of Pasowesty's mental status will be made and the results forwarded to Ottawa. He had already been the subject of examination by experts on diseases of the mind.

According to alienists who examined Pasowesty for the defence, he possesses the mentality of a child of nine or ten years.

Pasowesty was found guilty on November 22, of the murder of his father on August 1, following a trial at Wynward, Saskatchewan.

During his trial for the murder of his father, the youth testified his mother had informed him how he had shot his father. He declared his mother had requested him to confess to the shooting and she would gain his freedom. Pasowesty said he had made his confession to the crime to shield his mother.

The youth, however, had made a confession following the shooting which coincided with evidence secured by the police. He told officers he had committed the act and testimony given in the court by police tended to prove his guilt.

RUM SMUGGLERS GIVEN YEAR EACH

Twenty-three Others, Including One Woman, in Pack Train Case, Appear Monday.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—Two men accused of conspiracy to bring liquor from Canada to the United States by means of mule pack trains entered pleas of guilty to the charges in Federal Court yesterday. The men, Roy Critzer, and Jess Cummins, were sentenced to McNeil Island prison to serve a year and a day each.

Twenty-three other defendants, including one woman, were named in the indictments, and will go on trial in Federal Court here Monday.

The indictments alleged that three separate rum rings brought thousands of dollars' worth of liquor into Northwest cities from Canada, hauling it in on mule back.

FIREMEN SAVE FREEPORT GIRL AS GRAND RIVER ICE GOES OUT

Rescue Made By Team and Wagon—Horses Forced to Swim at Times.

HUGE JAM FEARED.

KITCHENER, ONT., Feb. 21 (Canadian Press).—Miss Elle Lutz was rescued from her home at Freeport by members of the Kitchener fire department and Provincial Police when flood waters of the Grand River, which broke their ice bounds shortly after five o'clock this morning, swirled about her home, cutting off avenues of escape. The rescue was effected by means of a team of horses and a wagon which made their way across the flats at Freeport, the horses being forced to swim the current at times.

Ice jammed along the banks of the river and it was feared that the floods will become worse unless the jam is broken.

Flood waters started to move at Bridgeport shortly before noon and conjecture is rife as to what will happen when the fast moving current and huge ice cakes crash into the mountainous ice packs at Freeport. Fears for the safety of two bridges at the latter place are expressed.

CHALK UP ANOTHER.

Signs of an early spring seem to be as plentiful as cigars on election eve in this city. To-day Mrs. E. Manley, 566 Armour Road, says she spied a crow flying over Armour's Hill this morning, northward bound. Although the sight of a crow at this time of the year is not exactly a rarity in this district, many will take heart at this news.

The temperature was up another five notches to-day over yesterday, and some young gentlemen were to be seen sauntering along the main street minus their winter overcoats. Many of the city's delivery sleighs have given way to wheeled vehicles, temporarily at least.

Great Art Scandal Looms in England

LONDON, Feb. 21.— (C.P.)—What may develop into one of the greatest art sensations England has known in many years was hinted in the Daily Mail to-day. The paper said it understood that the Royal Commission of Fine Arts was not satisfied that the huge Mural painting which Frank Brangwyn, Royal Academician, has been doing for the House of Lords is suitable for its surroundings.

Brangwyn, whose fame is world wide, has been working three years on this picture for the Royal Gallery of the House of Lords. He has another three years' work to do.

Five sections of the painting were put in place recently and the Royal Commission viewed them. The Commission has prepared a report which thus far has not been published, but the Mail understands that the Commission disapproved, although it did not make any reflection on the artistic merits of the work.

CATNIP LURES LIONS

CALCUTTA, Feb. 21.—Catnip is being used by hunters to lure lions, leopards and tigers to a position where they can be killed. This catnip, an extract of the original plant which so attracts cats, is placed in an advantageous position so that the hunters will be concealed when the animals being hunted approach. The beasts' scent leads them to the catnip odor and they are then shot by the hunters.

FLOOD DANGER POINT IS PAST

Ice Breaker Breaks Jam in Don Preventing Serious Overflow —Thames Rises 4 Feet.

SPEED FAILS TO BREAK UP.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21.—(Canadian Press).—The threatened danger of floods in various parts of the Province brought on by the exceedingly mild spell prevailing the last two days was considerably lessened last night as flood waters receded rapidly.

The Thames river in the vicinity of London rose more than four feet in the last 48 hours and continues to rise, inundating most of the low lying territory on its banks. It is likely the river will rise another foot or two but no serious results are expected.

At Toronto an ice-breaker broke through an ice jam in the Don river and averted the threatened flood in the eastern section of the city. The Speed river in the Guelph region and the Grand river at Brantford have not yet broken up and will probably withstand several days of warm weather before the ice of two foot thickness, breaks up and causes jams.

ACTION IS URGED ON ST. LAWRENCE

T. L. Church Claims Waterway is Immediate and Economic Necessity.

DEVELOPED BY GOV'T.

OTTAWA, Ont., February 21 (Canadian Press). — Immediate action for the carrying out of the St. Lawrence Waterways proposal is urged by T. L. Church (Con., Toronto North-East). Mr. Church in a proposed resolution to be discussed in the House of Commons this session advocates that "immediate action should be taken, without further unnecessary delays, to enter into a treaty with the Government of the United States for the immediate development and generation of water-power on the St. Lawrence River, and its deepening and development in the interests of navigation, and that a great St. Lawrence Waterway is an immediate and economic necessity for the welfare and best interests of Canada."

In his proposal, he asks the House to support the view "that the Government should undertake the construction and operation of this canal as a public undertaking itself and the power incident herein should be developed and generated at a cost by the Government for the people under public ownership and not alienated to private interests for gain or exported for use outside of Canada."

LIFE INSURANCE MONEY SOLD FOR FUTURE DELIVERY

Underwriters of Central Ontario Hold Convention in City.

G. A. GERMAN SPEAKS.

John I. Allen Also Addresses Assembled Underwriters at Morning Session.

"All men want bonds, money, security, independence. That is why the stock market attracts so many of them. They want to get it quickly. Why not sell them life insurance that way, for that is what life insurance is—security, independence, money, bonds."

This assertion by G. A. German, C.L.U., Toronto city manager for the Crown Life Insurance, in his address to the Life Underwriters of Peterborough and Central Ontario this morning, expressed one of the major points of his practical message under his general subject of "Practical Sales Ideas."

One reason for the resistance which life underwriters have met with was a persistent thought that life insurance was associated with death, and worst of all, the prospect thought of his own death. Many men put off making their wills for the same reason, that a will confronts them with the grim thought of death.

Mr. German advised his audience of sixty or more life underwriters from this city and district to present the idea of life insurance, its significance and its actual operation and effect, from the more appealing approach that it actually is security, money, bonds, independence and safety.

For Future Delivery.

Life insurance is money sold for future delivery; it is bonds carrying the rate of interest the company is paying; the life insurance policy is a rock-ribbed bond; it provides security for the man and his family or his business; it means safety for all; and finally it affords independence for himself and his wife in their old age—independence and the comfort, and freedom and ease of mind which it brings.

In another part of his address, Mr. German grouped prospects into five divisions or types—the over-cautious, the clever man, the argumentative, the conceited and the irritable. He proposed various methods of approach and of dealing with these various types. One of his remarks was that the irritable man is usually an admirer of knowledge and cleverness.

A District Convention.

To-day's congress was attended by underwriters from the district marked by Oshawa on the west to Kingston and Napanee on the east and Lindsay and Orillia on the north. D. M. Bissell, president of the Peterborough Life Underwriters' Association, presided at the morning and afternoon sessions. S. R. Armstrong, city clerk, representing Mayor Denne, extended a civic welcome. Jap Ship Aground In Far Northland

SEATTLE, Washn., Feb. 21.—(Canadian Press).—The Japanese steamship Koshun Maru went Aground near Scotch Cap in Unimak Pass in the Aleutian Island chain, Southeastern Alaska, at 12.30 p.m. Pacific time yesterday, the signal corps operator at Squaw Harbor reported to the Washington-Alaska military cable office here. Squaw Harbor is about 200 miles from Scotch Cap.

CHICAGO RELIEF IS NOW CERTAIN

Sum of $74,000,000 to Tide Over Gov't's Financial Crisis Arranged For.

PAY-OFF STARTS TUESDAY.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—Slow in gaining momentum, financial relief for Chicago and Cook county assumed proportions of a landslide to-day.

The $74,000,000 necessary to tide over the local governments during the crisis has been assured. As soon as the first of the millions is poured into the trust organized to purchase tax warrants, the pay-off parade will begin.

Cheques Already Prepared.

Departments have already prepared the cheques for the long unpaid employees. In some quarters it was believed possible that part of these could be distributed to-morrow, but bankers held out little hope that the pay-off could be made before Tuesday.

To date, $11,805,000 is due to the $43,000 or so school teachers, nurses, milk inspectors, oplicemen, firemen and other employees. To meet this, warrants of that amount will be purchased by the relief trust. As fast as more millions are needed, additional warrants will be purchased.

These warrants will eventually be used in payment for taxes by the banks, department stores, manufacturers, utilities and individuals holding the same.

It is expected that collection of the 1928 and 1929 taxes, delayed by the re-assessment, will begin July 1.

The Weather

The mild weather still continues, and is fairly general all over the continent. This morning the temperature locally was 37 degrees, and did not get down to the freezing point last night. Yesterday's highest point was 50 degrees, a shade warmer than the preceding day. A few robins have been seen. Some of the employees of the Canadian Canoe Company reported having seen a robin yesterday. Another man told me the same story this morning.—W. P.

WIDE RANGE OF RESOLUTIONS TO BE DISCUSSED

Cahan Asks if King Ratified 1925 Geneva Protocol For Prohibition of Use

PULPWOOD EMBARGO.

Nationalization of Radium Supply is Urged By Dr. I. D. Cotman.

OTTAWA, Ont., February 21. (C.P.)—Canada's attitude in respect to the Geneva protocol for the prohibition of the use of certain cases in war, is the subject matter of questions placed on the order paper of the House of Commons by C. H. Cahan, (Cons., St. Lawrence-St. George).

The questions propounded by Mr. Cahan, read:

"Has the Geneva protocol for the prohibition of the use in war of certain cases, which was signed on June 17, 1925, been ratified by His Majesty, the King? If so, is it the intention of the government to introduce to this House a bill to confirm said protocol and authorizing the government to perform the obligations therein imposed upon the Dominion of Canada? If not, why not?"

Similar questions in regard to the intention of the Dominion government are asked by Mr. Cahan with reference to the Geneva Slavery Convention of 1928, Geneva International Sanitary Convention, 1928, and the Geneva Opium Convention and Protocol.

An eight hour day should be put into effect with respect to all Dominion Government employees, who daily work in excess of that period. This belief was expressed to-day by E. J. Garland, (U.F.A., Bow River.) Mr. Garland will bring his proposal before the House of Commons during the session. Canada, he observed, in expressing his feeling that such action should be taken by the government, is a signatory to the Labor clauses of the Treaty of Versailles, part of which includes the granting of an eigh hour day.

Nationalization of the suply of radium is suggested by Dr. I. D. Cotman, (Cons., Renfrew North). The question will be considered in the House of Commons this session on a proposed resolution by Dr. Cotnam as follows:

"That, in the opinion of this House, the time has come when the Government should take immediate action with a view to the nationalization of the supply of radium."

A proposal for placing an embargo or exportation duty on pulpwood will be discussed in the House of Commons this session. The debate will be initiated by George Parent (Lib., Quebec West) who has prepared a proposed resolution asking the Commons to go on record that "the time has come for Canada to impose an embargo or exportation duty on pulpwood coupled with such legislation if necessary, as would assure settlers a fair remuneration for the wood taken from their lands."

GOV'T IS ASKED FOR ACCOUNTING OF SHOOTINGS BY U. S. DRY AGENTS

S. C. Robinson Enquires as to What Steps Have Been Taken in Prevention.

HOW MANY U. S. APOLOGIES.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 21 (C.P.) — Particulars on the "shooting and murdering by American enforcement officers of Canadian citizens" along the border, Canadian prisoners taken by United States prohibition agents, liquor seizures, illegal and otherwise, by American officers; protests made by Canada in these matters, and apologies received from the United States are being requested from the Government.

In a series of interesting questions placed on the Order Paper of the House of Commons, S. C. Robinson (Cons., Essex West) asks for:

Total number of seizures of Canadian craft by United States prohibition agents, from January 1, 1922, to December 31, 1929.

Total number of seizures that turned out to be illegal.

Total number of Canadian lives lost through the indiscriminate shooting.

Total number of Canadian boats, large and small craft, destroyed through shooting by American enforcement officers.

Total number of cases in which protests have been made to the United States Government.

How Many Apologies?

Total number of apologies received from the United States.

What progress has been made with the cases yet unsettled.

What steps, if any, the Government has taken to put a stop to the shooting and murdering by American enforcement officers of Canadian citizens.

Total number of Canadians killed by United States prohibition agents in 1929.

Total number of Canadian prisoners taken by United States prohibition agents in 1929.

Norwegian Fliers Discover New Land

OSLO, Norway, February 21 (Canadian Press). — A wireless message from the Norwegian exploration ship Norwegia, now in the Antarctic, to-day said the expedition on Monday located new land between Enderby Land and Cortes Land, on the northern fringe of Antarctica.

The two airmen, Captain Hjalmar Riiser-Larsen and Captain Luetzow Holm, made a successful flight from the ship over the hitherto undiscovered territory and mapped about 115 miles.

The north-western point of the new laid was said to be situated at 71.26 south 11.31 west.

PATROL SHOOTING CANADIAN SIDE

All Witnesses Claim Laframboise Hit While on Dominion Territory.

U. S. OFFICERS USE ISLAND.

WINDSOR, Ont., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—Investigation into the shooting of Arthur "Muskatt" Laframboise, Sandwich West, by United States' border patrol officers, Feb. 3, was completed yesterday by the taking of a sworn statement from Laframboise and three witnesses of the shooting.

Lloyd Willson, justice of the peace, who took the sworn statement, said he believed, from evidence, the shooting took place on the Canadian side and that United States' patrol officers have been using Fighting Island, situated well within Canadian territory, as an ambush for rum-runners.

NURSE ENDS SEVERE COLD BY METHOD POPULAR HERE

Home Use of Pleasant Hospital Method Helps Many Here End Head Cold, Cough, Chest Cold

Peterborough people no longer feel miserable and needlessly risk pneumonia by neglecting colds. For hospital doctors have made it tempting to end colds promptly at home by a quick method used to help reduce fever, remove congestion, and clear out the cold.

Miss Alice Ryan, hospital nurse, contracted a severe head and chest cold. Examination by the doctor showed a pulse of 86, respiration 20, and temperature 100°.

Within a short while after the doctor gave her double strength doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral she was surprised to find how quickly the cold started to clear up. That night she slept comfortably and woke up feeling greatly relieved. When she returned for medical examination the next day, her temperature, pulse and respiration were normal again and Cherry Pectoral had cleared up the cold completly.

Cases reported daily in this paper by the attending physician show that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is ideal for adults and children. It is peasant, quick and positive in action—featured by A. G. Harris, all Peterborough druggists.

BUDGET ADDRESS PROBABLY GIVEN ON NEXT TUESDAY

Simpson Demands Farmers Be Given More Consideration—Taxes Too Heavy.

SHORTEN HYDRO CONTRACT.

Progresives Will Vote Against Gov't Bill to Increase Bonus on Iron Ore Industry.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21. (Canadian Press)—The budget address of Hon. Dr. J. D. Monteith, provincial treasurer, will be delivered probably next Tuesday, Premier G. H. Ferguson announced last night at the close of the day's sittings of the Legislature.

Ten Members took part yesterday in the resumed debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. Many of them made their maiden efforts in the House.

Dr. L. J. Simpson, Liberal, Simcoe centre, was another new member who made his maiden speech yesterday. Due to the heavy taxes imposed upon him, the agriculturists yesterday found it practically impossible to eke out an existence he said. As the basic industry, he believed agriculture was entitled to more consideration than it was receiving from the Government.

School Board Bill Opposed

Rural Ontario, he continued, was opposed to the Township School Board Bill which has been introduced twice by the Premier and withdrawn each time. He believed that members representing cities should refrain from giving opinions about it. "Because they know absolutely nothing."

The cost of Provincial highways was becoming almost over-bearing to municipalities, he said. For instance, in the county of Simcoe there was 131 miles of highways, 20 per cent of the cost of which had been borne by the municipality. The Member believed that the municipalities should be relieved of this charge.

"If something cannot be done to relieve them, the farmers of Ontario will be forced to abandon their farms and that will be followed by chaos" said Dr. Simpson.

J. Murphy, former Assistant Crown Attorney for Toronto, and member for Toronto St. Patrick's, said that as a former Crown official he was in a position to say that the proper charges had been laid against the 13 Toronto brokers arrested for conspiracy to defraud.

INGRAM TRIAL STARTS MARCH 4

Mr. Justice Logie Will Hear Charge of Manslaughter Against Fred Ingram.

SEVERAL OTHER CASES.

BELLEVILLE, February 21. — The Spring Assizes of the Supreme Court will open in this city on March 4, with Mr. Justice Logie presiding.

A charge of manslaughter has been preferred against Fred Ingram of Campbellford, now playing with the Stirling Hockey Club in the Trent Valley League. While travelling to his home last fall, accompanied by his brother Harry and the Misses Nadoo, of Campbellford, his car is alleged to have struck a horse and buggy owned by Albert Terne of Corbyville. Mr. Terne received a fractured skull from which he succumbed. Walter Lasher and Fred Brunner, convicted in the Toronto courts of obtaining moneys by fraud and conspiracy, will appear before Justice Logie for similar offenses allegedly committed in this district. William J. Shea, of Pembroke, is charged with a serious offense against a young girl. A suit for ten thousand dollars damages will be heard, preferred by Percy McTaggart of this city against A. T. McMullen of of Niagara Falls, resulting from an automobile accident near Holloway last September. Mr. McTaggart's baby was seriously injured and the car wrecked.

There are about 60,000 men in the army of Mexico at the present time.

SCHOOL AWARDS PRESENTED AT COMMENCEMENT

High School Pupils Present Pleasing Playlet to Capacity Audience.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM.

Harry Richardson and Jean Cameron Awarded I.O.D.E. Scholarships.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 21 (Examiner Staff Correspondence).—The first part of the Campbellford High School Commencement exercises were held in the school auditorium last evening, when a delightful musical comedy in three acts, entitled "The Wishing Well," was staged by pupils of the High School, and awards and scholarships presented.

The comedy, which had for its setting Irish rural life, kept the interest of the audience from start to finish. Plot and counter-plot were in order, the heavier portions of the play being relieved with Irish wit and humor. The cast was well drilled and portrayed their different characters in a very able and delightful manner. The music, which was under the direction of Albert Hazel, was a feature in itself. The dainty dances of the fairies, the tuneful support of the chorus, delightful duets and well-rendered solos added to the charm of a high class production.

The costumes were typical of Irish country life, and the scenic effect was par-excellence.

Much credit is due to F. H. Greig, Principal, and to the teaching staff of the High School, for their untiring efforts in training the cast. "The Wishing Well" was a production worthy of professional talent.

The scene of the play is the Rose Gorden of Fall's Park Manor, Dublin County, Ireland.

"BORGIA" KILLER IN POLICE NET

Confesses to Poisoning Eight Men in Various Parts of the World.

ALL INSIDE 4 YEARS.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—James Baker, 25, a former employee of the Guggenheim laboratory, New York, was being held here today for New York police after he was said to have confessed the killing of eight men in the past four years.

Baker's eight victims were dispatched by the methods of the borgias—poison, and their homes were widely scattered about the world: Bombay, Hamburg, New York, Houston, the Phillippines, and aboard a ship en route to South America, according to the confession said to have been obtained by Detroit police.

Baker was arrested last night on a farm three miles west of Farmingbomn, a suburb. He had been working on the farm since last summer and was arrested when police learned that he was wanted in New York. Taken to police headquarters Baker made his confession to John D. Watts, assistant prosecuting attorney.

LEIGH MILLER FLASHES ACROSS LINE IN 60-METRE SPRINT TO BEAT GEORGE SIMPSON BY YARD

Officials Will Start Move to Make Canuck's Phenomenal Mark Stand as World Record.

METRIC SYSTEM IN USE.

Woman Speed Marvel From Cleveland Wins Against All Comers.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21 (C.P.) .. Leigh Miller, diminutive blond sprinter of Hamilton, Ont., to-day makes his bow as one of the world's greatest sprinters, and probably a new world's title holder. Last night, Miller flashed across the finish line of the 60-metre dash in the Canadian Indoor Track Championships in the sensational time of 6 8-10 seconds, defeating George Simpson, Ohio State University, who heretofore had been proclaimed the world's fastest human.

Whether Miller's phenomenal mark will stand as a world one is a moot question to-day. Records show that Karl Wildermuth of Georgetown University, on Jan. 4 last, established an indoor record of 7 2-10 seconds for the same distance. Wildermuth used starting blocks, and was running on a board track in accordance with American Amateur Union regulations. Miller ran on a clay track, slightly sprinkled with tanbark, and did not use the starting blocks.

New System Used

Considerable confusion prevailed following Miller's performance, as officials scurried hither and thither in an effort to check up on the world's record time. For the first time in history, at least so far as Canada is concerned, the metric measurement system was used, instead of the more familiar yards, and it left everybody at sea. In addition, tenth-second watches were used for the first time. According to officials of the Canadian A.A.U., application for acceptanec of Miller's time as a Canadian record is probable.

Wildermuth's time for the distance was beaten or equalled many times. Eight heats were run before the semi-finals of the event were reached, and in four of these 7 1-0 were registered. Johnny Fitzpatrick, Toronto, ran it in 6 9-10 in one of the semi-finals, and George Simpson made it in 6 9-10 in another of the semi-final events. When the qualifiers were to the start for the final, Fitzpatrick, L. Plummer, Toronto; Miller, Dud Powell, Toronto; Simpson and W. Robinson of Hamilton, lined up. They got away to a beautiful start, and miller went in a slight lead. All six matched stride for stride, but Miller went out in front ten yards from the finish, and ended the race a full stride in front. He was in command all the way, and ran a beautiful race.

Woman Speed Marvel

The second sensation of the evening was the startling performance of Stella Walsh, Cleveland, Ohio, sometimes known as "20th Century Limited." Miss Walsh walked away with the 60 metre women's event in 7 5-10 seconds, and wasn't overworked doing it, even though she did have the fastest Canadian girls competing against her. Myrtle Cook McGowan, Canadian champion, ran second and Florence Bell, Toronto third. Probably ninety percent of the crowd attended the meet to watch the Cleveland girl perform, and her victory was a popular one. At the recent meet in New York, she showed her heels to the Canadian girls, and the latter had vowed vengeance. They never had a chance last night. Miss Walsh went through her trial heat and semi-final without any great difficulty, and won by a yard in the final.

Outclasses large Field

Dr. Paul Martin, Swiss champion, also lived up to advance notices by winning the 1,000 metre run, completly outclassing a large field and being never seriously threatened. Martin took the lead at the start, and from then on it was only a question of how far. He finished nearly a lap ahead of P. Suttle, of Toronto, and W. Johnston, St. Cath-

Liquorified Water Stirs Up St. Kitts

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)— Action of United States' customs officers in dumping seized liquor in the Niagara river has roused the indignation of a section of the citzens residing on Niagara-on-the-Lake. They charge the customs officers poured 10,000 gallons of contraband liquor into the river one day near the spot where the town's water supply is secured. Some of the citizens dislike drinking the water on this account although it passed through an efficient filtration plant.

Then, again, rumors, which lack confirmation, are to the effect a certain section of the population objects to this efficiency in the filtration plant.

"INKY, DINKY—"

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20.—If singing has anything to do wit hfighting, Mexico's army will be a world-beater one of these days. For the war department has made an appropriation in its budget to pay teachers for instructing the soldiers in singing. Music helps the soldiers in their work, the minister of war says.

STIFF SENTENCES GIVEN TWO THUGS

Beating and Robbing of Taxi Man Results in Ten and Five Years Respectively, With Lashes.

TWO GIRLS GET 6 MONTHS.

SIMCOE, ONT., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—Ten years in the penitentiary with ten lashes and five years with ten lashes were the sentences handed down this morning in the Simcoe Magistrate's Court against George Crandall and John Bruner, respectively, both of Windsor. Crandall and Bruner pleaded guilty to the charge of robbery with violence. Their two girl companions, Margaret Kerr, alias Sherwood, and Clara Gerard, charged with vagrancy, were sentenced to six months in the Mercer reformatory.

The drastic sentences came as a sequel to the hold up and assault, a week ago, or Norman Small, taxi driver of St. Thomas. The crime was committed near Tillsonburg, when Crandall and Bruner are alleged to have beaten Small over the head with a hammer handle, stolen his car and his money and made a short-lived getaway. They were arrested in Cayuga. Both men have lengthy records.

Ernest Haley Wanted By Boston Lawyer

Another lost heir is supposed to be in the district about Peterborough. Ernest Haley is the name of this man for whom a fortune awaits in Boston, Mass. Chester J. O'Brien, lawyer, writes the local police from that city enlisting their aid in locating the missing heir.

Ernest Haley is about fifty years of age, son of John Haley and Bridget Rouke, and his family originally came from Sussex, New Brunswick. How much money awaits him is not stated.

GREAT OVATION TENDERED NEW LADY SENATOR

Honorable Cairine Mackey Wilson, Setting Precedent, Takes Oath of Office.

HALF HOUR RECEPTION.

Senators Forget Dignity of Occasion to Applaud New Member.

(Written for the Canadian Press by Isabel C. Armstrong.)

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 21.—For once, the opening of Parliament with its dignity, beauty and impressiveness was rivalled in interest yesterday by the aftermath, the formal sitting of the Senate, perfunctory as a rule to the point of boredom. The interest of guests, from all the Dominion, was focused upon a history-making incident, the introduction and swearing in of Canada's first woman Senator, the Honorable Cairine Mackey Wilson.

While fewer Privy Councillors and other representatives of officialdom in gold-laced and be-decorated uniforms were in evidence than last year, not for many a day has the fashion display been so intriguing in its richness, colorfulness and variety.

Long Skirt Returns

Gone was the uniformity of the war periods and after. The long skirt was triumphantly back, touching all around, dipping to the ground in the back and up a few inches at the front and sides, flaring, panelled and frequently boasting a train.

Green was the choice of Her Excellency, Lady Willingdon, a regal robe of almond green crepe opening over an underdress of rich brocade in green, peach color, and gold. The court train was of the brocade, lined with green, and banded with green, gold and silver. A colorful touch was added by the ribbons of her decorations. A diamond tiara gleamed in her hair, and she wore diamond and pearl ornaments.

Following the withdrawal of Their Excellencies and the usual formalities of constituting a sitting of the Senate, interest and enthusiasm were keyed to a high pitch when the notice was read from the Department of the Secretary of State of the appointment of Hon. Cairine Wilson to the Senate. The dignity of the occasion was forgotten, and applause greeted her appearance, escorted by the leader of the Government in the Senate, Hon. Senator Raul Dandurand and Rt. Hon. George P. Graham.

Senator Cheers.

She had donned a most becoming afternoon frock of deep poudre blue

Beauty of line and mechanical excellence

BEAUTY has been built into the graceful flowing lines of the new Ford and there is an appealing charm in its fresh and varied harmony of color. Yet more distinctive even than this beauty of line and color is its alert and sprightly performance.

As days go by you will find that it becomes more and more your favorite car to drive—so responsive, so easy to handle, so safe and comfortable that it puts a new joy in motoring.

The city dweller — the farmer — the industrial worker — the owner of the spacious two-car garage in the suburbs — to all of these it brings a new measure of reliable, economical service.

Craftsmanship has been put into mass production. Today, more than ever, the new Ford is "a value far above the price."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Possibilities of wheat at less than $1 a bushel in the United States this season found expression among Chicago wheat traders yesterday. With the market here overwhelmed by stop-loss selling and showing about 12½c a bushel drop since last week as a result of severe curtailment of transatlantic buying, comparisons were circulated showing that Liverpool wheat prices were almost the same as on May 31, 1929, and that Chicago May delivery of wheat sold then at 93¼c. Yesterday was the fourth consecutive day that wheat values here collapsed.

Indications of crop damage in connection with present unseasonable weather led to sharp rallies of wheat prices yesterday, but the close here was nervous, 1c to 2c a bushel lower than Wednesday's finish. Corn closed unchanged to ¾c higher, with oats varying from ⅛c decline to ⅜c to ½c advance, and provisions unchanged to 20c down.

It was pointed out by one of the foremost commission houses in Chicago that Liverpool March wheat was quoted at $1.11 a bushel and May $1.16, and that on the last day of May in 1929 Liverpool May was quoted around $1.11, with Chicago selling about 17c a bushel lower.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, Feb. 21. — The local butter market continued to exhibit a softer tone yesterday, but little trading took place. Sales were confined to odd lots at from 35c to 35½c, with the bulk of the trading at the higher level. The prices of 38c for prints and 39c for solids remained the retail quotations.

The egg market continued a very active affair, with the price trend continuing to exhibit a lower tendency, although no prices were announced. Cheese, however, was extremely quiet, prices holding at 19c for Easterns and 19 to 19½c for Westerns, current receipts.

The potato market held steady at from $1.70 to $1.75, the higher price being quoted for the majority of the New Brunswick Green Mountains. The local demand for all lines of dressed poultry continued strong.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, Feb. 21. — Nearly all wholesalers on the Toronto market reduced their prices for eggs yesterday to country shippers, ungraded, cases returned, and the quotations were 41c to 42c for extras, 38c to 39c for firsts, 31c to 32c for seconds, and 35c to 36c for pullet extras. The prices to retailers also showed a change, and fresh extras in cartons quoted at 53c; extras, loose, 50c; firsts, loose, 48c; seconds, loose, 42c; and pullet extras, 45c. The American market held firm yesterday at 28½c to 29c, and it is expected to remain firm for a few days anyway. But, with warmer weather, an easier market can be looked for, both in the States and in Toronto.

Poultry quotations are changed again but mostly according to weight. Chickens are now being quoted over 5 lbs. for top, and fatted hens over 6 lbs. for top. There is an increase of 1c per lb. in some grades.

The butter market remains dull. The wholesalers are not buying at all, and there is no immediate prospect of them becoming interested in supplies. As repeatedly mentioned, "they are stocked up." A still poorer market is looked for around the first of next month, but the S.S. Surrey, that was due to arrive at Halifax at the end of the month with 106,000 boxes of New Zealand butter—6,936,000 pounds—has been delayed, and will not arrive until March 11.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Feb. 21.—Down again went wheat prices yesterday, recording drops of 2¼c to 2⅝c, after struggling upward for two breaks. Values fell hard at the opening, and again an hour later, but both recessions were almost wiped out by subsequent rises. Pit trade was fairly active, but not unusually so.

May slipped back again to the low point for the season set Wednesday at $1.14, but finished ¾c better and ¾c down for the day. Both July and October were 2⅝c below Wednesday's close, the former at $1.16 to $1.16¼, and the latter at $1.18⅝.

Improvement in European demand is evidenced by market developments, despite advice to the contrary from cable sources. New York's interest in durums has been good during the past two days, and Liverpool, despite Wednesday's Winnipeg break, shows signs of firming. Overnight purchases of Manitobas were cabled and exporters reported appreciable morning business.

Cash wheat trade was light, with some activity reported in durums, but little business in hard spring wheat. Fair domestic trade in oats and barley was reported done in the East.

CALCUTTA, Feb. 21.—There has trickled in from the jungles a strange tale of a native Indian slaying a huge tiger with nothing but a club for a weapon. Coming upon a sleeping tiger, he wakened it with stones. The beast rushed, but the Indian stepped quickly aside and hit the beast over the head with a heavy club. He continued this for about 20 minutes until he finally killed the tiger.

Why Fellows' Syrup?

At some time or other, one does feel a bit "run-down," worried and nervous about "almost nothing," with a tendency to colds, bronchial troubles, and anemia.

These conditions, while not serious in themselves, can become so if you do not take steps to overcome them.

Fellows' Syrup is recommended for just such conditions, and also when recovering from serious illnesses.

It is neither new nor untried, but 60 years old, and prescribed by doctors all over the civilized world.

Fellows' Laxative Tablets are specially prepared for the rational treatment of, and ultimate recovery from constipation.

WHEAT HOLDERS SEE RAY OF HOPE

Values Drop Another Two Cents But Export Demand Shows Improvement.

DOWN 13 CENTS IN WEEK.

WINNIPEG, Man., Feb. 21 (Canadian Press).—Worried grain holders sighted a gleam of hope yesterday through the lowering clouds of the market situation. Values dropped more than two cents per bushel, setting up a new set of low closing figures for the season, but improved export demand gave promise of a possible termination to continued price recession.

Cables telling of substantial purchases of Manitoba overnight blended with reports of appreciable morning export business to effect a generally brighter outlook for the "long" holder. Besides, Liverpool only partially reflected the drastic break in prices Wednesday on the Winnipeg Exchange, and observers believed that a firmer tendency was developing.

At the close yesterday, prices were some 13 cents below the levels occupied a week ago, and as much as 20 cents under the per bushel marks a

AN EDUCATIONAL PILGRIMAGE.

The pilgrimage of the members of the Trinity Church choir and a number of friends—the whole party totalling about sixty persons—to Toronto to-day for the purpose of hearing the far-famed Mendelssohn Choir is a somewhat unusual event, but one that should be memorable, not only as a pleasurable experience, but from the educational value of listening to the singing of such a remarkable organization as the Mendelssohn Choir, which is rightly included among the world's greatest choral ensembles.

Those responsible for the visit in a body of Trinity choir to this outstanding Toronto musical event deserve commendation for their enterprise.

Opportunities to hear music as presented by Dr. Fricker's great choir come all too rarely, and choir organizations in the smaller centres do well to avail themselves of what chances are offered to learn what can be done in choral work.

In fact, the example set by the Trinity choir might profitably be followed by other church ensembles, who would find a visit to Toronto for the annual Mendelssohn concert not only a source of enjoyment but an event of real educational value as well.

THE SALE OF NATIVE WINE.

A delegation of Ontario grape-growers waited upon Premier Ferguson on Wednesday to protest against any changes in the Liquor Control Act concerning the manufacture and sale of native wine.

The deputation informed the Premier that if it were made necessary to have permits to buy wine the small wine stores and the small manufacturer would be driven out of business.

It is difficult to see how the manufacturer would be seriously affected by the proposed change, but in any event the Government should follow the policy of the greatest good to the greatest number and proceed to put the sale of native wine under proper control.

Even under the Ontario Temperance Act, the legalized sale of wine with a 30 per cent. kick to it made somewhat of a travesty of the prohibition regulations, and to continue to allow anybody who wants to buy three or more bottles of this powerful beverage to purchase from a winery or wineshop without a permit will make a similar travesty of the control feature of the present system, particularly as a permit is required if the same wine is purchased from a Government vendor.

The situation calls for readjustment, and regardless of the protests of the grape-growers, the Government should see to it that the law is changed and the sale of wine permitted only under a permit system.

KEEP THEM TIED UP.

Local dog owners should understand that the order from the Dominion authorities in regard to the tieing up of all dogs in this district must be strictly obeyed.

As The Examiner pointed out the other day, an outbreak of rabies is nothing to be trifled with, and the local appearance of the disease calls for rigid precautions if human life is not to be endangered.

The present order is not to be mistaken for the ordinary regulation prohibiting dogs to run at large during a portion of the year, a by-law primarily designed to protect gardens and lawns from damage from wandering canines.

The tieing up of dogs is insisted upon as a safeguard for the people of this city, just as would be strict quarantine measures in the event of an outbreak of smallpox.

It is known that at least one dog in Peterborough has had rabies—how many more have been infected it is impossible to guess, but so long as dogs are "on the loose" it is obvious that the circle of infection and consequently the danger of human beings being victims of the outbreak are enlarged.

The only sure policy is to keep all dogs tied up—and to put an end to those which are allowed to run at large in defiance to the drastic order just issued.

THE SPEECH FROM THE THRONE.

Although the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the Dominion Parliament yesterday followed the modern trend, inasmuch as it concerned itself more closely with what has happened than with what may be expected to happen during the coming session, it contained enough mention of legislation to be introduced to justify the prediction that this should be an interesting and busy session.

Most important from a general viewpoint was the announcement that Parliament "will be invited to make more adequate provision for the needs of the veterans of the Great War and their dependents."

No details, of course, were given as to the nature of the amendments to be introduced, but the prominence given the matter in the Speech will be gratifying to Canada's ex-service men and to all Canadians who have been fighting for a new deal for war veterans.

The Speech calls attention to the fact that the reports of the commissions on radio broadcasting and the classification and remuneration of technical officials of the Civil Service will be before the House for consideration, and while there is no mention of legislation as a result of these reports, it may be taken for granted that the reports themseves will be followed by action along the lines suggested.

Other measures referred to but with no intimation of the trend they will take are amendments to the Elections Act, the Bankruptcy Act, the Companies Act and the Criminal Code.

Altogether the session promises to produce an interesting menu for the benefit of the members and the country at large.

LEAVE THAT OLD SHIRT ALONE.

The editor of the Port Rowan News says the well-starched shirt is trying to shove its way to the front again. He claims that years ago a certain kind of potato was used in making the starch for shirts, and that in Prince Edward Island they still wear starched shirts and use the same old brand of potatoes to aid in making the starch. The moral is that there has been but one divorce in that little island since the signing of Confederation, hence the Port Rowan claim that there must be something in the starched shirt that gives permanency to affection and sound anchorage to marital relationship.

But bringing back the old starched shirt would be an awful price for even so great a thing as the curtailment of divorce figures. When a man got one of those starched things skewered to the front of his frame he was in misery. He used to use a jack-knife or a crochet hook to pry open the button holes; those little openings were jam full of starch, and by the time he got the thing buttoned there were finger marks all over it.

Then it drove the collar right up bang under his chin. When he bent the shirt bulged. With joy he saw the shades of the Sabbath day lengthen into night, and the time of release was at hand.

That Port Rowan man should talk of other things. Let him speak of fish and the spring run of suckers; urge upon him to discuss the perversity of international complications, or the folly of trusting the trader who comes to the door. But let the starched shirt rest in peace. Now that the ladies have taken to resurrecting long skirts and corsets there's no saying what might happen if some person started a drive for the re-appearance of the stiff shirt.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

PULLING DOWN PRISONS.

(Detroit Free Press)

The number of prisons in England has been cut in half since the beginning of the century. Since 1911, twenty-seven English prisons have been abolished. "We are able to pull down the prisons partly because we have fewer wrongdoers," says the Home Secretary "and partly because we keep the people out of such places unless it is absolutely necessary." A few months ago it was reported that the convict population of the Irish Free State had declined almost 50 per cent. since the war. There, too, they are pulling down prisons.

While this has been going on in the British Isles, American prisons have had to be multiplied to take care of a steadily increasing criminal population. Are we the only people in the world whose curve of crime must continue to rise, without anything being done about it? When murder menaces Italy the death penalty is restored. When the Michigan Legislature passes a capital punishment bill, a storm of protest is whipped up by sentimental and unreflecting citizens—and the Governor bows to it.

The vast size of this country and its sub-division into 48 States, with their different laws and different attitudes toward law enforcement, allow many criminals to slip through the law's fingers, who would get short shrift in Great Britain; but that is merely a contributory cause of the lawlessness in our midst, which could be removed if, as a nation, Americans were imbued with reverence for the law and determined to enforce it.

What a commentary on the promise that prohibition would empty our jails, that England and Ireland are pulling down their prisons while we, after ten years of prohibition, are unable to build prisons fast enough to keep up with the rising tide of crime; that not a single murder or other serious offense was committed in 1929 in "wet" Windsor, across the river from "dry" Detroit!

PRESERVING THE COUNTRYSIDE.

Since the advent of the automobile, city people have got to know the beauties of the rural parts as they have never done before, but when the crowds are brought to the country the countryside, unhappily, suffers. Then come the debris of picnic parties, the "improvement" of roads which are bitten into by huge steam shovels, trees are cut down, and, in England at any rate, hedges destroyed, in order to straighten out a curve. Then, too, come the vandals who tear up wild flowers by the very roots, thus destroying them forever, although conscious of the fact that they will wither and die within forty-eight hours.

There has been presented in the British Parliament a "Rural Amenities Bill," for the purpose of preserving the sylvan character of the English countryside. To lend moral support to that Bill in the House, a great conference of rural authorities was held and the following objectives were named:

To preserve the beauty of the contours and colors of the landscape.

To prevent eyesores, by exercising control over the design, color and grouping of buildings along the roads.

To provide for space for parallel roadways separated from one another by a wide grass verge and footway.

To forbid boardings, except in specially approved places.

To secure such treatment of new roads as will make them as beautiful as they are convenient.

Ontario is promoting an organization to beautify the highways with trees. That is something, but Ontario also needs to act along the lines of the English scheme. St. Thomas Times-Journal.

CANADA IS SOUND!

The Toronto Telegram takes an entirely sensible view of Canada's condition and progress, when it says:

"The future is never so dark as it looks in moments of temporary depression. Hon. Charles Dunning has returned from the West and is broadcasting the glad tidings that all is well on the prairies. And more satisfying still is President E. W. Beatty's announcement that the C. P. R. will spend $50,000,000 on branch lines and improvements during the coming year.

"Canada's program may be slowed up by market crashes and wheat tie-ups, but it cannot be halted.

"The twentieth century is Canada's. Occasionally her people in their enthusiasm go a bit too fast. Then they must slow down to catch their breath. That's what is happening at the present time."

There is no denying the fact that the happenings of the last few months in the stock market have had a definite effect on general business in this country, as well as in the United States. In many ways, such a reflection is not sound, for, after all, only a decidedly minor percentage of our population was directly affected by the stock market depression. It is surprising, however, how a feeling of this kind spreads. Some persons are even using purely fictitious stock market losses as an excuse for not meeting their obligations. It is quite amusing to meet some chap who never risked more than $30.40 on the stock market in his life, lamenting the fact that he has been "bumped" in Wall Street and is therefore up against it!

However, the stock market is showing signs of recovery, and with other lines of business picking up and spring just around the corner, Canada is due to hit her old stride once more. This country is so fundamentally sound that even stock exchange crashes and a small wheat crop cannot long interfere with its progress.—Border Cities Star.

COUNCIL MEETS

Chandos Municipal Council Approves $2,800 Road Expenditure By-law.

APSLEY, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The Chandos Municipal Council held their regular meeting on Saturday, February 15, with all members present. In addition to the ordinary routine business, it was decided to do away with Statute Labor, which will in future be commuted at $1.25 a day. A by-law to provide for the spending of $2,800 on the township roads was passed. The following road overseers were appointed: Lloyd Young, George Johnston, Russell Campbell, Amos Forbes, Irvin Hilker, George Weese, Harley Woodbeck and Harry Wilson.

The frame house occupied by Frank Carl and his wife and seven small children, at Owenbrook, was destroyed on Sunday morning, due to overheated stove pipes. Most of the contents of the house were saved. The family is now occupying a tiny little house near the Long Swamp, formerly occupied by William Wease.

Robert Peters of Clanricade had the misfortune to crush his foot severely between two logs while skidding. Although no bones are apparently broken, Peters will be unable to work for some time.

What To-day Means To You

WHAT TODAY MEANS TO YOU
"Pisces"

If February 21 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10.30 a.m. to 11.30 a.m., and from 5 p.m. to 6.30 p.m. The danger periods are from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m., and from 11 p.m. to midnight.

Astrologically, this is not indicated to be an important date. There will be uncertainty of purpose, and little accomplished. Business difficulties may crop up, about which there is no need to worry.

Children born on this February 21st will display violent fits of passion and will have to be taught self-control. They will be easily influenced and their companions should be chosen with care. They will become ready talkers.

You have an irresistible personality, a great sense of humor, indomitable pluck, abundant energy, and are very human. You spend very little time worrying about other people. If the world were a hive, and its people bees, you would be one of the worker-bees. It may be said that you are always busy, at least your mind during your walking hours is never idle, one can never accuse you of "just sitting." You are a tiger for work, and although you are sympathetic by nature, you have little patience with human drones.

You can see the funny side in most things, and most people, including yourself. You have a hearty laugh, the real thing, not a stage imitation. You are usually charming to everybody, and you are extremely charitable about other people. You are straight as a die, and simple in the best sense of the word.

You look others straight in the face and others know straightway that you can be trusted. You are both respected and loved, and you will always be surrounded by friends. You are a positive person, and a clever person. There is nothing sanctimonious about you or a holier-than-thou manner. In every sense of the word you are a most decent citizen of your country.

THE GREENE MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE

"We're not going to lie to you, Miss Greene," he said softly. "You have guessed the truth."

"And what about Rex—and Sibella?"

"They're all right," Vance assured her. "But why did you think your brother had met the same fate as Miss Julia and yourself?"

She turned her gaze slowly to him.

"I don't know—I just felt it. Ever since I was a little girl I've imagined horrible things happening in this house. And the other night I felt that the time had come—oh, I don't know how to explain it; but it was like having something happen that you'd been expecting."

Vance nodded understandingly.

"It's an unhealthy old house; it puts all sorts of weird notions in one's head. But, of course," he added lightly, "there's nothing supernatural about it. It's only a coincidence that you should have felt that way and that these disasters should actually have occurred. The police, y' know, think it was a burglar."

The girl did not answer, and Markham leaned forward with a reassuring smile.

"And we are going to have two men guarding the house all the time from now on," he said, "so that no one can get in who hasn't a perfect right to be here."

"So you see, Ada," put in Von Blon, "you have nothing to worry about any more. All you have to do now is to get well."

But her eyes did not leave Markham's face.

"How do you know," she asked, in a tense anxious voice, "that the—the person came in from the outside?"

"We found his footprints both times on the front walk."

"Footprints—are you sure?" She put the question eagerly.

"No doubt about them. They were perfectly plain, and they belonged to the person who came here and tried to shoot you—Here, Sergeant"— he beckoned to Heath—"show the young lady that pattern."

Heath took the Manila envelope from his pocket and extracted the cardboard impression Snitkin had made. Ada took it in her hand and studied it, and a little sigh of relief parted her lips.

"And you notice," smiled Vance, "he didn't have very dainty feet."

The girl returned the pattern to the Sergeant. Her fear had left her, and her eyes cleared of the vision that had been haunting them.

"And now, Miss Greene," went on Vance, in a matter-of-fact voice, "we want to ask a few questions. First of all; the nurse said you went to sleep at nine o'clock last night. Is that correct?"

"I pretended to, because nurse was tired and mother was complaining a lot. But I really didn't go to sleep until hours later."

"But you didn't hear the shot in your brother's room?"

"No. I must have been asleep by then."

"Did you hear anything before that?"

"Not after the family had gone to bed and Sproot had locked up."

"Were you awake very long after Sproot retired?"

The girl pondered a moment, frowning.

"Maybe an hour," she ventured finally. "But I don't know."

"It couldn't have been much over an hour," Vance pointed out; "for the shot was fired shortly after half past eleven—And you heard nothing—no sound of any kind in the hall?"

"Why, no." The look of fright was creeping back into her face. "Why do you ask?"

"Your brother Rex," explained Vance, "said he heard a faint shuffling sound and a door closing a little after eleven."

Her eyelids drooped, and her free hand tightened over the edge of the magazine she was holding.

"A door closing . . . ." She repeated the words in a voice scarcely audible. "Oh! And Rex heard it?" Suddenly she opened her eyes and her lips fell apart. A startled memory had taken possession of her—a memory which quickened her breathing and filled her with alarm. "I heard that door close, too I remember it now . . . ."

"What door was it?" asked Vance, with subdued animation. "Could you tell where the sound came from?"

The girl shook her head.

"No—it was so soft. I'd even forgotten it until now. But I heard it! . . . Oh, what did it mean?"

"Nothing probably," Vance assumed an air of inconsequentiality calculated to alleviate her fears. "The wind doubtless."

But when we left her, after a few more questions, I noticed that her face still held an expression of deep anxiety.

Vance was unusually thoughtful as we returned to the drawing-room.

"I'd give a good deal to know what that child knows or suspects," he murmured.

"She's been through a trying experience," returned Markham. "She's frightened, and she sees new dangers in everything. But she couldn't suspect anything, or she'd be only too eager to tell us."

"I wish I were sure of that."

The next hour or so was occupied with interrogating the two maids and the cook. Markham cross-examined them thoroughly not only concerning the immediate events touching upon the two tragedies, but in regard to the general conditions in the Greene household. Numerous family episodes in the past were gone over; and when his inquiries were finished he had obtained a fairly good idea of the domestic atmosphere. But nothing that could be even remotely connected with the murders came to light. There had always been, it transpired, an abundance of hatred and ill-feeling and vicious irritability in the Greene mansion. The story that was unfolded by the servants was not a pleasant one; it was a record—scrappy and desultory, but none the less appalling—of daily clashes, complainings, bitter words, sullen silences, jealousies and threats.

Most of the details of this unnatural situation were supplied by Hemming, the older maid. She was less ecstatic than during the first interview, although she interspersed her remarks with Biblical quotations and references to the dire fate which the Lord had seen fit to visit upon her sinful employers. Nevertheless, she painted an arresting, if overcolored and prejudiced, picture of the life that had gone on about her during the past ten years. But when it came to explaining the methods employed by the Almighty in visiting his vengeance upon the unholy Greenes, she became indefinite and obscure. At length Markham let her go after she had assured him that she intended to remain at her post of duty-to be, as she expressed it, "a witness for the Lord" when his work of righteous devastation was complete.

Barton, the younger maid, on the other hand, announced, in no uncertain terms, that she was through with the Greenes forever. The girl was genuinely frightened, and, after Sibella and Sproot had been consulted, she was paid her wages and told she could pack her things. In less than half an hour she had turned in her key and departed with her luggage. Such information as she left behind her was largely a substantiation of Hemming's outpourings. She, though, did not regard the two murders as the acts of an outraged God. Hers was a more practical and mundane view.

"There's something awful funny going on here," she had said, forgetting for the moment the urge of her coquettish spirits. "The Greenes are queer people. And the servants are queer, too—what with Mr. Sproot reading books in foreign languages, and Hemming preaching about fire and brimstone, and cook going around in a sort of trance muttering to herself and never answering a civil question. And such a family!" She rolled her eyes. "Mrs. Greene hasn't got any heart. She's a regular old witch, and she looks at you sometimes as though she'd like to strangle you. If I was Miss Ada I'd have gone crazy long ago. But then, Miss Ada's no better than the rest. She acts nice and gentle-like, but I've seen her stamping up and down in her room looking like a very devil; and once she used language to me what was that bad I put my fingers in my ears. And Miss Sibella's a regular icicle—except when she gets mad, and then she'd kill you if she dared, and laugh about it. And there's been something funny about her and Mr. Chester. Ever since Miss Julia and Miss Ada were shot they've been talking to each other in the sneakiest way when they thought no one was looking. And this Doctor Von Blon what comes here so much: he's a deep one. He's been in Miss Sibella's' room with the door shut lots of times when she wasn't any more sick than you are. And Mr. Rex, now. He's a queer man, too. I get the creeps every time he comes near me." She shuddered by way of demonstration. "Miss Julia wasn't as queer as the rest. She just hated everybody and was mean."

Barton had rambled on loquaciously with all the thoughtless exaggeration of a gossip who felt herself outraged; and Markham had not interrupted her. He was trying to dredge up some nugget from the mass of her verbal silt; but when at last he sifted it all down there remained nothing but a few shining grains of scandal.

The cook was even less enlightening. Taciturn by nature, she became almost inarticulate when approached on the subject of the crime. Her stolid exterior seemed to cloak a sullen resentment at the fact that she should be questioned at all. In fact, as Markham patiently pressed his examination, the impression grew on me that her lack of responsiveness was deliberately defensive, as if she had steeled herself to reticency. Vance, too, sensed this attitude in her, for, during a pause in the interview, he moved his chair about until he faced her directly.

EFFICIENCY LEAGUE

Good Program Provided by Members at Regular Meeting of Havelock Society.

HAVELOCK, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The regular meeting of Havelock Efficiency League was held in the basement of the United church on Monday evening, February 17th, when a goodly number were present.

The meeting opened with singing hymn 778, which was followed by prayer led by Rev. Mr. Archer. Scripture readings were taken by Aileen Butters, Una Archer and Barbara Fennell. The president, Miss Roberts, presided. Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read.

Mr. Joseph Falkner in a short address expressed regret that owing to his having been very busy the week before St. Valentine's day, he had not been able to have a Valentine surprise for the members of the class as he intended to do.

Misses Barbara Fennell and Una Archer sang a duet entitled 'Dear to the Heart of the Shepherd' very sweetly, which was much appreciated. Mr. Coates took the topic for meeting the title of which was "Friendship." A humorous reading by Verna Johnston entitled "Getting Information From Pa" was much enjoyed. In response to a special request she also gave "Man and the Mule." A song by Winnifred Chiles "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard" was also enjoyed. This concluded the program and the contest "An Old Fashioned Dinner" was next on the list. This was won by Blues, Khaki, White and Red in order named.

OLD HOME WEEK EARLY IN AUGUST

Belleville Festival Days Will Not Conflict With Fall Fair.

BELLEVILLE, Feb. 21.—Five days, August 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th stand as the dates of the Belleville Old Home Week of 1930. This decision was reached after a thorough discussion last night by a very large meeting of citizens at the city hall at a meeting held to discuss this question which had arisen over the dates for the reunion which some had thought ought to be changed to coincide with the days of the fair.

It was made pretty clear that the reunion is not going to interfere in the way of securing a midway which would prevent a midway coming to the Belleville Fair less than four weeks later It was plainly stated that the midway people had declared that two midways would not show in Belleville within August as it would not be a paying proposition.

It was also decided to ask the city council for an initial grant to aid the reunion committee.

Reason For Meeting.

Magistrate Mikel, the chairman of the Old Home Week Committee, stated that the meeting was called for the purpose of settling the question which had arisen as to the advisability of changing the dates. He suggested that the citizens discuss the matter in a spirit of compromise or all undertakings would fall to the ground.

Question of Midway

Walter Turner of the entertainment committee of which Charles E. Hanan is the head at once launched into the question of the date from the standpoint of the fair which is to be held in the latter part of August. The whole question arose over the question of the midway. The early August date of the reunion as decided upon would conflict, in his opinion, with the races held in other parts of the province. As for one he did not want to see any conflict with the fair over a midway for if a midway came to the city to show during the reunion in early August there would be none here for the fair. This had been given to the committee by the midway people themselves.

Council meets

FOR NOT SAYING "FORE"

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.—William D. Tulley recently filed a damage suit for $10,000 against Hupp Tevis, Jr., for one of the most unusual reasons ever given in court. He said that he was injured on the left knee about two years ago at a golf club when a ball, driven by Tevis, struck him. He told the court he suffered a shock and a permanent injury to the knee.

BULL OPERATIONS FEATURE NEW YORK MARKET SESSION

Strength in High-grade Issues Based on Unconfirmed Buying Reports.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS.

By Stanley W. Prenosil (Associated Press Financial Editor.)

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 21.—Bulls and bears staged another tug-of-war with prices on the New York Stock Exchange to-day, with the former apparently gaining a slight advantage. The market opened irregularly higher, ran into a flurry of selling which wiped out many of the initial gains before the end of the first hour, rallied briskly around midday, and then backed and filled during the afternoon.

Trading showed a marked falling off in volume as operators were disinclined to make any extensive additions to their committments over the two day holiday. Strength of some of the high grade utilities was based on unconfirmed reports that brokers with important banking connections were heavy buyers in yesterday's reaction, one of the most drastic of the year.

Except for a further decline in the commodity price index, due largely to the recent sharp break in grain prices, there were few unfavorable developments in the day's news.

Call money renewed at 4 per cent and was in such plentiful supply that the rate was dropped to 3½ in the "outside market." The time money market was quiet with rates unchanged.

National Lead, directors of which declared an extra dividend of $3 yesterday, ran up nearly 9 points before the rally was checked by profit taking. J. I. Case, Brooklyn Union Gas, Eastman Kodak and Auburn Auto sold 4 to 5 points higher at one time.

Fresh selling came into some of the railroad shares as a result of the disappointing character of some of the recent earnings and traffic reports.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 21. (C.P.)—Foreign exchange steady; demand rates (Great Britain in dollars; others in cents): Great Britain 4.85 13-16; Canadian dollars ½ per cent discount.

TOURIST ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED IN LINDSAY

LINDSAY, February 21. — Intense interest was shown by Lindsay citizens at a public meeting held in the town hall the other evening, when the Lindsay, Victoria and Haliburton Tourist Association was reorganized to take in the two counties and go ahead as a unit for the district in developing tourist trade.

All the officers were elected with the exception of the president and secretary as follows: Honorary presidents, T. H. Stinson, K. C., M.P., William Newman, M.L.A., W. W. Staples, M.L.A. and B. L. McLean; Hon. Vice-Presidents, Mayor of Lindsay and Wardens of the two counties: 1st vice-president, W. J. Carlisle; 2nd vice-president, S. P. Beal; 3rd vice-president, W. E. Kelcher; treasurer, A. K. Gregory; chairmen of committees: Information, A. M. Fulton; publicity, Art Allan; finance, A. T. Claxton; motor camp, John McCrae; directors, the officers, committee chairmen, reeves of the municipalities and the presidents of the Lindsay Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

MANY QUERIES ON FRAUD ACT

Members of Opposition Ask Gov't to Produce Number of Brokers Suspended.

TOTAL OF FINES ASKED.

TORONTO, Ont., February 21 (Canadian Press). — Several questions concerning the administration of the Security Frauds Prevention Act have been placed on the order paper by members of the Opposition.

S. C. Tweed (Libral, North Waterloo) had asked the Government to produce the number of brokers suspended under the Act and to say when the first suspension took place. J. A. Sangster (Liberal, Glengarry) has asked the Government for the number of fines imposed under the Act; and C. A. Robertson (Liberal, North Huron) wanted to know the number of prosecutions of unregistered brokers. Dr. George McQuibbon (Liberal, South-East Wellington) has asked the Government to name the number of bonds supplied by brokers that have been forfeited to the Crown for offences under the Act and also the amount of money involved.

CHAUTEMPS FORMS GOV'T.

PARIS, Feb. 21 (C.P.)—Camille Chautemps, leader of the Radical Socialists, to-day definitely completed a Cabinet to succeed the defeated Tardieu Ministry, and this evening called upon President Doumergue and took charge of the affairs of France.

Liverpool Advances Strengthen Chicago

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 21. (C.P.)—Wheat prices here took a decided upward swing early to-day, influenced by a brisk unexpected jump on the quotations at Liverpool. It was asserted that European importers had accepted all available wheat tendered from this side of the Atlantic over night, but only after the Canadian growers' pool had completely withdrawn its export offers. Opening, 1 1-8 to 2¼ higher, Chicago wheat future deliveries afterward scored additional gains. Corn, oats and provisions rose also, with corn starting ½ to 1 cent up, and subsequently holding near the initial figures.

PIVOT STOCKS HOLD STEADY

Overnight Change on Wall Street Has Little Effect on Toronto Exchange.

SPOTTY AT FIRST.

TORONTO, Feb. 21. (C.P.)—Overnight change of sentiment in Wall Street had little effect on the Toronto Stock Exchange market other than to slow up trading and act as a check to liquidation. No attempt was made to reverse the trend and bring about a pronounced recovery, as happened in New York when the market got under way.

The Toronto Exchange market was spotty the first couple of hours of the session. Oils sagged again, and although losses were not severe still their action indicated that least resistance yet is to be found on the side of the decline. B.A. oil which, daily sinks to new low for the year, this morning sold under 36 to establish yet another new mark downward for 1930. Supertest again was being supported by the others in the group were down.

Such pivotal shares as international Nickel and Brazilian made a short recovery, Abitibi regained a point, Walkers lost only the amount it went ex-dividend this morning, Dominion Power held its 4 point gain and a few other stocks were unchanged.

Offsetting this side of the market, were losses in Canadian Dredge, which was down 2 to 31, Ford of Canada, at a new low of 29¼, Consolidate Bakeries at a new low of 21.

PREFERRED HOLDERS TURNING IN STOCK

Shareholders of Laura Secord Receiving $3 a Share on Common Stock.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21. (Special to Examiner.)— Contrary to reports, Laura Secord Candy Shops have not called the balance of the outstanding preferred shares. About a month ago the company called for redemption over 600 shares under the provisions of the sinking fund and after retirement this will leave slightly in excess of 200 shares in the hands of the public. While the company reserves the right to call the stock at 110 and accrued dividend the holder also has the privelege of conversing each share of preferred into three shares of common and it is anticipated the few shares of preferred remaining will be exchanged in order to receive the benefit of a higher income return. Dividends are being paid at the rate of $3 a year on the ordinary stock, or $9 on three shares, against the fixed rate of $7 on the senior security.

The first balance sheet of Moore Corporation is consolidated to include the assets and liabilities of American Sales Book, Pacific Burt and Gilman Fanfold but does not include the Canadian Sales Book and continuous form business required from the F. N. Burt Company after the close of the fiscal year. Fixed assets of the three companies are carried into assets at $4,490,616 the appraised sound values as of August 31, 1928, plus subsequent additions at cost and less reserve for depreciation. On the liability side the equity in the business represented by 105 preference shares and 51 common shares of the subsidiaries not exchanged by December 31, is shown at $12,812. The printed report is accompanied by a map giving the location of the various plants in operation in Canada and the United States from coast to coast.

DRIVERS' PERMITS WILL COST MORE

Two Changes in Method of Granting of Beginners' Permits This Year.

There are two changes in the method of granting beginners' permits to those who wish to take instructions in driving a car this year. In 1929 the license to learn to drive a car cost one dollar and was good for sixty days provided that the person holding the license drove the car when accompanied in the front seat by a competent driver. The beginners' permit was then sent back to Toronto in exchange for a driver's permit. Thus the total cost of securing the driver's permit was two dollars.

Under the new system the license to take instruction in driving costs the applicant fifty cents is procurable from the local license vendor. After the examination, which costs one dollar, has been passed, the driver's permit is secured from the license dealer at a cost of one dollar. The result is that it will cost new drivers fifty cents more than it did last year.

Wheat Prices Advance On Winnipeg Market

Winnipeg, Man., February 21. — (C.P.) — Pleasant surprise emerged to-day for a wheat market that has been rushing steadily downward for more than a week. Unexpected strength, in sympathy with Liverpool, sent quotations 3½ to 2½c upward though drastic breaks had the market trading yesterday.

July wheat showed the most pronounced advance, up 3½c at $1.19 3-8 to ½. May, which touched seasonal lows of $1.14 on the last two days, was 2¼c ahead at $1.17 5-8; October was 2½c up at $1.21 to $1.20 7-8.

NO CHANGE ON MINE MARKET

Weakness Attributed in Part to Softness on Some of Larger Exchanges.

SETBACKS IN LINDSLEY.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21. (C.P.)—Prices were again under fire on the Standard Stock Exchange during the early session to-day, weakness being attributed in most quarters to the softness of some of the larger markets. Base Metal stocks, due possibly to uncertainty surrounding base metal prices, were the hardest hit. Trading activity, however, showed little improvement.

The recessions sustained in the Lindsley group were the chief point of interest, the action of these issues indicating some substantial liquidation. Falconbridge, at $4.55, was off a quarter at noon, Sherritt-Gordon do 16 to $2.66, and Sudbury Basin and Ventures off 10 each to $3.60 and $2, respectively.

Noranda Active.

Noranda proved the most buoyant member of the higher-priced class, selling up 15 to $39.25. International Nickel was relatively firm, though a drop of 20 to $37.50 occurred, but Hudson Bay again fell back in the face of selling, showing a loss of 50 at $1.25.

The golds were the strongest group of the market, Kirkland Lake advances slightly while the big majority of these issues remained unchanged. Dome, Teck Hughes and Howey suffered slight recessions and Wright-Hargreaves appeared to be subjected to some pressure, selling off 7 at $1.86.

Price changes in the general list were comparatively unimportant, Amulet, Mining Corp., Barry and Abana easing a few points only. Central Manitoba softened to 10, but recovered to 13, off 2, while Newbec dropped 3 to 17 in light trading. Waite registered a small gain.

Alberta Pacific was the only firm member of the oil group, selling up 7 to $1.72. Home Oil eased another quarter and Ajax, Baltac, Dalhousie and East Crest were slightly lower.

BASKETBALL GAMES

Two basketball squads from the Peterborough Collegiate will invade Cobourg to-morrow afternoon and evening. In the evening the local boys' quintet will meet the Cobourg High School lads in the first of a home and home argument to decide the winner of the western section of the Central Ontario basketball group. The Petes have not dropped a game yet, having shoved Lindsay out of the running by taking three games straight.

The Cobourg squad has successfully nosed out Port Hope and Bowmanville from the lakeshore section of the group.

In the afternoon the girls' sextet from the local school will meet the Cobourg girls in an exhibition tilt.

Natives of New Guinea plait their hair to protect their heads from club blows.

LIFE INSURANCE MONEY SOLD FOR FUTURE DELIVERY

Gibbons, secretary of the association, was in charge of registration, and reported seventeen new members up to noon.

The visiting speakers were Mr. German and also Frank C. Hoy of the Canada Life Assurance Company of Toronto, and John I. Allen and F. L. Ray of Peterborough. Mr. Hoy's subject this morning was "Using Human Interest in Making the Sale," in which he outlined the human influences that actuate men in buying insurance, such as the love of family, the pride of maintaining a standard of living, the desire to have one's children well educated, the perpetuation of something which a man has built up in life, the desire to assist sons in business or otherwise. Mr. Hoy expanded his subject under the two headings of family and business needs.

John I. Allen's Subjects

Mr. Allen was allotted two subjects, "Some Thoughts on the Association," and "Industrial Insurance." The genesis of the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada was easily traced to its first stirring in Montreal in 1905, when a constitution was adopted and twenty-nine members enrolled. Toronto joined them in 1906, and at the same time the Canadian association came into being. The slogan was "To advance the best interest of true life insurance" and its motto is "Non solis nobis" ("not for ourselves alone"). Every life underwriter should be vitally interested in the welfare of the Association, Mr. Allen declared.

Dealing with the importance of Industrial Insurance, Mr. Allen pointed out that at the close of 1928 there was approximately 13½ billion dollars of ordinary insurance in force that had been placed by industrial agents. They had also sold 16½ billions of industrial insurance. For these facts it would appear that the industrial agents had been responsible for putting on the books of the companies also one-third of the total insurance now in force in the United States.

"If the sole mission of the industrial agent has been the production of business," Mr. Allen continued, "I think it is fair to say that the 70,000 who are now engaged in that occupation have done their full share in the era of the first hundred billion."

At the end of 1928 there were 85½ million industrial policies in the United States.

"The success of the industrial agent was achieved by increasing the number of those who took out insurance for the first time rather than by multiplying the insurance already carried," Mr. Allen said. "A very definite part of his mission has, therefore, been that of education—making the spendthrift, thrifty; impressing upon the irresponsible the responsibility of life, bringing to the indivual a realization of his responsibility to other individuals, providing for the needs of the home and family, and making a wider and more useful life possible for dependents.

"Insurance Conscious"

This aspect of his mission is better understood when one realizes the fact that approximately fifty per cent. of the industrial policies in force are on the endowment plan, a great number having been written on children. The result is that the younger generation, those now coming into manhood and womanhood, will be a more largely insuring generation than those who have preceded them. Because of what the industrial agent has done, the boys and girls of today are familiar with life insurance as a part of their daily existence. Week by week they have seen the premiums paid by their parents to the industrial agent, they have overheard their conversations; they have listened to the discussion of what these policies were to do; they have understood the plans for their future which these policies would provide for. As they reach the age when the endowment matures and the provisions which have been made for their welfare change from hope to reality, they will recognize the obligation which then becomes theirs of making provision for their own future and for those who may be dependent upon them."

Mr. Allen referred to the liberal policy in industrial insurance that had been made possible by the lowering mortality rate, and the reduction of the cost of doing business, "with the result that the cost of the industrial policy to the industrial policyholder compares favorably to-day with the cost of the ordinary policy to the ordinary policy-holder."

THREE PRAIRIE PREMIERS LEAVE

meet in Regina to-morrow with the premiers of the prairie provinces, to discuss the governments' guarantee of the 15-per-cent loan margin required by the pools banks.

G. McIvor, general sales manager of the Canadian wheat pool, who will be present at the conference, refused to make any statement to-day regarding the meeting.

Any comment from pool officials it was intimated at Winnipeg to-day, will be made at the Regina session; until that time they have no intention of making a statement on the situation. It is understood Henry Wise Wood, president of the Alberta Wheat Pool, will be present, but no decision has been reached that Colon H. Burnell, president of the Manitoba wheat pool will be at the meeting. A. McPhail, who is president of both the Saskatchewan wheat pool and the Canadian body, is at present sailing toward Canada after a visit in England and Europe.

NEW MARINE SALES IS OPENED IN CITY

Gray Copping Opens a Marine Sales Store on Water Street.

A new firm has been added to the business section of Peterborough in the past month with the establishment of the firm of Copping Marine Sales, at the corner of Simcoe and Water street. It has been given an exclusive franchise to handle the retail business of the Canadian Johnson Motor Company for Peterborough and a large surrounding district, and as well will carry a line of boats, including the newly innovated Johnson boat, and other marine equipment.

The business has been established and will be operated by Gray Copping, for many years identified with the Peterborough Canoe Company as sales manager. Mr. Copping came to this city from Montreal where he acted as a European buyer and departmental manager for the firm of Henry Morgan & Company. He has many years experience in handling marine goods.

The new firm is quartered in the premises formerly tenanted by the Empire Milking Machine Company. A modern salesroom has been installed after complete renovation, and Johnson Motors and boats are on display.

S. A. COMMISSIONER WILL SPEAK HERE

Commissioner James Hay to Speak on Future of Salvation Army.

Perhaps there is no officer in the Salvation Army who has had a more distinguished career than that of Commissioner James Hay, O. B. E. territorial commander for Eastern Canada who is making his first visit to Peterborough this week-end, accompanied by Mrs. Hay and daughter. The latter is a staff captain recently appointed to the Training College staff, Toronto.

The party will be welcomed on Saturday evening, for which occasion a band festival has been arranged in which all musical sections of the corps will take part.

On Sunday afternoon Commissioner Hay will speak on the "Future of the Salvation Army" and it is expected that the address will be of more than usual interest. J. F. Strickland, M.P.P., will preside over the meeting.

There will also be special services in the morning and evening in the Salvation Army Temple.

When all the commissioners and the territorial commanders of the Salvation Army who compose the high council were assembled in London for the historic events that took place in January of last year it was Comm. James Hay who was elected to preside over the deliberations of that council" says an article in the War Cry dated Nov. 3, 1929 and which throws quite a few sidelights an a remarkable career in the service of the S. A. It goes on to read, "He was the first officer to be trained at Clapton to reach the rank of Commissioner, and was for a time Principle of the International Training Garrison."

"The Commissioner has also been Territorial Commander for Australia and during his twelve years stay in the Antipodes saw the one command develop into three fully organized territories, namely, New Zealand and the Southern and Eastern Australia territories. Then came the British Commissionership, which was followed by the territorial commands of South Africa and New Zealand. Now comes the command of Canada East and perhaps no commander ever took up an appointment with a heartier welcome and higher hopes in the part of the Territory's forces, than Commissioner Hay and Mrs. Hay."

Commissioner Hay was invested with the O. B. E. for outstanding service with the British Government during the late war.

FAMILY NEEDS AID.

The Examiner wishes to acknowledge with sincere gratitude the kindness of its many friends who responded so generously with clothing and supplies to an appeal made some time ago.

Another deserving case has just been brought to notice. A foreign family with a tiny baby is in dire straits at the present time. The man is unable to obtain steady work and the mother's employment is all that keeps the home together. They need a bed and also a small stove and a couple of chairs or other household equipment. The articles could be called for, if The Examiner is notified. These people have practically nothing in the way of living necessities and are strangers in a strange land, without much knowledge of its language or facilities in the way of obtaining employment.

On Wednesday evening a very successful euchre party was held in the Lakeview hotel by the ladies of St. Mary's church, fourteen tables of euchre being played. The prize winners were: Ladies, Mrs. Adrian Brooks; gentleman, Mr. Elmer Johnston; door prize, Maurice O'Brien. A very sumptuous lunch was served by the ladies after which the younger folk indulged in dancing.

NEED WATER BUSSES

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Some talk is being circulated here predicting water buses and taxis to circulate on the Thames river. Sir Samuel Instone declares that water buses would be more comfortable than motor buses, and provisions have been made by some private concerns for piers along the river to house the boats and take on passengers. This would eliminate much traffic congestion.

Moved by Sayers-Quinn that accounts be paid. Carried.

The council then went into committee on bylaws, the reeve in the chair. A bylaw was then introduced appointing Michael McAvoy and Carman Kleinsteuber as assessors for 1930, at a salary of $100 divided. — Signed, sealed and numbered 338.

Mr. Redfern, waterworks engineer, was in town, made a final test of the wells and found the supply of water satisfactory. He also reported the quality of the water as first class.

The council met and decided to buy the north half of lot if it could be secured at a reasonable price.

Woman's Auxiliary Meeting.

The first regular meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada was held in the guild room. There was a very good attendance; one new member was enrolled. Plans for definite work during the coming year were discussed. An interesting and instructive work on "How our Church Came to Canada," was given by the Rector, W. L. Wright. It was decided to hold the regular meeting on the third Thursday of each month—alternating afternoon and evening. The February meeting will be held on Feb. 20, at 8.30 p.m.

W.M.S. Meeting.

The February meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was held on Thursday in the church parlors, with a large attendance. Mrs. Fred Foster, president, presided. The meeting opened with hymn 84, followed by short prayers and the Lord's prayer in unison. The secretary gave her report, which was approved. The offering was received. A duet by Mrs. Barnett and Mrs. Boyd was enjoyed by all. A Scripture reading by Mrs. Irvine was given. Mrs. Moffatt then took charge of the meeting and reviewed the first chapter of the study book, and conducted a study of the second chapter, assisted by Mesdames Patterson, Boyd, Barnette, Foster and Ketcheson. The study period was very profitable. Mrs. Davis then favored with a solo, and the meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

LAST YEAR'S FAIR UP TO STANDARD

Directors of Stirling Agricultural Society Hold Meeting —District News.

(Examiner Correspondence)

STIRLING, Feb. 21.—The directors of the Agricultural Society held a meeting on Tuesday evening in the Agricultural Rooms for the purpose of finishing the business of 1929. There was a fair attendance and the new president Edward Pyear had charge. The annual report was read by Thomas Solmes one of the auditors which showed that the fair of 1929 was up to the standard set by Stirling Fairs.

The following prizes were paid: horses, $135.75; cattle, $1.60; sheep, $46.50; swine, $27.50; poultry, $132.20; grain and seeds, $23.75; roots and vegetables, $39.45; fruit and flowers, $22.95; dairy and domestic products $184.48; ladies' work $91.90; fine arts $43.05; boys and girls $87.55.

The election of a secretary was next in order and Mr. J. E. O'Donnell will act in that capacity for the coming year. The matter of a field day in the interests of the society was discussed and a public meeting will be held on Wednesday evening February 26 to fix the date and other details in connection with the matter.

A. Y. P. A. MEETING

The A. Y. P. A. met in the vestry of the church last Monday evening. Hymn was sung followed by prayers.

It was moved by Mr. Buyers, seconded by Mrs. John Bateman that the $2.00 fee be sent to the Local Council Executive. After the roll call a report of the meeting of the local council held in Belleville, January 30 was read. Miss Francis Cooke read an account of the life of Lillian Leveridge who lived for some time at Coe Hill and later at the Carrying Place. Her poem "Over the Hills of Home" went round the English speaking world during the war, Miss Leveridge has been described as a writer of sweet verses and fine stories.

Harold Mumby gave a humorous speech "Being Bashful", its cure and the embarrasing situations of shy men. He stressed the fact that women are not shy, only men.

Miss Alice Morgan read a paper on the life of Charles Dickens, famous English novelist perhaps the most imaginative of our English humorists. Contest were put on by Miss Doris Tanner and C. Faires. The "Flower" contest won by team one and "Mistakes the Editor Makes". The three teams tying. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

GUILD MEETING

The Guild meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church held on Monday evening was well attended, John Fargey was leader of the devotional portion, reading one of the Psalms followed with prayer by Rev. A. N. Reid. The program arranged by Mrs. A. S. Murdoff was a Valentine one. Miss Cathie Simpson gave a piano selection, Miss Christine Fargey read of the life of the monk St. Valentine and told how St. Valentine's day originated. Miss Trenelda Eggleton recited "Grandmother's Valentines". Two contests were put on by Mrs. R. W. Meiklejohn, which concluded an interesting meeting. Groups were formed and an excellent lunch was served.

EASTERN ONTARIO THRESHERMEN ENDORSE PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Bill Providing For Lien Note is Now Before Ontario Legislature.

MEET IN CONVENTION.

A proposed act for giving threshers a lien in certain cases, provided for in a bill drafted by the Western Ontario Threshermen, and which is to be introduced at the present Legislative Assembly of Ontario, received the unanimous endorsation of the Eastern branch of the Ontario Brotherhood of Threshermen who met in convention in this city yesterday.

Delegates were present from a wide area, and the meeting, which was to have been held at the Duffus Motor Sales rooms, was transferred to the Council Chamber, as there were at least 40 per cent. more members present than had been anticipated.

The meeting opened under the presidency of P. Wilson and the delegates received an official welcome to the city from His Worship Mayor Denne to whose remarks Fred McIntyre, reeve of Otonabee, and Art Blade, of the Imperial Oil Company, made suitable responses.

Lubricating Expert.

Much interest was created by an address in which R. M. Bethune, one of the Imperial Oil Company's lubricating experts, told the threshermen how to get the best performance from their machines by a study of correct lubrication methods. He traced the manufacture of the fine grades of oil which are now on the market from its production in the oil fields—particularly in the south, where he has had actual experience—to the refined product.

"In choosing an oil to suit your particular needs," he said, "you will not go far wrong if you follow the charts issued by the various oil companies."

He explained the different types of lubricating systems with which cars and tractors are equipped. Some tractors have mechanical lubrication where the oil is sucked in and forced out. It is a very good system and does not create oil drag. If it is wished to accomplish heavy work it is a paying method to drain the oil off the engine each night, in the cold weather, and warm it up slightly in the morning before refilling it into the sump. It will ensure easy starting and well repay one by the effort saved in the exertion of cranking.

Many car and tractor owners complain of heavy oil consumption and then blame the quality of the oil they are using. But this loss is in most cases caused by loose crank cases and faulty piston rings. Nine times out of ten the loss of oil is due to one or other of these small mechanical defects.

Air Cleaners Necessary.

Mr. Bethune also spoke of the necessity of keeping the air cleaners on the tractor free from dirt and dust, saying that if they become clogged up you get a very rich mixture of gas on account of lack of air, and this condition, besides wasting gasoline, is liable to score the cylinders or result in overheating of the engine.

Another little item which will well repay attention is to drain out the gasoline tank and give it a thorough cleaning periodically as it is liable to collect a great deal of dust and dirt and often "sweats," leaving an accumulation of water in the gasoline, which naturally results in trouble sooner or later.

A short resume on banking methods, and equally short and pointed remarks touching on the operations of the Wheat Pool and conditions leading up to the recent crash on the stock market were the subjects of an address, punctuated throughout with wit and humor, by A. J. Reynolds, city manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

"The banks, farmers and threshermen are all interwoven, all a part of the social system, and banking primarily consists of four purposes. The first to provide a safe place for the keeping of money and valuables that belong to the public; secondly, to loan money brought in by depositors and shareholders, safely and at a profit, of course; thirdly, to act as agent and collector for the remission of money, and, fourth, to provide convenient currency by means of its own notes, entitled to rank as its own money."

Mr. Reynolds proceeded to enlarge on each of these four phases of banking and provided many worthwhile thoughts for consideration. Speaking of the stock market trouble, he said it could only be explained by a student of psychology, but it was really an epidemic which had swept the country. It was as if every person in the whole community had gone pouring their money into stocks, a thing they know little or nothing about. He thought that the damage was not so extensive that the country could not make a complete recovery in a year or two. There have been charges brought against several brokers for conspiracy to defraud, but the speaker did not think there was any conspiracy as the people were quite willing to be gulled.

Outlines Wheat Pool.

"The Wheat Pool was a movement started in Western Canada out of necessity," exclaimed Mr. Reynolds, touching on this question. "In the early days the farmer was gouged unmercifully. I have seen them come many miles into town with grain, in the years 1911-12, maybe their grain was grade 1, 2 or 3, but they would be told the old story by the elevator man, that he had no bins to accommodate those grades, but that he would give him a lower grade, which the unfortunate farmer would have to accept. If he came in with a load of tough grain he often could not get a bin at all and would be forced to return home with his load of wheat or else, as had often been done, the grain was dumped at the side of the railroad track in utter disgust. That condition had to be remedied, and so it was to a certain extent by the farmers running their own elevators. Even then there was a lot of dumping being done with a consequent drop in price on the wheat market. The farmer had to sell his grain in the fall to meet his obligations, with the consequence that the market was flooded and brought about the condition already referred to. The grain companies bought at a low price and sold at a high price. The Wheat Pool was originated with the idea of steadying the price of grain.

Mr. Reynolds, who was in close touch with the Wheat Pool in the West, said he was proud to say that he gave the first $50,000 towards it. Very few bankers had any confidence in the venture in those days, but since that time it has been playing on the market and it has now struck a tough situation.

The speaker thought the Wheat Pool had made a mistake in holding out on the price of grain last fall. It had a tendency to put the buyers back up, but the Wheat Pool is an institution which has come to stay and it is of such proportions that the Government has got to recognize it. It has valuable work to do and has a vital effect on our live. There is some talk of forming a Dominion grain pool to handle the grain along the lines of the Wheat Pool effort, and Mr. Reynolds considered it would be a good thing.

In the course of his address Mr. Reynolds spoke briefly on the question of lien notes by which threshers in the West are assured of getting paid for their services, and he evidently touched on a vitally interesting subject to his audience. J. Taggart, rising to speak, said that he had particularly appreciated the remarks about the lien notes. It was a matter which was discussed at previous meetings of the Eastern threshermen, but apparently nothing had been done to further it. He suggested that a committee should be nominated to plan a delegation to wait on the Government, and that a motion should be put to the present meeting. (Applause.)

The president explained that in London, Ontario, last week the Western branch had taken the matter in hand, and they would hear more about it from the secretary-treasurer of that organization who would address them on the subject.

"I am pleased to see such a great crowd you have here to-day," said the gentleman in question, Joseph Cushman, "and before I start on the subject I would like to tell you that you are just about in the same position as the Western Ontario threshermen were 14 to 15 years ago. But we started to grow, and this year we held one of the best conventions ever held."

"How to Sell Your Service" was the subject of his address, in which he said, if we take up a catalogue of any manufacturer to-day we will see the little word "service" featured very strongly. It is a simple word and yet it conveys a wealth of meaning.

"To you threshers conditions are entirely different than they were 15 or 20 years ago, and it is up to you to improve those conditions by giving better service to your customers. Obsolete equipment can no longer compete with up-to-date equipment. Might I impress upon you to-day the necessity for selling your services. How often does one hear a thresherman say that he would not beg a job from any man? If a farmer has no outfit he can come and see me if he wants my services. I believe in honesty in advertising. You see the C. N. R. posters, 'Courtesy and Service,' and I would suggest to you that you have a sign placed on your threshing machine bearing the words, 'Co-operation, Courtesy and Service,' and then try to live up to them."

Referring to the lien notes question Mr. Cushman said he was asked to arrange for an interview with the attorney general of the province and arrange for an interview which we had. Hon Mr. Price gave us a sympathetic hearing and told us to go home, see a solicitor and have him draw up a bill, send it to Toronto and it would be put through the House without any cost. We followed his suggestion; the draft of the bill being passed by our organization and it is going to be presented to the Legislative Assembly at the present sitting. I have my doubts said Mr. Cushman whether it will be passed this year, as I believe there is a time limit required, to enable all the members of the house to become familiar with the bill.

The draft of the bill which was endorsed by the Convention here with the amendment that a clause be added, "that all threshing machines be licensed as they are in Alberta" embodies the following clauses:—

BILL

3. "An act to provide for giving Threshers a lien in certain cases and embodying the following clauses:—"Every person, firm or corporation owning or operating a threshing machine or separator, or causing the same to be operated and who threshes or causes to be threshed grain of any kind for another person, firm or corporation herein referred to as the owner, for a fixed price or rate of remuneration, shall from the date of the commencement of such threshing have a lien upon such grain for the purpose of securing payment of said price or remuneration, or such part or portion thereof as may be earned, and may take a sufficient quantity of such grain to secure payment of such price or remuneration as may be earned at the date of such taking."

4. "The quantity of grain which may be retained and removed shall be approximately such as will....pay the total account of threshing done that season together with the cost of haulage etc."

5. "Notice in writing of the retention of the grain shall be given to the owner during the threshing or forthwith after the threshing is finished, setting forth in detail (a) the claim of the thresher, (b) the quantity of grain retained, and the grain so retained shall be separated from the bulk of the threshed grain and may be removed from the premises at any time within thirty days from the completion of such threshing."

6. "The thresher who exercises such right of retention and removal may house the grain so taken and removed in his own name, and if at the expiration of fifteen days from the time such right of retention and removal is exercised the price or remuneration for which grain is held be not paid, together with the cost of hauling etc., such person may sell said grain at a fair market price, and after deducting the price of remuneration for threshing etc., shall pay the balance (if any) to the owner of the said grain."

7. "The thresher shall be accountable for any grain removed, and any damage or deterioration to such grain."

8. "In the alternative, the thresher may instead of removing the grain as aforesaid from the said premises where threshing, leave the grain upon the said premises after being separated from the bulk and may be placed in bags or receptacles, and notwithstanding the non-removal of the said grain the lien of the thresher shall attach for a period of thirty days or until the said grain is sold within the time provided by this act, etc."

Another matter up for discussion was the proposal to change the existing fee of one dollar per year to $2. Mr. Cushman saying that in the Western Ontario branch they had raised their fees to $5 and they had just as many members as ever and more money to go ahead and do something worthwhile in the interests of threshermen. He considered that the rates ought to be raised.

William Miles moved that the fees should be raised to $2. The motion, seconded by Mr. Henderson was carried.

Considerable discussion centred around the question of damage to the highways when moving outfits from one place to another. One member asked the question, "What protection has a thresherman on the highway?" If the road is marked in the least one is ordered off.

The chairman thought that it was only right that if an outfit did damage to the roads the thresherman should be responsible for that damage. Another member agreed with this view saying that it was up to the threshermen to exercise due care and protect against destruction of the roads, towards whose upkeep he had to pay in the taxes."

The afternoon session then adjourned and at the resumption in the evening the election of officers for the ensuing year was proceeded with. Mr. Cushman occupied the chair.

President, Wallace Dunn by acclamation; vice-president, James Laney; secretary-treasurer, H. E. Dunn, Executive Committee, E. A. Kearns, D. McIntyre; and Herbert Jones to replace W. J. McMillan, Legislative Committee, R. Henderson, George Palmeteer; Chas. Mills. All by acclamation.

After the installation of officers the new president occupied the chair for the remainder of the meeting.

J. B. Nelson, agricultural representative for the county of Peterborough gave a most instructive address uring more co-operation between threshermen and farmers. He considered the question of weed control, and clean seed and told his audience how they could help to increase the crop production and incidentally help to improve conditions for themselves.

"I believe you should be the same as other business and give all the service you can" urged Mr. Nelson, "help the men you are working for and increase their confidence in you, thus bringing yourselves more work."

In conclusion he extended their organization the invitation to use the offices of the Agricultural Department for their meetings, and was glad to see they recognized Peterborough as a centre. If you have not already had a welcome, I extend one to you on behalf of the County of Peterborough and hope your organization will meet with much success in the future.

The June meeting of the organization was fixed to be held in Sunderland, whilst it was decided to make Peterborough the centre for the 1931 convention.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the Waterloo Threshing Company for a gift of cigars after which the meeting adjourned.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in Eustachian Tubes and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form or distressing, rumbling, hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR BAD STOMACH GIVES SWIFT RELIEF

No Need of Strong Medicines or Diet. Safe and Simple Home Recipe Keeps Stomach in Fine Condition.

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—Gas, Sourness, Pain or Bloating—you may have quick and certain relief by following this simple advice.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial digestants or pull down your system with starvation diets. For within reason most folks may eat what they like if they will keep their stomach free from souring acids that hinder or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with three or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia—a pleasant, harmless, inexpensive, and handy tablet form of Magnesia that promptly neutralizes acidity and keeps your stomach sweet and clean.

A week's trial of Bisurated Magnesia tablets, which any good druggist can supply at trifling cost, should quickly convince you that 90 per cent of ordinary stomach distress is absolutely unnecessary. Be sure to get Bisurated Magnesia Tablets.

BUDGET ADDRESS COMING TUESDAY

ford, complained of the rates of rural Hydro. They should be lowered, he said, and he called upon Hon. J. R. Cooke, member of the Hydro Commission, to explain why the rates were so high.

W. Morrison, Conservative, East Hamilton, claimed the farmers come to this House wit ha perpetual cry of poverty.

Let Farmers Build Own Lines.

D. J. Taylor, Progressive, North Grey, the Party Whip, suggested to the Government that rural Hydro users be given the right to build their own power lines, under the supervision of the Commission. He believed that a considerable saving could be made through this change. He enumerated, also, several criticisms of the twenty-year contract forced upon farmers when they took Hydro. It represented a mortgage, he argued, and while the was willing to concede that a five-year contract would be best, a twenty-year contract was a burden and decided liability.

The Progressive group, he announced, was prepared to vote against the Government's Bill to increase the bonus to the iron ore industry. It was impossible that the industry would be revolutionized to the extent named by the Government on the comparatively small sum of money it intended to spend as a bonus. It would do the industry and the employees more good, he believed, if the Government demanded an eight-hour day.

Dr. A. R. McMillen, one of the new members from Western Ontario, commenced his speech by attacking the Australian Treaty of the Federal Government on the grounds that it had "crippled the dairy industry of Canada." In contrast to this, he pointed to the proposal of the Ferguson Government to bonus the iron ore industry as a stimulant to home industry.

Phil Edwards, British Guiana star showed that he is one of the greatest runners in the world at his favorite distance when he loped away from the pack in the 600 metre run without any apparent difficulty. The dusky Hamiltonian made his own pace, and increased his lead when necessary. W. Pickard, Hamilton, was second and G. Smith, Toronto, third.

Jimmy Ball, Winnipeg, also did the expected when he won the 300-metre final. After winning his heat in commanding fashion in 37 4-5, he came back to score an imposing victory in the final in 36 4-5. Eddie McCluskey, Toronto, defeated his club mate, Bill Christie, for third position.

Monte Wells, Boston, gave a fine demonstration of timber-topping in the 60 metre hurdles. Despite a leg injury, the former Dartmouth college star who is the holder of the inter-collegiate and world's record for the event, cleared the hurdles with plenty of speed and perfect form.

STARS AT HIGH JUMP

Osborne won the high jump, after topping the bar at 6 feet 3¼ inches. G. Smallacombe, Toronto, and D. Holland, of Hamilton, were second and third respectively in this event, but could not equal the fine performance given by the Chicago star.

Vic Pickard, of Hamilton, Canadian outdoor pole vault record holder, added to his laurels by taking the indoor title, when he hurtled over the top at 12 feet 6 inches after a stirring fight with E. C. Reich, of Detroit, and R. K. Goeriz, of the same city.

The meet was a highly successful one, so far as spectacular performances are converned, and the events were run off very quickly. Even at that, it was after midnight before the final event was finished. Nearly two hundred athletes had entered, and in the 60-metre dash, eight heats and three semi-finals were required to eliminate the many.

I.O.D.E. Scholarship.

After the first act of the play, the Bermersyde Chapter (Daughters of the Empire) scholarship was presented by Mrs. R. W. Scott. This award, which is a duplicate, goes to the student standing highest in middle school English. Mrs. Scott, in making the presentation, said she represented a group of women in Canada who were trying to raise a high standard of citizenship. "This was the first tangible reward," the speaker said, "for general proficiency and specialization." She wished the recipients as great a success in their future life as they had achieved now. The winners were Harry Richardson and Jean Cameron.

Davidson Cup.

At the conclusion of Act 2, Mayor C. H. Davidson presented his cup, which is the senior boys' championship award. The winner of this trophy was Fred Palliser. In making the presentation, Mayor Davidson congratulated the school on the possession of such fine talent.

Other Awards.

Other field day awards were presented by T. E. Hall, who in a few brief remarks, stated that Campbellford High School had retained its reputation for fine programs by the presentation of "The Wishing Well."

The awards were as follows:

Intermediate boys' championship Cup, to Donald Moyer; junior boys' championship cup, Donald Montgomery; senior girls' championship cup, Helen Smith; junior girls' championship cup, Susan Atkins; Strathcona medal, given by the Strathcona Trust to the Cadet who is the best shot in the school, Earl Leggett, and the Underwood typing award, given by the Underwood Typewriting Company to the school's best typist, Margaret Lynch.

A packed hall witnessed the exercises. The orchestral numbers during the evening were exceptionally well rendered by Mr. Hazel's orchestra, consisting of R. Hazel, I. Benor, D. Mitchell and G. Frederick, supplimented by the High School orchestra: W. Nelson, P. Hall, R. Richardson, H. Richardson and A. Robertson.

Presentation of scholarships and graduation certificates will take place Friday evening.

GREAT OVATION TENDERED NEW LADY SENATOR

lace with shoes to match, and was wearing a bouquet of orchids on her left shoulder. Her voice was clear and distinct as she took the oath of office. One Senator so far forgot himself as to start a cheer, but subsided on the second "Hip!" when he recognized the discipline of the speaker. Hand-clapping, however, was insistent, and as soon as the sitting adjourned, the Honorable Cairine was avelanched with congratulations. On the floor of the Senate, her daughter, Miss Olive, was an interested witness, and some place in the galleries, her sister, Mrs. Loring, of Montreal, and her husband, Norman P. Wilson, ex-M.P.

Half Hour Reception.

The impromptu reception held by the woman Senator lasted more than half an hour and all the way to the door and into the corridor. As she stepped out, beyond a sea of heads, her husband and Hon. Senator Dandurand were descending a marble staircase. Senator Dandurand waved in greeting and drew Mr. Wilson's attention to the ovation his wife was receiving. It was several minutes later when they reached her side and Hon. J. C. Elliott, Minister of Public Works, had just offered his congratulations. Turning to Mr. Wilson he said, "Have you met Senator Wilson?" "I don't know her," laughingly replied the husband of Canada's first woman Senator.

They then proceeded to the reception held in the Speaker's chambers by Hon. Senator Bostock, Speaker of the Senate and Mrs. Bostock, going on also to pay their respects to Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and Madame Lemieux who were receiving in the Speaker's chambers of the House of Commons.

VALENTINE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Melville Elliott Entertain Members of St. John's Church, Orange Corners.

ORANGE CORNERS, Feb. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Melville Elliott entertained the congregation of St. John's on Thursday evening at a Valentine progressive euchre party. The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with hearts and cupids in Valentine colors and dainty red boxes of candy were served during the games.

The winners were Mrs. Stanley Magee for ladies' prize and Walter Magee, gent's prize while Mrs. Fred Fowler won the consolation.

Refreshments were served at the close of game by the hostess and committee in charge after which contests and music brought a very enjoyable evening to a close. A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Miss Parker and seconded by Mrs. Fowler to Mr. and Mrs. Elliott for their hospitality.

Miss Parker spent the week end visiting friends in Lindsay.

Miss Nellie Casey and friend of Lindsay spent the week end under the parental roof.

Mrs. H. Bray is spending a month with her sister in Stratford.

Mrs. W. Howden spent a few days last week with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stewart Fallis, Cavan.

The W.A. held their monthly meeting at Mrs. Arthur Jackson's on Wednesday afternoon.

The ladies of St. John's are holding a basket social in the school on Friday, February 28. A good program is being prepared, so gents bring your ladies and ladies bring a basket.

HEALTH BETTER THAN IN 15 YEARS

"All my friends have noticed how I've changed since taking this new Sargon medicine, and it certainly has been a blessing.

"Almost as far back as I can remember, I've suffered with indigestion and biliousness. My appetite was very poor; I had headaches continually and at times wouldn't be able to do my housework. Constipation was one thing that held me back and I never was able to correct the trouble except temporarily.

"Three bottles of Sargon have simply made a different woman out of me! I'm never bothered the slightest with indigestion or biliousness now; my appetite is splendid, and I have so much more strength and energy, my housework is a pleasure.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills, that go with the tonic, have regulated my bowels so perfectly that I don't have headaches like I used to and I'm enjoying better health generally than I've had in fifteen years." — Mrs. Frances Greenshield, 98 Sparkhill Ave., Toronto.

Sargon may be obtained in Peterborough from Bond's Drug Store.

FISH WEREN'T HUNGRY

GRIMSBY, England, Feb. 20.—One of the worst fish catches of the year was reported here recently when a vessel returned from Greenland waters. The entire catch consisted of one halibut and four boxes of torsk, valued at about $40. The ship and crew returned after a month on the sea and the loss during the trip was estimated at more than $6,000.

Bronchial Cold Left Her With A Dry, Hacking Cough

Mrs. J. Fearman, Selkirk, Ont., writes:—"Early last winter I suffered from a severe bronchial cold that left me with a provoking, dry, hacking cough.

"After being bothered, both day and night, with it for some time I had a friend recommend

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

which I tried with wonderful results, and now it is the only remedy I ever use for colds.

"I have also used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills with wonderful results."

"Dr. Wood's" is 35c. a bottle; large family size 60c.; at all druggists and dealers; put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

STUDY BOOK IS DISCUSSED

Good Program Provided at Regular Meeting of St. Andrew's Mission Band.

IN CAMPBELLFORD

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—There was a large attendance for the regular monthly meeting of the Young Ladies' Mission Circle held on Tuesday evening last. Miss Mary Watson the president, conducted the meeting. The devotional exercises consisted of psalm 54, prayer offered by the president and scripture lesson from the 107th psalm read responsively. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and Miss M. Stephens gave the treasurer's report. After the roll call and offering hymn 461 was sung.

The topic for the evening was taken from the new study book recently published entitled "Courier of the King" and very well given by Mrs. H. T. Scott. The address was based on chapter 1 "Pentecost—the birthday of the church". The speaker said in part: "Missions are, in reality, the very substance of the Gospel, so perfectly interwoven that they cannot be separated from God's purpose of grace toward all mankind. Even before the Bible was written Missions lived in the mind of God, for His message of salvation and of redemption was meant for all mankind, with no reference to race, color or religion. Missionary work should never be thought of as something apart from Christianity, something that succeeding years have added, something that is optional! Missionary work is the true expression of Christianity itself, and the earliest records of the Bible prove how the idea of missions was present from the beginning of the plans of God. God said to Abraham, 'In thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed.' In the eighth century before Christ Isaiah sang "Ask of Me and I will give thee the heathen for thine inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession."

A gospel solo "Shadows" was rendered in fine voice by Miss Dorothy Reynolds after which hymn 552 and the Mizpah benediction closed the devotional period. A dainty lunch was served by the hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Edison Wynn and Mrs. J. Hamilton. The circle will hold a quilting bee on the 27th inst. in the church.

Favorite Recipe

SUPPER SNACK

(Contributed by Peter)

1 cupful grated cheese
1 well beaten egg
¼ teaspoon salt, pepper
2 teasoonfuls Worcester sauce
½ tablespoonful of butter

Mix all to a paste, spread generously on rounds, squares or triangles of bread. Place one slice thinly, cut bacon on each and place in a very hot oven. While the cheese mixture melts and puffs the bread toasts and the bacon frizzles a delicate brown. Serve hot.

Light Omelet.

(Contributed by Mrs. L. J. P.)

Take four eggs, one-half teaspoon of salt, a little pepper, four tablespoons of hot water, and one tablespoon of butter. Beat the whites of the eggs stiff and yolks till they are thick and lemon coloured. Add the hot water and seasonings to the yolks. Melt the butter in a frying pan. Fold the whites and yolks together and turn into the plan. Cook very slowly until well risen and nicely browned underneath. Set on the top grate of the oven for a minute or two until the mixture will not stick when touched.

Fold and turn on a platter. An omelet may be served garnished around with sliced tomatoes or whole slices of friend onions. Or flaked salmon may be folded into the egg mixture before it goes into the pan. Of after it is poured into the pan it may be sprinkled with grated cheese.

For a sweet omelet, fruit jelly may be put on top before folding.

Parisian Foibles

Philippe and Gaston favor a combination of beige and brown for spring wear. This coat, which is in beige wool trimmed with beaver, is a charming model.

COMBINATION OF BEIGE AND BROWN FAVOR FOR SPRING COSTUMES

By Monsieur Gaston.
Creator for Philippe and Gaston.

I have included many coats in my latest collection some of them with fur and some without, but this one, which many of my clients find becoming, is trimmed with bands of beaver, which is effective on the beige cloth of this model. Beige and brown combinations are among those most like for spring wear for all daytime occasions. Worn with suede shoes and a brown or beige hat, and with bag and gloves to match the shoes, this model forms part of a very smart spring ensemble.

FAMOUS PEN MAKERS IN BUSINESS 47 YEARS

Waterman Fountain Pen Company Celebrates Its 47th Anniversary

The largest and oldest fountain pen manufacturers in the world, the L. E. Waterman Company, Limited, are this year celebrating their forty seventh birthday. To commemorate the event and as well, the founding of the fountain pen industry in 1882 when the first practical fountain pen offered to the world, the Waterman Company announces the introduction of an entirely new and different pen creation. They have named it Patrician and are introducing it all over the continent as the finest and most beautiful pen ever produced.

EFFECTIVE RELIEF FOR WIDESPREAD ILL

Millions Enjoy It as Daily Diet

Constipation is an ancient ill. Modern diets with their soft foods have caused it to become about the most common ailment known to mankind. Lack of roughage in the diet is usually the cause. Add bulk to the diet and constipation disappears.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is bulk. Millions now eat it regularly. They are no longer subject to the evils of this dreaded disease, which is the source of many other physical ailments.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is positively guaranteed to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In addition, it supplies your body with iron which enriches the blood, building strength and the glowing color of health. With milk or fruit juices, or in many cooked foods, it brings important vitamins into the diet.

Use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and it will never be necessary again to take pills and drugs that often create dangerous habits.

Two tablespoons daily will prevent and relieve constipation—in recurring cases, with every meal. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is delicious—and effective! Your grocer has ALL-BRAN in the red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

JET JEWELRY AND BLACK SUEDE GLOVES AT OPENINGS

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (U.P.)—It has become something of a fad to accent color or white, with touches of black. Prints in which black occurs are numerous, but the newest expression is the introduction of a touch of black in jewelry, gloves or other accessories. The black suede glove has beckoned for some time, but really has comparatively few followers. The Paris openings again emphasize their chic.

Another house, Maggie Rouff's makes a feature of black jet necklaces, these worn with all white or all black frocks, and as likely as not intended to wear with magpie combinations. Following the recently established custom, the haute couture included costume pewelry in their displays. Gloves were also featured and chosen to round out the ensemble, as for instance long white gloves the tops of which were embroidered in colored beads. Alexandrine has a new and interesting evening glove to their credit, it is more often seen in rosy beige suede has shirred side-seams, but some of the kid gloves in other colors from this house also show the side shirring.

Glove interest centers entirely around slip-ons, and long mousequetaire types. Previous efforts to reinstate long gloves for evening have been more or less in vain. Paris is credited with calling them an American fashion, Palm Beach politely ignores them, while New York is of a divided mind concerning their importance.—(Copyright).

VALENTINE CONCERT

Delightful Program Presented at Annual Wooler Church Gathering.

(Examiner Correspondence.)

WOOLER, Feb. 21. — Everybody looks forward to St. Valentine's party in church parlours of the United Church, on February 14th, and are never disappointed in the program. This year there was an excellent program with a characteristic feature, 'Sweetheart Days," given in a tableaux, assisted by the pianist, Mrs. A. G. Austin, and quartette, Miss Grace Mutton, Miss Beatrice Bragg, Alden Arthur and Clifford Rogers, who sang each number as the tableaux was presented. Rev. H. B. Neal, chairman of the evening, in his usual bright manner, presented the tableaux in order.

Story of St. Valentine by Esma Cole.

Recitation, Lois Sharpe.

Piano solo, Mrs. L. H. Rowe.

"Love's Old Sweet Song," recited, with the music by Mrs. S. L. Terrill.

"Seeing Nellie Home," James Terrill, Esma Cole. (Tabelau.)

Recitation, Gwendolyn Neal.

"O, Dear, What can the Matter Be?" Edith Austin and Doris Nelson. (Tableaux.)

"Blue Ridge Mountain Home," Laura Vosburgh, Edith Austin, Ada Whitney and Muriel McColl.

Loch Lomond, Lucille Waite, in Scotch costume. (Tableaux.)

Juanita, Ada Whitney.

"I Passed by Your Window," Lucille Sharpe. (T.)

"Sweet Rosie O'Grady," Helen Tackbury, Bert Gillings. (T.)

"The Girl I Left Behind Me," Laura Vosburgh. (T.)

"Aloha Oha," Vera Coutts.

"Little Spanish Town," Laura Vosburgh.

"Sweet and Low," Mabel McColl. (T.)

"Put on your Old Grey Bonnett," Hugh Gainsforth, and Mrs. Putnam. (T.)

The entire group joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Reading by Mrs. Neal.

A few remarks were then given by te president of the Mission Circle, Miss Gladys Vosburgh.

Valentine Post Office.

The stage was arranged as to appear as a large picture frame with a black background, and the frame was red with red hearts, and a curtain drawn between the songs and verses. Each figure in the tableau was dressed to represent the song she represented, making a very effective picture.

After the National Anthem the members of the Mission Circle served refreshments to a full house.

RARE CAT IS RED

LONDON, Feb. 21.—A cat, claimed to be the only one of its kind in England, and a rarity in the world, is the one owned by H. C. Brooke, of Taunton. It has short hair which, from whiskers to tail, is dark red. It has the habit of pacing to and fro, restlessly like a caged tiger, never sitting still like the common house cat.

U. OF T. CHEER LEADER

Rev. James S. Graham to be Principal Speaker at George St. Father and Son Banquet.

Rev. James S. Graham, well-known former cheer leader at Toronto University will be the principal speaker at the father and son banquet at George Street United Church on Friday, February 28. Rev. Graham is now assistant pastor of the Metropolitan Church in Toronto.

It is expected that considerable interest will be aroused especially among the younger people by the forthcoming address in view of the fact that Rev. Graham acted as cheer leader at a great many Varsity football games during his university course in Toronto. Last year he was brought back from his studies in New York to again lead the cheers of his Alma Mater.

FRASERVILLE

The dance held in the Orange Hall on Tuesday, February 18, by the L.O.L. No. 46, Fraserville, was a huge success. Excellent music was supplied by H. Moncrief and E. Stewart.

Among those that were present were: Mr. and Mrs. L. Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. W. McElroy, Misses H. Ward, C. Atchison, A. Coburn, M. Wood, R. Holden, M. Moncrief, M. Ward, R. Wood, R. Cunningham, M. Park, M. Atchison, I. Ward, E. Snelgrove, A. Moore, V. Trotter, M. Henery; Messrs. W. Hutchison, D. Stewart, M. Wood, M. Williamson, K. Larmer, R. Atchison, C. Anderson, H. Cardwell, J. Willan, E. Ward, W. Kinsman, E. Moore, V. Colon, Parks, C. Carl, H. Cunningham, M. and A. Henery, T. Trotter, R. Atchison, S. Hogg, N Willan, M. Lawrence, W. Smith, G. Henery.

Miss Ethel Waterman, R.N., of Peterboorugh is visiting her sister, Mrs. Kay Finlay.

According to the best information obtainable, Staunton, Va., was the first city to try the "city manager" plan of government. That was in 1908.

WEDDING BELLS

ROWAN—WOOD.

SPRINGVILLE, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride at high noon on Wednesday, when Rosella Ivy, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wood, Cavan, was united in marriage to Mervin Harold Rowan, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rowan, also of Cavan.

The bride looked charming in a gown of Marrons Glace georgette and carrying a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses. She also wore the gift of the groom, a beautiful necklace and earrings to match.

Miss Boate, of Toronto, wearing a dress of poudre blue crepe, acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Lloyd Laing of Bethany, cousin of the groom, was best man.

The room was prettily decorated with rose tulips and evergreens, while the marriage ceremony was performed under an arch of similax, evergreens and wedding bells. The bride, who was given away by her father, entered to the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. (Rev.) Moyer and the ceremony was conducted by Rev. V. Walker of Janetville, brother-in-law of the groom, assisted by Rev. S. Moyer of Springville.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. (Rev.) Walker sang beautifully "Tell Me Do You Love Me."

A delightful wedding breakfast was served to about fifty guests. The tables, following the same color scheme as the room, were daintily decorated with rose candles in silver holders, rose tulips, smilax and evergreens.

Toasts to the bride and bridesmaid were given by Rev. Mr. Moyer and Rev. Mr. Walker respectively, and in each case suitable response was made.

The bride's mother, wearing a gown of grey silk moire, received the guests while the mother of the groom wore black canton crepe.

The happy couple left by motor for Detroit and other points, the bride's travelling dress being of soldier blue crepe romaine.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Rowan will reside in Cavan township, Springville.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Rev. and Mrs. Walker, Janetville; Mr. Lloyd Laing, Bethany· Mr. and Mrs. Fox, Oshawa; Miss Sedore, Miss Boate and Mr. Cecil Wood of Toornto; Mrs. McLean, Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rowan and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rowan of Bethany; Rev. F. and Mrs. Moyer of Springville; Mr. and Mrs. E. Wood, of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. E. Wood of Keene; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowans of Millbrook; Mrs. Elizabeth Laing of Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Rowland of Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. H. Laing of Millbrook; Mr. Leslie E. Laing of Millbrook; Mrs. Diamond of Campbellford; Mrs. Whiteman and son, Keith, of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Earle, Miss Helen Earle, and Mr. Roy Wood of Springville.

SUFFERERS ARE URGED TO USE FAMOUS REMEDY FOR STOMACH, KIDNEY, LIVER AND BOWEL DISORDERS

Bon-Tone Highly Recommended For These Ailments.

IS WIDELY USED.

What Bon-Tone Is.

"What is Bon-Tone?" is a question often asked by those not familiar with this marvellous remedy.

Bon-Tone is a remedy scientifically compounded from herbs, roots, barks and leaves selected for their therapeutic value in the treatment of ailments arising from disordered stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. It is so compounded and blended that each and every herb assists the other and combines to form a tonic and system cleanser and alterative of the highest type. The success of Bon-Tone depends not only upon the manner in which it is compounded but also upon the efficiency and quality of the herbs used. You can rest assured that only ingredients of the highest standard obtainable are used in Bon-Tone.

Some of the herbs used in Bon-Tone were in use hundreds of years before the coming of the Christian era, and their health-giving virtues have been handed down by the profession through the ages to the present time.

Sufferers from stomach, liver, kidney and bowel disorders are urged to give Bon-Bone a thorough trial. It has brought relief to many and is highly recommended by those who have benefited from its use.

KEEP TO NATURE.

Over 2,000 years ago this is what Plutarch the Greek advised in his simple rule for health, happiness and success, and long over 2,000 years ago the Greeks and Arabs knew that Mother Nature had bestowed on this earth remedies for all living things. Hence, Plutarch's remarks "Keep to Nature." Nature alone can cure many human ills, and nature's medicines do assist nature in stimulating sluggish organs to perform their natural functions. From the beginning of the world man has found in nature all that he needs for life, health and happiness. Years before Plutarch was born, no doubt his mother and her mother cured their ills with simple root leaves and barks, which nature provided. And these same herbs are in use to-day in our most modern preparations. Plutarch knew there were cures in nature's herbs. "Keep to Nature" is what he advised, and in Bon-Tone we have kept to nature's herbs.

Don't try New Remedies. Bon-Tone is not an experiment, but a definite proven remedy, and will show results if directions are followed carefully.

Do not delay. See the BON-TONE man at once at Bond's Drug Store, George and Hunter Streets, Peterborough, Ont., and learn more about this most wonderful remedy, or write for your copy of the free booklet, THE ROAD TO SUCCESS.

IN Ovaltine you have three of Nature's best tonic foods—milk, eggs and barley malt, concentrated by an exclusive scientific process and affording, unimpaired, every one of the essential vitamins, as well as the organic phosphorus to feed nerves and brain, the proteins for bone and muscle, and the carbohydrates and fats for warmth and energy.

Easily digested. Quickly assimilated. Delicious. Children love it!

The friend of growing children

WHEN your children come home from school they are tired. If not noticeably tired physically, nearly always tired or a little fagged mentally and nervously. They are ready for a cup of delicious Ovaltine to restore their spent energy.

Indoor confinement during school hours, with its pursuant call for mental concentration, comes at a time in a child's life when Nature is making insistent demands upon his or her strength and vitality . . during the days of growth. Recognizing this truth, some schools serve milk to the children at recess time.

Milk is Good—But Ovaltine is Better

Ovaltine is the finest thing in the world for replacing quickly the energy children use up so fast. A sure way to build strong bodies and to maintain rosy-cheeked, glowing health.

Ovaltine is sold at all good stores, in 50c, 75c, $1.25 and special $4.50 family size tins; also served at soda fountains.

OVALTINE RUSKS

Only finest Canadian Wheaten flour and Ovaltine are used in making Ovaltine Rusks. They are delicious and far more nourishing than ordinary rusks or biscuits. They are a sure means to sound white teeth and firm healthy gums.

An innovation in the way of afternoon card parties had its inception here yesterday afternoon, when a very successful bridge was held at the Armories under the auspices of the 57th Regimental Chapter I. O. D. E., when the ladies in charge dispensed with the service of refreshments. This idea has been tried out with a great deal of success in evening bridges, and a large number of prizes are given instead of refreshments. Yesterday afternoon's party was very successful and well attended, thirty tables of bridge being the total. The ladies were received by the regent of the Chapter, Mrs. T. W. H. Young, and a committee of the executive, in charge of arrangements, was composed of Mrs. R. Cottrell, Mrs. R. E. Clarke, Mrs. J. Fanning, Mrs. A. W. Clysdale and Miss Mamie Rogers. Prizes were given to each five tables, and were won by Mrs. W. E. Conway, Mrs. C. H. Amys, Mrs. J. Convery, Mrs. J. A. Stewart, Mrs. F. Miller and Mrs. W. G. Harris. A special group played contract bridge, Mrs. Herbert Young winning the prize. Among those present were: Mrs. T. W. H. Young, Mrs. R. E. Clarke, Mrs. R. Cottrell, Mrs. J. Fanning, Mrs. A. W. One of the most enjoyable social evenings of the season was held in the Canadian Legion Hall last night, when the De Laval Company employees and a number of their friends assembled for a merry evening of cards and dancing. About two hundred and fifty were present. The hall was attractively decorated in red and white with lace-like festoons draped from the ceiling and hung with red balloons. Colored Chinese lanterns and cut-outs of Valentine novelties completed a very effective decoration. Mowry-Steer's orchestra furnished excellent music for dancing, the program including a couple of square dances. Progressive euchre and bridge were played upstairs, prizes being won by: Ladies—1st Mrs. E. F. Lawrence, 2nd Mrs. Frost, 3rd Miss Helen Risko. The gentlemen's prizes for bridge went to Mr. Ken Miller 1st, Mr. J. Baird 2nd, Mr. W. Sangster 3rd. Euchre prizes were won by: Ladies, 1st Mrs. Laing, 2nd Mrs. Steer, 3rd Miss B. Sloane. Gentlemen's prizes: Miss Irene Foster 1st (playing as gentleman), Mr. R. Evans 2nd, and Mr. George Carey 3rd. Lucky prizes went to Mrs. Foster and Mr. M. Stoskopf. At the conclusion of the card games all assembled in the upper hall for refreshments, when a jolly time was enjoyed. Mr. Bert Cutmore was general convenor of arrangements, assisted by Mr. W. K. McGee, chairman of the Reception committee, Mr. Tom Pitchford chairman of the bridge and euchre committee, Miss Edna Forster convenor of the dance committee, Miss M. Irons of the refreshment committee, and Mr. W. Derry chairman of the decoration committee. The list of guests will appear in to-morrow's issue.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

AFTER DISCUSSING such topics as etiquette, furniture and such during the past week, let us dwell to-night on the subject of bringing stale cake into service for tasty desserts.

• • • • • • •

I heard some really good points on this subject recently, so that I will pass them on, hoping that they will interest you, and help out sometime in the case of an emergency.

• • • • • • •

Some housewives have the art of making perfectly delicious desserts from very simple ingredients and it was from one of these that I secured these ideas.

• • • • • • •

And so let me tell you how emergency "company" desserts can be made from very simple ingredients and which prove dressy and delicious.

• • • • • • •

You might even make such desserts for days when your time is all taken up, practically, with washing or some other household duties which keep one busy for long periods at a time.

• • • • • • •

Such desserts would be excellent for tha days in which housecleaning is being done!

• • • • • • •

Of course you have learned that unfrosted cup cakes, fresh or stale, are capable of many palatable dishes. Frosted cakes may be used if you have nothing better, but the frosting must be removed.

• • • • • • •

I remember one time when I was an unexpected visitor at a west-end home, that the hostess served an impromptu strawberry cake and really it was simply delicious.

• • • • • • •

And it was not when strawberries were in season, but one day this winter. Canned strawberries are obtainable in many of the grocery stores in Peterborough, and so these were used.

• • • • • • •

If the cup cakes you are going to use are shapely and will stand alone when placed on a flat plate, that kind of service dish is best to be used; that is for individual "short cakes."

• • • • • • •

Sometimes, though, the cakes are a little broken and in this event, a layer of the cake should be arranged in a sherbert cup, the center filled with fruit, cream, marshmallow, etc., and a circle of cake placed on top.

• • • • • • •

But often when one does not expect any visitors and is busy doing certain tasks, she does not think to have these in stock and so when cream, fruit or marshmallow cannot be had, the choice of a chocolate sauce is well made.

• • • • • • •

The wise housewife will always keep cooking chocolate or cocoa in stock, because it can be used in so many ways.

• • • • • • •

The choclate sauce may be made by using a teaspoonful of cornstarch, mixed with water and stirred in slowly to an ounce of chocolate to which a little water, a tablespoon of sugar and a teaspoon of vanilla have been added.

• • • • • • •

Or if it happens that you are out of chocolate, try using pieces of cake to which have been added chopped prunes, nut meats and a little cream.

• • • • • • •

And here is a good point to remember. When making cakes, the little cup cakes I mean, and you are putting the frosting on, leave a few without any icing, in order to make use of them for a dessert dish any one of the ways I have mentioned.

• • • • • • •

These are only a few ideas, and perhaps you may have some that you would like to pass on. If you have, I am sure the neighbors will be pleased.

MARRIED WOMEN IN BUSINESS COMMENTED ON BY SPEAKER AT LOCAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN

Mrs. Lydia Parsons Member of Minimum Wage Board, Addresses Women.

GIRL GUIDE MOVEMENT.

Speaker Represented Canada at Meeting of League of Nations.

An eloquent discourse on the subject of the Girl Guide movement and a glimpse into a problem that is creating a great deal of interest just now; the problem of the married woman in business, were the subjects of the address delivered yesterday afternoon to members of the Local Council of Women by the visiting speaker of the day, Mrs. Lydia Parsons, of Toronto, former national secretary of the Council of Women in Canada, a member of the Minimum Wage Board, a representative of Canada at recent deliberations of the League of Nations, and at present organizer of the Girl Guide movement, a subject evidently very dear to the lady's heart.

Mrs. Parsons, dressed in the dark blue, neat uniform of the Girl Guides, a red cockade on her dark blue hat with its broad-leafed brim, took as her main subject the promotion of the movement in this city. The brief talk which she gave on the subject of married woman in business was inspired by a report presented by Mrs. M. Stranger, who brought up the question for consideration by the members and quoted a recent decision reached in Winnipeg, where stern measures are being taken to restrict the influx into business life of married women who come to work in motor cars and expensive clothes which their less fortunate sisters in employment are unable to duplicate, and who work merely to earn pin money or to buy luxuries for their homes.

The Western report contends that these women displace many men in industry and also prevent the young from obtaining work on leaving school.

Not Quite Fair.

"I do not think that is quite fair," asserted Mrs. Parsons when asked for an opinion on the subject. She said that she would be in Vienna within a few months, where she would be a member of a committee considering this subject. She went on to speak of a survey conducted by herself and another woman in Toronto with regard to married women who take work home, and it was discovered that the majority of these workers were women animated by the direct necessity and seeking every possible means to keep themselves and their dependents from destitution. One case cited was that of a woman earning thirteen cents an hour, putting smocking on babies' coats, to supplement her husband's small wages so that they might provide medical attention for their son, a sufferer from spinal meningitis, whose specially-made boots cost $18.50 a pair.

In many places, such as restaurants she asserted, married women were preferred, and in large offices it had been discovered that they were not as apt as the single girls to remain at home and draw a salary while suffering from a headache or a toothache or a corn.

Mrs. Parsons, whose pleasant, friendly manner, brisk, incisive mode of speech, and evident clear, matter-of-fact, humorous way of regarding life, won her the undivided attention of her hearers, spoke of herself as mid-Victorian in age, but her address was marked by a large degree of youthful enthusiasm and clarity of outlook.

Girl Guide Movement.

Later, she came to the main object of her visit to the city, the renewal of activity in Peterborough of the Girl Guide movement. The speaker proved herself to be an enthusiastic exponent of her subject, and the ladies finally decided to adhere to her request and make the Local Council the supervising, "mothering" influence to the movement which Mrs. Parsons declared was needed for its successful establishment.

Just as the Boy Scout movement was the outcome of the thought of Sir Robert Baden-Powell, so its companion, the Girl Guide project, was the outcome, after many requests had been made to him, of deliberations by Sir Robert and his sister, Miss Agnes Baden-Powell.

In Canada Lady Pellatt was the first Chief Commissioner. Toronto has now from sixty-four to sixty-seven companies, and in Montreal there is much progress being made, the speaker referring to that city as very hard to equal in the manner in which the general work is carried on there.

Mrs. Parsons went on to outline the procedure followed in the formation of a company of Girl Guides, and spoke of several visits made by her to companies in Northern Ontario. One of these was at Island Falls in the James Bay district, while at Gowganda, that isolated section of the north country, the only Girl Guides' clubhouse in Ontario has been erected by a little French-Canadian boy of fourteen years of age.

The Girl Guide movement, declared the speaker, is absolutely and entirely undenominational. It cares for neither creed nor class nor color and "has perhaps suffered for this in the past. Many people say they do not like the movement because we do not teach religion, and in one sense we do not. It was felt that religion could not be introduced into a movement which contained such widely-differing entities as, for example, Mohammedans, Hindus, and Kaffirs."

Kindred societies, however, such as the I.O.D.E., the Catholic Women's League, or Protestant denominations of any type, may have what are called "close" companies, in which the captain and lieutenant and the rule books are all in accord with their own particular tenets.

There are ten laws in the Code. The first is the one which places the guide's honor as the basis of all action on her part. Others are concerned with thrift, loyalty, kindness, and purity.

"And in these points you have the essence of the Christian religion."

The Uniform.

Another great objection is to the uniform, said Mrs. Parsons, who went on to defend it, not on the score of beauty, but because it brought to a common level every class and because it inspired the wearer to carry out as an obligation the duties of her membership.

In response to a question, Mrs. Parsons enumerated the work of a Girl Guide as including play, games, drills, first-aid knowledge, gardening, the ways of the woodland world, the knowledge of how to tie and untie knots, which she declared was especially valuable, bandaging, cooking, and child nursing and care, and above all, the learning to do things in groups rather than individually.

Brownies ranged in years from eight to eleven, the Girl Guides from eleven to sixteen, and the Rangers from sixteen years upward.

The address was prefaced by a brief business session, during which it was announced that the Women's Missionary Society of St. James' United Church had been received into affiliation with the Council.

A committee to consider ways and means of raising money to augment the society's funds and pay its allocation to the National Council, was appointed, with the following members: Mrs. E. Wand, Mrs. B. Law, Mrs. H. E. Dunford, and Mrs. R. Parnell.

WHEN FOLKS PAST "FORTY" BEGIN TO "SLIP"

A Remarkable New Force of "Restimulation" Shows Them The Way to Recapture Youth

AMAZING 20 DAY TEST

At some period in every person's life—usually past the age of forty—comes Nature's first warning that old-time youthful powers and endurance are beginning to flag and slip. Depleted nerve force has begun its deadly age-producing work. Thousands reach this turning point, and having tried various tonics and "pick-me-ups," without permanent benefit, resign themselves to old age and all that "old age" means. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently compounded force of re-stimulation, prepared especially for folks past "forty," that works directly on the nerve cells, is literally working wonders here in Canada in restoring men and women of forty, fifty—yes, even sixty years to youthful power, vitality, endurance and energy. This remarkable preparation, known as Erbac (double strength) is a scientific combination of the best nerve nutrients known to modern chemistry. It is not a cure-all, gland treatment or habit-forming stimulant. It will not help you over-night. But if you take it faithfully for twenty days—and the cost is only 10 cents a day—every druggist in Canada is authorized to refund the purchase price of the first box if you do not truthfull look and feel at least ten years younger—and you are the sole judge. Offered now by leading druggists everywhere, in plain sealed packages, on this binding guarantee. Thousands have made this amazing twenty days' test. Thousands more will make it. Will you be one of them? Bond's

3 Clubs in Battle for Trent Valley League Honors

STIRLING SQUAD HEADS PACK BY TWO POINT LEAD

Campbellford Rests in Second Place With Four Point Margin on Tweed.

POSSIBLE TIE FOR SECOND.

Stirling-Campbellford Game on Tuesday Promises to be Battle of Season.

By "TED" OUTRAM

Scrambling down the home stretch in the Trent Valley League, three clubs are battling to nose the finsh wire in first and second place. The championship series is a mere two weeks away; only six games remain to play, including the deciding of a tie engagement; and Stirling, Campbellford and Tweed are bunched in the final dash for playoff berths.

Stirling is leading the pack and is sure of a place in the championship contest. Bill Whitty's hombres need only win one of their remaining two games to finish out in front.

Campbellford is setting rather prettily in second place, right now, four points up on Tweed. But Campbellford has three more games to play. One is the replaying of the first game on the schedule with Frankford, which ended in a 1-1 tie, another is a tough setto with Stirling in Stirling, and the other is entertaining Frankford at home.

If and If

If the Millers should happen to go into a slump and drop all three fixtures and if Tweed comes through with wins against Stirling tonight and Madoc on Tuesday then these two outfits will be tied for second place. Those are two gigantic ifs, but it can be depended upon that Tweed will be out striving mightily to make their part a certainty.

The Tweed men lost out to Stirling last year in the silverware series, after having led the way throughout the season, and they figure it is about time they were getting a share of the breaks. They took the lowly Madoc into camp on Wednesday night to the tune of 4 to 1.

The Standings Now Are:

	P.	W.	L.	Pts.
Stirling	14	10	4	20
Campbellford	13	9	4	18
Tweed	14	7	7	14
Frankford	12	5	7	10
Madoc	15	3	12	6

The game in Stirling on Tuesday in which the league-leading homesters will do battle with Campbellford promises to be the sweetest contest on the remaining part of the menu. Both clubs are evenly matched and for selecting the winner it is a matter of half a dozen of this and the same of that. The weather may have something to do with it, because the Millers have shown themselves to be better "mudders" than the Whitty crew.

Hard Ice Needed.

Hard ice is needed for the game at Tweed to-night too. The recent sign of Spring-like zephyrs and a blushing Sol has played havoc with ice surfaces throughout the whole circuit. It may mean that to-night's jousts will have to be postponed.

Monday and Wednesday, March 3 and 5, has been tentatively fixed as the dates for the championship games, but the weather may necessitate these being pushed back several days.

This has been one of the greatest seasons in the history of the T.V.H.L. The turnstiles have whirled merrily as the fans crowded in to see the great brand of hockey the teams have been dishing up in such wholesale quantities. Never has the competition been so keen or more games won and lost by the margin of a single counter. Take for example this Madoc club that is occupying the cellar berth. Seven of the games lost by this team have been by one-goal and six of these were in overtime. That is a sample of the shinny dishes all five teams have been providing their delighted followers.

If Stirling wins the championship in the coming series it will be their third successive time and they will have earned permanent possession of the league's big trophy.

Capable Crew.

Looking over the Stirling crew they seem almost capable of repeating. In the Ingrams they have the premier defence pair of the league and the big part of their team. Davis is a good centre, but on the left boards there is a marked weakness. Ibey, a right hand hot, is trying to hold down that assignment which was left vacant when Harry Akers suffered a head concussion in a recent game. On the right wing stands Jack Akers, one of the veterans of the league, and he is playing brilliantly. Morton, the 16-year-old youngster, who crouches in the hemp cage is developing right smartly into a goalie of attainment, but he still cannot rate as high as Irwin, star goal-tender for Campbellford.

Buster Whitton is an outstanding performer with the crack Millers' squad. McKay and Cowell are two beauts, who contribute lustily, and McArthur's solo rushes usually bring results.

Fans need strong hearts and healthy tonsils to watch the coming battle between these two teams.

ICE CARNIVAL BIG SUCCESS

Variety of Costumes on Display at Deloro Winter Festival.

MARMORA, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—The carnival held at the Deloro rink on Tuesday night proved to be a great success. A large number were on hand to witness the different games and the races for children.

The carnival got off to a good start with the Brons and the Canucks playing a novelty game on skates with a broom and football. This game ended in a scoreless tie. Mr. Jules Ethier handled it to perfection.

After the novelty game, the races for children commenced, and resulted as follows:

Boys, 9 years and under, D. Crawford; boys, 10 to 13 years, N. O'Neill, boys, 13 to 16, J. O'Neill; girls, 10 to 13 years, M. Paquet; girls, 13 to 16, F. Buskard; best dressed boy, D. Crawford; best dressed girl, M. Hemphill; best dressed lady, Mrs. C. H. Buskard.

A great deal of interest was taken in the above events. They were thoroughly enjoyed by both young and old.

After the races, skating was enjoyed by those who were dressed for the occasion.

The carnival was brought to a close by a hockey game played between the Reds, managed by Geo. O'Neill, and the Whites managed by W. Mumby. Due to the condition of the ice the game was not as fast as it might have been but nevertheless it was not too slow. The Reds were victors by the score of 3-1.

The teams were:

Referee—R .A. Elliott.
Timekeeper—J. Ethier.

Guelph and Galt In 2-All Deadlock

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—In a game marked by strenuous penalties, Guelph and Galt battled to a two-all deadlock in a Canpro League game last night. Play was very evenly contested wtih each team tallying a goal in the second and third periods.

Guelph was weakened through injuries to "Bumpty" Rott and Sammy Foxworthy, defence player and forward rdespectively. They will be out of the game for the balance of the schedule, it is understood.

MADOC WINS 2-0

Defeats Queensboro Sextet 2-0 on Latter's Home Ice.

MADOC, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—On Monday evening Madoc juniors met the Cooper hockey team on the Madoc arena. A good hockey game was played and clean sportsmanship shown. Much interest is expressed in the future of these young hockey players.

Referee—Barkey of Madoc.

Line ups:

Cooper—Goal, Reynolds; defence, H. Rollins, Parks; centre, B. Rollins; wings, B. McCoy, Bailey; subs, Trotter, Hayton and K .Rollins.

Madoc—Goal, H. Nickle; defence, C. Phillips, N. Whytock; centre, C. Brady; wings, E. Armstrong, K. Tufts; subs, P. Phillips, J. Henderson, K. Nicol.

On Saturday evening Madoc junior town team went to Queensboro for a hockey game with the latter team. Details are not forthcoming. The rougher ice and inadequate lighting get some of the blame. Results 2-0 for Queensboro.

Miss M. E. Nickle, teacher in Queen Mary's school, Belleville, spent the week end with her parents in town.

Miss M. M. Davis of Smithville was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Nickle on Wednesday and of Dr. and Mrs. F. Nickle of Eldorado during the week.

TORNOTO CLUB WINS IN THIRD PERIOD RALLY

Leafs Come to Life After 52 Minutes of Scoreless Hockey.

TALLY FOUR COUNTERS.

New York Americans Earn Tie With Canadian Group Leaders.

TORONTO, Ont., February 21 (Canadian Press). — The Toronto Maple Leafs ripped into the Pittsburg Pirates for four goals in 4 minutes and 18 seconds of the final period of the N.H.L. game played last night at the Arena Gardens. After 52 minutes of good, bad, and indifferent hockey, the Leafs finally located the net, and from then on it was just a question of how many.

NEW YORK, February 21 (Canadian Press). — The light but speedy New York Americans battled their way to a 3 tie with the heavy Montreal Maroons last night in a game between the first and last place teams of the National Hockey League, International group. Despite warm weather and soft ice, the contest was fairly fast and frequently rough.

OUTSCORE CHIHAWKS EASILY

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 21.—Ottawa Senators, getting better as the contest progressed, trounced the Chicago Black Hawks last night 5 to 2 in their intersectional National League hockey match here.

The Senators were slightly outplayed in the first two periods, but finished the second session with a 1 to 0 lead. From there on the Canadians outskated and outfought the Black Hawks, scoring four goals. With Hec Kilrea leading the attack, well aided by Finnigan, Touhey, Gagne and "King" Clancy, the final period became a riot. The Hawks scored two goals in the period, but in using a four and five man offense gave the Senators scoring opportunities that were grabbed up as fast they they occurred.

QUEEN'S SECURE ONE-GOAL LEAD

Tri-color Defeats Oshawa 4-3 in First Game of Senior "B" Playdowns.

SEMI-FINALS TRANSFERRED.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21. (Canadian Press). — Queen's University secured a one-goal lead in their first game with Oshawa in the Ontario Hockey Association senior "B" playdowns last night. Playing at Kingston, Oshawa scored a brace of goals only to have Queen's tie the count before the opening period was over. The winners took the lead in the middle frame and each team counted in the final session. The return game will be played at Oshawa Saturday.

In the junior series Windsor Tech eliminated Kitchener by defeating them on their own ice, two goals to nothing. The winners won the round eight to two. The Windsor team will now meet Niagara Falls in the semi-finals with the first game being staged at Niagara Falls, Feb. 24, and the return game at Windsor Feb. 26.

Parry Sound secured a one goal lead over University of Toronto in the other junior fixture when they defeated the students at Parry Sound one to nothing. The return game will be played in Toronto, Feb. 22.

Owing to the mild weather prevailing at present the four teams in the intermediate semi-finals have transferred their games to artificial arenas. The schedule follows:

Paris vs. Jordan, at Grimsby, Feb. 21; Jordan vs. Paris, at Galt, Feb. 24; Bradford vs. Walkerton, at Stratford, Feb. 22; Walkerton vs. Bradford at Toronto, Feb. 24.

DETROIT SWAMPS NIAGARA FALLS 11-1

Olympics Score 6 Counters in First Period to Cop Easy Win.

TORONTO, Ont., February 21 (Canadian Press). — With nearly every player on the team figuring in a scoring play Detroit Olympics swamped Niagara Falls, 11 to 1, in the only International Hockey League game played last night.

The Olympics met with little opposition and started their scoring record in the first period with a total of six counters. In the middle frame they blasted the puck into the Cataract net for four times while the losers got their only marker. Detroit added one tally to thet rtotal in the final frame.

Detroit's victory placed them within a point of Buffalo for third place, and as they play the lowly Toronto Millionaires to-night they have a good chance of moving up in the standing.

Buffalo cross the river to meet Niagara Falls, and it is unlikely the Cataracts will be so badly off-color on successive nights. A Bison triumph will place them in second position ahead of the London Panthers, who are idle.

In the other schedule fixture Hamilton Tigers visit Windsor Bulldogs. The latte rteam is badly in need of a win to put them in contention for a play-off berth.

The U. S. Bureau of Standards estimates that the earth weighs six sextillion (6,000,000,000,000,000,000) tons.

MILD WEATHER PLAYS HAVOC WITH CITY LEAGUE SCHEDULE

The mild, spring-like weather is holding up the hockey parade locally. The Tool Room and DeLaval were called to play the first game in the senior play-offs of the City League this evening, but it is impossible for the teams to do battle under present ice conditions.

For the past week in the Public School League, King Edward and King George have been waiting for an opportunity to clash to decide the right to meet Prince of Wales for the championship honors. Prince of Wales finished the regular schedule in first place, and King George and King Edward in a tie for second.

The same conditions hold true throughout the province where natural ice must be depended upon. All games in the O.A. have been transferred to artificial ice arenas.

• • • • • •

AMYS' RINK IN FINALS.

Jack Amys' Peterborough rink, last year Junior Tankard champs, will strive to repeat on Tuesday of next week when the finals of the Ontario Junior Tankard will be played in Toronto. Other rinks in this provincial curling competition are: Oshawa, Churchill, Owen Sound, Waterloo, Toronto, High Park and Orillia.

• • • • • •

GOOD BASKETBALL BILL.

All star teams representing the local Y.M.C.A. and the Y.W.C.A. will play a big bill of basketball games in Belleville to-morrow. Doug Loomis has marshalled the best basketball talent in the city to meet the Quinte quintet, which has been playing in the intermediate O.A.B.A. against Queen's and R.M.C. A win for the locals would be an achievement.

• • • • • •

SLIM CHANCE FOR SAINTS.

The battling St. John's team left at noon to-day for Kingston. Two goals down and invading their opponents' backyard the local youngsters' task of pulling a win on the round appears rather slim, but there's isn't a faint heart on the club, and they left determined to make a real bid to do that very thing. If St. John's show more punch around the nets there is no telling but that they might pull a win. The ice will be none too fast even if it is an artificial plant they have in the Jock Harty arena.

Cyclist, 80, Pedals On To New Record

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—W. L. Jones, Civil War veteran and Terre Haute civic worker, has pedaled his bicycle more than 1,000,000 miles and he is still riding, although more than 80 years old.

During the severe winter months, when the streets were dangerously ice, Uncle Wash, as he is known, continued his daily rides down Garfield Avenue.

Uncle Wash retired from business this winter, not because he or his employer thought he was too old, but because he and his wife believed someone else needed the job.

Uncle Wash learned to ride a bicycle 40 years ago, when he was an insurance salesman and collector.

"If you want to stay young, just get a bicycle and ride it until you've lived 80 years of more," Uncle Wash said, but he didn't tell how many years were covered by "more."

Mr. and Mrs. Jones already have signed papers leaving most of their property to a fund for the aid of aged Methodist ministers.

"It seems strange that Uncle Wash gives so much for the old ministers," a Methodist preacher said. "Most of the men he is helping are years younger than he."

Uncle Wash denied it. "I'm not old," he insisted. "I'm young. That's the reason I'll adm't to being 80 years and more—young."

LINDSAY RINK BIRKS FINAL

Butler Meets Walker's Quartette From Fort William in To-day's Play.

'SPIEL NEARING CLOSE.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21.—(C.P.)—After another long night of strenuous curling which reduced play in the North American Life Trophy to the final, and the Ryrie-Birks match to the semi-final round, participants in the Toronto bonspiel were on hand again early to-day to commence their final successive day of competition. The semi-final of the Ryrie-Birks emblem, was started this morning with Richard Butler's rink of Lindsay lined up against D. Walker's quartette from Fort William.

The final will be played off this afternoon with E. H. Brower's four of the Toronto Granites, meeting the victor of the morning Tilt. The final round of the other open competition, the North American Life, will be played at the same time, with H. J. Sims' rink of Kitchener battling with G. Oliver Cameron's men from Barrie, Ont., who for three successive years have fought out the deciding round of this match, and have emerged victorious twice.

The Wrigley Trophy event has narrowed down to the eights, with the semi-final round scheduled for the afternoon program. While the Seiberling Trophy is also expected to reach the semi-finals this afternoon, with the final round being decided late to-night.

ALDERVILLE WINS

Indians Score Their Fourth Straight Victory on Roseneath Ice.

ALDERVILLE, Feb. 21.—(Examiner Correspondence).—After battling every Saturday afternoon the Alderville Trail Rangers (Blackhawks) won their fourth victory over the Roseneath Trail Rangers (Wildcats).

The teams:

Referee—G. Turner.

Speaking Of SPORT

By Frank Getty

FOR THE GATE

It seems to me that the athletic authorities of Notre Dame and West Point overlooked an opportunity in not deciding to hold their 1930 football game at the former's magnificent new stadium at South Bend.

• • •

Here would have been a chance to silence the critics of overemphasis on collegiate football.

The scene of the 1930 contest has been shifted from New York to Chicago on the grounds that playing at Yankee Stadium next fall would take the Notre Dame athletes too long away from their studies, since they have to go out to the Pacific Coast to meet Southern California the following week.

• • •

WHY NOT AT HOME?

Why shouldn't the game be played at South Bend, in that case? Notre Dame has a new stadium adequate to accommodate all its alumni, as well as members of the Army Athletic Association and cadets who might desire to see the game.

• • •

Can it be that the principal object in playing the annual Notre Dame-Army football game is to make money?

• • •

The stadium at South Bend naturally cannot hold as many spectators as Soldier Field, Chicago, but it can accommodate all who might be said to have a legitimate interest in the contest.

• • •

The "I was there" boys would have to get the game on the radio, but the cry of "overemphasis" would be neatly muffled, for once.

• • •

FORESTALLING CRITICISM

The Rev. Charles L. O'Donnell, president of Notre Dame, evidently foresaw some such criticism, for he said:

"The Chicago stadium was chosen (instead of Notre Dame's) on the reasonable theory that West Point belongs to the country, and that when the Army plays the greatest number possible should have an opportunity to see the game."

• • •

Which is more than considerate of Father O'Donnell. Why not make the game available to "the country," then, at prices which would do more than cover expenses, keep the tickets away from the congressmen and others who use this occasion to profit, directly or indirectly, and give Notre Dame a vote of thanks for its generous contribution to a national cause?

LOTTERY PRIZE DWINDLES FAST

Indianapolis Man's $84,750 Shrinks to Few Thousands.

ON RACE WINNER

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 21.—(U.P.).—Eight months ago Arthur Court, 49, won $84,750 on a lottery ticket when an Irish bay colt, Trigo, won the English derby at Epsom Downs.

Today his bank balance has dwindled to "several thousand dollars," and Court has gone to court to save one of his investments.

Eight months ago Court was an engineer at a downtown Indianapolis building; today he can show for his luck on Trigo:

One 59-acre farm, 20 miles from Indianapolis, stocked with "some chickens," "some cows," a brick house filling station and barbecue stand, a half-built dance hall, and a white barn with one horse—on it, not in it—the black, painted likeness of the Irish hay-muncher that brought Court his wealth.

One 200 acre farm, between Columbus and Seymour, planted with wheat.

A spar mine near Elizabethtown, Ill., which Court has in litigation in an attempt to gain control and prevent the loss of his money.

An electric refrigerator, radio, second-hand player piano, a large sedan, six dozen sheets of bed linen, and furniture.

Those are his assets—or liabilities—which ever way it may be considered, and Mrs. Court, at her home, was quick to admit: "I'll be glad when the last several thousand are gone."

Between last year's bearish stock market, the buying of a mine "without getting it all in writin'," and the expenditure of $5,000 in the barbecue stand and filling station that haven't paid for the knobby stones used in the barbecue chimney that doesn't barbecue, Mrs. Court explained the sponging up of their Trigo winnings.

RACING DRIVER TO DEFY JINX WITH SPEEDY AUTO

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—(U.P.)—A car which has carried two renowned racing drivers to their death, and which is said to be "jinxed" will be seen in action on a race track once more.

It will make its appearance on Memorial Day when Bill Alberti, Philadelphia racing driver, will pilot it in an attempt to win $50,000 at the 1930 Indianapolis classic.

The car which Alberti is to drive is the same one in which Ray Keech, winner of the 1929 Indianapolis classic and former holder of the world's automobile speed record, met his death June 15 in a smash-up of four cars on the Altoona speedway.

It was built at a cost of $10,000 for Frank Lockart for his use in an attempt to better the world's speed record. Lockhart was killed in it when the car overturned at Daytona Beach, Fla., on April 25, 1928.

Alberti expects the machine to do better than 150 miles an hour when he finishes tuning it up.

WINS MANY LETTERS

ST. LOUIS, (U.P.).—Although he is only 5 feet, 5 inches high and weighs only 124 pounds, Earl Jansen, pupil at Cleveland high school here, has won 13 letters in sports. He is regarded as a star swimmer, and also a clever player in baseball, track, football and basketball. He is expected to win his 14th letter, in basketball, this winter.

EARLY BASEBALL START

FORT WORTH, (U.P.).—Favored by exceptionally warm weather, the Texas Christian university baseball squad has now put in several weeks of intensive practice.

O.H.A. BULLETIN.

Owing to the mild weather Walkerton, Bradford and Paris intermediates have decided to transfer their home games in the semi-finals to artificial ice and the revised draw is as follows:

Intermediate Semi-Finals.

Friday, Feb. 21.— Paris at Jordan (at Grimsby).

Monday, Feb. 24.—Jordan at Paris (at Galt).

Monday, Feb. 24. — Walkerton at Bradford (at Arena Gardens, 8.30 p.m.).

Junior Semi-Finals.

Monday, Feb. 24.—Windsor-Walkerville Tech at Niagara Falls.

Wednesday, Feb. 26.—Niagara Falls at Windsor-Walkerville Tech.

Mac McCarthy, of Toronto, replaces Ernie Wortley as referee for to-night's Peterborough St. John's-at-Kingston junior game.

GAMES SATURDAY.

Games and referees for Saturday, Feb. 22, follow:

Senior B Series.

Port Colborne at Hamilton— Earl Lakwill, Brantford.

Queen's at Oshawa—Jack Hemphill, Waterloo.

Intermediate Series.

Bradford v. Walkerton, at Stratford—H. H. Jacobi, Toronto.

Junior Series.

Surry Sound at U. of T. (Arena Gardens, 3 p.m.)—Norm Cooke, Orillia.

Referees kindly confirm appointments.

Leigh Miller of Hamilton Olympic Club and Jimmy Ball of Winnipeg, who starred in the Canadian indoor track championship meet at Toronto last night. Miller set a probable new world's record for the 60-metre dash.

Local Cagers Play In Belleville To-morrow

A contingent of Peterborough cagers will strut their stuff on the Belleville Y.M.C.A. basketball floor to-morrow night when they tangle with the Belleville O.B.A. Intermediates. They will do their best to show that Peterborough is one of the Province's basketball centres despite the fact that no entries have been made in the O.B.A. of late.

"Bim" Sturgeon will operate on the forward line along with Ken Kingston. Scotty McLeish will be at centre and the defense end of the Petes' attempt will be well supported by McLeod, Dobbin and Cooper.

They are invading the Quinte town on the invitation of the Intermediates who are preparing themselves for a series of O.B.A. arguments with Queen's University and Toronto.

YOUR KIDNEYS
Guardians of Your Health!

MODERN living conditions tax our human mechanism to the utmost. Probably no part of the body is under more strain than the Kidneys. It is the function of the blood to collect impurities from every part of the body—and it is the important duty of the Kidneys to remove these impurities from the blood. Unless your Kidneys do their work properly you cannot have Health. Tone them up regularly with Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Sarnia Lady Tells of Her Experience

"I had such a severe backache I could hardly turn in my bed. My mother had told me how wonderful Dodd's Kidney Pills were, so I decided to try them. After taking approximately two boxes I was completely relieved."—Mrs. J. Kirby, 141 Samuel Street, Sarnia, Ontario.

FRAUD CASES ARE HEARD IN COURT

Owen Sound Man Tells How He Was Induced to Put $4,000 in Central and Maritime Corporation.

TRADED OTHER BONDS.

TORONTO, Feb. 21 (C.P.).—The story of how he was induced to part with $4,000 worth of Municipal Bankers' Corporation bonds in exchange for stock in the Central and Maritime Development Corporation, Ltd., was told by Samuel Howey of Owen Sound before Judge Denton in the County Judge's Criminal Court in the case of Michael H. Conroy, John T. Loftus and J. B. Legette, charged with conspiracy to defraud and theft.

Howey said that on October 3, Legette came to him and said he represented Stimson's. According to the witness, Legette said he could sell the Municipal Bonds for cash and get other bonds at a higher rate of interest. He handed over the bonds.

Howey said he thought the stock or bonds he was getting was in a market building, but he got the stock in the Central and Maritime Company. He said he was told it was another name for it.

Emma L. Stewart said Leggette had represented to her that the stock of the Central and Maritime Development Corp. was paying 10 per cent.

Florence Burton gave evidence of how she came to subscribe $300. But the amount of stock she got could not be proved because she did not bring her certificates into court.

LARGEST TORONTO BUDGET

TORONTO, Ont.—The largest budget in the history of the city was drawn up by the City Council to-day. The total expenditure for 1930 has been estimated at $37,615,995 as compared with $35,406,250 last year.

BURN FORD COKE

A DOMESTIC FUEL MADE BY FORD MOTOR COMPANY

FORD COKE comes to you clean and uniform. Won't crumble in your bins and leave you dust and waste. Your fuel dollar goes farther when you burn it, too, for the elements that make smoke and soot are eliminated. You're paying for heat, and getting just that — practically all clean heat.

No need to alter your present furnace. Ford Coke is quickly responsive to draft, banks well, requires a minimum of attention. If your wife tends furnace, she'll appreciate the lighter weight of coke. And the absence of soot assures a cleaner home, protection against chimney fires.

KINGSTON MAN LEAVES $14,000

William C. Hodgins Was Counsel For Wilbert Williams, Former Picton High School Teacher.

$10,000 LIFE INSURANCE.

KINGSTON, Feb. 21.— (Special to The Examiner.) — William Charles Hodgins, lawyer, who died very suddenly a few weeks ago, left an estate valued at fourteen thousand dollars. His life insurance, amounting to ten thousand dollars, was willed to his wife. Deceased was the counsel for Wilbert Williams, the former High School teacher at Picton, who brained his wife in Kingston with a hammer. After two trials Hodgins was able to save his client on the ground of insanity. His success gave the lawyer a place in the list of successful pleaders.

PRICE BRINGS UP NEW FRAUD ACT

Salesmen Allowed to do Business Only While Employed By Registered Broker.

ONE FIXED AUDIT.

TORONTO, Ont., February 21 (Canadian Press).— The Security Frauds Prevention Act of 1930 made its bow to the Ontario Legislature yesterday afternoon.

It is the direct outgrowth of the recent interprovincial conference at Queen's Park, and is being copied from coast to coast, as Attorney-General Price, its sponsor, put it, as "an effective way of dealing with a question that has been very contentious in the past, and has caused considerable trouble."

New amendments, emanating from the conference, make it clear that salesmen can do business only while employed by a registered broker, and not after dismissal, etc., until they have been employed by another registered broker; make surety bond available to a judgment creditor who has obtained judgment from a broker who has defrauded him; expressly provide that the Evidence Act of 1929 shall not exempt any bank official from examination under the Act; enable the Attorney-General to appoint expert accountants and engineers to aid him in making examinations; extend somewhat the powers of the Attorney-General to hold funds and securities; extend the remedy of recovering the costs of an investigation; enable the provinces to aid each other in capturing undesirables accused of offences against the Act, and stipulate that one broker's audit shall be at a fixed date in order to let it be used at the end of a fiscal year for purposes of income tax.

KIWANIS HEAR UNDERWRITER

Life Insurance Men Are Guests of Kiwanis at Monday Luncheon.

TWO NEW MEMBERS.

Visiting Life Underwriters attending the congress in Peterborough were the guests of the local Kiwanis Club at their noonday luncheon in the Empress Hotel to-day. Frank Hoy, immediate past president of the Toronto Life Underwriters' Association and an outstanding figure in Life Insurance circles, addressed the gathering, tracing the "Evolution of Life Insurance."

Two new members, William Patch and Gordon C. Miller, were inducted into the Kiwanis Club, J. A. O'Brien acting as their mentor.

The luncheon was one of the largest attended in the history of the local club, the Life Underwriters and Kiwanians fraternizing and exchanging ideas for the benefit of both organizations.

Mr. Hoy stated that the great progress made by Life Insurance in the last twelve years was not due to basic changes in the principles of insurance but in the increased conception of their responsibilities by the companies, salesmen and the public. Institutional advertising he stressed as another important factor in the increased business, and also the absence of petty jealousies on the part of the companies.

John I. Allen acted as chairman and D. M. Bissell, president of the Peterborough Life Underwriters' Association, thanked the Kiwanis Club for the invitation to attend the luncheon.

The music supplied by Mowry-Steers orchestra proved one of the best entertainment features yet enjoyed by the club.

FIRST ARIZONA WOMAN HANGS

Walks Calmly Up 13 Steps to Gallows—Smiles as Black Hood Adjusted.

KILLED EMPLOYER.

FLORENCE, Ariz., Feb. 21 (C.P.)— Mrs. Eva Dugan, the first woman to be legally executed in Arizona, paid with her life on the gallows to-day for the slaying in 1927 of A. G. Mathis, Tuscon rancher. The trap was sprung at 5.11 a.m.

The 52-year-old housekeeper, who was convicted of the murder of Mathis, her employer, in January, 1927, in order to gain possession of his property, spent the hours preceding her execution in the company of the prison chaplain and a few friends.

Until after midnight she sat at a card table and played whist with two woman friends.

She smoked a cigarette and joked with guards as she was marched along to the gallows and as they neared the gallows house she laughed and sang, "I don't know where I'm going; but I'm on my way."

Warden Wright a few minutes before the hanging discovered beneath a mattress in her cell a 2-ounce bottle of poison. Wright said the woman apparently intended to commit suicide, but was prevented from taking the poison by the vigilance of guards.

Mrs. Dugan, unshaken, calmly climbed the 13 steps to the gallows and smiled as the black hood was adjusted over her head. She said she had no statement to make.

CHAUTEMPS ASKS DOUMERGUE FOR ADDITIONAL TIME

Premier-Designate Confident of Having Full Cabinet Later To-day.

TARDIEU UPSETS PLANS.

Republicans of Left Wing Refuse to Support New Gov't by Vote of 26 to 3.

Paris, Feb. 21. (Canadian Press). Camille Chautemps, French premier-designate, after completing a tentative cabinet, ran into difficulty today and this noon asked President Gaston Doumergue to give him more time

The Radical Socialist President nevertheless told M. Doumergue that he was quite confident he could arrange matters. He promised to report with a cabinet list late this afternoon.

A full cabinet had been formed with the exception of a few of the under-secretarial positions but plans were upset by retiring Premier Tardieu.

Plans Upset.

A full Cabinet had been formed with the exception of a few of the under-secretarial positions, but plans were upset by retiring Premier Tardieu's party, the "Republicans of the Left," who refused to support the projected new Government by a vote of 26 against 3.

Their action, which was taken at a party caucus this forenoon, eliminated three of the projected Cabinet, Francois Pietri, Minister of Colonies; Pierre Etienne Flandin, Minister of Commerce, and M. Recalfé, Minister of Pensions.

The Premier-designate therefore had to make some last minute switches. He went to the Elysee Palace at noon and spent a half-hour with the President, announcing afterward that he would have a Cabinet formed later in the day.

There was widespread prediction that while he probably would present a Ministry to President Doumergue during the day, it would last only long enough to be voted down in the Chamber of Deputies when the Ministerial declaration is read.

Working through the night Chautemps had announced the list of Cabinet appointees.

Five portfolios in the new government were allowed the men who held them in the preceding ministry headed by Tardieu, who resigned Monday after an adverse vote in the Chamber on a trivial budgetary item.

These five posts were: Foreign Affairs, held by Aristide Briand; Labor, Louis Loucheur; Colonies, Francois Pietri; Commerce, Pierre Etienne Flandin; Air, Laurent-Eynac.

Cabinet List.

The Cabinet list as announced follows:

Premier and Minister of Interior—Camille Chautemps.
Foreign Affairs—Aristide Briand.
Justice—Jules Steeg.
Marine—Albert Sarraut.
War—Rene Besnard.
Labor—Louis Loucheur.
Finances — Charles Dumont or M. Lamoureux.
Education—Edouard Daladier.
Commerce—Pierre Etienne Flandin.
Public Works—Jean Durand.
Agriculture—N. Queille.
Colonies—Francois Pietri.
Merchant Marine—M. Danielou.
Post—Georges Bonnet.
Air—M. Laurent-Eynac.
Pensions—M. Ricolfi.

Rely On Socialists.

The cabinet thus is formed, but political circles calculated its expectation of life at a low figure. Refusal of Andre Tardieu to accept a place in it removed chance of support of two important centre groups. To keep afloat the ministry will be more or less obliged to count upon the Socialists.

Under Secretaries announced by M. Chautemps were:

In the Premier's Office, Aime Berthon; Interior, M. Cathala; War, M. Barety; Marine, M. Paganon; Finance, M. De Chappe D'Elaine; Colonies, M. Archibald; Health, M. Marchandeau.

Physical Education, Agriculture and Fine Arts were left temporarily vacant.

DIXON IS GIVEN 3-YEAR TERM

Man is Wanted in Toronto, Port Hope and Picton on Like Charges.

SENTENCED IN BELLEVILLE.

BELLEVILLE, February 21. — George Oliver Dixon, alias Williams, was sentenced to three years in the Portsmouth Penitentiary yesterday by Magistrate Mikel, on a charge of theft. This sentence will run concurrently with the remainder of his parole, which is two years and six months. Dixon is wanted in Toronto, Port Hope and Picton, and an officer arrived from the Queen City yesterday to take Dixon back to stand trial on a charge of theft. Dixon was convicted in 1920 and sentenced to ten years in the Portsmouth Penitentiary for receiving stolen goods, and in 1923 was released on ticket of leave. Two years later he was arrested for illegal marriage and other charges, being sentenced to 12 months in the reformatory. In the next year he was sent back to the penitentiary for violation of his parole. In 1928 he was again released on ticket of leave and soon afterwards was apprehended for alleged wife-beating. Dixon worked all his thefts the same way. He would take a radio on trial and then ask the owner to allow him to take it to the country to try, and if permission was granted he would sell the machine out of town.

OBITUARY

ANDREW CHILDS.

The death occurred on Thursday of Andrew Childs, of 580 Patterson St., in his 75th year. He was predeceased by his wife some years ago.

The funeral will be held on Saturday from his late residence, at 2.00 p.m. Interment at Little Lake cemetery.

ST. PAUL'S CHOIR ARE BANQUETED

Ladies of Church Provide Supper For Musical Leader of Congregation.

MUSIC AND GAMES.

The choir of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church were banqueted last evening—the Ladies' Aid organized and sponsored the affair — there were about one hundred choristers, friends and guests in the Sunday School Hall and a happy time was enjoyed.

Splendid Dinner.

This banquet annually is the tangible evidence of the interest of the Ladies' Aid Society in the work of the choir during the year, and is enjoyed by the members, who feel that in the Aid are the friends of this part of church service.

After the "blessing," Mrs. J. Garbutt, for the ladies, extended a gracious welcome—"if you all enjoy the good things as we have enjoyed preparing them, we are amply repaid." A splendid dinner was partaken—the tables daintily arayed with red streamers, and candlesticks with red candles, and the new chinaware recently purchased by the society adding to the setting.

Music and Games.

A short program was carried through, commencing with those old favorites, Amos 'n' Andy over radio installed for the evening. "The Mulligan Muskcteers" was rendered by a male voice choir. The chairman called on a few guests for stories or "words of hope" to the choir, among those heard being M. B. Chenhall, James Best, H. B. Cowan, Jack Sedgwick, and W. L. Ferguson. Mignon Mayneord (Chrissie Milby at the piano) delighted with a whistling solo. Charlie Clark rendered a solo with a theme of love. Bertha Hill sang a humorous number.

Old Game Revived.

Ping-pong enjoyed a come-back on two tables for a brief period, followed by the newspaper race, marching forfeits game, a choir singing contest by two bodies of choristers, and Duke of York.

These amusements, with "Auld Lang Syne" as the finale, rounded out an evening long to be remembered by St. Paul's Choir, with M. B. Chenhall as pianist.

To the ladies who made the banquet possible, a hearty vote of thanks was extended.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 21 (Canadian Press). — A warrant issued by General Victor Williams, Chief Magistrate of Ontario, on behalf of the Attorney-General of Alberta, directing seizure of all books and documents of Solloway-Mills and Company, local brokerage firm, was quashed late yesterday by Mr. Justice McEvoy at Osgoode Hall.

IN MEMORIAM

ARMOUR — In loving memory of Mrs. George L. Armour, who passed away seven years ago to-day, Feb. 21.

A loving mother, so gentle and kind,
What a wonderful memory she left behind.
She did not fail to do her best,
Her heart was true and tender.
She worked hard for those she loved,
That is something to remember.
She suffered much with patient love,
Physicians were in vain.
Til God above in His great love
Relieved her from her pain.

Man Confesses to Slaying Nine

CONSERVATIVES SAY NEW PARTY IS UNNECESSARY

Claim Beaverbrook Fighting Only Party Able to Obtain Free Trade.

REALIZE DIFFICULTIES.

If Attack on Tories Successful, Socialists Will Return For 10 Years.

LONDON, Feb. 22. (By Thos. T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—The Conservatives declare Lord Beaverbrook's United Empire Party is unnecessary; that they themselves have largely adopted a policy of economic unity within the Empire.

The central office of the Conservative Party to-day issued a leaflet pointing out the Conservative Party has declared it means to work to secure Empire Free Trade, but realizes the obstacles. The Dominions are not willing to adopt it in the present circumstances. And the colonies, in many cases, could not adopt it because their revenue is mainly derived from customs duties, the leaflet says. Many of these treaties would have to be scrapped before an immediate Free Trade policy could be adopted. Mandated territories would be prevented from coming into the scheme.

Split Conservatives

"Lord Beaverbrook and Lord Rothermere," says the leaflet, "instead of helping are preparing to fight the only party through which Empire Free trade could ever be achieved. The only result will be to split the Conservative Party on behalf of the Liberals and Laborites, who are opposed to all forms of imperial preference."

This follows a speech by Rt. Hon. J. C. Davidson chairman of the Conservative organization, to the Cambridge Borough Conservative Association last night, in which he said it was a great pity that Lord Beaverbrook, who had done great work in the past in helping to build the British Empire, had not followed the example of that other great pioneer of Empire—Joseph Chamberlain who preached Empire in season and out of season.

Mr. Davidson recalled that Chamberlain, in a great speech at Glasgow, had declared: "I am taking the position of a pioneer. I go in front of the army. But when the army is attacked I go back to it." That has been the attitude of the majority in the Conservative party, as has been seen in the past few days, Mr. Davidson said. Although they might have held the opinion that things wanted speeding up yet at the first sign of attack they returned to its defence. If the party was to be attacked by the United Empire party or any other party, the place of Conservatives was in the ranks of the party.

Mail Attacks Party.

"The present policy of the Daily Mail and the Express seems to be an attack on the Conservative party, where it is strongest," Mr. Davidson declared," but if this attack succeeds they will be instrumental in putting the Socialists back into office for the next 10 years. Lord Beaverbrook has been in the House of Commons as a good Tory and I hope the time will come once again when he will join forces with the Conservatives against Socialism."

RIVER IS 10 FEET LOWER

GALT, Ont., Feb. 22 (C.P.)—After a hectic hour yesterday when the Grand River went on its annual rampage, conditions were normal here to-day, the river having dropped over ten feet. Manufacturers and householders along Water street were to-day busy cleaning up while the unemployed were given work cleaning away the ice-blocked section of Water street south. The main street bridge is still closed to traffic pending an inspection to decide the extent of the damage done.

Two Fliers' Bodies Arrive at Nanuk

Motorship Nanuk, North Cape Siberia, February 22. (C.P., via Point Barrow, Alaska.) — The bodies of Pilot Carl Ben Nielson and Mechanic Earl Borland, were brought here to-day from the a-goon 90 miles to the southeast, where their plane crashed on Nov. 9, while they were attempting a flight from Teller, Alaska, to the Nanuk.

The bodies were brought here in a cabin plane piloted by Commander Slipenov, Russian pilot.

It is planned to take the bodies to Nome in a cortege of planes piloted by Canadian, Russian and United States flyers. From here the remains will be taken to Fairbanks, and then sent to the United States for burial.

FOUR YOUNG MEN BURNED TO DEATH IN STATION FIRE

Small Storage Building is Destroyed on Pennsylvania Railroad.

GASOLINE IGNITED.

Victims Are Believed to Have Been Prowlers Seeking Night's Lodging.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Feb. 22 (Canadian Press).—Four young men were burned to death to-day in an explosion and fire that destroyed a small storage building of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Edenburg, near here.

Coroner J. P. Caldwell, of Lawrence County, believed that the victims were prowlers, who had ignited gasoline stored in the building. The gasoline burned for hours after the explosion, keeping firemen away from the building.

Formerly Passenger Station.

The building formerly was used as a railroad passenger station, but had been abandoned and used as a warehouse.

While the bodies were burned so severely they could not be identified definitely, the coroner said he believed the victims were Dominic and Lewis Zarelli, brothers, of Hillsville, and Sam and Nick Retort, also brothers, of Edenburg.

The four young men, ranging in age from 16 to 21 years, returned from Youngstown, Ohio, last night. A brother of the Zarelli youths said he had accompanied the party, but had left them at his home in Hillsville, while the others went on to Edenburg. The Zarellis' automobile was found near the burned building.

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO WASHINGTON

Alexandria, His Home Town, Leads All U. S. in Birthday Celebrations.

198TH ANNIVERSARY.

WASHINGTON, D.C., February 22 (Canadian Press). — The one hundred and ninety-eighth anniversary of the birth of George Washington was observed to-day throughout the length and breadth of the nation which he had so great a part in establishing.

The City of Washington, founded and named for the leader of the Continental Army, and Alexandria, Virginia, the home town of the Revolutionary hero, across the historic Potomac River from the capital, led the country in the celebration.

In both halls of Congress time was set aside for tribute to the "Father of his Country." Following tradition, the Senate's program included Washington's farewell address. Convening an hour earlier than usual for its special program for the day, the House cleared the way for nine speeches by members of the George Washington Bi-centennial Commission which is preparing for the 200th anniversary two years hence.

SELF-CONFESSED SLAYER BAFFLES DETROIT POLICE

Detectives Able to Confirm Only One Slaying of Nine That Baker Admits.

Claims He Shot Stepfather.

Evidence of Stepmother Shows He Was Only Wounded in Foot.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 22 (C.P.)—James Baker, the 25-year-old globe-girdling sailor, farm hand and amateur toxicologist, who readily admits the slaying of nine men, had the police in a quandary to-day.

According to Baker's elaborate and slightly boastful confession, he has killed eight men with poison and the ninth with a revolver. But the police to-day said they had become a bit skeptical about the validity of Baker's confession. They pointed out that only one of his supposed crimes has evoked the slightest bit of confirmation.

That was the slaying of Henry Gaws, a night watchman, at the Guggenheim laboroatories in New York, Dec. 28, 1928.

Prove Puzzle.

It is Baker's other crimes, however, which puzzle detectives. He says he poisoned a man named Honeycut at Houston, Texas, in 1924, but police of that city have been unable to confirm this. He also claims he shot and killed his stepfather, Henry Park, at Newton Falls, Ohio. In answer to this latter claim, Mrs. Teresa Parks, his stepfather's second wife, told Warren, Ohio, authorities yesterday that instead of killing Parks, Baker had merely wounded him in the foot and fled.

Baker's story of his other crimes has brought forth neither confirmation nor denial.

FIFE COMMITTEE MEETS TUESDAY

J. J. Duffus Brings Back Encouraging Report From Ottawa.

MEMBERS ARE KEEN.

Reeve McIntyre of Otonabee Township has called a general meeting of the proposed Fife Memorial Committee for Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock in the Board Room of the J. J. Duffus Building. Those who are expected to attend include the Otonabee committee recently appointed by Reeve McIntyre, all the reeves of the county who can conveniently reach the city, the deputation from the City Council which will be nominated at the Monday night meeting recently mentioned by Mayor Denne, also representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis, farmers' clubs, together with other citizens who are interested in this project.

Reeve McIntyre and Reeve John Leahy of Douro met J. J. Duffus at his office to-day, and received from him a very encouraging report resulting from his visit this week to Ottawa.

Meet Ontario Members.

"I had conversations with all the Ontario members of the Cabinet," Mr. Duffus said, "also with the Hon. Mr. Stewart, a number of private members, Senator McGuire and Senator Buchanan, and all of them declared themselves in full accord with Peterborough's proposal to establish a demonstration station as a memorial to David Fife. As to the practical details of the movement, they will have to be worked out, and while we don't know now what the response of the Government will be, at any rate, the Peterborough committee should be greatly encouraged by the warm sentiment which I found on all sides. In fact, I didn't hear one word of opposition.

Buchanan Is Keen.

Senator Buchanan, for example, assured me that he would do everything he could to promote this memorial. Senator McGuire will give as much of his time as possible to the idea of a Toronto committee, and some of the private members will be actively behind us. Among those I met were Hon. Mr. Malcolm, Hon. Mr Euler, Hon. Mr. Elliott, and Hon. Mr. Heenan, and as I say, I met with nothing but a cordial feeling toward this movement."

Reeve McIntyre remarked that Mr Duffus' news from Ottawa would be an additional incentive for the Peterborough committee to put every effort into their plans for the realization of the Fife Memorial.

LIBERAL PARTY'S POLICY TENDS TO LEAD TO UNEMPLOYMENT SAYS MRS. HOWARD FALLIS AT BIG RALLY

Legion Hall is Filled to Capacity at Annual Conservative "At Home."

REV. W. G. MARTIN SPEAKS.

Speaker of Evening Delivers Inspirational Address on Canada's Future.

Seldom has a political gathering in this city been so largely attended as was the Conservative "At Home" held last evening in the Canadian Legion Hall. The auditorium was crowded to hear addresses by Rev. W. G. Martin, M.P.P., for Brantford, Mrs. Howard Fallis, the two local members and representatives of the Young Conservative Association.

Mrs. Fallis replied to a recent address delivered to the local Liberal Women's Association by Mrs. Sutherland. Mrs. Sutherland had stated that policy of the Liberal party on the tariff question was "to get things into the home as cheaply as possible". Mrs. Fallis briefly stated the Conservative policy as being aimed at maintaining steady employment and good wages for Canadian workmen and in that way the cost of living would take care of itself.

Flood Canadian Market

She said that the Liberal policy of cheapness would allow articles manufactured in Central Europe by men receiving a mere pittance as wages to flood the Canadian market, and this would either place men out of employment here or reduce the standard of living. The Conservative party wasn't looking at five or ten cents more on an article but had the broader vision of building up the country by giving manufacturies an opportunity to grow and maintaining employment.

She pointed out that the Ontario government had placed a bounty of one cent per unit on the iron ore taken from Ontario mines and this was a direct step to the establishing of an iron industry in the province.

In the chief address of the evening, Rev. Martin gave an inspirational address on Canada's future and the opportunities awaiting the Canadian youth. He paid high regard to the work of Mrs. Fallis and intimated that were there a Conservative regime at Ottawa Mrs. Fall's might have had the recent appointment to the Senate.

Widow Has No Fear Of Pharaoh's Curse

LONDON, Feb. 22. — (C.P.)—Despite the superstition of the Pharaohs which is supposed to visit all who have had any share in the Tut-Ankh-Amen excavations, the family of Lord Westbury, who committed suicide yesterday, intend to keep their collection of mementes from the tomb, including richly jewelled ornaments and carved Egyptian figures.

A cousin of Lord Westbury, whose suicide was the latest death in a series of tragedies which followed exploration of Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb, said to-day that Lord Westbury had no belief in the "curse of the Pharaohs." He also adds that Lady Westbury intended to keep all the relics from the tomb which had been gifts from her late son, Richard Bethell, who helped Howard Carter in the excavations and who died last year.

NEW AGREEMENT MAY CUT RATES

Plans Under Way For 50 Per Cent Reduction in Trans-Atlantic 'Phone Calls.

WILL EXTEND SERVICE.

LONDON, Feb. 22. — (Canadian Press Cable.)— If present negotiations between the British post office and United States' companies result in satisfactory agreement, a reduction of possibly 50 per cent. in trans-Atlantic telephone talks by beam wireless may be effected.

The next big development will be the commencement of a regular beam telephone service to Australia, which it is hoped to eventually extend to South Africa, India and New Zealand. The post office just now is concentrating on development of this means of communication with the Dominions, but in time it is hoped British business men will be able to talk to customers in Shanghai or other equally distant points.

A pile of one thousand million dollars would reach a height of 248 miles.

JUDGE O'CONNOR AND RAY P. BEST ARE IN FINALS

Cobourg Rink Defeats R. G. Hall of Kitchener By Two Points.

BEST BEATS WALKER.

Fort William Rink is Beaten By One Point in Great Finish.

VICTORIA CLUB, Toronto, Feb. 22 (Special to The Examiner).—The third annual Toronto Bonspiel is nearing a close. In the semi-final of the Seiberling this morning Judge Larry O'Connor Cobourg defeated R. G. Hall of Kitchener 12 to 10.

This puts Judge Larry O'Connor, the well known Cobourg skip, against Ray P. Best of Peterborough in the final. Hall is still in the running for the grand aggregate, which will allow him to play in the Dominion championship for the Macdonald's Brier Tankard at the Granite Club next week.

Ray Best, skip of the Peterborough rink, defeated D. Walker of Fort William 7 to 6. The final game is being played this afternoon.

FLOOD DANGER IS RAPIDLY PASSING

Grand River Within Bounds Again, But Leaves Trail of Damage in Galt.

SECOND BREAK OF YEAR.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 22 (C.P.) — Flood conditions throughout Southern Ontario were considerably improved to-day according to early reports. Springlike temperatures of the past few days resulted in the break-up yesterday of numerous rivers and creeks and as is usually the case the Grand River proved the most spectacular.

Grand Subsides

Rising ten feet with alarming rapidity yesterday the Grand River caused grave apprehension and a number of citizens were rescued from buildings in the path of the flood by police and firemen. During the night, however, the swirling waters receded almost as rapidly as they rose and to-day the river was reported to be within its bounds. Heavy damage was done in Galt, particularly along Water street. This morning cleaning up was the order, with the unemployed given the task of removing huge chunks of ice which littered the streets.

Elsewhere in the Province swollen streams were being closely watched while engineers supervised the strengthening of bridges strained by high waters.

The break-up marks the second time this year that the ice-laden streams of the southern counties have given way before unprecedentedly mild temperatures. Early in January considerable damage was caused in Western Ontario but with the exception of the Grand River, yesterday's floods will not prove every extensive.

Thames Up Four Feet

At Chatham the Thames River was approximately four feet above normal summer level at noon to-day, a foot higher than it was yesterday. Veteran observers report that there are no farm lands flooded between the city and the lake. At the mouth of the river the ice is honeycombed and the reports from there indicate that the water is flowing out into the Lake St. Clair without difficulty.

CHAUTEMPS HAS STORMS AHEAD

Majority of Paris Press Inclined to Favor New Premier and His Cabinet.

HAS SHOWN ABILITY.

PARIS, February 22 (Canadian Press Cable via Havas). — The newspapers, while agreeing that Premier Chautemps succeeded in including men of outstanding ability in his Cabinet, forsee immediate storms to be weathered by the new Government.

Le Journal believes that when the Cabinet demands a vote of confidence on Tuesday the battle will be close. La Republique supports the Government, saying it should have the confidence of the nation. La Volomie states Chautemps will satisfy the national demand for economy. Le Populaire declares "equivocal formations no more exist." The Petit Journal finds that Premier Chautemps demonstrated a measure of ability in his successful formation of a Cabinet.

POORMAN GOLD STRIKE STARTS RUSH IN YUKON

Whole Camp Deserted As Everyone Heads For Field in 40 Below Zero.

GROUND ALL STAKED.

Army Officer Gets Leave to Try Luck, But Arrives Too Late.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 22 (C.P.)—From the far reaches of the Yukon River, where the temperature hovers around 40 below zero, the terse staccato of a telegrapher's key has brought a vivid picture of Alaska's latest gold strike.

"Richest gold strike in history this camp, struck at Poorman few days ago—Every man in whole vicinity that can get transportation of any kind going or gone—temperature forty below zero — Poorman, every cabin crowded; the one roadhouse and store filled to capacity—all mining plants closed down, all rushed to stake in ground at new discovery—panning out unusually well—ivisited prospect shaft—told to pan for ourselves—temperature still forty below zero—broke piece, held pan with dirt into tub boiling water to thaw out—panned, finding about two dollars nine-six cents worth fine-looking washed gold in two pans."

Thus reports to the army, Sergeant William N. Growden, Signal Corps operator at Rubs, Alaska, who was bitten so hard by the gold bug that he asked and received five days' travelled 29 miles a day by dog team with an Indian guide to reach the discovery, only to find them virtually all staked.

QUEBEC WOLVES TAKE HIGH TOLL

One Vicinity Reports 200 Cows, Sheep, and Even Horses, Victims in Six Weeks.

ASK HIGHER BOUNTY.

HULL, Que., Feb. 22 (Canadian Press).—An ever-increasing toll of live stock and game is being taken by wolves in the northern parts of Wright, Labelle and Papineau Counties, according to word reaching here from farmers of the district. The most astounding of the many tales about the marauders is told by Guy Bigelow, who farms eight miles north of the town of Buckingham. Within the last six weeks close to 200 cows, calves, sheep and even horses have fallen prey to the wolves, says Bigelow. Others tell of humans being stalked but not attacked by the packs.

At a recent meeting of farmers it was decided to petition the Quebec Government to increase the bounty on wolves to $100 for females and $50 for males in place of the present general bounty of $15.

HINDU-MOSLEM RIOTS

AHMEDABAD, India, Feb. 22 (C.P.)—Hindu-Moslem riots to-day were reported to have broken out at Una, in the State of Junagada, during which several Hindus, including women, were seriously injured and Hindu shops looted and burned.

CHIEF CORONER TO INVESTIGATE TORONTO DEATHS

Woman and Man Die on Operating Tables in Toronto Hospital.

INQUEST TO BE HELD.

Anaesthetic Blamed For Woman's Death, Whose Appendix Was Being Removed.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 22.—(C.P.)—Investigations into the deaths of a man and woman who died under anaesthetic in hospital yesterday, will be started by Chief Coroner Dr. M. M. Crawford just as soon as the preliminary details are completed. Dates for the inquests will be announced later.

In an interview to-day Dr. Crawford said the death of Mrs. Myrtle Rogers, 40, was much more complicated than that of the other victim, Louis R. Mill, 63. Mrs. Rogers, he said, had been administered a mixture of gas and oxygen, together with a small quantity of ether. An operation to remove the woman's appendix had been completed when her breath suddenly became labored and she died in a few minutes. A sample of the ether used was taken by the Chief Coroner to be analyzed.

In the case of Mills, pure ether, which is generally considered by medical men the safest of all anaesthetics, according to Dr. Crawford, was administered. Mills was just about to be operated on for an intestinal ailment when he became violently ill. The operation was immediately stopped but all efforts to revive him proved futile. According to a statement by Dr. J. W. Russell, who administered the anaesthetic, both Mr. and Mrs. Mills understood the risk in the operation but desired it should be performed. Dr. Russell definitely stated death was not due to anaesthetic.

DESAUTEL FACES SERIOUS CHARGE

Former Peterborough Boy in Accident When Person is Killed.

BAIL SET AT $3,000.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., February 22. — Frank Desautel, formerly of Peterborough, where he was well known as a builder, is being held in jail in this city on a charge of negligence occasioning death as the result of an accident in which he figured on Thursday night.

While driving on a highway outside the city he struck and killed a pedestrian walking on the road. He was immediately arrested, and in view of the seriousness of the charge the judge set bail at $3,000. He is being defended by Earl Dunn, a prominent lawyer of this city.

Mr. Desautel left Peterborough about five years ago.

VISIT OF GRAF EXPECTED.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 22. — (Canadian Press).—Another visit to the United States by the Graf Zeppelin is in prospect for the near future. Permission has been granted for the giant German airship to make use again of the landing facilities at Lakehurst, New Jersey. Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander of the Zeppelin, is planning a study of the possibilities of the airship in traffic between Europe and North and South America.

Two Die Suddenly Under Anaesthetic

TORONTO, Ont., February 22 (Canadian Press). — Two persons died suddenly in local hospitals last night while abdominal operations were being performed. Mrs. Myrtle Rodgers, 40, was given a mixture of gas and oxygen, with a small quantity of ether, as an anaesthetic prior to an operation for appendicitis. She died on the operating table.

The remainder of the ether was taken by Chief Coroner Dr. M. M. Crawford, acting under instructions from the Ontario Attorney-General's Department.

The other victim was Louis R. Mill, 63, who was administered pure ether, it was reported. He died as a surgeon was about to make an incision for an intestinal infection.

Thorough investigations will be made into both deaths and autopsies and inquests held.

BRACKEN SCORES F. TAYLOR'S PLAN OF STABILIZATION

Scheme Would Disturb Market and Probably Destroy Wheat Pools.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Premier Claims Gov't Will Make No Hasty Moves That May Disturb Trade.

WINNIPEG, February 22 (Canadian Press). — The Government of Manitoba is not in favor of the Dominion Government Wheat Stabilization Board suggested by Colonel F. G. Taylor, K.C., Conservative Leader, Premier John Bracken stated in the Legislature yesterday afternoon. He made the statement when forecasting legislation planned three weeks ago, when the Prairie Provinces announced they would protect the Wheat Pool's margin on loans from banks.

Ill-Considered, He Says.

He stated that the Taylor proposal was untimely and ill-considered; untimely because "it tends only to further disturb the market at a time when stabilization is needed, and ill-considered because it would probably bring about the destruction of the wheat pools, which ought, in the interest of Canada, to be preserved." Mr. Bracken declared there had been no change in the Government's policy with regard to the proposed guarantee to the banks in connection with advances to the wheat pool.

"During the past few days the details of the necessary legislation have been receiving consideration, and yesterday arrangements were completed for a conference between the Premiers of the three Prairie Provinces to bring about as much uniformity as possible in the proposed legislation," he said.

"I may observe that this conference is called on initiative of the Premiers and not because of any situation that may have arisen since that time.

No Occasion for Alarm.

"So far as the Government is concerned, we see no occasion whatever for alarm in the present market situation. Notwithstanding rumors to the contrary, the pools' margins at the banks are well maintained."

Mr. Bracken then outlined the position the Government proposed to take respecting guarantees and to the suggestion that a Federal Board should be appointed to take over the marketing of the crop.

"With respect to the guarantees, this Government will adhere to the policy already announced, and, so far as I am aware, the other Governments are of the same opinion," he said.

He declared the attitude of the Government would be that no hasty action should be taken that would result in the destruction of the wheat pool, or "in turning from the producers themselves and from the legitimate grain trade to the Government the control and management of marketing.

HAMILTON TRIAL HEARD MARCH 3

Bondsmen Not Present, Crown Attorney Undecided About Bail Renewal.

ASKS CUT TO $25,000.

STRATFORD, Ont., Feb. 22 (C.P.)—J. Cecil Hamilton, former Listowel lawyer and former agent there for Hubbs & Hubbs, Toronto, real estate brokers, appeared in court here today before Judge James L. Killoran, but his election on 19 charges of false pretenses was postponed until March 3. Hamilton was unable to have his bondsmen present and there was an argument as to whether or not bail would have to be renewed when he elected. Judge Killoran announced that it would, and J. C. Makins, K.C., who represented Hamilton asked to have it reduced from $50,000 to $25,000. Crown Attorney H. B. Morphy did not given his consent, but stated that he would advise defense counsel within a few days.

WOMAN INJURED BY TAXI DRIVER

CASE ADJOURNED.

Gordon Smith, taxi driver for Gerald Dunford, in Police Court this morning faced a charge of criminal negligence arising from a motor accident at the corner of Charlotte and George streets yesterday afternoon in which Mrs. Wm. Rowe, aged 70, received painful but not serious injuries.

Mrs. Rowe was crossing west on George street at the corner when she was struck by the car driven by Smith, which had taken the left hand turn from Charlotte on to George street. The woman wac knocked down and suffered injury to her back and leg. Her face was lacerated.

The case against Smith was adjourned for one week without plea.

Signs of Spring In Warsaw District

WARSAW, Feb. 22 (Examiner Correspondence).—Warsaw is not without its harbingers of Spring. The first crow of the season announced its arrival with some hearty "caws" to-day. The sudden thaw has already bared a number of fields in the district and many of the main roads are opening up for auto traffic.

Despite the abundance of water the level in most of the wells is quite low, the soil being so hard that it is not seeping through.

FOUR TORONTO REDS ARRESTED DURING MIX-UP

Riot Call Sent in By Police in Effort to Disperse Crowd of 300.

REFUSED USE OF HALL.

Claim Freheit Choir Will Sue Hall Management and Police Management.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 22 (C.P.).—A riot call was issued by local police last night during their attempts to disperse a group of Communists determined to hold a meeting on the street. Some 300 Communists and spectators milled about as police fought to break up the throng.

Three men and a young woman, alleged leaders of the Reds, were arrested for obstructing the police and traffic; all were admitted to bail.

The trouble all started over the refusal by the management of a local hall to allow the Communists to hold a meeting in the place. Last week the Reds rented the hall for last night, stating they intended to hold a concert.

In a statement issued last night the Labor Defence League announced action for damages will be instituted by the Freheit Choir scheduled to hold the concert, against the management of the hall and against the police department.

"This is the second time the concert had been postponed," said the statement. "Once before a hall had been secured, but owing to police pressure, it was cancelled by the management."

ONTARIO RIVERS GO ON RAMPAGE AS ICE GOES OUT

Grand River Rises Ten Feet in Few Minutes at Galt—Streets Are Flooded.

FISH ON PAVEMENT.

Fishermen Fear For Craft at Port Stanley—Cobourg Suffers Flood.

TORONTO, February 22. — Gorged with ice, many rivers in Central and Western Ontario yesterday entered a flood stage, and in their rampage caused heavy damage to property.

Galt suffered particularly in the spring freshet, the Grand River rising ten feet within a few minutes. The water in its rush wrecked bridges and swirled several feet deep in business streets. Firemen and police rescued marooned citizens from office buildings. Large cakes of ice floated into the streets, in one of which a fish weighing four pounds was caught. At Brair, three miles north of Galt, the ice is piled 30 feet high along the banks.

In Kitchener citizens were anxious for several hours while the ice packed at Freeport. About two o'clock the jam began to move, and within an hour the water level had dropped two feet. Police and volunteers rescued Miss Ella Lutz from her home with difficulty.

In Brantford the flood-prevention works were reported in good order, but the situation is being watched closely.

Harbor men at Port Stanley express some anxiety over the ice blockade that has formed in Kettle Creek, about half a mile above the village. Damage to fishing craft is feared should the barricade give way suddenly.

At Chatham a rise in the Thames River of three feet since Thursday is reported.

Ice from the hills is causing trouble in streams in the Cobourg district. Close watch is maintained at bridges.

706 ARRESTS MADE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 22—(C.P.).—The second week of the uninterrupted police campaign against crimes ended to-day with another batch of arrests on the books. Arrests for the 24-hour period ended last midnight totalled 706.

U. S. Hot Dogs Pay Dividend in London

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—(U.P.).—The "hot dog" American adaption of a popular old food, is so popular in London that it pays big dividends to stockholders in the United States.

An American company, selling on the English market, has just declared another dividend of 12 per cent, according to Jabez T. Williamson, tea taster and buyer for Sir Thomas Lipton, here enroute to visit his daughter in San Jose. Williamson is on his way to India and the Malay States.

CHICAGO POLICE BREAK UP MOB; ARREST THIRTY

Red Agitators March on City Hall in Protest to Unemployment.

NO SERIOUS INJURIES.

No Cause For Kick Commissioner States, As There is Plenty of Work.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.— Spurred bp speeches at a mass meeting several hundred men and women followers of Soviet Russia, accompanied by hoboes and curious street crowds, yesterday attempted to rush the city hall, demanding 'work and wages."

The demonstration came at the luncheon hour and was quickly suppressed by mounted police and a reinforcement of patrolmen. There were about 30 arrests, a few broken heads and some profanity.

Notices of the mass meeting had come to the attention of the police early and Commissioner Russell made preparations to suppress any street disturbance.

There has been no unusual unemployment in Chicago or the state. The building business has not been as active as a year ago, but all railroad and manufacturing interests appear about normal. Thousands have rushed in for world's fair work, but that work is yet to come.

Police said the leader of the effort to storm the city hall was Stephen Nelson, 27, carpenter, who says he is secretary of the "Chicago council of the unemployed."

BIG PEACE RIVER TRACT OF LAND IS GIVEN TO B.C.

Premier Tolmie Signs Pact With Dominion Gov't For Transfer of 12,500,000 Acres.

PARKS NOT INCLUDED.

Legislation Ratifying Transaction Brought Before House of Commons.

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 22.—(C.P.)—Premier S. F. Tolmie announced in the British Columbia Legislature yesterday afternoon that he had signed a pact with the Dominion Government transferring 12,500,000 acres of land in the Peace River block and the railway belt to provincial administration. The documents have been forwarded to Ottawa for completion there. He added that legislation ratifying the transfer would be introduced here and in the House of Commons shortly.

The agreement announced yesterday roughly is as follows:

"The Federal Government will turn over to the province as soon as the legislation is ratified, all the unalienated lands, minerals and forests of the railway belt and the Peace River block, given by this province to the Dominion when it entered Confederation. All Dominion parks in the railway belt, including the resorts in the Rocky Mountains, will be retained by the Dominion Government, as the province has no desire to assume administration of them. All Indian reserves in the railway belt will be retained by the Dominion Government but when any of these lands cease to be used for Indian purposes, they will revert to the province.

"The Dominion Government will continue to pay to the province the subsidy of $100,000 arranged as part of the original terms of union."

In making this announcement, Premier Tolmie said his Government would sympathetically consider the Dominion Government's expected proposal for securing additional national park land in the province. This statement related to the reported desire of Ottawa to create several national parks in British Columbia and possibly to take over some of the provincial parks.

DENNIS SHEEHAN IS FINED $200

Officers Uncover Still Near Swamp Lake, in Peterborough County.

PLEADS GUILTY.

Charged with keeping a still Dennis Sheehan, lumberjack of Galway Township, in County Court yesterday afternoon, pleaded guilty and was fined $200 and costs of $30.

Sheehan was brought to Peterborough yesterday by Provincial Constable William V. Chisholm and Excise Officer W. H. Buller, as the owner and operator of a still uncovered by the officers in the neighborhood of Swamp Lake, twelve miles from Kinmount.

The officers took an expedition into the north on Wednesday, picking up Provincial Constable D. H. Porter of Lindsay, en route. They trudged six miles in snow to their hips to the shack of Dennis Sheehan, whom they suspected of manufacturing moonshine liquor. They located a complete still concealed away near the shack, and found a five gallon jug of swamp whiskey in the shack.

Working at Lumber Camp

Sheehan was not at the shack, but was employed some five miles away in the camp of a lumber company. When arrested Sheehan admitted ownership of the still, and he pleaded guilty without hesitation in the County Court yesterday.

This is the fourth still in the last six months that Officers Chisholm and Puller have uncovered in the north country, and the third found within a radius of four miles.

Interviewed concerning the arrest, Constable Chisholm yesterday said that while Sheehan admitted his guilt the man thought that the minimum fine under the Inland Revenue Act of $200 was rather steep. However when the officers pointed out that on every gallon of moonshine he had gathered he had cheated the Federal government of four dollars, Sheehan said, "Well, I guess, I have made more than enough for the fine. I'll pay it."

ASK AUTO TARIFF CUT.

OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 21.—(By the Canadian Press).—Reduction in the tariff on automobiles and motor trucks is advocated in a proposed resolution placed on the order paper of the House by B. W. THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27th,

Under auspices Dominion Live Stock Branch Ontario Department of Agriculture and Canadian Packing Co.

THE PROGRAMME

Farmers are invited to attend the following events:

10.00 a.m.—Meet at Canadian Packing Company's Plant for inspection of same.

11.00 a.m.—Demonstration in grading and judging live hogs. Also process of killing.

1.30 p.m.—Meet at Market Hall, Peterborough.

1.45 p.m.—Demonstration on sides of bacon, by G. S. Foster, London.

2.30 p.m.—Lecture by L. W. Pearnall, Toronto, on Hog Market Development, and Lessons Learned from Ten Litter Competition re Economical Production of Bacon Hogs.

3.15 p.m.—Demonstration by Dr. Lionel Stevenson, Provincial Zoologist, on Parasites in Lambs and Hogs. No farmer should miss this demonstration. Dr. Stevenson will have with him a most interesting exhibit of the various parasites and worms that annually cause millions of dollars of loss to our livestock.

Make your plans now to spend Thursday, February 27th, in Peterborough. For further information apply to D. A. McKinnon at the Canadian Packing Co., Peterborough, or J. B. Nelson, Ontario Agricultural Representative, Peterborough.

NO AMENDMENT BY OPPOSITION

Conservatives Arrive at Decision in First Caucus of the Session.

LARGE ATTENDANCE.

OTTAWA, Ont., February 22 (Canadian Press). — There will be no amendment moved by the official Opposition to the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne, it is understood. Conservatives in their first caucus of the parliamentary session yesterday were said to have reached this decision.

The caucus was divided into two sessions, morning and late afternoon. A number of matters legislative in character were discussed and consideration was given to the attitude of the party in the House of Commons on these subjects.

A large attendance of members marked the caucus. Conservative Senators also were present at both sessions.

HELD FOR WOUNDING.

KINGSTON, Ont., Feb. 21 (C.P.).—Irvine Snider, 48, was arrested by Provincial Police at Odessa late yesterday, charged with wounding a helper, William Gordon, 65. Gordon was helping Snider to load hay when the latter is alleged to have pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired three shots, one grazing Gordon's neck. He was taken to Napanee and will appear before Magistrate Graham.

CHANCELLOR VISITS GERMANY

BERLIN, Feb. 22 (C.P.)—Johann Schober, the Austrian Chancellor, arrived here to-day for a three-day official visit. Chancellor Mueller of the Reich met him and the Austrian officials accompany him at the railway station.

A large crowd outside cheered the party as it left. Newspapers of all parties to-day heartily acclaimed the visit, pointing out that it will strengthen the already friendly relations existing between the two countries.

RE-81

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

THE day was cold. The door of the Workshop was closed, but through the window I could see that a fire was burning brightly and invitingly — good evidence that John Plane was still prepared to receive visitors. Having a little time to spare before supper, I decided to enter and see if I could get some material for this week's demand. I found John Plane with a letter which he had received from a friend in the United States some considerable time ago. He had come upon it again while looking through some of his correspondence that day. It had startled him when he first got it. And he assured me that it had lost none of its impressiveness with the passing of time. He had been observing, and could see no signs that would lead him to believe that conditions had changed for the better. He had also been at some pains to make inquiries in various parts of the Continent, in the hope that some evidence might be forthcoming to lead to a more optimistic outlook—all without avail. The united testimony of all those with whom he had communicated only served to emphasize the polluted conditions of the morals in public life.

The Root of Adult Crookedness.

In this communication it was claimed that a revealing light is cast upon the cause of the shady morals in public life—at that time, and still being dragged into view—by a magazine article that exposes the beginnings of financial and moral laxity in the rising generation. Written long before Teapot Dome and some still more recent financial scandals became by-words, it shows where the root of adult crookedness begins and where it should be attacked.

In school, it seems, every pagan god in history may be the subject of the day's lesson, but not the God of the Bible.

A knowledge of Greek and Roman gods is often one of the requirements in courses necessary for graduation. Geography is taught along with the history of pagan faiths, but the God with whose handiwork geography is concerned; the God of Christianity and Judaism, is left out of the curriculum.

Can It Be True?

Certain tests were made in a great many schools throughout the United States. These tests show, we are told, that more than one-half of the American school children will, under temptation, have an unethical outlook upon life.

They show more than this, that under temptation more than half of them will cheat and lie and steal.

These tests, we are told, were conducted scientifically. One of them known as the True-false test, has been applied to thousands of children in the United States. After each statement given to a child to test its moral viewpoint are printed words, "True False," and the child is asked to underline the word which he believes describes the statement.

Some Strange Viewpoints.

Look at some of the viewpoints presented by a number of those children and see what you think of them.

"It is NOT wrong to steal from one who has secured his wealth dishonestly."

"It is more honorable to have charge of an office than to work at a trade."

"Stupidity is more sinful than deceit."

"Unnecessarily failing to meet an appointment on time is NOT immoral and unchristian."

"It is true that our duty is greater to secure justice for the people of our own race and religion than for others."

"Cheating a railroad is NOT so much a sin as cheating a person."

"It is not the pupil's duty to call attention to the fact that a teacher has given him too high marks."

"It is true that if a storekeeper gives you too much money it is all right to keep it because he would probably do the same if you paid him too much."

What About Our Children?

Thousands of children, we are told, assented to these statements when they had an equal opportunity to dissent from them by merely making a mark with a lead-pencil.

The friend who had written to John Plane said: "Nothing they had received in school or at home in the way of religious instruction caused them to mark their paper otherwise. Their answers afforded proof that under American life, way down deep into its very childhood there is unmorality in thought and downright approval of dishonesty."

After reading that to me, John looked at me earnestly and said: "Do you think the same might be said of our Canadian children? What are we doing to prevent it? We have our autos, our picture houses, jazz bands, victrolas, radios; and as much pocket-money for some of our young people as many a working man used to earn in Scotland for a week's work—but what are we doing for the morals of the rising generation? These things will not do much for them if we have an educational system which is purely materialistic, if, indeed, it does not border on the atheistic. Twenty minutes for the teaching of a Sunday school lesson by a number of unprepared teachers is not going to do much to safeguard our youth."

This Test Also.

Another test—the Purchasing test—tried children with the temptation to be dishonest.

A shopkeeper, taken into the confidence of the examiners, gave the child purchasers a dime too much in making change. The test was to see how many children, and which ones, would bring back the dime to the teacher. The result was that sixty-four per cent. of the children did not return the dime either to the teacher or to the store.

The scientists who made this test insist that their selection of children was carefully made so that they feel safe in assuming that sixty-four per cent. of all America's children would have done as these children did.

The Restaurant Test.

In still another test the children were taken into cafeterias where they could select their own food, and where they were expected to make a report of how much food they had bought. Not half of them reported honestly.

The tests were ingeniously disguised. In one city a test was given in a restaurant where the children thought they were giving a banquet for the restaurant-keeper who, some weeks before, had made a gift to the school organization. Every child brought a certain amount of money to pay for his share of the banquet. At the conclusion of the banquet it was announced, privately, to each child, that the cost was less than had been expected. The children were supposed to return the excess to their school organization. This test involved not only honesty, but gratitude to the restaurant-keeper and loyalty to the school organization. Only a small percentage of the children returned the money.

A More Sever Test.

Here is a test made to see how children would cheat in examinations, a test so severe that it would strain the moral fibre of even senior college students.

The children were given double sheets of paper, the under sheet being secretly coated with wax that would show any change or correction. A set of questions and answers was written out on the blackboard and a map hung over the answers. The teacher, in this test, left the room while the children were writing down their answers to the questions. After a certain length of time the map, apparently by accident, fell from the blackboard and disclosed a list of answers. The children, with no teacher in the room, had the opportunity to correct any errors they had made in their answers; they were given plenty of time to yield to this temptation.

In some of these tests one hundred per cent. of the children yielded.

Reading on through this startling revelation of the moral conditions of our neighbors to the south of us I am told that our desperate criminals today range under the age of twenty-two years.

What a Procession!

In the year 1924 an authority in the United States said:

"15,000 persons will die this year by murder or homicide in our country. It would take three hours for a procession of those who will perish by murder or homicide to pass a given point."

"Well, John," I said, as I was on the eve of taking my departure, "you have given me something to think about! If I did not know the Gospel, and if I had never felt the transforming touch of Christ in my own life, I should be terribly discouraged! Frankly, it is useless to cry peace when there is no peace! And to despair and do nothing is futile. What we need is a great crusade, all over this North American Continent, in which all the churches shall engage. A prophet, with the touch of a fanatic, would be one of the greatest blessings we could have at present."

Yours for a better day,

Allan Fairbairn.

Public Sentiment

PUBLIC sentiment signifies the common march of good men's thoughts. It should be but a road, marked plain, that men may know the way to travel; but, instead of this, public sentiment is employed sometimes as a bribe to stop free thinking; as an intimidation to check free acting; as a bauble to lure approbativeness, or as a threatened fool's cap with which to terrify it. The virtues which public sentiment drills into cowards, may be of great benefit to society, but are of little credit to the men upon whom they are dragooned.

Being Tuned

MEN think God is destroying them because He is tuning them. The violinist screws up the key till the tense cord sounds the concert pitch; but it is not to break it, but to use it tunefully that he stretches the string upon the musical rack.

Imagination's Place

THAT which men suppose the imagination to be, and to do, is often frivolous enough and mischievous enough; but that which God meant it to be in the mental economy is not merely noble, but supereminent. It is the distinguishing element in all refinement. It is the secret and marrow of civilization. It is the very eye of faith. The soul without imagination is what an observatory would be without a telescope.

As the imagination is set to look into the invisible and immaterial, it seems to attract something of their vitality; and though it can give nothing to the body to redeem it from years, it can give to the soul that freshness of youth in old age which is even more beautiful than youth in the young. It always seems to me that, before we leave this realm, deep affections take hold of the life to come by the hands of ideality, so that this quality in the old, hovers upon the edge and bound of life, the morning star of immortality. Thus it is with men as evening villages. The lights in some dwellings are extinguished soon after twilight; in others, they hold till nine o'clock; one by one they go out, until midnight; but a few houses there are where the student's lamp or lover's watching torch holds bright till morning pours their light into the ocean of its own. So such men bring through the flooded hours of darkness the light of yesterday into to-day, and are never dark and never die. Thus it comes to pass as it is written, "Upon those who sat in the region and shadow of death a great light is arisen."

PHILOSOPHY

A GREAT philosopher can never move the people, because he deals in large generalizations from which they are remote. A great poet, like Shakespeare, no doubt does the same, but while he instructs the few by his wisdom, he knows at the same time to amuse the many with pretty fancies, and to stir them with passions to which they are akin. Pure truth, which is the philosopher's specialty, has no value in the market.

BELIEVE IT!

HOW heartening to know that when we lapse into sin, by carelessness or willfulness, we may turn in penitence and prayer to find Divine love still beaming forgiveness for us.

How It Works

OUR humiliations work out our most elevated joys. The way that a drop of rain comes to sing in the leaf that rustles in the top of the tree all summer long, is by going down to the roots first, and from thence ascending to the bough.

No power in society, no hardship in your condition can depress you, keep you down, in knowledge, power, virtue, influence, but by your own consent.

Toleration

ALL earnest conviction is naturally intolerant; and from intolerance in sentiment to intolerance in act, from bigotry to persecution the leap is not large. It is in fact a matter of temperament. And so the hot Oriental blood in Judaism, not less than in Mahometanism, preached the Gospel of the Divine unity, sword in hand. Jesus stood above that, as He stood above the world and even above His own disciples, but how little He was comprehended, whole centuries of European Christianity, written in blood, sufficiently show. Even under the North Pole the fervor that belongs to religious conviction continues to assert itself tyrannically, and hence the fact so largely observed in church history, that the cessation of persecution is often largely accompanied with the cooling down of conviction.

And let him go where he will, he can only find so much beauty or worth as he carries.

Hell is no fable, fondly framed to scare weak minds. It is no mere phantom of a brain-sick thought. It is a near reality. It is a gigantic certainty. It is the sure conclusion of a godless life. It gapes before our feet. Another step may plunge the ruined into this abyss.

Aiming And Firing

THERE is much contention among men whether thought or feeling is the better; but feeling is the bow, and thought the arrow, and every good archer must have both. Alone, one is as helpless as the other. The head gives artillery, the heart powder. The one aims and the other fires.

Delights are doubled, and difficulties are divided, by sweet, sane associations.

THE AMUSEMENT TAX.

It is to be hoped that when the Provincial Treasurer is completing the details of his budget he will not overlook the fact that other provincial administrations have found it possible to introduce some taxation reductions.

The finances of Ontario are in a bouyant condition; surely if other Provinces have been able to lift a little of the burden of taxation from the people it should not be an impossible matter for Ontario to also do some slashing.

In that connection there is a feeling that the so-called nuisance taxes, such as the amusement tax, might be abolished; at least that it should be taken off amateur sporting events and similar entertainment features.

The collection of this levy when applied to sporting events, especially in the small centres, has been an annoyance to athletic clubs and to the people who patronize them, and with the Province collecting the largest revenue on record there is neither reason nor excuse for continuing the troublesome amusement tax.

The Provincial Treasurer will disappoint the people of Ontario if he does not propose tax reductions as part of his program for the year.

WHY THE DIFFERENCE?

Figures quoted by Lieut.-Col. Keiller MacKay in a recent speech show additional reasons why a change in the treatment of Canada's returned soldiers is justified.

It will be surprising to the people of this country to learn that the United States Government pays 38,000 total disability pensions, as against the 4,109 100 per cent. disability pensions in this country.

Although the American war service was short as compared with that of the Canadian army and the total casualties of the two armies was approximately the same, Uncle Sam pays disability pensions to 187,000 men after 18 months' service, while the Canadian pensions after four years of war total only 58,000.

It may be that our neighbors have erred on the side of generosity; at the same time the conclusion is inevitable that in our treatment of our war veterans we have been correspondingly severe in estimating pensions.

The Speech from the Throne promises a new deal for the men who fought, and the Government may feel assured that it will have public opinion behind it in any changes for the better it proposes to make in the handling of veterans' problems and in the matter of adequate pensions for the disabled and the broken down.

THE SALARIES OF CABINET MINISTERS.

Premier Ferguson has denied the report that members of the Ontario Cabinet are to receive larger salaries, stating that before any action is taken along that line the matter must receive the approval of the people.

In that attitude Mr. Ferguson shows his customary ability to size up public opinion; he knows that while it is possible to make out a very good case in favor of larger remuneration for Cabinet Ministers, the majority of people resent any attempt on the part of their elected representatives to vote themselves more money.

The present salary of Ontario Cabinet members, having regard to the nature of their responsibilities and the burden of work they have to carry, is none too large.

In fact, in this country none of our Government heads are lavishly paid.

It is only necessary to point out that the chairman of Ontario's Liquor Control Board receives $10,000 a year more salary than the Premier of Canada, and that the latter is paid a very much lower salary than the mayor of New York to show that those responsible for administering our public business are not very handsomely treated in the matter of financial rewards for their services.

TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES.

The extension of the franchise for another five years' use of the city streets by the Border Transit Company will be approved by the majority of citizens who realize that this community is fortunate in having had such an organization appear at a time when the transportation situation had reached a crisis.

In cities of Peterborough's population and area a bus system is apparently the only feasible means of supplying the transportation facilities required by the citizens.

The day of the street railway in such centres has gone forever, judging from the experience of other cities.

In Guelph, where the railway is operated for the city by the Hydro-Electric Commission, a deficit of approximately $40,000 is reported for last year, and worse than that, the expenditure of a large sum is necessary to modernize the service.

It is evident that Guelph cannot keep up that pace very long, and that the street railway there is destined to be scrapped in the near future in favor of a bus system, either municipally operated or conducted by a private company.

Peterborough has passed through a similar experience, and those who have to depend upon a public transportation system should be grateful that the present company stepped into the breach.

EMPIRE RELATIONSHIP.

A week or so ago the report of the conference on the operation of Dominion legislation and merchant shipping legislation, appointed as a result of the meeting of the Imperial conference of 1926, was published as a "white paper" by the British Government. The conference was asked to report upon the existing provisions by which the assent of the King is required for certain Dominion legislation; extraterritorial legislation in the Dominions; the position of the Colonial Laws Validity Act, and merchant shipping legislation. The first point is of the most interest to this Dominion, dealing as it does with the question of disallowance, or the right of the crown, on the advice of ministers, to annul an act of a Dominion legislature. It is pointed out in the report that this right has not been exercised since 1873 in the case of Canada, nor since 1867 in New Zealand and never at all in Australia or South Africa. Nevertheless, there are constitutionalists, not only in Great Britain, but in the Dominions, who regard the provision as of great value as a safeguard under exceptional circumstances.

The conference declares, however, "that the present constitutional position is that the power of disallowance can no longer be exercised in relation to Dominion legislation. Accordingly, those Dominions who possess the power to amend their constitutions in this respect can, by following the prescribed procedure, abolish the legal power of disallowance if they so desire. In the case of those Dominions who do not possess this power, it would be in accordance with constitutional practice that, if so requested by the Dominion concerned, the Government of the United Kingdom should ask Parliament to pass the necessary legislation."

In another part of the report it is recommended that no law hereafter made by the Parliament of the United Kingdom should extend to any Dominion, "otherwise than at the request and with the consent of that Dominion." In the matter of succession to the throne, it is declared to be "in accordance with the established constitutional position of all the members of the Commonwealth in relation to one another" that any alteration in the law touching the succession or royal titles should require the assent of the Dominion Parliaments as well as the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Commenting on this report, the London Times says it "will not be read entirely without misgiving." It refers to the fact that the conference consisted largely of lawyers, and declares that the whole tenor of the report "does a good deal to justify the forebodings which were evidently in the mind of General Smuts when he was making his recent series of speeches in Canada." It will be remembered that the South African statesman, in his speech in Ottawa, expressed the hope that the problems which came up at the Imperial conferences would be treated in a spirit of statesmanship, and not be "left to the mercy of lawyers and legal formulas." Admitting that there are "anomalies and anachronisms" in the legislation, conventions and usages of what may be called the "constitution" of the Empire, the Times regards them as inevitable in every living organization, a sign of growth, which gives no cause for worry. No statesman would want to remove them, it is asserted, except under pressure of proved necessity, "fearing lest by too much tinkering with the tissue, he may unwittingly injure the soul." Though the recommendations of the conference, it is remarked, may help to clear away any vestige of suspicion that might remain in the Dominions that they are not in reality free and equal partners in the Empire, the hope is expressed that when the Governments come to consider the recommendations, account will be taken of their practical effect "as well as of their theoretical legal consistency with the doctrine of equal status." In any event, these matters will be brought up for discussion at the Imperial conference this year, when the real task will be, in the opinion of the Times, "to give form and substance to the unity of the Empire and to seek to preserve it and to strengthen it."—Hamilton Spectator.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

When Percy Williams and Leigh Miller are considered, it is evident that flaming youth in Canada does not lack speed.

Mere men Senators must be a trifle envious of the publicity attained by the first woman member of the Upper Chamber.

The debate in the Legislature seems to be collapsing. And nobody will be sorry about that.

Spring floods are crowding into the front page a little earlier than usual this year.

There may not be a Dominion election this year, but nearly everything that will be said or done during the present session will be with that possibility in sight.

Women may be proper "persons" to sit in the Senate, but Quebec doesn't consider them suited for the practice of the law.

News of Our Own Village

Bill Jackson, the village referee, has been using a flying machine to get round to the different games. Bill, however, aint the only hockey official what oughta take the air, says we.

Sam Newhall, our well-known constable, issued his annual report this week, showing this berg to be cleaner than many of the villagers was, following the last stock market crash.

The village Tories threw a party Fri. nite, but no vote of confidence in the Ottawa Govt. was passed, your scribe learns.

The fish and game fellows held a meeting her Mon. nite and decided to ask Howie Ferguson's Govt. for more pickerel for the river in these parts. Why not ask for sturgeon first, boys, and then work down?

The village hockey season was completely ruined this week by a coupla teams from Kingston. Something oughta be done about this, say we.

A butterfly was saw on Main St. this week, but Tommy Hooper is still wearing his overcoat which shows spring aint officially arrived as yet.

A Thought

PERSONAL GLORY

A desire of personal glory: the wish to be appreciated, honored, and run after, not because of one's personal qualities, merits, and achievements, but because of one's individual existence.—Goethe.

NEW LEGATION SUCCESS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22 (C.P.). — The establishment of the Canadian Legation in Washington, was described by Sir Esme Howard, the retiring British Ambassador, this morning, as "a wonderful success."

"I don't see how we could have gone on much longer without a separate establishment for the Dominion at Washington," he said, "so many and diversified are the interests between the United States and Canada."

THE GREENE MURDER CASE

By S. S. VAN DINE

"Frau Mannheim," he said, "the last time we were here you mentioned the fact that Mr. Tobias Greene knew your husband, and that, because of their acquaintance, you applied for a position here when your husband died."

"And why shouldn't I?" she asked stubbornly. "I was poor, and I didn't have any other friends."

"Ah, friends!" Vance caught up the word. "And since you were once on friendly terms with Mr. Greene, you doubtless know certain things about his past, which may have some bearing on the present situation; for it is not at all impossible, d'ye see, that the crimes committed here during the past few days are connected with matters that took place years ago. We don't know this, of course, but we'd be very much gratified if you would try to help us in this regard."

As he was speaking the woman had drawn herself up. Her hands had tightened as they lay folded in her lap, and the muscles about her mouth had stiffened.

"I don't know anything," was her only answer.

"How," asked Vance evenly, "do you account for the rather remarkable fact that Mr. Greene gave orders that you were to remain here as long as you cared to?"

"Mr. Greene was a very kind and generous man," she asserted, in a flat, combative voice. "Some there were that thought him hard, and accused him of being unjust; but he was always good to me and mine."

"How well did he know Mr. Mannheim?"

There was a pause, and the woman's eyes looked blankly ahead.

"He helped my husband once, when he was in trouble."

"How did he happen to do this?"

There was another pause, and then:

"They were in some deal together—in the old country." She frowned and appeared uneasy.

"When was this?"

"I don't remember. It was before I was married."

"And where did you first meet Mr. Greene?"

"At my home in New Orleans. He was there on business—with my husband."

"And, I take it, he befriended you also."

The woman maintained a stubborn silence.

"A moment ago," pursued Vance, "you used the phrase 'me and mine.'—Have you any children, Mrs. Mannheim?"

For the first time during the interview her face radically changed expression. An angry gleam shone in her eyes.

"No!" The denial was like an ejaculation.

Vance smoked lethargically for several moments.

"You lived in New Orleans until the time of your employment in this house?" he finally asked.

"Yes."

"And your husband died there?"

"Yes."

"That was thirteen years ago, I understand.—How long before that had it been since you had seen Mr. Greene?"

"About a year."

"So that would be fourteen years ago." An apprehension, bordering on fear, showed through the woman's morose calmness.

"And you came all the way to New York to seek Mr. Greene's help," mused Vance. "Why were you so confident that he would give you employment after your husband's death?"

"Mr. Greene was a very good man."

"He had perhaps," suggested Vance, "done some other favor for you which made you think you could count on his generosity—eh, what?"

"That's neither here nor there." Her mouth closed tightly.

Vance changed the subject.

"What do you think about the crimes that have been committed in this house?"

"I don't think about them," she mumbled; but the anxiety in her voice belied the assertion.

"You surely must hold some opinion, Mrs. Mannheim, having been here so long." Vance's intent gaze did not leave the woman. "Who do you think, would have had any reason for wanting to harm these people?"

Suddenly her self-control gave way.

"Du lieber Herr Jesus! I don't know—I don't know!" It was like a cry of anguish. "Miss Julia and Mr. Chester maybe—gewiss, one could understand. They hated everybody; they were hard, unloving. But little Ada—der susse Engel! Why should they want to harm her!" She set her face grimly, and slowly her expression of stolidity returned.

"Why, indeed?" A note of sympathy was evident in Vance's voice. After a pause he rose and went to the window. "You may return to your room now, Frau Mannheim," he said, without turning. "We shan't let enything further happen to little Ada."

The woman got up heavily and, with an uneasy glance in Vance's direction, left the room.

IN DAYS GONE BY.

TEN YEARS AGO

TWENTY YEARS AGO
February 22, 1910

A great sheet of ice is ready for the game between Winnipeg Bank team and Peterborough intermediates. The Peterborough team is composed of Derocher, goal; Hefferman, point; cover point, McDougall; rover, Ray; centre, Crane; right wing, Weatherstone; left wing, MacMillan.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
February 22, 1905

The noon C.P.R. train today was delayed several hours by an accident which occurred at Burketon this forenoon.

Last night a meeting of the Peterborough Retail Merchants Association was held to consider a request from the Montreal Federation of Retail Dealers for support in the action which the latter is taking to induce the Dominion Government to enact legislation abolishing the Trading Stamp system.

What To-day Means To You

"PISCES."

If February 22nd is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m., from noon to 1:30 p.m., and from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. The danger periods are from 10:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., and from 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Financial risks taken on this date may be the source of future regrets. Experience will teach a lesson not soon to be forgotten. Materially, more debits than credits are pictured on your day book, but spiritual contentment and happiness are augured.

The child born on this February 22nd will be inclined to show signs of flippancy. The nursery and not the world should be the school in which it should learn proper rules of conduct. It will be very strong willed, and will have a good intellect.

You possess few of the conventional virtues, but you court considerable popularity. You are incorrigibly careless, and not at all particular in what you say. You are a here-to-day, and gone-to-morrow sort of a person. You may temporarily vex people, but you never bore them. Your greatest asset is your good nature; as a companion you are very restful. You never fuss, and you never appear worried or out of temper. Your unconcernedness is not an affectation, but your natural attitude toward things. Your troubles—and you are not lightly infested—are passed off as jokes. You have the loveliest of all virtues—courage. Hardships and difficulties never dampen your spirits, and your fund of humor is always a helpful ally.

There is a speculative tendency in your nature, and you will probably have many material "ups and downs" during your lifetime. You are extremely generous and hospitable, and you love a good time. You share your feasts, and suffer your famines alone. You are a casual host or hostess, and as a result your house is a popular resort. If married, you are a casual wife or husband, but your mate never tires of your companionship.

"PISCES."

If February 23rd is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., and from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. The danger period is from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Emotional instability will be brought about by the astrological influences for this date; and there will be too much mental turmoil to receive much benefit from the "Day of Rest"—its spiritual lessons or social pleasures.

Children born on this February 23rd will have a wonderful sense of logic and reason, and they would make a success of the study of law. They will be good mixers, sociably inclined, and not in the least timid.

You are a very ambitious person, but unfortunately you cannot aspire without being discontented. You want to "arrive" without taking the necessary steps. You want fame without the work. If your lot is an unhappy one, you bemoan the fact instead of using the energy you need to get out of it. You envy others for things which you could attain if you would pay the price in effort, and if you would be willing to sacrifice; but you want to keep your cake and eat it too.

It is true that you have a brilliant mind, but you are not making the most of it. You are not a fighting man or woman. A successful person is one who "knows what he fights for and loves what he knows." You are more worried about being "somebody," than in doing "something." As yet you can feel no special calling for any particular line of endeavor. You are probably more interested in what you received than in what you put into your job. Your attitude towards so many things is purely a selfish one, although you probably do not realize the fact.

You take a superficial interest in a great many things, but you could not be called well informed, as you are not observant enough to be accurate. In all probability you will "wake up" and make the latter half of your life the better and more worthy time of your existence.

MAIN STREET TOPICS

Jabs and Jottings as Picked Up by an Examiner Reporter

PICTURE OF MASSED CHOIR.

There has recently come to the Peterborough Male Voice Choir copies of the flashlight picture taken at the massed concert in Madison Square Garden, N.Y., on May 24, 1929. The Associated Glee Clubs of America, with offices in New York City, kindly sent these copies for the members of that body who "forsook the city for glory on that occasion. Depicted is the chorus, with the Peterborough Male Voice Choir of fifty voices scattered in the four sections with Ralph Baldwin on the conductor's flag-bedecked dais and in front area and balconies about 20,000 auditors, making an impressive picture on this occasion of "the glorification of the male chorus." This, the fourth central chorus, demonstrated the limitless possibilities of the male super-chorus.

LOTS OF SPRAY

It may delight the careless motorists to tear along the wet roads at a smart clip through the Spring-like air, but it is hard for pedestrians to see their viewpoint. Along the byways such as Charlotte street, where the clogged drains have not been able to take care of the excess water, the cars are spraying water right and left much to the distress of the sidewalk users who have their sheer silk stockings to look after or their neatly-pressed trousers to keep in shape. Cars parked at the curbs are also suffering from the promiscuous spraying of water.

NO FLOODS

Little of the flooding reported in other sections of the Province is in evidence in Peterborough district. There is lots of water going down the Otonabee but no danger of overflow even at the low points is yet imminent. Jackson's Park creek, which is always an indication of conditions in the vicinity, has not risen very high yet. The Board of Works is ready to keep the water moving if the thaw continues for any length of time.

QUID EST?

Where could it have been going? A large sedan car bearing a New York State license plate was to be seen in the city yesterday. Besides the three people that sat in the car, the interior was stacked high with what appeared to be regulation camping equipment, and even on the running boards loads were fastened in luggage carriers in regular tourist fashion. No reports have yet reached here of the ice going out of the northern lakes, but it is possible that these tourists have some inside information on camping possibilities in Canada this time of the year.

TWO COMPANIES ORGANIZED.

Mrs. Lydia Parsons of Toronto, who spoke yesterday afternoon on the Girl Guide movement, to the members of the Local Council of Women, was successful last evening in organizing two companies of Girl Guides in the city, at a meeting held at the Y.W.C.A. and attended by over seventy girls.

Mrs. C. H. Rogers was appointed Commissioner for Peterborough, and the two companies will be captained by Miss Lahring Parsons, with Mrs. V. R. Currie as lieutenant, and Miss Isabel Connelly, with Miss Ruth Sutton as lieutenant. Miss Parson's company will meet for the present at the Y.W.C.A. and Miss Connelly's company at All Saints' Church.

As she did at the afternoon meeting, Mrs. Parsons reviewed the work of the Girl Guide movement and its aims and objects.

Alexander Bell, the inventor of the telephone, was a professor in a school for the deaf and dumb.

NICKEL FIRMS AT NOON HOUR

Prices Move in Confined and Irregular Manner on Standard Exchange.

LINDSLEY GROUP WEAK.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 22 (C.P.).—Affected by the absence of interchange business with U.S. markets, the Standard Exchange was exceptionally dull during the short session to-day, with prices moving in a confined and irregular manner.

International Nickel displayed considerable strength towards noon, closing up a half at $38, but Noranda was practically unchanged at $39.15. Hudson Bay, which appears to have been the subject of a bear raid during the last few days, was off another 40 to $12.10.

The Lindsley group stood out through its weakness, Ventures suffering another severe set-back of 26 to $1.60, after selling as low as $1.50. Sudbury Basin dropped 35, Falconbridge dropped five. Pend Oreille and Premier were both firmer, the former selling up 15 and the latter seven.

The trend was downward in the oils, Alberta and Associated showing the only firmness. Chemical Research eased 20 to $6.55, Home Oil 10 to $8.85, Ajax and Baltac 6 each, Dalhousie five and East Crest two.

Eliminate Middlemen In Wheat Trading

LONDON, Feb. 22. (Special Cable by Henry Somerville) "The greatest hold-up since Joseph," is London's latest joke on the wheat pool. It is alleged that the pool is weakening and several lots have sold during the week at a discount off Winnipeg quotations. Deals nowadays are done directly by millers without middlemen. Open market prices are only an approximate guide to values. Futures have certainly dropped during the past week but May prices are higher than those for March. The London Daily Telegraph asserts that some stocks now in North America have been there since August 1928. Carrying charges have totalled thirty six cents a bushel, thirty percent of the present price. London remembers Sir Henry Thornton's dictum that Canada must discharge her stocks before the next harvest, but there is no confidence in predicting the final outcome. Dealers say wheat may come in a controlled stream or like flood bursting its banks.

AMERICAN MAINTAINS BIG RACE STABLE IN ENGLAND

LONDON (U.P.).—A lonely, secluded village in southern England is the new home of an American stable of 1: race horses.

They belong to C. J. Ryan, the American millionaire, and were recently shipped over to Telscombe in the county of Sussex. Here the horses are sheltered in the stables of the Lord of the Manor, Mr. Ambrose Graham, and trained by J. P. Loftus.

Nestling in a hollow of the South Downs, Telscombe stands nine miles from the nearest town. A rough cart-track four miles long joins it with the seacoast between the new town of Peacehaven and Brighton, the biggest resort on the southern coast. The horses are intended to race in England during the flat racing season which commences at Lincoln on March 24th. It is said that none are entered for the big classic events, but the stable has good hopes of capturing some of the big prizes.

Ryan's sporting venture is the largest of its kind so far undertaken by any American. For many years American-bred horses have crossed the Atlantic in ones and twos to run in England, but this is the first time a fair-sized stable has been transferred almost lock, stock and barrel.

HEAVY PRESSURE BRINGS ALARMING PRICE DECLINE OF MAJOR MINING ISSUES

Slight Movement to Recovery Killed By Weakness on Exchanges.

CASH BASIS IS CAUSE.

No Particular Class of Stock Affected Through Market Decline.

(Special to Examiner, Copyright, 1930.)

TORONTO, Feb. 22.—Nervously responsive to outside influences the mining market during the past week has again shown its inability to withstand the terrific pressure brought to bear by the present unfavorable publicity and almost complete cessation of marginal trading.

Volume of sales continued at a low point, not exceeding 500,000 shares on any day during the period, and prices have shown an almost steady decline from the relatively high level reached about the middle of the previous week.

A slight movement towards recovery, which became evident on Wednesday, was nipped in the bud by weakness on the New York and Toronto Exchanges, and in spite of the constructive announcement regarding the brokerage situation issued by the government of various provinces, the representative stocks closed the week at levels lower than they have touched in more than a month.

No particular class of stocks could be said to have been affected more than any other though the base metal issues appeared to be bearing the brunt of a good deal of the liquidation during the last day or so. Gains registered among some of the golds last week disappeared, however, and the market, as a whole, displayed a decidedly easier tendency.

While those houses involved in the present investigation have been definitely placed on a "cash and carry" basis, it is understood many other members of the exchange are now doing an "outright" business almost entirely, and the effect of this is shown in the reduced turnover, lack of public interest and the general absence of bouyancy on the board.

WORK RUSHED ON MINING PLANTS

Operations Rapidly Going Forward on Northern Ontario Mine Properties.

INSTALLING RAILWAYS.

TORONTO, Feb. 21. (Special to Examiner.)—Work at central Patricia is well up to schedule and equipment and supplies for the sinking of the shaft should be on the property within the next weeks or so. A load containing 100 tons of freight is leaving for the camp to-day and another which should handle the balance of the material at the rail point, will be taken shortly.

Plant for the sinking of the shaft at central Patricia should be installed by the end of ten days and the crew will then be able to proceed more rapidly with the work.

Completion of the railway has greatly facilitated operations at Amulet, and the work of equipping the mill is progressing rapidly. The plant, it is understood, should be ready for tuning up with all machinery installed by the end of March and productionwill probably commence during April.

It is the intention of the Amulet management to treat ore from the "C" orebody during the first month of operations and during this time the shaft on "F" orebody will be completed, levels opened for mining and an aerial tramway erected. Production from the new orebody will start in August, it is expected.

The preparation of the Sudbury Basin report, though some what delayed, is proceeding and it is anticipated it will be presented to the directors for consideration next week. It is thought likely it will be forwarded to shareholders during the first or second week in March.

Setbacks in Base Metals.

While the present softness of the mining market is probably the result of weakness on other exchanges, the fact the Base Metal stocks are the outstanding sufferers is attributed to the general uncertainty surrounding Base Metal markets at the present time.

A moderate amount of copper buying is going on, but the trading is still hand to mouth and mainly for nearby delivery. Lead buying is reported to have been unusually good early in the week, but purchasing of zinc is practically at a standstill with prices still at extremely low levels. Shareholders of Granada Rouyn mines are advised that the exchange of old stock for new, on the basis of one new share for ten of the old held, is now being carried on and are requested to send certificates to the Priudential Trust. Another Kirkland Lake company, Teck Hughes is reported to have entered into a contract for power with the Canada Northern Power Corporation on a somewhat reduced basis. This leaves Wright Hargreaves Sylvantnite and Kirkland Lake gold as "holouts" and the course to be pursued by these mines has not, as yet been announced.

St. Goddard Cops Lead in Dog Derby

QUEBEC, Que., Feb. 22. — (Canadian Press). — Emile St. Goddard to-day won the third forty-mile lap on the International dog derby, and in doing so, placed first in the 120-mile race. His time to-day was 3.30.20, and his total elapsed time for the three laps 11.01.

When the Mayor went up to the other car to apologize, he found a girl dead with a bullet in her head and a man beside her in a dying condition from a bullet wound.

FIRMER TONE ON STOCK MARKETS

Commodity Markets Forced to Lowest Levels in Years Due to Over-Supply.

FUNDS PLENTIFUL.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22. (U.P.) — Eight weeks have passed in 1930 and the future of the various markets is beginning to work itself out more definitely. From the action thus far this year, the terrific crash of last autumn was violent interruption in the course of the greatest bull market in all history.

So far this year, the stock market has had all the earmarks of a healthy underlying status. The bond market has been firm but not particularly active and with none of the earmarks of a bond buying move that usually takes place when the stock market is in a bear phase. The public has not yet come to the point where it is interested in bonds to the preferment of the stock market where purchases if made rightly will multiply profits much faster.

In the case of the commodity markets, the situation has been different. Grains and cotton have been forced to the lowest levels in years and have made but slight recovery. In this situation the reason is merely a case of over-supply, and one that can be righted by curtailment of production. Demand has its limits. The problem, it is expected, will be foremost for some time and the majority doubt that any sort of subsidy will be any more than a makeshift.

A radical change has come about in the money market as demand slowed down as a result of lighter tradings in stocks and bonds and a changed gold status internationally. Various blanks throughout the world including the principal American reserve centers have reduced their discount rates. The gold movement has ceased in nearly every center. A period of readjustment is in progress.

With money rates relatively cheap and funds in plentiful supply the course of business depends only on the confidence of the consumers. That confidence is growing as more and more reports of improvement in all lines come in.

The principal measurements of progress in the economic world so far this year point to gains over the low levels reached in December, 1929. However, if the measurements are placed against the records set in the same period in 1929, a sharp falling off is noted. Herein many who seek to explain various reports err. Everyone knows that this year is not up to 1929, but what the observer wants to know is how much of an improvement is being made from week to week.

Automobile production, steel production, car loadings, building; in fact, every major business index is gradually showing improvement as compared with the previous weeks, but all are still under the same period of 1929.

Notwithstanding this indication of gain, there are many soft spots. These include the chain store organizations built up with vast outlay in times of prosperity. These expensive layouts are due to suffer setbacks if business does not keep on increasing for them. The mail order houses may suffer if the farmer's buying power is reduced. Copper companies are due to have lighter profits as a result of increasing stocks and decreasing demand. Oil company profits are being reduced through lower prices for crude oil.

In the stock market traders are making careful selection of the issues due to profit in 1930. Holders are selling the stocks whose position is not favorable for progress. Bears take the opportunity to hammer away at these weak spots and thus the market has had many periods of irregularity. Its ability to hold up through this process of short selling speaks well for its inherent strength.

The bond market not only meets competition from stocks, but also from many new offerings of bonds of the best of companies which generally are prices under the prevailing market. Thus far public participation has not been great in either the bond market or the stock market. In the last few weeks, however, growth in the volume of brokerage loans gives evidence of slowly increasing public buying.

When the public feels that the market can rise for a fairly long period of time and actually sees part of the rise in progress it will come back on a large scale and the bull market will be on in full.

Financial News and Briefs

A Special Service to the Examiner

BRAZILIAN TRACTION'S NET EARNINGS INCREASES NOT EXPECTED TO BE AS GREAT DURING 1930

While Brazilian Traction, Light & Power Company in 1929 showed an increase in net operating earnings of $3,050,606 over the 1928 result the company will be quite satisfied, FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands, if earnings for this year are maintained at the level of last year. In other words, the large monthly increases shown in 1929 are not expected for 1930.

This is due partly to fact that during last year earnings of the Santos Improvements Company were included for first time and were responsible for part of the increases and, secondly, industrial conditions are not even as good just now as they were one year ago.

At same time it is believed that the slump in coffee prices will gradually solve this situation and that Brazilian Traction's earnings will immediately reflect any improvement in general conditions in Brazil. The company's whole outlook is considered to be quite satisfactory.

PROPOSED MEASURES

TORONTO, Feb. 20. (Special to Examiner.)—The announcement of measures proposed by the attorneys-general of various provinces towards correction of brokerage conditions apparently had little effect on the attitude of mining traders towards the market, the early session to-day showing little difference from those of the past few weeks. It is thought likely followers are awaiting the outcome of the actions instituted against the larger firms before definitely deciding their market position.

Gossip from the north has it fairly well established that Dome mines will erect a new mill with the coming of spring and that the plant will have the same capacity as the one destroyed by fire—1,500 tons per day.

Advances in metallurgy, permitting higher recovery and lower costs, will be incorporated in the new plant, it is understood, and the process will probably involve cyanidation throughout.

Ore Strike Rumor.

In view of the declaration made by Consulting Engineer Kaeding at yesterday's annual meeting of Sherritt Gordon that no limits had been established for the ore zone, the rumor that the company had struck 18 feet of commercial ore in drilling more than a mile to the northwest of where ore was last encountered is interesting. The find is reported to have been made on two groups of claims originally owned by George Wiltsie and later acquired by Sherritt.

The large attendance at yesterday's Sherritt Gordon meeting was all the more significant in view of the fact that the previous meeting, the minutes of which were read, was attended by five shareholders only, who comprise the total number of persons then holding stock in their property.

Reports regarding aldermac were that the company was planning to ship pyrites, which comprise a big percentage of its ores, and the latest is that a mill may be built to concentrate this material believed in this case, to have a value equivalent to 1½ per cent coppered the production of sulphurous acid from this source is receiving considerable attention in mining circles at present. Copper buying is quiet on this continent and abroad and the whole situation shows little change. There is reason to believe foreign conditions are improbing despite the political situation in France, New York, advices state, and English conditions seem finally to have taken an upward turn.

Discovery and mapping of structures favorable to oil 1,000 feet below the earths surface is now possible by use of electro magnetic principles according to Theodore Zuschlag, research engineer of the Swedish Prospecting Corporation.

The method has been successfully employed in Gulf Coast oil fields, reading having been obtained down to depths of 1,500 feet.

SUBSTANTIAL BLOCK

One of the questions in regard to the investment list of the Sun Life Assurance Company which has aroused a good deal of curiosity has been as to whether or not the company acquired an interest in the common stock of Brazilian Traction, Light & Power Company during the past year. A couple of years or so ago the Sun Life held a large block of the preferred stock, but sold this out about the time of the split of 4 for 1 on the common. At the time the latter was not in the "eligible" class, as a purchase could not be made of any common stock unless it had paid dividends for seven consecutive years. This condition was fulfilled by Brazilian Traction in September of last year.

FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands that the Sun Life availed itself of the opportunity opened up and secured a substantial block. Naturally at current levels the stock is lower than last fall, but the investment policy of the Sun Life does not contemplate speculative "trading" in any stock. A situation is investigated and if a company is considered to have certain standards of management, increasing earning power, and other factors that enter into consideration of a probable appreciation in dividend payments and earning power, the stock may be purchased on a longhold basis.

As the President, Mr. T. B. Macaulay, stated recently in referring to purchases of common stocks: "When investing our funds, we look always to the distant future—ten, thirty twenty years hence—Why should we reverse our policy and throw our great holdings on the market for some possible temporary gain? Could we be sure that we would ever get our shares back? We prefer to continue as permanent partners."

The knowledge that the Sun Life has added Brazilian Traction to its "approved" groups will tend to strengthen confidence in the long list of shareholders who hold the stock with a firm faith in the company's own soundness and steady growing power, and a belief that conditions in coffee and general business of Brazil itself are only temporary obstacles to the company's earning ability and its stock market position.

SHEERRITT-GORDON'S EARNING

The three main points of interest at the Sherritt-Gordon annual meeting were an estimate of the company's earnings after production started, the statement that additional finances would be required during the current season, and the information that the deposit with the Canadian National Railways could be drawn on at once. As expected, no further details of mine conditions were given as development work has practically ceased until the power line is completed in August or September. At present the management is more concerned with the details of the milling equipment and the moving out of the townsite.

According to the president, in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 will be required to finance the company to the production stage. There is now in the treasury roughly $1,300,000, in addition to which the company has $300,000 in supplies. With the exception of $500,000 which cannot be recovered until the plant is substantially completed the $1,500,000 deposit can be drawn on as required. Charles Kaeding, the company's consulting engineer estimates that with a production of 30,000,000 pounds of copper per annum at an estimated cost of 8 cents a pound and at a market price of 16 cents, net earnings would be approximately 40 cents per share.

ACADIA SUGAR REFINING

In the quite near future the 1929 annual financial statement of Acadia Sugar Refining Company should be made available to the shareholders. It is believed that the showing for the year will be rather better than that revealed in the 1927 report but not quite so good as the showing for the year 1928. During the past year the company met difficulties common to all refining organizations in this country and these were of a nature to make profitable operations extremely difficult. This was particularly so in the earlier part of the period so that the betterment which occurred in the later months had to make up for this condition and really carry, as well, the profits that were established. The company will be revealed in continued strong financial position. Also plant and operating efficiency has been setped up very considerably making for worthwhile economies helpful to earnings results. Dividends on the $7 preferred have accumulated since July 1st, 1926, these arrears amounting to 24½% as to December 31st, 1929.

BREWEY CONSOLIDATION

In the past little while, considerable has been heard of possibilities of a merger of brewing companies operating chiefly in Ontario. The plan is known to be under the closest kind of consideration and negotiations have progressed a considerable distance. While the names of all of the companies to be included in the plan are not yet known it is generally accepted as a fact that Brading Breweries, Limited, will figure in the consolidation.

FINANCIAL COUNSEL understands that negotiations have been progressing very satisfactorily and the point of the creation of a new holding company may be reached within the next little while. This new organization will be a quite comprehensive one with an adequate capitalization entirely of Class "A" and Class "B" stocks, common.

The various companies which this holding company would own through share control would continue to operate under their present independent status so far as the trade is concerned. At the same time, under the direction of the holding company, operating conditions would be greatly improved and a number of important economies would be affected. For one thing it would make for an advantageous situation with respect to the distribution of the products of the component companies and also would make possible other economies, including a low cost system of bottle return.

It is understood that the idea has a great deal to commend it and that it is being very heartily accepted by those companies which to date have become interested in the negotiations. The brewing industry in Ontario has been unsettled for some time past because of the lack of effectiveness due to the independent operations of a large number of smaller companies. The new merger idea is drafted so that many of these conditions can be eliminated permanently and all of the companies entering into the plan placed upon a basis where their maximum earning power will be realized.

LATER—HIGH GRADE BOND

Favorable reports are received in regard to the market for high-grade bonds in Toronto and the Province of Ontario generally. The suggestion made recently by FINANCIAL COUNSEL that a minimum of 5% yield for Government and Municipal bonds appeared to be demanded by the investor at the present time, and any effort to ease off the yield below 5%, say to 4.95 or 4.90% might be met with an unfavorable response and tend to discourage investment buying, is borne out by recent developments. The Ontarios were brought out at well under 5% yield as the bid for them was well over 100. The issue dragged somewhat, and finally the price had to be lowered before the last block was sold. It is noticeable that the latest Governments and Municipals are being offered on a basis to provide 5% or slightly over. On such a condition excellent buying seems guaranteed.

Bronfman Jury is Still in Deadlock

REGINA, Sask., Feb. 22 (C.P.)—After 22 hours of confinement, the jury in the trial of Harry Bronfman, Montreal millionaire, to-day was still locked up. It had been expected their decision in the trial on a charge of tampering with witnesses would be made known on the resumption of court at ten o'clock, but half an hour after the re-opening, their decision had not been made.

This morning the jury sent out a note, asking that parts of the evidence be read over and that some portion of the Judge's charge be repeated.

SHARP BEARISH MOVEMENT ON CANADIAN STOCK MARTS AS MANY ISSUES TAKE DROP

Lack of Buying Demand Attributed to Cause of Weakness.

MONEY PLENTIFUL.

Absence of Professional Operations Does Much to Offset Decline.

(Special to Examiner, Copyright, 1930.)

TORONTO, Feb. 22.—Old man precedent was at work this week on the Canadian stock exchanges when the bears had an innings and the markets got a taste of the usual reactionary trend that has prevailed at this season for years past. It was a recessionthat was mild in comparison to what happened in 1929 and was not to be compared with the decline in New York-nevertheless, the trend was unmistakably downward and many issues were carried to new lows for the year.

The improvement in the technical position of the market and the absence of professional operations on the local exchange did more to act as a cushion than anything else. For weeks past the speculating public had remained lukewarm toward the market and brief rallies failed to move traders from the sidelines to become active participants. The extensive liquidation that makes itself felt when the trend makes a decided turn downward was absent and there was no selling of securities to accelerate the drop on values and bring a crash. On the way down the volume dropped off and it was lack of buying demand rather than selling pressure that was responsible for the weakness.

For months past speculative accounts have been kept liquid, money is in better supply and investors have been steadily buying for cash the better class dividend paying common stocks. The floating supply of the high grade issues has been reduced and holdings were either in strong boxes or held in accounts that could well withstand a reaction such as experienced on Thursday

Wheat is being blamed for what happened, but the general decline in commodity prices on this continent was what undermined confidence. This unfavorable situation had been fully discounted before the break came as the securities of Ccanadian corporations directly affected had been slipping downward for weeks. There has been a gradual decline in the local list for weeks and those inclined to take a serious view of the low price level for commodities had let go of their holdings before the first appeared.

IMPERIAL OIL, LIMITED, EXPECTED TO SHOW SOMEWHAT HIGHER EARNINGS THAN FOR YEAR 1928.

When the report of Imperial Oil, Limited, for 1929 is made available, FINANCIAL COUNSEL is informed, it will show a slight increase in profits over the total for 1928, when $24,736,472 was indicated as earned. The fact that a considerable increase is not likely to be shown is said to be due, as was the case with British American Oil, to a falling off in business in Western Canada in the latter part of the year. The company made considerable extensions there, as in 1928, but the relative profirs were considerably less. From other income, however, "Imperial" will show the benefits of the increased dividends from the stock of its subsidiary, International Petroleum, although in this case the full benefit of the current (generally accepted) rate of $1 a share on the split stock, will not be felt until the current 1930 fiscal year.

LOCAL STORE TO SPEND $25,000

Woolworth Company Plans to Make Changes in Present Building.

NEW STORE FRONT.

The architectural beauty of the city's business district, which has seen so many improvements in the past six months with the erection of several new store and office fronts, will be further enhanced when the Woolworth Company completes the extensive alterations which have been planned for its local store.

This construction program of the Woolworth store will cost in the neighborhood of $25 000. Wilfred H. Freel, the company's local manager, stated to-day. They will include a new granite window front, a forty-foot evacuation in the basement and many changes in the store's interior.

The work will be commenced as soon as weather permits and local workmen under the superintendency of one of the company's special builders will be employed throughout on the big job. It is hoped to have the changes completed by the middle of April.

The window will have the latest features and will be formed of oval panes, forming three entrances to the store. The base will be finished in polished granite and the illumination of the windows will be most up-to-date. The posts in the centre of the store will be eliminated, allowing much more space and the show cases will be re-arranged. The upstairs will be equipped with a new girls' rest room and the store will be installed with the most modern system of ventilation, which will completely change the air in the store every ten minutes.

Mr. Freel stated the improvements to the store were being made because the Woolworth Company was enjoying splendid business here and expected, with the increased prosperity in the city, to have an even larger business.

SUPER-TEST OIL ACTIVITY FEATURES TORONTO SESSION

Lacking Usual Leadership of New York Market, Trading Continues Dull.

NO CHANGE IN FORD.

TORONTO, February 22 (Canadian Press). — Super-test Petroleum stood out on an otherwise dull market on Toronto Stock Exchange this morning. With New York closed, the Toronto Exchange lacked the usual leadership of the inter-listed stocks and consequently trading was of an "accommodation" nature largely. Fluctuations were limited to a fraction with but few exceptions and carried no general significance.

Accumulation has been going on steadily in Super-test for the past couple of weeks and when buying renewed to-day the price ran up two points to 35 at the close. The annual statement is expected shortly, and, it is expected, will be favorable. Apart from Super-test, the oils were slow though somewhat firmer.

Walkers reacted still further to-day on reports that the question of liquor export probably would be brought to the attention of Parliament at this sitting. Ford of Canada did not respond to an announcement by President Campbell that the number of employees had been increased and that production now is at the rate of 400 cars daily on a five-day week schedule. With business conditions as they now are, Ford is believed to be the most favorably situated of the car manufacturers.

Abitibi was down a point and C.P.R. softened.

If Baby has COLIC

A cry in the night may be the first warning that Baby has colic. No cause for alarm if Castoria is handy! This pure vegetable preparation brings quick comfort, and can never do the slightest harm. Always keep a bottle in the house. It is the safe and sensible thing when children are ailing. Whether it's the stomach, or the little bowels; colic or constipation; or diarrhea. When tiny tongues are coated, or the breath is bad. Whenever there's need of gentle regulation. Children love the taste of Castoria, and its mildness makes it suitable for the tiniest infant, and for frequent use.

And a more liberal dose of Castoria is always better for growing children than some needlessly strong medicine meant only for adult use. Genuine Castoria always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper. Prescribed by doctors!

CATTLE, GRAIN, PRODUCE

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.— Sudden enlargement of export buying of North American wheat, totalling 2,000,000 to 44,440400,000 bushels, gave a quick lift to wheat values yesterday. The transatlantc purchasing was the largest witnessed for some time, and included United States hard winter wheat afloat, as well as at ports on the Gulf of Mexico. As a result the market here rose about 3½c a bushel, as compared with Thursday. Unseasonably warm weather is having an adverse effect on the domestic winter crop.

Chicago closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, 1c to 2c a bushel higher than Thursday's finish. Corn closed ½c to 1c up; oats 1-8c to ½c advance, and provisions showing 7c to 25c gain.

An unlooked for jump in Liverpool quotations yesterday that was associated with a temporary withdrawal of export offerings by the Canadian growers' pool preceded the rise of wheat values in Chicago. Besides the widening out of European demand for wheat from North America, purchases of flour at New York for shipment to Great Britain were announced, and messages were at hand saying that European importers had accepted all available wheat tendered from this side of the Atlantic overnight. Throughout most of the day, however, a noticeable feature was that new crop deliveries of wheat led the advance in prices.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Feb. 22. — Downward trend of wheat prices appeared to have been halted yesterday, with Liverpool quotations firm and higher, and overseas demand obviously improved. Quotations on the Winnipeg market were 3½ cents up for the day, due mostly to a rise at Liverpool instead of a drop that was expected to follow drastic breaks Thursday at Winnipeg and Chicago.

Lifting of hedges in the Liverpool market was quoted as the reason for the unlooked for advance of 2¼ to 2⅝ pence. Shipping interests and houses with seaboard connections executed moderate purchases and export check-up showed sales overnight of more than 1,500,000 bushels of Canadian wheat. iPt trade was quite active, and at one time quotations were up 3⅝ to 1¼ cents, only to drop at the close under selling from the South.

A better tone marked the cash wheat market, though holders refused to sell at current prices. Coarse grain trade was very slow.

TORONTO, Feb. 22.—The fluctuating American egg market—mainly Chicago—had its effect on the local market during the past week and prices tumbled during that time about 5 cents. At the first of this week dealers were quoting to country shippers for ungraded eggs, delivered, cases returned, 45c to 46c for extras, and to-day the prices appears at 40c to 41c for extras. There has been a general decline all down the line and quotations to the retail trade now read: extras in cartons 50c, extras, loose, 48c; first, loose, 46c; seconds, loose, 44c; and pullet extras 45c.

Ontario Receipts Few

The Chicago egg market has dropped 8c during the week. The first reduction was 4c. The next day there was a 3½c drop, and yesterday the report said ½c lower. American eggs can now be laid down in Toronto for 33c, duty, etc., paid. They generally grade over 50 per cent. firsts, but, according to one local broker, some of the cars coming into this city during the past week were "just eggs." He claimed they were very poor and could be totally rated as seconds. Of course, many of the cars received from Chicago contain a good product and rate well up in firsts. Very little mention was made during the week of Ontario receipts, everything was American, and it was due to the latter that local demands have been met and the price decreased. There are yet no signs of any substantial increase in local production. Road conditions in the Western part of the Province appear to be bad. This is holding up deliveries, and production on the whole is also short. Ottawa, which a short while back was receiving ample local supplies, has now had to turn to the United States.

Butter Market Quiet

The butter market was very quiet all week. The price for creamery, pasteurized, No. 1 kept moving around 36c a pound to shippers, but there was no demand, and the activity that did exist centered around top scoring No. 2. There were very few sales of any kind though, and the wholesalers were stocked up with New Zealand's product. Another shipment of New Zealand butter will arrive in Halifax about March 11.

Cheese

The market shows unchanged prices for cheese, and old large is quoted at 28c to 29c; twins, 28½c; and new large, 20¾c to 21c; twins, 21c to 21¼c.

CAMPBELLFORD HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS AWARDED DIPLOMAS

Various Medals and Scholarships Presented at Commencement Exercises.

CONGRATULATE TEACHERS.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 12 (Examiner Staff Correspondence). — Continuing the High School commencement exercises here last evening, a packed house witnessed the musical comedy, "The Wishing Well," and the presentation of graduation certificates and awards in the school auditorium.

Dr. O. C. Watson, presenting the graduation certificates, said that the schools were the best industry that Campbellford possessed.

He drew attention to the fact that during the past year the teaching staff had been increased by one. "The work of the school was excellent," he said, "the upper school having an average of 87 per cent. for subjects, while the middle school reached the high average of 91 per cent."

Dr. Watson also congratulated the students for their fine musical production, and Mr. Hazel for his splendid musical direction.

Awarded Diplomas.

Those receiving their diplomas were: Helen Atkinson, Mary Butler, Ellen Clough, Marion Comrie, Kathleen Crosson, Eric Douglas, Marjorie Farrell, Thelma Hall, Percy Honey, Hilda Jones, Muriel Kingston, Earl Leggett, Russell Learmouth, Frances Lynch, Dorothy Longmuir, Ethel Olive, Angella O'Shea, Helen Pickens, Enid Richardson, Ralph Sperry, Edna Stillman, Maynard Watson, Dorothy West, Reta Wilson, Roxena Wilson, and Zetta Wilson.

Presentations Made.

The Board of Education awards for the students standing first and second in forms one and two were given by Dr. H. O. Richardson: Form I.—Russell Rowe and Jessie Hay, and Form II.—Gwendoline Renwick and Ferne Weatherall. Dr. Richardson, at the same time, presented the Literary Society scholarships to the student standing highest in the upper school, which went to Marion Comrie, and to the student standing highest in Canadian history in the middle school, this prize being tied for by Maggie Waddell and Lorne Scott. In making the presentation, Dr. Richardson spoke of the keen interest on the part of the students in their work, and hoped that all the school would take advantage of the opportunities offered them along educational lines.

The presentation of the Dr. S. A. Peake's medal and the A. L. Riendeau and R. McKelvie scholarships was made by Dr. H. B. Longmore, who said that he was there to make a presentation and not to speak. He did, however, congratulate teachers and students for their splendid program.

The Dr. E. S. Peake's medal goes to the student standing highest in the Middle School, and was won by Angella O'Shea. The A. L. Riendeau Scholarship was captured by Hyacinth Collinson, who proved to have the highest standing in Latin and French in the Middle School, and the R. McKelvie award for the highest standing in algebra and geometry went to Ruby Townsend.

The play proved as attractive and successful as it was on Thursday. The cast entered into the spirit of their several parts and held the interest of the audience. Music and song mingled with superb humor made "The Wishing Well" one of the best productions in the history of the High School.

Much credit is due the principal, C. H. Craig, and his very efficient staff of teachers for the high standing of the graduates, and their ability and fitness to enter the larger spheres of labor. Out of this year's 26 graduates three are at University, ten at Normal, three are at other schools, seven are in commercial life, and three are training to be nurses.

After the exercises Mrs. James Benor's four-piece orchestra supplied the music for a dance staged by the pupils.

RABIES EPIDEMIC IN STIRLING DISTRICT

Sidney and Rawdon Townships Under Quarantine For Dread Disease.

(Examiner Correspondence.)

Stirling, February 22. — Stirling and the adjacent municipalities, Sidney and Rawdon townships, have been under quarantine for that dread disease—rabies—for the past few weeks, and proclamations by the different reeves have been issued to that effect. On Thursday a new outbreak in the 9th concession of Murray was discovered at the Mikel Bros.' farm, and their stock, consisting of 13 cows and 24 sheep, was placed under quarantine by Veterinary Inspector Reid of Belleville, two cows and a sheep having died from the suspected disease. The inspector is doing all he can to establish the fact whether the disease is rabies or not.

A dog owned by Roy Woodbeck, North street, Stirling, was destroyed on Wednesday, when suffering an attack of some kind of fit. It was thought that it was affected with the dread disease, and means are being taken to make sure.

STOCKHOLM BUS TRAFFIC UP

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 22.—(U.P.) — Bus-traffic in this city increased by 41.6 per cent during 1929, the total number of passengers conveyed during the past year being 24,570,112.

LIBERAL PARTY'S POLICY TENDS

tensive as the northern limits were pushed further back.

Mining was becoming of increasing importance and the province was climbing to the front rank in the annual production of mineral wealth. He also touched on the rich tourist traffic being lured into the province because of the ever-increasing stretch of good roads as built by the Ferguson administration.

Although Canada had only sixty-odd years of national history it had already become one of the outstanding nations of the world and its citizens were honored in the courts and assemblies of the world. The markets of the world are open to Canadian products and the assistance of Canada is sought in every international movement.

Trying to Strangle Canada

Rev. Martin expressed regret that so many trained young Canadians were seeking a future in the United States and he stated that a boundless opportunity awaited them in this country. He reiterated the statement that the next fifty years belong to Canada, providing a Conservative government was established at Ottawa. He saw the United States as a giant octopus trying to strangle Canadian enterprise and declared that only a Conservative government could restrain that influence. He said that while Canada was primarily an agricultural country it should take a prominent place in manufacturing, and only in this way could the unemployment problem be solved.

He stated that Mr. Ferguson was carrying out his aim of giving every youth in the province a good education to fit them for places in the country's agricultural and manufacturing development and in this way the government was not striving to pile up money in the treasury but spending it for the betterment of the mental and physical welfare of the people.

The present era of so-called depression he failed to see causing any need for discouragement, but thought it rather as "birth throes of greater progress." In conclusion he called upon Canadians to maintain their country within the British Empire and to see that a Conservative government was established at Ottawa in the coming election.

E. A Peck, M.P., spoke briefly of the opening of the Federal Home, and J. Ford Strickland, M.P.P., referred in a short address to the work of the Ferguson government in its present session. Mr. Peck pointed out the need for a re-organization of the local Conservative Association and stated that March 7 had been set as the date of a general meeting for that purpose.

Jack Gunn, of Lindsay, and Wm. Fillmore, of Toronto, both prominent organizers of the Young Conservative Association in short addresses emphasized the fact that the young men and womeen should take a larger part in the political life of the country. Both pointed out that the Conservative clubs had been established for this purpose and also as social ogranizations.

The last part of the meeting was purely social and was given over to dancing and cards.

ANNOUNCE RESULTS CROP COMPETITION

Thomas Petrie Draws First Place in Peterborough Industrial Exhibition Contest.

Results that have been announced for the combined field crop competition held by the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition this fall give Thomas Petrie first place. The next six in order are J. Gordon Mann and Sons, H. C. Blewitt, F. H. Collins, R. E. Drummond, all of Peterborough; Tomas McIndoo, Ida; R. Armstrong, Ida.

The competition drew 14 entries for members of the Peterborough Exhibition Agricultural Society. It was the first combined field crop competition held at the exhibition, the stand in the field being judged as well as the grain in the bin. It was the first time that registered oats have been grown to any extent in this district, the competition allowing only registered oats.

When the results of the competition were announced the campetitors gathered in the local office of the Department of Agriculture, and T. G. Rayner, of the Seed Branch, Ottawa, and H. W. Pearson, local seed inspector, explained to the competitors, the reasons for decisions made on the various samples submitted.

There was some discussion at the meeting regarding the establishment of a seed cleaning plant in this district.

The exhibition board has decided to conduct a similar competition this Fall.

OBITUARY

MATCHETT BENNETT.

The death of the late Matchett Bennett occurred last night at his home in Otonabee, after a lingering illness. He leaves to mourn his loss his mother and one sister, Mable, of New York, and one brother, Bert, at home. His father, John Bennett, predeceased him nineteen years ago.

The funeral will be held on Monday, February 24, at 2 p.m. Interment at Little Lake Cemetery, Rev. Dudgeon, of St. James' Church, Peterborough, officiating.

MRS. ANNIE HATFIELD.

CAMPBELLFORD, Feb. 22.— (Examiner Staff Correspondence.)—Annie, wife of the late Benjamin Hatfield, passed away at her home here yesterday after a brief illness.

Mrs. Hatfield, who was in her 72nd year, was born in Ireland, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Kennedy. Coming to this country at an early age, she settled with her parents in the Stirling district, where she met and married the late Benjamin Hatfield.

Six years ago, the deceased lady came to reside in Campbellford, where she lived until her death.

Surviving her are two daughters, Mrs. Andrews, of Hamilton, Ont., and Bessie, of Toronto, and two sons, Ben of Rouen, Quebec, and Archibald, of this town.

The remains are being sent to Stirling, where interment is being made on Saturday. There was no service at Campbellford.

"George is a changed boy," says TORONTO mother

DON'T neglect a child's constipation. It is the cause of so many ailments; biliousness, headaches, feverishness, sallow, broken-out skin; a general run-down condition.

The first signs of sluggish bowels are usually bad breath or coated tongue. Then it's time for good old California Fig Syrup. Children need no urging to take it. They love its flavor. And it works every time. It cleanses the little system of all souring waste. It gives tone and strength to lazy bowels and stomach, so they continue to act naturally. A child's digestion and assimilation improve when it is used. Meals are eaten with zest instead of indifference.

Mothers all around you know its quick benefits. Mrs. A. Gresham, 7 Currie Ave., Toronto, Ontario, says: "My little son, George, is a changed boy since I have been giving him California Fig Syrup. It regulated his bowels in a hurry. He had no appetite or energy; now he's always hungry, full of life."

The genuine, pure vegetable product endorsed by doctors for over 50 years, always bears the name California.

HUDSON'S Great 8

Questions the Wisdom of ever paying more for any car

Its rich appointment and appearance; its outstanding performance, remarkable economy and its pride of ownership, in every particular of motor car satisfaction, questions the wisdom of ever paying more for any car.

It is a question that motordom is everywhere asking. It is revealed in hosts of new owners turning to Hudson from every size and price field. It is confirmed in the most spontaneous welcome ever extended an eight-cylinder car.

This is the car which all Hudson's past achievements are set aside to produce. That fact alone speaks for a remarkable development. When you see and ride in it you will understand that an entirely new standard of motor value has been established.

It genuinely questions the wisdom of paying more for any car.

LIQUOR REVENUE IN 1929 MOUNTS UP BY $8,534,396

Total Drink Bill For Province Amounted to $57,529,987.81 Price Announces.

WINE TOTAL $1,168,258.

Royal Commission Investigating Auto Insurance Rates Cost $24,770.91.

TORONTO, Ont., Feb. 22.—(Canadian Press).—Ontario's total drink bill for 1929 was set at $57,529,987.81 by Hon. W. H. Price, attorney-general in answering a question in the Legislature yesterday. This represented an increase of $8,534,396 over 1928 figures. In addition, wine valued at $1,168,258 was produced in Ontario and sold to residents of other Provinces and $69,721 worth to purchasers outside of Canada.

The amount of spirituous liquor sold by the Liquor Control Commission during 1929 was $32,268,503.91; wine, $3,237,844.50 and beer, $2,120,430.80. Wine sold by wineries direct to Ontario consumers was $1,126,945 and wine sold to the Commission was $1,042,473. Beer sold from Commission warehouses amounted to $14,157,856.46 and sold direct from breweries $3,573,934.15.

Payroll $1,721,822.19

The above information was sought by T. K. Slack, Prog., Duffcin. In reply to a question put by W. G. Medd, Prog., South Huron, the Attorney-General said that 1,146 persons, including the three members of the board, were employed by the Liquor Control Commission. The 1929 payroll was $1,721,822.19.

The cost so far incurred by the Royal Commission dealing with the question of automobile insurance rates, was placed at $24,770.91 by Col. Price in answering a question put by W. J. Bragg, Lib., Durham. The Commission is expected to make a report some time during the present session.

Hon. Harry Nixon, Progressive leader was told by Hon. Charles McCrea, Minister of Mines, that 671 gun licenses had been issued this year in Brant county; 773 in Oxford County and 401 in Perth county. No applicants had been refused licenses, the Minister said, no applications had been received to carry on organized rabbit drives. A total of 110 seizures of guns had been made in the entire Province from persons not licensed to carry them and 87 persons were prosecuted.

Prevent Vexacious Actions.

Attorney-General Price introduced a bill designed at stopping "vexacious actions" from being listed before the courts. The bill gave to Supreme Court judges the right to refuse to hear an action when they are "satisfied any person has habitually, persistently and without reasonable ground, instituted vexacious proceedings in the courts." The bill was labelled "an Act to prevent vexacious legal proceedings." It was given first reading and will be explained more fully when up for second reading.

Despite opposition from F. W. Elliott, Liberal, North Bruce, a bill introduced by W. Morrison, Cons., Hamilton East, received second reading. It was an amendment to the Municipal Act, under which a municipality would have the right to name November 21 as nomination day and also place a polling booth for a sub-division in a school not within its boundaries. When a by-law was to be submitted to the people, it would have to be advertised once a week for three weeks, under its provisions.

F. W. Elliott introduced a bill, an amendment to the public service works on Highway Act providing that when it was necessary to remove poles from along a highway, such work would be done at the company's cost and not the municipality's.

The second reading was given private bills from the town of Leaside, town of New Liskeard and the town of Frood Mines. A bill for the incorporation of the Canadian Kennel Club also received second reading.

Hon. William Finlayson, Minister of Lands and Forests, introduced an amendment to the Municipal Act, and Attorney-General Price introduced an amendment to the Hospitals for the Insane Act and to the Juvenile Courts Act.

PHARAOH'S CURSE RESPONSIBLE FOR ANOTHER VICTIM

Lord Westbury Takes Own Life After Long Worry Over Death of Son.

FELL SEVEN STOREYS.

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 22 (Canadian Press).—Lord Westbury, who was 78 years old died yesterday under rather tragic circumstances. He died after months of worry over Pharaoh's curse and the death of his son.

Lord Westbury, who is the third Baron of his name and who has been ill for some time, went to his bathroom in his flat at St. James' Court. In some fashion he fell through the window on the seventh floor and crashed through the glass veranda to the steps more than a hundred feet below him.

In falling he knocked down a woman who had to be sent to a hospital suffering from shock and broken glass cuts. Lord Westbury was dead when he was picked up.

At an inquest into Westbury's death this forenoon a verdict of suicide while of unsound mind was rendered.

Worried Months.

Lord Westbury for months had worried over the strange circumstances of the death of his son, Richard Bethell, 46, who was secretary to Howard Carter, whose investigations in Egypt disclosed the treasures of ancient Tut-Ankh-Amen.

Bethell's death, while apparently from natural causes, revived discussion of the superstitions of a curse resting upon meddlers with the tombs of the Pharaohs. His was the tenth death among people concerned with the exploration of Tut-Ankh-Amen's sepulchre. Carter, the chief disturber of the tomb, is still alive.

Lord Westbury lived alone in his flat in the care of a trained nurse. He took advantage of the nurse's temporary absence from his room early to-day to arise from his bed and go to the bath room from where he tumbled to his death.

Two Farewell Letters.

Although there had been no reason to anticipate an attempt at suicide, the nurse testified, two farewell letters on black-edged note paper were produced at the inquest. On one of them Lord Westbury had written: "I really cannot stand any more horrors."

In the very flat from which Lord Westbury presumably jumped, were several important and exquisite works of Egyptian art from the Egyptian valley of Kings which Bethell, who was his heir, had given his parents.

PRESENTATION MADE.

Mrs. Theresa O'Connor Honored by Friends at Social Gathering.

Gathering at the home of Mrs. Theresa O'Connon and family of Otonabee, friends and neighbors recently presented a purse of gold and gave expression to their regret concerning the early departure of the family to take up residence in Detroit.

The presentation of the purse was made by Joseph Slattery who had fitting words for the occasion. An address was ready by Albert Crowley.

In the address sincere tribute was paid to the O'Connor family in regard to their part in the community life and their Christian earnestness to be of service to neighbors and friends at all times.

TEA CARRIED BY PLANE TO PELEE ISLANDERS

By Ox-Cart and Airplane Tea is Transported to the Retailers

It is a far cry from the slow-moving, primitive, high-wheeled cart, hauled by oxen along the roads of Ceylon, to a speedy airplane in the winter sky over Lake Erie, but many of the people on Pelee Island are now drinking tea, carried there by air that joggled along in an oxcart under a tropical sun in Ceylon only a few weeks ago.

The Salada Tea Company, because of the freezing over of Lake Erie, between Pelee and the mainland, recently shipped several hundred pounds of tea by air, in order to replenish the diminishing stock of a certain grocer on the island.

There is no doubt that the airplane is fast taking its place as a freight carrier and it is gratifying to see some of our larger Canadian industries utilizing this means of transporation in the name of service.

PILGRIMS OF U. S. BADE FAREWELL BY SIR E. HOWARD

Retiring British Ambassador Sails To-night For England.

MANY HAPPY MEMORIES.

Dr. Butler Urges English Speaking People to Stand on Guard For Their Heritage.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Feb. 21. (By Ken Clark, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Sir Esme Howard the retiring British Ambassador bade farewell to the New York Pilgrims last night and tonight he sails for England where he will address the Pilgrims of Old London.

His message delivered to statesmen, men of letters and captains of industry and finance in the ballroom of the Plaza Hotel was one of confidence in the present and future of Anglo-American relations.

Spirit of Friendship

"I wish you good-bye, he said, "with gratefulness in my heart for all you and your countrymen have done for me with many happy memories of good days spent over here and with full confidence that the future relations of our countries will move in a spirit of friendship and understanding so firmly founded that it will be taken for granted and need never be mentioned or discussed.

Sir Esme was introduced to the Pilgrims and their ladies who according to custom entered the ballroom after dinner and sat in the boxes about the floor, by Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University. Dr. Butler took advantage of the occasion in bidding farewell to the British Ambassador, to warn his fellow Pilgrims of perils to individual and political liberties which were the heritage of the English-speaking peoples. Commending to his hearers Lord Hewart's book 'The New Depotism' Dr. Butler drew attention to fact that in Italy, Russia and China new methods of government unknown to Anglo-Saxon peoples were in force. He pointed to the accumulation of restrictive law within the United States. He described the decadence of the party system in England, in France and in the United States. From whatever source dangers to the liberties of English-speaking peoples might arise he asked them all "whether Scotch, Irish, Canadian, Australian, South African or American" to stand upon guard for their heritage.

Press Pays Tribute

Dr. John Huston Finley of the New York Times paid a final tribute to Sir Esme on behalf of the Pilgrims.

An event not on the programme occurred when Sir Esme in the course of his speech mentioned his wife, Lady Isabella who was sitting with the ladies in the box. The guests rose and applauded with vigorous spontaneity

There is no rest for the now retired Ambassador to-day. This morning he received the press and spoke to the journalists of the United States as friends, thanking them for their kindnesses to him during his regime at Washington and wishing them happiness.

At noon in company with Sir John Broderick, commercial secretary of the embassy, he attended a luncheon at the British Empire Chamber of Commerce.

SOCIETIES MEET.

Mrs. Robert Payne Hostess at Combined Meeting of Warsaw Church Societies.

WARSAW, Feb. 22 (Examiner Correspondence). — The Presbyterian W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid met at Mrs. Robert Payne's home on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Munro, President of W.M.S., was in the chair. After the opening exercises, Mrs. Munro gave a paper on "Couriers of the King, Pentecost, the Birthday of the Church," and Mrs. T. H. Crowe, one on "The Wayfarers of Canada—Jews, Hungarians, and Persians. Mrs. R. Payne and Mrs. J. Greystock led in the circle of prayer. Miss Ellen Douglas read the scripture lesson, Acts 2. After the W.M.S. meeting closed, the Ladies' Aid held a short business meeting.

Mrs. Payne served a dainty afternoon tea.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid and the Women's Institute have each had two quiltings within the last ten days.

REPORT IS DENIED.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 22.—(C.P.).—A report that William Howard Taft has succumbed to the illness which caused him to resign as Chief Justice of the United States, was denied early to-day at the White House and by his physician, Dr. Francis Hagner.

Mr. Taft's failure to show an improvement was regarded as causing some apprehension among those close to him.

FRIDAY NIGHT CLUB HEARS C. S. CUMMER

Reports on Convention of the National Y.M.C.A. Council Held Recently.

Speaking on the convention of the National Council of the Y.M.C.A. which took place in Kingston on Feb. 6, 7 and 8, C. S. Cummer, manager of the George street branch of the Bank of Montreal, a director on the Y.M.C.A. board and chairman of the Physical Committee, addressed the Friday night Supper Club at the Y.M.C.A. last night.

At the conference, Mr. Cummer said, there were one or more representatives from every Y.M.C.A. in the Dominion, 12 laymen and 12 secretaries. The meeting is held once a year in different cities to carry out the business in connection with the work, which extends all over Canada.

One of the important matters that came up in discussion, Mr. Cummer said, was the increasing competition in the line of sports that the Associations throughout the country are experiencing on account of the organization of athletic clubs and young peoples' societies, which offer athletics which only Y. M. C. A.'s used to afford. However, he continued, it was noted at the conference that in the young man and business man field, the Associations seem to be steadily gaining ground.

The speaker dwelt on the type of men that the work of the Y.M.C.A. attracts, taking as an indication the men to be seen at the conference. He mentioned a number of names prominent in business circles in Canada.

FOUR DIE IN FIRE.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., February 22 (Canadian Press). — Four persons are known to have lost their lives in a fire which destroyed a small building formerly used by the Pennsylvania Railroad as a passenger station at Edenburg, near here, early to-day. The body of a man was removed from the ruins and firemen reported they had seen bodies apparently of a woman and two children in the debris.

ASKS COUNCIL TO RESIGN.

BURLINGTON, Ont., February 22 (Canadian Press). — A petition presented at a meeting of the Town Council by a body of citizens requests that they resign in the best interests of the town. The petition followed the report of the Finance Committee, which showed a shortage of $10,638 in the treasury.

ANNOUNCING

a companion car for the successful Oakland Six

The New OAKLAND CUSTOM 8

TODAY a new Oakland makes its appearance. It is General Motors' newest eight—companion car to the successful Oakland Six. And this new car offers the superior performance of the eight without penalty of price. For its cost is exceptionally low.

SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE

The New Oakland Custom Eight develops 85 horsepower and is the first stock car of its size and weight to employ so highly powered an engine. It produces one horsepower to 37 pounds of car weight. That's why no car near this Oakland's price is as fast . . why you can't pass it on the hills . . why it accelerates so rapidly in traffic. Exceptional smoothness and flexibility are other outstanding characteristics of the New Oakland Custom Eight. It has all the freedom from vibration which results from the overlapping of power impulses inherent in eight-cylinder engine design.

SOUNDLY DESIGNED

Engineers whose experience in building eights goes back to the designing of General Motors' first eight, in 1914, were responsible for the development of the New Oakland Custom Eight. To this latest task they brought a wide knowledge of eight-cylinder design. It is reasonable to expect that this companion car for the successful Oakland Six is remarkably sound in design because of this fact.

SUPERBLY EQUIPPED

This new Oakland creation matches performance unique in its field with truly de luxe features of equipment and appointment. The luxurious interiors are upholstered in a specially high grade of mohair. Decorative assist cords . . handsome chromium plated brightwork inside and out . . a folding centre arm rest provided in the sedan model for the convenience of rear seat passengers . . and a readily adjustable driver's seat enhance comfort and distinction. Non-shatterable Duplate glass is used throughout. A wide choice of beautiful color harmonies is provided. And standard equipment includes six wire wheels, two in fender wells; trunk rack; bumpers front and rear; four Delco-Lovejoy shock absorbers; spring covers, and safety lights on front fenders.

MODERATE PRICE

We believe you are going to like the New Oakland Custom Eight . . and that its very moderate price will appeal to you. A demonstration will reveal how well it merits the description, "the car of superior performance". The G.M.A.C. Deferred Payment Plan is a convenient method of purchasing this great new Oakland. Ask us about it.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST TO THE FARMER

FEEDING OF STOCK TO GAIN PROFITS REQUIRES STUDY

Roughages and Grains Raised on Farm During Past Year Constitute Cheapest Source of Supply and Should Be Used as Much as Possible.

SUPPLEMENTING HOME FEEDS WITH READY MIXED COMMERCIAL RATIONS IS MEETING MUCH SUCCESS

Few Realize What a Surprisingly Small Increase is Required to Outweigh a Seemingly Big Difference in Initial Cost of Two Rations.

By Al J. Rogers

In deciding what to feed during the winter and spring months, you naturally consider first the roughages and grains that have been raised on the farm during the past year. These feeds constitute your cheapest source of feed supply and it is good economy to so plan your feeding program that you will use as much of them as possible as the basis of your ration.

However, it is equally important to remember that no combination or home raised feeds fully meets the needs of dairy cows, hogs, and poultry, and it is poor economy to feed such large quantities of home feeds that some of the nutrients they contain are wasted, while other nutrients needed are lacking. It is a wise farmer who realizes it is just as important to know what feeds to buy as it is to know what feeds to raise.

In selecting the feeds needed to supplement home grains and roughages, two courses are open. If desired, one may buy several different ingredients, such as gluten feed, mill feed, etc., and work them into his ration. If a good formula is followed, the advantage of this plan over straight home feeds has been proven to be both sound and profitable.

Superior Plan

Supplementing home feeds with ready mixed commercial rations is being done more and more. Many feeders who have followed this practice for two or three years claim that this plan is superior to attempting to mix rations at home, both from the standpoint of extra profits and eliminating the bother and labor of mixing. The matter of cost is one of the first questions to be considered. In considering such rations it is important to realize that the profit left after the feed is paid for, is the true basis to judge the economy of a ration rather than its initial cost by the hundred pounds or ton.

Few realize what a surprisingly small increase in production is required to outweigh a seemingly big difference in the initial cost of two rations. This applies in comparing the cost of a good home mixture with a poor one, as well as a home mixture with a commercial ration, or in comparing the value of different ready mixed rations. $20.00 per ton may seem to be an enormous difference in cost. A hen eats in one month 3 lbs. of mash which at the rate of 1c per pound is 3c per hen. Thus a difference of $20.00 per ton is only 3c per hen per month. If the better of the two rations causes the hen to produce only one extra egg the difference is more than offset.

A flock laying 40 per cent or 12 days a month are loafing 18 days a month. If one ration cuts only one day off the 18 days of loafing it is worth $20.00 a ton more.

Same Principal With Cows

This same principle applies to feeding dairy cows. Suppose you were considering two rations, the initial cost of which may vary $10.00 a ton. If milk is worth 2½c a pound, 2 lbs. of milk per day more offsets this difference of $10 per ton. This is one pound at a milking or about one-third of an inch in the pail—not enough to be even noticeable.

In considering ready mixed rations, they cannot be considered as a general class and all having the same value. There are a number of honest, reputable concerns with high ideals that are striving to build products that will increase feeding profits.

Unfortunately, just as in the case in every other industry, there are a few firms whose products are made primarily to sell, or intended to dispose of some by-products of low feeding value. In selecting a commercial ration, a feeder must use his judgment just as he does in buying materials needed on the farm.

Another very important consideration is whether the ready mixed ration is intended to be fed as a supplement to home feeds or whether it is made as a complete ration. Obviously, it would be poor economy to buy a ready mixed ration that would not fit in properly with home feed and would either throw your ration badly out of balance, or necessitate your disposing of more of your home feeds than is necessary.

Used As Guide

To some extent, the analysis may be relied upon as a guide. However, there are a number of important factors that analysis do not show. For example, it tells us nothing about the digestibility of the feed—the amount of protein, carbohydrates, etc., that can really be used by the animal—a very important point. Neither does it tell us anything about the palatability of a ration, and since the more palatable the ration the more easily digested, this is also very important. Neither does the crude chemical analysis disclose anything about the variety of proteins which are absolutely necessary to maintain milk or egg production and keep up the animal's body. Complete protein can only be obtained from the right combination of several different ingredients.

In selecting a ready mixed ration, any feeder will do well to ask himself the following questions in order to best determine which ration will give him the best results:

How long has the manufacturer been in business?

What growth and progress has the manufacturer made?

What has been done to make this particular feed the best dollar's worth of feed you can buy for your money and the best suited for your particular needs?

What type of dealer is handling the product?

What can the ready mixed ration be expected to do in the way of extra dollars over feed cost?

What proof is available as to the results this particular ration has produced?

SUITABLE APPLES FOR EACH SEASON

Melba and Yellow Transparent Best for Early Summer—Joyce Early Autumn.

McINTOSH MID-WINTER

At least a tree each of a summer, autumn and winter variety of apples should be grown. For summer, the Melba is the best and if one still earlier is desired a Yellow Transparent should be planted, and Joyce for early autumn is of good quality. For autumn, the Wealthy has been the best all round variety, though where Gravenstein succeeds it is a very satisfactory sort, the Crimson Gravenstein, a sport from it, being of very high color and more desirable on this account. Lobo is better in quality that Wealthy and is being planted instead by some. For early to midwinter, the McIntosh is best and those who prefer Delicious will plant it where it succeeds well, and for late winter, Northern Spy and Golden Russet where they succeed. In places too cold for these the McIntosh will keep to near spring. Among crab apples, Martha and Hyslop are two good varieties. Transcendent is good also, but is subject to blight.

The devilfish varies in length from one inch to 50 feet.

CROPS TRAIN MAKES TOUR OF PROVINCE

Soils Car Has Been Substituted For Seed Cleaning Demonstration Coach.

55 STOPS PLANNED.

Train Open to Public From 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Daily—In Peterborough March 27.

Owing to the greatly increased demand for information on soil management and chemical fertilizers, a Soils Car has been substituted for the seed cleaning demonstration coach on the Ontario Government Special Train this year. The train will tour Eastern Ontario and will make 55 stops of one day each commencing at Pickering on Tuesday, February 18 and concluding at Pembroke on April 23rd.

The Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways are co-operating with the Ontario Department of Agriculture by supplying the cars and by carrying them free of charge over their lines. The following counties will be covered:

Ontario, Durham, Northumberland, Prince Edward, Peterborough, Hastings, Lennox and Addington, Frontenac, Leeds, Lanark, Renfrew, Carleton, Grenville, Dundas, Stormont, Glengarry, Prescott and Russell.

The train will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. One of the cars is fitted for lecture purposes and a meeting will be held each afternoon at 2 p. m. Addresses on the subjects of most interest to hte locality at which the stop is made will be delivered by specialists in their respective lines. Members of the staff will be on the train throughout its tour. Speakers from other branches of the Ontario Department and from the Federal Department of Agriculture will assist where necessary. The Soils Car will include exhibits on Drainage, Tillage, Fertility, Crop Rotation and the efficient use of power.

The third coach will be known as the crops car and will contain displays and literature for distribution on weeds, screens, cereals, legumes and roots.

It is intended that this train should serve as an information bureau and farmers are invited to visit the train and present their problems. Methods of increasing farm profits will be discussed at every stop.

The train will appear on the following dates.

Durham County

Feb. 19 (Wed.), Bowmanville, C.N.R.; Mar. 25, (Tues.), Pontypool, C.P.R. Mar. 26, (Wed), Cavan, C.P.R.

INCUBATOR PLAYS IMPORTANT PART

Manufacturers' Instructions Should Be Followed Closely For Good Hatches.

SHOULD BE LEVEL.

Have you been getting good hatchability from the eggs you placed in the incubator, If not, it may be because you have overlooked one or more of the simple rules in incubation.

To begin with, the incubator should be set in a room where the temperature may be held from 60 to 70 degrees Fahrenheit. The room should permit proper ventilation as an incubator requires a never-ending supply of oxygen. Drafts and direct sunlight should be guarded against. Be sure that the room will allow for proper moisture in the machine.

In setting up an incubator, make sure machine is level or otherwise the heat will not be evenly distributed in the egg chamber. The highest corner will be the hottest. If the machine has been used before, clean the lamp and replace the wick. The burner should be boiled in water to remove the carbon. Disinfect the egg chamber. Examine the thermostat. Its sensitiveness determines the uniformity of the temperature in the incubator. Test the thermometer to determine its reliability.

In starting the incubator use a medium low flame and do not hurry the temperature to reach proper height. If using oil as fuel be sure to obtain a high grade of kerosene. It burns with a hotter flame and is less apt to smoke.

Always follow the manufacturer's instructions when operating an incubator. He knows his machine and knows how best results may be obtained under average conditions.

If you will follow these few simple rules and set nothing but good, sound eggs from well nourished birds, you should get the best hatch you have ever had.

APPLE GROWER GIVES POINTERS

Heavy Pruning in Early Spring Absolutely Necessary—All Sunlight Needed.

FAVORS THINNING.

Cultural methods followed by a successful orchardist are always of interest to other members of the same industry, and this is particularly the case when a man has brought honor to himself and his country by capturing major awards of Rockland, shows. C. A. Bentley of Rockland, Berwick, Nova Scotia, succeeded in taking five first prizes at the Imperial Fruit Show in England in 1929, winning on four boxes Wealthy, three barrels Spy, three barrels Greenings, three barrels Gravensteins and three barrels "any other market variety".

"In the treatment of my sod culture orchards I apply the same methods from year to year, and with very little variation, obtain the usual good results", states Mr Bentley. "Heavy pruning in the early spring is absolutely necessary, if one wants all the sun possible on the fruit during our short season.

"Formerly I have used four hundred pounds of nitrate of soda to the acre, but last year, with the increased growth on the young trees as well as the older ones, I used six hundred pounds to the acre, and have been well satisfied with the results in size, color and production. The grass cut in the orchards is used entirely for mulching the trees, and I usually get as much more as possible so there will be a heavy mulch around each tree.

"I am strong for thinning, and find there are more No. 1's and No. 2's on the trees thinned than there are on those not thinned. Also the power of resistance of the fruit left is greater in the event of high winds or continued drought. In the matter of sprays or dusts: this last year I used both, as I find the liquid spray is more effective in getting at the 'Bug' problem. I put on a dormant emulsion oil and bordeaux spray and two of lime sulphur; these together with three quite heavy dustings cleared up the orchards pretty well.

"No particular attention was given to the prize winning fruit. It was picked promiscuously from all over the orchard and was done with expert care, which is absolutely essential when one is in competition with the whole Dominion. Every year I am getting out the old varieties and grafting in marketable ones thus specializing on a few good varieties."

Electric Shocks Send Cows Crazy

WAUSAU, Wis., Feb. 22.—(U.P.) —The cows were cutting capers in William Kattre's barn near here. Kattre and his wife observed the cows jumping, kicking and bellowing in an unusual fashion at milking. Neighbors, who were called upon for advice suggested poison or intoxication. Kattre called a veterinarian. Before the doctor arrived, one of the neighbors leaned against a stanchion and was knocked to his feet. The steel cattle guard was charged with electricity when an electric wire had made contact with the metal.

PARASITES HAVE SERIOUS EFFECT AMONG POULTRY

Owners Are Giving Greater Care to Location of Plants.

CHICKS ON CLEAN GROUND

Close Housing Conditions Liable to Promote Cannibalism Among Birds.

Intestinal parasites are known to seriously effect success in poultry raising. Poultry keepers who understand this are giving greater attention to the location of their plants and to the adoption of means of combatting these enemies of the fowls.

The problem of insect parasites has for several years past been attacked through the Experimental Farms System by a system of rotation in rearing for the purpose of breaking up the life cycle of the parasites thus rendering impossible their propagation. This work has been done at several of the Farms and in the report of the Superintendent of the Summerland Station it is stated that young birds are being raised on clean ground as far as possible away from the plant. The ground that was used in one year for the growing birds was put into crop the second year, allowing a whole season to elapse without poultry running over it. If manure had to be piled temporarily on the range land, care was taken to have it fenced so that the chickens could not travel over it. In addition to these precautions other methods of good sanitation were practised. Pullets thus raised on clean fresh ground have gone into winter laying sheds in splendid condition, and once in they are not allowed out in yards, being strictly confined until the following fall.

Losses Reduced.

These control practices have reduced losses from worm infestation to practically the vanishing point. Production at the Station has reached a high point, quite the best in the history of the plant. Much credit for this improvement is given to the control.

Under such close housing conditions Mr. Hunter, the Superintendent, points out cannibalism among the birds is likely to occur, that is to say, the birds perhaps for want of something to do commence pulling the feathers, even pecking the flesh for the blood they are able to bring. When this practice is first noticed. Mr. Hunter recommends cutting a little off the upper mandibles of the offending birds and smearing the victims with pine tar. This treatment, however, is only a palliative in so far as the immediate difficulty is concerned, but poultry keepers should go farther than this and find out the causes of the habit in order that those may be removed.

START PLANS NOW ON THE GARDENING YOU INTEND TO DO

Gardening Within Reach Of All, Even Apartment Dwellers Being Able to Derive Happiness From Window Boxes and Hanging Baskets.

MANY FACTORS IN FLOWER GARDENING TO CONSIDER, PLAN FOR SOME YEARS AHEAD IF PROPERTY OWNED

For Those Who Wish Something Different a Pool is Suggested or Perhaps a Terrace, or Rock Garden With Alpine Plants Nestled Around.

Frosty nights and blustery days may be invigorating, but the average person about this time of year begins to long for spring. And with that longing there arises a picture of flowers, green grass and perhaps, in the background, something more substantial, trim rows of vegetables. Spring has long been associated with growing things and eagerly is the first sign of brown earth, pushing up through the snow on the southern slopes, scanned for signs of life. Too often, however, are these delightful dreams allowed to fade in the usual way and no part is taken in the great drama staged by Nature every year. Perhaps we imagine we are too busy with our daily round of bread winning, or some hobby such as fishing or golf. But with the real gardener such excuses will not hold water and he cannot understand why the other fellow allows himself to be persuaded so easily out of something that asks so little in the way of time and expense in comparison with the pleasure and satisfaction offered. Gardening is within the reach of all, even the lofty apartment dwellers being able to make a brave show and to derive considerable happiness out of window boxes, hanging baskets and potted plants and bulbs. Unlike golf and other hobbies gardening is not governed by a rigid set of rules. There is no minimum fee. One can spend as little as one chooses. A few square yards of velvety grass, a shrub or two, with a small bed of annuals screening a highly productive vegetables patch will furnish a lot of fun, some healthy exercise and develop into a marked contrast with the drab surroundings of a year ago.

Plans

One need not wait until the snow and frost are gone. Before a cosy fire there is a good deal of satisfaction in planning the transformation of that bit of ground surrounding the house, some evening this week. It is, of course, quite possible to put in a garden without a plan but the results will not be nearly as satisfactory as when one has plotted everything out on paper. These plans should be roughly drawn to scale so that there will be less difficulty in putting them into execution next month or the month after. With the flower garden there are a number of factors to take into consideration. If one owns the property something permanent should be worked out, the development to take place over a period of years. Close up against the house and screening the rigid lines and corners will be shrubbery and perhaps an odd tree or two. In front of this will be the taller flowers, perennials or annuals, and maybe some spring flowering bulbs to go in next fall. There will be paths to lay out, disfiguring but highly necessary telephone and power poles, water and sewer connections, straight driveways and similar affairs to screen. The time of flowering, the color of bloom and the height of the various plants must be especially noted. Along the front of any garden dwarf edging material will be used, leading up gradually to the taller flowers depending on the width of the bed. In this planning it is essential to have a good seed catalogue handy and perhaps a government bulletin or two dealing with flowers. Both these references are easily procured and, of course, are free.

In the catalogues will be found all the necessary information, such as the height of the various plants, the time and color of flowering, and any special uses to which the particular flower may be put, such as its position in reference to light and soil conditions. One should plan to have something in bloom from the very earliest time in the spring until fall frosts reduce everything to a common level. The bulbs, of course, such as the tulip and hyacinth, will come out first and these, where a proper selection is made, will be followed by a continuous bloom supplied by annuals and perennials until late in September. In the farmer sections of the country it is quite within the range of possibility to have some hardy flowers until early November.

For those people who wish to have something just a little out of the ordinary, something they can show their gardening friends with a little pride, there are plenty of opportunities in this delightful pastime. A pool may be installed where water flowers will bloom. Perhaps along a terrace or behind the shrubbery a rock garden with alpine plants may be developed. Away at the back among the trees wild flowers and rare shade loving plants may be introduced. Rose gardens can be provided and, here again, one can depart from the ordinary by training these beautiful bushes to a single stem to represent a flowering tree or over quaintly built arches and trellises. Indeed, the more one looks into gardening the more it is realized that some things like hilly locations, unsightly garages and high fences which were regarded at first as obstacles are really opportunities for developing special skill.

McLaughlin-Buick Performance is Revealed, too, in Marquette

WITH a leader's mastery of every phase of action Marquette provides performance without a peer in its class. The proved advantages of McLaughlin-Buick ideals of extra value have never been more convincingly demonstrated.

Amazing new power and pick-up . . thrilling new speed . . and a surprising new economy is now available in a still wider price field. Only Marquette, with its rich background of McLaughlin-Buick craftsmanship, can offer such superlative performance at such moderate cost.

With Marquette and the three great new series of McLaughlin-Buicks another triumph has been achieved . . far greater diversity and choice of McLaughlin-Buick built cars is made available at a much wider range of prices.

You owe it to yourself to see McLaughlin-Buick and Marquette . . to ride in them . . to drive them. They are distinguished by traditional McLaughlin-Buick superiorities. And whichever car or model you choose can be bought conveniently and economically on the G.M.A.C. Deferred Payment Plan.

McLaughlin-Buick's Valve-in-Head Engine develops 98 horsepower in the 124- and 132- series and 80½ horsepower in the 118-series.

Safety is assured by Enclosed Weatherproof Mechanical Four Wheel Brakes . . and Lovejoy double-acting Shock Absorbers in unit with new longer rear springs make for greater riding ease. The Frictionless Steering Gear has a Road Shock Eliminator; and the Non-Glare Windshield further contributes to safety.

Marquette has a larger piston displacement than any car at its price —212.8 cubic inches! Here is brilliant pick-up and more speed than needed. Other features include Mechanical Weather-proof Four Wheel Brakes; Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers—front and rear; full-length specially designed springs, and new, sloping Non-Glare Windshield.

The bodies by Fisher exemplify some of the smartest creations of modern craftsmanship.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE WEEKLY COLUMN

A goodly thing it is to meet
In Friendship's circle bright,
Where nothing stains the pleasure sweet,
Or dims the radiant light.
No unkind word our lips shall pass,
No envy sour the mind,
But each shall seek the common weal
The good of all mankind

WARSAW

Women's Institutes often hold open meetings of various types for certain purposes. A common open meeting is an evening when the men are invited. Warsaw branch took such an evening recently and the men were asked to put on a program. They gave a good one. E. N. McDonald, husband of a member gave a talk on community life. He has a certain amount of humor and began by saying that perhaps in one hundred years the men would be sitting back and saying, "What could we do without the women?"

He notices that at the U.F.O. and U.F.W.O. meetings, when both are present, the women have risen as much if not more than the men. But women have a lot to learn yet. Many do not even know they have the franchise. In speaking of country life, he said, "There is no place where men have so much freedom, and where men and women have so much chance to get along as in the country. Married life is happier and less dangerous than in the city."

He would have the little red school house remain. It was the first thing the pioneers put up after they got their homes. It was used as a church, and as a community centre. But he would like to see it giving two years of high school work, and he believes the time will come.

We must develop certain things within ourselves, to make the community what it should be. We must be ready at all times to do our share. Why get outside talent and not develop our own, or encourage it? People of a community must have faith in themselves and in each other, they must respect and work with each other and remember the golden rule "Do unto others as you would that they would do to you."

* * *

Lately there has been some question about Women's Institutes in the United States. Mrs. Alfred Watts in speaking of organization of Institutes throughout Canada says: The next country to have Women's Institutes was the United States, who got from Canada the plan of organizing rural women, but who worked it out quite differently. W.I.'s were held in many states, but not the monthly meetings which we consider a necessity. They were more like a series of short courses, as planned by a college for country women. Some states like Pennsylvania, had societies for farm women almost identical with ours. But eventually the nation-wide organization of Farm and Home Bureaux swamped all the lesser organizations and now is their greatest factor for the education of rural women. It is a highly specialized extension service emanating from the Federal Government at Washington and carried on throughout the State colleges and official bodies, by means of a well trained corpos of extension lecturers and demonstrators. In no other country has there been anything like such an elaborate system worked out and indeed originated by a central authority. The work is extremely good but there is no such local initiative and individuality as there is in the countries where the Institute ideal has been more closely followed.

WOOLER

This paper was read by Mrs. Clayton Maguire, of Trenton, at the February meeting of Wooler Women's Institute held at the home of Mrs. M. Sharpe:

Well Balanced Meals

It is claimed that a great many of our ills are caused by our meals not being well balanced, so it is quite natural we should want to know how to prepare meals without prejudice.

There are still ardent propagandists of a diet of raw foods, and vegetarians warn us to go vegetable-wise, while not so long ago in England the Salisbury diet had a host of followers, a diet composed largely of meat. A book which was printed some time ago pointed the way to health through fasting, while other books with sensational titles, written by enthusiasts who appear to have little sound knowledge of food values, undertake to provide ready-made diets for the treatment of many ills. All special diets should be prescribed by physicians and followed under their supervision. We have had the surpassing advantages of a vitamin rich diet preached to us by vitamin enthusiasts, while others stress the supreme importance of a diet rich in mineral salts. There are those who emphatically assert that what we need is much more bulk or roughage in our daily meals, and they would have us eat more than generously of the bulky foods, regardless of the limited capacity of our alimentary tract.

Part of the folly of adopting any of these different foods or types of diets is that the variety of food one is allowed to select is usually so restricted that it is often difficult or even impossible to secure sufficient nourishment from day to day. There exists today perfectly adequate evidence on which to form scientifically sound opinion. In our foods we have six food principles; they are called proteins, carbohydrates, or sugar and starch. Starch is changed to sugar during digestion, so they amount of the same thing in our bodies. Fats, mineral matter, vitamins and water. The diet must supply material for every need of the body, building regulating and energy.

I will give you a list of foods capable of doing this work. Proteins and mineral matter are called "the builders" and build bone and tissue although they cannot do it alone the other food principles are needed too. The proteins are: lean meat, fish, milk, cheese, eggs, nuts, cereals and legumes. We get mineral matter mainly from fruits and vegetables. Fats and carbohydrates supply energy and heat. The fats are butter, cream, lard, fat meats as bacon, chocolate and salad oil. The carbohydrates are potatoes, tapioca, cakes, some puddings, also the cereal as bread, macaroni, rice, meals and flours. These are the starches, the sugars are syrups, cane sugar, honey preserves, candy and sweet desserts. To regulate our body processes we need cellulose or roughage, mineral matter and water. Fruits and vegetables supply most of the roughage. I mentioned we get the most of our mineral matter from fruits and vegetables too. Vitamins are in milk and eggs, but also most abundant in fruits and vegetables. They aid our resistance to disease. Vitamines and mineral matter are called protective foods. You must have a food from one of these classifications at least once a day if you want to have well-balanced meals. And it is a matter of no small importance in planning our daily meals to select the foods that those foods having an acid reaction will be adequately offset or balanced by those having an alkaline reaction.

This is one of the several reasons why we should avoid a restricted diet. The most of the foods having an acid reaction are bread, eggs, fish, meat, oatmeal and rice. Those having an alkaline reaction are, most of the fruits, vegetables and milk. The taste of food is not guide whatever to its final reaction in the body. For example, lemons and oranges although they are acid foods have an alkaline reaction, while the equally good foods, meat, fish, eggs, cereals and bread have an acid reaction. Cooking, of course, has an important influence in conserving flavors and food values. We no longer cover vegetables with water in cooking them and then drain into the sink the water in which some of the valuable mineral salts and vitamines have been dissolved. Vegetable water may be used in gravies, cream soups or may substitute part of the milk in white sauce on vegetables.

We eat vegetables mainly for their mineral salts, vitamines, laxative value, bulk without nourishment and palatability. The last property makes them acceptable in the menu and at the same time they reduced our tendency to overeat of more concentrated foods. As laxatives they provide abundant soft roughage. A plentiful helping of spinach or cabbage is an excellent way to avoid the use of castor oil or bran chewing and to prevent constipation. The outstanding contributions of vegetables to the diet are the necessary vitamines and mineral salts. Some vitamines, especially the scurvy antidote may be destroyed by cooking, but if you prefer your vegetables and fruits cooked you can still get your protection from scurvy by eating a little more than you would if you took them as nature delivers them.

The raw product will supply more vitamine per unit of weight. This does not imply that we should eat only raw vegetables although we should have some each day. Cabbages are one of the best vegetables to use raw. Lettuce, celery, grated carrot or turnips are others. Some of the fruits to use raw this time of the year are apples, oranges, bananas and grapefruit. We should also have some cooked vegetable each day besides potatoes.

Milk is one of the most important foods. No diet is complete without it. It is a perfect food for children. They should get 1 quart a day. Adults should have one pint each day. It is also valuable for sick people because it is easily swallowed and digested. It is not a complete food for normal adults because it is too dilute a food. Too much would have to be taken (three or four gallons). It should be taken in combination with others foods. Cereals require milk, as do cream soups. White sauce on meats or vegetables as well as desserts made of milk as custards, blanc mange, tapioca, rice and bread puddings, ice cream are ways of getting milk in the diet. The reason it sometimes causes indigestion is because it is taken as a drink instead of a food. When milk reaches stomach it forms in a clot. If it forms in a large clot it will cause indigestion. To overcome this it should be taken slowly. We need plenty of water too. Two or three quarts should be taken in the body daily, one-half of sold food consists of water. We also get water in the liquid we drink as milk, tea or coffee. These should not be taken either too hot or too cold. Too much water should not be taken at mealtime. It overloads the stomach. Distribute it through the day. Some should be taken first thing in the morning or at least 15 minutes before breakfast. Drinking plenty of water helps to avoid some diseases. Plenty of warm water will relieve headache. It goes quickly through the body and cleanses. It might be interesting to know that two-thirds of the weight of the body is water. That amount remains fairly constant. If we drink more than is needed it is carried off.

Meat is a valuable source of protein and fat. It is a quick fuel food, so less is necessary in summer. It is also stimulating. It should not be added to diet of children until they are eight or nine years old. Cereals, eggs and milk are better. Too much meat for inactive people is not good. It is apt to cause uric acid in system. Meat in the diet has an acid reaction so a sufficient amount of fruits and vegetables should be eaten with it to counteract acid. The fruit and vegetables also supply carhohydrates and bulk lacking in meat. Salt meats and cured meats have as much nutrition as fresh meat and are as easily digested by normal individual. Decomposed meat is very dangerous and protein causes ptomaine poisons when decomposed. Fish in the diet is similar to meat. It is less stimulating and is easily digested. Therefore more suitable for children—people without exercise. It is called a brain food because of its easy digestibility.

Eggs are valuable in the diet but are not complete food and should be served with starchy food as macaroni, rice or potatoes. Fresh pork should be but seldom served and then only during the winter months. By curing salting, and smoking, pork is rendered more wholesome. Bacon next to butter and cream is the most easily assimilated of all fatty foods, although neither fish, flesh nor fowl, common cheddar cheese ranks with these staple foods and not with the condiments of meat making. Here is another way of getting milk in our diet. Wrong methods of cooking and serving have unfortunately caused a popular prejudice concerning the digestibility of cheese. When served at the end of a meal with piet, as is our custom, there is likely to be trouble. Since cheese is a rich, highly concentrated food comparable in its chief food elements to meat, the digestive organs are given too large an amount of protein and fat to handle. But if cheese is regarded as the main portion of protein and fat in a meal and combined with fruits, vegetables. Like all protein foods cheese must be cooked at a low temperature, otherwise the protein is made tough and stringy and is made difficult to digest. One pound of cheese will give as much nourishment as two pounds meats or about fifteen eggs or three pounds fish. Many believe that all fried foods are indigestible, when as a matter of fact it depends on how fried foods are fried. A food such as fish or a properly prepared food mixture such as croquettes or doughnuts may be accepted as a wholesome and digestible dish. If immersed in hot fat at the right frying temperature, until the food is cooked "to a turn." The hot fat has merely formed a medium for cooking the food and has not soaked into it at all. A thermometer is invaluable in frying foods as then there is no guessing at temperature and it is important that the temperature of the fat is just right to keep the food digestible. In the earlier days our pioneer families often lived on a seriously restricted diet in winter and it was generally accepted that there was need for spring tonics to overcome the rundown condition that many developed toward the spring season because of the restricted diet. Fortunately now there is much less difference between our summer and winter diet. Thanks to canned fruit and vegetables and to a more generous supply throughout the winter of milk and eggs, of cabbage and the root vegetables and such fruits as grapefruit, oranges and apples. All the food principles should be distributed through the day. Have them in the day's menu, if not in each meal. Select different proteins, carbohydrates, etc. for each meal and never serve same food material twice in same meal, for example potatoes and macaroni, both are starchy so one should be replaced by a green or non-starchy vegetable. Our general living habits are factors in planning meals that keep us fit, that is the amount and kind of exercise we take, the sun and hours out-of-doors we enjoy, and the consistency with which we follow a healthful routine in general. Proofs of being well-fed are when you keep well and feel fit. In regard to children the weight and height should keep up to standard forage. Where a great variety of food is obtainable and children are not allowed to form fancies for food there is little danger of deficiency. A varied diet that is reasonably generous in amount will be sufficient for the body.

MILLBROOK.

Home beautification, through painting, and the planting of shrubs and flowers, is being sponsored by Institutes of an eastern Ontario county, prizes being offered to stimulate interest in improving the community appearance, the money, or in some cases, baby trees, shrubs, and bulbs for the garden of another year, being awarded at the close of the summer season.

Complaints periodically reach headquarters each fall because of work shown at Rural School Fairs, openly declared to be the work of the parents, rather than the pupils themselves; in the baking exhibits this is particularly the case. Actual proof is wanting, of course, but the allegation is made each season. An extract from a report at one of the annual conventions has the following:

"One branch reports that, as the result of a warm discussion at a district convention, they find more honesty in the showing of exhibits at the school fairs, the parents who have erred before realize the seriousness of doing children's work for them, and letting them show it as their own."

A clipping from an address at a recent convention from an active worker contains a hint worth pondering over: "How easy it would be to be an Institute member if all we had to do was to pay our fee. Think of the words of our opening ode: 'No unkind words our lips shall pass, no envy sour our mind.' What would it not mean to have forty thousand women of Ontario singing that every month and living it every day."

Home economics is a subject declared to be important enough for each branch to devote some time to it at each regular meeting. Institute women want to make home so bright and attractive that the young folk of the family, as well as the older members, will find their happiness there, and not by going elsewhere for comfort and companioinship. "We must remember," warns one worker, "that home economics does not mean fancy cooking—that may be a feature at times, but good, wholesome food, attractively served, and well prepared, is the main requirement. Poultry raisers today are using cello glass to let the ultra-violet rays of the sun into their chicken houses, or failing this precaution the chicks must have a ration including cod-liver oil. Are we yet a long way from giving our 'humans' the same care the poultry man gives his 'family'? The wise housewife will plan for the health of her family in every particular, and the regular Institute meetings should be gatherings where she may count on receiving practical hints and facts to help her in 'puting over' her big problem."

Moire solves the afternoon dress problem for many women. This Redfern frock is in grey moire and is untrimmed, the cut itself being sufficient to bring out its best features.

CHARMING EVENING MODEL FOR THE SMALL WOMAN.

By Monsieur Edmond Courtot.

The small woman who cannot successfully wear the evening dress which touches the floor all around will find a solution in this dress, in which I have used numerous devices to create an effect of slimness and height. The red crepe de chine of which the dress is made is strikingly beautiful, and I have found that it brings out unusual qualities of skin and hair in both blondes and brunettes. A number of young women, with prematurely white hair, have found red one of their most becoming colors.

"I once thought I would be a cripple"

RHEUMATISM takes the joy out of life. The sufferer from rheumatism finds difficulty in doing her housework and cannot join with her husband and family in even the simplest pleasures.

To combat rheumatism, the blood must be purified and enriched. And for this purpose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are held in the highest regard. Thousands of rheumatic sufferers in many lands have definitely found relief by this approved treatment, the discovery of a Canadian doctor.

High praise—and yet typical of recommendations received daily — comes from Mrs. Simon Rae, R. R. 2, St. Mary's, Ont. "I was a sufferer from neuritis and rheumatism", she writes, "for over four years. Nothing seemed to help me and I thought I was going to be a cripple for life. After taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I am now able to do all my own work. I feel that there is nothing like them."

Begin now to build up your defences. Buy Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at your druggist's or by mail at 50 cents a box, postpaid.

An exceptionally large card party of one hundred and two tables of euchre was held last evening in the Community Hall of Ashburnham, the overflow being accommodated in the school of The Immaculate Conception parish, under the auspices of the members of the Holy Name Society of the East City Church. The gold pieces given for the highest aggregate score were won by Mrs. Ted Crowe and Mr. Thomas O'Brien. The first prize for ladies, a silver salt and pepper set, was won by Miss Minnie Allen, and the gentleman's first prize (a blanket), went to Mr. Gene Hurtubise. The second prizes for men and women went to Mrs. McKay (a water pitcher and glasses), and Mr. F. Storey (a fountain pen). Mr. Storey also captured a special prize and Mr. William Devlin secured the ham which was given as a door prize. Later, refreshments were served by the ladies.

• • •

Miss Ella Meagher of 360 Aylmer street, celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary this week by entertaining twenty of her small girl friends at a Valentine party. The table was prettily decorated with Valentine favors in red hearts and cupids, and a large red heart formed the base for the birthday cake, with its ten lighted candles. Two red cupids, Valentine serviettes and red and white caps, completed a very attractive decorative scheme. The little hostess received a large number of pretty and useful gifts from her guests. Among those present were Rena LaPlante, Jessie Glover, Alma Duffy, Nora Corkery, Kathaleen Doris, Helen Burke, Loretta Meagher, Madeline Jay, Marion Schooley, Barbara Hickey, Millie Cullen, Joan McMurray, Margaret McFadden, Pauline Huppe, Agnes Lynch, Rita Meagher, Evelyn Blodgett and Lucille Hynes. Mrs. M. Meagher was assisted in the service of refreshments by Mrs. M. C. Goodwin and Mrs. M. Ball.

• • •

Mr. Ernest Bathgate of Douro street was host last evening at a very enjoyable bridge party of five tables, held at his home. This is the fifth bridge party to be held by the members of this group and the play is not for prizes, but for the honor of winning the games. At the conclusion of the games, a delicious lunch was served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Borland, Miss Young, Miss Margaret Reid, Miss Vera Kennedy, Ethelwyn and Milton Clysdale and Mr. Jack Smith.

• • •

Miss 'Buddy' Payne is spending the week-end with friends in Toronto, and was a guest last night at the Masquerade Ball held by the Bank of Montreal at the Royal York Hotel.

• • •

Miss Gladys Smith of Omemee was a guest yesterday of Miss Margaret Wyllie, McDonnel street, and attended the Valentine party of the Caledonian Club, last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lawrence of Fredericton, N. B., have returned home after spending some time in the city with the former's uncle, Mr. G. White of the White House.

Under the auspices of the Women's Association of Murray Street Church, a very successful supper which took the form of a progressive repast, was held last evening in the ladies' parlors of the church. It was called the "Feast of Seven Tables" and was a seven-course supper attended by over two hundred guests. Sixteen guests were served in relays at each table, with a different color scheme at each and appointments, menus and floral decorations carried out in corresponding hues. At the first table, done in red, in charge of Mrs. B. Jackson, a fruit cocktail was served. The second table, in white, in charge of Mrs. L. J. Pettit, had veal, creamed potatoes, pickled onions and white bread and butter. The third table, in brown, where baked beans and brown bread and tea were served, was in charge of Mrs. J. Wearing, while Mrs. G. Post, assisted by Mrs. H. Frise, was hostess at the fourth table, in green, with a salad course. Mrs. Gordon Matthews was in charge of the fifth table, where the orange note was carried out in the orange cakes and jellies. At the sixth table, with yellow tarts as the main item, Mrs. E. Brumwell was in charge, while the last and seventh table had Mrs. D. A. Loomis as its presiding hostess and was carried out in pink, with a unique centerpice in a small ship with a silver anchor and a pennant emblazoned with the words: "Murray Street W. A." During the supper hour, the orchestra of George Street United Church furnished very enjoyable music. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. F. Irons, president of the society, and Mrs. Alexander Scott acted as general convenor.
